JAKARTA (Aug 15, 2011): Indonesian prosecutors today urged a provincial court to impose a year's jail on the great granddaughter of the late Indonesian president Suharto, Putri Aryanti Haryowibowo (pix), for a drug offence.

A member of the prosecution, Trimono, told a south Jakarta provincial court that the prosecution had successfully proven that Putri had consumed syabu based on laboratory tests.

Putri's defence will submit on the case on Thursday.

Police arrested Putri and two others, including a policeman, on March 18 at a hotel here where they recovered 0.88gm of the substance as well as drug paraphernalia. – Bernama
