CHENGDU, Aug 22 (Bernama) -- Joe Biden, vice president of the United States, on Monday morning left Chengdu, capital of southwest China's Sichuan Province, wrapping up his six-day official visit to China.

During his stay, Biden met with President Hu Jintao, top legislator Wu Bangguo and Premier Wen Jiabao in Beijing.

Vice President Xi Jinping held talks with him also in the capital and accompanied him to Sichuan, reports China's news agency Xinhua.

Biden arrived in Beijing last Wednesday at the invitation of Xi.
