KUALA LUMPUR, 21 Nov (Bernama) -- Dewan Negara president Tan Sri Abu Zahar Ujang today received a courtesy call from the President of the Senate of the Parliament of the Czech Republic, Milan Stech, at his office at the Parliament building today.

During the one-hour meeting, the two senate presidents discussed economic, political and social relations between Malaysia and the Czech Republic.

Abu Zahar said Malaysia could share ideas on green technology as the Czech Republic had the expertise in the field.

"Tourism was also one of the topics discussed, where they believe Malaysia has the potential to enhance the sector," he added.

There are more than 300 Malaysian students studying in various fields in the republic.

The Czech Republic delegates also paid a courtesy call on Dewan Negara Speaker Tan Sri Pandikar Amin Mulia at his office in the Parliament building.
