LIBREVILLE (Gabon), April 19 (Bernama)-- The President of the Republic of Gabon, Ali Bongo Ondimba Thursday urged the media of the Muslim world to be first in line to promote and disseminate the values of true Islam, in order to remedy to the serious misunderstanding of Islam that feeds all the prejudices of Islamophobia.

He said faced with the rise of Islamophobia, wise voices had been raised in the Muslim world, including by King Abdullah Abdelaziz, the ruler of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, who had called for a dialogue of religions and cultures.

He also noted that Muslims must denounce Islamophobia and fight in every legitimate way to condemn any form of terrorism while vigorously rejecting attacks on the sacred values of Islam.
