PUTRAJAYA, May 17 — Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim today attended the MADANI Aidilfitri open house organised by the Prime Minister's Department (JPM) at Dewan De' Seri Endon, Puspanitapuri here.

He was greeted by Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Fadillah Yusof, Chief Secretary to the Government Tan Sri Mohd Zuki Ali and Director-General of Public Service Datuk Dr Zulkapli Mohamed upon his arrival at 12.46pm.

Also present were Cabinet ministers including Transport Minister Anthony Loke, Communications and Digital Minister Fahmi Fadzil, Women, Family and Community Development Minister Datuk Seri Nancy Shukri and Minister in the Prime Minister's Department (Religious Affairs) Datuk Mohd Na' im Mokhtar.

Anwar spent almost an hour at the event, also attended by about 3,000 civil servants from agencies and departments under JPM.

He then proceeded to attend the Aidilfitri open house hosted by the Ministry of Health (MOH) at the Malaysia Agro Exposition Park Serdang (MAEPS).

On hand to greet him upon his arrival were Health Minister Dr Zaliha Mustafa, Deputy Health Minister Lukanisman Awang Suani and Health Director-General Datuk Dr Muhammad Radzi Abu Hassan.

Anwar also spent time mingling with the ministry's staff and its agencies at the event.

The Aidilfitri open house was attended by about 7,000 guests who were served various Raya delicacies including lemang, ketupat and grilled lamb.
