KUALA LUMPUR, Jan 10 (Bernama) — Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim has given assurance that close cooperation between the federal and Pahang governments will continue to be strengthened for the well-being of the people in the state.

Anwar, in a post on his official Facebook page today, said that he received a courtesy call from Pahang Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Wan Rosdy Wan Ismail and a delegation from the Pahang government in Putrajaya this morning.

“The meeting touched on aspects of development as well as the progress and prosperity of Pahang.

“Insya-Allah, the close cooperation between the federal government and Pahang will continue to be strengthened for the well-being of the people of Pahang in particular,” he said.
