Also present at the ceremony were Prime Minister's wife Tun Dr Siti Hasmah, Health Minister Dr Dzulkefly Mohamad and MMA president Dr Mohamed Namazie Ibrahim.

Dr Mahathir was also asked to comment on the Election Court's decision today which declared Barisan Nasional's (BN) victory for the Cameron Highlands parliamentary seat in the 14th general election (GE14) as null and void.

Dr Mahathir, who is Pakatan Harapan (PH) chairman said the coalition would hold discussions on the matter that might lead to the decision on the candidate contesting the seat.

"We have several candidates to choose from," he said.

In the meantime, Dr Mahathir said the government was responsible for providing good medical services to the people including medicines.

At the event, Dr Mahathir was also awarded the MMA Lifetime Achievement Award while Tun Siti Hasmah was honoured as Honorary Member of the MMA.
