17/07/2019

KUALA LUMPUR, July 17 (Bernama) – Malaysia will continue to convince the other ASEAN members on finding the best solution to the plight of the ethnic Rohingya.

Foreign Affairs Minister, Datuk Saifuddin Abdullah said Malaysia was preparing a strategic paper to identify the optimum role in assisting the Rohingya community.

“As a small player, we also need to balance between courage to bring the Myanmar criminals to justice and taking into consideration our other interests with Myanmar,” he said in the Dewan Rakyat today.
