MINISTER'S FOREWORD

The publication of this Malaysia 2018 : The Official Yearbook is an important approach steered by the Department of Information Malaysia which act as a primary reference on the national policy planning and direction in the future.

On top of that, the publication of this book is capable to gives a comprehensive picture about Malaysia albeit the content of this book only includes a brief history of the country and state profile, the Malaysian constitution and ruling system, economic reports and the achievements of all ministries.

The contents of this book covers the data collected since May until December 2018.

Malaysia captured a new history in 2018 when Pakatan Harapan has successfully took the government office and established a new line up of the Malaysian Government after winning in the stunning outcome of the 14th general election.

I would like to take this opportunity to assert the government's commitment to continually strive to strengthen our efforts to support Department of Information Malaysia in marketing the government policy and its development achievement as well as keeping in touch with the people.

Congratulations to the Department of Information Malaysia on its effort to publish Malaysia 2018: The Official Yearbook, which suffice and coincide with its role parked under the Ministry of Communications and Multimedia Malaysia in disseminating authentic and accurate information.

I am proud of the commitment and the spirit of teamwork provided by all parties in realising the documentation of this book. May the efforts and dedication of the Department of Information Malaysia in pursuing this educational publication continue to be used by all parties in disseminating the information towards the public.
