PUTRAJAYA, Sept 29 (Bernama) -- Wife of the Vietnamese president Mai Thi Hanh spent about one-and-a-half hours at the Permata Negara Centre at Precinct 16 here Thursday.

She was accompanied by the Prime Minister's wife, Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor, who is patron of the Permata Negara programme.

Hanh was briefed on the management and operation of the centre for children aged between one and four years.

She observed the children drawing, singing and preparing food.

Hanh is accompanying President Truong Tan Sang on a three-day state visit to Malaysia which began yesterday.
