PERDANA LEADERSHIP FOUNDATION is a foundation established to preserve, develop and spread information regarding former Prime Ministers of Malaysia. The foundation's main aim is to increase awareness of Malaysia's intellectual heritage based on its belief that past leadership can provide important resources and insights for future development [1]. Another of its objectives is to initiate greater understanding and co-operation between the world's cultures, religions and ways of life, while inspiring a positive change in the values of Malaysians throughout the world.

Objectives of Perdana Leadership Foundation:

- To research, document, disseminate and publicise the intellectual legacies of Malaysia's past prime ministers.
- To elucidate and illuminate the contribution of Malaysia's past Prime Ministers in the social, economic and political development of the nation.
- To create awareness of the development process of the nation and serve as a platform for future development.
- To be a resource centre of policies, strategies and initiatives that were adopted under Malaysia's various prime ministers which may be used and adapted as models for the development of other nations.

The Foundation's broader objective is to promote global understanding by providing a channel for scholars and thinkers to undertake research and idea-sharing.

:: OVERVIEW FACULTY OF LAW

Faculty of Law, UKM was established on 1st February, 1984 with the intake of 36 students; all being enrolled to the Law Matriculation programme. In 1986/87 session, the faculty started its undergraduate programme when all those 36 students were admitted to Year 1. In 1989, the faculty received the official recognition from the Qualifying Board established under the Legal Profession Act 1976. First batch of graduants were released in 1990. In 1996, the faculty obtained the approval from the Ministry of Education to initiate its Masters and Phds programmes.

:: VISION

The Faculty of Law is committed to be the leading faculty in legal fields and to create new ideas that fulfil the core of national development.

:: MISSION

To become an entity which is successful in producing legal professionals of excellent knowledge, ethics, appearance and personality within the framework of the national culture.

:: AIMS

- To have professional academicians who are highly distinguished in teaching, research and consultation.
- To produce graduates who are well trained and capable in various legal fields and practices, including syariah laws.
- To strengthen and enhance the faculty's image at national and international level.
