SHAH ALAM, June 28 (Bernama) -- PKR president Datuk Seri Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail has confirmed that the party will impose a certain fee on its members who wish to contest in the party election this year.

The Deputy Prime Minister said the amount of fees was agreed during the previous party meeting.

"The matter is in the circular and we do not have government agencies to bear the cost as this is a party matter. The party has made the rules that we will share the election cost," she told reporters after attending the Darul Ehsan Institute (IDE) Aidilfitri Open House here today.

Also present were Selangor Menteri Besar Amirudin Shari, IDE chairman Prof Datuk Dr Siddiq Fadzil and his deputy chairman Prof Datuk Dr Mohammad Redzuan Othman.

Recently, it was reported that those who wish to contest the president and deputy president post in the 2018 PKR polls had to pay RM25,000 and RM20,000 respectively.

For the vice president post, RM10,000 would be imposed and for the member of the central leadership council post, candidates should pay a sum of RM5,000.

At the central wing level, those contesting for the chief post will be imposed a fee of RM10,000, deputy chiefs (RM7,000), vice-chiefs (RM5,000) and RM3,000 for the leadership council member's post.
