PUTRAJAYA, July 24 (Bernama) -- Yang di-Pertuan Agong Sultan Muhammad V is scheduled to grace the Parade in conjunction with the Warriors' Day Celebration this year at the National Heroes' Square, Precinct 1, here on Tuesday.

The Prime Minister's Department said in a statement today that Prime Minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad, Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail and other dignitaries including the top managements at the ministerial and departmental levels would be present.

The organisation of the parade this time is being led by the Malaysian Armed Forces (ATM).

The Warriors' Day is celebrated on July 31 each year to remember the struggles and sacrifices of the members of the national security forces to protect national prosperity and sovereignty.

The statement said the Warriors' Day celebration next Tuesday would begin at 10.30 am and a 21-gun salute would be fired by the ATM at the Taman Putra Perdana near the Hotel Pulse Grande, here.

The Warriors' Day training session will begin on Thursday until the actual day next Tuesday starting at 8 am while the full rehearsal will be held on Sunday beginning at 10.30 am.
