VIENNA, Jan 22 (Bernama) -- The International Association of Anti-Corruption Authorities (IAACA) today launched the Dr Mahathir Mohamad Fund to help anti-graft officers who face risks in the line of duty.

The announcement was made by IAACA president Dr Ali Fetais Al-Marri during his opening address at the 10th IAACA Annual Conference and General Meeting at the Vienna International Centre here.

Al-Marri, who is also Qatar Attorney General, said the fund carried the name of the Malaysian Prime Minister in recognition of Dr Mahathir's efforts in fighting graft.

Al-Marri said Qatar had agreed to start up the fund with 1million Qatar Riyal (RM1.14 million).

The conference closes on Thursday (Jan 24).
