PETALING JAYA, Aug 31 (Bernama) -- Pakatan Harapan (PH) candidate for the Seri Setia by-election Halimey Abu Bakar is confident the issue on 1Malaysia People's Aid (BR1M) and the 100-day promise by the PH government will not have an impact on the Selangor people, especially constituents in the Seri Setia state constituency.

He said this being that the contribution provided by the Selangor government under the "Inisiatif Peduli Rakyat" (IPR) was higher and more beneficial to the people.

"They (Seri Setia constituents) never ask nor mention about BR1M or the 100-day when I met them," he told a media conference here today.

He said this when asked on the campaign by the opposition parties that the issue on BR1M and the 100-day promise by the PH government would have impact on the voters.

The issue of BR1M pertains to Prime Minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad's intention to reduce the financial aid in stages, prior to its abolishment, and in regarding the aid as a form of corruption and that it was not given fairly to those who deserved it.
