Dr M opens library on ex-premiers

PUTRAJAYA: A comprehensive collection of books, speeches, documents and information on the four former prime ministers is available at the Perdana Library, the core project of the Perdana Leadership Foundation.

Former Prime Minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad officially opened the library located at Precinct 8 here yesterday.

Member

The Perdana Library's compilation on Tunku Abdul Rahman, Tun Abdul Razak, Tun Hussein Onn and Dr Mahathir are in the form of monographs, news clippings, sound recordings and video footage, lectures and interviews, policy papers, slides and photographs, poems, memoirs and essays.

30-Day Archives

The library also offers online access and loans through <http://library.perdana.org.my:8000>

Contests

The Perdana Leadership Foundation is established with contributions from 26 companies and individuals.

Games

Each of them donated RM1mil, except for Petronas which contributed more than RM3mil.

Extras

In addressing the gathering, board of trustees chairman Tan Sri Azizan Zainul Abidin said the library was modelled after the Scripps Library, a private sector-funded library on national policies in the United States.
