A Bibliography

The Institute of Southeast Asian Studies (ISEAS) was established as an autonomous organization in 1968. It is a regional centre dedicated to the study of socio-political, security and economic trends and developments in Southeast Asia and its wider geostrategic and economic environment

The Institute's research programmes are the Regional Economic Studies (RES, including ASEAN and APEC), Regional Strategic and Political Studies (RSPS), and Regional Social and Cultural Studies (RSCS)

The ISEAS Library is a regional centre which houses a unique collection of over 500,000 Southeast Asian materials on applied social sciences. The items are in English, European, and Southeast and East Asian languages. While its main emphasis is on contemporary Southeast Asia, it also has archival titles in microform and print, as well as invaluable primary sources of information in its Private Papers collections.

The Library supports the research programmes of the Institute and serves in-house researchers, visiting scholars, researchers and specialists on the region from within and outside of Singapore. It is also open to Government officials, postgraduate students, professionals, the business and diplomatic communities, and any person interested to do research on Southeast Asia.
