KUALA LUMPUR, March 26 (Bernama) -- Permatang Pauh MP Nurul Izzah Anwar's statement about Prime Minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad is her personal view, and was made in line with the principle of openness practised by the Pakatan Harapan (PH) coalition, said PH de facto leader and PKR president Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim.

He said the PH coalition remains supportive of Dr Mahathir's leadership, but the members of the party are free to voice their views if they have differing opinions.

“We in PH have already made it clear to give room and support to Tun Mahathir's efforts. It does not mean that we cannot differ in our opinions. Some people think this is like the previous government where there cannot be any criticism.
