

Malaysia joins OIC meeting on Israeli violations in Jerusalem

17/07/2019

KUALA LUMPUR, July 16 (Bernama) -- Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs, Datuk Marzuki Yahya will be leading Malaysia's delegation to the Open-Ended Extraordinary Meeting of the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) Executive Committee at the level of Foreign Ministers which will be held in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia on July 17, 2019.

The Foreign Ministry (Wisma Putra) said meeting will discuss the Israeli violations in the occupied city of Jerusalem and that Marzuki Yahya will be delivering Malaysia's statement at the meeting.

The OIC Executive Committee is expected to issue a statement at the end of the meeting.

Malaysia's participation at the meeting is a testament of its unwavering commitment to the Palestinian cause, and reaffirms the role of the OIC in efforts to end the Israeli occupation of Palestinian territories since 1967, the statement added.
