

THE SO-CALLED EMINENT PERSONS PANEL

Chedet.co.cc

September 2, 2008

by Dr. Mahathir Mohamad

1. Suddenly, in the aftermath of the disastrous Permatang Pauh by-election an announcement was made that a panel of retired judges from India and Pakistan and lawyers from Australia and Malaysia had been set up to review the 1988 judicial crisis in Malaysia.
2. The Panel was set up in August 2007. Yet until now there had been no news about it and its work. Now we are given its report mainly to blame me for what it termed Malaysian Judicial Crisis and the removal of Tun Salleh Abas as Lord President of the Malaysian Courts in 1988.
3. This is a new idea by the Bar Council to invalidate the findings of the Tribunals set up according to the Constitution of Malaysia, the Supreme Law of Malaysia. It is a negation of the rule of law and a slap in the face for the Malaysian King, the Yang di-Pertuan Agong.
4. It was the Agong who complained against Tun Salleh for writing two letters, one to complain about the noise made in repairing the Agong's residence and one alleging that the then Prime Minister was undermining the independence of the judiciary. Both letters were extended to all the Rulers which the Agong regarded as putting pressure on him. He found the letters offensive and against the Malay custom in which the customary thing to do was to have an audience with his Majesty and to make verbal complaints. The letters could follow but should be to him alone. He then requested me as PM to remove Tun Salleh as Lord President.
5. In keeping with the provisions of the Constitution a Tribunal was set up. But Tun Salleh tried to stop the Tribunal from doing its work and reporting to the King.
6. Now the Bar Council is resorting to extra-legal means to vilify me. If it can set up panels to nullify the findings of a properly constituted Tribunal then everyone should have a right to set up panels to negate the findings of the Malaysian courts, Tribunals and Commissions. There is no need to appeal to the higher courts set up for the purpose of hearing appeals against the decisions of lower courts. It should be noted that Tun Salleh had not resorted to the courts over the findings of the Tribunal.
7. Is this what we call the rule of law which the Bar is said to advocate? If you cannot get the judgment you want in a proper court, then set up your own court and get the decision you want. But do it quietly in case the decision, despite your choice of panel members, did not decide in your favour. The whole thing stinks of political skulduggery - an attempt to get at someone and to seek revenge for some imagined wrong done in my past.
8. There seems to be a pattern here. First we have a Royal Commission set up to find that I had been influenced in my choice of judges. Then we have Justice Chin, secure in his court accusing me of threatening to sack judges. And now this private and mysterious court to blame me for the "Judicial Crisis" of 1988.
9. I wonder what else will be coming. The President of the Bar Council is very pally with the de-facto Law Minister and the Prime Minister. Even the dinner given by the Bar is paid by the Government.
10. If by these vilifications they think I would stop criticising this corrupt government and its allies then they are wrong. I am not intimidated.
11. As a matter of curiosity, perhaps the Bar Council would like to enlighten the public regarding the cost of the panel, who paid for it and how much did each member get? Or is this another secret of a secretive Bar and its shenanigans.

Kerajaan sekarang tengah mencari "scape goat" dan menuduh dimana tidak ada kesalahan berlaku kerana tiada cara lain bagi melepaskan tension kerana kalah kepada parti pembangkang. Rakyat paham keadaan ini dan inilah yang akan menyebabkan kejatuhan empayar Barisan Nasional kepada parti pembangkang.

Boss,

Bagus kasi PM kita 2 term saja macam Amerika. Jadi Tun tidak lagi bingung - bingung pikir pasal si Badawi. Pencen terus. Kalau gitu, Malaysia pun aman...

Dear Tun,

Assalamualaikum,

The defacto law minister should also reveal how much back dated pension, compensation etc. etc. paid to the great Salleh Abas!

Shame on you Ambiga & Co.

Thank you,

Wassalam.

Salam Tun & Selamat Berpuasa,

Thanks again for another interesting piece. I'm waiting for what they are going to do next.

Assalamualaikum Ayahanda Tun ,

Ayahanda , seems the Bar Council nowadays is rubbish , they're practising the law of the jungle . They support whoever they like though the person's character is questionable , people like Anwar of course , who meets their aims perfectly to be a Malaysian-Malaysian and to abolish the monarchy .Anwar clearly rejects the system of khalifa or sistem beraja which clearly stated in the hadith.

Bar council has now go 'mereng' .

Assalamualaikum YABhg. Tun

Amat memeranjatkan apabila Majlis Peguam cuba membela langkah kerajaan memberikan ex-gratia kepada bekas hakim. Mereka sanggup mencari sokongan dari India, Pakistan dan Australia untuk menghalalkan tindakan kerajaan.

Semoga YABhg. Tun sekeluarga dirahmati Allah.

Good evening Tun,

Nowdays,

- 1) Cakap lain, buat lain...
- 2) Tak boleh buat pun, cakap jugak...
- 3) Rakyat minta, tak nak buat...
- 4) Rakyat tak nak, dia mahu buat...
- 5) Yang tak berlaku, kata berlaku...
- 6) Yang berlaku, tak bagi siar...

Yang paling teruk, hari ini cakap, esok tukar... kenapa tak fikir masak-masak dulu, atau tanya pendapat pakar dulu...banyak pakar dalam sektor kerajaan/swasta...gunakan lah mereka...jangan lah semua kepakaran rakyat Malaysia sia-sia sahaja kerana kepongohan dan ketidaktelusan sesetengah pihak..

That's my conclusion... hopefully pendek, padat, berisi...

Salam Ayahanda Tun

Once again, The Judges, The Lawyers and whoever study the laws (not the laws of GOD), they are GREAT liars. The lawyers tongue like a snake, they will stab us back!

I never spare my belief in lawyers though my wife is a lawyer, and I know she is a great liars! Then she quit as lawyer, I began to understand why she ran away being a lawyer, they do the most dirties job on earth!

Salam Tun

Selamat Menyambut Bulan Ramadhan

Copy to Pak Lah

I think you better stop finding other people's fault. Remember that once you retire, someone else will find your fault (and your family).

The election has send a waving message at you, but it seems that you are just playing dumb and deaf. Do take these constructive critics and try to learn from the sifu.

A good friend has told me, stupidity is when a man would repeat his/her mistakes and would not learn anything from it.

Selamat Menyambut Bulan Ramadhan to you also Pak Lah.

Thank you very much

All the actions using Bar Council and all kind of laws groups were made by government supports. They want to make you (Tun) to be called a dictator.

After you got a bad name, it's easier to stop you from complaining against government.

Tun,

I have to get this off my chest. I've been following your blog since day one. I've seen the traffic to your site increasing by many times in such a short duration. And unlike many blogs, most of your readers takes joy and pride in putting in their comments.

I have an issue with these comments though. I'm sure you noticed that many of them will just say "Yes Tun, we support you and down with the rest blah-blah-blah...". Like many of them, I too admire your works and writing but I just wish that they'd all stop "brown nosing" and contribute something meaningful.

We should be a nation of thinkers and doers and not just "yes men".

Having said, on the Bar Council, they are just good at "menjaga tepi kain orang lain" Tun. Their house is in disarray. They can't even get their members to agree on increasing the annual subscription to allay their increasing costs. You should try to attend one of the Bar's AGMs. It's the longest AGM in this country. It starts in the morning and only ends an hour or so before their annual dinner. Everyone talks and talks and talks. They talk about everyone but themselves. Their holier than thou attitude is revolting.

During my schooldays, one of my teacher, Mr.Sallahudin who taught us Chemistry said that, the Jews was special during the good all days. No race are better enough treated by Allah other than the Jews. Man you study the history, how these people got their free food from the sky for almost 300 days, before they asked for other dishes and got bored with the food they got everyday? Correct me if Im wrong. My teacher also made an analogical deduction, he said "Bangsa yahudi ni buat salah macam-macam, tapi Allah tetap ampunkan. Seperti kamu, Siddiq. Cikgu kenal kamu. Kalau kamu calarkan kereta cikgu, kemudian kamu minta maaf, Cikgu akan maafkan kamu. Sebab cikgu kenal kamu. Tapi kalau orang lain, Cikgu akan marah sebab Cikgu tak kenal mereka. Jadi Allah "kenal" Yahudi ni, sebab tu Allah mengampunkan dosa mereka walaupun mereka tetap melakukan dosa kepada Allah. Betapa istimewanya Yahudi dahulu."

Wow..Wow..Wow. Jewish was a group of slaves during the Firaun's reign in Egypt. They served Firaun for almost century, being a slaves and servants to him. But now they are supreme. Supreme in politics, tycoon in economics, and inventor of everything. They march technologies very quickly. They are clever and smart though they are minority. And now they continue to kill the Muslim. Yeah I agree the land they fight for now was belong to them thousand years ago. Now they come to claim the land from the Palestinian. If we read the history books, the struggle of Nabi Ibrahim, Yaakob and Isa proves the existance of their population in that particular area long time ago. They ran away, fled to various countries to seek for refuge, when Hitler launched a war against them. Hitler killed nearly 6 Million out of 12 Million Jews and the amount increases rapidly in just within years. These Jewish then start their new life after the 1st World War ends. Now here they are.

What makes Jews so special? Only God has the answer.

Salam Tun,

Another bullet real bullets.

Inilah badan atau orang-orang yang menghina DYM Agong.

Ampun Tuanku,

Patik merasa bimbang jika tiada tindakan diambil sekarang, mereka-mereka ini makin bertambah kurang ajar, menghina, mencabar maruah bangsa Melayu. Atau pun apa sahaja tindakan Tuanku yang bersesuaian, patik menjunjung kasih ke bawah Duli Tuanku.

Ampun Tuanku, sembah patik harap diampun.

<http://writtenbyhim.wordpress.com/2008/08/31/51st-merdeka-special-message/>

Janganlah kita lupa kepada nama-nama pejuang kemerdekaan yang telah mengorbankan nyawa mereka dahulu demi memberikan kesenangan kepada kita semua.

Tok Janggut, Tok Gajah, Datuk Maharajalela, Naning, Rosli Dobi, Leftenan Adnan, Kanang (masih hidup), dan bapa kemerdekaan kita, Tunku Abdul Rahman.

Setelah sekian lama, kita hidup dalam keadaan aman dan damai. Tiada siapa mempersoalkan hak sesiapa. Tiada siapa merompak hak sesiapa.

Tetapi hari ini kita sudah mula tidak tenang. Kita memberontak. Kita mula merasakan hak kita dirompak. Kita mula benci sesama sendiri. Amat malang ini berlaku kerana ia adalah mainan sesetengah ahli politik yang mahu merampas kuasa secara bacul.

Tetapi terbukti di Malaysia, kita masih aman kerana ahli-ahli politik seperti ini masih boleh terus meneruskan agenda jahat mereka.

Kita mesti menoleh sejarah, dan fahami matlamat penubuhan Malaysia. Mengapa hampir 50 tahun kita bisa hidup begini, sekarang tidak lagi?

Adakah selepas 50 tahun, ia sudah tidak relevant? Adakah selepas 50 tahun, ia sudah menjadi suatu undang-undang yang lapuk? Janganlah begitu. Adillah kepada diri sendiri dan orang lain.

Kita hidup didalam sebuah negara yang berbilang kaum, seharusnya kita menghormati antara satu sama lain dan elakkan dari membincangkan perkara yang sensitif.

WHY ANWAR CANNOT BECOME THE PRIME MINISTER!

<http://writtenbyhim.wordpress.com/2008/08/24/why-anwar-cannot-become-the-prime-minister/>

<http://writtenbyhim.wordpress.com/2008/08/04/bar-council-make-your-voice-valuable/>

The recent fiasco of Prime Minister Abdullah Badawi had welcomed many NGOs to speak, and eventually brought up to the existence of a very strong opposition during his reign as the number one premier. I am not saying it is bad, but actually it has prospered the wisdom of total democracy to be practiced in this country. nevertheless, in marching into this so called democracy pathway, we shall behave according to law and morality, as respect to the rights of other people in nature. and of course, to defend the constitution.

Contrary to what is supposed to be done by a legal body such as BAR Council (Majlis Peguam), they are inviting threats to the national security, I must say. Lately there was a forum conducted by the BAR, which is the social contract, where by the body clearly stressed out that the Malay privileges might want to be abolished. despite of their sincerity of whether this special privileges must continue to exist or not, what is a forum to be significant since the motion of the debate was tasked and "judged" by themselves respectively? And this week, the BAR once again made a controversial movement by proposing to have a forum entitled the conversion to Islam, and apprehend to discuss about the significance of 121(1A) to be reviewed back since it has been a barrier to both jurisdiction namely the civil and syariah court.

Ironically, the issue of whether this article should be the subject matter of a discussion, especially when it come from a legal body providing lawyers such as BAR, to have a discussion of whether this law should be in enforcement or not, is it in their vicinity of concern? the judges does not even plug a word regarding this issue. the present law is adequate enough to uphold the current circumstances, as it does not interfere both jurisdiction, neither syariah nor the civil.

If BAR were to question out their disagreement regarding the verdict given by the Syariah that does not even favour the non-muslim parties, I would like to ask BAR, that are the Muslims even agree with the decision given by the Civil court in the first place? Is there any provision in Islam stating that the punishment for an illegal possession of ammunition or weapon could amount to the wrong doer to death penalty? But what can the Muslim do to against this unfair law? since the constitution has been a fundamental law of this land, we have no choice except to abide it. what do BAR council expect when they want this 121(1A) to be reviewed back? so lets shut down this constitution and replace it with a combination of syariah law that only applies to the Muslim and civil law that only applies to the non-Muslim respectively. Is Datuk Ambiga, the President of BAR council is here to answer my question?

I read a book, not actually a book but rather a piece of pamphlet written by a lawyer, Matthias Chang, challenging Datuk Ambiga, to have a public debate since she was defending the untrue allegation without basis made by Justice Datuk Ian Chin.

Well basically I feel that Justice Ian Chin is not suppose to disclose such statement since he made shame to the Bench (Brothers of Judges, I supposed). He previously alleged that former Prime Minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad made a threat against the judiciary, despite of the information I got that, Ian Chin actually did not agree with the appointment of Richard Malanjum, to become the Chief Judge of Sabah And Sarawak, as he feels that he was supposed to get promoted to the seat and not Malanjum. suprisingly, Datuk Ambiga was in the view that Justice Ian Chin was true, before Ian Chin retracted his statement and consequently cause harm to the Bench.

This brings up a very clear view that the BAR council is trying to fight for the judiciary, well a very good of that, but looking at this fiasco, the BAR seems like to support any motion against the government, regardless of whether it was made with or without basis.

I hope the BAR council will make their voice valuable in the future and continue its objective of being an NGO body. play our part as an NGOs and behave like one. we are not a political body i must say. the capacity for being an NGOs has much better advantage rather than being a political body. if BAR were to present themselves as a political body, donot stand by the BAR council's name. Go and join UMNO or DAP or PKR or maybe PAS. BAR council mustn't be political instituted.

If this institution is some sort of government formated, or maybe cabinet constituted, and Datuk Ambiga is likely to act as the Prime Minister of the BAR, she should has resign by now.

I was much looking for a better Malaysian ideas, not so old and crampy idea by digging the past and smear bad things towards others. Maybe Bar Council itself needed a tribunal to justify their actions of what they had done back these few weeks.

I have always regards Malaysia to be different (though lack of what western countries may look like), especially in formality. But nowadays, we dont see any respect anymore.

The constitution that supposed to uphold our nation and brings peace, not becoming a vigilant towards those who believe in it. Bar council has played many roles into putting fire and creating discomfort amongs the people.

Maybe it is time for us, not to devise a new Bar Council, but to look, investigate and justify those who is behind it.

God Bless Malaysia

<http://combinedforces.blogspot.com/2008/09/umno-memang-parti-perkauman.html>

Kecewa dengan sikap segelintir pemimpin UMNO, yang bersifat perkauman. contoh terbaru ketua UMNO bahagian bukit bendera yang telah membuat kontroversi mengatakan bahawa orang cina hanya penduduk sementara di Malaysia.

Kita handaklah mengawal perasaan..kalau tidak, tak mustahil 13 mei kedua berulang lagi. sebagaimana kaum lain yang harus menghormati Melayu dengan tidak membincangkan tentang isu sensitif secara terbuka, para pemimpin UMNO juga hendak lah berkelakuan sama.

Perbuatan menghunus keris - perlukah? cium cukup lah..tak payah nak hunus-hunus.. bayangkan MCA hunus pedang, Gerakan hunus tombak, DAP hunus bazooka roket mereka tu. Apa nak berperang ka?

Sudahlah dengan politik perkauman ini. seharusnya UMNO terus dengan agenda untuk membela nasib orang melayu, bukan dengan polemik politik yang tidak kemana.

UMNO jua lah yang memperjuangkan hak Raja-Raja Melayu.

DAP, DSAI, Majlis Peguam sudah melampau...

tapi.. dengan keadaan sekarang, saya yang sebelum ini merasa aman dan tenang mula rasa bahang dan kerap kurang sabar bila mengikuti perkembangan politik dan isu-isu semasa

MCA pun dah pandai mengungkit isu perkauman yang dibangkitkan oleh orang melayu, walhal orang melayu lah yang selama ini cukup bersabar dengan karenah mereka

Satu lagi posting yang sangat2 kami tunggu untuk TUN membuat ulasan tentang tiba2 sahaja baru2 ini Majlis peguam mengadakan tribunal mereka sendiri untuk mengadili semula kes tun Salleh Abas dan hakim2 lain yang dipecat.

Apa hak pulak hakim2 dari India, Pakistan dan Australia tu datang dan menjadi hakim2 dan mencampuri hal ehwal negara kita. Ini satu perbuatan melampau dan menghina kedaulatan negara.

Siapa kah dalang sebenarnya selain Ambiga. Apakah ZAID Ibrahim terlibat sama? Apa kah ini konspirasi Si Dol tu untuk menutup mulut dan kemaraan TUN dalam memperjuangkan suara rakyat dan mendedahkan salah laku Si Dol dan kunco2 nya.

Apa punya lemah nya seorang pemimpin menggunakan taktik kotor untuk melemahkan dan mengugut TUN supaya tidak bersuara. Taktik kotor yang tak berhemah lah punca orang2 PP menolak UMno.

Diingatkan pada si ZAID tu dah lah jangan gunakan taktik kotor semata nak membalas dendam pada TUN. Rakyat tau niat dan motive sebenar perkara sebegini boleh timbul semenjak duamenjak ni.

Sedar lah diri awak tu bukan di pilih oleh rakyat untuk jadi menteri. Kalau jadi calon waktu pru12 pasti nya awak kalah.

Kami yakin TUN di pehak yang benar. Kami akan sentiasa sokong TUN.

Salam Tun..

Why the Bar Council right now is becoming like a political party?
We know from history what has happened then in the 1988 judicial crisis. We know what Tun has done is right at that time, why do this Bar Council still want to question or dig out everything. It is seems like this Bar Council had a hidden agenda or political motivated..
By azly on September 2, 2008 5:01 PM

Tun,

The Bar Council is full of JOKERS....damn bloody JOKERS.....

They think of nothing of Malaysian Rules of Laws.

As usual, the flip-flop PM still repair the melon...It's cannot be done perfectly but getting worse somehow. All the common of law (common tradition law)were directed us to good pathway, but the government (today) still tried to block the way at the middle.

And of course, the reason to say "Tun had made wrong in his regimes". So, they want to repair and make sure everthing is ruin up. "Good Luck" to PM and "Be A Good Lick" to De Facto Minister of Law and Bar Council.

For Malaysian - Look and see the system is ruin out. May god blessed us.

Dearest Tun, I believe this is a last ditch effort by a weak and ineffective government to lash at anyone who is anti AAB and UMNO at present. When you corner an animal, it lashes out and implodes like the apparatus being used by the government to throw mud at you.
By Chris on September 2, 2008 5:05 PM

Sir,
From the going-ons, we can perceive some sort of conspiracy between the interested parties to fix you up for good. More likely, it is to shut you up. This is indeed intriguing, all the more because the Bar Council too seems to be hand in hand with the likes of Zaid and Co. You must get to the bottom of this scandalous workings of the AAB regime. There is a free for all going on in the political arena as of now and the nation is reeling from this waste of precious time. The world around us is moving on but we are stuck with the shenanigans of BN/UMNO/PKR. Come on Tun Sir, get on the field, to the forefront of the battle. Victory awaits!

Ayahanda Tun,

Saya semakin bingung dengan arah tujuh kerajaan sekarang. Tapi semakin lama saya memerhati, semakin jelas yang arah tujuh nya adalah tak lain dari memandang dan membelek perkara2 yang telah berlaku. Seterusnya cuba memindah mana2 yang dia kurang berkenan untuk memenuhi cita rasa pihak2 tertentu.

Isu yang paling diutamakan ialah isu-isu yang berkenaan dengan Tun. Mana-mana pihak yang memusushi atau kurang bersetuju dengan Tun akan dikumpul untuk sama-sama memastikan yang kononnya mereka semua ini telah lama teraniaya dan hanya dibawa pimpinan kerajaan sekarang lah mereka mula terbela.

Pak lah sedarlah semua pemimpin sebok tengok ke depan tapi Pak Lah sebok dengan hal silam saja nak jadi apa Malaysia ni. Sedarlah...kalau dah boleh memimpin baik bagi jelah jawatan tu kepada mereka yang lebih berkelayakan. Dah penatlah jadi rakyat Malaysia..asyik dengan cerita mengarut tak habis-habis.

Aduh..kenapalah Majlis Peguam ni sibuk pasal hal ni? Dah takde kerja lain ke? dah dapat ex-gratia yang tak sah pun nak bising lagi. Mentang-mentang sekarang zaman Pak Lah, semua orang dah berani mempersoalkan sesuatu yang tak pernah dipersoalkan sebelum nie. Pak Lah rasakan dia adalah seorang pemimpin yang bersikap terbuka dengan semua sehingga Pak Lah sendiri tunduk dengan tuntutan orang lain. Yang peguam pula, sibuk cari sokongan negara luar kononnya mereka di pihak yang benar. Secara tersirat nak beritahu dunia yang Pak Lah ni pemimpin yang bagus, Tun pula tersilap melucut jawatan Tun Salleh. Dah secara terang-terang, Tun Saleh buat surat tak puas hati dengan Agong disebabkan hal kecil je.

Tun,kami tetap akan menyokong Tun kerana Tun adalah pejuang bangsa dan negara yang sejati. Semoga Tun sentiasa sihat...amin..

Salam tun,

Saya juga tak akan halalkan dunia akhirat cukai yang saya bayar untuk diberi kepada hakim-hakim tersebut. Saya sentiasa menyokong Tun sekeluarga.

Ada orang sanggup mengadaikan hak istimewa orang melayu kerana nak power perintah malaysia.

Ada orang pula sanggup bersekongkong dengan org yg pernah dipanggil al juburi olh org tersebut juga untuk perintah malaysia.

Ada org pula sanggup mempertaruhkan agama islam dengan berpakat dengan kumpulan yng menentang agama islam juga untuk perintah malaysia. Kumpulan ini sanggup berpakat dengan bangsa lain daripada bangsa mealyu sendiri yg beragama islam demi POWER.

dearest tun,

My queries to the Bar Council, why resorts to judges from overseas? We have capable retired judges here. What's is the objective of having this review in our judiciary back in 1988 ? Move forward please, advise the government what needs to be improved. Do Malaysia a favour, help building a fair and respectable judiciary system here.

I feel that the judiciary system will fall under the weight of Tun Salleh's inflated ego as well as Bar Council's reckless propaganda.

Why is the current Chief Justice remain silent on this latest garb by the Bar Council? Shouldn't he be the one to discipline all of them? They are tarnishing the image of the Malaysian lawyers and yet, the CJ is quiet like a mouse!

Salam Sejahtera Ke Atas Semua, terutamanya Ayahanda Bonda Tun Berdua...

Confirm! Bar Council akan terus memijak-mijak kepala AbDolah dan Perlembagaan yang telah digunapakai selama ini demi memuaskan nafsu mereka yang selama ini terhalang ... Apabila seorang yang lemah sebagai pemimpin, maka inilah peluang mereka, membalun habis-habisan membalas segala dendam kesumat yang telah lama mereka pendam.

Ditambah pula dengan seorang Menteri (yang tidak menang PRU12) ... lagi sedap lah Bar Council membalun apa yang boleh ... (yang sebelum ini tak boleh).

Ditambah pula dengan kewujudan sebuah parti penipu yang ditubuhkan awalnya untuk membebaskan seorang pesalah liwat, kini parti itu meperjuangkan kononnya hak samarata, maka parti itu kini menambahkan lagi suara Bar Council... back-up mem back-up antara mereka ...

Akan hancurlah negara ini - jika ini dibiarkan berterusan, No.1 PERLU TURUN SEGERA! SEKARANG JUGA! ...

Dear Tun,

I am just as appalled that such a panel could have been set up with no reference whatsoever and now has its findings!!

I honestly believe that was set up to further embarrass you - to hide whatever shortcomings the present Government has.

The Bar Council is biased to say the least. Where is the rule of Law then? The people will know the truth and this will further alienate the people from the present Government and whose knows what will happen in the next General Election!!! They may lose all states?

In Japan, their PM takes responsibility and resigns; ours apparently do not know that.

Tun, you take care.

By kamal ahmad on September 2, 2008 5:27 PM

Tun, dengan pembentukan "eminent person panel" maka jelas pada pengamatan di tahap saya bahawa telah terdainya maruah kita sebagai orang Melayu di Tanah Melayu ini. Namun saya merasakan umum patut di beri pendedahan tentang apakah sebenarnya Majlis Peguam Malaysia ini, waimah fungsi serta skop tugasannya. Umum juga patut di berikan pendedahan tentang fakta pada skop ujian CLP yang dikendalikan oleh Majlis Peguam Malaysia ini. Pamparkan ketelusan untuk pemahaman umum. Kepada para peguam Melayu, selalulah juga toleh-toleh kebelakang demi untuk menjenguk semua ini. Saya masih mengharap akan ada wujudnya kelak Majlis Peguam Melayu Malaysia sebagai badan yang mendapat pengiktirafan penuh dan sama rata oleh kerajaan. Akhirnya buat coretan ini, izinkan saya berkongsi pengetahuan tentang bahasa daerah orang kampung sebelah utara yang juga menggunakan istilah "tahan tuaq" untuk keterbukaan yang keterlaluan.

Begini lah kelakuan atau perangai orang yang tak kenang jasa kepada pemimpin-pemimpin yang banyak berjasa kepada negara. Bagi Bar Council mereka ingin menunjukkan kekebalan mereka didalam undang-undang. Seolah-olah mereka lah orang yang paling layak untuk memberi keadilan.

Malangnya banyak lagi mereka tak tahu perkara-perkara yang lebih penting didalam pemerintahan Negara yang mempunyai kaum yang berbilang bangsa.

dEAR TUN,

i didn't know that Bar Council was treated nicely and free of charge at dining table where all rakyat pay so much money for everything now. It is not fair that this bunch of local lawyers who behave as if they are lawmakers in this nation. Most of them are lawbreakers instead of normal working lawyers. For the government de facto law minister, why is it so difficult to declare how much the government had given money to tun salleh abbas. They say it is not proper to tell how much they give to tun salleh. It doesn't matter tun salleh gets little or too much money they should inform the public how much. Was it rm1000 or a hundred thousand or a million ringgit? It was only ok not to tell if the money belong to somebody. But it was government's money - our money.

Assallammualaikum,

Apa yang nak dikatakan lagi.....4 tahun dahulu terlalu ramai yang memuji Pak Lah hingga beliau lupa diri.....

Sebenarnya kadang Pak Lah ni macam ditakdirkan sebagai "Pakar Merosak" PM sahaja....dia dah rosakkan banyak perkara dinegara ini sekadar mencari publisiti dan popularity.....dia semacam orang yang tak tahu nak berfikir.....mungkin ada tangan lain dibelakang tabir...Pak Lah hanya boneka....pasti ada tangan lain yang mengatur dibelakang...tak masuk akal seorang PM yang mewarisi kerajaan yang stabil dan gagah bertindak merosakkan dan menghancurkan negara ini sedikit demi sedikit.....

Terbaru Belanjawan 2009.....tak nampak bagaimana rangsangan terhadap ekonomi boleh dicapai, tak ada tindakan konstruktif ke arah membasmi atau mengurangkan tekanan inflasi.....yang paling pelik ialah bertambahnya peruntukan utk Jabatan PM...

Nampaknya Tun, negara ini secara perlahan sedang dibinasakan asasnya...kalau 2 beranak itu beriy-iya membantu Anwar dibebaskan...tak mungkin tindakan Pak Lah dengan mengerohkan dan menjadikan suasana tidak selesa dalam negara sekarang ialah satu jalan yang disediakan utk membolehkan anwar naik....mungkin.....

Dan Kalau keputusan Tribunal Hakim boleh disemak....makananya rakyat Sabah dan Sarawak boleh meminta supaya 20 perkara dahulu juga boleh disemak dan segala gantirugi perlu dibayar jika ada kekurangan dan pencabulan....makin gawat negara ini...lama kelamaan negara ini akan berkecai seperti mana USSR?soviet union berpecah....nanti masing-masing negeri mahu bebaskan diri dari cengkaman kerajaan Pusat yang semakin lemah dan tidak berwibawa...

Aslkm YBh Tun,

Mr. De-facto law Minister, what have you got to say about the Bar Council latest antic?. How can you have the audacity of depending the Bar Council when they decided to hold the recent forum touching on the religion of Islam when since time immemorial the Bar Council is known for its "Islam and Malay/Bumputera " bashing hence the action by the demonstrators was a mere consequential.

Personally I think the latest episode is just a continuance of an agenda to embarrass YBh Tun and it looks as if some external factors are supporting them (Guess who?). The Bar Council has created a new law of its own. If you are not satisfied by the decision of the legally set up judiciary system then form your own with the judges of your own choice and make sure the decision favours you. Sounds familiar!.

Salam buat yang dikasihi Tun dan Family,
Mendengar segala tuduhan dan beraneka macam bentuk cerita untuk memburukkan Tun bukan lah sesuatu yang memeranjatkan dan sudah dijangka. Majlis Peguam, Law Minister dan Pak Lah (si Pak Turut) ini semua nya sudah pasti akan melakukan apa saja demi memburukkan Tun. Majlis Peguam memang kita sedia maklum dibarisi dan dikuasai oleh Pembangkang dan tak hairanlah hampir kesemua orang orang atasan majlis peguam ni penyokong kuat DSAI dan tak seorang pun orang kuat ini pernah mengkeritik DSAI semenjak DSAI menjadi "pembangkang" tidak seperti semasa DSAI didalam kerajaan. Seperti yang Tun nyatakan, dan saya serta ramai lagi pun tahu bahawa ini semua konspirasi semata bagi memburukkan Tun dan sudah tentu ramai juga yang akan terpedaya namun sebahagian besar rakyat Malaysia masih berdiri teguh bersama Tun dan akan sentiasa menyokong Tun. Mari kita sama sama tunggu tarikh 16 September 2008 dan lihat ada perubahan tak....

Alamak Tun, saya ingat semua perkara ni remeh-temeh je. Yang dibuang dalam lokap tanpa "properly constituted Tribunal" baru lah boleh dikira judiciary crisis. Buang kerja itu perkara kecil je.

Contoh untuk judiciary crisis,

- 1) Sumpah boleh dijadikan bukti mahkamah. (tetapi kalo peliwat sumpah dia tak buat, boleh dijadikan bukti mahkamah jugak? pembunuh boleh sumpah dan dilepaskan?)
 - 2) ISA (tak usah huraikan secara terperinci).

itu adalah permainan pemimpin yang lemah tapi bercita2 tinggi untuk diri dan anak menantu. So cari lah scape goat untuk meyelamatkan diri.

Permainan Dollah badawai ini sudah lali dan dapat dibaca. Bajet 2009 pun macam bajet lelong tawaran murah,,, sedih tiada apa yang boleh dibanggakan. inflasi meningkat..kedudukan ekonomi tidak membanggakan, hanya sedikit karot untuk sabah dan sarawak spt yang dijangkakan oleh semua pihak ibarat "pancing ikan".

When I read about the Eminent Person Commission set-up Bar Council to investigate the 1998 Judiciary Issue involving Tun Salleh Abbas, I was suprised that such action was taken by BC of Malaysia.

Where is the Malaysian Government. Who authorised the BC to conduct such investigation. Does the BC have the right to set-up this commission and command such investigation and the finding by the previous tribunal which was formed in accordance to our legislation.

Where is AAB, Dato Najib and Zaid Ibrahim. Why are they keeping silent. What is the Malaysian goverment stand on this matter and its finding.

Does the Malaysian Government recognised this commission or is the goverment involved in establishing it. If yes, why and what is the justification. If no, why are they keeping quiet. Where is the respond.

What does the Malaysian law says on this matter. Is this allowed and whether the BC have broken the law. Or is this Human Right previliges and the rule of law as upheld by BC and all the pariah in it.

If truly there exists such things called the Rule of Law and Constitutional Monarchy in this country, then those responsible for this "Mother of all Scams" must be brought to justice.
The Bar Council and its 'High-flying, recently-hatched Datuk' must be hauled up before the Yang DiPertuan Agong to answer charges of Treason.
If this is not treason, I wonder how else we could define such concerted acts by a bunch of losers ...

We shall wait to see what action the government is taking against this idiot. For if the Malays is not satisfied, we shall react. If the Bar Council have no regards for the law of this country. Well and good, go back to India.

By twocents02 on September 2, 2008 6:55 PM

Dearest Dr M

Although you are no longer in govt or UMNO member, you are still very influential.

Ambiga is using this "free for all situation" to push forward her carefully planned agenda.

The series of actions taken by the Bar Council smacks of an obscured political motive, not so much legal ones.

The public funds used up does not benefit the rakyat at all, especially in these times of rising costs.

Paklelah and the Law Minister has given the green light, so they will race to optimise this golden opportunity.

To the proponents of the Malaysian Malaysia concept, Dr M seemed to be the seemingly biggest obstacle.

Ian Chin's debacle proved that Dr M still has the capacity to turn the tables on them, yet there was SILENCE from the Bar Council.

So now, they gather all those who have an AXE to grind to join forces and "demolish" Dr M. And voted ANWAR IBRAHIM has the criteria for a united force which is gaining momentum.

Strange in this supposedly more OPEN govt, there seems to be a lot more secrets and cases of corruption.

By the tone of your posting, we are VERY worried that your health may be affected. We pray for your well-being, especially in this special month of Ramadan. Do take care Dr M, your health takes precedence over anything else.

just got it and want to share with others who care...

THE MALAYSIAN MALAY

by Dr Syed Alwi of Singapore

Dear Editor,

As you know, I am an avid watcher of Malaysian affairs. I must confess that lately, Malaysia appears to be failing. Not a day passes by without more events that clearly highlight Malaysia 's race-religion fault-line. If things keep going this way, I fear for Malaysia 's future.

Today, schools in Singapore celebrate Racial Harmony Day. I can visibly see the joy in the children's faces as they wear their ethnic costumes and have fun together at school. But in Malaysia - even the right to choose a religion has become a sensitive, national issue. No doubt, there are many in Malaysia who hate my liberal views on Islam, family included. But I will say what I must say openly. I have come to the conclusion that Malaysia cannot progress any further without first addressing fundamental questions regarding its identity and soul.

I remember the days when we can laugh at Lat's cartoons on everyday Malaysian life. But sadly, the Islamic tide has polarised Malaysians. Some people ask why I should bother about Malaysian affairs since I am a Singaporean. May I remind Malaysians that it was Tan Siew Sin who once said that Singapore and Malaysia are Siamese Twins. Should Malaysia go down - it would hurt the region tremendously. Especially Singapore ..

Where do you think Malay apostates would head for if Lina Joy loses her case? Singapore of course! I find the Malaysian Malay to be very under-exposed. For them, it's all Islam and the NEP and everything under the sun would sort itself out. I am sorry to say this - but Islam and the NEP may be the cause of the undoing of the Malaysian Malay.

There is nothing wrong with religion or affirmative action. But, like everything else in life, they must be taken in moderation and with a pinch of salt. A little doubt is good. Unfortunately in Malaysia ,emotions over Islam have overcome reason. What we see today is the result of the NEP and Islamisation policies of the past thirty years or so.

No one owes Malaysian Malays a living. Let me assure you that should Malaysia fail - the Malaysian Malay will suffer enormously. And rightly so. After all - they have been pampered with all sorts of goodies over the years. They cannot now expect more goodies. Perhaps the day of reckoning for them, is near. Whatever it is, Malaysia had better wake up to the realities around her. The globalised world of the 21st century has no NEP to offer the Malaysian Malay. And humans cannot live by religion alone.

Regards,

Dr Syed Alwi

As a practising lawyer myself, i view with grave concerned that the Malaysian Bar now becoming a political tools not only to PKR & DAP, but to certain extend the present government. They ve a common goal i.e to discredit & running down you & to promote Malaysian Malaysia ala-DAP/PAP. Perhaps the Bar should look at their own misdeed and admit that they are many silence members of the Bar who disagreed & disassociated themselves from the Malaysian Bar stand with regard to the above topic.

By pakbelalangAuthor Profile Page on September 2, 2008 7:17 PM

Dear Tun,

All this is a "conspiracy" and could be the work of the backdoor de facto Minister of Law, an impressionist Zaid trying very hard working together with the Bar Council to "corner you, Tun". Without the slightest doubt Pak Lah must have known all this stupid action by them. What is their intention trying very hard to honour the ex-judges back to their original status ? When they had been found guilty by the Tribunals appointed by the Agong what bloody idiot they are trying to do now? The Minister of Law should be sacked for not respecting the Tribunals. The Bar Council members should go fly kite. They are a bunch of useless lawyers who have no other business to do because nowadays there is a glut of unproductive lawyers in town who are trying to create names themselves by creating issues so that they would be known by the people and be in the limelight. This is true with the President of Bar Council.

I must remind Zaid to declare the amount of ex-gratia payment to the rakyat. The payment is HARAM and the ex-judges must return the money back to the rakyat. The ex-judges DO NOT DESERVE TO HAVE THE MONEY simply because you they are guilty of wrong doing, period.

Aslkm Tun,

Sebenarnya undang-undang telah diperkotak-katikkan semata-mata untuk kepentingan peribadi. Macam cerita Hindustan dan kebetulan pula Tun pernah berkata Anuar minat filem hindustan. Nampaknya pemimpin-pemimpin UMNO sekarang sudah pandai berlakun. Pandai bersumpah! Lain kali tak perlu masuk mahkamah, cukup sekadar angkat sumpah. Buat apa mahkamah lagi. Tak tau lah Tun pun pandai berlakun. Minta-minta apa yang Tun tulis 'cakap serupa bikin' bukan 'cakap tak serupa bikin'.

Anuar boleh dikatakan 'burung kakak tua' yang pandai berkata-kata. Tun pun apa kurang, tetapi Tun bercakap sambil bekerja dan boleh membuktikan 'Malaysia Boleh!' Itu lah bezanya.

Apa yang dilakukannya di anggap suatu dongengan yang tak akan menjadi kenyataan. Kalaulah berlaku macam trajedi 8 mac sudah siapa yang harus disalahkan? Masa itu nasi sudah menjadi bubur.

Maaf Tun. Sepatutnya Tun memberi panduan atau idea-idea macam mana untuk menghalang 'Burung Kakak Tua' itu dari naik dan terbang tinggi ke awan bukan menceritakan hal remeh temeh yang sudah berlaku. Benda yang telah berlaku sekuat mana kita 'menyalak' pun tidak akan merubah apa-apa kerana ianya telah dirancang dengan teliti (mengikut pendapat mereka) dengan melibatkan kebanyakan institusi berkaitan.

Saya berharap sejarah hitam tidak akan berulang dalam sistem pemerintahan Malaysia baik siapa sekali pun memerintah kerana yang menderita adalah rakyat bukan pemimpin. Pemimpin boleh berhijrah kerana banyak duit, rakyat? Dimana bumi dipijak, disitu langat dijunjung.

Sekian. Salam.

This is the problem with the present set of leaders. Even if you have done wrong, Tun, in the Salleh Abas drama, how is it going to help the country by going back on something bygone.

If we want to make our judiciary respectable, I think we must ensure that our judges know the law and appreciate the machinery of the law. This goes for lawyers too.

As far as I am concerned, the Bar Council was set up to look after the welfare of lawyers. Today the Bar Council is more interested in minding other people's business whilst they turn a blind eye towards the hardships that lawyers of today are facing.

What we need now is direction forward not backwards. All the machinery of government today seems to be going backwards except perhaps our submarines from Russia!
By Hajar on September 2, 2008 7:44 PM

Dearest Yg DiKasihi Tun,

Excellent explanation!

Well Tun, this is just one way to discredit you – backed by our PM and Co.

Teruskan perjuangan murni Tun. BERANI KERANA BENAR.

Semoga Tun dan keluarga sentiasa berada di bawah lindungan Allah SWT. Terima kasih Tun.

I just can't understand why our PM is only good at doing things that is not benefiting the Malaysian at all...everything is about his personal agenda. When is he going to understand that Malaysians DON'T NEED HIM TO (so called) LEAD THIS COUNTRY? I'm really hoping that at least during this fasting month the god gives him some brain to think.....

I'm lucky that during my lifetime I got to see a brilliant and visionary man like you heading the country but i definitely don't want my kids to grow up in a country headed by the current corrupted leaders.

I'm no longer the same old proud Malaysian.

Salam TDM. Jangan risau dan gentar dengan tindak-tanduk DSAAB. Dia dah terkapai-kepai dan hampir ke penghujung jalan. Dah tak ada modal lain. Saja nak mengaibkan Tun dan mengalih perhatian tentang kekalahan teruk BN di Permatang Pauh. Orang macam ini akan meruntuhkan bukan saja UMNO, BN malah negara dan masa depan orang-orang Melayu keseluruhannya. Apa lagi Tun? Takkan nak tungu aja UMNO dikuburkan oleh ANWar penderhaka. Saya percaya Tun masih ada pengaruh dan beri tekanan kepada Pak Lah supaya berundur dengan segera. Buat pemilihan Presiden UMNO Desember ini supaya rakyat akan kembali menyokong UMNO. ANWAR akan bermaharaja-lela kalau dia diberi kuasa. Saya tak mahu melihat orang-orang Melayu dipinggirkan dan peralatkan di negeri sendiri. Anwar perlu disingkirkan.

Tun,My toes are laughing,As I have said in my previous posting,You will twist and turn the whole episode and create one new episode in making your staunch followers to believe you.I said it right and can narrate your mind already.

You are superb,Where you get all this idea to convince,And make all believe your self testimony.If you are in INDIA,The BOLLYWOOD can pay you good money for your grandmother tales,Which,Only your hardskull supporters will believe you.

I am reiterating,Pls stop all and repent before things are late.You are getting older and not younger,Time for you to be more involved in spiritual and religious related activities.

Tun,Now you have lost your respect for canvassing and breaking the peaceful malays and muslims in this country.Think of the repercussion,If the malays are divided.No way the country can progress or prosper. I have said in the previous postings,Hold a close door meeting with the barisan coalition and start rebuilding the trust of the people.On top of all that stop BICKERING the current government and help them in anyway you can.

The more you talk,The more will migrate to PKR in hatred to the coalition government,The sufferer will be the malays bcs they are not able to stand on their own feet.All this while the Ruling government was feeding and pampering them to keep them weak,With their weird policy NEP.To be homest,They are no threat to any race, If the government pulls down all the privileges and throw them on the street. They are not competitive at all in any dept.

Their survival solely depends on NEP and not through hardwork or what you know. Tun, The ball is on your court to decide. THINK OF THE FATE OF THE MALAYS.

Assalamualaikum Tun,

Pemerintahan pak lah sekarang sedang berada dalam ketakutan. Setelah kekalahan di permatang pauh, mereka berasa kedudukan mereka telah tergugat. Mana taknya anwar ibrahim yang mereka takuti telah berjaya menjadi ahli parlimen dan sekaligus ketua pembangkang di dewan rakyat. Walaupun mereka mengatakan mereka tidak percaya yang anwar ibrahim bakal menjadi perdana menteri, tindak tanduk mereka menunjukkan sebaliknya.

Pak lah dan konco-konconya sedang cuba menutup segala kesalahan mereka yang ternampak oleh rakyat. Bukan hanya itu, mereka cuba pula menjadikan tun sebagai kambing hitam dengan membuka kes-kes yang dah berlapak. Ahli2 parlimen sabah dan sarawak pula disuruh menandatangani surat 'aku janji' menunjukkan kesetiaan kepada pak lah.

Bajet 2009 pulak yang dikeluarkan kelihatan seperti akan sangat membantu rakyat, tetapi disebaliknya kerajaan cuba menyogok rakyat untuk kembali memberi sokongan kepada pak lah. Bajet yang kelihatan memberi perhatian yang terlalu berlebihan kepada rakyat dan tidak mengendahkan pembangunan negara.

Tapi pak lah lupa bahawa ada yang lebih agung dari segalanya, iaitu Tuhan Yang Maha Esa. Sesungguhnya jika Allah swt mengkehendaki dia dan konco2nya jatuh, ia akan berlaku bila-bila masa. Mungkin dia boleh menipu rakyat dan dunia luar, tapi dia tidak akan dapat menipu Allah swt.

Semoga Tun sekeluarga dilindungi oleh Allah swt dari segala niat jahat pihak-pihak tertentu yang ingin melihat Tun jatuh.

well first of all, i hate all lawyers...malays, indians, chinese.. i dont care what their races are..i hate all of them..reasons..?

1. they lie..and they lie a lot..
2. more lies when it comes to make their profit..
3. under the constitution law they try to turn the laws around..
4. but the worst of it all they just wany the truth from the client but they never tell the truth about the act that will be taken on the client if they fail to pay..

Salam Tun dan Toh Puan

Nampak sangat Majlis Peguam tidak ada kerja...tak ada kerja nak buat kerja.

1. Kenapa isu lama hendak di bangkitkan. Kalau macam ini gayanya...lebih baik kes2 mahkamah kalau rakyat..atau persalah tak puas hati dengan keputusan hakim terus buat tribunal tanpa mengikut prosiding yang di gunakan pakai...ada mahkamah rayun dan mahkamah keadilan dan mahkamah Perseketaan...
2. Setiap kes yang di guna pakai dan di jalan kan mengikut undang-undang.
3. Saya berkerja di Pejabat Tanah. Saya tahu kerja seorang lawyer...tetapi mereka lawyer buruk dan kerja mereka tidak menampak profesional...tidak ada kaliber..ijazah mereka tiada value langsung. Perkara kecil pun boleh buat silap.
3. Tindakan Majlis Peguam seperti melepaskan anjing yang gila atau meludah ke langit terkena muka sendiri.
4. Satu hari nanti rakyat akan menuntut perkara yang sama jugak. Rakyat tak puas hati dengan keputusan hakim, mereka nak tribunal jugak...Majlis Peguam boleh buat kenapa kami tak boleh buat. Kami rakyat bayar cukai jugak.
5. Tindakan 6 BEKAS HAKIM JAHANAM ini tidak membawa faedah kepada rakyat dan negara. Mereka hanya utamakan periuk nasi mereka sahaja.

6. Saya meminta Tun mengadakan Perjumpaan dan juga forum di seluruh negara bagi membincang masalah ini. Adakan satu debat, perbahasan dan perjumpaan rakyat bagi menjelaskan perkara sebenar.

7. Buat You Tube.....edarkan cd ceramah Tun di seluruh negara. Jangan harapkan media perdana memainkan peranan...mereka sekarang anjing kerajaan.

8. Perdana Menteri Jepun Fukuda yang baru di lantik tak sampai 1 tahun telah meletak jawatan dengan hormatnya. Dia sedar tidak populer dan dia sedar lagi lama dalam parti...akan memberi kesan buruk pada nama parti, dan negara matahari itu sendiri.

9. Pak Lah bila nak berhenti? Dia tak sedar ke rakyat dan bosan dengan dia. rakyat dah menyampah dengan KELEMBAPAN dia...tahu tido aje. Tak pandai buat kerja. Dia sedar atau tidak.

Saya berharap Tun dapat menggunakan Internet untuk menyebarkan segala-gala maklumat yang sulit, terselindung, kisah benar mereka-mereka ini semua. Tun edarkan CD, BUKU, ADAKAN CERAMAH, YOU TUBE, KELAB BERTINDAK TUN, Gerakan sekarang di seluruh Malaysia.

Tun saya doakan Tun dan Toh Puan panjang umur dan sihat selam-lamanya dan Tun di lindungi Allah s.w.t.

Kami ingin bersama-sama dengan Tun.

Tun kembalilah menjadi PM semula.

Kerajaan hari ini suka mencari kesalahan Tun, mungkin nak beri wang kepada ahli panel (duit kopi). Nampaknya Zaid Ibrahim tak ada kerja ataupun kementerianannya (special) ditubuhkan untuk mencari kesalahan Tun. Sebab itu kerajaan BN sekarang bertambah parah, kerja bodoh saja sedangkan banyak lagi kerja yang lebih menafaat.

Kalau PM Jepun sanggup meletak jawatan kerana kegagalannya, Pak Lah masih tak sedar diri, beliau terang-terang nampak gagal.

Nak buat macam mana Tun,

bunch of people I have certain idea about being "perasan lebih" is this group of lawyers. I know there are some real lawyers, but here in Malaysia, sorry to say, many perasan bagus. I have always seen them in one kind because they have this mannerism that if i can described is being above else.. riak al takbur.

so, tun, what are we seeing here; coming out of mulut buaya then the rakyat goes into a different type of animal, a harimau.. which one is worse? a sleeping crocodile or a hyper active harimau. I really dont know already. I just hope when anwar ibrahim leads the nation, if takdir dia jadi PM, he will be more practical and realise that some groups will want to use him anyway for their purpose. If he is aiming for the PM seat sekalipun, we dont want all the huru hara and the instability felt right now where even the bumiputra and islam are being pressed every sides.

To mr freedom, we are here not to praise tun, but to comment ..at least most of us here. I have praised him since he had done much to the country...and until now i still dont understand why it is so difficult for our "people" to appreciate a precious gem like tun, just like how singapore appreciate their lky.

to tun, you just have to know that most of us, the silent majority , appreciate you very much for the good things you have done for the country.

selamat berpuasa and take good care of your health.

Tun,

I am so glad I went to your talk at Sime Darby Convention Hall, last Saturday. 1 hour of waiting was truly worth it, (it wasn't your fault that we need to wait for so long, apparently the organizer told us to come 1 hour earlier to ensure everyone is there when you arrived).

I almost cried when I saw you; last time I saw you when I was still a kid back in my hometown in Terengganu, more than 15 years ago.

I said to myself; this man has done so much for the country during his 22 years as Prime Minister of Malaysia but yet he still doesn't get appreciated by his own people. Until today, people are still questioning, blaming your actions regarding this so-yesterday judiciary issue. Even when Pak Lah didn't do his job right, people are still blaming you for that. Melayu memang mudah lupa.

I'm so sick with the flip-flop leadership of Pak Lah and ever famous drama queen Anwar. And on top of all I am really really sick when people keep on talking about past issues, blaming you for things like the sacking of Tun Salleh Abas, Proton, Press Freedom, Operasi Lalang, etc etc without any concrete evidence and most importantly, those are not even significant with the issue we are facing now!

Guys, no matter where you are from, no matter which party you are belong, no matter what race you are, you just have to agree with me that Tun Dr Mahathir is the greatest Prime Minister we ever had. Yes, everything is relative, but if you are asked for the best Prime Minister of Malaysia, the one who has brought a lot of positive changes, it should be no other than Tun himself. And no doubt Pak Lah will always come last in the history!

Dear Tun,

These are attempts from a desperate government to convince the rakyat, hey look, see we have done something to reform the existing judicial system. And I believe there's more to come, otherwise AAB won't need to appoint him as the de-facto Law Minister.

He will do anything now to make himself popular and to prove himself. The rest are technical.

Saya tahu mengapa Bar Council dah jadi obsession untuk mempetahankan bekas hakim. Mereka semacam sudah hilang pegangan prinsip undang-undang kerana selalu mabuk toddy di Kelab Selangor hinggakan otak mereka dah jadi mereng. Dah tak tahu yang mana benar dan yang mana salah. Dah jadi "ular" sentiasa nak membelit manusia. Tapi mereka salah belit manusia seperti Tun.

Salam,..Tun yang dikasihi.

Tun,

Kepimpinan dalam BN perlu dirombak secara menyeluruh. Jangan sekali-kali gunakan sokongan kepada BN selama ini tujuan mengaut kekayaan untuk diri sendiri. Mana-mana kaum yang bernaungan dibawah pemerintahan BN bukannya untuk taat setia dengan membuta tuli. Keadaan ini hanya berlaku kepada ahli tertinggi UMNO sahaja, dan bukan ahli akar umbinya. Perdana Jepun sebagai contoh terbaik, beliau sanggup meletak jawatan demi memberi laluan kepada mereka yang lebih layak. Mentaliti pemimpin negera maju perlu kita contohi. Kita perlu menerima hakikat bahawa penolakan rakyat satu petanda perubahan minda dikalangan mereka. Tun merupakan pemimpin contoh yang berperinsip dan sanggup meletak jawatan dalam keadaan rakyat memerlukannya. Kalau diukur dari segi pengaruh sepatutnya TUN menyerah jawatan dahulu kepada Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim bukan Pak Lah maklumlah kita manusia biasa tidak lari daripada melakukan kesilapan dalam membuat pemilihan. Konspirasi sesuatu yang memungkinkan dalam politik, maka itulah signal awal yang merubah keadaan PRU-12. Semoga Tun dan Keluarga sihat dan selamat berpuasa.

Obviously these ungrateful scums are trying to put the so called '1988 judicial crisis' blame on Tun. But never fear Tun. They will fail for their heart and intention are not sincere. It will back fire and they will look like a bunch of asses.

Already the people do not have the same respect for the current government leaders as they have for Tun cabinet during Tun premiership.

Wishing Tun great health always.
By penrissenboy on September 2, 2008 10:27 PM

Dear Tun,

This is what happened when the leader is weak. Everybody want to take advantage. Very simple examples:

- (1) when a father (supposed to be a head of the family) don't have a leadership quality, everybody in the house will act as a boss cause they don't have anybody to look upon to
- (2) when the "taukay" of a construction company is weak, every workers will act like a boss. so, you can't get the job done

I am not a member of any political party but as a concern citizen, i strongly believe that our country must be rule by the right headmen. personally, i don't see our current PM is the right person but i still wonder why TUN choose him at the first place.

I like the way TUN rule or administer our country. and that should be the way. everything was under control.

I hope that TUN will come up with some plan on how to force our current PM to step down. i don't mind to fly to KL just to attend any gathering or anything organise by TUN to make it happen.

May God Bless you n family.

Long live TUN
By dal on September 2, 2008 10:32 PM

I remember my history teacher made a summary of one of the chapters of this land's history; he wrote to the effect:-

1. The Malays fought with the Malays.
2. The rulers fought with each other for rights of tax collection.
3. The kapitans waited on the sidelines for opportunities.
4. Some rogue leaders enlisted foreign help or mediation.

There was a flurry of movements and manoeuvrings and signings.

5. The following day, through the mist of a fine morning, everybody found that an alien hand was holding the rein of the cart.
6. It remained so for more than half a century.

All the above ingredients are present again today.
Some of the steps have repeated itself.
Only the alien hand is in the form of a deep-plant.
Everyone saves a few see this hand as an alien hand.
It is an agenda set in motion long before independence.

It is truly a perfect form of neo-colonization.

It is a remote possibility that chedet is fighting so this does not happen.

Salam Tun,

Tun, saya harap Tun dapat berehat mengkritik si Pak Lah ni skejap la. Rilek la kejap. Ye la, kalau hari hari dok kutuk die, kritik die, die mane ade telinga nak dengar. Last-last Tun jugak yang tak sihat. Kalau dah Tun dah tak sihat nanti sape lak yang susah, orang Melayu jugak yang susah.

Orang cam Tun memang sukar dicari ganti. Kalau dengar lagu P. Ramlee "Dimanakan Ku Cari Ganti" mesti teringat kan kat Tun. Masa saya di US dulu, classmates saya (especially from Africa and Middle East) slalu cakap kat saya yang Malaysia ada first class leader - Tun Mahathir. Perghhh, senyum saya sampai ke cuping telinga Tun.

Tun, saya harap Tun jangan berhenti menulis. Saya juga cadangkan supaya Tun menulis tentang diri Tun - cerita la macam mane Tun jaga kesihatan, apa yang Tun makan, berapa lame Tun ambil masa baca buku. Orang kata Tun ni "fast reader", - Tun cerita la Tun camane Tun boleh jadi camni. Bukan macam Pak Lah, asyik ngadap bini je, buku pon tak sempat bace. Mane-mane document, pakai sign je. Insyallah, suatu hari nanti, anak-anak saya akan saya didik mereka macam mane Tun didik/disiplin kan diri Tun ni.

Ok Tun, salam Ramadhan dari saya.

Salam Ayahanda Tun, I just had a very interesting conversation with a colleague. From a certain point of view, it does appear that your endless vilification by a certain grouping is actually an exercise at character assassination. In the last few months, Tun Dr. Mahathir has actually restrengthened his standing as the one true force that could command unification of the Malay's at large. This may enormously be a hindering factor towards realizing the agenda of that certain grouping, which is: eliminating the Malay's unique status in this country. By successfully labeling Tun Dr. Mahathir's with their loose accusations and incriminations and perhaps to even obliterate his well-built credibility, their one imperative hope would materialize without much impediment. Let there be no unwitting players into this match. Tun Dr. Mahathir,

I humbly take my place among Malaysians as we stood by your side weathering all and anything together, just like what you have done and given us in the 22 unblemished years of past. You are much loved and never shall be forgotten.

By rizuwani on September 2, 2008 10:49 PM

Salam Tun

Agaknya duit ex-gratia (duit rakyat miskin yg dirompak AAB) dan diberi kepada Salleh Abas dan peguam2 yg dipecat tu tak cukup. BC nak tumpang sekaki agaknya mana tau kot2 boleh dapat macam mana yg Salleh Abas dapat.

Kalau betul lah majlis makan BC pun kerajaan Malaysia yang tanggung, memang memalukan, memang tak ada maruah. AAB memang membeli maruah orang dengan duit. Macam mana yang terjadi pada Salleh Abas dan peguam2 lain, begitu la juga dgn rakyat Malaysia. Kalau guna duit ni memang tak berkesudahan memang tak akan puas.

Semuga ALLAH memberi Tun ketabahan dan ketenangan serta kesihatan yang baik....AMIN.

Salam Ayahanda Tun dan rakan-rakan

Ayahanda, permit me to share something from in my blog.

It goes,

Anwar Ibrahim slammed a widening deficit in the government's 2009 budget and vowed to unveil a more responsible budget if he topples the ruling coalition this month. He said his plans to seize power from the Barisan Nasional led government through parliamentary defections by Sept. 16 remains on track.

Anwar said he has held talks with ruling party lawmakers and the response was "very good" but declined to elaborate.

Anwar said the opposition's budget will focus on wooing foreign investment by dismantling a 37-year-old affirmative action policy which gives privileges in contracts, jobs, business and education to ethnic Malays.

He also said, "Archaic" policies that demand mandatory Malay equity in companies will be removed and open tenders called for all government contracts, currently reserved mostly for Malay companies.

He claimed The New Economic Policy was started in 1971 to help Malays, who form 60 percent of Malaysia's 27 million people, after 1969 violent race riots. But foreign investors and minority groups long complained it amounted to protectionism. The policy has been a stumbling block to Malaysia's plan for a free trade pact with the U.S.

It's all over the international media. My question is,

Who is Anwar Ibrahim? He was once part of the government which practised this policies. Now he is singing a different tune. Is he a hypocrite? A Malay traitor? A U.S stooge and agent?

Assalamualaikum Tun, Maafkan saya sekiranya saya lari topic, sebenarnya saya ingin memberitahu kepada rakyat Malaysia sama ada sedar atau tidak. Baru-baru ini kerajaan janji akan menurunkan harga petrol pada 1 sept, tetapi mane perginya janji ini. Memanglah kita tahu harga minyak turun lebih awal, tapi bagi saya nampak seolah-olah agenda politik. Hairan kenapa tidak ada khabar berita dan senyap begitu sahaja oleh kerana sambutan ramadan dengan cuti merdeka ? Tetapi sekurang-kurang kerajaan patutnya buat announcement atau statement mengatakan bahawa harga kekal, kali ini senyap saje, sepatutnya kerajaan buat revise harga setiap 1hb dan 15hb kan senang dan memudahkan ..

menurut website http:// www . oil-price . net bahawa harga minyak sekarang pada $108.66 setong dan harga emas juga jatuh

Salam ramadhan daripada saya

Dear Tun,

Here I totally agree with Tun. This is utter nonsense by the President of the Bar Council. There are many areas the Bar Council can do good. But its indulgence in this kind of rubbish findings made by a panel consisting of foreign friends of the local judges doesn't help its cause. This should stop or they risk losing credibility. I already feel that judges should not be above the law and they should not be supervised by their fellow judges or we will get the very situation the panel has proven ie they will always rule in their fellow judges favor. You can even see it in the way the ICJ ruled in Singapore's favor. The panel had people who were friends of the team members from Singapore!

Dear Tun & readers,

Bar Council, like any Council such as Medical Council etc, its chief aim is to regulate the professionalism of its members. In the case of the br Council, it is in legal and judicial matters whether in court or out of court. Bar Council needs to ensure that its members retain their currency and are up to date before renewing its members' practicing certificate. In Hong Kong, lawyers need to collect certain numbers of points before they could renew their practicing certificate as one means of ensuring that its members continue to stay relevant. This is done through attending courses etc. Bar Council too needs to ensure that complaints against its members are attended to adequately and within the statutory time limits. Have these been adequately addressed?

Bar Council have no more rights than let say the Medical Council or any professional bodies existing in Malaysia in how the country should be run and manage, or who should be appointed as judges etc. This could relatively be resolved through elections by going to vote. While, relatively, there is no harm to voice out as an organization, it should ascertain whether the stance taken actually is the sentiments of all the members of the Bar. Be that as it may, acting as if to supplant or to 'interfere' with the Rulers' powers and prerogatives is definitely a cause for concern.

Tun,

We are a strong believer of you, therefore you can rest assured of that. What we want to see change is the current leadership. Malaysia has change course so much the last four years. Many are not really impress by this change in direction. If nothing happen to improve, then the voice of the majority will decide.

By boz on September 2, 2008 11:46 PM

Your point number 4 is most interesting. Let's say the characters involved are not the King, not the Prime Minister and not the Lord President of the Malaysian courts. Let's say these three figures are commoners. Let's name them A, B and C. A is having his house rennovated. B is the neighbour. C is some enforcement officer. Because of public nuisance (and this is exactly what they will call), the noise and all that, B went to see A personally initially. But the nuisance still goes on. So B wrote letters to the authority to ask for their help in stopping this nuisance. C the enforcement officer is sent to solve the problem. C tells B to move away. Among A, B and C, who is the most problematic one ? Who is the one who does not help at all in that situation ? Who is actually the victim ? When the situation is simplified, then the unfairness is more clearly seen. Of course the reality is not that simple because the ones involved are all those having power, status and influence and very learned. Let's add in additional chapters to this story. B later thinks that it is better to be patient and to bear it all. A's rennovation work lasts for one year. C never comes again. When the rennovation work is all done, the nuisance stops as well. However, B does not talk to A anymore. The end of the story.

salam Tun,

Pendapat saya:-

- 1.Satu Suruhanjaya perlu ditubuhkan utk memeriksa BC.(depa ingat depa sapa)
- 2.Zaid dan Kerajaan perlu bertanggungjawab dgn semua insiden forum terbuka BC tentang Melayu dan Islam.Zaid senang2 saja hilang masa insiden tu sungguh xbertanggungjawab,kalau macam ni, sapa2pun boleh jadi menteri,senang bykla.
- 3.Saya setuju tidak menghalalkan sebarang pembayaran pampasan dgn wang rakyat,saya akan tuntutan diakhirat.
- 4.Kerajaan sekarang terlalu lemah,buatlah kerja apa yang dok pi merepek benda2 yg xpatut pikiaq.Betui2 xfaham signal.

Cadangan saya:-

kalau pemilihan umno dec ni doksama mcm lani,kita buat satu gerakan baru,parti baru or whatever movement (pls adv us Tun)to topple the existing gov.BC dan the king of Liwat.

Salam kepada YAB Tun dan rakan2 bloggers,

1. The bar council pariahs are getting more kurang ajar.
2. Its all because Dollah and Zaid the bas..decided to gang up with pariahs to get Tun.
3. Dollah, this same weapon, the pariahs council will get you and all your goons when you don't have powers anymore. Do you think they love you so much? U Dollah paid for their dinner using the rakyat's monies, do you really think they'll appreciate you?
4. This is not about Tun, this is about destroying a remarkable Malay leader! You Dollah and all your gangsters will go down in history as the Malay PM who buried the malays.
5. Can you imagine, Tun tried his best during his 22 odd years not to commit crime, immoral stuffs but these unsatisfied pariahs council is so arrogant and 'powerful'that they came up with a secretive panel of retired judges from foreign countries to get Tun
6. Dollah allowed so far the royal commission to get Tun, then highlighted that bas..justice chin's wrongful accusation against Tun...and now Dollah will allow the findings by those foreigners...just to get Tun.
7. Dollah, compared to Tun, you have done way too many nonsense, too many wrongdoings, so mark my words, the pariahs council does not have to get foreigners (like what they did in Tun's case), a low rank legal officer will be send to handle your case. Too glaring Dollah, too glaring...
8. Last but not least Dollah (I know Dollah doesnt read these cos he's lembam, but his idiots will read them), remember, the pariahs council is using you against someone who put you on a noble place...tuan maha kaya, hari ini hari kau Dollah....

9. Lepas the tribunal boleh diragui,dipertikaikan, maka selepas itu, pihak2 yang membina perlembagaan Malaysia pula dipertikaikan, tujuannya adalah untuk menghapuskan semua tentang kedudukan istimewa Melayu dan engkau Dollah, orang Melayu yang memberi laluan!

TUN, SYABAS KERANA TUN TIDAK GENTAR DENGAN THE PARIAS COUNCIL YANG MENGGUNAKAN TAKTIK KOTOR. CUMA SAYA KECEWA KERANA PERBUATAN KURANG AJAR MEREKA MENDAPAT SOKONGAN DARIPADA ORANG MELAYU YANG TUN PERNAH NAIKKAN MARUAH MEREKA.

Dear Tun

Couldn't agree more with all the blogger criticizing the bar council you did what was best for the country.

I am not too sure I maybe right or wrong Malaysians private wealth is estimated to be around 60 Billion how did people earned so much its because of you who brought so much development to the country during your tenure as PM.

Tun when you speak millions will listen your influenced is strong people know you can deliver they will come in full support.

Salam TUN,

Bar Council ini dah melampau. Mereka ini kurang ajar, Yang dipertuan Agong pun dia orang nak hina. Namun kerajaan buat tak tahu saja. Saya ada menulis dulu tentang hakim2 ini, dahlah disabit kesalahan oleh tribunal tapi kerajaan sekarang bagi hadiah dgn duit rakyat pulak. Menghina keputusan tribunal yg diluluskan oleh Yang dipertuan Agong.

Dear Tun,

Kalau di Thailand sesiapa yang menghina raja mereka, sudah tentunya dah kena belasah ditepi jalan dan dimasukkan dalam lobang buaya.

Tapi oleh kerana kita mempunyai kerajaan yang dah tempang kuasanya maka apa yang di lakukan oleh ahli Bar Council tidak mempunyai erti apa-apa pun dan dianggap seperti biasa sahaja. Apa sebabnya? Sebab Pak Lah dan Zaid telah diikat hidung mereka oleh Bar Council.

Pak Lah dan Zaid sungguh memalukan bangsa kerana tidak boleh mempertahankan penghinaan yang dilakukan oleh Bar Council terhadap Duli Yang Di Pertuan Agong. Maruah Raja kita telah diperkecil-kecilkan.

Pak Lah and Zaid are not conscious that these "bloke of lawyers" are testing the water to what extent we can tolerate their manipulation of issues to generate political uncertainties for their advantage.

PAK LAH! RESIGN LAH !!

saya ingin beri cadangan, saya cadangkan Pak Lah beri kebebasan orang bertanding di pemilihan UMNO hujung tahun ini. TAPI beliau harus jadikan perhimpunan ini, pemilihan terbersih dalam sejarah UMNO moden. Sesiapa terima wang walaupun RM1 mesti ditangkap. So at least beliau boleh turun dengan rekod yang baik. Ya lah di kala rekodnya sudah tercalar saat ini. (Eh!! itu hari ada orang beri kain pelikat ke?). Dengan pemilihan terbersih saja dapat bersihkan nama Paklah. Then baru UMNO boleh bersaing dengan DSAI.Bukan menang, tapi bersaing ajalah.

YAB Tun,

22 tahun memegang tampok kepimpinan, telah terbukti kejayaan yang Tun bawa kepada Malaysia. Tun telah mula memacu negara kearah kemajuan sejak tahun pertama Tun sebagai PM. YAB Pak Lah telah membuktikan beliau bukan tandingan Tun. Jauh panggang dari api. Bagai langit dengan bumi.

Jadi Tun, apa perlunya Tun melayan kritikan² yang dilemparkan pada Tun? Apa perlunya Tun menghentam siang malam pagi petang YAB Pak Lah? Apa rasionalnya Tun terus² melekehkan YAB Datuk Seri Anwar? Terus menerus menghentam & melayan mereka ini sebenarnya membuat Tun nampak murahan.

Tun tiada apa yang perlu dibuktikan lagi. Sejarah akan menceritakan kehebatan Tun nanti. Mereka² ini sebenarnya bukan mahu dengar penjelasan Tun pun. Mereka cuma rasa enak dapat buli & acan Tun yang sudah tiada kuasa lagi. Dulu masa Tun jadi PM siapa yang berani kritik Tun? Kalau kritik alamatnya ISA lah jawabnya, tak pun kena pecat.

Saya cadangkan Tun menulis berkenaan pengalaman Tun sebagai PM selama 22 tahun untuk panduan generasi akan datang. Ataupun setidak-tidaknya Tun menulis gambaran & harapan Tun tentang Malaysia di masa akan datang.

Terima kasih.

Yg DiKasihi Tun,

The Bar Council lack the credibility to pull this stunt off and so are Zaid I and DSAAB's government. I don't remember them either conclusively rebutted any of your comments so far nor have they sued you for libel or slander. The elegant silence is actually their admission of truth to the facts laid out by you. Now who is going to believe these tainted lots?

As Prime Minister DSAAB swore to uphold the Constitution and look what happened, he did a flip flop. Should he be in cohort with the Bar Council's extra-legal move to nullify a properly constituted Tribunal provided for by the Federal Constitution, then he is a traitor to DYMM Seri Paduka Baginda Yang Di Pertuan Agong. The precedent set is dangerous and will be one of the disintegration of the rule of law in this country.

Tun, as a matter of principle you should challenge this move up to the highest court in the country. I believe in what you said.

By RyscheClyde on September 3, 2008 1:34 AM

Dear TUN,

Im not good in term of law, therefore Im not going to give any comment about the case as you mentioned in this article. But I do believe to a certain extend that mainly it was not your fault for having Tun Salleh Abas dismissal. Perhaps, during those days there are some other fault that Tun Salleh might have done.

Right now, the rumours about forming Pakatan government is getting stronger. It seems that these rumours is turning into facts. Dato Seri Anwar Ibrahim strongly urge Sabah's BN to cross over, and all the opposition's media promoting it. I sometime accidentally convince that it will occur. Because DSAI is trying to proof that things can be change without buyers.

Is not that Im not convince with PAKATAN. Im worried because should anything happen to DSAI, who else is eligible to manage the country? I personally think that Lim Guan Eng and Abdul Hadi doesnt fit at all in managing the country. The honourable Lim only focuses into riching the NonBumi especially the chinese, while Hadi with his Hudud Law that will change Malaysia into 20 years backward-might be 40 years if things goes bad.

From the talk kedai warong kopi- PAKATAN has already set up its shadow cabinet line up. Most of the line up consist of people who is not favourable towards the bumis. I dont want mentioned their name, but its not an advantage towards the muslims and bumis. Their Malay's line up only consist of deputies- but must remember their term of deputy consist of at least two people from different races. The chances for Malay/Bumi to manage is second to none.

PAKATAN always mention to champion the "POOR". The "POOR" means people who is not having enough in their stomach. As you can see, most NonBumi has the advantage in the private sector- and we all know for the fact, the malays has slim chances to gain prosperity. They always use the reason of "MALAY GRADUATE IS NOT UP TO THEIR STANDARD". On top of that, they never want to share or teach the Malay to become up to their standard requirements. And eventhough should the Malay graduate from top universities in overseas- they still treat the Malay as low quality. They wont in any reason to give opportunity for the Malay to achieve better or higher level in their organisation. I personally can do a full report of thousand pages to support the things ive said here.

If they said im having a short minded- My answer is NO. Its FACT. They just deny it. They keep on using the "MALAY IS NOT UP TO THEIR STANDARD". And this disease will continue for another hunderds of years to come. Ive seen and met with Malays who has variety experience and knowledge but were to put at a very low level in Nonbumis organisation. So what does DSAI need to gurantee that these does not occur at all once he get in POWER?? CAN HE REALLY GURANTEE THAT?

Ive visited to independent blogs- they keep on saying that the Malays need to work harder. The latest reason they say "MALAY MUST BE COMPETITIVE". But let me ask again, how do the malays to become competitive if the Nonbumi is not supporting? If you want to talk about equal sharing, then in the private sector also must be treated equally. Ive met and seen unprofessional nonbumis holding good position- some of them even worse than the malays. But if I would to question this- they(nonbumi) would be very protective among its kind. And when it comes to the Malay's part- they claimed that we are racist, and favouritism..what is this??

Yang Amat Berbahagia Tun (YAB Tun)...

Kepada UMNO,Pemuda,Wanita dan Puteri..

Apa yang anda sedang buat sekarang? Anda sedarkah yang Institusi Raja sedang digoncang sekarang??? Oh... masih tidur ya.. atau masih mengira-ngira apa projek yang akan diperolehi selepas Bajet 2009?, atau masih mencari teknik rasuah supaya boleh menang dalam pemilihan UMNO Dis 2008??? Kalau begitu PRU-13 adalah yang terakhir untuk anda. Ini bukan ugutan tetapi kenyataan... Kalau UMNO sudah tidak berupaya mempertahankan Raja-Raja dan kepentingan Bumiputera, apa relevannya UMNO wujud??

Malaysia seolah-olah sudah tiada PM. Pentadbiran dilaksanakan oleh menteri undang-undang yang pernah disabitkan kesalahan jenayah rasuah. Majlis Peguam (MP) berpesta memperlekehkan Institusi Raja, MP sedang berseronok menghina Bumiputera.

Untuk DS Najib, sedarlah bahawa DS akan menjadi ketua pembangkang selepas PRU-13, jika menteri undang-undang dan MP tidak ditangani segera. Perdana menteri sekarang sudah tidak ambil peduli hal itu sekarang. Beliau pernah dimalukan oleh SPBYD Agong dan Raja-Raja, dengan itu buat apa beliau mempertahankan Raja-Raja.

Saya tidak halalkan walau satu sen pun wang diberi kepada bekas hakim dan makan MP.

YAB Tun, jaga kesihatan.. Wassalam..

Dear Tun and fellow Chedet followers,

Why did the Malaysian Bar Council, out of the blues after 20 years, come out with this Eminent Persons Panel.Who is behind this?

What are they trying to achieve, and who are they trying to incriminate.

Its will balls-up to the government of the day and the panel is set after Yang di Pertuan Agong acceded to it.

So this show that this bunch of lawyers dont care and they thought they are the special breed.

Who is giving this bunch of people "muka",and become impertinent to The Yang Pertuan Agong and The Prime Minister of the day.

Tun, dont worry they are rakyat out here who will not allow you to be treated shabbily by the Bar council in cahoots with de factor Law Minister .

Allah Bless you Tun and Family Selamat berpuasa.

Tun, I suggest u turn a dear ear to all these by Bar Council. It is in fact a joke. There are people who try to discredit you because they are jealous of you. Majority of us bloggers admire you and love you. We are proud that you were once our leader.

Allow me to say a few words to Mohd Sivakumar Art Pillay.

You are the type that is a real disgrace to all indians in Malaysia. Even the Indians in Bar Council regard you as low caste. You are disgusted and I suggest you leave this blog. Goodbye and don't come back.

By suresh on September 3, 2008 2:08 AM

Dear Tun,

Why do you say the BAR wants to vilify you? The BAR has been quite consistent with their stance on how you treated the legal fraternity over the years. It's not improper to claim that your doings were major contributors to the declination of law and just in Malaysia. So, Tun please accept the reality.

You say, it was the King who wanted to take action against Tun Salleh. May I ask you; didn't you crop the powers and privileges of royals in Malaysia? If you could bulldoze your way to do that, you could have also advised the King of Tun Abbas' ability as lord president and he be excused? Are you saying our King became that furious because of the two letters to the extent of sacking the LP? I find something is not right here. May I remind you sir; we are arguing about issues that needs the wisdom of all parties?

Well, no matter what the issue here, like you have admitted earlier, you too made mistakes as our leader and PM. Similarly the present government and the PM are not interested in you, continue to flaw the rule of laws and maybe it could be true they too want to defame you.

I hope Pak Lah too realise this. No leader is immortal be it in Malaysia or anywhere. If this could happen to you who led this country for 22 years, this could also happen to Pak Lah.

The truth is whatever goes around comes around. You can't escape this, neither can Pak lah. Anwar, perhaps, perhaps he was a bit lucky than both of you as he paid his dues when he could and I believe he is trying to take the right path in his remaining time.

Can you for once Tun? Why not let bygones be bygones. During your time you spoke about Bangsa Malaysia. And in your remaining time please champion this cause, I know you are not bothered about how you will be remembered but as someone who led this country, championing Bangsa Malaysia cause will make earn you a place in the heart of millions of Malaysians including people like me who actually despised you in the past.

Hey Dr M,

Don't ever stop criticizing. You're only doing so because you still care for the country and the direction of where it's headed to.

Those who are willing to close their eyes and listen to only the good news will only adhere to the status quo, for any type of useful feedback is always a negative feedback. Only a negative feedback is capable of driving a change in a system. (This is from electronics btw)

Tak apa Tun tak nak siar kritikan saya sebelum ini, tetapi untuk komen ini harap Tun siarkan. KOMEN KPD TULISAN MEMBER ALKINDI82 DIATAS, menyuruh Tun berhenti menulis, Tun memang dah nak berhenti menulis tapi apakan daya PM sekarang asyik buat tidak ambil peduli akan pandangan dan nasihat Tun untuk kebaikan parti dan Pentadbiran Negara, dia buat pekak badak saja, cuba kena kepada diri anda saya fikir lebih lagi yang anda akan bertindak wahai ALKINDI82. Kalau saudara/saudara alkindi82 ingin Tun berhenti menulis buatlah sesuatu agar Pak..Le...lah berhenti sebagai PM sekarang, saya percaya Tun akan berhenti dengan sendiri dan terus kembali keUMNO.

Kepada Bar Council, memang dia orang ini patut di ambil tindakan yang sewajarnya oleh KDYMM Yang Dipetuan Agung atau Raja-Raja Melayu dan Pemuda UMNO mesti tunjuk ketegasan jangan hanya pandai tunjuk keris sahaja dan mengikut irama PM sekarang jadilah Pemuda UMNO semacam dulu yangmana Ketuanya Dato Harun Idris, Dato Kamaruddin dll yang lebih berani mengetengahkan dan bertindak keatas apa2 isu berkaitan melayu, raja dan negara amnya.

Assalamualaikum wbt utk Tun dan keluarga,

Sedih melihatkan Melayu dan Malaysia hari ini. Bersimpati pula dengan Tun yang masih gigih memikirkan perihal kenegaraan.... lantaran kesihatan yang pastinya tidak segagah dahulu, saya doakan agar Tun tetap dirahmati Allah untuk terus memimpin seadanya.

Berikanah kami yang kerdil ini, bangsa Malaysia dan kaum Melayu khasnya, pimpinan dan cetusan bernas agar tidak tercoret kelak sejarah hitam kemakmuran Malaysia yang dicemburui oleh banyak bangsa dunia yang lainnya.

Makin kerap kita merasai betapa politik Malaysia kian tercemar oleh pemimpin2 angkuh, dayus dan haloba, seolah-olah tiada batasan dan kesudahannya. Ikhlas dan agama seolah-olah hanya menjadi mainan bibir. Sebelum nasi menjadi bubur, demi Malaysia yang merdeka dan bermaruah, ingin saya bertanya, tiadakah penyelesaiannya selain dari hanya menunggu, melihat dan terus mencoret diruangan2 begini? Seperti kata Tun, menunggu PU13 hakikatnya adalah terlalu lama dan sudah terlambat. Adakah "Majlis" sebagai lambang kedaulatan Malaysia juga tidak punya daya membendung kepincangan yang berleluasa ini selepas 51 tahun kita berbangga dengan kemerdekaan? Atau inikah habuan kemerdekaan? Perluakah kita menunggu ketegangan yang lebih melampau dari apa yang sedang kita rasai sekarang?

Moga Allah berikan petunjuk dan kekuatan kepada mereka yang benar dan ikhlas, terutamanya sempena Ramadhan Al-Mubarak ini. Moga Tun dan seluruh bangsa Malaysia yang ikhlas dan sayangkan 50 tahun kesejahteraannya dipanjangkan umur untuk terus bersama dalam perjuangan yang nyata masih belum selesai.....

Amin.

Salam AYAHANDA RAKYAT TUN, Izinkan,
Ayahanda Tun said,

3. This is a new idea by the Bar Council to invalidate the findings of the Tribunals set up according to the Constitution of Malaysia, the Supreme Law of Malaysia. It is a negation of the rule of law and a slap in the face for the Malaysian King, the Yang di-Pertuan Agong..

Our questions,

1. Is the Constitution of Malaysia, the Supreme Laws being challenged and the act of 'treason' go unpunished?
2. Are we, the Rakyat taking it lightly as a joke or laughing matter?
3. Aren't there avenues to prosecute these 'traitors' who showed contempt to the Supreme Law of Malaysia?
4. Isn't the slap in the face of the Malaysian King is also a slap in the face for the 'keturunan, Melayu? Where has the sayings 'Biar mati anak jangan mati adat(diraja) being dumped?
5. If the rule of law is immuned to these 'traitors', couldn't the DYMM Agung, as supreme commander of the Armed Forces use his powers to restore 'sanity' of the government of the day rather than wait for the Rakyat to take the law into their own hands as happening now in our neighbouring county? The Almighty Forbids, please.
6. Perhaps, they feel that the peace loving Rakyat of this nation (that was built through blood, sweat and tears) would not 'revolt' because of the stability and prosperity enjoyed since?
PLEASE DO NOT UNDERESTIMATE THE 'RAKYAT POWER' OF THE PEOPLE OF MALAYSIA?
HUMAN BEING PATIENCE HAS ITS LIMIT!

Alfatihah, Amin yaarobbal alamin.

Dear Tun and family, salam hormat dan selamat berpuasa. I have not post my comments here for sometimes already but this morning when I woke up for my sahur, I opened your blog and saw your comments on the Bar Council about Tun Salleh Abbas sacking. I feel something deep inside to drive me to say a few words about this Bar council thing.

The Bar Council thinks that they are the most clever of people in Malaysia just because they are made up of lawyers who I think are very sneaky and cunning people on earth. They seem to know how to criticize people only and I doubt very much if they are given a task whether they can do it well or not. I do not know why are they in cohort with the Law Minister to belittle and embarrass you. Tun, they are after your blood because you never stop criticizing the present flip flop government. Keep on doing it Doc, so that a lot more blunders by the Prime Minister will be revealed to the people. This is a democratic country and you know they cannot stop you from using your right to speak.

The Bar Council of late are trying to play heroes bringing up sensitive issues and I do not know what they are up too! Their priority is to look after the welfare of lawyers but now it seems that they are playing politic. If they are so keen in politic, than why are they not jump into the bandwagon and see whether they are good enough to get elected. They might be lucky if they do not lose their deposits.

Tun, do not worry about them, just keep on airing your ideas and experiences in governing this country, the country need them. Your experiences are priceless! Your enemies are just jealous of you that's include the Bar council (particularly the President, I think she has a close shave when her previous house was thrown with a molotove cocktail).

My Dearest TUN,

Allow me to pen my little thoughts.

Tun was given the mandate by 2/3rds majority to govern the country, whatever decisions he make, it was for the well-being of the nation. The rakyat trusted in him to run the country --by God's will he did efficiently.

Even after the 1988 so called judicial crisis, Tun still won by 2/3rds majority. This proved the rakyat still had/has faith in him. Tun even handed over peacefully and wasn't asked to step down.

Now we find people not being elected or even miserably elected interfering with the judiciary. If the Agong or PM does not have ultimate power, who does? -- the unelected/miserably elected.

I find it strange the same UMNO members who elected and gave Tun the mandate tried to find his mistakes (if any). In fact together, we should be proud of his achievements and should also be responsible for his misdeed (should there be any) because the people were the ones who entrusted Tun to hold the post. (Are they suggesting the voters lacked integrity). By right the involved should blame themselves, because they elected Tun.

We hear words like dictator, 'kuku besi', racialists etc.. yet every 5 years Tun was given the great mandate and it lasted 22 years. Isn't that wonderful?

In yesteryears the king/leader will be the judge. He appoints someone on his behalf if he's busy.

Whoever forms the govt. has the right to appoint judges--for without the govt. there will be no judges.

Sometimes a few has to be sacrificed for the sake of the millions

Tun never chopped people's head to become PM. We must thank him a thousand times for accepting the post.

I must say During TUN's time I could cuddle my bolster and sleep feeling secured. THANKS TUN. I'm sure the rest felt the same., and these people should be very grateful.

Thank you, MAY GOD BLESS YOU AND FAMILY.

Hello TUN,

Saya ingat ini lah masa rakyat untuk bersatu padu tanpa mengira bangsa, apa yg diperjuangkan PAS DAP dan Keadilan adalah hak yg sama rata dan adil pada semua rakyat tanpa ada asas kaum atau cronism. Isyarat sudah jelas bahawa kaum bumiputra sudah bersedia untuk mara setapak lagi ke hadapan untuk bersaing secara terbuka. PAS sudah melupakan belakangnya kepada Anwar. DAP tidak dapat apa pun (itu pun patut terima kasih pada support by PAS dan Keadilan). yang lebih untung mestilah PAS dan Keadilan, bila menang boleh jadi PM.

Itualh yg mesti kita sokong, bila Anwar jadi PM. kita sudah baik sama America dan Arab country. semua negara itu kaya wang. Jewish pun ekonomi bagus tentu meniaga lebih baik. Orang meniaga mesti sokong.

Anwar pun open minded, ada tolak ansur. Dulu ada macam takut tengok dia sebab dia macam kuat dakwah. Sekarang baru faham semua, leader punya style saja. Itulah baru malaysia boleh capai jadi Singapore dan Hongkong mungkin jadi negeri orang Putih. lebih freedom.

Bila Tun join Pakatan Rakyat lagi bagus bila orang UMNO sekarang sudah tak ada power dan takut dan selalu mintak ampun tak berani cakap pun. semua mintak ampun sikit cakap ledear sudah takut mintak ampun. Mereka sudah tidak ada leader yang betul boleh leads the party. semua tunggu untung saja. Saya confident TUN boleh bersatu untuk rakyat Malaysia yg adil dan sama rata. apa buat pun mereka tak nampak. seperti tangkap ikan dalam gelap. semua ikan masuk perangkap. itu ikan kita share equally. itu orang kita suruh diam-diam sana kampung.

kawan cakap very difficult to understand on what you try to elaborate in this blog but to me its not as what my friend described about this blog. its friendly and some more.... its informative.

TQ

Di Jepun PMnye dah 2 org letak jawatan..akibat krisis dan populariti yg merundum..nasib baik letak jawatan..kalau dia bunuh diri?

Kat Malaysia bila lagi? Xde maruah ke PM Malaysia kita nih? Ataupun dia mmg ada komplot dgn Anwar?

Tun need not dance to their tune. Do not be to defensive or your past policies and decisions. As a result, Malaysians enjoy a better standard of life ..which we take for granted.

This country is heading towards chaos and with that premise in mind,preparations should be made. If ' solutions ' are made by the current leadership, we are in for more trouble just because they are not capable of saving the country..faulty thinking runs through and through.

By now UMNO should have created a council which will assume a Mageran like function.

Delay and the country will disintegrate and will we ever recover..?

By adamjohari on September 3, 2008 6:00 AM

Very interesting article. I had no idea the then DYMM Agong was involved in all this... although that should be expected.

I still don't understand how a Lord President in the bar council could be sacked though. Isn't that position a position that is unquestionable? Or at least, perhaps like a state of democracy, that he should be sacked by people within the bar council itself?

Anyways, I think the current bar council stinks. Can't believe they have the balls to try to have a so called forum about Islam. Especially when the majority of them are non-Muslims. Malaysia isn't at a state where they can openly talk about such things. Malaysia has freedom of speech to a certain extent, minus hate speeches and extra sensitive speeches.

It's sad that many Malaysians do not fully understand democracy. They've probably been influenced by outside factors (eg: CNN) and think that our country could follow suit blindly.

Salam ayahanda Tun,

Saya pun ada terbaca dalam suratkhbar pasal panel ni.

And I have the same thought, "bila ada panel ni, tak dengar-dengar tapi tiba-tiba muncul!".

Walau apapun, ayahanda Tun hendaklah berjaga-jaga, ada pihak memang nak mengenakan dan memburukkan nama serta reputasi ayahanda Tun.

Saya percaya ayahanda Tun, dengan lebih 20 tahun bergelar pemimpin, bertindak kerana "berani kerana benar!"

Hope ayahanda Tun, bonda Siti Hasmah be in great of health.

Saya mengucapkan selamat berpuasa kepada ayahanda dan keluarga.

Wassalam.

p/s: I hope its not to early to congratulate ayahanda to achieve a 6th-million visitor mark to chedet.com.
TAHNIAH!

TUN ...

UMNO dah terumbang-ambing disebabkan Pak Lah. Nak tutup malu pasal kekalahan mula la nak buka buku nak kenakan TUN..saya pon tak konfiden Pak Lah nak letak jawatan ..Macam nih la TUN.. Bunyinya agak gila .. tapi saya hanya syorkan aje .. tuh pon kalo TUN larat lagi le..Setup satu parti .. Kasi menang dalam pilihanraya akan datang .. then bila dah menang .. Pak Lah ngan Anwar bleh get out ... then bubar parti tuh balik menjadi parti UMNO kembali .. TUN setup balik dari jawatankuasa tertinggi sampai la bawah2 nih .. banyak keje tuh mmg banyak keje .. tapi sekurang2nya kalo tak menang pon ... kasi kacau undi .. bagi nama PARTI KESEDARAN ke .. kalo tak sedar gak rakyat MALAYSIA nih tak tau lah ..

TUN ..

saya rasa macm masalah juga jika perbicaraan nih terus berlangsung .. tidak ada keadilan untuk TUN jika dibicarakan.Dari hakim sampai la peguam. Akan berlakunya penghakiman berat sebelah..dah la nak pakai hakim luar pulak tuh..lagi la tanggung langgang.. bukan TUN tak tahu.. ramai org luar sana tuh tak puashati ngan TUN masa TUN jadi PM .. ngan kuasa2 veto pon TUN bantai..lagi la diorang nak ambil peluang nih.. Satu je saya rasa bleh setel problem nih. Iaitu penglibatan AGONG dan RAJA-RAJA yang akan menggunakan kuasa MUTLAK menghapuskan benda ini.. kalo buat perangai jugak ngan AGONG dan RAJA-RAJA ...Ape lagi suruh depa gi cari negara lain..

Mereka takut terima kritikan dan tak pandang ke hadapan.

Zaman Tun dulu...Malaysia Maju Umno Kuat....

Pak Lah harus terima kenyataan itu.

Dear Tun,

This Malaysian Bar Council members are suffering from inferiority complex during your period running the government. They were like "tikus" because they cannot manipulate your thinking, So now they are trying to project themselves to be the champion of the people because they know they can bully Pak Lah, a lame duck Prime Minister. They have got Zaid and the oppositions in their pocket. Lately, you can observe that they are becoming more arrogant and ridiculing Pak Lah and his weak government by making them look like idiot!!

Salam tun,

Agenda politik akan bergerak untuk memusnahkan musuh mereka walaupun perkara yang tidak benar boleh dibenarkan. Dalam hal ini, pada pandangan saya, kita tidak dapat berbuat apa-apa atau bersuara, dan yg saya lihat suara suara tidak puashati dan kritikan hanya dapat diluahkan melalui blog yg mana tidak kita rujuk pada media seratus peratus.

Suara kritikan perlu dan kita juga perlu pandangan dan kritikan daripada mereka yg berpengalaman seperti Tun, dan rakyat Malaysia kini amat matang, kita baca dan kita buat penilaian, walaupun agenda politik berniat utk menghancurkan musuh mereka.

Pada saya, segala kritikan dan pandangan tun saya buat penilaian saya sendiri saya tidak melatah atau emosional, dan saya akan gunakan hak saya sebagai rakyat untuk memilih kerajaan yang saya mahukan melalui satu undi saya yg berharga apabila tiba waktu pemilihan.

Kalau mereka yg ada agenda itu dungu atau emosional, jangan pula kita mengikut seperti mereka, maka jadilah pula kita tak ubah dan sama seperti mereka, maka sebagai rakyat malaysia kita akan bertindak dengan bijak dan saya berharap kritikan dan pandangan dari tun dapat diteruskan, sebagai salah satu kritikan orang luar yang saya masih perlu dengar sebagai kritikan membina dan sekiranya pemimpin yg ada menerima kritikan secara positif utk membetulkan diri mereka untuk rakyat, yg sedemikian adalah lebih baik.

Selamat menyambut bulan Ramadhan Al Mubarak.

Salam to Tun and all readers of chedet.com,

Apa la nak jadi dgn negara kita ini?... pening...pening.. Nowadays, every single soul in this country has begun to show their interest in the political scenario. I remembered in those days (during Tun's and our 3 other Prime Ministers), only people who are actually involved in politics, could talk about it. The rakyat then were not bothered about what was going on. Primarily because they knew that they were in safe hands. But today, talks about the current government can be heard at almost every corner of this country. The rakyat is feeling lost in their own country. The current government has practically done nothing to the interest of the suffering rakyat. Ironically, the current government claims that it is a rakyat-friendly-government! I wonder.....

Tun, I said the ghost of the yester years is coming back to haunt you. After this judiciary crisis case is done, the defamation suit against you brought by Anwar, the Liggam tape and many more. We are all waiting to see this cases of the century. You have to answer to all this allegations. You can't escape.

By lufias_eng on September 3, 2008 9:06 AM

Tun,

1. The transparency and judicial effectiveness promoted by government lately seemed not functioned well and have other bad intentions.

2. I'm really touched when the forum of embracing Islam organised by Bar Council had no strong responses from Government or more precisely said the de facto minister of law and PM himself. Shame on both of you. I put a real high respect to Zulkifli Nordin and Salahuddin Ayub and riot teams for confronting efforts they did.

3. Ironically, on 1988 judicial crisis issue government seemed had more 'interest' and could even hasten the affected parties to conduct the investigation. What was in the world that the issue give big impacts to whole rakyat? Why government spent big money to pay ex gratia payment to them as more money could be channelled to rakyat? Where are the actual justice fall?

4. Flip-flop government leading by PakLah should step down the soonest. Rakyat could not stand anymore the disasters you bring to our beloved Malaysia.

5. I will always supporting you Tun Dr Mahathir on the exposures you made. You have my salute all the time.

Salam Ayahanda Tun Dr.M,

I read your writing with frustration. I really feel disgusted with this Bar Council especially its President for allowing yet another kangaroo court to judge you. Who is this President of the Bar Council think he is? What Judicial Crisis he's talking about? This clown should really be looking into reality of today; people of Malaysian do not want another so called commission to judge the so called wrong doings of our previous leaders. If there were any then why have they not found anything? We do believe that the fact is they don't have anything.

As mention by Tun in paragraph 11. Yes, why don't the Bar Council enlighten the people on the cost of having this panel. Is there any government's money i.e. the tax payer had earned money being spent here? And why must the government, using the people's money, pay for dinner held by the Bar Council? One must wonder.

Wassalam.

By azharad on September 3, 2008 9:17 AM

Assalamuaikum Tun,

Hoping today is a better day for you. I believe they have a plot against you, these people are trying their level best to undermine your credibility in the eyes of Malaysians.

Dear Tun,

They have forgotten one very important thing, contribution. What has the current Prime Minister contributed to the nation? Practically NOTHING! In his era, Malaysians are getting weaker, let alone the Malays. Bar Council is just one of his PETS, just like the rest. Maybe they are so ignorant to realise or maybe to arrogant to admit that we grew up during TUN's era as Prime Minister not that Father In-law's of the Young Advisor era. One fine day, if this beloved nation is destroyed as a result of decisions made by these monkeys... a Tribunal must be set up solely to decide their fate. Previous leaders of UMNO sacrificed themselves for this nation but the current leaders are killing the nation just to ensure their short survival.

Most respected Tun,

I would like to touch a bit on the Tribunal set up during the 1988 Judicial crisis. If I am not mistaken, the person who chaired the removal Tribunal was Tun Salleh Abbas's successor. If I am right Tun, clearly there was an issue of a conflict of interest. Maybe you can correct me if I am wrong Sir.

Dearest Tun,

This is for you...

A true leader has the confidence to stand alone, the courage to make tough decisions and the compassion to listen to the needs of others. He does not set out to be a leader but becomes one by the quality of his actions and the integrity of his intent. In the end leaders are just like eagles... they don't flock, you find them one at a time.

Tun,

Selamat berpuasa, my warm regards to your family, teruskan perjuangan. Assalamualaikum.

Dear Tun,

I am sorry to say that Malaysia Judiciary system is the most dirtiest like other countries. Instead of playing the role of "without fear & favour", it seems that they are playing in a double faces which is "God & Devil".

I personally don't trust any person whose works is relating to the laws-he speaks twist and turn like snake....a piece of great liar...
It could be because of the above characteristics which form our judiciary system.

Good day & Selamat Hari Puasa!
By OrangLama on September 3, 2008 9:25 AM

Salam,

1. Bar Council

Bar council ini sudah mencampuri urusan negara terutamanya sekali mempersoalkan keputusan Yang DiPertuan Agung. Ini adalah perbuatan derhaka kepada Raja2 Melayu. Orang melayu yang menganggotai Majlis Tertinggi Bar Concil apa depa buat? Sepatutnya Presiden Bar Council mesti orang Melayu beragama Islam.

Bar Council menganjurkan aktiviti mempersoalkan pelaksanaan Hukum Syariah. Cara mereka ini hampir selari perjuangan DAP . Pihak kerajaan harus memantau Bar Council ini. Mereka hanya mempergunakan kerajaan untuk kepentingan mereka. Dah lah DAP dan PKR berjaya memesung fikiran Melayu sejati kepada Malaysian Malaysia. Tak kan pula pemimpin UMNO nak kena kelentong pula dengan Bar Council. Mungkin satu hari bila orang Melayu dah jadi terlalu lemah mereka akan memepersoalkan hak Raja2 Melayu pula.

Pada pandangan ahli politik pembangkang (dan ahli politik BNasional yang bercita2 tinggi) Tun merupakan halangan utama perlu mereka selesaikan untuk mencapai hajat mereka. Tun mempertahankan hak2 orang Mealyu tanpa menganiayai kaum lain. Tapi pembangkang tak suka sesiapa pun memepertahankan hak orang Melayu. Sesiapa Memepertahankan hak Melayu di hukum "rascist" (perkauman). Sesiapa bersetuju dengan Depa dikatakan pejuang demokrasi. Orang Melayu PKR dan PAS ,hang pa ditakrifkan DAP sebagai "racist" atau pejuang demokrasi.

2. Kroni

Wahai orang Melayu semua, janganlah kata UMNO hanya pentingkan kroni atau ahli2 nya sahaja. Amalan Kroni adalah salah dan perlu dihapuskan. Kroni tak ramai tetapi majoriti orang Melayu telah dan masih mendapat faedah dari dasar kerajaan sediada walaupun mereka bukan kroni. walaupun saya ahli UMNO tegar , guna duit sendiri bersama menjayakan aktiviti UMNO tetapi saya sendiri pun tidak diutamakan kenaikan pangkat berbanding dengan pegawai lain yang terang2 menentang kerajaan, kerana ada orang Melayu lain lebih layak dari saya. Saya tak kisah asalkan orang Melayu yang berjaya ini bersyukur kepada Tuhan dengan berbakti kepada orang lain pula. Pensyarah2 walaupun sokong pembangkang ,ramai jadi Profesor. Pegawai2 tinggi kerajaan ramai sokong pembangkang. Tok Imam2 pun ramai sokong pembangkang. anak2 depa dapat kerja baik lepas tu sokong pembangkang. Adakah mereka ini semua kroni Barisana Nasional. tengok lah pemimpin pembangkang Melayu sendiri, depa tak pernah dapat faedah dari dasar kerajaan ?

3. Kesimpulan

Saya bimbang orang Melayu yang suka ikut perasaan("emotion in motion")dalam membuat keputusan akan tertipu dan tersesat dengan rentak pembangkang bukan Melayu dan pembelot2 Melayu lain. Satu demi satu pembangkang dan beberapa NGO mempersoalkan hak orang Melayu. Kewajipan kita yang hidup sekarang ini mempertahankan hak Melayu untuk generasi akan datang.

By jeggy on September 3, 2008 9:27 AM

Do not worry. Almighty God does not discriminate. The truth will prevail. Those guilty will be punished. The innocent persons will be vindicated. Therefore relax and let the judicial process take its own course. God is great.

Dear Tun and all chedet bloggers,

Nowadays , every morning when I woke up , I sense clouds all over my mind on what is going to happen to our country Malaysia . No peace and security . I think I have had enough of Dato Zaid and his Bar council antics and also our government.

First , the ex-gratia payment. A lot of critics have already hurled to them on this action.

At such , they come out with this so called panel.Bar council are only seeking for ultimate power in the Malaysian constituency. To those lawyers who claim they want to restore the judicial system are a bunch of liars . Seeking power under the veil of judicial reformation are all bullshit.(Sorry but can't help to use this harsh word).It's true that Tun have amended the law that the making of law falls in the hand of goverment, This is done so that the lawyers are refrain to simply interpret any laws as they wish. They need to follow guidelines and precedence as they should practice.

CAN ANY LAWYERS OUT THERE SHOW ME IN WHICH INSTANCES THAT TUN HAVE ABUSE THE PROVISION WHEN THE LAW HAVE BEEN AMENDED ?

So don't dare to talk about judicial reformation when there is none! It 's the owndoing of the BAR COUNCIL that are putting fire and make the issue bigger in the eyes of the whole world that our judicial system are tainted as they are not happy that their power are reduced.So GET ON WITH YOUR WORK AND STOP FINDING REASON AND EXCUSE FOR YOUR SO CALLED JUDICIAL REFORMATION WHEN THERE ARE NOTHING THAT AFFECTS YOUR WORKS WITH THE AMENDMENT DONE BY TUN. I DARE ALL LAWYERS TO SHOW ME IN WHICH INSTANCES THAT THE PROVISION HINDER THEIR WORK AND INTERGRITY!

All procedures have been followed in the TUN SALLEH ABBAS case and also the AI case where he is allowed to appeal to higher courts on the verdict done by the lower courts.At the end , he is released on technical ground.

Have the government or BAR COUNCIL taken any action on Justice Chin on making false statement on the veil threat accused to TUN ? Now they know that they have no strong evidence to pursue this case . Justice Chin have no option and resorted have earlier retirement quietly so that this issue can be swept out .

Now , they are cooking out another method to bring TUN down. The " rakyat" ar not blind !The case are so glaring clear that it's all an effort to bring TUN's down.To Dato Zaid and the Bar Council , if you all have nothing to do , please by all means clear out all those outstanding back log cases!

I guess this is where all the hard earned tax payer money and the country wealth gone paid to all these so called panel retired lawyers .

On another note , I wish to congratulate the ACA for thier crack down on the PUSPAKOM and the UMNO members money politic. Although , the UMNO money politics crackdown are only done to the " small fis" nevertheless it's a good start. I hope this effort is not trying to cloud the rakyat's mind on the other BIG FISH in the utmost top of the UMNO structure. I am still waiting for you to records the statement from our PM and DPM on the alleged money politic lodges by the certain parties earlier.

By Citizen in distress.

PS : I hope Malaysia will not follow Bangkok in their political mess.

UMNO & BN Component parties will fall because they no longer serve the purpose for their existence.

UMNO nak menentang siapa ni? British?..hahaha..tidor 51 tahun ker ni?
British dah balik 51 tahun lalu lah.

Parti parti komponen BN sudah terlalu lama dipinggirkan dari arus perdana untuk menyalurkan kepimpinan dan menjadi tempat rakyat mengadu kesusahan dan kesengsaraan yang dialami. Parti parti komponen BN tidak lagi dapat undi rakyat kerana tidak ada kuasa untuk menolong rakyat. Hanya UMNO yang berkuasa dalam BN dan parti parti komponen hanyalah boneka untuk mencantikkan pandangan orang luar.

Aslmkm YABhg.Tun,

Sehingga sekarang rakyat tidak dimaklumkan mengenai jumlah suapan (ex-gratia payment) kepada hakim-hakim yang telah diberhentikan dari jawatan mereka mengikut lunas undang-undang dan perlembagaan. Mengapa suapan ini diberikan menjadi tanda tanya sehingga hari ini? Dan rakyat mempersoalkan mengapa Kerajaan perlu menanggung kos jamuan makan malam untuk Majlis Peguam. Tidakkah ini juga merupakan suapan kepada Majlis Peguam? Apa faedahnya pada rakyat dan Negara? Jumlah wang itu jika disedekahkan kepada fakir miskin, yang masih begitu ramai lagi di negara kita ini, adalah lebih baik. Tindakan Bar Council yang terakhir ini tidak memperbodohkan sesiapa melainkan mereka sendiri. Sudah makin jelas ternampak bahawa Bar Council ini adalah "poodle" kepada the defacto Law Minister. Sehubungan pada Tun semakin hari semakin bertambah.

Mr Suresh, assuming that you are a Malaysian Indian, you should be happy that Tun was PM as at that point of time a royalty can simply whack a young Indian Hockey player during a game. Perhaps you are too young to remember and mind you, that is only one example.

Tun was basically protecting every malaysian and not only the Malays as many people would like to believe nowadays.

Assalamualaikum Tun,

As the rakyat of this beloved country I am seeing a very dangerous trend regarding our judicial system and the bar council. Whatever games that they are playing, someone is going to get hurt in the end and its politically motivated because of purely revenge. I think as Malaysians we do not like what we see in this current administration because of they are singing along to the tune of outsiders. Someone have already planned these events to happened the way it is right now and we dont like what we are seeing now and the rakyat are not stupid.

Tun our prayers are with you, just be prepared for any outcomes and we stand tall with you. We know what you have done for the nation as a whole so the records still stand that you are still the best premier we ever had. May Allah bless us all..... Hidup Tun Dr Mahathir....

salam Tun,

A man went to a brain store to get some brain to complete a study. He sees a sign remarking on the quality of professional brain offered at this particular brain store. He begins to question the butcher about the cost of these brains.

"How much does it cost for engineer brain?"

"Three dollars an ounce."

"How much does it cost for programmer brain?"

"How much for lawyer brain?"

"$1,000 an ounce."

"Why is lawyer brain so much more?"

"Do you know how many lawyers we had to kill to get one ounce of brain?"

I think the Bar Council is attempting to garner cheap publicity.

I think the panel is enjoying an all-expenses-paid holiday here.

Dear Tun,

What if Sep 16th is real. That Anwar do get 30 MPs from God-knows-where to join Pakatan. Maybe, the dum-dum Pah Lah, while chewing his gum-gum, is the co-mastermind after all.

It is not impossible. Pak Lah supported Anwar before. They are buddies. After all, he released Anwar from jail... that must mean something. Maybe, its all a big black juicy conspiracy theory!

See, maybe when both Anwar & Pak Lah were working with you they had harvest this bad feeling about you (why ? I dont know, hyphothetically speaking lah). So they made a pack, one day they want to destroy you, and if they fail at that, then they will destroy the one thing you love the most. Malaysia.

They know, you cant stand it if anything were to happen to this country. This is your soft spot. Your weakness.

As Anwar is the younger of the two, Pak Lah will let Anwar rule provided Anwar continue to channel huge wealth to Pak Lah's family when he becomes PM. They then secretly agree that, Pak Lah shall continue to behave like a dum-dum, be flip-flops and keep giving delirious speeches. Not a problem for Pak Lah. Meanwhile, Anwar will continue to destroy the current government's image (if there is any lah). Not a problem for Anwar either. The 30 MPs ? Well, Not a problem at all. Everybody is for sale, when the price is right.

Come Sep 16th, maybe the first to join PKR is Pah Lah. Then Najib. Then other MPs (well, after all, they are 'behind' Pak Lah ma..). BN dies. Pakatan has majority. Anwar becomes PM.

Then what?

Guess, Anwar will start coming at you lah pulak. But i am sure you are already very prepared for any onslaught from him. After all, whatever tricks Anwar has, he learnt it from you. I am sure you still have many more silver bullets to shoot.

Well, that's a crazy theory. But who knows...

Back to reality, may God save us! Take care Tun.

By JJJ on September 3, 2008 11:02 AM

salam Tun,

I have a phobia against lawyers.I cringe whenever introduced to a lawyer.

I think many of them always have hidden agendas and motives whenever they set out for any undertakings such as the Bar Council's latest escapades.

I am certain one of these days Datuk S. Ambiga will become a politician. However to you Datuk S. Ambiga, may I suggest you get your own house in order first before embarking on a sneaky campaign to tarnish Tun's name?

Phantom voters in the Bar Council only shows that some things are not right in your own backyard.

Assoc. Prof Dr. Abd Rani Kamaruddin certainly has a few points regarding the Bar Council.

Tun's remarks,

3. This is a new idea by the Bar Council to invalidate the findings of the Tribunals set up according to the Constitution of Malaysia, the Supreme Law of Malaysia. It is a negation of the rule of law and a slap in the face for the Malaysian King, the Yang di-Pertuan Agong.

EXCUSE ME, BUT CAN THIS ACT BY THE BAR COUNCIL BE CONSIDERED 'TREASON'?

Dear Tun,

You have said recently that you are going to migrate elsewhere for reasons known almost to all.

What Dolah, his de-facto law minister and the gang are unleashing daily is to provide the catalyst that you flee the country like Thaksin, leaving them free to set the course of this country.

They are blaming squarely on Tun's 22 years tenure, which have caused for all the confusions in the country today.

This is the classic case of biting the very hand that feeds them.

Salam Tun

Thank you for your blog. I do not agree that Pak Lah and members should try to find something wrong if something is done right. However, I am sure Tun knows the gravity of an event if the Chief Justice is removed and so Tun should consider the consequences carefully. Because the rakyat may not know the internal matters that caused the removal of this High Court Judge. In fact I myself don't know that the King ordered the removal until you just mentioned it in your blog just now. So we view things differently when we DO NOT KNOW and all we saw was the removing of the top judge which seemed very strange indeed. But I do not agree if Abdullah is trying to dig old dirt. The Tun Salleh affair happened a long time ago. What should have been done right or said right, should have been done during the time the event happened not now.

I would like to move on to current affairs. I am worried about Malaysia's state of Government. Anwar is now in Parlimen and as Opposition Leader and a Senior UMNO Chief was shot dead assassin style by 2 gunmen in Johor. Also Najib apologizes on behalf of UMNO for the racist statement of one of their leader which is wrong. The person who made the statement himself should apologize. All this cause me to be more worried about Malaysia and I can now see how bad UMNO / BN is. Even the opposition parties are not so corrupted as this. Please do not try to revive UMNO / BN. If it is in a state like this, better to let it be buried permanently but let the good leaders and good people in UMNO / BN survive! Let a new party be setup with capable leaders with a capable knowledge of Islam. Let the UMNO membership be revised...let it be based on Islam...and open it to all races without fear or favour, without prejudice or racist.

Tentang kes ni, saya rasa ianya tidak lebih dari agenda Pak Lah untuk meraih populariti dikalangan pengamal undang-undang dengan harapan mendapat sokongan mutlak dari mereka. Dey wake up la.

Tengok apa yang telah berlaku apabila Pak Lah bebaskan Anwar. Haru biru dibuatnya negara ni.

Orang tua tu sepatutnya sedar, bila orang dah tak suka berhenti je la. Duduk rumah tanam sayur lagi bagus. Yang masih suka kat dia adalah pengampu dan pembodek yang takut kuasa dan kemewahan mereka dirampas.

Assalamualaikum wbt. Tun, setelah membaca apa yang ditulis dalam laman ini, dan khususnya blog terbaru ni, timbul persoalan : apakah yang sebenarnya Tun mahu?

Way back in 1969, I saw this film "Man for all season" which gained nomination of Academy Awardz. Its a story of a man, a nations' judge, who had to go through his enemies strategies. But he succumbed his loyalty to the nation, even though he was found guilty of corruption, which, of course he did not really did it. (Theres some legal technicalities involved.)

Lepas tu saya jumpa seorang tok guru (allahyarhamah) yang memberi nasihat pada saya, yang saya pegang hingga ke hari ini, iaitu : cakap apa yang kamu mahu; pisang setandang masak sebiji pun jadilah. Tapi saya juga pegang pada nasihatnya yang diberikan untuk sahabat saya iaitu : merendah tak jatuh.

Saya juga mengalami pelbagai masalah dalam hidup ini, tapi akhir sekali saya akan balik ke 'cakap apa yang kamu mahu'. Ketika itu saya akan munajat... dan alhamdulillah, saya dapat survive hingga ke saat ini. Walau pun kawan lihat saya daif, tapi tidak bagi saya, malah rasa kegembiraan dan kejayaan!

Saya akui, masalah saya tidaklah sehebat tun, tapi Allah memberikan ujian mengikut kadar yang ada pada kita. Dan masalah saya juga terlibat dengan soal negara, tapi pada level saya sahaja.

Maksud saya ialah bukan nak mengajar tun, tapi nak bertukar pengalaman agar kita senantiasa berada dalam siratulmustaqim. Wallahuwaalam.

Ayahanda Tun,

Saya dah penat. Saya dah letih. Jemu dan muak dengan senario politik di Malaysia. Negara ini tidak lagi semakmur dan seharmonis sewaktu pentadbiran Tun.

Wang rakyat dibelanjakan sesuka hati. Jumlah pembayaran ex-gratia tidak dimaklumkan kepada rakyat atas alasan, keluarga si penerima tidak mahu kerajaan menghebahkannya. Bagaimana dengan permintaan rakyat sendiri yang mahu tahu jumlah sebenar dibayar? Tidakkah rakyat lebih berhak tahu kerana wang itu datangnya daripada rakyat Malaysia sendiri?

Jika selama ini para peguam asyik bercakap pasal keadilan dan hak, mengapa dalam kes ini hak rakyat Malaysia dinafikan? Mengapa tidak ada sesiapa yang mahu tampil ke hadapan untuk bercakap?

Mana dia wakil-wakil rakyat yang kononnya dipilih oleh rakyat? Bukankah tugas mereka untuk menyampaikan segala apa yang disuarakan oleh rakyat kepada pemimpin tertinggi? Tolonglah, jangan hanya bercakap tentang isu-isu pembangunan. Rakyat perlu tahu hal sebenar.

Semoga Allah melindungi Malaysia dan agama Islam terus terpelihara. Amin.

Assalamualaikum Tun,

I am with you Tun 100% and more.

1. May I firstly ask the bar council what is its locus standi to put together such a tribunal or whatever they called this kangaroo court. There must be a certain motive to its intent. It all sounds suspiciously schematic not merely to vindicate Salleh Abas but more for the running down of someone else.

2. Who are these 'clowns', who have become the tools of the Bar Council? Who empowered these so called learned ex judges, judge? (Retired are they, so we have to understand they need the money, who ever paid them, they need that importance at their old age, and most importantly The Chairman of the Bar Council; needs to be in the limelight as part of a sinister design.) And why mainly from impoverished India and Pakistan.

3. This set up was no less than a kangaroo court.

4. No one was aware of its proceedings, no one was allowed access except the Bar Council (I presume). No one knows the details, the witnesses called, the 'charges', the evidence presented, who was for and who was against, who took the stand? As it seems the so called retired judges worked on the evidence presented by the Bar Council and its diligent cohorts!

5. The imperious Chairman of the Bar council is politically motivated with her ambitions of being able to dictate in the running the country. This she had admitted recently herself. This, all the more should not allow her the cuff to interfere with the running of the country and its laws. She is but a most unbiased lawyer, who enjoys being the Prosecutor, Judge, Jury. She portrays a one track mind of vilifying a certain....!

6. a. This is all a conspiracy of the interested with its de facto Minister (who sadly was found guilty of misconduct, for the use of money for political power gain, and consequently suspended or rather found guilty of giving bribes and;

b. Most importantly he is not an elected member of the people, he was found not fit to be elected by the ruling Government (due to his giving bribes) yet he has been placed in a position to solely vilifying, nothing more nothing less. Since his elevation his only duty has been to look into the affairs of Salleh Abas.) The Minister was hand picked to start a vicious crusade to unvilify Tun Salleh Abas.

7. It must be noted that Salleh Abas, when in office had tried to hold the Government to ransom. Yes, HOLD the GOVERNMENT to RANSOM. He commanded the assembly of all the Malaysian judges and practically under duress mandated them to sign a protest letter and to rise up against the Government of the day.

a. This is discounting that fact that Salleh Abas was audacious, bold and discourtesies enough to whine over the DYMM Agong noise. And try to bring down the elected Prime Minister of Malaysia.

b. He circulated his letter to all the State Rulers to pressure the Agong into submitting and conceding to his needs.

c. Salleh Abas tried to commandeer the Agong and the Sate Rulers to get the Prime Minister of the day to be fired!

d. Salleh Abas in a most unbecoming behaviour of the Lord President of Malaysia went around the country holding forums to criticize the Government, which was none of his business. He must have thought that as the Lord president he was above the Government of the day which was duly elected by the people of Malaysia.

e. Salleh Abas was politically inclined and wanted to rule the country! This is evidenced by the fact that he joined a politically party and went into active politics as an elected councillor. On realising that he had no way to the top, he slowing vanished into an orchard. But now he seems to be enjoying the attention and is hogging the limelight, thanks to certain interested parties.

This deserved that Salleh Abas who was trying to boss the Government of the day to be hauled up to a tribunal – simple as that!

And now along comes superman or rather superwoman (is it plane, or is it superwoman or is it a tool) trying not just to defend the guilty but to carrying out a vilifying scheme to exonerate interest parties!

Tun, Thank you for this space

Take care of your health Tun

Regards

Actually one of the biggest joke is ... in what condition do you want the lawyers to select the judges. If I am a lawyer... I would choose judges that :-

- 1) allows me to win
- 2) delays cases as much as possible (tun Salleh was a master at this) so that I can get court appearance fees as much as possible
- 3) lazy ones (same reason as above) so that it drags forever
- 4) Nice to lawyers, even when they dont seem to be acting in the client's interest.

It's like allowing unruly students to pick discipline teachers. That is the joke. Unfortunately though, the joke is on us... "Malangnya jadi Malaysian" (never said THAT during Tun's era)

By cakkuncak on September 3, 2008 12:13 PM

YAB Tun,

Stand up to these people! Who do they think they are? Just because they are lawyers and the Government cannot answer your criticisms, they wish to resort to these highhandedness.

These people are disgusting to say the least...

I would like to comment on the National Day Parade when the Agung and PM / DPM were sitting down on the chairs when the national parade was passing them. This is a very bad example. Before this, the Agung, PM and DPM stood up the whole time when the national parade was passing them. This showed they appreciated the contribution of Malaysians and are proud of them. But (from what I saw on TV) with the Agung and PM / DPM were sitting down on the chairs when the national parade was passing them, this showed a 'couldn't care less' attitude. Actually I am quite ashamed. I also noticed that the Agung and PM / DPM did not talk to each other and did not appear friendly to each other which is even worse. Is it all a show ?

By bungateluki on September 3, 2008 12:14 PM

Tun,

Is it possible to reveal the 2 letters sent by Salleh Abas to the Agong with the comments made by the Agong? Let the whole world know the truth! Dont just let the Badawi govt n the de facto Law Minister together with the Bar Council have their say only. We want to read what Salleh Abas wrote.

2. When Abdullah badawi is removed, I propose to the in-coming Prime Minister to bring back YAB Ibrahim Ali into UMNO and make him a full Minister to handle the Bar Council and the Lawyers. Then we will see who is clever.

Salam sejahtera kepada Tun sekeluarga

Salam buat Tun sekeluarga,

Who can we put our trust in if the judiciary system does no longer operate properly and justly? But then can we put the blame solely on the judges and their apprentices for whats been happening lately being given the arena by the government for them to act as unprofessionally as they are today?

The dance floor is open, and they are dancing to the tune.

Regards. Stay healthy and strong.

The Bar Council and their members are at their best when they sit and drink in a bar. Gulping from their mugs at their regular bar, they form their own council and eventually towards the end of the night, their mind altering drinks take over their heads.

Most of the lawyers are bootleggers and discuss nonsense in the bar.

That's where they belong..... The Bar where there is a bench and bar tender as judge. It's their Bar Council.

Tun yang dikasihi semoga berada dalam sehat sejahtera ,, diberkati dan dilimpahi rahmat oleh Allah SWT. Amin.

Tun. Izinkan nak luahkan perasaan rakyat dikala ini.

Setiap hari kita melihat ada pelbagai isu dan kes dipaparkan didada media cetak atau litronik.Semua kes2 itu menjelik dan menakutkan seperti Rasuah,rompakan pembunuhan. Semua nya dah tak terkawal lagi. Sudah tak aman lagi negara ini.

Harga minyak masih belum diturunkan walaupun minyak dunia dah turun.

Kata TOL nak turun tapi tak dengar apa2 pun. Rakyat nak sambut Hari Raya Idil Fitri tak lama lagi dengan keadaan ekonomi rakyat sebegini amat lah kesihan pada mereka2 yang berpadapatan rendah.

Bagi orang2 gomen ada jugak bonus bakal diterima. Bagi sektor swasta tentu lah agak kepayahan.

Kerajaan kurang peka akan kepayahan majority rakyatnya. Mereka lebih focus pada pembangunan mega dan koridor yang akan memberi laba dan keuntungan besar kepada sebahagian kecil rakyat, itu pun kroni2 mereka sahaja. Terlalu banyak wang digunakan untuk pelaburan jangka panjang yang masih kabur akan faedah nya kepada rakyat.

Tidak ada perancangan atau langkah2 jangka pendek untuk rakyat menghadapi kemelut ekonomi sekarang. Sebagai contoh, Tun pernah mengurangkan pemotongan EPF supaya rakyat ada kelebihan wang untuk digunakan dalam waktu2 sebegini.

Tak kan semua orang nak berniaga pasar Ramadan, siapa pulak nak jadi pembelinya pulak. Bukan semua yang berniaga itu untung. Ada gak yang mengeluh rugi. Hari hujan air tak laku.

Rakyat sekarang rata2 confuse, blur dah tak nampak lagi masih ada lagi ker cahaya dihujung tanjung untuk menerangi kehidupan ini dimasa2 mendatang. Itu lah antara rungutan dan kegelisahan rakyat masa kini.

Mereka dah boring dengan polimik poltik hari ini. Pemimpin dan pak menteri hanya lebih berpolitik sehingga gagal untuk melihat keperluan rakyat.

Ramai rakyat mengatakan TUN tetap pemimpin no.1. Hanya rakyat yang bemasalah sahaja yang tak sukakan TUN.

Seperti ahli atau pemimpin parti2 politik yang pentingkan diri sendiri, orang2 yang melanggar undang2 negara. Hakim2 yang tak beritika. Lawyer2 yang selalu kalah dimahkamah. Dan golongan masyarakat yang malas bekerja. Nak hidup senang jadi balaci atau orang suruhan untuk buat kacau menentang undang2 negara dan buat rusuhan.

Dan orang2 yang dengki pada kejayaan orang lain kerana berjaya setelah dibantu oleh kerajaan. Dan students yang tak tahu berterima kasih setelah dapat biasiswa kerajaan. Orang2 ini lah sahaja yang tak sukakan TUN.

Ramai rakyat yakin TUN masih berpengaruh. Tak ada masaalah jika TUN nak buat come back. Tak payah guna UMNO. Parti cap ayam pun boleh.

TUN fikir2kan lah demi negara dan rakyat.

It is so convenient to blame it on you for all that is happening and that is something I just cant figure out. If we support you, we are labelled as staunch/fanatic supporters...so I wonder what they call the others who support the other politicians. When you write an article in your blog, the critiques come in say that their toes are laughing and you are just trying to glorify yourself in order for the support from your so called supporters does not dwindle....dont they know that we the supporters of TUN are not stupid and know what is right and wrong... if others want to criticize TUN,by all means do so as TUN has not blocked any comments criticizing TUN in his blog. And for heaven sake dont undermine WARGA CHEDET...we know what we read and are not the type how support stupidly... like I said before TUN might not have been a perfect leader but he is still the best has done and contributed a lot to the development of this country.

Take care TUN and God Bless You

Bar Council adalah satu pertubuhan yang menjaga ahli-ahlinya yang beramal sebagai peguambela dan peguamcara. Forum untuk membincangkan tentang undang-undang memang layak diadakan dikalangan mereka. Tetapi forum menentukan siapa salah, siapa betul, itu adil ini tak adil baik hentikan sahaja.

Tun, selama saya belajar memang pernah dibincangkan isu ketakwajaran tribunal yang menyingkirkan Tun Salleh. Ianya dibincangkan secara ilmiah bagaimana fungsi peruntukan Perlembagaan berkaitan dengan Hakim. Memang apabila diteliti betul-betul kuasa Perdana Menteri memang mempengaruhi kedudukan hakim-hakim. Terpulang sama ada PM tu nak guna atau tak. Kalaupun PM gunakan kuasa itu, barulah kita tahu siapa Hakim yang penakut, siapa Hakim yang betul2 mempunyai integriti yang tinggi (berani kerana benar)Takkan PM pun tak berani lawan.

Salam Tun.

To Ambiga aka Ayama,

Dei, pls dig and gali some more. If still you could not find fault, you can go to the library to get more facts. Maybe you can find fault with stamford raffles or hugh low or francis light or even mahatma gandhi. Then maybe you can find the answer why you're born kurang ajar.

To Zaid Ibrahim aka Kadok,

Woi, is that the best you can do? Do you think that your conspiracy with ayama will not be exposed one day? Do you think people will forget about your suspension due to money politics? Is this the way to get

Oh please, do not test us...

Tun,

01 The Federal Constitution touching on the Judiciary was amended by an Act of Parliament. In other words it was the democratic will of the people. But when Salleh Abbas wrote to the King complaining that the PM was undermining the independence of the judiciary it was NOT a democratic process at all.

02 Surely by writing that letter Salleh Abbas desired that the King do something that would please him (Salleh) namely i. censure the PM or ii. prevent the PM from doing his job.

How does that fit into the idea of our Parliamentary Democracy? The PM derives his legitimacy from the electorate and his duties are prescribed by Parliament. How or what did Salleh expect the King to do over his complaint that 'the PM was interfering with the Judiciary'? And that was a democratic process? And the Bar Council would support that?

03 Might I add that many Members of the Bar were adamant that the Sultan of Terengganu had the right to reject Idris Jusoh as the candidate for MB of Terengganu. But they were perplexed that the Sultan of Perak also had the right to NOT choose a non Malay as the MB of Perak. If many of them felt that the Sultan of Perak had to respect the wishes of our democratic system in Perak, then how come they do not extend the same degree of honesty to democracy in Terengganu?

04 Good question Tun. Who paid the money for the expenses of the panel? How much did each member get? Obviously the Panel was paid to give their opinion. The Bar Council is actually losing its credibility. The Bar is inebriated like a noisy bar.

05 While we are on the subject Tun, I also feel that it is highly sinful and criminal for any Chief Justice or Lord President (especially from the past) to take instructions from a politician (esp Opposition) and a senior lawyer (esp pro Opposition). I KNOW that you know more about this. I just hope that one day you may make all this known. It will save our country a lot of heartache if you divulge more of the information to which you were privy.

06 In the same way Tun, you know much more information about Anwar Ibrahim, especially about his other activities. For example what Tun Hanif told you about Anwar Ibrahim in 1993. Tun Hanif said that the Police still kept a watch on Anwar Ibrahim and tracked his every movements. Most certainly the Police have a file. Once in a speech you said plainly that 'Anwar ingat kita tidak tahu ke mana dia pergi. . . tetapi kita tahu semua tempat Anwar pergi dan apa dia buat'. Tun, why not just tell all to the public? You will certainly save the country much heartache. Some monsters have to be properly put to rest.

Salam bahagia buat Tun sekeluarga serta semua yang lain. Tun, mengapa orang2 ini sungguh2 seperti hendak memburuk2kan nama Tun? Apakah yang telah Tun lakukan sehingga sekarang tak habis2? Inilah sikap bangsa kita yang tak habis2 dengan hasad dengki dan sikap tamak. Walaupun maruah negara sendiri terjual. Apakah tak ada lagi rasa sayang pada negara? Hidup ini begitu singkat, mengapa kita tak mahu membuat sesuatu yang mendatangkan pada semua. Tun, mungkin tuhan ingin menduga Tun dgn semua ini. Mereka yang suka melihat Tun kecundang tak habis2 dengan rancangan2 mereka yang benar2 gila lagi tamak. Semoga Tun diberi kekuatan dan dilindungi ilahi. SELAMAT BERPUASA.....

umno - tak boleh pakai - penghabis khazanah negara dan jual negara pas - tak boleh pakai - pengadai bangsa dan tanah air pkp - tak boleh pakai - tak kira dua diatas, asalkan jadi PM kamu di 'divide and conquer'

bar council - tak bole pakai (anjing 'poraah!' nak berpolitik) please tell me again, mana perginya bangsa kamu yg boleh pakai?

marilah bangun dan sedar.. whatever you think of what i wrote.. the answer is 'tetap tergedai'...

To mohd sivakumar art pillay and the likes:

1. Why don't you introduce your real identity to us here, let us have a cross reference of who you really are and were you close to Tun M.
2. Since you judge Tun M like you know him so well that you said "...You will twist and turn the whole episode and create one new episode in making your staunch followers to believe you...".
3. Why don't you enlighten us how do you know that Tun M is creating stories or twisting stories?
4. If in any case, you don't have any concrete evidence or so, why don't you make like a tree, I believe it will make you looked better.
5. Tun M is using his real identity here to say his thoughts, and he will get 'shot' by his opponents, and you hide behind your nickname to shoot at Tun M whenever you like, you are just nothing more than a coward.

Dear Tun,

Correct me if i'm wrong. But i always thought Bar Council is a NGO. Meaning that whatever they say means nothing as it is not the law or constitution that we have to follow.

But man, do they hit our nerves? Apa hak BC utk mempertikaikan social contract, Hukum Syariah dan Malaysia Consitution? They are just a bunch of sore-loser lawyers (old and crappy). In fact, they shouldn't have any coverage in paper as their words means nothing. They should take care of the members well being instead of stepping on other peoples toes.

Actually i am not surprise if their real big boss is our crappiness Karpal Singh. Maybe Amibga is his lap dog in BC.

To all BC members, although you are lawyers, all of you are nothing compare to RAKYAT.

Yang dihormati Tun Dr. Mahathir

The Perak goverment in its latest move, awarded 400 hectares of public land to a Private Chinese School in Perak. What a moved.

To all Perak Malays. Congratulations dan Tahniah. You vote for PKR & PAS. This is what you get. A Chinese government lead by a Malay zombie from PKR. He's exactly like a Puppet on a string.

The real MB is Ngeh. Perak DAP chairman.

Nizar is simply an order taker or a Public Relation Manager for the government of Perak. All important government decision are made by DAP. PKR & PAS, is just to fill-up the state exco quorum. Nizar hanya ada kuasa berkaitan Potfolio Agama Islam saja. Potfolio lain yang lebih penting dikuasai oleh DAP. Tahniah, Melayu Perak. Tahniah sekali lagi. Kamu semua telah memberi kuasa kepada PKR, DAP & PAS. Kamu boleh bangga diatas pemilihan yang telah dibuat pada 8 Mac '08. Tahniah.

Tahniah saudara saudara, Yeop. Sedikit masa lagi, seluruh negeri Perak akan dijadikan kandang babi. Kerana sokongkan PKR, Kampong pun tergadai. Akhirnya, Melayu hanya tinggal nama saja. Tak ada kuasa lagi.

Buka lah mata dan buka lah minda kamu, wahai orang Melayu Perak. Jangan lah bodoh sangat. Fikirlah secara mandalam. Fikirlah secara intelek. Ingatlah bangsa kamu. Ingatlah negara kamu dan ingatlah asal usul kita orang Melayu. Baca lah sejarah dan fahamilah ianya. Kalau tak faham sejarah, tanyalah orang yang lebih arif. Tanyalah pemimpin yang boleh dipercayai. Fikirlah sebagai satu bangsa dan darimana asal usul kita.

Jangan lah kita diperbodohkan oleh pihak yang berkepentingan peribadi. Kita mesti bergerak kearah yang sama dan maju sebagai satu bangsa. Perpecahan kita hanya akan melemahkan bangsa Melayu itu sendiri. Itulah hasrat musuh kita. Musuh kita tidak mahu kita bersatu. Seperti perpatah Melayu "Bersatu teguh, bercerai roboh". Mereka ingin melihat kita berpecah. Bila kita berpecah, dengan sendirinya kita akan menjadi lemah kerana tidak mempunyai kuasa politik. Bila Melayu hilang kuasa pemerintahan, maka diambil lah mereka segala peluang yang ada dan Melayu akan dipinggirkan.

Pemimpin no. satu PKR hanya mempunyai kepentingan peribadi. Hasrat utama beliau ialah untuk menjadi PM. Beliau tidak mempunyai agenda untuk mempertahankan dan memajukan orang Melayu. Beliau hanya menuntut keadilan diatas tindakan yang telah diterima pada tahun 1998. Selain daripada itu, PKR juga bukan lah parti orang Melayu. Ianya parti semua bangsa.

Sekali lagi saya jelaskan bahasa PKR tidak akan berjuang untuk mempertahankan hak orang Melayu kerana PKR merupakan parti semua bangsa yang dianggotai oleh pemimpin pemimpin yang berkepentingan peribadi. Pemimpin pemimpin PKR juga merupakan individu yang telah diperalatkan oleh kuasa yang ingin menhangcurkan oleh Melayu dari negara ini.

Saya kesal dengan apa yang telah berlaku. Orang Melayu tak fikir panjang. Lebih suka berkhayal dan merempit. Memang benar sepertimana yang Tun telah katakan 10 tahun lalu..."Melayu Mudah Lupa".

Tapi yang ke 3 lah yang paling aku benci SEBAB

1. tiap-tiap bulan datang surat peguam tuntutan hutang walaupun hutang dah bayar
2. Bayar yuran peguam tapi kerja aku kena buat sendiri semasa urusan jual beli tanah
3. Kerja tak seberapa tapi dikenakan yuran yang tak masuk akal
4. 4 tahun aku jual rumah sampai hari ini nama pembayar cukai pintu tetap nama aku, duit dah bayar tapi kerja tak buat.

Dear Tun & Readers,

I was touched by Navinda says in DSAI blog...

navinda Says:

September 2, 2008 at 4:11 pm

Hi Haris,

I was there when Merdeka was declared and the Malaysian flag hoisted. I was on 13 then. It was a proud moment for me and I joined in the shouts of Merdeka just as my dad did. Back home the National flag was again hoisted on a bamboo pole. We shouted "merdeka" at every one who passed by and this continued the whole day. We were full fledged Malaysians then.

Life was good. My class was all boys from the different races. When we voted the head boy, I chose to vote a Malay over the Indian candidate, not on racial perspective but based on the character of the person. He proved to be the perfect head.

During May 13, I was stranded on an island for a week. I used to sit in the Chinese coffee shop and play cards with the Malay policemen and their friends. There was no animosity even as we heard stories of atrocities over radio and the rumor mill. We could move about on our own free will as no curfew was imposed there.

Life was pleasant till the early 80s. Slowly color consciousness and religious divides appeared. Friends disappeared from our lives and we were forced into racial groups.

When AAB took over as PM we thought that the old times will be back. We are sadly mistaken. We are frustrated and disappointed by his lack of action to unite the races. Instead, racial politics is at its height and if not checked could be very explosive. UMNO especially is playing the racial card and none of the so called leaders in the party seemed to care for a Malaysian nation.

Merdeka has lost its meaning. There is no pride in being a Malaysian.

By bond on September 3, 2008 2:59 PM

Dear Tun Mahathir,

I understand your concern about the government is very much corrupted under the AAB's administration..

This is very true and very clear to us..

The corruption within the government, now is very obvious and common in conversations among people..

New stories pop-up everytime I chat with someone!

Truthfully? It is because we have an extremely weak leader..

He is weak, corrupted, cowardly and has no leadership values..

His only way of handling issues is saying he is disappointed and never talk about it again, and hopefully people will forget..

This is the ostrich concept.. A big bird trying to hide its head in a hole.. His post is technically the highest in Malaysia, how can people not notice him when he hides? Its ridiculous..

Kind of hard to believe that you were his mentor before, both of you are extremely different, without doubt..

Something has been troubling me... What is your conquest?

I know you are revealing on how corrupted the government is, we all know about it, just on different matters and issues..

I know you are trying to bring down AAB but..

If you do so, are you not toppling UMNO as well?

AAB is very much corrupted, and Najib as well as most UMNO MPs have a disability to lead or are somewhat corrupted..

People will turn to the only choice, that is the Pakatan Rakyat..

UMNO may not be able to regain its strength and people's trust after all that has happened, it is extremely difficult..

Now they are known for corruption, racism and lack of leadership..

What is your purpose for this..?

I am pretty sure you don't want to destroy UMNO, which is particularly strengthened by you (which was destroyed easily with AAB)

What do you think is the best choice for the people now?

Do you have a better successor in UMNO that can lead the party well?

I cannot accept Najib now, if he is your choice..

Please tell us your true goal in rebuilding the ruined UMNO or if there is someone capable within..

Warmest Regards...

<http://thedailytruthhere.blogspot.com/>

By danielsdb on September 3, 2008 3:05 PM

We are always with you, Tun.....and hope that Tun will do the same too to us, and we were very glad that Tun mentioned will rejoin Umno and Barisan, and will help strengthen the dilapidated parties, ONLY when this Mr Sleeping PM step down....this is the key most crucial but difficult occurrence that all of us are waiting patiently to happen, but until now not yet !

1 example out of his thousands of wrongdoing and decisions....i have a friend in land transporting / logistic business.....on the day this clever PM announce petrol to increase to RM2.70 and diesel 2.58 by 12 midnight, i went out chat with my friend. Fuel is 1/3 of their cost, and without analysing much, all of them agreed to increase their price to client by 25%. No impact at all seemed to this bunch of logistic and freight forwarders, but their client absorb them and later all the way to the end user. Not long after that, the government increase diesel subsidies for their business, and when i met them recently, they are all in the joyest mood i'd ever seen, not only business is good 2nd half of the year, but their profit margin is much higher nowadays, and can afford to declare hefty commission & bonuses to their staffs.

As Tun had mentioned, why can't the govt be a bit patient and later increase the fuel price by lower percentage? By doing so, maybe my friends will consider to wait and see since diesel is only 1/3 of their cost, rather than abruptly increase their price by 25%. And now monthly adjustment will only benefit us at the PUMPING STATION, not the price of goods, since damage had been done and no U turn.

Tun, do your best to continue condemn the current govt, we are all supporting Tun. Long live Tun Assalamualaikum Ybhg Tun & famili. Selamat menjalani ibadah puasa.

1. Penilaian saya setelah baca komenx bloggers:

- BC sebuah organisai yg tak terurus dan kusut masai (komenx blogger di atas & beberapa contoh telah diberi spt kalau meeting asyik bercakap tak tau bila patut berhentix). Tapi yang hairannya, larat pula ahlix mesyuarat lain mendengar walaupun cakap tak hentix?

- BC adalah badan bukan kerajaan (NGO) – tetapi tingkah laku mereka macam parti politik riuh sana-sini dengan menjaja isux yang telah lama selesai dan tak perlu dibincang lagi.

- BC mendapat sokongan kerajaan:

- Kerajaan tidak serius membantah dan mengambil tindakan ke atas BC merujuk kepada '1998 Judiciary Issue' & a social contract forum'.

- Kerajaan membiayai majlis jamuan makan malam dgn menggunakan wang rakyat.

2. Mana dan di mana pergi peguamx Melayu/Islam? Ada....tapi mereka diam je, kenapa ya?

3. Kenapa rakyat yang susah hati sangat ni? Kerajaan tak kata apax pun.

4. Berapa lama bangsa Melayu boleh bertahan? Tak lama.... sebab kaum bukan melayu tak nak masuk melayubangsa melayu tak nak jaga melayu.

By jay on September 3, 2008 3:16 PM

To Suresh,

U must be Indian by race I suppose.

Beritahu aku apa itu bangsa Malaysia? Melayu di lahirkan jadi bangsa Malaysia? Cina dilahirkan jadi bangsa Malaysia? India di lahirkan jadi bangsa Malaysia? Dan lain-lain.....

Sebagai Melayu aku akan terus merasa curiga kepada orang-orang seperti kamu kerana kamu masih mahu mempertahankan identiti kamu tapi masa yang sama mahu hak yang sama.

Kenapa di Malaysia orang-orang seperti kamu mendesak dan meminta yang bukan-bukan dari Melayu. Adakah kerana kamu anggap melayu itu lemah ? Kerana melayu boleh diperlekehkan?

Tuhan telah mencipta manusia itu berbangsa-bangsa dan berkenal-kenalanlah kamu !!! Terima hakikat ini. Jika tidak tuhan telah cipta manusia ini satu warna, satu bahasa, satu rupa dan semua satu.

Create harmony not hatred.

to some bloggers..stop callin lawyers as liars.. i'm also a lawyer, but when i present my case, i based my argument on facts and evidence..n let me remind u all, not all lawyers are good in twisting their tongue, including me.. i wish i could learn some from DSAI..he doesn't have to be a lawyer to be a liar..

eventhough lawyers in Malaysia have to be registered with the Bar Council in order to be able to practice as a an advocate n solicitor.but that doesn't mean tt most of the lawyers here agree n support Ambiga.. It is not the Bar Council to be blamed, but the persons who are using its name in order to satisfy their "perut".. most of the high ranked lawyer in the Bar Council are those who openly support opposition..

my frenz n i totally disagree with ambiga n her followers..tt's y we never bother attend its AGM.. coz we'll know d end result..

but regarding the issue of conversion..it wasn't about 'the conversion' itself.. but it's about d problem faced by the people who have converted whereby in our legal system when a man convert to islam, he'll be under Syariah jurisdiction, whereas his wife will remain under the civil jurisdiction..so when there's a dispute, this would create a problem, not only to the hubby who has converted to Islam, but also to d wife who still a non-Muslim..so d main issue of the talk was about "How to deal with it"" what are d mechanism to settle dis problem?... but sadly, d public who didn't know d basis of dis talk being organized have misunderstood it..

Kit Siang denies reports

POH: DAP adviser Lim Kit Siang has denied reports that he will be nominated as the next deputy prime minister should Pakatan Rakyat take over the Federal Government.

Kit Siang said DAP secretary-general Lim Guan Eng had not reportedly mentioned a specific post in which to nominate him for.

"It was only mentioned that he would propose me for 'an important role' in the new government," he said yesterday.

On Tuesday, Guan Eng was reported as saying that it was possible for a deputy prime minister to be from the Chinese community should Parti Keadilan Rakyat leader Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim become prime minister.

Kit Siang further said there had been no discussions with other Pakatan Rakyat component parties regarding the filling up of cabinet posts.

Dear Tun,

This Malaysian Bar Council members odd to be conscious that their behaviour are simply trying to manipulate the minds of the rakyat to go against the government. That's their final aim and yet Pak Lah gives them too much face in the name of freedom of speech, human rights etc. But the fact remains the Bar Council members are just like a group "cobra snakes" !! What do we normally do when we confront a poisonous snake. There are two options, either you kill it or you just tame it! But to tame it is rather very expensive to maintain. I would prefer the first option ie just kill it !! This right analogy for the Bar Council !!

Dear Tun

Maka, Tun, marilah kita biarkan Lawyer2 Burok ni semua terjun dengan labu2nya, biarkan, biarkan.....

Permisi Tun,

Apa perlu nya Kerajaan BN dibawah kepimpinan Pak Dolah bersekongkol dengan Majlis Peguam melantik para panel hakim dari luar negara untuk menilai semula berkenan keputusan Tribunal itu. Para panel bukan orang mesia ini telah mengeluarkan kenyataan bahawa keputusan pemecatan Tun Salleh adalah suatu yang tidak patut dilakukan oleh Tribunal tersebut.

Sampai begitu sekali teruk nya sikap pemimpin yang diundi oleh rakyat.

Mana lah maruah kita orang Malaysia, ini umpama kita telah meminta orang luar memberi pengadilan sekali lagi terhadap keputusan yang telah kita buat mengikut lunas undang di negara kita sendiri.

Ini lah perandai manusia selagi orang2 yang terlibat maseh hidup, segala usaha akan dilakukan untuk menegakan kebenaran.

Tetapi kebenaran itu tidak semesti nya membawa apa2 maana jika tidak ada Rm.

Assalamualaikum Yang Amat Berbahagia Ayahanda Tun:

"This is a new idea by the Bar Council to invalidate the findings of the Tribunals set up according to the Constitution of Malaysia, the Supreme Law of Malaysia. It is a negation of the rule of law and a slap in the face for the Malaysian King, the Yang di-Pertuan Agong"

I agree with your view. It seems to me that that the Bar Council is making a mockery of our own legal system (a system they supposedly should uphold as members of the legal fraternity!). Legal action should be taken against the office bearers of the BC for not respecting the laws of this country. Perhaps a police report should be made for investigations to be initiated.

Best wishes Tun. May Allah bless you always.

Tun,

Tumpang lalu;

PAK TEH,

1. Good observations!

2. Bina Fikir was set-up by KJ to advise Pak Lah on "How to manage the Malaysia's economy (wink, wink...)", the same manner as to how Avenue Assets advises Kalimullah, Redza Merican & KJ "on how the Malaysia's economy is to be shared!"

3. You would think that Amirsham was made Minister because he was a good banker? Nahhhh. I am sure you know the answer!

4. The same answers goes with Sime Darby, MAS (the No. 2 guy, I meant. The No. 1 guy, IS JUST FOR INSURANCE!), and to all the GLCs, which KJ intends to control, fully!

5. KJ planted his pawn as the No. 2 at Petronas BUT IT DID NOT WORK, as HASSAN MERICAN IS TOO SMART & TOO CUNNING TO BE MANIPULATED! So, what do you think will be the next step?

REMOVE HASSAN MERICAN!

6. Now, THEY ARE DEEPLY ROOTED IN THE COUNTRY BIGGEST BANK! What do you think will happen next? Well? I am sure you know the answer to that question too!

Tun,

As determined a person as you are, you are also a sensitive person, which not many people knew of. I could feel your sadness in your recent blogs BUT that is life, Tun. Sometimes, the more we want to correct something, the more wronged it became. I did not mean it to the facts, which I never doubt, but to your detractors. I KNOW YOU DO NOT CARE BUT WE DO! These idiots are using this platform to belittle you, and IT HURTS US! Hence, Tun, take heart that we know what you have done for this beloved country and us, and YOU DO NOT HAVE TO PROVE ANYTHING ANYMORE TO ANYBODY ANYMORE! Just enjoy your retirement, and look after yourself well. WE KNOW WHAT IS HAPPENING IN THIS COUNTRY NOW, AND WHEN THE TIME COMES, WE KNOW JUST WHAT TO DO. THAT I CAN PROMISE YOU WE WOULD DO!

Dear Tun and all, assalamualikum,

Those who don't want to believe can never see the truth. I can understand that, especially when hatred is overwhelming.

A few years back I had this opportunity to listen to a talk by one former cabinet minister (I am not going to mention name) on a dinner table what happen then during the judicial crisis of Tun Salleh Abbas.

A similar story as what have been posted here by Tun, long before all this happening which happened now. No bias or prejudice, but plain fact of what happened during the crisis. Indeed, we were made to understand well that long before the crisis (many-many years back), politic have been part of the judiciary system agenda..., instead of pro-govt, has highly sympathetic to the opposition. The story about the two letters by Tun Salleh Abbas to YDPA was told, how the minister himself was called before the YDPA who told him about how he was so annoyed by the renovation work of Tun Salleh Abbas house. On top of that, we were also been informed about how Tun Salleh reacted back which further aggravated the situation. All the while, I was in the opinion that Tun Salleh Abbas was a victim of the political tug-of-war within UMNO which Tun Mahathir was the evil mastermind. We were told more than what were necessary on this Tun Salleh Abbas crisis, and knowing the whole lot of the real happening, make me see the situation in a much better perspectives.

The way I see it Tun Mahathir is the victim of the whole drama. Ironic isn't it (particularly when he is in power). But if truth on your side, no matter what odd circumstances you're in, the blessing are with you. So Tun get through and won and all of us benefited as what you see through the achievement of our country during Tun premeiership.

I suppose it probably better for us to stop thinking that the judiciary has no string attached to them. They are as ordinary as us, and they are not free from being bias or prejudice (which they always like to claim). Tun, as well is not squeaky clean.

When your father doing something that make you feel that you're not fairly treated from your other sibling on several occasion, yet you rised from years of his sacrificed, criticising him..., what a way of being grateful.

Cuba kita tengok senario sekarang, banyak peguam keriang aceh mengelilingi DSAI, tidak mustahil dan berkemungkinan DSAI juga mahu balas dendam terhadap Tun melalui semua saluran termasuk Ambiga & Co.. diatas pemecatan beliau sepuluh tahun lalu.

Tun perlu kembali aktif untuk menangani kelemahan yang ada sekarang. apa gunanya kebebasan yang diberi oleh paklah kalau negara sudah hampir hancur.

Kembalilah kepada UMNO dan betulkan lagi bagus Tun dilantik sebagai mentor kepada kerajaan.

By emville on September 3, 2008 4:50 PM

Klu Pak Lah pakai Bar Council utk pelecehkan Tun, jgn risau sebab org2 UMNO sendiri pun dah mula nak Tun balik ke UMNO. Melalui suratkhbar, ramai perwakilan dah usulkan benda ni dan dah diterima. Klu banyak cawangan/bahagian buat mcm tu, nak tak nak Pak Lah kena la terima. Nanti makin merosot undi pada beliau.

Mungkin ini juga merupakan plot yg dibuat oleh org2 UMNO yg tak suka Pak Lah tapi tak berani nak beritahu depan2!

Salam Tun,

I would like to stress a point here,not all lawyers are bad.As one commentator ANBA stated(due credit given)in a previous posting,Mahatma Gandhi was a lawyer.

But many of them today leave a bad impression on the general public no thanks to the Bar Council.

I posted a lawyer joke earlier but maybe not published here.I don't mind Tun.Hehehe...IT'S YOUR BLOG AND YOU HAVE EVERY RIGHT TO DECIDE WHO GETS IN!

I am proud that you even let your critics in and even prouder when you say 'thank you' to them!

Assalamualaikum Tun,

Dearest Tun,

THE SO-CALLED EMINENT PERSONS PANEL

The penal is but a kangaroo court concocted by self serving parties of the Bar Council and other interested parties. Full Stop.

Getting dried out, weather beaten old "Eminent" persons who do not even make the 'Who is Who' list in their own countries, have been paid to come to Malaysia to serve the interest of the Bar Council, Salleh Abas and you know who!

Dearest Tun, please allow me the space to answer the obnoxious Mr. Mohd Sivakumar Fart Pillay

1. It is shocking that a person like Mohd Sivakumar would dare venture into expressing himself in the English Language. His language not only needs wanting but his thoughts equates his Bollywood mind. His obnoxious opinions stinks sky high. His up bringing and manners pongs especially when it is directed towards an elderly gentleman and leader.

2. I wonder if his parents and religion even thought him any manners and etiquette on being refine.

3. His sense of humour is outstanding though, especially when his clarion call is that Dr Mahathir has lost respect and is dividing the Malays. As a matter of fact it was Dr Mahathir who 'educated' the Malays and brought us to where we are today, otherwise we would have been flooded out by the other newcomers like you.

4. What a load of rubbish, Mr Mohd Sivakumar. Stop pulling the wool over your squinted eyes. Open then and see – SIX Million hits on Dr Mahathir's blog – which proves that Dr Mahathir is the Greatest Malaysian.

4. One can comment and criticize but within the periphery of decency maintaining a decorum of being educated not reveling oneself as be otherwise. One should not display oneself as being uncouth and naïve to all facts and figures.

One could ask, who gives the right to this upstart to speak for the Malays and the contradictingly against the Malays

5. So Mr Mohd Sivakumar your are some psychic, you are a mind reader, for you can "narrate your mind already. How does one narrate another's mind? 'Read', I fathom, 'Picture', I comprehend, 'Penetrate' I can figure 'See through' I can grasp but 'narrate' the English Language is at a loss. Only the boorish and ill-mannered Sivakumar can? – a new field in science I suppose, like the makings of your Bollywood!. Use the correct word, my friend.

6. You can't be 'bickering the current government' it should be 'stop bickering with the current Government'. Get you English straight before anything else. Learn to sweep your own doorsteps before you venture into other doors.

7. 'The ball is on your court '; 'The ball is in your court, my friend!

8. You wrote, 'The more will migrate to PKR in hatred to the coalition government' May I ask who is the coalition Government, not the present Malaysian Government. It is the Barisan Government! Maybe it is a Bollywood fantasy or you got your English terms wrong.

9. You wrote, 'The sufferer will be the malays bcs they are not able to stand on their own feet. All this while the Ruling government was feeding and pampering them to keep them weak, With their weird policy NEP. To be honest, They are no threat to any race, If the government pulls down all the previliges and throw them on the street. They are not competitive at all in any dept. Their survival solely depends on NEP and not through hardwork or what you know.'

a. The survival of the Malays does not depend on the NEP. The NEP was created to right a wrong. Please study our history!

b. 'Standing on our own feet' Wrong again, Malays have been thought and induced to stand on our feet just after birth and more so when Dr Mahathir was leading us.

c. The very fact that you are able to use the internet is a result of a Malay mind. It was a Malay who versioned the coming of the ICT. – Dr Mahathir.

d. It would have done better justice to yourself if you had understood when the NEP was planned and implemented – to balance the injustices in Malaysia.

Many Malays may be able compete with you at least as far as the English Language is concerned.

d. 'previliges' is spelt 'privileges.' That goes for 'homest' which I believe is 'honest' which I am sure you would not be able to pronounce correctly in spite of your forked twisting tongue.

I am sorry to be so outlandish during this month of Ramadan but I feel the wrong must be pointed out.

Thank you for this space

Take care of your health Tun

Regards and Respect

assalamualaikum tun,

Selamat berpuasa buat tun sekeluarga. Saya ni agak terkilan dengan sikap orang melayu sekarang ini yang terlampau taksab dengan DSAI baik di kota atau di desa. Malah sekarang ini Perpecahan di antara melayu semakin ketara dan ini amat merugikan kita. Di sebalik kejayaan anwar terlihat juga kebodohan melayu yang dari dulu hingga sekarang hanya asyik mengikut membuta tuli dan hanya menyesal setelah segalanya tergadai. Pernah saya tersua dengan penyokong fanatik DSAI dan berbual dengannya.. Apa yang saya dapat perhatikan ialah ketaksabannya menyokong DSAI membutakannya dari kebenaran.. Adakah pemikiran anak melayu sekarang begitu lemah? Jika dilihat di desa pula, ramai ahli umno telah menyokong DSAI, tak dapat saya salahkan mereka kerana amat mudah untuk mempengaruhi mereka dengan janji janji manis. Saya sedar kelicikan DSAI memanipulasi kata-kata amat sukar untuk ditandingi oleh pemimpin2 umno sekarang. Bayangkan lah benang yang basah pun DSAI dapat tegak kan dan semua orang boleh terima bulat2 kata2nya. Karisma DSAI hampir setanding tun membuatnya begitu popular tetapi sifat terburu2nya dan penting dirinyalah yang membezakan dari tun.

Teik Chun,

You cakap Anwar bagus kalau jadi PM ini negeri kah? You tau ini orang banyak kurang ajar. Ini orang tak tau kenang budi. Ini orang banyak putar belit. Ini orang mau tunjuk banyak pandai. Dari dulu sampai ini hari tak ada lain ingat mau jadi PM. Serupa juga itu Dolah tak mau undur walaupun ramai orang tak mau dia lagi. Apa akan jadi pada dia punya bangsa dia tak peduli, penting mau jadi PM juga... mau bela nasib you orang semua. Konon ini negeri akan aman bagia bila dia perintah. Dulu bila dia jadi DPM dia ada komplot mau jatuhkan bos dia. Tak sabar mau kuasa. Ini orang baikkah? Memang tak malu ini orang. Bila cakap hal kroni dialah orangnya ada banyak kroni. Tak usah tengok banyak-banyak. Kementerian Pendidikan sudah cukup. Dari DG i.e. itu Wan dan orang-orangnya semuanya kroni. Ini Wan punya bodek Anwar sampai Menteri Pendidikan masa itu macam takut pada dia. Sapa punya orang yang jadi pengarah syarikat sampai lebih 20 semuanya. Sapa punya orang yang jadi Pengarah MSD masa itu? Orang-orang yang layak dan telah dipilih oleh JK pemilihan diketepikan. Bila saja dia dilantik oleh Anwar jadi DG Pendidikan dia terus ketepikan orang-orang yang telah dipilih. Orang-orang dia pilih bikin malu saja. Mereka bukan mau jalan dia punya tanggungjawab tapi hanky panky. Tapi Tuhan tau apa dia orang bikin. Akhirnya dia orang kena panggil balik dan turun pangkat. Ini Anwar you mau pecayakah? Dia buat baik dengan you orang...hindrafkah, DAPkah, apa-apa dari jenis macam you kerana mau you sokong dia jadi PM. Kalau tidak dia tak mau pandangpun you orang. Dia jadikan you alat bagi dia mau jadi PM. Atau you orang jadikan dia (Anwar) alat untuk kepentingan you punya orangkah?

Na'uzubillah.

4. It was the Agong who complained against Tun Salleh for writing two letters, one to complain about the noise made in repairing the Agong's residence and one alleging that the then Prime Minister was undermining the independence of the judiciary. Both letters were extended to all the Rulers which the Agong regarded as putting pressure on him. He found the letters offensive and against the Malay custom in which the customary thing to do was to have an audience with his Majesty and to make verbal complaints. The letters could follow but should be to him alone. He then requested me as PM to remove Tun Salleh as Lord President.

Kenyataan tersebut jelas menunjukkan yang keputusan untuk singkirkan Salleh abas telah diambil oleh Tun sebelum tribunal didirikan. Sebabnya YDPA tak suka Tun salle Abas. Tun ini pandai salahkan orang termasuk YDPA... Ada yang mengatakan sebab UMNO diharamkan tahun 1987.

Apa-apa pun pembunuh , penagih dadah malah perogol pun akan ada cerita sedihnya. Macam itu jugalah penulisan Tun ini. Dahlah rosakan Badan kehakiman sekarang cakap S?jaya Pita Lingam, Justice Chin semua pakat nak jatuhkan imej Tun.

Perubahan perlembagaan yang memusatkan kuasa ke tangan PM dan Parlimen berlaku Zaman Tun kan? lalah wakil rakyat yang buat depa sokong. Nice story Tun . Buatlah banyak lagi cerita menarik. Tun ada bakat jadi penulis nove crime sebab boleh buat twist dan climax yang menarik. Malangnya saya tak percaya.

Ahli s/jaya pun oarang yang berkepentingan... kalau Salleh Abas kena pecat dia akan naik jadi Lord Presiden. Apa ini? semuanya ngarutlah Tun . Kalau Tun baca komen Dr. Siddiq dia secara sinis menyamakan Tun sebagai Yahudi....

Yang Berbahagia Tun,
Your explanation in this write up on the 1988 judicial crisis is enlightening. Now most of us know why Tun Salleh Abbas was sacked! If this were Thailand, he would not have been sacked but would have had to deal with lese majeste.
The bar council as I have commented before, do act like a political party out to tarnish your good name and character, so that is why they had gone and set up those kangaroo courts, thinking they will undermine you. What can they do? drag you to court? They better think again for if it comes to that, they may just see an uprising like they have never seen before!
I find the current leadership laughable! I dont think they even know who their real enemy is. Lost to Anwar again and again and yet they had time to humour the bar council in trying to go after you?

What is this? stupidity or amnesia? Which one is the former and which one of them the latter?
I was on a business trip to Singapore earlier today and had the chance to read the Straits Times. There are two long reports about Anwar in it in a single day. One is saying that a change in the political landscape is imminent and the other is reporting that Anwar is ready and eminently qualified to present an alternative 2009 budget. Any one with any brain left in his skull could see what are the real issues . Dont think what the bar council is trying to do to you Tun, is going to cloud our judgement. If they want a fight, give it to them! When those so called leaders are in trouble, the bar council will gleefully rally behind Anwar.

Selamat berpuasa Tun and God Bless!!

I find the current leadership laughable! I dont think they even know who their real enemy is. Lost to Anwar again and again and yet they had time to humour the bar council in trying to go after you?

What is this? stupidity or amnesia? Which one is the former and which one of them the latter?

I was on a business trip to Singapore earlier today and had the chance to read the Straits Times. There are two long reports about Anwar in it in a single day. One is saying that a change in the political landscape is imminent and the other is reporting that Anwar is ready and eminently qualified to present an alternative 2009 budget. Any one with any brain left in his skull could see what are the real issues . Dont think what the bar council is trying to do to you Tun, is going to cloud our judgement. If they want a fight, give it to them! When those so called leaders are in trouble, the bar council will gleefully rally behind Anwar.

Selamat berpuasa Tun and God Bless!!

ASSALAMUALAIKUM AYAHANDA TUN DAN BONDA SITI HASMAH

To sjankan : Tu cerita hang. LA NI HANG DENGAX PULAK CERITA AKU.

"based on his private notes and was reproduced in Aliran monthly soon after his dismissal in 1088.

QUOTE:

1) WHEN I ARRIVED AT THE PRIME MINISTER'S DEPARTMENT, I WAS MET BY A POLICEMAN WHO TOOK ME BY LIFT IN A WAITING ROOM AND IN 2 OR 3 MINUTES I WAS SHOWN TO THE PRIME MINISTER OFFICE.

2) I LEFT HIS ROOM AND I ONLY SAW ONE POLICEMAN OUTSIDE HIS ROOM WHO APPEARED SURPRISED TO SEE ME THERE.

ada Contradiction tak dengan kedua2 statement di atas. Polis yang sama menghantar dia ke pejabat Perdana Menteri ,konon nya terkejut pulak pasai apa dia(salleh abbas) ada di situ.

QUOTE:

1) WHEN I WENT DOWNSTAIRS ,THERE WAS NOBODY EVEN TO SEE ME OFF.
AND NO ONE CALLED FOR MY DRIVER.I HAD TO GO OUT TO LOOK FOR MY DRIVER.

Lihat lah betapa BONGKAK DAN SOMBONG NYA salleh abbas dengan pernyataan nya di atas.Dalam keadaan macam itu pun masih mahu di sanjung2 oleh orang lain dan mesti kena ada yang kena bukak pintu kereta nya masa dia mahu

QUOTE:

1) AFTER I HAVE TAKEN MY SEAT,THE PRIME MINISTER TOLD ME THAT HE HAD AN UNPLEASANT DUTY TO PERFORM AND ON BEING ASKED WHAT IS IT,HE REPLIED THAT HE HAD BEEN ASKED BY (THE THEN) DYMM SPB YDP AGUNG TO TELL ME THAT I SHOULD STEP DOWN.

Lihat lah betapa baik nya hati Tun dengan mengatakan 'HE HAD AN UNPLEASANT DUTY TO PERFORM".Apa salah nya kalau Tun cakap cara direct saja. "Ni salleh,Agung suruh hang letak jawatan.
cukup macam tu tak payah basa basi.Kalau aku,macam tu la aku cakap kat salleh abbas.

DAN UNTUK MAKLUMAN SEMUA TERUTAMA HANG sjankan. DYMM SPB YDP AGUNG
YANG SURUH salleh abbas LETAK JAWATAN DAN BUKAN NYA TUN DR.
MAHATHIR MOHAMAD. TUN HANYA SEBAGAI PENGANTARA SAHAJKA .
AWAT YANG TU BODOH KA HANG NAK PIKIAK.

QUOTE:

1) HE (THE PRIME MINISTER) SAID THAT I COULD SEE THE AGONG IF I WANTED TO AND HE WOULD NOT STOP ME FROM DOING SO.

Pasai apa orang yang pangkat setinggi salleh abbas takut nak pi jumpak dengan Agung.betui kata
ORANG TUA2 "BERANI KERANA BENAR DAN TAKUT KERANA SALAH" .salleh abbas takut nak pi
jum[pak denganm Agung pasai dia tahu dia yang buat salah.dia takut PUNGKOK dia kena SULA oleh Agung. Sapa yang tak kenai dengan Sultan Iskandar Al-haj,Sultan Johor tu. Pangkat Lord President pun hilang telox kalau nak mengadap Baginda.
BUKAN APA .salleh abbas YANG RASA PAMGKAT DIA SEBAGAI LORD PRESIDENT TU LEBIH
TINGGI DARI AGONG JADI PASAI TU YANG DIA TAK NAK JUMPAK AGUNG.TAKUT DARJAT DIA JATUH.
salleh abbas SENDIRI KATA YANG TUN MAHATHIR TAK AKAN TAHAN DIA
(salleh abbas) DARIKPAD A BERJUMPA DENGAN AGUNG UNTUK MENERANGKAN KEADAAN YANG SEBENAR NYA.

LAGI SEKALI HANG NI BODOH sjankan.

QUOTE:

1) I TOLD HIM I WOULD NOT RESIGN BECAUSE IF I DID,I COULD NOT SHOW MY FACE TO ANYONE AND I MIGHT AS WELL DIE

Rupa2 nya orang yang mengaku diri nya islam dan belajar dan pangkat setinggi salleh abbas (lord president)pun lebih berasa malu untuk menghadapi manusia daripada menghadapi ALLAH SWT.DIA LEBIH TAKUT HUKUMAN DARIPADA MANUSIA DARIPADA HUKUMAN DARI ALLAH SWT.
INI LAH MANUSIA YANG HANYA PANDAI MENGHAKIMKAN MANUSIA LAIN TAPI

TAK TAKUT PULAK YANG DIRI NYA ITU AKAN DI HAKLIMKAN OLIH YANG MAHA MENGHAKIMI,ALLAH SWT.

DAH HANG BODOH KALI KETIGA sjankan OOiii.

QUOTE:

1 I WISH TO QUOTE THE QURAN WHICH SAYS "No misfortune will fall on us except what has been decreed by Allah.He is our protector and in whom the believers should place their trust"
I PUT IT UNTO MY HEART AS I ENTERED THE DOOR TO THE PRIME MINISTER OFFICE.

salleh abbas HANYA PERCAYA PADA QADA DAN QADAR ALLAH SWT BILA DIA MENERIMA EX GRATIA 1.5 JUTA ITU. KALAU ORANG TANYA KAT DIA MACAMANA DIA BOLEH DAPAT 1.5 JUTA ITU DIA HANYA MENJAWAB " SUDAH BEGITU KEHENDAK ALLAH,KITA SEBAGAI MANUSIA KENA REDHA LA,TAK PAYAH TANYA2 LAGI.

UNTUK HANG sjankan "A SPADE FOR A SPADE" HANG MEMANG BODOH TAK MAU BUAT KAJIAN MENDALAM DULU.

Semoga Ayahanda Tun dan Bonda selalu berada di dalam limpahan Rahmat ALLAH SWT.

WASSALAM

Dear Tun,
There is this very hilarious sketch by Rowan Atkinson or better known as Mr. Bean I believe many of us had a good laugh watching it.

In this particular sketch, Mr. Bean plays the role of the DEVIL welcoming people at the gate of hell. Dressed in a red robe with a pair of horns (depicting the devilish nature of his role), the Devil divided the sinners into groups, parodying them for their ill actions.

In his narration, the Devil in trying to keep things informal as well as "infernal" here (in hell), divided the sinners into groups. He first called upon "murderers over here please."

He then called "Looters and pillagers over here...thieves if you could join them and LAWYERS you are in that group." A huge laughter thundered from the audience.

We can have a good laugh watching the antics of some of the Bar Council members. Champions they are, fighting for justice ...assuming they are the warriors for the betterment of all.

What is beautiful, it goes to show comedians come in many forms, shapes and sizes. Even the supposedly educated man of the law can be a parody star.

The present act shows them at their best and let's take the front seat and enjoy the comedy without paying a dime.

Salam sejahtera buat TUN serta keluarga,

the BAR COUNCIL terbuka dan telus?? What a joke.

Somewhen in May this year, their website pernah buat poll, open to the public, tajuk poll tersebut ialah SIAPA YANG TIDAK WAJAR BERADA DIDALAM PEMBENTUKAN SURUHANJAYA PEMILIHAN KEHAKIMAN (JUDICIAL APPOINTMENTS COMMISSION) JAC.

And THEY were LEADING!!...THE BAR COUNCIL LEADS THE VOTE!!

And what happened?? THEY TOOK IT OUT FROM THE POLLING LIST!!

Thats one for KETELUSAN dan KETERBUKAAN BAR COUNCIL!!

You are needed STILL.

Asalamulaikum Tun, dan selamat berpuase, I have just a few comment on this issue, i.e if the malaysian Bar Council wants to partake in politic they should register the organisation as a political party and struggle together with DAP, PKR and PAS rather than hide behind the skirt of AMBIGA.As rightly put forth by u, the Saleh Abas issue is well forgotten and had been judged as accordance to the law of the country, why then the DeFuckto Law Minster went to great extend to dig up the issue again and gave a second bite of the apple, and wat a basketful of apple they have been given at the expense of the taxpayers, and that also is a big secret inspite of DSAB called for transperancy.Who are the active members in the Malaysia Bar Council, could there be a hindraf fingers behind all the issues and controvesies they are creating, questioning the constitution on religion, the sultan and malay previleages, i.e. the social contracts.They can be lawyers but they should leave the tiger to sleep. If they want to renegotiate or question the constitutation, then we shotuld go back to the days before independent and before any understanding was reached by our forefathers i.e. statusco, ie.the issuse on the right to citizenship, the position of the sultan and the malay previlages, and the scrafices made by all involve then.If this is agreed then only can they look and question the constitution and I am positive, it will be a very explosive issue, because the malays can also quetion them on the right to citizenship.Its not a good picture so its best this issue should not be raised in any forum as what is happening today. On the comment by Dr Syed Alwee of Singapore, I think he should refrain from making any comment, as he is well aware of the Singapore Situation, whereby the malays in Singapore are irelevant and just subsisting and nothing else.Look at the composition of the Singapore Army, the limitation of the calling of the azan etc. Thanks tun keep on bloging.Tun I would also like to comment that PDRM has been neutralise very effectively by DSAB when he set up the royal commision and maybe u are right to the extend that they can only react when call upon by the political masters. They have become paper tigers and are not independent to decide on their own. The sensitives issues that we read daily in the papers today would not be seen before, as immediate action would be taken to nipp it in the but. This is not happening now, why, could it be that they have to listen to the political masters who are not themself stable and make flip flop decision? When DSAB set up the Royal Commision on PDRM he literally delivered a death blow to PDRM a govt institution responsible for security and enforcement of law and order, and PDRM is struggling to regain its composure. In the eyes of the public PDRM is a gone case because DSAB has put a nail in its coffin. His interpretation and justification that the royal commission was not to belittle PDRM but for 'PENAMBAHBAIKAN' IS AN INSULT to our intelligence, because everybody knows a royal commission is set up if there are lapses in an organisation. The detrioration goes on and on Tun, and if not rectified the culmination of all the doing and undoing are very very detrimental to our country. We have to do something, and UMNO members can do their part in the UMNO AGM in december 2008.I would like to appeal to UMNO members to wake up and come down to earth, face reality and do their parts for the future of our beloved country.

Dear Tun,

There will always be desenting voices in the crowd. Do we need to listen to them.

Yes listen by all means. But if it does not distract us from our goal and our journey - forgive them their transgressions.

We need to be firm and clear as to our goals and journey. Lets not be distracted. Wawasan 2020 is still there for Malaysia to achieve.

But how, one may ask?

Looking at where we are now. WE FIRST MUST GET OUR HOUSE IN ORDER. OUR CAR WORKING. How else can we move forward if the car is not working.

The first order of the day is - get the government working properly again.

Why is the goverment not working properly?

The leaders are not doing their work. They have placed themselves in such a situation that they have to fight fires. Fires that they allow to ignite here and there. Fires large and small are keeping them busy.

That they do not have time to make the goverment work properly. So how can they start working on Wawasan 2020??

As I mentioned the first order of the day is to remove the incompetent leaders and get COMPETENT ones into the halls of government.

MIND YOU NOT JUST ANY convenient leader -
PR - Anwar will be to busy appeasing the components DAP, PAS and any other parties which he may have attracted with his promises plus the backlash from his dropping the NEP that he will not do any better. He will be fighting fires as well - Just look at Pakistan and you will see how it works.

Who else??? NO ONE

ONE BIG VACUUM!!! DOOM be Malaysia.

Unless the real leaders in UMNO & BN Wake up....remove weak, expired and out of touch leaders and replace with a new breed of leaders - leaders like OBAMA. Young technocrats(but please leave the likes of KJ and such ambitious self serving one out), highly qualified, dedicated to the cause of Malaysia and Wawasan 2020.

Salam Tun

I really wish Zaid Ibrahim, the advocate of transparency in government, would come forward to explain why he had taken the peoples money to be given to the judges who were found guilty back in the Judicial Crisis of 1988. We want to know why the Law Minister choose to do such thing without going thru the proper judicial channel - why isn't a tribunal setup to investigate and if it was setup, what was the outcome and why was it not made Public?

In a way Zaid was derhaka to the then Yang Dipertuan Agong who wishes Tun Salleh removed. So it should be in the best interest of the King to ask him to explain this as well.

Can we like make a police report of this and then have the law make him provide the explanations? I really want to know why and why and why... without it my conclusion is that its personal. If it is then he should not be taking other people's money for his personal interest.

Dear Tun,

Selamat Berpuasa.

What!!! all of these BAR councils are bunch of bull. They complaining about 1 judge who got sacked and they wanted justice. How about normal people like us, in my previous company, there are like 20 people got cold storage or sacked just for saying the right thing to the boss.

And I think in Malaysia alone, ppl got sacked or cold storage for strange reason, is in the thousands. But strangely when these ppl go for help from lawyers which sits in Bar Council they got pressed with crazy retainers fees. When the victims go for Legal Aid, what they get is a bunch of greenhorn lawyers that just wanted to fudge up their resume, if the victim are going against a big corporation which can afford smarter, resourceful lawyers....somehow we already know the results. This thing has happened to my colleague, she got fed up with Legal Aid performance so shes doing Multi Level marketing now, well her greenhorne Legal Aid lawyer is up against our company top lawyer (which sits in high up in BAR council) so result is TKO.

Of course there are more in depths reasons that BAR council is fighting for but isnt their main reasons is "JUSTICE FOR ALL"? why they keep wasting their resources and time on petty issues about Islam which generalise on one races and on a guy who got sacked 2 decades ago which have a title "TUN" that guy can even afford bungalows and some cool cars. There are so many issues are plagueing the masses which includes all races in judiciary today and the future. Some of the issues that the BAR council should work on :

1. Smart Criminals manipulating or justifying the laws by hiring smart lawyers for their own gain, G.Soros manipulate and steal our money which cause alot of suffering across Asia and strangely that there are no action taking against him or a simple effort from BAR council to voice it out. A lot of ppl lost their jobs and having problems feeding their kids but strangely there are no such law to protect them.
2. BAR council should focus 100% on perfecting our human made legal system instead involving in Politics. They should focusing on how all Malaysian all races especially the poor could afford "GOOD" not "GREENHORNE" lawyers to protect their rights and directly ensuring the element "Justice For All". Legal Aid need to be strengthen.
3. Todays lawyers are more inclined to work with ppl who have money and power instead of poor ppl. Therefore the richer u are better justice u get. This elements need to be removed. Ive noticed alot of this situation in America and Europe. One example, PORN industry in G8 countries, its a wrong thing but it got approved with some smart legal twisting word. The question why? The answer is simple in US alone its USD20 Billion/year industry. The lawyers need to be reminded that there are working in an judiciary system that requires utmost honor not 100% "cari makan" by the way judiciary is not an industry.

Regarding the 1 guy who got sacked 2 decades ago, he need to live with it, he should have find another job. Sadly our justice minister gave to that guy who is living in a bungalow all the taxpayer money for compensation but the other normal ppl that lost their jobs for unjustified reasons and ending up cant feed their kids were unnoticed and not even mentioned. And this is so called JUSTICE....
By Malaysian peter on September 5, 2008 2:12 PM

Dear Tun,

- 1) The news which was published in the main stream medias was not clear as to whether the Panel to review the 1988 decision was set up by the Malaysian Government or the Bar Council.
- 2) Why one has to be fearful of the outcome, as whatever findings of the year 2007 Panel is not going undo the damage done in 1988.
- 3) It is very basic principle of Natural Law Justice that one cannot sit in to hear case where one is perceived to gain monetary or any other benefit.
- 4) The members of the 1988 Tribunal was though appointed by the King but the appointment is carried out on the advise of the Prime Minister.
- 5) Going by the principle mentioned in Para 3 above, any one who could benefit on the removal of Tun Salleh Abas should not sit in to hear the case. In this instant, it was Tun Hamid Omar, the person who could take over the office of Lord President appointed was the Chairman of the Tribunal and eventually became the Lord President upon the remeoval of Tun Salleh Abas.
- 6) Dear Sir Tun, I am surprised that a person of your standing did not know this basic principle.
- 7) How about the incidence where Tun Salleh Abas was called in by the then Prime Minister where he was told to resign other wise charges of abuse of power/authority would be used to remove him from office. By the way, the charges to remove Tun Salleh were not the one mentioned by Tun above.
- 8) Perhaps, Sir Tun, that is why the whole episode is and was called "MAY DAY FOR JUSTICE".

Wishing you good health.

Assalamualaikum Tun
dan Selamat Berpuasa

Penubuhan Panel ini adalah satu contoh pembaziran wang rakyat. Saya rasa Bar Council ingin membalas dendam kepada Tun kerana sewaktu Tun berkuasa mereka ibarat singa yang tiada gigi. Saya masih ingat semasa tu Peguam Manjit Singh yang jadi Presiden Bar Council. Semasa itu Bar Council nampak bersatu menentang Tun tetapi Tun bijak mengorak langkah dan Bar Council di lihat sebagai tidak menghormati Kerajaan dan Raja nya.

Tapi sekarang, Bar Council seolah olah bertindak sendiri hasil perbincangan Ambiga dan Zaid. Maksudnya Bar Council setuju dan Kerajaan setuju hasil dari persetujuan dua orang ini.

Salam Tun Dr M..

Selamat Berpuasa..
Kecewa ngan Kerajaan BN pimpinan Pak Lah..terus longlai hinggakan Bar Council boleh pijak kepala Kerajaan BN. Buat duit rakyat Penubuhan Panel yang sanggup menggadaikan maruah Malaysia di mata dunia semata2 nk buktikan keputusan pemecatan hakim2 salah disisi undang2.Memang Tun Dr M adalah PM waktu itu, tapi keputusan adalah tertakluk pada DYMM Agung. BC dan Kerajaan BN memang nak lawan Tun, nk salahkan Tun.nak jadikan Tun kambing hitam dalm isu ni. Jadi bolehlah Paklah kata dia bagus dr Tun nanti.Si Zaid plak, tu nak tumpang nama, kononnya dia berjasa dlm pemberian ex gratia pd bekas2 hakim.Masuk TV bg pampasan pd bekas2 hakim ni.cukup layak ke Kerajaan BN nak lantik dia jd org tengah dengan BC?Setakt jadi Peguam, Pengamal Undang2..tapi tindakan yg dia buat menampakkan kebodohan sendiri. Keistimewaan org Melayu, Agama Islam..bila isu ni disentuh.Mane Zaid????kalau isu tu pun tak sanggup bela,tak payah lah nk jadi Menteri..letak jawatan..bukan je Zaid, Paklah pun sama.Tak berani bersuara. Pak lah pemimpin no 1 Malaysia, tapi mcm takde fungsi..Baik suruh Muyiddin or Najib jadi PM..

Tun sahaja pejuang bangsa dan negara..

Dear Tun,

I'm going to reply malaysian peter.

Sometimes im quite confused who is running this country is it Tun that we vote for him as our PM or Tun Salleh Abas. Are u saying Tun Salleh Abas is an untouchable guy? Is a judge at the same level as PM? If that the case i should change my profession, i should have taken law instead being a technical director.

The way i see it as a chief in an organisation, u have the power to hire or sack people for the best interest of the whole organisation. And the best part during Tun administration, Malaysia was at the most prosperous stage. Have u ever thought peter, by sacking of Tun Salleh Abas might be one of the key factor that contributes to the prosperity that we enjoy during Tun Mahathir time?

Prosperity for whole organisation or unlawful sacking (or watever u called it), of course i choose prosperity and i can guarantee a lot of normal everyday guys would agree with me. All of us just simply wants to wake up in the morning and still have a job to hold on to.

As for Tun Mahathir, i'm not "kipasing" u, at first i thought by sacking that guy sounds fishy, but by looking at your performance for us Malaysian, i would say that guy u just sacked is good to go.

The only "MAYDAY FOR JUSTICE" means if Tun sack that guy and Tun couldnt perform as a PM that brought prosperity, then its "MAYDAY FOR JUSTICE" and Tun deserve to be put infront of firing squad.

Adios, hmm i think i should reduce my company lawyers retainers fees or sack them.
By barmember on September 6, 2008 1:56 AM

Sebagai ahli BC saya rasa sangat malu dengan apa yang BC lakukan. Mana punya prinsip undang2 yang digunakan untuk melantik satu panel khas? What they have done is short of treason. How can a panel appointed at their own whim and fancies set aside the findings of a properly constituted tribunal under the YDPA? Saya pasti BC sekarang dikuasai parti pembangkang. Saya menggesa semua ahli BC yang berbangsa melayu berbuat sesuatu dengan melantik presiden dan ahli jawatankuasa yang benar2 apolitical pada pemilihan yang akan datang. BC have gone toooo far!
By cyberdroxxx on September 6, 2008 8:50 AM

Dear Tun

Lawyers are supposed to uphold the law according to the books and what had been approved by the parliment to suits the country, not manupulate the law at their own descretion and to their own decision. If they want to pass on verdicts, they should apply to become majistrates intead of lawyers. The ill persons sitting in the council are the ones who ruin the credibility of the council in the eyes of the public and layman view. The govermnt should remove the ill persons of the council. Revoke their practise licenses here. Hey, they don't have to worry of losing their profession. They can still and are welcomed to practise in India and Pakistan and Australia, at least among their panels of retired judges own court.

Ayahanda Tun,
Selamat berpuasa, semoga allah panjangkan usia ayahanda Tun. Amin.

Saya keliru? apa dah jadi dengan pemimpin kita? memang kita mahu bangsa kita maju, tetapi dengan konflik dalam parti dan berbagai isu panas yang ditimbulkan oleh pemimpin kerajaan yang ada sekarang ini, boleh kah rakyat terutama kaum dan bangsa melayu maju?

Tun, saya amat terkejut dengan isu pemberian ex-gratia atau wang saguhati kepada bekas hakim yang diberhentikan suatu masa dahulu. Apa sebenarnya motif yang kerajaan sekarang nak tunjuk kepada rakyat?

Saya betul betul tak faham, nampaknya pak lah dah semakin kalut dengan kepimpinannya. Disebabkan kekalutan PM, rakyat semakin merana.

By Freedom on September 8, 2008 5:37 AM

Dear Tun,

You have been abusing your executive power more than any other PM in malaysia for the time being.

If you were to take the credits for the development of Malaysia during your tenure (not done by you directly but base on your policy for the nation building) then same goes to the damage done to the judiciary and many other abuse of power during you tenure.

Its your policy that to dictate everything and you give a reason and a name for that. (National security, National Unity, Harmony, sensitive issue etc).

What about the sensitive of others? The issue is not about minority rhetoric due to failed to imposed their demand onto you but its merely questioning the level of executive powers in Malaysia.

By JessieAuthor Profile Page on September 8, 2008 12:23 PM

Dr. M,

The politics in Malaysia is, no disrespect here, going to the dogs.

I understand, that politics is a very dirty and vile thing... Yet, it should be amongst themselves. An eye for an eye. And should not be eating Malaysia inside-out as a whole.

What else can they do but find a scapegoat, aka. You sir? It is a sign that they are desperate to weave out of whatever... non-apprehended situation.

Whatever you may have done sir, it is history. It is the past, just like you being our ex-PM. They are resurfacing this 'history' as to put them in the position of being the... how shall I say it? 'Goody-goody two shoes'...

So dear Tun, give them no more than a side glance.

See how much longer they are able to bring scape goats to their protection. It's just like Economics - resources are scarce ;) it WILL deplete. And from there, where will they run to?

Dear Tun,

This de facto law minister is a corrupt man..he was been accused for money politics and yet the bodowi recruited him.. dear Tun, i think everybody knew that the de facto minister is a gambler, to be more specific, he's a horse gambler.. he got horse in singapore under the name 'kelantan' and he's also drinks all kinds of alcoholic drinks... so this kind of man, how come the so called imam Islam hadhari dare to appoint him as a important minister in law. from this we could measure what kind of PM that we have....think of yourself everybody....i think under Tun leadership all kinds prob that we faced now...will under Tun's head to settle.

I pray to God during this ramadhan that Tun will have good health and be blessed for ever...May Allah bless you Tun.. you have did so much for us...there's nothing a word could describe a very since thanks to you...only Allah knows to repay you.

Pada yang sokong AAB suruh dia turun bagi kat org lain lah pulak dah tak larat nak tengok. pada yang sokong pembangkang dan kerajaan buat lah apa yang patut jgn sampai dengan sesama sendiri nak tunjuk samseng. Kedamaian yang diperolehi dengan titisan darah oleh nenek moyang kita akan menadi sia sia jika kita tidak bersatu, long live the KING and All The Sultan.... Of course my dad, my mom, bro and sis, Tun Dr M and Tun Dr Ct Hsmh last but not list Malaysia.

A'kum Tun & Chedet's blog readers,

Contemplate back to Bar Council's past action, it looks like they take advantage of a weak government and divided Malays. If the present federal government aware of this, why action has not been taken to Bar council. Their action is clearly indicating lack of respect to DYMM Yang Di-Pertuan Agong and federal constitution.

Regards,

Independent Committee into Dismissal of Judges in 1988.

INTRODUCTION

"The myth about existence of only things scientists can find and only things theories predict, is just that a myth. Out of an infinite number, diversity and variety of myths made possible by the mystery of existence, atheists arbitrarily choose to believe in one pessimistic myth about existence of only things scientists can find; and only things theories predict" (Kevin M. McDaniel).

Lawyers likewise have settled upon us this pessimistic myth as a rational default position and there are those who insist, a belief in such a pessimistic myth is necessary in order to be rational, law abiding, fair, just or simply sane.

However because the truth is that, a myth is a myth, it is also perfectly reasonable therefore to choose the most optimistic myth about their version of the law as a rational default position.

Such a rational default position when pushed hard enough with other well worn urban myths, anecdotal evidence of corruption (and perceived dominance by one person, in this instance their bette noir Dr. Mahathir Mohammed former prime minister of Malaysia) leads inevitably to belief in the myth about the law and the Malaysian Bar's interpretation of it that lawyers can find; things that legal conventions and theories predict; and everything else that enables us to have the highest esteem in their beliefs and their purposes.

I will refrain from quoting any further from the writer although the impact and the dimensions of his thoughts as expressed are critical to understanding at the introductory level, an analysis of the Report of the Panel of Eminent Persons to Examine the 1988 Judicial Crisis in Malaysia ("the Report" and the "Panel").

The Myth of "Terms of Reference"

The Panel of its own material is a self serving forum. The composition and the authority by which it came into existence is equally the manifestation of the same self serving interests of the sentient mind behind it at all times, the Malaysian Bar.

In an effort to lend legitimacy, a cosmetic semblance of dimension and depth to the Panel and its purpose, the Malaysian Bar had pulled together a raft of loosely knit interest groups referring to these as 'various other groups'. However on a closer examination it could hardly be said that these various other groups were in any way representative of the broader community in Malaysia. And finally for good measure in its list of cohorts it adds the media but is careful to be non specific of this fourth estate.

By the Malaysian Bar's involvement in this inquiry, the Panel and its findings are deprived the character of independence it craves. Not that the removal of the Malaysian Bar's involvement would in any way have cured that defect considering the political complexion and position of the Malaysian Bar and the other

More important still one wonders what the purpose of the exercise was considering the Panel lacked any judicial or quasi judicial authority, legal or moral coercive force or any force at all for that matter that could in its wake produce the desired remedies it claimed to pursue. The Panel is and was incapable of recommending prosecution or referring the matter to a higher tribunal capable of reviewing the events of 1988 to produce the desired outcomes whatever these may have been lost in the obscurity of revenge though stated as its objective. In short the Report is of little legal, jurisprudential, legal or moral significance.

More damaging to the credibility of those behind the idea to set up this Panel are the statements of the Malaysian Bar through its president. It ridicules the Malaysian Bar's claims to fairness, equity or transparency in their efforts to bring closure to a matter long dead and buried. It turns out to have been a tool designed to exact vengeance.

BALANCE

This challenge for the Malaysian Bar should have been found in the dichotomy between the perceptions of law and justice held by them as legal practitioners and officers of the courts and that as understood by consumers of legal services including the executive on the other hand.

The problem for the Malaysian Bar appears to arise from an inability to draw the distinction between justice as a process and justice as an outcome.

The absence of a consultative process to include opposing points of view may forever remain a blemish on the credibility of the Bar unless its members who understand the flaws in the proceedings speak up about it.

The Panel's outcome may be said to have been pre determined by the selective nature of evidence presented to it and in the absence of any involvement by the opposing side in either contributing to the terms of reference or selection of the Panel.

The fatal blow to the integrity of the Panel and its findings lay in its composition. It was an appointment by one side. A kangaroo court if you will.

THE ISSUES

It has yet to be determined 20 years on and the publication of this report what grievous offence so vital to the integrity of Malaysia's judiciary or its constitution occurred in the events of 1988 for the event to be so doggedly pursued by the Malaysian bar.

In staging such a spectacular farce as the "Report of Eminent Persons" on the event, including the sacking of the sacrosanct Lord President Tun Salleh Abbas the inference that the event was more than what it purported to be.

There are three branches of government recognized in the traditions of the Westminster system of constitutional government. The executive, judiciary and the legislature, like the father the sun and the holy spirit are not three gods but three persons in the one godhead. And as it occurs in that other holy trinity, the trinity in government vests much power in one of the three.

Standing between these like a geographic border, an imaginary line between two states is the equally imaginary doctrine of the separation of powers. As fictional as any other doctrine (or law) is, the fact remains that these doctrines and laws are fundamentally recognized more in the breach than for their observance at anytime anywhere.

So in 1988 a powerful and impatient executive sick of the 'cap in hand' sub culture so alien to a rapidly developing Malaysia burdened by the sycophancy and obstructive nature of a bunch of interlopers in the civil service and judiciary took on the judiciary. Not laid before the Panel however, was the missing elements of evidence of certain elements of the judiciary then, attempting encroachment into the role of the executive and legislature through other forums in a calculated risk which failed.

The legislature by its chief chose to rise up to the challenge, call the bluff of the seemingly irrelevant doctrine and crossed the line. Interestingly no one died as a result. Malaysia went on to attract record foreign investment and rid itself of much of its third world status (except in the minds of those who blindly worship the west and all of its institutions even though they understand little of it or its application and consequences to them).

In examining the relevance, the importance and the impact of this incident which has farcically grown into a modern day Spanish inquisition, one has to take a closer look of the conventions, doctrines and laws that government the conduct of the three branches of government.

It would then be useful to compare these in the context of the doctrine of the separation of powers, and the individual powers of each of the other branches of government, the legislature and the executive to assess its impact arising from any breach of convention of the nature complained of, then examine the Report and reasons for the Report to make better sense of it all.

BACKGROUND IN BRIEF

In this whole saga there are two protagonists. One being a former Prime Minister of Malaysia, unrepresented at the inquiry and without any input to controvert or to contribute to the terms of reference. The terms of reference broadly speaking in this instance is a roadmap created by the other protagonist, prominent members of the Malaysian Bar.

To add to the farce, neither the Panel nor its Report were either independent or impartial evidenced by a statement attributed to the president of the Malaysian Bar following release of the Report.

The president of the Malaysian Bar Datuk Ambiga Srinivasan unfortunately and perhaps recklessly appears to confirm what has long been suspected as bias in the minds of elements of the Malaysian Bar as protagonist either on its own or acting as a conduit for the frustrations of the former Lord President Tun Salleh Abbas and elements in government to extract a form of revenge against Dr. Mahathir Mohammed.

That part of Ambiga's speech that seeks to convey the Bar's settled position prior to the appointment of the Panel and its Report appears to be contained in the following quote from her speech;

" the bar has been steadfast in supporting the judges whom we knew had suffered a gross injustice in 1988".

The operative word in that statement above being "we knew". By what means and how Dato Ambiga knew she clearly fails to establish. Any evidence to support such a statement and the claim behind it should have been placed not before the Panel but a properly constituted tribunal or court within Malaysia for it to be examined in light of all other "evidence" later presented to the Panel.

It is easy to draw the inference by reference to that particular element of Datuk Ambiga's speech, that an element of perceived bias can be said to have been present within the minds of the Bar prior to empanelling the so called assembly of Eminent Persons. And by virtue of that element of perceived bias, now confirmed in her speech which turns out to be actual bias, participation by the Malaysian Bar into the whole process at any level has clearly tainted the integrity and independence of the Panel. It appears that the Panel was clearly stacked.

It therefore now begs the question; "should the Panel have continued with the process, in the absence of any input from any other party to its proceedings? perhaps a party that could have validly represented the interests of Dr. Mahathir or the government or a party that could have validly challenged or provided evidence to controvert the assumptions laid before the Panel? And finally was this a witch hunt by an interested party such as the Malaysian Bar and for what reasons was the Bar seeking to proceed with the Panel 20 years after the event, considering the distinct possibility that with the death and ageing of many of the witnesses, the quality of the evidence available could have well been eroded if not rendered unreliable for those very same reasons?

REMOVAL OF JUDICIAL OFFICERS

There is ample evidence and a plethora of material from all over the commonwealth including nations from wherein members of the Panel were selected to show clearly that removal of judicial officers is not as sacrosanct or rare as is made out to be by the Panel and the Malaysian Bar in their findings.

In fact a lack of understanding of the conventional doctrine of the separation of powers appears to be perhaps where the problem actually lies.

Examples of Breaches of Doctrines and Conventions

In 1975 the popularly elected government of Edward Gough Whitlam in Australia was sacked by the then governor general of Australia the late Sir John Kerr on the advice of members of parliament with the concurrence and written opinion of a judge of the High Court Sir Harry Gibbs.

There was much debate that followed at every level of Australian society. Recriminations followed. But the debate remained at a mature and although emotional level relevant where valid arguments given the opportunity to be ventilated, controverted and argued fairly won the day. The winner was in the end a more politically mature Australia.

The incident it was later discovered with the benefit of some research by scholars not to be unprecedented. A previous government in the 1930's in the state of New South Wales had also been sacked in similar circumstances by the governor in breach of a convention.

INTERFERENCE IN THE OFFICE AS OPPOSED TO THE EXERCISE OF POWER

Interference in any of the three arms of government by the other is generally perceived as being detrimental to the independent and efficient functioning of government as it has the potential to erode not just the independence of each of the three arms of government producing potentially undesirable outcomes that in theory could lead to a dictatorship.

There is an attempt and a convenient one at that to re cast the events of 1988 into an act that was illegal or unlawful perpetrated by one individual that being the Prime Minister of Malaysia during that period for which there were disastrous consequences for the judiciary.

What's not understood or clearly explained is the fact that even if Mahatir did sack the judge, his actions in doing so was neither unlawful, unprecedented nor one which the Prime Minister (assuming he did it alone) did not have the legal power at his disposal to carry out.

Even if he did sack the judge and failed to follow procedure as laid out in the constitution there is nothing to suggest that he may not have cured the procedural defect subsequently of retrospectively. The fact remains that the power did lie with his government to remove members of the judiciary even if that meant doing it without an address to both houses of parliament.

The fact remains that the executive and the legislature both have the capacity and the legal power to remove anyone whether that be from within the legislature or the judiciary and in his capacity as Prime Minister the reserve powers of his office allowed him to act in the way he did unlike the Malaysian Bar's attempts to revise history.

50 WAYS TO LEAVE YOUR LOVER

There are instances where judges have been removed by the executive simply making their tribunals redundant or position. In a particular case which High Court judge Michael Kirby in his contribution to Tun Salleh Abbas' book May Day makes reference, a judicial officer of the arbitration court was practically removed from office in this way. There was no reference to both houses of parliament no tribunal to inquiry into his conduct, simply a redundancy of his position.

In doing so the executive and the legislature had simply overcome the burden of having to carry out the task through the conventional means of having to carry out the cumbersome exercise only after an address to both houses of parliament.

More recently of course there was the case of the sacking of the chief justice in Pakistan which resulted in rioting and mass hysteria by the bar in that country and by supporters of opposing political parties.

One notes that Pakistan has had limited experience as a democracy and the events referred to occurred under a military dictatorship in a fractured lawless society which Malaysia is not. The Panel member therefore may not have been a good choice considering her limited exposure to the conventions, the rules and the workings of a bench and a government in a democratic environment.

THE EVENTS OF 1988 AND THE BERTHELSEN AFFAIR

It is said that the Berthelsen matter was the catalyst in the whole affair. Berthelsen a foreigner on a visa had his visa revoked and was asked to leave the country. It is further alleged (a matter unfortunately upheld by the appeal courts then) that Berthelsen was denied natural justice in that he was not afforded the opportunity to be heard in appealing the decision of the Director general of Immigration.

It is well established that the physical presence of a defendant before a court in any jurisdiction including Malaysia in such matters is not a necessary pre requisite in order for that party to be heard.

Of paramount importance when weighing up the right to be physically present for a hearing and the danger of the presence of the 'offender' in the circumstances for whatever reason, is the opinion of the Director General of Immigration as was in Berthelsen. There is no reference to this point and whether the appeal courts dealt with such a point in considering the matter.

There was no right to Berthelsen to remain in Malaysia. The grant of a visa to a foreigner (a non citizen) is a privilege granted at the discretion of the host nation not an absolute right of the non citizen as Berthelsen is and was at the time. The denial or revocation of his visa was a discretion at the hands of the Director General of Immigration who exercised it. And contrary to what the court of appeal by implication decided in that matter it was not the right of Berthelsen a non citizen in the circumstances to be present in Malaysia (onshore) to be heard for in his appeal against the decision of the Director General of Immigration. It appears the court of appeal not just erred but may have been negligent in arriving at their decision, perhaps fuelling the fire of a conspiracy which Mahathir acted on.

Australia excised many of its territorial outlying islands in an effort to deny refugees landing on these islands the right to appeal onshore for their rights to remain in Australia as political refugees.

Regardless of the hue and cry raised by every human rights groups and the legal fraternity worldwide, the High Court of Australia in its wisdom upheld the right of the minister of immigration to exercise the powers to do what he did in this regard. The matter was decided in the ministers favour in spite of Australia being a signatory to the Human Rights Convention. The fact remains that unpopular decisions can be and often are not illegal or unlawful.

JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND JUDICIAL MISBEHAVIOUR

Having considered the Berthelsen matter and the decision of the appeals court, one wonders whether or not it is necessary to labour the point that the other case of United Engineers could well have suffered the same fate of judicial incompetence in the hands of an anti Mahathir coalition of judges. And if that were the case, would it have constituted judicial misconduct or judicial misbehavior?

Sallman in his paper on this subject refers to a number of cases of judicial misconduct, judicial misbehavior on and off the bench which would be worth a read by the Malaysian Bar. The fact of removal of judicial officers and the legality or morality of the issue depends much on a number of factors including the legal and social environment in which they operate. Nothing happens in a vacuum.

The notorious case of the sacking and jailing of former Queensland Chief Magistrate Di Fingleton is a case in point. Australia has had a number of high profile cases involving judicial misconduct wherein those (apart from Fingleton and Vasta) resigned rather than face the prospect of an ignominious trial by media and government. The Di Fingleton matter was radically different from any other and can draw no comparison or analogy to the Salleh Abbas matter. And from the ranks of Australia's hallowed legal profession is selected a representative to the Panel to judge not the merits of the events of 1988 but to hang Dr. Mahathir.

Salleh Abbas chose to make an issue out of the events of 1988 and demonstrated his abject lack of understanding of the process by not resisting the Malaysian Bar's conduct in empanelling the so called Eminent Persons Panel to prepare a report he so desperately saw necessary to vilify the former prime minister and reinforced the former chief justices apparent ignorance of how the system operated.

This is just an abridged version of what I chose to communicate on this matter which is a sorry saga in the legal profession, an indictment of the profession on its ignorance of the law and its unrelenting efforts to embed itself in the politics of destabilization of a country whose rank and file workers have achieved so much in such a short time under the leadership of Dr. Mahathir and his government.

Assalamualaikum Tun, lebih dahulu saya ingin mengucapkan terima kasih kepada Tun kerana banyak berjasa kepada agama dan bangsa. Tanpa Tun, Malaysia tak mungkin capai kemajuan seperti yang kita lihat sekarang.

Tun, saya adalah seorang yang amat mengambil berat tentang Bangsa Melayu. Baru-baru ini saya mendapat berita bahawa Anwar ingin mengambil alih kerajaan pada 16 atau 24 September 2008 ini. Usaha Anwar akan berjaya sekiranya ada ahli parlimen yang lompat parti.

Untuk pengetahuan Tun, saya ada terima rintihan seorang individu yang berpangkat "Dato" yang menceritakan pada saya beliau telah dianiaya oleh parti pembangkang.

Beliau dikenali oleh saya sebagai Dato Johari (Ketua Umno Cawangan Klang Bandar, Selangor), baru-baru ini Dato Johari ada memaklumkan pada saya yang beliau telah dikaitkan dengan kes tipu di Klang, Selangor. Beliau telah ditahan pihak polis selama 7 hari. Repot polis telah dibuat oleh pengadu iaitu "individu yang berkomplot dengan pihak pembangkang" yang dinyatakan dalam repot tersebut Dato Johari telah melakukan penipuan. Kes tersebut telah diambil oleh Cawangan Pencegahan Jenayah Komersil.

Perkara yang amat dikesalkan oleh Dato Johari ialah beliau langsung tidak terlibat dengan kesalahan tersebut. Namun, perkara yang amat mengejutkan beliau ialah, beliau telah didatangi Timbalan Ketua Menteri Pulau Pinang dan beberapa orang ahli politik dari "Keadilan" sewaktu dalam tahanan polis.

Dato Johari telah menceritakan pada saya yang beliau telah diugut oleh Timbalan Ketua Menteri Pulau Pinang supaya tukar parti "Keadilan". Timbalan Ketua Menteri Pulau Pinang memberi jaminan kepada Dato Johari iaitu "pengadu akan tarik balik repot yang mengaitkan Dato Johari dengan kes tipu sekiranya Dato Johari tukar parti dan keahlian".

Dato Johari juga mengaitkan beberapa orang penjawat awam terlibat dalam komplot untuk menjatuhkan beliau. Jadi saya amat berharap Tun dapat menyiasat perkara ini. Saya lihat pembangkang sanggup buat apa-apa saja untuk memastikan mereka dapat menakluk kerajaan.

Segala perhatian dari Tun saya mengucapkan ribuan terima kasih.....
