

THE FREE GAZA MOVEMENT

chedet.co.cc

August 12, 2009

By Dr. Mahathir Mohamad

1. We all remember the brutal Israeli attacks against Gaza last year. Many of us were outraged by the killings of some 1,300 Gazan Palestinian, men, women, the disabled, the children, the sick and the maimed. Hospitals and schools were destroyed.
2. The condemnation of this brutal assaults had forced the Israelis to stop the massive retaliation against alleged Hamas rocket attacks against Israel.
3. Many of the rich countries had pledged billions in aid for the rebuilding of Gaza.
4. After that, things became quiet. There was hardly any report in the press on what was happening. I suppose most people assume that the reconstruction of Gaza was proceeding apace.
5. But the reality is far different. The Egyptians limited the medicine and the building materials from entering Gaza from its territory. The sea is blockaded illegally by the Israelis. The people of Gaza have literally been made prisoners by these actions.
6. The Free Gaza Movement led by Huwaida Arraf was set up in order to send needed supplies to beleaguered Gaza. But after five small boats were successful in delivering much need supplies, the Israeli navy began to intercept them and forcing them to abort their humanitarian aid.
7. One small boat with a number of Palestinians, Arabs, European and American (a U.S. Congresswoman) was rammed by Israeli warships. The people in the boat, all civilians were thrown into the sea. Luckily they survived.
8. Recently another little boat, loaded with food, medicine, stationery for school use and toys, with 25 unarmed civilians including a Nobel Peace Laureate from Ireland and the American women candidate for presidency of the U.S. was fired at by Israeli commandos, who then boarded the boat, giving rough treatment to the people on board.
9. Repeated shouts on the loudhailer that there were only unarmed civilians and the boat carried no arm failed to stop the commandos. The boat was steered by the commandos to an Israeli port and the people on board were thrown into Israeli jails.

10. The people of the Free Gaza Movement have now been released. They are determined to carry on sailing from Cyprus to Gaza to bring relief.

11. Winter is coming and it will be bitterly cold in Gaza. A great number of the Gazans whose houses were destroyed by the Israelis have no shelter and would suffer terribly in the winter.

12. Modern civilization is supposedly very concerned about human rights. It is only right that we care for those heroes and heroines who are standing up to oppressive Governments.

13. But shouldn't we also be concerned and caring for the 1½ million people of Gaza, who had lost 1,300 fellow inhabitants, whose houses, schools and hospitals have been destroyed, who do not have water or sanitary facilities, who will be without shelter from the coming winter.

14. It is sad that Governments who had pledged aid have so readily allowed the Israelis to blockade Gaza. It is disgusting that Israel can break international laws with impunity.

15. I went to Cyprus to meet these brave members of the Free Gaza Movement. I was shocked at how tiny was the only fishing boat that they still have for future trips to Gaza.

16. I had been sailing in a much bigger yacht and I know how rough was the sea. Yet 25 people dare to sail in this tiny boat, sleeping on the open deck, being seasick, being without proper food, and being made to face Israeli attacks. We really live in an uncivilized world where the fate of one or two people, useful for condemning certain Governments are constantly played up, yet the suffering, the freedom of 1½ million Gazans are ignored. I admire then Gazans whose main concern is for their right to be a free people, free that is from Israeli oppression, supported by the rich people who talk a lot about human rights and freedom.

17. I don't think I would be able to endure the kind of discomfort and dangers faced by the activists of the Free Gaza Movement. All I can do is to give moral support to them.

18. Malaysians who wish to do so may volunteer to sail with these intrepid people. But if they cannot, then they can contribute towards their need to buy a bigger boat as no one would rent boats to them.

19. The PGPO (Perdana Global Peace Organisation) would like to appeal for donations in aid of the Free Gaza Movement members to purchase a small ship to carry cement and building materials apart from medicine and food etc.

20. All contributions by cheque can be issued to: KLFCW (Gaza Fund). KLFCW stands for the Kuala Lumpur Foundation to Criminalise War. The cheques can be addressed to the KLFCW c/o Perdana Global Peace Organisation, 5th Floor, 88, Jalan Perdana, Taman Tasik Perdana, 50480 Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Cash contributions can be channeled to KLFCW Maybank Account: 5123 3430 6634.

dear Tun, or any other reader who aren't ignorant or lazy. A website called ifamericansknew.org and a blog called alisonweir.org are few examples of American group which side on Palestine, not Israel. If you wish to dig up more fact not lies, instead of reading the prime papers which is written by Israel-controlled press like AP and Reuters, go to these websites. They have all the articles and documents! Including the unreported attack by the Israel on USS Liberty (U.S. military) in June 8, 1967. Save Palestine, and death to the cruel Israel military!
p/s: the minuscule report on Israel's heavy involvement in organ trafficking in newspapers and t.v. is not shocking either. Tons of evidence and news on either ifamericansknew.org or alisonweir.org

The exists of all evil is the nation,mainly Britain,America,Israel,China,Soviet, mainly Europe Country, the scientists that develops weapons,sell and consent the use against mankind in the name of honor ,and self defense and blame others for their wrong doings.What a F bullshit.WHY not use this rubbish to develops mankind and not sent aids in the name of humantarian to rebuild what has been destroy,not able to bring back lives of the dead but also lives of the living one.

This is where Terrorists are born and fear the world.

This nation mentioned is no difference from the smaller groups of terrorist like the AlQueda,Hamas,JI,IRA,Tamil Naidu,etc, etc.

World Peace are now in between the stronger terrorists like the US, Israel and the weaker terrorists like ALQeada, JI ,etc.

They are the evils that threat the world peace.They blame each other and we are the idiots in between.Both are using us.

Most nation sided the stronger terrorists .Why?

For upholding right or because they are superior,and what wrong doings of them,looks right even we know it is wrong,like invading Iraq.What good that they do now.Worst than Saddam Regime.

One bullet, can kill Saddam not one war.

The UN legal their friends to build Nuclear Weapon, and condemn their foes to build. Are we not worried.

World war Two, US use atomic bombs on civilians land, Hiroshima and Nagasaki after being attacks by Japs on their Pearl Harbour, which are Military Base. What makes the World, deserves US, Israel etc to have Nuclear Capabilities. History have taught us enough.

Look back, which the nation that much involves in World War 1 and 2

Helping the weak and the stronger terrorists is no difference as Evil.

World must stops this two category of evils

Life in occupied Gaza

by Anas Alahmed and David Stewart

August 23, 2009

(Photograph by Anas Alahmed Bloomington High School graduate Evann Smith discussed her experiences in the Gaza Strip during an Aug. 13 presentation. Smith is a doctoral student at Harvard University and went to the war-torn Palestinian Territory under a UN program.)

About 50 Bloomington-area citizens learned about life in Occupied Palestine through a local woman's presentation on her time in a UN-sponsored student delegation to the Gaza Strip in May 2009.

"Every single person in Gaza has a war story," Evann Smith told the audience in a soft and sometimes quavering voice. "There is no single person in Gaza who has not had a direct experience with Operation Cast Lead. ...

SALAM RAMADHAN AL-MUBARAK

Bloomington resident Shawkat Abdelhaq, who noted that "there was a huge difference in the way that CNN, BBC, and Al-Jazeera had reported the events of Operation Cast Lead," summed up the event by saying, "It was very informative, a very reasoned and non-judgmental picture of what is happening in Gaza. It is obvious that the siege must be taken out. Israel must make a peaceful response to the offers of peace that have been made by Hamas and the Arab States in the region."

oh prophet did they love thee or the adventure or was it for land and for the gold was it political as the romans and the jews and the gentiles

oh prophet thy journey to madinah is a wondrous tale but thy heart was with mecca and my heart is with thee oh prophet

was the tilling by the tillers for the land, my lord with anggur and khorma and oranges and olives acres and acres of a organic life sweet and strong that shall nourish the muslim's body

the palestinians and their home land of the Promised land moses never did made it and his brother resides atop aj-jabal harun

"Jika kamu mengikuti kehendak kebanyakan manusia nescaya mereka akan menyesatkan kamu dari jalan Allah.Mereka tidak lain hanya berdusta".

Slamat Sjahtera Tun....

It is very clear that this Gaza issue is an endless war. No matter how hard the palestinians fight 4 their right, the jews seem to never give up. The worst part is not only they are treated like animals but they are chased out from their own land. The land where they have resided for thousands of years.

I'm amaze with the wonderful things that u are doing Tun in oder to help the Palestinians. :) It is at least what we can do to help them lighte their burden...

Dengan izin Tun,

peacemalaysia

Thanks for reading my comments and for keeping track of my and wajaperak's conversations with Hanan and Tempered.

I apologise that the link to an article in my earlier comment on organ harvesting didn't work. Here is the link to Kawther Salam's article entitled The Body Snatchers of Israel

This is Gilad Atzmon's take on the organ harvesting issue

The Forward is a pro-Israeli publication and it is not surprising that they've added a spin to the issue. The article doesn't deny the charge of organ harvesting but put doubt on the veracity of the claim and of course doesn't forget to remind readers of the usual 'Jews as victims' (of a Swedish conspiracy perhaps?) and 'everybody hates us' litany by mentioning the Holocaust which nobody here denies.

You said, //However, having given you my general stand on this, I am also intrigued by the presence of two particular personalities here (Hanan and Tempered) both are presumably Zionists//

It is known that there are Israeli Zionists who trawl the Internet to put a pro-Israeli slant on discussions. This started way back when Israel invaded Lebanon In fact, they have a veritable cyber army to shape public perceptions in the net.

Tun is an opinion-leader and this blog attracts plenty of hits.

I think it's good that we read widely on the issue so that we have an idea of what's happening in the Palestinian Occupied Territories, but we also need to be aware that the Palestinians' story is seldom heard in mainstream media or popular websites.

Assalamualaikum Tun dan Para Blogger
Selamat berpuasa...

Allow me to response to the latest postings of prof_ridcully on August 22, 2009 7:26 PM and Hanan on August 21, 2009 2:42 PM

I have been reading their arguments in this blog constantly. Of course as a Muslim I am supporting the Palestinians struggle to free themselves from the Israeli occupation for over 70 years. I am supporting Tun's effort in the FreeGaza movement. prof_ridcully's counter arguments to many postings by our friendly Israelis have enlightened me considerably and untwist many news which are biased from the Western media.

However, having given you my general stand on this, I am also intrigued by the presence of two particular personalities here (Hanan and Tempered) both are presumably Zionists. I wonder why they come to this blog even though they know very well that most people here are staunch anti-zionist. Their presence has somehow made this blog interesting and they (Hanan and Tempered) are our "window" into their Zionist world, which is so black, detached and unknown to us.

In Malaysia , there is not a single Jew exist, or at least not that I know of. I have never visited a synagogue for example. I have never read the Old Testament and most of the Biblical stories were only from Muslim's sources. I have never had a Jewish friend and the first Jewish character that I know was from the play "Merchant of Venice". Shylock was indeed portryed to be a horrible money lender Jew and may be not too much different from George Soros and Paul Madoff.

But surely not are all Jews so bad....There are so many good jews around the world whom I know (not personally), that have contributed a great deal to humanity.

I wonder, why are there so many people hating them so much? Why should I hate them as a race/people? I cannot find the reason to hate them as a race.

Frankly, I really do not know their cultures and habits. Do you? All that we know are second hand news.

So these two characters (Hanan and Tempered) have provided me with some balancing factor against negative bias from our side. I am not naïve when I write this down.

However, this time I feel compelled to reply since I feel prof_ridcully has brought issue (of Jews harvesting organs)which is still unclear. I am not defending the Israelis cause (and against the Palestinians) but I am simply defending the "truth and justice".

The news about Israeli army using parts of Palestinian dead bodies as reported by prof_ridcully if indeed true must be further investigated. I find it a bit far fetch. Its purpose is only to demonise this community and to make hate. Is it necessary to succumb to a wild speculation such as this? We should not jump easily to a conclusion so as to demonize them. It is childish and stupid.

I remember during my childhood time, living in a village environment, how children were frightened by their parents on "orang penyabit kepala". These "penyabit kepala" went round collecting children heads and use for "semah" (ritual) for building new bridges. I used to be frighten whenever I saw grass cutter especially those with "penyabit" and whenever I passed by a new bridge, I used to wonder how many children's heads have been used to build it. Anyway, I do not believe this anymore, as a rational and mature adult.

Likewise, as a rational and mature society we should read any news presented to us carefully as the current story by prof_ridcully. If one is truthful enough one should follow the links he has given us before one could arrive at a more rational and logical conclusion that this news is still a wild speculation i.e. still in the same stage as "orang penyabit kepala".

I found this interesting article to explain the case more rationally

<http://blogs.forward.com/jj-goldberg/112659/>

By all means, international agencies and human right organization must monitor such cases, if indeed it is true.

I am not supporting them, but because I do not want them to do the same thing to us, i.e. demonizing us, the Muslim. It is a tick for a tack. The vicious cycle of demonizing each other should stop.

I make an open plea to Hanan and Tempered to ask their government to make concessions to the Palestinians people more than just respecting the fasting month. Immediately, since winter is coming, they need desperately the boarder to be open to bring in supplies of foods, clothing, medicines and building materials.

Dear Hanan and Tempered, there are children, old people and sick people and above all there are good palestinian people in the West Bank and Gaza. If you help to save them, you would save the whole humanity.

Assalamualaikum and Ramadan Mubarak dear prof_ridcully and friends

Nothing will convince you but your own. Your Jews hatred is greater than the sympathy to your Palestinian brothers. I really don't care much about your "Teheran" information since it is based on lies as same as your information about organ harvesting by the IDF. We are not as same as the MTF (Muslim Terror Forces) who slaughter journalists (among them Jewish journalists).

Even the Swedish newspaper editor confessed this morning that they don't have any proof of the harvesting of organs.

Read this:

<http://www.ynetnews.com/articles/0,7340,L-3766093,00.html>

"Aftonbladet's editor-in-chief, Jan Helin, says he green-lighted report accusing IDF soldiers of harvesting Palestinians' organs because it 'raises some questions. He confesses, however, that paper has no evidence of such practices"

It is simply a blood libel. ...And Muslims are very good to plot such blood libels while the naive or anti Semitic journalists who are lazy or not wanting to confirm the information are “buying” the stories to make headlines against the Jews.

I can tell you a true personal story (which is not a libel) about Muslim Syrian soldiers who did even worse things to Israeli Jewish soldiers after the killing in the 1973 war, but let me avoid the disgust story from you (they were my friends). Will you believe my story? My story is even more humiliating than the beating to death detained people in the Malaysian police stations (if you watched the video clips).

Since I concluded my next participating this blog and commenting let me add a part of my private letter to a friend:

"I must tell you that you opened my eyes about some very important issues. You are right, we cannot convince our conflict partners/enemies with our just thinking. They need to come to that conclusion themselves. It is almost impossible to influence the present generation since their bias is so engraved in their minds. They need to reach a very high self strength of different thinking and they are still not ready for that. Because of my almost ultimate devotion of creating friendship, I was somehow blind to look at the road side and backwards. An ideal is a dream to follow but the reality must be ready for that dream and it is not yet ready. Except a few "brave" Muslims to communicate with me all others are afraid, or ignoring or continuing with their hatred. The best example is how many of those Malaysian Muslims or Malaysians at all have the courage to participate in Zionist or pro Zionist blogs and do what I'm trying to do? It must be something very fundamental in their thinking and logic. It is related to the way they have been educated from day one. I think that it is a lie that they don't hate the Jews and just the Zionists. Their main reason to hate the Zionists is their fundamental hatred to Jews even I think Muslims massacred less Jews than Christians along the history.

My utopia vision of "Friendship prior Peace" is very naive and will not achieve very much. It will be almost a waste of time. I'm also tending to think to leave the blog of Dr. Mahathir since I feel that he uses me for his self political matters just to show that even Jews, Zionists and Israelis are participating freely in his blog (which he did sometime during an interview to a newspaper in Malaysia). Those "courageous" Muslims who are friendly contacted me already and fingers of one hand is too much to count them. Dr. Mahathir didn't changed himself and his fans are also the same. I'm participating for almost 9 month in his blog. It is almost equal for a pregnancy time and the born child is not that I was expecting to be.

I was looking for some participants in my planned blog but the response wasn't warming, so I'll invest my valuable time in some more beneficial matters which I love to do and spend. Who is my friend already will remain and who is not, never was. Dr. Mahathir had so many opportunities to have influence toward peace but he missed them all just because his Jews hatred. He prefers to think how to defeat the Jews more than how to find the way to create peace. The train is continuing its voyage without him and we still don't know what is the next station.

It looks like that the next war cannot be avoided. With the last declarations on the Fatah conference and the Hamas extremism it gets as complex like it was many years before. They prefer the way of violence and terror. They get their backing wind from two significant facts. One - America is not so strong as before and especially under Obama. Two - their belief that Iran will be able to have nuclear bombs very soon. This is just showing their real face. Their hidden plan is to wipe us off even if they need to pretend as talking peace. People who are wanting to talk peace are not using terror or speak extreme as a violent resistance. Their peace means a "Judenrhein" (clean of Jews) Palestine."

I think you missed an opportunity with your biased bitterness. We probably cannot be friends. I was so naive for about nine months. It was a good experience for me and I can sleep well now since I did my best and not wasted the chance. May be I need to contribute to humanity in a different way.

Dear Dr. Mahathir, thank you for hosting my comments and letting me be your guest in your blog.

To chedet readers:

When we think donation, we always tend to think in terms of huge amounts. It really doesn't take much to donate - just give what you can - even RM10 will do and if you can do it weekly, monthly, whenever, that would be awesome. And given the number of chedet readers alone, the amount would be pretty substantial. Those who have access to internet banking, it's really just a click away. So please let's do our bit for mankind...

Assalamualaikum Tun...

Serangan yang dilakukan oleh Israel terhadap Gaza memang melampau. Penjajahan secara terbuka ini malangnya direstui oleh Amerika. Pelik kenapa Obama tidak boleh mengulas mengenai kekejaman yang dilakukan rejim Zionis itu terhadap penduduk Palestin tetapi boleh pula mengulas mengenai kejadian keganasan di Mumbai.

Menurut salah satu saranan dan pendapat Tun Dr Mahathir, negara Islam secara jelasnya, memang tidak berupaya melakukan sesuatu, tetapi umat Islam masih boleh melakukan sesuatu untuk menyelamatkan Palestin. Gaza secara terang-terangan diceroboh dan penduduknya mati dibedil senjata-senjata dan teknologi yang dibekalkan oleh Amerika yang menjadi anak emas Israel.

Masyarakat dunia pasti merasa sedih melihat rakyat Palestin ditindas. Jujurnya samapai suatu ketika saya muak untuk membaca berita bahagian dunia yang terus memaparkan penderitaan penduduk Gaza. Sedih kerana tidak dapat membantu mereka melainkan berdoa.

Saya sokong dengan tindakan Tun untuk membeli kapal bagi menghantar barang keperluan kepada mereka. Masih ramai rakyat Malaysia yang dermawan yang akan sama2 turut memberi sumbangan. namun begitu, jutaan harapan saya agar pihak yang berkuasa seperti Persatuan

Bangsa-Bangsa Bersatu dapat memainkan peranan yang sangat penting untuk memastikan jaminan keatas masyarakat yang hendak menyalurkan bantuan kemanusiaan kepada Gaza.

salam Tun.

saya amat menyokong usaha murni Tun bagi membeli bot2 kecil untuk menghantar bantuan makanan. saya berharap usaha murni Tun ini tidak dipandang remeh oleh sesetengah pihak.. rakyat Malaysia haruslah sedar akan perkara ini. hal ini kerana rakyat Palestin sudah lama dibelenggu dengan kekejaman Israel. Oleh itu rakyat Malaysia perlulah peka terhadap isu ini, kerana ia bukanlah mudah seperti yang difikirkan. Akhir kata, buka mata, buka hati, dan bukalah minda. Semoga usaha murni Tun diberkati Allah. Amin

Slm tun dan para pembaca semua..

Mereka Saudara Kita>>>

Dan kini bumi Palestin telah digemparkan sekali lagi dengan peristiwa pembunuhan yang seolah-olah tidak akan sampai ke penghujungnya sehinggalah Yahudi melalui Israel Zionis menguasai setiap inci tanah Palestin. Namun yang perlu kita fikirkan adalah nasib saudara-saudara seIslam yang terkorban dan al-Aqsa di bawah penguasaan Israel Zionis.

Apa yang dapat kami bantu wahai saudaraku...

1. Sekiranya anda seorang guru, ustaz, penceramah, rakan-rakan yang sedar dan cintakan saudara seIslam serta al-Aqsa, sampaikanlah kepada mereka akan kepentingan Palestin, Masjidil Aqsa serta semaikan di jiwa mereka kisah pahlawan Islam dan penderitaan saudara kita di sana. Sesungguhnya kita ini disatukan dengan kalimah La ila ha illaAllah.
2. Sekiranya anda berkemampuan dari segi kewangan maka bolehlah menderma di sini.
3. Sampaikan berita-berita terkini mengenai Palestin dan umat Islam di negara lain melalui emel, YahooGroup, SMS, MMS, majalah dan sebagainya sebagai medium penyampaian untuk memberi kesedaran kepada umat Islam dan rakyat Malaysia tentang penderitaan rakyat Palestin.
4. Anda boleh berusaha untuk memboikot barangan atau pengeluaran yang membantu Israel dalam membangunkan ekonomi dan membunuh umat Islam di Palestin.

sy juga hanyalah hamba Allah yg serba kekurangan namun masih cuba membantu selagi termampu. Justeru sy pohon kpd semua para pembaca renung2kanlah ape yg terjadi..tepek dada tanya iman..sekian

Salam perpaduan dan salam perjuangan Tun,

Tahniah di ucapkan kepada Tun atas usaha yang diambil. Semoga Tun berjaya dalam usaha ini dengan kurnia tuhan.

Saya rasa amat bertuah kerana lahir di bumi yang aman dan damai. Sebagai seorang india saya dapat juga bersama-sama dengan agama lain tetapi apakah masalah sebenar Israel????

Kelakuan yang begitu kejam sekali terhadap kanak-kanak & penduduk Palestin amat menyakitkan hati. Tak kan ada satu jiwa pun yang rasa berperimanusiaan di Israel?? Mungkin mereka tidak tahu maksud sebenar atau tidak berpendidikan islam.

Tun, selain memberi bantuan kewangan kepada rakyat palestine sokongan moral amat diperlukan kepada mangsa serangan Israel. Saya amat bersetuju dengan langkah yang diambil oleh Tun. Saya juga turut berdoa supaya mewujudkan dunia yang baru kepada orang yang tidak berdosa dan sejahtera iaitu rakyat Palestin.

Israel apa yang anda akan perolehi melalui serang Palestin????

Kepada rakyat Malaysia...bantulah selagi anda mampu dan berdoalah kepada saudara-saudara kita yang dalam kesusahan....

assalamualaikum Tun..

sebagai rakyat Malaysia yang tinggal di sebuah negara yang aman saya secara peribadi sejujurnya berasa sangat sedih dengan kekejaman yang dilakukan oleh israel ke atas penduduk di Palestin. mereka melakukan kekejaman tersebut tanpa sebarang belas kasihan dan juga perikemanusiaan. ramai yang menjadi mangsa kekejaman tersebut termasuk kanak-kanak wanita dan sebagainya. mereka sanggup menggadai nyawa semata-mata untuk menyelamatkan negara mereka dari terus dikuasai oleh pihak yang tiada hak langsung di tanah air mereka. sehingga ini kekejaman terhadap mereka masih berterusan. usaha Tun untuk membantu mereka amatlah saya kagumi dan menyokong hasrat murni Tun itu. saya juga sangat berharap dengan bantuan yang ingin disalurkan oleh pihak Tun dapat membantu mereka. ini kerana ada bantuan yang disekat dari diberikan kepada mereka. semoga pihak yang bertanggungjawab lain juga turut bersama Tun untuk menyalurkan dana dan bantuan kepada penduduk Palestin yang tertindas itu..

semoga usaha Tun berjaya...

Slm Tun dan para pembaca sekalian..

Sudah cukup kata-kata, sudah mual kita memutuskan resolusi-resolusi yang tidak dipraktikkan, sudah jemu kita dengan slogan-slogan yang tidak membawa kepada apa-apa tindakan. Sudah sampai masanya kita melakukan sesuatu demi menyelamatkan Palestin khususnya Gaza.

Persoalannya, apakah mungkin kita menggerakkan umat Islam untuk menyelamatkan Palestin jika kita masih naif tentang apa yang sebenarnya berlaku kepada Palestin? Apakah cukup dengan hanya menggelengkan kepala, menanti isu ini pudar daripada siaran media selepas seminggu dua, dan kemudian menggelengkan kepala lagi untuk pusingan yang seterusnya?

Justeru, wahai teman2 ku sekalian.. renung2kan la.. tepuk dada tanya iman.. inilah yg kita mahu??

saya merupakan student yang mengambil jurusan berkaitan DASAR KERAJAAN, saya tertarik dengan isu yang ditengahkan oleh tun, pada pendapat saya yang masih bertatih, kekuatan sesebuah negara haruslah mempunyai kekuatan sokongan majoriti rakyat, keadaan fizikal yg baik, pelan perancangan masa depan yang teratur dan baik dan pemimpin yang mengikut pemerintahan seperti Rasulullah S.A.W., sekadar selingan untuk mengejutkan kambing tidur,, berkenaan dengan isu masyarakat Gaza, saya berasa geram dan sedey kerana masyarakat Gaza diperlukan seperti kuli batak,, mereka berhak untuk memiliki apa yang sepatutnya mereka perlukan ,, namun demikian Israel yang bodoh ,, mereka menolak hak masyarakat Gaza,, pemerintah Israel TAMAK macam kambing Hitam di MALAYSIA, mungkin salah satu agenda berkaitan dengan agama,, xpi kemana keadilan yang kononnya megah diperjuangkan oleh PBB,, xpi menjadi bodoh apabila berhadapan kuasa veto Amerika Syarikat... "Ya Allah .
selamatkan sahabatku di Gaza,, Kau kuatkan hati mereka, hanya Kau Ya Allah sumber kekuatan mereka,, aminnn" saya akan menyokong niat baik Tun untuk membantu rakyat Palestin yang dalam kesusahan dan amat memerlukan bantuan walaupun terdapat segelintir manusia yang mengkritik niat baik Tun. mereka hanya tahu mengkritik tetapi tidak berusaha untuk membantu.

letakkan diri diri kita di tempat mereka, baru lah kita akan berasa perit dan susahny hidup dalam belenggu peperangan. kita mampu lagi tersenyum kerana negara kita masih dalam keadaan aman. tetapi sampai bila keadaan ini akan berlaku aman.. terletak pada hati setiap rakyat negara ini...

Salam sejahtera Tun,

Secara hakikatnya, tiada sebarang perkataan mahupun bahasa dalam dunia ini yang boleh dikatakan memadai untuk digunakan oleh kita dalam menggambarkan keperitan mahupun kesengsaraan yang telah dilalui oleh mangsa-mangsa peperangan Gaza. Kami mencaci dan menghina pihak Israel yang bertindak sama sempama binatang liar sehingga sanggup bertindak sebegitu kejam sesama manusia. Perasaan simpati dan pilu menyelubungi hati serta jiwa ketika melihat "haiwan-haiwan" ini membunuh menggigit kesukaan mereka tanpa mempertimbangkan sama ada mangsa mereka itu merupakan mangsa yang langsung tidak mempunyai kuasa untuk menentang tanpa simpati.

Tangisan-tangisan kematian di bumi palestine tidak pernah pun berkurangan biarpun untuk seketika malahan rayuan agar peperangan ini diberhentikan serta merta juga tidak pernah diendahkan oleh pihak Israel. Sekiranya ikutkan naluri hati, "aktiviti peperangan" ini sepatutnya sudah lama disimpan di muzium sahaja. Apa ertinya kita mencapai kemajuan dan kepesatan sekiranya kita sebagai makhluk sejenis masih bergaduh sesama diri sendiri? Apakah beza kita dengan haiwan yang tidak berakal sekiranya kita yang awal-awalnya sudah mengetahui bahawa peperangan ini hanya membawa kemusnahan dan masih kita pratikkannya? Sekiranya fahaman semudah ini dapat difikirkan oleh remaja semuda saya... apakah waras pihak Israel sehingga sanggup melancarkan bedilan bom secara bertubi-tubi terhadap golongan manusia yang mempunyai hak yang sama seperti mereka untuk hidup di bumi ini?

Saya bersyukur kerana saya dilahirkan di negara Malaysia yang walaupun kita turut mempunyai banyak masalah-masalah perkauman namun kita masih dapat mengekalkan keharmonian dan memupuk kedamaian sesama rakyat. Semoga usaha Tun ini diberkati dan dapat memberi sedikit sebanyak bantuan terhadap mangsa-mangsa di Gaza...

(at least to let them know they we (the world) care about them and they will never be alone!!!)

sekian~

salam dan selamat sejahtera kepada semua isu isreal ini xpernah habis...dari dulu sehingga sekarang..entah sampai bile agaknyer penderitaan rakyat palestine nie akan berakhir..

saya amat menyokong dengan niat tun untuk membantu rakyat palestine, walaupun ada segelintir manusia yang memandang serong niat tun itu...mereka menganggap usaha tun sia-sia tapi sekurang-kurangnya tun mencuba bukan hanya melihat penderitaan rakyat palestine tanpa perasaan untuk membantu.

cuba kita selami perasaan rakyat palestine yang terpaksa hidup sengsara di negara sendiri. kita sepatutnya bersyukur duduk di negara yang tidak berperang.

walaupun saya tidak kaya duit tetapi saya akan cuba sedaya upaya membantu meringankan beban mereka hatta walaupun dengan mendoakan keselamatan rakyat palestine dari diseksa oleh isreal.

kepada sesiapa yang hanya tahu mengkritik tetapi langsung tiada bantuan yang dihulurkan...cuba letakkan diri di tempat mereka dan bayangkan tiada sesiapa yang cuba menghulurkan bantuan.apa perasaan anda ketika itu...

cuba la fikir-fikirkan... buka minda seluas-seluasnya...perjalanan hidup masih panjang..kita tidak tahu apa yang akan terjadi pada diri kita, keluarga dan negara pada masa hadapan.

Salam Tun and Selamat Berpuasa

Wow, I'm touched by Hanan's post on the kindness of the Israeli Occupation Forces (he disingenuously calls it Israeli Defence Force) towards Palestinians in view of Ramadhan.

Perhaps the IOF are trying to make up for the atrocities they have been inflicting on the Palestinians? Atrocities such as organ harvesting?

Here's an excerpt:

[Quote]

"In 2002 the Tehran Times reported: "The Zionist state has tacitly admitted that doctors at the Israeli forensic institute at Abu Kabir had extracted the vital organs of three Palestinian teenage children killed by the Israeli Army nearly ten days ago. Zionist Minister of Health Nessim Dahhan said in response to a question by Arab member of the Zionist Parliament 'Knesset,' Ahmed Teibi, on Tuesday that he couldn't deny that organs of Palestinian youths and children killed by the Israeli forces were taken out for transplants or scientific research."

But now the news about Israeli trafficking of human organs is spreading to Western mainstream media. Ynet the biggest Israeli online newspaper, reported Tuesday that "Leading Swedish daily Aftonbladet claimed in one of its articles that IDF soldiers killed Palestinians in order to trade in their organs."

[Unquote]

Typically in the Ynet piece Israeli officials didn't deny the fact that organ harvesting was taking place but rather talked about the intricacies of each other's (Sweden and Israel) printing laws and, yes, anti-semitism.

I hope I've not upset readers' appetite by posting the organ harvesting article.

Selamat Berbuka.

salam Tun yang dihormati dan disayangi seterusnya kepada penggemar blog ini.. saya begitu sensitif dan sedih sekali apabila terkenangkan nasib saudara-saudara kita di bumi palestine yang belum tahu kesudahannya, sentiasa dilanda penderitaan, tiada keamanan hidup, kesengsaraan dan kekacauan oleh manusia-manusia tidak berhati perut iaitu israel. keganasan israel terhadap palestine amat terkutuk sekali walaupun ada yang berpendapat bahawa apa yang terjadi kepada palestine selama berpuluh tahun ini tiada kena mengena dengan masyarakat kita namun sebagai masyarakat dunia yang berperikemanusiaan dan prihatin kita patut merasai sekali kesengsaraan spertimana yang dialami oleh warga palestine ini. mungkin bukan dengan wang ringgit bg yang kurang mampu namun sekurangnya berilah sokongan moral dan sama-sama memberi bantuan yang sedaya mungkin sperti memboikot barangan atau produk2 yang menyumbang kepada ekonomi israel kejam itu.. kita juga perlu ingat bahawa warga palestine sentiasa memerlukan sokongan dari seluruh umat islam di dunia ini bagi membantu mereka dalam mengembalikan keamanan dan hak mereka di bumi palestine tersebut.. oleh itu, marilah kita sma2 mendoakan untuk keamanan umat islam di bumi palestine kerana Allah itu maha kuasa dan mampu memberi balsan kepada mereka yang berlaku kejam kepada umatNya.. amin... sekian dulu bingkisan dan pandangan dari saya. wasalam..

Salam Tun dan teman2,

Israel memang kejam dan tidak berperikemanusiaan,

Namun,

Janji Allah adalah janji yang benar, Setiap perbuatan pasti akan mendapat balasannya. Cuma masa yang menentukan segala-galanya..

Mungkin kita tidak mampu untuk menolong mereka secara fizikal tapi banyak lagi cara yang kita boleh tolong mereka. Saya bersetuju dengan Tun untuk mengumpul dana bagi meringankan beban mereka. Kenapa perlu dipertikaikan cadangan dan semangat yang mulia untuk membantu mereka yang dalam kesusahan. Kalau tak bersetuju dengan idea Tun, diam je la, jangan nak memperlekehkan hasrat murni seseorang. Bayangkan jika kita dalam kesusahan dan xde org yang nk tlg, apa prasaan kita???

Apa yang penting, kita juga perlulah sentiasa mendoakan kesejahteraan umat Islam yang berada di bumi Allah ini dan ingatlah bahawa kita hanya penumpang yang menumpang untuk seketika waktu cuma.

a very good afternoon to yang amat berhormat tun dr.mahathir n fellow blog readers of chedet.com.!

freedom has become as one of the most common basic needs in today's human society.but sadly it has been used wrongly in the name of democracy by some irresponsible persons..it will be more significant if we can name some of modern world's so called superpowers such as israel etc.

what is isrrael doin at the moment at palestine is absolutely undeniable n unacceptable.they are killing innocent persons;childens old man n womans in the name of destroying terrorist organizations in gaza..

so, as fellow human beings n strong believers in democacy n humanity we all should go against this human killing activity...try to find the true acts n facts of this world wide issue n solve it as soon as possible to make this world be in peace n harmony...

an as a human being i strongly disagree with israel's activity in gaza n i undeniably supports any activity to stop this ridiculous n abnormality in gaza....let us all together try our very best to stop this....may the power of almighty be with us in this pure workout...

thank you for listening to me!!!!may god bless palestinians always Assalamualaikum to my favourite leader of all times...

Bila bercerita mengenai keganasan dan penindasan yang menimpa rakyat palestine, sudah semestinya setiap hati yang berperikemanusiaan akan dilanda rasa kepiluan yang mendalam. Apa lagi apabila media memaparkan visual2 dan liputan2 yang secara terang-terangan menunjukkan penderitaan yang ditanggung oleh rakyat yang tidak berdosa. Semuanya dek kerakusan dan ketamakan tentera Israel yang langsung tidak mengenal erti perikemanusiaan. I mean, common la.. children's body parts were all over the place, man!!! How could anyone, in their right mind, ignore the cries and pled of the people upon seeing their own flesh and blood being bombed or shot right in front of their eyes? It makes you wonder.... Where is the love??

Once,TV3 ada memaparkan liputan khas mengenai mangsa2 Gaza dalam rancangan Majalah Tiga and I cried my eyes out just watching people suffering in hospital beds with a missing arm or leg and when they weep about the lost of loved ones. Kita yang hanya melihat ni pun tak tahan, bayangkan mereka yang actually went through the whole tragedy... Betul la orang tua2 kata, "berat mata ni memandang, berat lagi bahu memikul"

I think it's disgusting too that these israelis are stopping people who are concerned enough to give aid to the victims. Isn't it bad enough that they already launched suffering to the innocents? Why stop others who still care? Seriously.. Can they be any crueller?

Nevertheless, Tun, I personally think that niat Tun untuk kumpul dana beli kapal kecil ni is noble. Saya rasa if kita tak dapat give aid secara terus to the Gazans pun, then the least we could do is help those heroes who came forward to offer a helping hand to them. Let's all pray that the sufferings and pain of Palestine will one day come into end. Insya Allah.. May Allah bless them.

Assalamualaikum dear Dr. Mahathir and dear friends.

That news are for sure not reported in your media. Why should it be reported? It is not phosphorous carpet bombing. Why to report about the good habits of the IDF? It is much more effective to blame the IDF with brutality and monstrous actions. The problem of the Muslims is their total ignorance of good things of their enemy and are just focused on their agenda to find only the bad things. Soldiers won't eat in front of Palestinians

Efrat Weiss Published: 08.21.09, 00:39 / Israel News

Defense establishment to ease restrictions on West Bank population during month of Ramadan, which begins Saturday. Troops instructed to refrain from eating, drinking and smoking in public Defense Minister Ehud Barak and Israel Defense Forces Chief of Staff Gabi Ashkenazi have decided to ease a series of restrictions on the Palestinian population during the month of Muslim month Ramadan, which begins Saturday.

The soldiers were instructed to act respectfully towards the residents and refrain as much as possible from eating, drinking and smoking in public in front of the Palestinian population, particularly at crossings, during the fasting hours.

According to the IDF, the ease of restrictions is part of a policy aimed at improving the fabric of life of West Bank's population. During the month of Ramadan, the activity hours of crossings leading to the cities of Jenin and Ramallah will be extended until midnight every day. The rest of the checkpoints will operate as usual, for 24 hours a day.

In addition, Israeli Arabs will be allowed to enter Jenin through the Salem crossing, between 9-11 am, and leave on buses between 4-10 pm, every day of the week excluding Friday.

Israeli Arabs will also be allowed to enter Bethlehem through the Rachel crossing in order to visit their families. Palestinian families with relatives in Israel would be able to receive visit permits for a week.

Kids may carry gun-shaped toys

Men over the age of 50 and women over 45 will be allowed to enter the Temple Mount for Friday prayers. The Allenby Bridger terminal on the Israel-Jordan border will continue to operate between 8 am and midnight for the transfer of citizens and goods.

Civil Administration officials met with representatives of the Palestinian Waqf and were updated on the scheduled times of prayers and religious events. All forces operating in the area have been briefed by the Civil Administration on the holiday's customs, and introductory leaflets have been issued.

During the month of Ramadan Muslims mark the revelation of the Koran to Prophet Muhammad. Throughout the month, they fast from sunrise to sunset, and take part in traditional prayers.

The security forces have been updated that ahead of the end of Ramadan, and as part of preparations for the Eid al-Fitr festivities, Palestinian children may be carrying weapon-shaped toys and firecrackers.

Salam ayahanda Tun dan semua pembaca blog chedet.. setiap kali saya baca pasal isu palestin ni mesti saya rasa sedih dan tersentuh..

saya bersyukur sgt2 sebab dapat hidup dalam keadaan yang aman damai kat Malaysia ni(walaupun skang ni macam dah x berapa aman dengan situasi politik skang) but still thank to God because we don't faced what Palestinians have to face there..
it's been years since world war 2, Palestinians still fighting to go back to their homeland and take back what Israel has taken from them..
Those Israelis don't have hearts!! they're so cruel from what they've done to Palestinians..tak sedar ke yang Israel tu menceroboh..u r invader ok!! maybe you want to take revenge on what your forefathers have been facing because your race were chased out from Russia..
u think u r the most superb race in this world??
what makes u think like that??
u r not!! u r the most inhumane race in this world..
with all the genocide..that's so unacceptable..and never ever be..please stop it..
Walaupun kita tak mampu nak membantu saudara kita kat sana tapi kita masih boleh mendoakan mereka..semoga Israel mendapat balasan dari Allah..
One day God will give u what u deserve 2 get!..
Hope God always bless Palestine..please save them..
Amin~

Salam sejahtera, Tun Dr. Mahathir ...

Terlebih dahulu, saya amat tidak bersetuju dengan segala tindakan yang dilakukan oleh Israel terhadap Palestin. Puak Yahuni atau Israel memang tidak berperikemanusiaan sejak dulu-dulu lagi. Apakah tujuan dan matlamat sebenar Israel yang amat suka menindas dan melakukan keganasan terhadap Palestin? Mengapakah Israel sangat suka menjadi pengganas? Segala perbuatan kekejaman Israel terhadap Palestin seperti pembunuh atau pengganas gila yang tidak pernah berpuas hati dengan pembunuhan secara beramai-ramai. Mereka ini langsung tidak mempunyai kesedaran dan belas kasihan.

Mengapakah PBB tidak mengambil peranan untuk bercampur tangan ke atas krisis Palestin? Saya berasa Islam perlu bersatu dan kukuh supaya US dan Israel tidak mengambil kesempatan untuk mengancam kedaulatan Palestin dan semenanjung Tanah Arab. Negara-negara lain di Semenanjung Tanah Arab perlu saling membantu dan tidak berkepentingan diri untuk membantu Palestin menghadapi ancaman Israel. Begitu juga rakyat Malaysia, tidak kira umat Islam atau bukan Islam, harus dan patut mempunyai niat baik menderma wang untuk Palestin membina dan membangun semula.

Selamat sejahtera kepada Tun dan sahabat- sahabat, Apabila saya membaca berita tentang perkara GAZA, saya berasa susah hati dan simpati terhadap mangsa-mangsa GAZA dan juga rakyat palestine. Kenapa manusia dalam dunia ini tidak boleh berhidup bersama-sama secara aman dan harmoni?? Kita semua manusia yang berakal, walaupun ada perbezaan dari segi budaya, agama, warna kulit, bahasa dan sebagainya tetapi kita masih hidup dalam bumi yang sama. Sayangilah bumi kita, sayangilah negara kita, hormatilah negara orang lain, hormatilah nyawa sendiri dan nyawa orang lain.

Apa khabar , Semoga Tok det sentiasa sihat selalu

Saya ingin memberi sedikit gambaran mengenai Gaza .

Selama ini saya terlupa utk memberi sesuatu mengenai bumi di gaza itu . Tak silap saya org - org yahudi beranggapan bumi palestine itu adalah hak milik mereka kerana apa yg ditulis didalam kitab bible , termasuklah golongan kristian mereka juga beranggapan begitu . Sebagai seorang islam kita semua tahu bahawa kitab bible itu telah diubah perkataan didalamnya kerana golongan ahli kitab dahulu ingin mencari keuntungan , sehingga mereka beranggapan nabi ibrahim(Abraham) berasal dari keturunan mereka . Jadi Tok Det pun mesti faham kenapa Amerika tidak bertindak begitu keras menentang masalah di Gaza , sebab mereka semua dari agama yg sama .

Apapun sebagai seorang beragama islam kita mesti ada sifat tolong menolong , Semoga bantuan dari rakyat malaysia , sedikit sebanyak memberi kebaikan utk rakyat malaysia sendiri .

Assalamualaikum dan salam sejahtera kepada Tun dan sahabat2...

Kekejaman israel ni semakin lama semakin menjadi2.. Saya sangat tidak setuju atas rampasan tanah palestini apatah lagi dengan cara yang tidak berperikemanusiaan seperti ini.. Sepatutnya, dengan kebijaksanaan sedia ada, mereka tidak melakukan perkara2 seperti ini.. lebih teruk dari binatang.. Berkaitan dengan usaha yang Tun laksanakan bagi membantu rakyat palestini, saya sangat2 setuju dan berharap agar rakyat Malaysia juga bersetuju dengan cara ini.. Ini bukanlah isu keagamaan, tetapi isu hak asasi manusia, jd tidak kira samada kaum melayu, india, atau cina, sama2 kita menyokong usaha Tun ini.. askar2 Israel sentiasa akan menyekat akan segala bantuan yang diberi oleh dunia agar rakyat palestini sentiasa dalam keadaan terseksa.. bodoh israel.. kutipan dana bagi membeli bot untuk menghantar segala bantuan yang berbentuk makanan asas, ubat-ubatan, mainan, pakaian dan sebagainya ke Gaza amat diperlukan kerana segala bantuan yang telah didermakan masih tidak sampai di Tanah Gaza. Jadi, sebagai insan yang mempunyai nilai kemanusiaan, marilah kita sama2 menderma bagi membeli bot untuk menghantar bantuan tersebut kepada golongan yang sangat memerlukan itu..

Biar pun tak banyak sumbangan kita, yang penting ia lahir dari hati yang tulus ikhlas untuk membantu saudara kita yang menjadi mangsa kekejaman israel jahanam.. Pihak kerajaan, NGO dan kita semua perlu bersama2 membantu mereka, mungkin hari ini hari mereka, mana tahu hari lain hari kita pula perlukan bantuan.. bukan mengharap balasan, tetapi sekurang-kurangnya kita turut membantu...

Jika tidak mampu untuk menghulurkan helaian kertas merah, biru, atau hijau, memadai dengan BERDOA agar saudara kita dilindungi oleh Allah serta masih bersemangat untuk meneruskan hidup..

Ayahanda,

The Star Online reported....

Published: Thursday August 20, 2009 MYT 7:58:00 AM

Billionaire Buffet urges "US" to stop 'printing' money and halt debt rise

WASHINGTON: Now that the worst of the economic crisis is past and recovery is slowly under way, Congress must halt the mounting increase in U.S. debt to avoid damage to long-term growth and destruction of the dollar, Warren Buffett is urging.

The plainspoken billionaire weighed in with his view in an Op-Ed piece published in The New York Times Wednesday, saying that once recovery is solidified, lawmakers need to exercise "extraordinary political will" and slow the printing of money to finance the spike in debt.

That huge spending for financial bailout and economic stimulus was sorely needed to rescue the economy in its greatest peril since the 1930s, Buffett said, but now "unchecked emissions" of dollars "will certainly cause the purchasing power of currency to melt" the way runaway carbon emissions will likely melt icebergs.

With government spending now nearly double what it is taking in, "truly major changes in both taxes and outlays will be required," Buffett wrote.

"A revived economy can't come close to bridging that sort of gap."

Buffett, one of the world's wealthiest men, enjoys opining on issues of the day.

And as the "Oracle of Omaha" and head of a successful investment firm, his views carry weight in the public arena.

He has gained a sharper political profile in recent years and has spoken out, for example, on the obligation of the privileged to help the poor.

Buffett was a top economic adviser to Republican Arnold Schwarzenegger's first campaign for California governor and advised Democrat John Kerry's presidential campaign in 2004.

Last September at the height of the financial turmoil, Buffett's firm, Berkshire Hathway Inc., rushed in with a $5 billion in investment in Wall Street powerhouse Goldman Sachs Group Inc., a move viewed as a vote of confidence for a survivor of a crisis that felled two of its investment banking peers.

The economy "is now out of the emergency room and appears to be on a slow path to recovery," Buffett wrote in the Op-Ed.

"But enormous dosages of monetary medicine continue to be administered and, before long, we will need to deal with their side effects. For now, most of those effects are invisible and could indeed remain latent for a long time. Still, their threat may be as ominous as that posed by the financial crisis itself."

Because of the deficit, the amount of U.S. debt that is publicly held likely will rise to around 56 percent of Gross Domestic Product this fiscal year ending Oct. 1, from 41 percent last year, Buffett noted.

The three ways of financing the rising debt - borrowing from other countries, borrowing from Americans or printing money - all carry problems, he said.

"The United States is spewing a potentially damaging substance into our economy - //greenback emissions//," Buffett wrote. - AP

Comment:

The Star Online is trying to use Press Muzzle to force BNM and SC to pave ways for Investment banks. No, no, these investments must be regulated. Anyway, people do not trust investment banks especially those favour Buffet in Malaysia, Singapore, Taiwan and Hong Kong.

John Kerry's wife is the daughter of HEINZ founder. Jenama sos ABC in Indonesia is belong to Heinz, most of Malaysians tak tahu.

Salam Tun

Sebagai salah seorang rakyat Malaysia khususnya yg beragama Islam, sy merasakan amat tersentuh dan bersedih terhadap apa yg menimpa kepada rakyat Palestin. Walaubagaimanapun saya amat kesal dengan sikap sesetengah pemimpin dunia Arab sendiri yang masih mementingkan diri, enggan bersatu dan ego yang keterlaluan. Pergolakan antara Hamas dan Fatah juga menjadi satu isu yang dilihat sebagai tiada penghujungnya kerana masing-masing tidak mahu bekerjasama dan mempunyai haluan tersendiri sehingga yang menjadi mangsa adalah rakyat. Dimanakah konsep Islam yang mengajarkan erti bersaudara itu diletakkan pada diri pemimpin2 Asia Barat tersebut?

Kepada Tun, usaha yang dilakukan oleh Tun pada saya lebih membantu rakyat Palestin daripada sikap yang ditonjolkan oleh pemimpin2 dunia Arab. Moga Allah s.w.t memberkati usaha Tun dan memberikan kedamaian kepada penduduk Palestin khususnya.

Save Palestine..salam

salam perpaduan Tun...

Terlebih dahulu saya ingin ucapkan tahniah kerana usaha murni Tun. saya agak terkilan dengan tingkah laku kejam orang Yahudi. Kenapa mereka begitu bersifat tidak berperikemanusiaan? Orang Gaza pun manusia juga seperti mereka. Kenapa mereka sampai hati hendak menyakitkan insan lain seperti ini. Sekiranya ahli keluarga mereka adakah perbuatan yang sama akan dibuat?????

namun begitu, saya sangat menghormati inisiatif Tun dalam membantu warga Gaza. ia adalah satu tindakan yang harus diberi dorongan dan sokongan moral dan juga kewangan oleh setiap warganegara... so as a responsible citizen of Malaysia i would like to support Tun's suggestion n will try to give my part for it....Hopefully other's will give a hand for the thing.....

"hulurkan tangan ringankan beban" im really proud of u Tun.....

thank you Tun.....

Assalamualaikum tun..

Here I have some comment about this issue... firstly I want to say thank you for the comment from others. I feel so proud with the civilians who are dare to come in front and willing to help the victims of Israel. As a Malaysians, I am sure that I will not have the braveness as much as these people but what I can do is by giving moral support as a symbol of protest.

The idea to buy the boat is quiet interesting for me. Is it can bring successful of this mission? Another thing is what about the guaranty that the humanitarian aid will not block by the Israel army. Erm, this can become one issue if these volunteer want to give their assist. I really hope that United Nation can play their roll. Thanks you....peace no war...

salam Tun.. saya sangat bersetuju dengan apa yang di kemukakan dalam artikel ini. kekejaman rejim israel merupakan sesuatu yang tidak berperikemanusiaan. anak-anak kecil, kaum wanita, golongan tua yang tidak berdosa terkorban .adakah mereka melihat serangan yang tidak pernah berputus asa itu akan membuat mereka berjaya menakluki palestina..

semua itu hanya angan-angan yang tiada kesudahannya.. kerana sudah termaktub bahawa palestina akan menjadi milik orang islam... bersabar la wahai rakyat palestina..kemenangan di dunia ini akan menjadi milikmu dan moga kemenangan itu akan terus berkekalan dan membawa sampai ke syurga..

wahai rakyat malaysia .. jangan hanya tahu untuk berpuak-puak dan mementingkan diri sendiri..
bersyukur lah dengan apa yang kita miliki sekarang ini... bersatulah.. bersatu untuk mempertahankan negara kita ,bangsa kita agar ianya tetap utuh walaupun sebarang ancaman yang datang melanda di masa akan datang..

saudaraku...umat islam semua..bersatu la dan terus berdoa moga kita sentiasa di lindungi dan dipermudahkan Allah untuk memberi sebarang bantuan walaupun dengan secebis doa untuk rakyat palestina..
moga keamanan akan menjadi milik kita selamanya.....

assalamualaikum w.b.t...

buat pemimpin terbilang, memang tidak di nafikan israil sampai bila-bila pun tetap akan bersikap rakus dan ganas hingga sampai hari kiamat kelak..

Kita sering mendengar perkataan Zionis samada dalam akhbar, berita, majalah dan sebagainya.
tetapi adakah kita faham apakah yang dimaksudkan dengan Zionis?Adakah Zionis itu pertubuhan atau gerakan atau fahaman?Untuk kita menyingkap rahsia ini, marilah kita samasama mengkaji dahulu apakah Zionis .

Pengertiannya :Istilah Zionis terdiri daripada dua perkataan iaitu 'ZION' dan 'ISME'.Perkataan
'Zion' diambil daripada perkataan Ibrani (bahasa Yahudi) yang bermaksud 'batu'.batu yang dimaksudkan disini ialah ikatan batu bangunan istana atau 'Haikal' yang didirikan oleh Nabi Sulaiman dikota Al Quds.Manakala 'Isme' pula (bahasa Inggeris) yang bermaksud 'fahaman' atau
'ajaran'.Oleh sebab itu, gabungan daripada 'Zion' dan 'isme' membentuk satu ideologi yang dianuti oleh bangsa Yahudi di seluruh dunia. fahaman ini menyatakan bahawa bangsa Yahudi akan mendirikan sebuah kerajaan 'Israel Kubra' (Israel Raya) serta menjadikan kota Al Quds ini sebagai ibu kotanya.

By Siti Yohanis  on August 19, 2009 9:52 PM

Dalam Al Qur'an Allah sering mengancam kelakuan bangsa Yahudi yang sering bertindak melampaui batas.

“Dan kamu akan melihat kebanyakan dari mereka (orang-orang Yahudi) bersegera membuat dosa, permusuhan dan memakan yang haram. Sesungguhnya amat buruk apa yang mereka telah kerjakan itu.” [Al Maa-idah:62]

suatu saat nanti israel akan hancur..dan tinggal menunggu waktu, ketika bumi tih muak dengan israel!!Semua umat islam saudara seislam kita sedang kesusahan..Oleh itu, kita sebagai umat islam mesti prihatin kpd nasib umat yg lain..kita tidak patut beranggapan bahawa biar sahaja rakyat palestina berjuang utk ngr mereka!!tidak kah kita terfikir jika keadaan ini terjadi kepada kita dan tiada siapa yg membantu?????

Bagi mereka yang menganggap usaha ini sia2 merekalah yg sebenarnya bodoh..Tak usah lah asyik mengkritik usaha orang lain sedangkan kamu duduk dalam keadaan yg selesa tanpa berbuat apa-apa!!!!!!!!!!

Usaha Tun tidak sia2..Sekurang2nya dapat meringankan beban penderitaan yang dialami oleh Palestin..

Dr Rezuan Che Mat,

Jika usaha ini dapat menarik sumbangan orang ramai terutamanya umat islam,,bukankah ini secara tidak langsung menunjukkan umat islam bersatu dan mempunyai keprihatinan kepada sesama mereka????atau mungkin Dr shj yg tidak bersatu dan tidak mahu bersatu?????!!

Marilah kita membantu perjuangan rakyat Palestin dengan doa,daya, dan dana..sudah cukup mereka menderita,teraniaya oleh israel.

This naturally our compassion toward our fellowman but then this is just a temporary relieve. The commission for permanent solution are the United Nation Function is fully adhered to and this only can be materialising when it's receive full authority over every nations. Your launching pad Perdana Global Peace Organization should propel you to get support from the near than 190 members of the UN. The futures say that it is given the full authority at the end of the day. During your tenure as a PM I guess you have made many friends with top governments official in most country. Your influential figure will do much help to gain many support from many countries. The much talk of the global warming and ended up by many countries to take stern action on the environment is also done with sweat and tears works by prominent figure Mr. Al gore. Bagi saya org yahudi ni mmg licik. Dorng dh pun bjaye mengatasi kuasa barat. Kita mmg boleh hulurkan bantuan dr segi kewangan dan bantuan fizikal tp untuk mencapai keamanan, orang-orang palestini sendiri perlu bersatu demi negara mereka. Krismas tahun lepas, kite digempurkan dengan tindkn israel keatas Palestin yg membangkitkan kemarahan org islam di serata dunie..Yahudi2 ni semakin melampau..kita pula orang malaysia perlu ambil iktibar dari ape yg berlaku. kita semua beruntung dilahirkan dalam negara yang aman damai dan membangun. hargailah negara kita. jangan asyik timbulkan isu yang boleh memecahkan perpaduan.. klu tidak kite bakal trime nasib yang sama macam org2 Palestin...

salam perjuangan...

Sesungguhnya apa yang berlaku di Gaza adalah kemenangan sepertimana yang disebutkan dalam Quran. Jadi jalan pertama untuk kemenangan ialah keimanan, serta kemenangan untuk orang-orang beriman dan dengan bantuan orang-orang yang beriman. Meskipun musuh memiliki pertahanan dan persenjataan yang hebat.

Sesiapa yang tidak mengakui kemenangan ini, mereka adalah orang yang buta. Kerana usaha-usaha Israil untuk mencerooh Gaza sama sekali tidak dapat direalisasikan di dalam peperangan ini. Dan peperangan ini masih tidak dapat menghancurkan Hamas, dan Gaza tidak hancur. semuanya kerana, kerjasama, perpaduan dan kegigihan warga Palestin khususnya Gaza dalam perjuangan.

Dengan kegigihan dan kehebatan iman dalam jiwa rakyat palestine seharusnya kita jadikan sebagai sumber rujukan yang paling tepat dalam hidup apa itu perjuangan yang sebenarnya????

Hidup Palestin!!!! Sedarkan Rakyat Malaysia!!! bahawa perjuangan mu penuh dengan keikhlasan!!!!

Bukannya perjuangan yang tak pasti matlamatnya!!!!

Salam..

Isu kekejaman Israel terhadap Palestin ini sudah menjadi isu yang luas di perbincangkan di kalangan masyarakat kita sendiri. Namun, ia bukan sekadar melibatkan suara masyarakat Islam di negara kita malah saya sebagai masyarakat Malaysia yang bukan beragama islam juga mendapat tempasnya apabila Israel bertindak seperti binatang dengan melakukan kekejaman terhadap penduduk Palestin. Walaupun Israel merupakan negara yang kaya namun tidak bermakna mereka berkuasa dan boleh merampas hak orang lain dengan pelbagai cara sehingga melibatkan golongan yang tidak bersalah. Sukar dibayangkan jika negara kita berlaku perlakuan seperti di Palestin sekarang. Namun kita perlu bersyukur kerana Malaysia mampu mengekalkan keamanan ini dan kita tidak seharusnya bertindak berpeluk tubuh sahaja terhadap Palestin. Sememangnya bantuan yang di hulurkan dapat sedikit sebanyak membantu penduduk Palestin yang berada dalam kesusahan walaupun bantuan tersebut tidaklah seberapa, namun ia lebih baik daripada kita tidak melakukan apa-apa. Sebagai rakyat Malaysia, saya prihatin terhadap isu ini dan sedia memberi bantuan kepada mereka yang teraniaya seperti penduduk Palestin..

Israel is a rich country. Its exports arms and military advisors. It is a nuclear power many times over. It is still receiving billions of US Dollars in grants from the US Government.

Israel is the oppressor and the US Government its mother.

Salam Tun,

artofmin and fellow posters,

FYI Muhammad Asad's book, 'The Road to Mecca' is easily available from a local bookstore chain and other good bookshops. A bahasa Melayu translation is also available.

He wrote the book primarily for a Western audience as he was often asked, when he was attached to the UN, why he reverted to Islam. The result was a deeply thoughtful, well-written and very readable book. It is a powerful book that ought to be read by all who have an interest in the problems of the Middle East.

Apologies for the blurb.

Dear Tun, salam mesra harap sihat. Kiriman saya untuk tajuk ini....

.....HISTORY LESSON

Two races brought together by an occupying power.
One party believes in its majority might and historical claims.
It adamantly refuses recognition for the other.
Tried to reverse history, but found its own history in flames.

Once blood is spilled, the pen is for recording death tabulation
Outside parties enter the fray, proxy battles escalate the conflict.
Initial arrogance backfired into its homeland's near annihilation
In war winner takes all. Victor conquers every mountain and pit.

Invincibility of victor breeds arrogance, heartlessness and ruthlessness.
The victim is now the criminal. The persecuted is now the prosecutor.
If we let Utusan and Umnoputeran pursue their shallowness
Cry my beloved country risks falling into this same spectre.

I wish freedom and peace for the Palestinian people. Israel must realise it cannot hold down a 'nation' forever.

DR MAHATHIR MOHAMAD,
Salam Hormat da Salam Kasih,

GAZA, THE MIDDLE EAST AND THE MUSLIM
(go beyond your perspective stories for dr mahathir)

A poem, YABHG Tun:

Pity the Nation

Pity the nation that is full of beliefs and empty of religion.

Pity the nation that wears a cloth it does not weave, eats a bread it does not harvest, and drinks a wine that flows not from its own wine-press.

Pity the nation that acclaims the bull as hero, and that deems the glittering conqueror bountiful.

Pity the nation that despises a passion in its dream, yet submits in its awakening.

Pity the nation that raises not its voice when it walks in a funeral, boasts not except among its ruins, and will rebel not save when its neck is laid between the sword and the block.

Pity the nation whose statesman is a fox, whose philosopher is a juggler, and whose art is the art of patching and mimicking.

Pity the nation that welcomes its new ruler with trumpeting and farewells him with hootings, only to welcome another with trumpeting again.

Pity the nation whose sages are dumb with years and whose strong men are yet in the cradle.

Pity the nation divided into fragments, each fragment deeming itself a nation.

Khalil Gibran

The garden of the Prophet (1934)

The short stories and easy reading:

1. The world sees Muslims differently: Mahesh Bhatt

TNN 15 August 2009, 12:05pm IST

In the wake of Shah Rukh Khan being detained at a US airport for two hours because of his surname, filmmaker Mahesh Bhatt says he is Mahesh Bhatt concerned with the paranoia and Islamophobia that has crept in post 9/11.

The world is seeing Muslims differently, he says.

He asks, however, While the US has been very, very severe in scrutinizing people who land into its country, before we shout that this is not done, let us turn the light inwards this Independence Day and ask ourselves how we treat our own minorities. Whether it is Emraan Hashmi's flat issue or Shabana Azmi, have we been fair to our own minority community?

He states, The world is looking at Muslims differently and yes, we need to dismantle this mindset.

Actor Shah Rkh Khan was detained for over two hours at the Newark airport, New Jersey. He was questioned and released after Indian embassy officials vouched for him. He was in the US to attend Independence Day celebrations. The star, who is currently filming for My Name is Khan, underwent "humiliating" questioning even as he told authorities he was an Indian celebrity. His bodyguards were also grilled.

Several Bollywood celebs are in the US for I-Day celebrations, including Katrina Kaif, Kareena Kapoor and Saif Ali Khan.

2. The Great War for Civilisation: The Conquest of the Middle East

The Great War for Civilisation: The Conquest of the Middle East is a book published in 2005 by the award-winning English journalist Robert Fisk. The book is a compilation of many of the articles Fisk wrote when he was serving as a correspondent in the Middle East for The Times and The Independent. The book revolves around several key themes regarding the history of the modern Middle East: the Arab-Israeli conflict, the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan, the Persian Gulf War as well as the 2003 Iraq War as well as other regional conflicts such as the Armenian Genocide and the Algerian Civil War. The Great War for Civilisation is the second book Fisk has written about the Middle East with the first one, Pity the Nation, (Nation Books, 2002) being about the Lebanon Civil War.

Fisk's book details his travels to many of the hotspots of the Middle East, such as Iraq and Iran during the Iran–Iraq War, and his numerous interviews with both the country's leaders and its people. Along with these interviews, Fisk also provides much of the historical context to these conflicts.

In the book, Fisk criticizes the governments of the United States and the United Kingdom for what he perceives as their hypocritical and biased foreign policy towards the Middle East, especially in regard to the Arab-Israeli conflict and the 2003 Iraq War. He contends leaders of both countries deliberately misled the world about their motivations for invading Iraq in 2003.

The name of the book comes from a campaign medal Fisk's father was awarded for his services in the First World War...

Chapters 11-13. Fifty Thousand Miles from Palestine and the subsequent chapters The Last Colonial War and The Girl and the Child and Love are devoted to the Arab-Israeli conflict from the 1980s onward. The chapters deal with the deaths of civilians on both sides, suicide bombings and the Israeli government's military approach to the Palestinian issue. Much of these chapters also detail with media coverage of the conflict and the terms used by them to describe both sides, most notably the word "terrorist".

(there is a note -she was right - from my sister NAM: This a very useful book. I hope you will gain my insight into the Middle Eastern politics.)

3. War in a Time of Peace by David Halberstam

(Chapter 11; pg 107:

In the 1992 campaign Bill Clinton negotiated his way through the terrible detritus of his partially crippled party with singular dexterity. It was as if he...had long ago mastered the ability to defuse tensions in a warring and dysfunctional family - which most assuredly the Democrats were.)

How is the world exactly post 9/11, post SubPrima 07, Tun Dr Mahathir? What could the Father Of The Dinar Emas do?

Terima Kasih.

Assalammualaikum Tun...saya terbaca komen-komen dalam hal bantuan kepada Palestin. Kalau nak dikatakan kita ini negara yang kuat boleh menentang Yahudi, memang jauh sekali tapi kesedaran kita bahawa kita boleh membantu meringankan derita mereka adalah lebih baik dari berpeluk tubuh tidak berbuat apa-apa dan hanya memikirkan segala tindakan kita untuk menghantar bantuan melalui pembelian kapal tersebut hanya sia-sia...dan mereka yang berpendapat seperti ini memang salah...hidup kita begitu singkat untuk terus berpeluk tubuh dan berkeluh kesah melihat penderitaan Palestin, masa berjalan dengan pantas dan kita boleh mengisinya dengan pahala membantu orang dalam kesusahan, sikap putus asa tidak membantu dalam isu Palestin ini. Sedarlah, bukalah mata dan hati anda semua...kita membantu Palestin dan sanggup menghantar bantuan melalui pembelian kapal ini bukan kerana mereka seagama dengan kita, bukan juga kerana kita ini kaya tetapi kerana sifat belas kasihan yang ada dalam diri kita...tidak ada paksaan dalam menderma, tidak ada orang yang datang ke rumah anda minta anda hulurkan sumbangan...bila kamu tidak bersetuju dengan idea pembelian kapal ini, kamu cuba utarakan idea bernas kamu pula... jangan hanya berkata perbuatan ini sia-sia, tengok umat islam depan mata lah...buang duit rakyatlah kerana meminta derma bantuan.. ini adalah sifat yang perlu dibuang. Fikirkan pula bila negara kita dilanda masalah seperti Palestin, tidak mustahil kan...bagaimana pula bila negara luar memandang kita dan berfikir sama seperti orang-orang ini, bila kita berada dalam situasi Palestin..kita akan berasa sangat bersyukur kerana ada negara yang sudi membantu. saya sebagai ibu punya rasa belas pada anak-anak kecil yang tidak tahu apa-apa tetapi sudah berdepan dengan kezaliman yang tidak pasti ada penghujungnya. Perlu diingat, bukan hanya negara kita yang membantu Palestin tetapi negara-negara kafir pun sama...kita ini miskin berbanding negara barat tetapi dengan derma itulah kita ada cara membantu mereka, biarpun ada yang tidak bersetuju dengan idea kapal ini dan memikirkan pembaziran dan usaha yang sia-sia tapi pandanglah diri anda betapa sedihnya melihat anda yang hanya tahu mengata pembaziran, usaha yang sia-sia tetapi anda disana berpeluk tubuh dan memandang dari jauh sambil mengeleng-geleng kepala, berborak sana sini mengenai ketaksetujuan anda tapi sedarkah anda, masa yang terbuang itulah merupakan satu pembaziran bagi kita sebagai umat manusia yang hidupnya tidak tentu esok atau lusa maut datang menjemput...kita tidak seharusnya menunggu dan terus menunggu tetapi berbuat sesuatu dengan ikhlas dan tidak berputus asa. Anda hanya melihat duit yang dikeluarkan untuk menderma tetapi tidak memikirkan pahala yang diberikan Allah kepada kita... Andainya misi kapal tersebut tidak berjaya tetapi Allah tetap memberikan pahala kepada kita kerana berebut untuk mengerjakan kebaikan...Segala ketentuan sama ada kapal itu sampai atau tidak ke Palestin adalah ketentuan Allah dan kita hanya mampu berusaha sebaik mungkin...tidak ada perkara kebaikan yang kita buat di pandang sia-sia oleh Allah tetapi perbuatan asyik menunggu dan melengahkan bantuan yang boleh diberi adalah satu pembaziran masa... sebagai rakyat tidak ada salahnya kita menderma mengikut kemampuan kita dan tidak asyik merungut ambil duit rakyatlah, beban rakyatlah...kalau tidak ada kerajaan dan malaysia hari ini, anda tidak akan berada dalam keadaan relax seperti ini, cukai yang kamu bayar itulah yang menjamin kestabilan negara dan siapa yang menjalankannya dengan teratur...kerajaan kan...kalau nak harapkan individu seperti kamu mentadbir negara, dari cara kamu berfikir, alamatnya tergadailah negara kita ni...ambil duit rakyat??...saya nak tanya, banyak sangat ke duit kamu diambil sebagai individu? saya sebagai individu yang miskin ni pun tidak berasa kerajaan membebankan rakyat, kaya atau miskin cukainya adalah mengikut kemampuan...tidak seharusnya kita membebankan kerajaan dengan permintaan yang berbagai-bagai tetapi bila kerajaan perlukan bantuan untuk tambahkan itu ini, rakyat mula bersungut kerajaan ambil duit rakyatlah...padahal yang naik cuma RM0.03 sen atau RM0.30 sen pun merungut tapi nakkkan kemudahan itu ini, ingat duit kerajaan ni banyak sangat ke? bila ada permintaan macam-macam dari rakyat, perlu ada keseimbangannya ada keluar ada masuk...bukan hanya tau meminta dan merungut...dalam hal derma ni pun bukannya ada yang paksa, sapa nak derma alhamdulillah...sapa yang kata ia tidak berbaloi...duduk depan TV dan berusaha dengan duduk dan tido sampai masa yang sesuai untuk anda membantu tiba dan...sapa yang kata derma ni ambil duit rakyat, apa kata kalau kamu pindah je ke negara yang tak ambil duit rakyat...ada ker???kalau ada beruntung sangatlah anda...kepada rakyat malaysia, bantulah selagi anda mampu, berusaha selagi ada harapan dan pastinya ingatlah...tidak akan ada suatu hal walau sekecil mana pun akan terlepas dari pandangan Allah S.W.T...saya membantu untuk diri saya kerana hidup ini begitu singkat untuk berpeluk tubuh... Sokong Tun dengan sepenuh jiwa dan seikhlas hati...amin.

Salam Tun & fellow bloggers,

To Hanan & others please read this article:

<http://www.haaretz.com/hasen/pages/ShArt.jhtml?itemNo=95213>

Some outline of the article:

Born in 1900 to a Jewish family in Lvov, Leopold Weiss died years ago as Muhammad Assad, a pious Muslim who helped create the country of Pakistan. While meeting the founding fathers of Zionism in Palestine in the 1920s, he dared to voice criticism of the movement's dismissal of the Arab presence in the land - a phenomenon that still haunts the region today. The riveting story of a Jew who changed his name, his faith, his wives, his nationality - and the face of the Islamic world.

Meeting with Dr. Chaim Weizmann...

The impression Weizmann left on Leopold Weiss was distinctly different. "I met [Dr. Weizmann] in the house of a Jewish friend," he recalls in "The Road to Mecca." "One could not but be impressed by the boundless energy of this man - an energy that manifested itself even in his bodily movements, in the long, springy stride with which he paced up and down the room - and by the power of intellect, revealed in the broad forehead and the penetrating glance of eyes.

"He was talking of the financial difficulties that were besetting the dream of a Jewish national home, and the insufficient response to the dream of the people abroad, and I had a disturbing impression that even he, like most of the other Zionists, was inclined to transfer the moral responsibility for all that was happening in Palestine to the 'outside world.' This impelled [me] to break through the deferential hush with which all the other people present were listening to him and ask: 'And what about the Arabs?'

"I must have committed a faux pas by thus bringing such a jarring note into the conversation, for Dr. Weizmann turned his face slowly toward me, put down the copy he had been holding in his hand, and repeated my question: 'What about the Arabs ...?'

"Well, how can you ever hope to make Palestine your homeland in the face of the vehement opposition of the Arabs who, after all, are in the majority in this country?"

"The Zionist leader shrugged his shoulders and answered dryly: 'We expect they won't be in a majority after a few years.'

"Perhaps so ... but does not the moral aspect of the question ever bother you? Don't you think it is wrong on your part to displace the people who have always lived in the country?"

"But it is our country,' replied Dr. Weizmann, raising his eyebrows. 'We are doing no more than taking back what we have been wrongly deprived of.'"

Weiss tried to engage Weizmann in a debate, adducing various historical arguments and explaining to the Zionist leader that, even according to the Bible, the Land of Israel was inhabited, before the arrival of the Hebrews, by Amorites, Edomites, Philistines, Moabites, Hittites and others, who were obviously the forefathers of the Arabs now living in Palestine.

"Weizmann," Weiss summed up, "smiled politely at my outburst and turned the conversation to other topics."

Dear Hanan you are a very proud person mark my word one day the Jews nations that you are so proud of will come down on its feet and beg for mercy. Maybe you can occupied the palestine then what jordan, syria, Saudi Arabia and all the neighbouring muslims countries? Do you think America will remain siding Israel, the world is changing my friend, The American are slowly getting out of their gullibility, All the while the israel is getting the Americans into so much trouble with the muslims countries around the world because of the lies and fear fed by the israel. Look at Apartheid south africa! If i were you its time to be friend with the muslim world. Israel is such a small country and remember, You are not America!

You are just like a Battery, no matter how much power you think the Battery have it will slowly run out sooner or later, my friend no matter how many nuclear missile you have it will explode itself on you. The word is retributions from God.

How long can you live with such bitterness, such guilt of killing innocent lives, destroying of homes and genocide, what kind of people are you, I have pity and empathy when reading of Germans killing Jews like what the Jews are doing to the Palestine now, who actually was living in peace before the British took their land and gave it to you. Is it wrong then for us Muslims to say that, maybe the German should wipe you out totally, not only German but Russian too. When did the Muslim ever treat you like animals my friend lots of Jews been staying in Muslim countries they are well protected and free to worship and do business.

Hanan maybe you should by the Boat and help the Palestines Babies, no need to bomb Israel they will be no end to it. You start with a little kindness and see what happen!

Dr M did said that "You always thinking you are right even if the whole world says you are wrong". This is Hanan nature, an egoistic Jews who let himself being deaf to surrounding world even to his Judaism teaching. These are the Jews that Zionist wanted, a deaf Jews.

Maybe you should free your mind when read this blog <http://www.jewsagainstzionism.com/> or it may help you to know more about your own religion teaching.

As'kum Ayahanda Tun,

Apa yang saya kecewakan adalah kenapa sehingga sekarang rakyat Palestin sendiri terutamanya di dalam Hamas & Fatah tidak mahu berbaik - baik ataupun bersedia berdamai demi rakyat mereka sendiri. Saya merasa tertipu terhadap Perjanjian Kaabah yang mereka sendiri lakukan di Mekah beberapa tahun sebelum ini. Ianya seperti menghina kesucian Baitullah itu sendiri. Kalaulah Tun dapat bertemu dengan Duta Palestin ke Malaysia, cakapkan mengenai perkara ini. Kami diluar ini kasihan melihat kesusahan & keperitan rakyat Palestin tetapi apakah mereka sendiri tidak nampak akan perkara itu? Rasanya macam sia-sia sahaja sumbangan yang diberikan untuk membantu mereka. Sedangkan mereka nampaknya tidak berusaha kearah itu.

Ayahanda Tun, semoga jangan dihentikan usaha murni ini....

Wasalam.

Salam Tun,

Sorry for barging in rarunasalam, but I don't understand your logic or the logic of those who like you: will contribute to the 'noble cause' (as you put it) and at the same time disparage the organisers. Do you really, really understand why we're supporting this movement? You don't have to support this 'noble cause' if you don't understand the reason why.

Now, how can I put in a very simple way so that even you can understand the issue?

OK...let's try this. Imagine yourself as one of the folk in Kpg Buah Pala. You get evicted from land you've been staying for generations and bulldozers come to demolish your house. Do you keep quiet or do you fight back? The folk in Kpg Buah Pala fought back. Things got a bit ugly between the villagers and the developers but at least they're able to sit down, talk compensation and gain extra time to pack and sort their affairs out. It has inconvenienced everyone but nobody really got hurt. Everyone gains and loses something in the process but it all pans out.

In Palestine, they had and have no such thing. They get eviction orders and their houses get demolished on the spot. Bulldozers just come in and tear their houses down, sometimes with the occupants still in them. In Al-Quds (Jerusalem) Israeli illegal settlers take over Palestinian homes and the rightful owners are literally left to fend for themselves on the streets. And let's not talk about the apartheid system in Israel and the violence and daily humiliations Palestinians in the occupied territories are subject to.

You're very quick to label others racists and anti-semites although you don't seem to be really clued up on the topic. Advocating peace hasn't worked, so now maybe it's time to criminalise war. That way those who start wars can be punished just like what they're doing for those who commit genocide. The OIC wasn't directly involved in the peace process. The last 'accord' was the 'Road Map' for peace in the Middle East that was drawn up by the United States, Russia, the European Union, and the United Nations (referred to as the 'Quartet').

On the other hand, it's possible that you've been drinking something when you wrote your comment. That could explain the muddled logic on your part.

I'd advise you to go easy on whatever stuff you've been drinking...LOL!

KUALA LUMPUR 13 Ogos - "Apa bezanya DAP dengan Salman Rushdie dan pelukis karikatur Nabi Muhammad S.A.W sehingga ahli parti tersebut dibenarkan menghina agama Islam?"

Demikian soal bekas Naib Presiden UMNO, Tan Sri Mohd. Isa Abdul Samad yang berang dengan sikap 'semua boleh' Mursyidul Am Pas, Datuk Nik Abdul Aziz Nik Mat termasuk dalam aspek menghina kesucian Islam oleh penganut agama lain.

Katanya,, kenyataan Menteri Besar Kelantan itu yang tidak mahu membantah tindak-tanduk pemimpin DAP dengan alasan parti tersebut bukan Islam dan kefahaman mereka terhadap agama suci itu tidak mendalam adalah alasan yang terlalu rapuh.

"Apa istimewanya DAP di mata Pas dan Nik Abdul Aziz sedangkan Salman diburu dan nyawanya difatwakan halal dibunuh kerana menghina al-Quran.

"Karikatur Nabi Muhammad pula menyebabkan seluruh umat Islam bangkit menentang termasuk ahli Pas. Mereka juga bukan Islam dan tidak mempunyai pemahaman yang mendalam tentang Islam," tegasnya ketika dihubungi Utusan Malaysia di sini hari ini.

Ketua Pergerakan Wanita UMNO Datuk Seri Shahrizat Abdul Jalil pula kecewa dengan kenyataan Nik Abdul Aziz yang membiarkan segelintir pemimpin DAP menghina Islam dan menyifatkan kenyataan itu sebagai meragukan.

"Saya terkejut membaca kenyataan Nik Abdul Aziz bahawa orang bukan Islam boleh menghina Islam apatah lagi kenyataan itu dibuat oleh seorang pemimpin parti yang berlabelkan Islam dan mendakwa memperjuangkan Islam.

"Setahu saya orang Islam tidak boleh menghina orang bukan Islam dan orang bukan Islam tidak boleh menghina Islam," katanya dalam kenyataan di sini hari ini.

Shahrizat, yang juga Menteri Pembangunan Wanita, Keluarga dan Masyarakat berkata, setidak-tidaknya Nik Abdul Aziz perlu menegur pemimpin DAP jika beliau benar-benar mahu menjaga kesucian Islam.

Menteri di Jabatan Perdana Menteri, Datuk Jamil Khir Baharom menegaskan, semua pihak harus sedar bahawa perbuatan seperti itu bukan setakat menghina individu tertentu, tetapi ia sebenarnya menghina Allah.

"Dalam konteks hubungan antara agama, kita tidak dibenarkan membuat penghinaan. Oleh itu, jika berlaku penghinaan terhadap Islam, kita wajib mempertahankannya kerana yang dihina itu bukan setakat individu tertentu, tetapi adalah Allah,"

Sementara itu di Melaka, Ahli Majlis Tertinggi UMNO, Datuk Noh Omar berkata, Pas sebagai parti yang memperjuangkan syiar Islam di negara ini sepatutnya lebih ke hadapan dalam memerangi pihak yang menghina Islam.

"Kenyataan Nik Abdul Aziz itu seolah-olah menunjukkan beliau mahu menggadai agama Islam demi kepentingan mereka termasuk mengatakan orang bukan Islam boleh menghina Islam," katanya.

Beliau berkata demikian kepada pemberita selepas majlis penyerahan jentera membajak dan menuai kepada pesawah di Kampung Parit Penghulu Benteng di sini hari ini.

Selain itu, katanya lagi, Mursyidul Am Pas tersebut sepatutnya memahami perbuatan DAP yang jelas menghina agama Islam sekali gus bertentangan dengan hak kebebasan beragama di negara ini.

"Dalam hak kebebasan beragama, kita dilarang untuk mengatakan perkara yang tidak baik dan tidak sesuai tentang agama lain.

"Saya hairan bagaimana Nik Abdul Aziz boleh membuat kenyataan itu, malah beliau juga pernah menyatakan sejak Pas dan DAP berkawan, DAP boleh membawa al-Quran dan untuk itu, mereka sudah memahami Islam," katanya.

Dengan Izin Tun..Terima kasih..

Hanan..

[[Let me greet you with Assalamualaikum (you may not greet me back, as usual)]]

I want to..but a Decree is a Decree..So..Walaikum.

[[As you are dog fighter pilot as you claimed in one of your previous comments some time ago and you warned me that you were trained to fly and bomb Tel Aviv, you should be the first pilot to volunteer. Maybe you'll lead the squadron since you are trained to reach Tel Aviv and Gaza is about 100Km south to Tel Aviv. You still can use the GPS and the automatic pilot function if you forgot the navigation path.]]

Ha..Ha..Ha..I got you there Hanan....:)..I never was a dog of war and never were trained as such..It is what I aspired to be..:By the way..I know what to be done in those navigation..

[[As a known chess player, your tactical plans are so wise so I don't think a prayer is even necessary, but it is a good idea to pray. Allah will just watch the reality of your plan and applause you.]]

Got you again..Captured your rook there!..I said 4 methodology and mentioned 2...It is a gambit and you took it line,hook and sinker..I open up the bait and luckily you swallowed it..Who would be such a fool to contemplate a plan by describing them to his opponent,foe and enemy?..My other 2 is coup de grace..It is feasible..

[[Do you know how many skilled pilots with the most sophisticated prime class fighters were shot down by the IAF (Israeli Air Force)?]]

I give you just one hints..Fighter pilots who yearns to go home the moment he stepped in the cockpit are the one less likely to go home..We don't suffers such trepidation..

[[Even brilliant Russian pilots? Maybe I'm wrong, and you are a better pilot, maybe the best. Just to have a dry run skilling dog fight you may try first the Singaporean Air Force who are trained by the IAF.]]

Again.I got you here Hanan..Don't you remember war is an Art of Attrition?SAF personnel don't quite got what IAF trains them to be.Would you be sincere with yourself and ask the statistic from IAF about their failure of matching standard required and so on?..I know for sure Hanan and not second guessing here..And to remind you..the one who fly those fighter jets are the assets and not the mechanism?

Have you seen them on parade says like 3 hours?..How many will stand still on terra firma?..And yet you talks about superiority...Sheesh Hanan...And do you know what airmen call you...the Calvary and Infantry men...?....He...He..

[[If you pass them in the dry run, you may have some chance to make your plan. Oh, I forgot, you are planning to use cargo airplanes, not dog fighter planes. Then it is increasing your chances to reach Gaza without being shot down by the IAF. The cargo airplanes are very much maneuverable compared to the dog fighter airplanes. Sorry making that mistake since I don't really understand in airplanes very much. The "Red Baron" was not my trainer and teacher about airplanes.]]

So I gives you an example.."Red Baron" is the past.Me and buddies are here..The future..

[[But anyway I would like you to improve your plan by reading that information first: <http://www.wingsoverkansas.com/features/article.asp?id=650> and looking after some more information on the web. You should learn the enemy first, then challenge the enemy. I think that the Syrian pilots of 1982 were well trained by the Russians as same as the Malaysian pilots. Assuming you have the same average skills, you may forecast the destiny of your plan. I think you need to pray well or ask the IAF to let you reach Gaza voluntarily.]]

Hanan..The Brinkmanship is about shows some spine.This is what we tries to do..times after times..

In this case my chess move is "MATE" without asking "CHESS". BTW, I'm not playing chess for more than 45 years and almost forgot it (shame on me).

[[It is not my arrogance my dear friend wajaperak, it is your ignorance of reality. I do care that you and your squadron pilots will remain alive since I need you in this blog and as a friend. This is not the way to make things wisely like a chess player. Remember well: "Friends prior Peace" and free Gilad Shalit before supplying Gazans with airplanes.]]

But your are not the prime mover of the Sheperd Boy...;)Hence you don't have much clout over the 'Presidential Men'..Me as the pawns march forwards to be exchange for Queen or dies trying...

[[Dr. Mahathir said once in the last OIC conference as PM of Malaysia: "use your brains".]]

I am.That's why I mentioned Hassan Nasrallah and Hezbollah :)

Saya berdoa agar Allah panjangkan umur Tun dan dikurniakan kesihatan yang baik untuk Tun sekeluarga dan umat Islam keseluruhannya...

Tun...melihatkan senario dunia hari ini...melalui petunjuk dari Al-quran dan hadis...dapat kita simpulkan bahawa dunia dikuasai oleh kejahatan...dan kejahatan ini dikawal oleh tangan-tangan ghaib (Dajjal & Co.)...<http://vigilantcitizen.com/?p=1229>...<http://www.newamericancentury.org/> yang mengawal manusia untuk memperhambakan diri kepada mereka...pada pandangan saya yang tidak seberapa, masalah ini perlu ditangani di puncanya... pembelian kapal adalah penyelesaian jangka pendek...kalau kapal tersebut dibom atau dirampas, bagaimana?

KESEDARAN ADALAH KUNCINYA...apa yang Tun lakukan ini adalah tepat...penubuhan Foudation to Criminalize War mungkin jawapannya buat sementara waktu...kita perlu lawan mereka dengan hujjah sebagai langkah pertama...menyedarkan UMAT MANUSIA mengenai bahaya golongan seperti mereka dan kerosakan yang mereka lakukan...oleh itu Tun perlukan rakan-rakan untuk membantu...apa kata Tun hubungi orang-orang yang mungkin boleh membantu...contohnya:

-Pertubuhan2 Islam disetiap negara

<http://www.cair.com/>

<http://www.ukim.org/>

-Jaringan gerakan Tabligh

gerakan tabligh ada jaringan yang luas hampir disetiap negara...walaupun saya bukan orang tabligh tapi bercampur gaul dengan mereka...mereka juga ada menceritakan masalah2 yang dihadapi oleh muslim dinegara lain yang perlukan pertolongan

-NGO di Malaysia

-Kumpulan anti perang

google "anti war groups"

kumpulan Cindy Sheehan

-Kumpulan kajian konspirasi

tang ada yang tipu dan ada yang betul...kena pandai pilih

Mungkin mereka boleh tolong menyampaikan hasrat Tun...saya sendiri akan cuba tolong semampu saya...Wasalam Tun

Dear Hanan, yes i couldnt agree more on your Israeli forces super elite expertise, especially with the technique of hiding behind a child, sniping a baby from far away, and of course the famous bombing of very dangerous war factories like those in Shabra and Shatilla. Which military power would have even think as far as that kind of techniques? Brilliant Israelis. I truly admire you guys. You are my man!

But, I think you must have been worried too much of what wajaperak said, didnt you? Don't worry...IAF is so good that no one can attack Israel, not a single rocket can pass your airspace. Why should you worry so much then? There wont be any harm done by wajaperak just stating the possible suicidal mission like that. It cant be done. Just dont worry. Israel is very powerful and strong!

Hmm...I think you should go around places now in your beloved country rather than stuck in front of your computer replying to comments that is not up to your standard. Your military power is so strong, what are you doing now reading this boring comments? Go around Israel without worry then. Go cross Gaza and Lebanon. No worries. Israel people cant be touched. Israel is so strong and elite.

Or does it make you shit in your pants just thinking bout doing so?hehe. Go go go Israel!hahaha

ASSALAMUALAIKUM TUN,

Hanan is telling us that Dr. Mahathir is telling half the truth and we are supposed to believe an Israeli Jew is telling the whole truth!!!

Toddlers and underaged children in Israeli prison cannot be further from the truth.

Remember the (in)famous picture of a father and his little son cornered by Israeli soldiers, neither father nor the little boy were armed, father begged for the soldiers to spare his son's life but Israeli soldiers shot the little boy and the father.

Assalamualikum Ayahanda Tun & Keluarga, semoga sihat sejahtera hendaknya. Amin

>>> Dear Hanan (or is it nanaH?),

I'd like to share this article with you that was written by your fellow Christian Jew in order for you to understand better about your own species, Zionist Jews. No matter how hard you tried to convince us about your doings to Palestinian was 'legitimate, and 'proper' I opt to think otherwise. In my personal opinion only Jews of Torah followers able to fight with Zionist Jews of Talmud followers (and you included). Please read the following article and you may call this Jew 'the enemy within!'.

How The Jews Think

HAVING GROWN UP AS A JEW and having gone to an upper middle class synagogue throughout my childhood up through my young adult years, I am uniquely qualified to do an expose on the inner workings of the Jewish mind. Now that I am an Orthodox Christian, having converted in 1971 to Christianity, I can see very clearly how the Jew thinks:

1. The Jew is a perpetual outsider. The Jew is a ceaseless “observer” and consequent “actor” & “reactor” upon the world’s stage. The Jew seeks to impose his will upon the Gentile whom he looks down upon as being inferior in intelligence and activism to him.
2. The Jew is always on a “mission.” The Jew always has a “cause” he must fight for. The mission and the cause of the Jew is hostile to the mission and cause of Jesus Christ and Christianity.
3. The Jew wishes to remain aloof and separate from the nations. That is why Winston Churchill initially used the term, “The International Jew.”
4. The Jew holds himself separate from the nations, not primarily for ideological reasons as prescribed in the Old Testament. Rather, the Jew remains aloof from all others because he sees himself as belonging to an elite.
5. The Jew may proclaim and propagandize through his monopoly of the Media the slogan, “Diversity Is Our Strength!” Yet the Jew will never live in a neighborhood where poor Blacks, Asians, and Hispanics live. Why not? Because the Jew despises working class folk as being culturally inferior to him and socially impotent.
6. The Jew at heart despises the ideal of the “Brotherhood of Man.” For it is only through acceptance of Jesus Christ, the Christian Church, and the Christian Universal vision of the “new man in Christ” that the Brotherhood of Man can be realized.
7. The Jew wants nothing to do with Jesus Christ, the Church, and the Christian Universal vision of the new man in Christ. Why not? First because Jesus Christ calls all men to repent which the Jew finds repulsive; Second because the Church with its eyes set on the kingdom to come is disagreeable to the Jew who seeks a kingdom of this world; Third because the new man in Christ whereby all elitist distinctions are dissolved, is an identity the Jew finds repugnant to his love of ‘separateness’ and control over others.
8. The Jew, through his monopoly of the Media, the Judicial System, and Academia, wars against Christianity. Why? Because Christianity indicts the Jew as being unrepentant. This puts the Jew in a position of weakness and beholden to the dictates of the Christian. The Jew considers this the greatest of all calamities.

9. The Jew falsely believes that he is part of the “chosen people.” Thus the Jew deems that he has the “divine right” to have his “rights” implemented and secured. In fact, the Jew with his yiddishee chutzpah demands this. What are the Jew’s rights as he perceives them? First and primarily, that the world around him should conform to his point of view and to his point of view only.

10. The Jew will ignobly hold on to his identity unto death. To die for the truth rather for one’s racial identity is a valid martyrdom. But “truth” for the Jew is not in the realm of absolutes. “Truth” for the Jew is to assert and impose his will upon others. And what is the Jew’s will? That Jesus Christ is not be loved, believed in, and worshipped.

Well Hanan i have one question for you; Do you have a religion? If you do, what religion is that?

Thank You.

To help the palestine?

1st and foremost the palestine themself must have unity, the christian, and the Muslims in palestine themself, then the muslims throughout the world. Now this is next to imposible because the muslim have been like any other religions have been devided amoungst themself since the introductions of the so many gospels n litreatures introduced by the so call ulamaks who want to be popular and holy like the prophet, in which they have been sucessful. This is the main cause of the disunity amoungst the Muslim world. idividually we bvelive in the holy koran but by countries,leaders n Kings we are not because to conquer we must devide, to stay rich we must devide, to have power we must devide, to be the best we must devide, we devide so much in the end you stand alone like a pop singer. If one can see what i meant here, the palistine n the muslims world can be strong again if they read and under stand the Koran and practice it, you dont have to be a terrorist to be strong. Why read and understand the koran? because if one does understand one would not say, your god is your god your religion is your religion when one talk to God! And God would not say in the Koran only a handful of you will go to Heaven!

Can you imagine if the whole muslim world, king and slaves of all nations unite under the teaching of the Holy book no shiaah no suni no wahabi and what ever, Back to the time when europe was under muslims rule, i dont ask for another occupations of countries, for every where you see muslims, that is already an ocupations through knowledge and practices that they bring with them.

Am sorry if iam wrong here but it just a dream !

Dear freind wajaperak, let me greet you with Assalamualaikum (you may not greet me back, as usual).

Let me comment a friendly comment just on that:

"I.Fly in and drop the supplies.In the whole wide world there is enough daredevil pilots.Some are trained as Foreign Legionnaire.Some are mecenaries.Some are reluctant.Some needs persuasion to accomplish this tasks.It is all feasible.Find those pilots..Find those proper planes..Find the proper planner and executioner..This have been done many times all over the world which penetrates Israel like defences..It can be done again..It will be done provided if we are true and sincere enough to make this a success.Boats cannot get through Israel defences..Planes have more chances to succeed.Proper coordinate,height,landing zone,winds velocity,drag,traction,pilots expertise,sheer dertemination and wish upon prayer..How could we fail???"

As you are dog fighter pilot as you claimed in one of your previous comments some time ago and you warned me that you were trained to fly and bomb Tel Aviv, you should be the first pilot to volunteer. Maybe you'll lead the squadron since you are trained to reach Tel Aviv and Gaza is about 100Km south to Tel Aviv. You still can use the GPS and the automatic pilot function if you forgot the navigation path. As a known chess player, your tactical plans are so wise so I don't think a prayer is even necessary, but it is a good idea to pray. Allah will just watch the reality of your plan and applause you.

Do you know how many skilled pilots with the most sophisticated prime class fighters were shot down by the IAF (Israeli Air Force)? Even brilliant Russian pilots? Maybe I'm wrong, and you are a better pilot, maybe the best. Just to have a dry run skilling dog fight you may try first the Singaporean Air Force who are trained by the IAF. If you pass them in the dry run, you may have some chance to make your plan. Oh, I forgot, you are planning to use cargo airplanes, not dog fighter planes. Then it is increasing your chances to reach Gaza without being shot down by the IAF. The cargo airplanes are very much maneuverable compared to the dog fighter airplanes. Sorry making that mistake since I don't really understand in airplanes very much. The "Red Baron" was not my trainer and teacher about airplanes.

But anyway I would like you to improve your plan by reading that information first: <http://www.wingsoverkansas.com/features/article.asp?id=650> and looking after some more information on the web. You should learn the enemy first, then challenge the enemy. I think that the Syrian pilots of 1982 were well trained by the Russians as same as the Malaysian pilots. Assuming you have the same average skills, you may forecast the destiny of your plan. I think you need to pray well or ask the IAF to let you reach Gaza voluntarily.

In this case my chess move is "MATE" without asking "CHESS". BTW, I'm not playing chess for more than 45 years and almost forgot it (shame on me).

It is not my arrogance my dear friend wajaperak, it is your ignorance of reality. I do care that you and your squadron pilots will remain alive since I need you in this blog and as a friend.

This is not the way to make things wisely like a chess player. Remember well: "Friends prior Peace" and free Gilad Shalit before supplying Gazans with airplanes.

Dr. Mahathir said once in the last OIC conference as PM of Malaysia: "use your brains".

Dear Dr. Mahathir, you are absolutely right. The luck of Malaysians is that they have you to teach them and me.

BTW, just yesterday I realized what is the meaning of Che Det from a book of your biography. Very interesting. I'm continuing learning my friends. I think I'm the only one who is reading that book in Israel. I must thank the Somalian pirates letting the ship to sail with the book to me since I think it was captured there for several months, hahaha.

Wassalam.

a;kum Tun,

I would like to say something regarding Hanan's comment on your post this time.

Hello Hannan,

Im sure you know all the stories about what;s going on there in Israel and Palestine state.

But one thing I dont like about the way you comment about the post is that everything is said by Mahathir was not right. As if the Zionist can do whatever they like and they are always right. In this world you are bound to certain rules and if you think your country has the best rules, I doubt it because they just do whatever they like the way they like. that is not rules. that is more like pressing on poor people.

you ask anyone in this world, they will tell you whatever you Zionist are doing are wrong. And whatever the Hamas are doing also wrong. But for you to go and block the innocent and volunteer people from giving help is totally wrong and is unacceptable. if you think with your normal brain, also you will get the message straight away. but so sad because your heart is covered with God knows what...thats why u cant see the importance of the help needed to support the poor palestinians.

I have got nothing against the Israelis but I have everything against the Zionist army. they are the one responsible for killings of the innocent Muslims in Palestine. Also I got nothing against the Arabs living in the Palestine but i have everything against the Hamas leader who think that by attacking the Israel soil will solve the problem.

I cant deny that you Zionist have the best equipment for war but that does not give you the right of killing anyone and everyone u like. we are living in 20th century now and don't you want this world be a better place than just war, war and war. Come on man....after all you are just human and im sure you have some soft spot in your heart thinking about the poor palestinians suffering from the bombing and everything else.

i hope you stop denying the fact that the Israelis army are the one responsible to most of the killings. and i blame the muslim and the arab leaders as well. they are trying to work things out...they are just talking and talking and talking but not action taken.

maybe you should think for a min or so about what you have written and try to understand the point that Mahathir is trying to tell the world. the Jews are good people just like the Muslims, Christians or any other religions but minority of them are bad. the zionist are bad...they are the who will suffer in the day of judgement and God will punish them greatly the same way God will punish those people who kill other innocent people.

thank you!

Salam Bahagia Tun. You have all my support for the Muslim brothers in Gaza.

To Mr Hanan, thanks for the elaborate reply. But we all learned history here. Do your bit and make this world a better place. Muslims were protecting Jews during the Holocaust, please elaborate on that and relate it to the Gaza's story now. You are very intelligent, and I hope you can put it to the right place.

Why don't we ask TV3, Utusan Malaysia, Berita Harian, NST, Astro etc to make coverage and report what is happening in Gaza? and from there campaign for donation with follow up reports that the supplies reached the Palestinians.

Dearest Tun,

You have been fighting hard for the Palestinian Cause. I hope more Muslim irrespective of their political beliefs will support the call for donation.

Our dearest Hannan seemed to be very disturbed by some of the facts that you presented. I hope he understands why the Palestinian is treating the Israelis with contempt.

Hannan must be a complete ignorant in that no man will allow his land be taken away against their will when he is the rightful owner to the land. The worst part is, the robbery was done on a broad day light with full endorsement by the West and fools of Arabs.

I hope Hannan realises that his people has done much damages to the Palestinian people than what the Palestinian had inflicted on them.

Fairness is not the name of the game in the land of Palestine. Bullying and brutality is. So, Mr. Hannan, please stop talking about fairness!

Tun

yes, I will donate for a noble cause.

On the topic itself, I have asked you a few times and let me rephrase it - a/ why do you champion against criminalising war, when it's probably sincere and realistic to be championing for peace?

b/ why is it you show anti-semitism by your comments of the Jewish community - what is it that you believe that is one sided in this whole conflict?

c/ why didn't you as Chair of the International Islamic council during your PM-ship agree to champion the negotiations with Israel. Is it because you put that in the "too hard" basket, and by denouncing Israel, you can show how concerned you are about this whole conflict?

Your blind devotees say that Tun is fair and just and sing all the glory, but I, am too a fan of yours have my reservations about your true intentions.

Tun Yang Dikasihi,

Israeli government said that attack on Gaza was justified because the Gazans (Hamas) fired them with rockets day in and day out. This is also 'political' statement by the Zionists....with the military might that they have, Israel can defend themselves quite easily by their anti-missile rockets. They knew very well that these home-made Qassam rockets would not cause to them as much harm as their high-tech weaponries.

Recalling my recent trip to Kuwait, I talked to some locals and expatriate friends about the 1991 Gulf War. I realized that Iraq was attacking the US-led Coalition Force bases in North East Saudi Arabia and Israel.

One thing I found most intriguing was that, by eyewitnesses accounts...they said that the US military were already deployed to these locations and roaming the Persian Gulf even sometime before the invasion of Kuwait (not after the invasion as stated in modern history books). This could only mean that they already knew that a war was going to happen.

Could supposedly...the first Gulf War was 'indirectly' planned by the states of Israel and US? It was well known that Saddam's government was supporting Palestinian resistance movements and the White House had clearly expressed their thoughts on this. And why would George Bush Jr. go all out to finish off Iraq in the 2nd Gulf War, searching fruitlessly for Weapons of Mass Destruction?...and why the military invaders never completely pulled out from the country until today? Are they doing Israel a favour by ensuring Iraq is always in an unstable and peace-less condition so that these Zionists can continuously rape the Palestinian state?

'Political Intentions'...will always be the excuse by oppressors to justify their evil.

Tun,

1. Biarlah saya jelaskan kelemahan ketara Yahudi Zionist.
2. Kelemahan paling ketara hanya satu. Mereka akan menjadi lemah sekiranya umat Islam bersatu.
3. Penyatuan yang dimaksudkan disini sebagai contoh, jaringan dan ikatan yang kukuh dari segi ekonomi.
4. Umat Islam tiada asas kukuh, hanya kesedaran semata-mata.
5. Kesedaran tanpa asas kukuh akan menjadi kesedaran hangat-hangat tahi ayam.
6. Bagaimana mahu mengukuhkan asas? Perlulah dibentuk sejak dari kecil.
7. Masa depan umat Islam bergantung kepada rancangan kita pada saat ini.
8. Jika pada saat ini, rancangan kita hanyalah mahu membantu rakyat Palestin, anak-anak kecil didepan mata kita tidak akan dapat dibentuk dengan asas yang kukuh untuk menempuhi dunia dimasa depan.
9. Maka, apa yang ada pada umat akhir zaman, ialah umat Islam yang tiada asas keislaman yang kukuh, yang dengan mudah dapat dihanyutkan. Yahudi Zionist memang mahukan perkara ini berlaku.

Opportunities Abound In Saudi Agriculture Sector

By Muin Abdul Majid

DUBAI, Aug 12 (Bernama) -- Local and international firms have been urged to boost their presence and investments in Saudi Arabia's agricultural sector.

According to Khalid Daou, a project manager of an upcoming Saudi agriculture show in Riyadh, the Saudi government has been investing heavily in irrigation projects to develop its arable land, with the aim of addressing both a rapidly growing population and burgeoning demand for food and food-related products.

"There is an urgent need for advanced irrigation equipment, water management technologies and services and related products such as high-yield seeds to satisfy the country's increasing agricultural requirements," he said in a statement issued here.

Daou said the kingdom relied on growth areas such as agriculture to advance its economic diversification strategy.

The statement said Saudi Arabia remained the Middle East's largest market for agricultural products and technologies, posting a steady eight per cent average annual growth.

It imported more than 25.5 billion riyals (RM23.8 billion) worth of agricultural products in 2008, an increase of 42 per cent over the previous year.

This year agricultural projects are expected to account for 23 per cent of the country's expected SAR181 billion private sector investments, enhancing Saudi's status as a major player in the regional agribusiness.

Organised by Riyadh Exhibitions Company, Saudi Agriculture 2009 will run from Nov 1 to 4 at the Riyadh International Exhibition Centre.

--BERNAMA

I would love to be invited to that function at the Sime Darby Conventio Center on the 20th August - the one that YABhg Tun is planning to attend - perhaps just to see whatever the healthy probability of getting a remainder payment from a giant corporate long overdue can be realised and expeditiously - and with the blessings of the owner of the invoice, of course - among others; and also to congratulate you the advisor to Petronas and Petronas herself to having marvelous courage and imagination to launch the Emas US Dollar Sukuk.

Alhamdulillah. In my eyes you are the Father of The Dinar Emas, Bapak Tun Mahathir.

Anyhow, it would be just fantastic when you could tell me your thoughts to the enquiry wouldn't it be wonderful if we can come up with a great way that will make the Palestinians and their land a more viable economic entity, Tun.

Terima Kasih.

Hello Hanan,

I was wondering when you'll appear. Good to see you here.

I'm glad you're fighting for the truth and nothing but the truth.

Well, let's get to the truth.

The 'Spirit of Humanity' was seized by Israeli Occupation Forces in international waters. The boat was threatened with violence and compelled to follow the Israeli gunboats ashore where the crew were locked up. In other parts of the world, this act would be called piracy and the US would send a warship to punish the perpetrators, what more with a former US congresswoman onboard the seized ship. But this is Gaza, alas. Here is a video of this piracy

You keep harping about the size of the ships used. Of course they're small ships and can't deliver much goods. I agree much more need to be done and I wish the world will organise an airlift like the Berlin airlift to break the siege. That would be a nightmare for you wouldn't it? But when you're like the Palestinians in Gaza and short of everything, every bit helps. And how exactly do kids' crayons and powdered milk be used for creating 'terrorist' infrastructure?

You worry about the plight of the homeless Palestinians being exposed to the cold in the coming months. If you're sincere about it why don't you lobby your government to lift the siege and tell us about it in your brand new 'Peace' website?

I'm glad you're indignant about custodial deaths in Malaysia. So am I, but would you like to examine the number of Palestinian deaths at Israeli checkpoints, including mothers who died giving birth and their new-born babies at roadblocks because they were delayed by the IOF?

Since they were first used in 2001, Qassam rockets have killed about 15 Israelis and has had practically no impact on infrastructure. No Israeli university, hospital, clinic, electric plants, waterworks, schools, factories, homes, bridges, farms, olive groves, synagogues or roads were destroyed. Compare this with the death toll of the recent Gaza offensive where 1,434 Palestinians died including including 288 children and 121 women. In addition 5,303 Palestinians were injured in the assault, including 1,606 children and 828 women. Every one knows the utter damage caused to the Gaza strip.

In fact in this war the Qassam rockets prove more a nuisance (and an important propaganda tool) than a real threat. Even Shimon Peres said so. Here, let me help you with this quote:

' "Vice Premier Shimon Peres, however, doesn't understand what the fuss is about. "This hysteria over the Qassams must end," he told journalists at the Knesset. "We're just adding to the hysteria. What happened?" '

Poor prisoner Gilad Shalit. If I'm not mistaken he's a soldier and if I'm not wrong, sometimes soldiers get captured by their enemies especially if they venture into enemy territory. Shalit is the only Israeli in Palestinian captivity. On the other hand, the Israelis are imprisoning about 10 750 Palestinians including 290 children.

What say we hang a banner on the plight of the Palestinian child prisoners on your site?

Please don't insult our intelligence by trying to pose your propaganda as truths.

Dengan izin Tun..Terima kasih..

Hanan

[[But you tend to forget or ignore easily what those Gazans did prior the massive attack on them. You forgot the massive of what you call “poppet rocket” – Qassams launching against innocent civilians, synagogues and schools. Suicide bombers blasting in malls, busses and restaurants.]]

And Hanan..prior to "poppet rocket" there is a place called Deir Yassin..And Shabra and Shatilla..What is this place anyways?..Sundry Market??

[[Why do you try to humanize the rocket attacks on Israel and define them improper as “alleged”. You are purely distorting history and telling half truth like you always did.]]

See the Sundry Market above.

[[The reconstruction of the Qassam rockets is probably proceeding apace. Engineering work forces are focused on destruction instead of rebuilding]]

Whoa...Israel spies updated...Sorry..I meant to say you have "insider information"..in GAZA.

[[Who says that the sea blockade is illegal? Who gave you the job to judge what means legal or illegal? Is it legal to hold in prison an Israeli soldier named Gilad Shalit for more than 3 years without letting the Red Cross representative to visit him regularly? Is this legal? Why can't you say something about that?]]

Can I then says something about this?

Equation no 1: They says one Israeli is equal to 100 Palestinian mortal.

Equation no 2: They says Gilad Shalit equals to 3,000 Palestinian in Israelis prisons.

Equation no 3: Helps.I am poor at math and cannot conclude this equation!!

[[The Palestinian prisoners in Israeli prisons are enjoying TV with their all favorite channels, enjoy the Zionist Open University academic learning free of charge and of course visits of their families from time to time. What Israel is doing to the Palestinian prisoners is a crime but what Hamas is doing to the Israeli single prisoner is legal, human and generous, following the Islam.]]

You meant to says Hamas Spiritual Leader Sheikh Yassin and Marwan Barghouti enjoys this and Gilad Shalit were denied?..Poor and bad HAMAS..

[[Brutality is a matter of interpretation.]]

Aha..Now I get it DEIR YASSIN..Shabra and Shatilla is not Sundry Market's after all...It is a zoo!..Where Israelis beast preys on their victims..

[[it is better to come with clean hands to the meal]]

You mean the Beast enjoys their prey using their bare hands?..My..my..I thought they used guns and knives!!

[[Hahaha, what are you expecting to do with someone who violated the warning? Would you expect to fetch him to a luxury hotel with a limo?]]

Israelis are ignorant. That is the proper word to describe it's blatantly disregard against Palestinians. I do not know why... why... why they are so ignorant that Palestinians' lands are being deprived to make way for Israel state on Palestinian land. Do they think Palestinian would allow their land taken away without confrontation? What does this little guy Hanan is thinking. Gilad Shalit??? Haha.. Congratulation to Hamas for its victory in capturing this soldier in this terror WAR. I do not know why Israelis call this as kidnapping. Was Gilad a soldier/enemy or civilian? So what do we call Israel? Land robber? Well it is sort of kidnapping as well.

Salam Tun,

Memang benar kata Tun yang Gaza sedang dicekik oleh Israel dan kita sudah mula lupakan kesulitan yang ditanggung orang Gaza. Terima kasih kerana mengambil langkah untuk membawa isu Gaza ke hadapan semula.

Tun lebih jauh maklum dari saya mengenai isu Palestin-Israel ini tapi saya fikir Israel tidak akan berhenti memerangi orang Gaza sama ada melalui serangan terbuka ataupun sekatan (siege) sehinggalah orang Palestin mengambil keputusan untuk mengosongkan wilayah tersebut. Kedua-dua tindakan ini merupakan peperangan, cuma sekatan tidak melibatkan senjata api dan berlaku dalam senyap. Tindakan yang sama juga sedang di ambil di Tebing Barat dan Baitulmaqdis Timur. Bekalan air pada sebuah kampung di Tebing Barat telah disekat dan penduduk diusir dari rumah mereka di Baitulmaqdis Timur. Ini bersesuaian dengan matlamat zionis untuk mewujudkan negara Yahudi tulen yang dimaksudkan dengan ungkapan 'Jewish State.' Tidak ada nama negeri yang lebih rasis dari itu.

Ramai yang memberi pendapat yang usaha menghantar bot kecil ini sia-sia tetapi bagi saya usaha ini tidak sia-sia. Selain menghantar bahan binaan dan kelengkapan kemanusiaan yang memang diperlukan secara praktikal, usaha sebegini juga boleh membawa tekanan kepada rejim haram di Tel Aviv yang ada orang yang masih mengambil peduli akan tindak-tanduk mereka terhadap penduduk Gaza. Lebih penting ia mengantar mesej kepada orang Gaza yang mereka tidak berseorangan berhadapan dengan kezaliman.

Penyokong orang Gaza tidak mampu menganjurkan tindakan pemecahan sekatan besar-besaran seperti yang dilakukan di Archangel (North atlantic convoy) ataupun di Berlin (Berlin Airlift). Namun seperti orang Gaza yang semangatnya sangat kental dan tidak mudah dipatahkan, penyokong mereka yang terlibat dengan FGM ini, yang terdiri dari banyak negara, juga nampaknya besemangat kental.

Dear Manchibut,

You said:

WOULD you allow your God harmed, crucified or killed by anybody?

AND would you openly throw your every support to the people who were clearly responsible for the demise of your God?

and quoted from the bible.....makes for good reading huh.

You missed out on this though Luke 23:34 where Jesus said : " Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing".

Also, I dont think my GOD needs my defending HIM. Thank you

Salam Tun Dr. M and Che Det readers,

I would like to add some of my opinions:

1. It is normal for the Israel to do illegal actions as the regime itself is illegal.
2. Human rights? For the jews, only Jews have the rights, even the right to be legally gay marriages. Hehe... For them other people including us Muslims are not human, so for sure we do not human rights.
3. As you said "The jews are ruling the world by proxies", they are ruling the strongest nation on earth currently which is USA and this USA leading NATO to control the world.
4. USA is creating a war on terror and make an equation Muslim=Terrorist. They attack us from every angles. Everywhere and everyday they are killing muslims not only in Palestine but also Iraq, Afghanistan and Pakistan. So sad to see Islamic countries joining this Zionist to have a war on terror targetting bearded men. Indonesia for example just copy USA steps to create a character Bin Laden by creating a character named Nordin Top.
5. I wonder why Iran proudly stand against USA and no Muslim countries willing to help. We know already that US will attack all Muslim countries one after another. It is a matter sooner or later they will attack with a created excuse. I respect Venezuela to openly support Iran eventhough they has no relationship with Iran. It is a shame we muslim countries no one step up to join Iran. Are we so afraid of death? If so that means Jews succeeded.
6. I am sad to see in this situation muslims are still concerned about the differences between Sunni and Syiah. I know the jews also playing their part actively now to fuel the fire between Sunni and Syiah.
7. As a powerful and well respected leader in the world, I suggest you to help lobbying for a cooperation within OIC on same Dinar usage and cooperation in defence.

Wassalam.

dearest tun,

it's a great move on your free Gaza movement and we as the caring Malaysian will be able to render the help needed.

To all Malaysians please feel how lucky we are living in this country where over there in Gaza still in chaos & unsafe.

Lastly, I hope the conflict between Israel/Palestine come to an end although in our Islam context these will last till Kiamat. May Allah bless the Gazans and all Palestinians with patience and strong will to live in years ahead and to the Israelis (Yahudi) who kill and slaughter these people all these years, your day of suffering will come like what happened in the past.

salam ayah det.. not overlooking the stress on the global financial stress..

Whom Did We Bail Out?

Look, now: Here we are! Go back to 2007, where I made this proposal, for reform. I said, we propose a reform, on the basis of the authority of the Constitution of the United States. That would have worked. Anybody who's intelligent, who understands the system, would have known, that what I proposed then, would have worked. We would not be in this mess today!

But, who the hell came up with this other idea? Of getting the United States into debt, for obligations it didn't owe?! In order to bail out London, to bail out the international monetary system! At the expense of the United States! To loot the United States and its Treasury, for the benefit of an international monetary cartel! What about "bail out"! Whom, did we bail out? Did we bail out our industries? Did we save the auto industry, or put it into equivalent form, something else besides autos? Did we save the American farmer? Did we save the infrastructure, of the cities of the United States and the states? Whom did we bail out?

We bailed out the London bankers and their New York extension. We don't owe them anything. We just happen to have a government that says that.

This is our nation. And the law of bankruptcy of our nation is our authority. If I were President, I would end this thing right now. And I'm sure, I could get the support of the great majority of American citizens, very quickly, simply by making clear what I intend to do: Put the whole thing in bankruptcy. You guys are going to live. We're not going to kill you—like Obama's doing. We're not cutting you off from health care, we're not trying to accelerate your death, we're not trying to get you to kill yourself. You're going to live. You're going to be employed. We're going to rebuild our industries. We going to cancel this filthy debt! Which we never really owed in the first place. Only some crooked traitors, or traitorous kinds of people, gave us this kind of debt—it's not real. We don't owe it. We're going to go back to a credit system.

And we're going to get some power. How are we going to get power? We're going to have Russia as a partner. And Russia needs a credit system, desperately, to solve its problems. But Russia can do a lot of things for us. Russia has vast mineral resources, in Siberia and related areas. These mineral resources are required, for the development of nations, because the Russians are very good at this; they're sitting on top of territory that has rich mineral resources.

We have below, to the south of that, we have China, and other countries, which have a shortage of these mineral resources. Therefore, the development of Russia, its building up as a power, for power of science and development, is necessary, for Europe, for Russia itself, for China, and so forth. Japan's possibility of existing, depends upon this success of China and Russia. China requires cooperation with us and Russia. We require cooperation with China.

For example, what about the debt of the United States to China, the dollar debt? The unpaid debt to China? What happens to the world if the unpaid debt to China is written off, because the United States dollar collapses? What happens to the world, then, if China collapses? China goes into a crisis, under those conditions, what happens? India is destroyed, not so much by an economic crisis, but by the chaos engendered throughout the world, where the spillover from what you're seeing in Afghanistan and Pakistan, and so forth, now spreads into there, and causes chaos there.

So what we simply do, is, we take these four great nations, we use these four great nations as a pivot. Japan will jump in immediately. South Korea will jump in immediately, other nations will jump in immediately. But we have to get the four big nations to cooperate on an agreement, and the others will gather, and we'll have an enlarged agreement.

We then create a new international system, entirely a credit system, consistent with the design of the credit system built into the U.S. Constitution. All monetarism is cancelled! The only honor, is the honorable debt, which can be converted to a debt in a credit system. And the world will operate under an international credit system based on cooperation, on a fixed-exchange-rate system, among credit systems of nations of the world. We will, then, generate, in the range of 1.5-2% basic long-term loans, among nations, based on credit systems. These loans will be directed, largely, to the driver of technological progress in basic economic infrastructure.

p/s: ayah det, any tips how we Malaysians going to survive thru? mathias chang predicted only 47 days left for U.S.A.'s total breakdown.. sigh Assalamualaikum dear Dr. Mahthir and friends.

I would like to comment on that post. I may be interpreted a bit “Sarcastic” and too sharp but it was done in the intention to put a more balanced picture of the description of Dr. Mahathir. Yes, you must contribute and donate for the poor Palestinian people and do it generously. I like the idea but somehow dislike the propaganda that encourages that idea.

I’m considering to establish a blog which will be called “Friendship prior Peace”. If all people will accept that approach then peace is not an issue anymore and criminalizing war will be passé. Once it will be established I’ll let you know and welcome you to participate, even write your own articles and expressions.

1. We all remember the brutal Israeli attacks against Gaza last year. Many of us were outraged by the killings of some 1,300 Gazan Palestinian, men, women, the disabled, the children, the sick and the maimed. Hospitals and schools were destroyed.

But you tend to forget or ignore easily what those Gazans did prior the massive attack on them. You forgot the massive of what you call “poppet rocket” – Qassams launching against innocent civilians, synagogues and schools. Suicide bombers blasting in malls, busses and restaurants.

2. The condemnation of this brutal assaults had forced the Israelis to stop the massive retaliation against alleged Hamas rocket attacks against Israel.

Why do you try to humanize the rocket attacks on Israel and define them improper as “alleged”. You are purely distorting history and telling half truth like you always did.

3. Many of the rich countries had pledged billions in aid for the rebuilding of Gaza.

Does mean pledging that they will give the money to rebuild “Hamastan”? Is Gaza a place of normal people ruled by their own Islamic extremists? Where are the oil rich Muslim countries? They sit with their fat bellies covered with gold, jewelry and diamonds, wearing Breitling watches, driving 10 RR cars, sleeping on pure silk sheets and sailing 5 yachts. Do they care for their own brothers?

4. After that, things became quiet. There was hardly any report in the press on what was happening. I suppose most people assume that the reconstruction of Gaza was proceeding apace.

The reconstruction of the Qassam rockets is probably proceeding apace. Engineering work forces are focused on destruction instead of rebuilding.

5. But the reality is far different. The Egyptians limited the medicine and the building materials from entering Gaza from its territory. The sea is blockaded illegally by the Israelis. The people of Gaza have literally been made prisoners by these actions.

You are a very good friend of the Egyptians, even simulated there a trial and judged Ariel Sharon for his crimes. So why aren't you meeting with president Mubarak in order to understand his limited transition of materials to Gaza and maybe you can convince him to be more generous, more human to his own brothers as you are so generous from thousands miles away. Who says that the sea blockade is illegal? Who gave you the job to judge what means legal or illegal? Is it legal to hold in prison an Israeli soldier named Gilad Shalit for more than 3 years without letting the Red Cross representative to visit him regularly? Is this legal? Why can't you say something about that? The Palestinian prisoners in Israeli prisons are enjoying TV with their all favorite channels, enjoy the Zionist Open University academic learning free of charge and of course visits of their families from time to time. What Israel is doing to the Palestinian prisoners is a crime but what Hamas is doing to the Israeli single prisoner is legal, human and generous, following the Islam.

6. The Free Gaza Movement led by Huwaida Arraf was set up in order to send needed supplies to beleaguered Gaza. But after five small boats were successful in delivering much need supplies, the Israeli navy began to intercept them and forcing them to abort their humanitarian aid.

This is really a funny thing. You are pulling your own leg. You say "5 small boats" are to feed 1.5 million Gazans. You really believe that this is the absolute possibility to solve the feeding problem. Those 5 boats are not more than a political show more to harm Israel than to help the Gazans. And you, when you can join that cruel dance party, you just join the ring of dancers.

7. One small boat with a number of Palestinians, Arabs, European and American (a U.S. Congresswoman) was rammed by Israeli warships. The people in the boat, all civilians were thrown into the sea. Luckily they survived.

Just to be polite and respectful to you among your fans I will not call it what I need to call it. I'll call it as a sentence with an attribute of non fully truth. If they were thrown into the sea (far from the shore), did you ask yourself how did they survive if the Israeli navy was there? They brainwashed you and you let them wash your brain and now you are washing the brains of your own fans. That simple question is missing which you didn't ask them because you didn't want to ask them since I think you are wise enough to ask it. Aren't you equal to 7 Jewish brains (like zul81 commented in one of his comments)?

8. Recently another little boat, loaded with food, medicine, stationery for school use and toys, with 25 unarmed civilians including a Nobel Peace Laureate from Ireland and the American women candidate for presidency of the U.S. was fired at by Israeli commandos, who then boarded the boat, giving rough treatment to the people on board.

Once again, to be polite, it is a partial truth. That boat was warned far away through the radio not to attempt to enter the limited waters. That boat captain ignored the warning of the INS (Israeli Navy ship). Since that was the situation, it is possible that the INS fired into the air far from the boat in order to change its direction and revert. But the boat was consistent to continue so there was no other possibility but to send the soldiers on board in order to stop its voyage. Brutality is a matter of interpretation. Brutality is not how the Israeli soldiers treated the people on that boat but how prisoners are beaten to death in the Malaysian police stations under detention. Before talking about brutality, it is better to come with clean hands to the meal.

9. Repeated shouts on the loudhailer that there were only unarmed civilians and the boat carried no arm failed to stop the commandos. The boat was steered by the commandos to an Israeli port and the people on board were thrown into Israeli jails.

Hahaha, what are you expecting to do with someone who violated the warning? Would you expect to fetch him to a luxury hotel with a limo?

10. The people of the Free Gaza Movement have now been released. They are determined to carry on sailing from Cyprus to Gaza to bring relief.

They may try.

11. Winter is coming and it will be bitterly cold in Gaza. A great number of the Gazans whose houses were destroyed by the Israelis have no shelter and would suffer terribly in the winter.

I agree, it will be cold in the winter. Many houses were destroyed.

12. Modern civilization is supposedly very concerned about human rights. It is only right that we care for those heroes and heroines who are standing up to oppressive Governments.

Which civilization or in particular, a single Muslim, is concerned about the human rights of the Israeli prisoner of war Gilad Shalit? Are you?, Is it the Iranian clown president? Any Malaysian?.....Silence.....

13. But shouldn't we also be concerned and caring for the 1½ million people of Gaza, who had lost 1,300 fellow inhabitants, whose houses, schools and hospitals have been destroyed, who do not have water or sanitary facilities, who will be without shelter from the coming winter.

Are you concerned about the darkness of the underground bunker for more than 3 years and the explosive belt that Gilad Shalit is wearing and detained? Are you urging your Hamas brothers to let the Red Cross representative to visit him. Who is not human don't deserve any human treatment.

14. It is sad that Governments who had pledged aid have so readily allowed the Israelis to blockade Gaza. It is disgusting that Israel can break international laws with impunity.

If Israel breaks the international laws, why aren't you charging Israel in the international court? Maybe you should charge Israel in a Sharia court. Then I know what will be the punishment – I'll not be any more on this blog. But before you charge Israel for that you need to charge Hamas as well for breaking international law. Done a deal?

15. I went to Cyprus to meet these brave members of the Free Gaza Movement. I was shocked at how tiny was the only fishing boat that they still have for future trips to Gaza.

And you are so naive to believe that the fishing boat can feed all Gazans? This is not a fishing boat but a political phishing boat against Israel and not to aid the Gazans.

16. I had been sailing in a much bigger yacht and I know how rough was the sea. Yet 25 people dare to sail in this tiny boat, sleeping on the open deck, being seasick, being without proper food, and being made to face Israeli attacks. We really live in an uncivilized world where the fate of one or two people, useful for condemning certain Governments are constantly played up, yet the suffering, the freedom of 1½ million Gazans are ignored. I admire then Gazans whose main concern is for their right to be a free people, free that is from Israeli oppression, supported by the rich people who talk a lot about human rights and freedom.

If they were so concerned about carrying aid to Gaza, they could carry about 2000Kg more if just a crew of 5 people could sail the boat instead of 25. I wonder what weight can such a boat contain that 2000Kg of aid is not so valuable for the “starving” Gazans. You just pulled your leg once again. That phishing boat is a political tool not an aiding tool.

17. I don't think I would be able to endure the kind of discomfort and dangers faced by the activists of the Free Gaza Movement. All I can do is to give moral support to them.

And you really give them your support. I cannot take that credit from you. Please keep supporting them.

18. Malaysians who wish to do so may volunteer to sail with these intrepid people. But if they cannot, then they can contribute towards their need to buy a bigger boat as no one would rent boats to them.

I would suggest to buy a petrol tanker ship with a huge volume where you can place all their needs in one turn. Also you should ask the Malaysian navy ships to escort them safely to Gaza so the Israeli Navy cannot interfere and finally the blockade will break. Maybe such a tanker is available in Saudi Arabia and it would be good to ask the Saudi King to hire the tanker for a few weeks (of course free of charge, a couple of diamonds value is not a big deal for the brothers). And the escorting of the Malaysian Navy ships shouldn't be a problem at all since it is just “home business”.

19. The PGPO (Perdana Global Peace Organisation) would like to appeal for donations in aid of the Free Gaza Movement members to purchase a small ship to carry cement and building materials apart from medicine and food etc.

You really believe that a small ship can handle a volume of cement needed to rebuild the demolished houses? Have you ever saw the size of a 50Kg sack of cement and how many of them is required for the rebuilding? The small ship will not be able to carry much and it may take even 10 years of voyage to transfer the amount of cement. Try to think about the tanker ship. Keep in mind the relatively heavy cement which is 3.1 times heavier than water in the same volume.

20. All contributions by cheque can be issued to: KLFCW (Gaza Fund). KLFCW stands for the Kuala Lumpur Foundation to Criminalise War. Cash contributions can be channeled to KLFCW Maybank Account: 5123 3430 6634.

From reading my comments you may think that I'm against the donation campaign. I'm not. You should help the Gazans as much as you can but it should be done with truth and not half truth propaganda. I wish you great success with the donation for your brothers who deserve to live like human beings but they should also behave like human beings. Please don't forget the banner to free Gilad Shalit (just the banner, donations are not required at the moment just some sunlight) on your blog header.

Assalammualaikum Tun...

Kekejaman Israel tidak akan ternoktah hanya kerana kita menyuarakan sokongan kita agar mereka memberhentikan tindakan tidak berperikemanusiaan terhadap warga Palestin, sudah lama isu perdamaian di ketengahkan tetapi sehingga akhirnya pun Yasser Arafat masih tidak mampu untuk menggoyahkan pendirian Israel...Walaupun rakyat palestina berusaha sedaya upaya sehingga terkorban, mereka masih tidak dapat menerbitkan secebis perasaan belas kasihan Israel terhadap mereka kerana...Israel ada sokongan dari kuasa-kuasa besar yang digeruni hampir semua negara di dunia ini tetapi Palestin cuma ada suara negara-negara islam yang berbisik-bisik di belakangnya. Kita dapat melihat betapa negara islam sekarang ini tidak bersatu padu dan ada pula yang menyokong tindakan orang-orang kafir untuk menakluk negara islam dan mereka hanya memandangnya dari jauh... betapa bertuahnya kita Malaysia namun kini ada unsur-unsur pengkhianat negara mula tunjuk belang, tindakan tidak bersyukur ini menganjurkan demonstrasi jalanan mengundang kepada perpecahan orang melayu yang juga beragama islam...kenapa kita memandang negara yang begitu jauh sedangkan depan mata kita sudah ada contoh kebinasaan orang islam yang tidak bersatu. Sekiranya Malaysia ini diberikan kepada warga Palestin, tentunya mereka begitu menghargai negara dan menyayangi sesama insan tetapi kita...yang telah berpeluang hidup aman dan damai, begitu bersahaja menghancurkan negara ini dengan meniru aksi-aksi demonstrasi yang menarik perhatian kuasa besar terhadap perpecahan yang berlaku dan sudah tentunya pelbagai alasan akan direka supaya mereka boleh masuk campur dalam urusan pentadbiran negara...kasihan pada Palestin yang mengharapkan kehidupan seperti kita dan tidak memperolehinya...seharusnya mana-mana pemimpin dan rakyat yang tidak mempunyai akal fikiran ini tinggal di palestina dan mereka boleh merasai betapa susahnyanya untuk mencapai keamanan walaupun mereka mengamalkan demonstrasi jalanan...

dalam hati mungkin adanya perasaan bertuah hidup di Malaysia tapi dalam Perbuatan sudah cukup menunjukkan mereka ini sebenarnya perosak keamanan dan pentingkan diri sendiri! dan yang paling jelas sekali, mereka langsung tidak bersyukur akan nikmat yang diberikan kepada mereka...jauh di sudut hati, menangis melihat Palestin sengsara...moga ada sinar harapan untuk mereka dan kita rakyat Malaysia, bantulah mereka yang tidak berdosa ini...amin.

Assalamualaikum Tun,

Sehingga kini saya masih boikot barangan US kerana saya yakin kerajaan mereka tidak berubah. Sekiranya ada, tetapi tidak cukup untuk tidak terus tunduk kepada Israel. Saya akan buat setakat yang termampu. Dalam masa yang sama, saya cadangkan Tun tolong 'sound' sikit samada pihak tentera kita tak kiralah secara diam-diam atau terbuka, turut membantu mereka. Hantar sekumpulan kecil untuk membantu bot ini, boleh ke? Saya yakin ramai yang boleh menyokong jika duit rakyat digunakan untuk tujuan ini dan ramai tentera kita yang sanggup! Sehubungan itu, saya berpendapat Baitul Mal yang sedia ada boleh di perluaskan lagi. Baitul Mal tidak terhad kepada pemberian wang kepada fakir miskin. Ia boleh digunakan untuk menganjurkan kerja-kerja amal yang lain. Setakat untuk mengutip tabung baitul mal, potongan gaji (muslim) sebanyak RM1-RM50 boleh dilakukan setiap bulan. Bayangkan berapa jumlahnya setiap tahun untuk seluruh Malaysia. Saya juga yakin, ramai yang seperti saya terutama di kalangan profesional yang ingin menghulurkan bantuan tetapi tak yakin dengan NGO yang sedia ada mampu bergerak (melainkan di bawah Tun). Sekiranya, Baitul Mal sanggup menjadi peneraju, adalah lebih baik. Di bawah teraju Baitul Mal, mungkin dapat diadakan biro/bahagian untuk tujuan tertentu.. penubuhan pasukan sukarela untuk menghantar bantuan kemanusiaan di Palestin, penjagaan alam sekitar, hal-ehwal ibu tunggal, mangsa rogol, remaja bermasalah. dll. Sekadar cadangan....

Ayahanda,

Sometimes we may have to look at things from different angle. I think the most important point is what GAZANS want for their their future generations.

If Gazans really want to have freedom, work with Israel and build the city with them for their future generations, not for them. We have ONLY ONE CHANCE to live! What did Hamas do???? By creating suicide bombers to kill Israelis???? Make donations???? Will that help???? By having Media Press to claim that HAMAS is the Freedom Fighter or Israel troops are cruel?

We do not live for past, life must go on.... GAZA is indeed the sacred place to re-unite Christianity /Islam in the middle east which was unsolved for many many years now.

Look at China, people from the past said that Qin 1st Emperor - Shi Huang-Ti was cruel. But today, the world said that without Shi Huang-Ti, there will no China.

It's all depend how we look at the situation there. I do not know how to help. But I do hope that Israel and Hamas leaders do not use "bullet for food" or "Religion view" to solve this crisis. It is only Hamas and Israel can solve their differences or problems, not 3 rd party.

In Malaysia, many of us already knew the truth, Ayahanda. Are we going to wait for Budaya ANwar to end itself? If HE has broke his promise, HE has to resign! If HE does not, Malaysia will be the future Palestine, who's fault then?

I wonder how pathetic were the Christians worldwide , especially those from the West, who ignorantly supporting the Jews in Jerusalem knowing that their so-called 'God Jesus' was spat on his face and killed by the orthodox Jewish priests and monks.

Was Jesus (The Lord) crucified or killed by the Arab?

The answer is: No! It was the Jews, according to the Christian Bible, who killed The (Christian) Lord!

Should we then wonder why Hitler and his Nazis' army heartlessly tried to wipe out every seed of Jews from the face of the earth in the Holocaust during the 2nd World-War , where an estimated between 11 million to 17 million Jews were massacred ?

Let's check what the Bible states about the persecution of Jesus by orthodox Jewish monks and mobs in Jerusalem 2,000 years ago :-

"After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him." (John, 7:1)

"God" Walked in Fear of the Jews: "Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death. Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews." (John, 11:53-54)

"Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand." (John, 10:39)

"Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by." (John, 8:59)

"And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oft-times resorted thither with his disciples. Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons." (John, 18:2-3)

"Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, and led him away." (John, 18:12-13)

"And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him. And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face." (Luke, 22:63-64).

"Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands." (Matthew, 26:67)

"One of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand", he said: "Why smitest thou me?" (John, 18:22-23)

"And they all condemned him to be guilty of death." (Mark, 14:64).

"They answered and said, he is guilty of death." (Matthew, 26:66)

"He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth." (Acts, 8:32)

"And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost." (Mark, 15:37)

"Christ died." (Romans, 5:6). "He was dead". (John, 19:33)

"he (Joseph of Arimathea) went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered." (Matthew, 27:58)

"And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth." (Matthew, 27:59)

The Christians of the United States, England, Europe and the world at large must be really dumb when they blindly supporting the Jews atrocities in Palestine all these years, though their so-called 'Lord Jesus' was clearly crucified and killed by the Jews.

WOULD you allow your God harmed, crucified or killed by anybody?

AND would you openly throw your every support to the people who were clearly responsible for the demise of your God?

Dear Tun,

Salute to you sir, you are the real fighter for Islam & the whole world.

I do sympathize with most of " PAS " members who have " Fight For Palestine " stickers on their car while their leaders cannot do anything for their members' desire to fight injustice.

Yes Sir, after all the names they call you, now they are very silence. I sincerely think you should invite their leaders to joint your fight so that they could see a bigger picture rather then being small minded about Islam.

Yes, you make me to be so proud to be a Malaysian & Muslim. Hidup Melayu.

Dengan Izin Tun dan Moderator..Berbanyak banyak Terima Kasih..

[[18. Malaysians who wish to do so may volunteer to sail with these intrepid people. But if they cannot, then they can contribute towards their need to buy a bigger boat as no one would rent boats to them.]]

Tun..

Ini kali pertama saya protes kenyataan dan pendapat Tun..Berbanyak ampun dan Maaf.But I have too..Here goes.

1.Penyataan Permasalahn.

Apa masalah sebenar? Ingin menghantar bekalan keperluan ke Gaza.

2.Cadangan.Melalui pembelian bot yang lebih besar.

3.Masalah.Tidak praktikal dan tidak mungkin berjaya.

Peratus kejayaan hanya 1%.

4.Mengenalpasti dan mempelbagaikan peluang kejayaan.

i)Kenal kebolehan sendiri.Tak akan mampu bot-bot ini melepasi kawalan 'Israel Gunboat'.Asks Palestinian fisherman.They will vouch for this.

ii)Kenal kebolehan Tentera Laut Israel.When push comes to shove Israel will take all kinds of measures to stop this boat.Have this boat equipped with radar jammer? To jam Israel Patrol and Gunboats? What about their submarines? And what about their Sea and land mines??

All are vain and futile effort in nature..

Now..Listen and bear with me.

I am chess player and war student.So I qualifies myself in giving this scenarios of making supplies deliveries to GAZA.Scheming,planning and execution.(The plan,not anything else).

There is 4 ways into GAZA.2 are military in nature and not to be discussed but another two.

1.Fly in and drop the supplies.In the whole wide world there is enough daredevil pilots.Some are trained as Foreign Legionnaire.Some are mecenaries.Some are reluctant.Some needs persuasion to accomplish this tasks.It is all feasible.Find those pilots..Find those proper planes..Find the proper planner and executioner..This have been done many times all over the world which penetrates Israel like defences..It can be done again..It will be done provided if we are true and sincere enough to make this a success.Boats cannot get through Israel defences..Planes have more chances to succeed.Proper coordinate,height,landing zone,winds velocity,drag,traction,pilots expertise,sheer dertemination and wish upon prayer..How could we fail???

2.Hassan Nassrallah and Hezbollah must comes into the pictures.We leaves it to the expert in situ.

3.Egypt population all over the world..SHAME ON YOU!!..SHAME ON YOU!! Another one.. SHAME ON YOU!!!

Why do you all Egypt people let Hosni kills the Palestinians indirectly and you let him get away with it?..Just..WHY??

Have you forgotten what Rasullulah s.a.w said to para Sahabat?

Egypt is the land of our forefather (Nabi Ismail a.s.) so it must be liberated.

How could you all people forsakes Rasullulah s.a.w ?? How could you??

Let knock senses into Hosni and let those supplies flows in..

Tun..please no boat and even ship..It just not done..It aint working..And we must wise up before the incidence and not after.

Please seriously consider my opinion..

LIFE IS SERIOUS..WE TAKE THEM SERIOUSLY!!

Many many thanks Tun Dr Mahathir..

I cannot resist to comment on the Buah Pala issue as I feel I have a few important points to make, namely :-

1. I feel it is just not right that one can live in a certain place or location for more than 300 years and suddenly someone can come in with bulldozers and excavators and force you out of your house because the local govt sold your land to some private contractor and did not inform the residents at all.
2. The residents of Kg Buah Pala had been negotiating with the BN/Gerakan govt but no forced eviction had taken place until Lim Guan Eng took over.
3. The director and CEO of the contractor are both Chinese. The affected residents are Indians.
4. The residents of Kg Buah Pala had been offered two-storey houses by the developer/state govt but since Kg Buah Pala was their ancestral home, they needed time to think the offer over - it was not an easy decision to make. However the contractor gave only a short timeframe and closed the offer once the deadline was up. So now the majority of Kg Buah Pala residents (except 4) have no choice except only to block the demolition of their homes.
5. It is very sad that this kind of things are happening in Malaysia due to irresponsible local government behaviour.
6. I do not trust government and politicians anymore. I can be evicted from my home, any time and at any place.

The awareness is still very low within our community. Semua tak suka Israel for what they are doing to the Palestinians semua kata nak boikot tetapi in reality kita dah terlalu terikat dgn barangan yg kita lazim guna. We are reluctant to change or are not sensitive enough.

I support to completely stop using ALL food and merchandise from organizations that support the evil regime!

Please note: Malaysian government or GLC leaders MUST be made aware and must scrutinize all purchases, so that we do not support all equipment, software and food that comes from Israel, US or Singapore (depa byk repackage food and good and then export to Malaysia) that contribute to the evil regime!

There is actually never a time a person don't have enough money. The monies always there and what left is the thought to put aside some of it for a good reason. I'm hoping some of us would be happy to part from a small amount of luxury we are enjoying. These are times where God is testing us. A time where juxtaposition lies everywhere and apparent. Such as this where our brothers and sisters are suffering while we enjoying and laughing on a good tv show. Where the westerners trying to hate the Muslims while they themselves actually live like a Muslims and the Muslims actually not in the harmony code of a Muslim.

I will spare an effort for this cause in form of money.

Assalamualaikum Tun

The plight of the Palestinians especially the women and the children has always moved me to tears so has the war on Afghanistan and on Iraq but I try not to think too much about it because it is just too painful.

It is heartening to know there are non Muslims out there who are willing to sacrifice their life to help the Palestinians. May Allah protect them and reward them for their good deeds.

Those Muslims who turned their back on the plight of the Palestinians will have to answer to ALLAH.

In the meantime let us all pray that Allah put a end to the Palestinians' sufferings.

By ezani  on August 13, 2009 10:18 AM

Salam Tun

1. I note that at 84 years old, you are still carrying out noble causes for the betterment of our beloved country and also for other oppressed citizens of the world such as the Palestinians in Gaza. May Allah SWT Bless, Forgive and Reward you!

2.I also note that you being a doctor have not yet written a blog about this very deadly and virulent H1N1 virus which has so far claimed 44 lives in our country with 208,000 reported cases in the world and the threat of it killing at least 2 billion people when it spreads to the Northern Hemisphere. Please can you write a blog about your thoughts on this H1N1 virus and give some advise to the current Govt to take more drastic measures?

3. I am aware of the current happenings in Gaza - about the blockade by Egypt from entering Gaza and also in Syria / Jordan and also by the Israeli navy from the sea and that aid cannot be received by the Palestinians. This is why I question why there are still donation drives to get money, food and clothings to the Palestinians. Is the money and clothes and food really going to the Palestinians or to somewhere else? This is why I stopped giving when I realised that the Palestinians really cannot receive the aid given from all of us.

What you must do is first ensure that the aid and donation given around the world and by Malaysian citizens CAN ACTUALLY be transmitted to the Palestinians. What is the point of us giving money, food and clothings if it cannot reach the Palestinians? Where are all the money, food and clothings now if it cannot reach the Palestinians?

The war of Israel on Palestinians have not only shown how brutal the Israelis are but also how cold-hearted and uncaring are the Arabs despite Islam originating from their land. The Egyptians have kow-towed to Israel to close its borders to aid workers. The Israeli navy are blocking access from the sea. So how can Palestinian charity work ? Your charity organisation, Tun, is still asking for money, food and clothings for money, food and clothings for the Palestinians but after receiving all this, you are blocked. So where is all the donated money, food and clothings sitting now?

You say you want a bigger boat but you know the Israeli navy are there watching you and they will not hesitate to shoot at anytime so it would be mere suicide to go into Gaza by ship!

What must FIRST be done is to attack Israel on a much bigger front, on a much bigger scale until they become AFRAID. Only then will they back down from bullying Palestinians although bullying is such a small word to use for what the Israelis have done including the heartless use of white and green phosphorus to melt the skins and bones of Palestinian women and children and to cause maximum pain...

In order to attack Israel on a much bigger front, you need to also take on the United States of America and its Jewish government and Europe. So now you tell me where do you want to go from here.

If these people do not care about the Gazan plight, they are racists just like the Jews of the Zionist Jewish Regime and their supporters!

Salam kasih dan salam hormat Ayahanda Tun.

Assalam'alaikum Honourable Tun,
May this comment find's kind passage.

1- First and foremost we register our utter disappointments with the French Jewish Sarkozy leadership who had banned all/any forms of burqa in all French public swimming pools. His reason: unhygienic. A deliberate and progressive selective repression against Muslim is shaping up in France at the moment.

2- The legal definition for Serial Killer is an act of killing at least 3 persons over the time frame of 30 days with an established pattern of "cooling off" period in between acts. We agree with the recent writings of brother Azmi Anshar on the A/H1N1 pandemic in Malaysia as a serial killer. But utmost, we fully submit that it is Allah's will and we must always view it as a challenge to move on with all guidance stemming from His very Words in the holy al Quran and al Sunnah.

3- Please do forgive our observations Ayahanda Tun, but to date we have observe there to be none coming for any kind of a posting that may help to educate the public and to allay all fears by filling away ignorance and apathy with knowledge and concern on the H1N1 outbreak in Malaysia. Maybe words coming from Ayahanda Tun, a medical doctor by profession – soothing words from a father to a modern progressive nation; would find ready ears and minds hungry for factual knowledge on proper preventive measures and easing process.

4- The local Health Minister has been doing a very good job thus far. We must all convey appreciations to his Honorable for such gallantry in the face of much confusion and blaring criticisms undue. He has been right in calling for all agencies and every other one to work together at handling and maintaining this virus from spreading further and making this dot on the world map any kind of mutation spot. He has also been correct at making the suggestion for proper governing bodies to ensure prices for surgical disposable mask and anti-septic gel prices remain on fixed check. Maybe he should be given Executive power in respective Ministries presently involved in handling this mitigation task. He must observe closely all schools and any closed ventilations-public-transport systems.

5- The responsibility belongs to all Malaysians and not (never) just the government alone! Corporate sectors must now step forward to offer all kinds of available assistance to the government. All non governmental organizations must also play their roles and not just stay out of non-political issues. As such – proper information disseminations and public education is an absolute must. Any forms of public channels, networks should be given this priority task.

6- The previous H5N1 strain was deployed around the globe in a much leisurely manner by trans-migratory flocks. At present the H1N1 strain is being deployed worldwide on super fast inter continental passenger jet liners. The Northern Hemisphere is expecting the impending seasonal flu again and that's a lot of unwitting "delivery system" by way of innocent tourism for this latest strain.

7- There has been many religious gathering around the world to pray for Allah to guide and protect us throughout this chapter of humanity. To pray for us all to remain in His Love. It is an important and much required duty upon all of us. But please do wear a nose/mouth mask in public places.

8- Humanity must look at it in a positive manner, not in a resigned state as is too popular and commonly found in our solidarity. Allah would expect for His subject to be such one. It has been stated in the holy al Quran that even if man kind were to know that Judgment Day would be tomorrow, and he has a seed to plant, he must go out and plant that seed for humanity – he is duty bound! It is also stated in the al Hadith Tirmidzhi "he who cuts down a tree without proper reason God shall send him to hell fire!" Ironically, among the main component of curing properties for the new H1N1 anti viral serum would be resveratrol. It is a natural anti-bacterial component produced by several types of plants and fruits when under attack by pathogens such as bacterial elements. The survival art of a minuscule plant in nature that we may have taken for granted would somehow help mankind and womankind into another tomorrow. Thank goodness nature holds no grudge on mankind. We could perhaps best complete that point on our each and every own intellect. Indeed Allah is Great, stay in His Love.

Thank you Tun.

Dear Tun,

Even at the age of 84 you are still fighting and helping a noble cause. I can see many of the frustrations this unjustly Israel doing to the Palestinians which Tun still tirelessly help. Even boycotting products that finance the zionist regime has little effect on them.

However, we must not give up but instead find ways and means to stop them even little by little the effect is. Kalau susah nak boikot, kita tiru lah mereka(bukan idea baru). Make better BigMac and fish-o-fillet.

Government can play a role by providing incentives and R&D to capable bumis and non bumis, or challenge the GLCs to pave the way. Slowly but surely our effort will eat up their market share. If our products have surplus here(due to demand) still we can donate to Palestinians or other unfortunate countries that deserve our help. They are the ones who really need basic products and will not be as choosy as Malaysians. Its survival...even promised aid are not forthcoming from developed nations...know why?...(I will keep it to myself)

If I were to own a factory producing baby products locally, I do not mind sending or donating as many containers I can afford to Palestine. Maybe not money, because I do not have much...or maybe a locally made boats as a mean of transporting aid to Gaza. It is also a chance to introduce our locally made goods or products there. Hopefully, when conditions are better there, our products are their priority.(marketing through charity)

Why not give it a try again Tun?

Even if we fail, its worth it rather than monies spent going to scandalous politicians(no ill intentions on any political man).

Anyway, I still have faith in the generosity of Malaysians especially in you, Tun....May Allah SWT blessed you and your family always

Salam Tun,

Sad to hear the truth about Gaza. I can clearly understand what the Israelis are doing but what is shocking is the Egyptians. Any way its common and sad that we Muslims are not united.Its even happening in our own backyard dont have to travel thousands of miles to know this fact.

Anyway back to the Gaza. Admire your effort and hope your effort will reach the target you aim for. Personally I am not well to do but god willing will contribute what ever I can. I am sure many others who are well to do and will be contributing to this noble act that you have initiated.

Maybe there is another noble act that may catch your attention. The Malaysians who are suffering due to the bad economical climate as well as H1N1 which have brought a standstill to some companies especially travel agents. Maybe some sort of escape route can be initiated by the government with your help by initiating some brilliant ideas. Charity begins at home.

Ex-Lawmaker: We Were Arrested for Trying to Give Crayons to Children

At last, former six-term Congress member and Green Party presidential candidate Cynthia McKinney arrived in the Gaza Strip carrying humanitarian aid July 15.

Ms. McKinney's delegation is part of the group Viva Palestina, which conducted another aid mission from Europe earlier this year. This time the group entered Gaza through the Rafah border crossing with Egypt.

Ironically, Ms. McKinney's entry came just over a week after her deportation from Israel for trying to reach Gaza by sea. She was one of 21 activists kidnapped by the Israeli military in international waters as they tried to deliver humanitarian aid.

This is the third time Ms. McKinney has returned to the embattled area. Last July 7 she was “deported” from Israel. She was on “The Spirit of Humanity” which was seized on the open seas by the Israeli military June 28, as they tried to deliver humanitarian aid to Gaza. They were then taken to an Israeli jail, before they were deported.

Also aboard the Free Gaza boat—called “The Spirit of Humanity”—was Irish Nobel Peace Prize laureate Mairead Maguire.

“I went because there's a gross injustice being carried out every day,” Ms. McKinney told The Final Call following her release from the Israeli jail. “This is my second attempt to get into Gaza with the Free Gaza organization. And for the two times I attempted to get in, two times I have been thwarted by the Israeli military. The cause is the human rights of the Palestinian people.”

In January on another “Free Gaza” attempt to deliver aid, the Israeli navy threatened to shoot the civilian passengers on board. Just weeks before that, an Israeli Navy vessel deliberately rammed another “Free Gaza” boat—“The Spirit of Dignity”—with Ms. McKinney on board, almost forcing it to sink.

“The most interesting thing I witnessed was the seemingly endless stream of people of color who are being processed as we were being processed. And on my cell block, there were women from Africa and Asia who thought they were going to Israel because Israel was the Holy Land,” Ms. McKinney continued.

“And many of them, not all of them, but many of them had United Nations refugee status. They have been certified by UNHCR as refugees, but what they were told as they faced the threats and intimidation from the police is that the United Nations is not in Israel,” said Ms. McKinney. The women are left there to suffer.

Ms. McKinney was shocked to see the disproportionate numbers of Blacks inside Israeli jails for common “criminal” offenses, reminiscent of U.S. jails, disproportionately filled with non-Whites.

But Israel dismisses Ms. McKinney as an apologist for Israel's sworn enemy in Gaza— Hamas. Group members are called “terrorists” by Israel even though Hamas was the winner of municipal elections in Gaza to determine which Palestinian party would legally govern that territory. Ms. McKinney refuses to back-off.

“We just had a visit to Gaza by President Carter. Former President Carter,” Ms. McKinney said. “Basically, he acknowledged that with the complete and utter devastation that the people of Gaza experienced at the hands of weapons that were supplied to Israel by the United States, he said that unfortunately the Palestinians are treated worse than animals.

“I challenge the Israelis to respond to what President Carter had to say,” Ms. McKinney demanded.

“The Israelis high jacked and arrested us because we wanted to give crayons to the children in Gaza. We were detained, and we want the people of the world to see how we have been treated just because we wanted to deliver humanitarian assistance to the people of Gaza,” Ms. McKinney said.

The Israeli authorities tried to get the passengers to confess that they had committed a crime, that they had illegally entered Israel.

In Washington, supporters organized daily vigils near the Israeli embassy for the “Free Gaza 14.” Some of the original Free Gaza 21 had already been released when the protests began.

“The response (of the U.S. government) has not been the sort of response that in your memory and mine would be the case of even U.S. citizens, much less U.S. Congress people, former or current being pirated at sea and kidnapped and taken under custody by any country or element. I think there would have been a great hue and cry and even perhaps some intervention by military means,” John Judge, a former member of Ms. McKinney's congressional staff told The Final Call.

“Americans taken hostage are generally responded to with military force, or covert operations, or certainly public statements of outrage. But not in this case. This is the exceptionalism that seems to surround both these issues of Israel-Palestine, and Cynthia McKinney herself.”

Richard Falk, the UN special rapporteur on the situation of human rights in the Palestinian territories, denounced the “unlawful naval seizure by an Israeli gunboat on the high seas of a ship carrying medicine and reconstruction material to blockaded people of Gaza,” according to a UN statement released electronically from Geneva.

“This Israeli action implements its cruel blockade of the entire Palestinian population of Gaza, in violation of Article 33 of the Fourth Geneva Convention that prohibits any form of collective punishment directed at an occupied people,” Mr. Falk said. “Such a pattern of continuing blockade under these conditions amounts to such a serious violation of the Geneva Conventions as to constitute a continuing crime against humanity,” said the human rights authority.

“Let's change the world together and reclaim what we all need as human beings: Dignity,” Ms. McKinney said in a statement. “I appeal to the United Nations to get these women of Ramle, who have done nothing wrong other than to believe in Israel as the guardian of the Holy Land, resettled in safe homes,” she said of the women whom she met in the Israeli jail.

“I appeal to the United State's Department of State to include the plight of detained UNHCR-certified refugees in the Israel country report in its annual human rights report. I appeal once again to President Obama to go to Gaza: send your special envoy, George Mitchell there, and to engage Hamas as the elected choice of the Palestinian people,” her statement concluded.

Salam buat Tun berdua moga diberkati Allah s.w.t.

1)Maafkan saya.....menghairankan kenapa tiada pemilik-pemilik atau tuan punya kapal yang simpati dengan keadaan sekarang.Syarikat-syarikat besar seperti MISC atau Syarikat Perkapalan yang terlalu mementingkan menghantar petrolium.

2) Lebih senang memujuk golongan ini kerana terus boleh dapat kapal daripada bersusah payah mengutip wang orang ramai.Adakah golongan ini hanya untuk kepentingan ekonomi negara.Kalau begitu kerajaan tidak guna memberi peluang Syarikat-syarikat ini atas kepentingan minyak anugerah Allah s.w.t.Bagilah kepada rakyat memiliki minyak ini.Lagi pun rakyat yang membantu Syrikat minyak ini dengan membeli hasil minyak.

3)Rakyat telah pun diminta berkorban atas banyak malapetaka-malapetaka dengan berbagai kutipan atas nama dana bantuan kemanusiaan.

4)Kini tibalah masanya Syarikat-syarikat yang mempunyai kapal ditagih untuk membantu kerana ia akan menjadi lebih cepat...kerajaan membantu Syarikat anda sehingga berjaya takkan pula rakyat kena tanggung sudahnya rakyat juga yang banyak membeli untuk menguntungkan ekonomi Syarikat anda.

5)Rakyat tahu banyak dana bantuan hasil kutipan dari rakyat diselewengkan.....rakyat pilih pemimpin untuk membantu rakyat sebaliknya pemimpin tanya balik rakyat apa rakyat boleh bagi pada kerajaan.

6)Wahai rakyat lebih baik kita jadi ketua sebab boleh arah pemimpin bekerja bawah kita.Sebab kita lebih membantu segala mala petaka seperti Gaza ini....

7)Jangan relakan diri sebagai pemimpin atas sesuatu isu kalau rakyat yang ditagihkan kembali keatas bantuan itu..ini menunjukkan kelemahan kepimpinan.

8)Allah s.w.t memgurniakan segala-galanya secara percuma,sebaliknya pemimpin sesuatu kerajaan gagal memberi secara percuma sebaliknya dikenakan bayaran keatas rakyatnya...

9)Marilah kita sembah Allah s.w.t sebaliknya sah pemimpin yang kita harapkan tidak lebih macam kita malah boleh digunakan untuk kepentingan pemimpin itu..

10)Nabi Muhammad s.a.w ialah pemimpin yang terakhir bagi umat Islam yang tiada tolak bandingnya.

WALLAHUA'LAM

ASWBT Tun Mahathir,

Apakah firasat arwah Datuk saya hampir empat puluh dekad yang lalu awal 70an) ada mungkin nya jadi kenyataan!

Di dalam sebuah pondok usang di sebuah kampong di N.Sembilan seorang tua umur 60an berkata pada cucu nya dalam samar2 lampu pelita kerana tiada letrik dirumah tersebut

".....Satu hari bangsa Melayu lah yang akan membebaskan Al-Aqsa."

Ketika itu usia saya agaknya 15tahun dan hanya saya dan dia yang mengalamun di dalam kepekatan malam disuasanai bunyi riuh-rengik cengkerik. Baru kini saya faham akan hikmah berjaga malam dan tiadanya kelalaian yg timbul melalui hiburan dan TV. Alangkah baik nya jika anak2 saya pun melalui pengalaman sedemikian ?

Teruskan perjuangan ayahanda Tun. Semoga firasat dan doa Datuk saya jadi kenyataan insyaAllah bagi hamba2Nya yang Jujur dan Sabar.

It really bothers me when i read about the plight of the palestinians.

About the crude injustice that is being done to them. I dont think there is anywhere else in the world where such injustice is happening. These people are treated worst than animals...and on their own land!! The land where they have resided for thousands of years. And they are being cleansed from their own motherland. And what has the world done? Nothing!! The useless corrupted and greedy king of Jordan..and president of egypt and all the arab monarchs have turn their backs on them...just to safe their own asses and their wealth.They have sided with the devil and his army. In malaysia...when you squat on someone else's land for years and when the owners try to evict you...we shout injustice and demand for compensation.We accuse the goverment of being cruel to evict the squatters. But look at the Palestinians.... see how unfair this world is. And we malaysians keeps complaining that this and that race is being side line and how certain policy is being unfair to certain race. We are so damn lucky to be malaysian. Lets just hope that the opposition leader do not come to power in the next election in order to safe guard our national interest and our sovereignty.

Each time the Palestinians fight back with rockets they are labelled terrorists. I noticed that even our local newspapers have labelled Hamas as 'Militants'. I have another word to label them.... Freedom Fighters.Which they really are!! Tell me....am i wrong to label them this way?? or will someone out there label me a terrorist sympathizer..... They may be labelled terrorist for their attacks on civilians depending on how you define terrorist. But they do not posses tanks..helicopter gunships...drones...or any of the elite weaponry from the U.S of A. so they use humans as their guided missiles. Is it wrong or is it ok to do that? i dont know... but all i know is that they are a very desperate people. And desperate people will and can go the extreme.

To me.. I feel that the atrocities done to the palestinians should not be seen in the context of religion....or about islam. To me it is not. Its all about one particular race which feels that they are superior from the rest...and evicting another race which they feel is inferior. A jew once said that all the lives of the palestinians is not worth a drop of of jewish blood. They wanted the land of palestine because its the centre of europe, asia and america. Its a very strategic land to rule the world.

So TUN, please tell everyone here that this is not a muslim's fight for justice....its a fight for all humans beings flesh and blood like you and me for Real justice, REAL human rights and freedom from oppression. I thank you for keeping our country free from foreign rule for the whole of your tenure as Prime minister.The western press hates you because they know that as long as you are our Prime Minister there is no way that they can EVER rule or colonize us. So they label you with all sorts of names...but to me...the 'Mahathirism' era was the golden years of our country and I hope that the current prime minister can bring back that era again.When you were Prime Minister and you spoke out about how unfair the world is and how useless and irrelevant the United Nations was and still is...I was so proud! So proud that my leader has the guts to stand there and tell the truth about what the U.N has become. I cant really think of any head of state that is brave enough to do that.You have my utmost respect. Your Blog is the only blog that I read. Because what you write here makes perfect sense! and it is all for the betterment of our country. and ...you are definitively NOT a racist!!

Thank you once again.

Tun

A different subject from the above though, would like you to read this article, which I understand was written by your nephew, Ahmad Mustapha titled 'Lee Kuan Yew: At 85, The Fire Still Burns'.

Quote

A frank discourse by a bumiputra of Malaysia.

LEE KUAN YEW : AT 85 , THE FIRE STILL BURNS

BY *AHMAD MUSTAPHA

*The writer is a nephew of Dr Mahathir.

Singapore's Minister Mentor, Lee Kuan Yew, who was Singapore's founding father, has always been very direct in his comments. This was the man who outsmarted the communists in Singapore (with the innocent help of Malaya then and the willing help of the British) and who later outwitted the British and outpaced Malaysia in all spheres.

Singapore practices corrupt-free meritocracy and Malaysia affirmative action. The former attracted all the best brains and the latter chased out all the brains. The Singapore cabinet consists of dedicated and intelligent technocrats whereas Malaysia has one of the most unwieldy cabinets. Not only that, brain wise it was below par not even good for the kampong.

With that kind of composition, one that is very brainy, naturally Singapore, with no natural resources could outstrip Malaysia in every aspect of development. Malaysia, on the other hand, was too much preoccupied with its Malayness and the illusory 'Ketuanan Melayu' and was also more interested in useless mega iconic development rather than real social and economic development.

Whenever Kuan Yew utters anything that deemed to be a slight on Malaysia, voices were raised admonishing him. Malaysia would never dare to face reality. That Singapore had shown that it could survive was a slap on those who believed that Singapore would fold up once it left Malaysia. Therefore it was natural that these doomsayers would try to rationalise their utterances to be in their favour to combat on whatever Kuan Yew commented. Its political jealousy.

Singapore achieved its development status without any fanfare. But here in Malaysia, a development that was deceptive was proclaimed as having achieved development status. It was trumpeted as an achievement that befits first world status. This was self delusion. Malaysians are led to believe into a make believe world, a dream world. The leaders who themselves tend to believe in their own fabricated world did not realise the people were not taken in by this kind of illusion.

Lee Kuan Yew believed in calling a spade a spade. I was there in Singapore when the People's Action Party won the elections in 1959. He was forthright in his briefing to party members as to what was expected of them and what Singapore would face in the future. Ideologically, I did not agree with him. We in the University of Malaya Socialist Club had a different interpretation of socialist reconstruction. But he was a pragmatist and wanted to bring development and welfare to the Singaporeans. Well! He succeeded.

Malaysia was so much embroiled in racial politics and due to the fear of losing political power, all actions taken by the main party in power was never targeted towards bringing wealth to all. Wealth was distributed to the chosen few only. They were the cronies and the backers of the party leadership to perpetuate their own selfish ends.

Seeing the efficiency and the progress achieved by Singapore caused the Malaysian leadership to suffer from an inferiority complex. That Malaysia should suffer from this complex was of its own making.

In a recent interview, Kuan Yew said that Malaysia could have done better if only it treated its minority Chinese and Indian population fairly. Instead they were completely marginalized and many of the best brains left the country in droves. He added that Singapore was a standing indictment to what Malaysia could have done differently. He just hit the nail right there on the head.

Malaysia recently celebrated its 50th year of independence with a bagful of uncertainties. The racial divide has become more acute. The number of Malay graduates unemployed is on the increase. And this aspect can be very explosive. But sad to see that no positive actions have been taken to address these social ills.

Various excuses were given by Malaysian leaders why Singapore had far outstripped Malaysia in all aspects of social and economic advancement. Singapore was small, they rationalized and therefore easy to manage. Singapore was not a state but merely an island.

There was one other aspect that Malaysia realized and that is to realize all aspects of life. All government organs and machinery were 'UMNO-ised'. This was to ensure that the party will remain in power. Thus there was this misconception by the instruments of government as to what national interest is and what UMNO vested interest is.

UMNO vested interest only benefited a few and not the whole nation. But due to the UMNO-isation of the various instruments of government, the country under the present administration had equated UMNO vested interest as being that of national interest. Thus development became an avenue of making money and not for the benefit of the people. The fight against corruption took a back seat. Transparency was put on hold. And the instruments of government took it to be of national interest to cater to the vested interest of UMNO. Enforcement of various enactments and laws was selective. Thus a 'palace' in Kelang, Aps cronies and close-one-eye umno MPs could exist without proper procedure. Corruption infested all govt departments, the worse is the police and lately even in the judiciary.

Singapore did not realize its instruments of government. If ever realization took place, it is guided by national interest. To be efficient and to be the best in the region was of paramount importance. Thus all the elements like corruption, lackadaisical attitude towards work and other black elements, which would retard such an aim, were eliminated. Singapore naturally had placed the right priority in its pursuit to achieve what is best for its people. This is the major difference between these two independent countries.

Malaysia in its various attempts to cover up its failures embarked on several diversions. It wanted its citizens to be proud that the country had the tallest twin-tower in the world, although the structure was designed and built by foreigners. Its now a white-elephant wasting away. It achieved in sending a man into space at an exorbitant price. For what purpose? These are what the Malays of old would say "menang sorak" (hollow victories).

It should be realized that administering a country can be likened to managing a corporate entity. If the management is efficient and dedicated and know what they are doing, the company will prosper.. The reverse will be if the management is poor and bad. The company will go bust.

There are five countries around this region. There is Malaysia, and then Indonesia. To the east there is the Philippines and then there is that small enclave called the Sultanate of Brunei . All these four countries have abundance of natural resources but none can lay claim to have used all these resources to benefit the people. Poverty was rampant and independence had not brought in any significant benefits to the people.

But tiny Singapore without any resources at all managed to bring development to its citizens. It had one of the best public MRT transport systems and airlines in the world and it is a very clean city state. Their universities, health care, ports are among the best in the world.

It is impossible to compare what Singapore has achieved to what all these four countries had so far achieved. It was actually poor management and corruption, and nothing more. Everything is done for the vested interest of the few.

Malaysia, Indonesia and the Philippines and the Sultanate of Brunei need good management teams. They would not be able to do this on their own steam. I would advise that they call on Kuan Yew to show them what good governance is. Why look East to Japan when it is just next door across the causeway.

Assalamualaikum. Pertama kali saya memberi komen di sini. Apabila timbul isu memboikot Israel, yang pasti Amerika turut terlibat. Ingin saya berlongsi dengan semua yang bagi saya tidak ramai mengetahui.

Umum menyatakan kita perlu memboikot produk keluaran Amerika, namun sedar atau tidak, barangan buatan Malaysia juga berkait rapat dengan Israel. Pengalaman bekerja mengendali bahan mentah makanan di sebuah kilang coklat dan sebuah kilang memproses jus telah memberi saya peluang untuk mendedahkan betapa liciknya Israel ini menguasai ekonomi dunia. Israel melalui Orthodox Union memainkan peranan penting menguasai ekonomi. Kebanyakan barangan mempunyai logo OU, mirip seperti logo copyright cuma huruf C diganti dengan huruf U. Di antara bahan mentah yang pernah saya temui logo ini adalah seperti asid sitrik yang banyak digunakan di dalam penghasilan minuman. Selain itu bertih beras yang digunakan untuk penghasilan coklat juga adalah daripada syarikat yang berhubungkait dengan Orthodox Union ini.

Sebuah syarikat pembekal pewarna dan perasa di Kota Kemuning Shah Alam turut membekalkan produk syarikat yang mempunyai logo OU ini. Apa yang menyedihkan, syarikat ini mempunyai sijil halal yang diperakui Jakim. Status halal, akan tetapi berkait rapat dengan Israel. Sedih .

Apakah kita perlu memboikot barangan tempatan yang menggunakan produk OU ini? Jika ya, maka boikotlah jus atau kordial pasaraya besar di sekyen 13 Shah Alam berhampiran bulatan ke lubuh raya persekutuan. Jus syarikat lain seperti syarikat MLM yang mempunyai WAY dibelakang menggunakan bahan mentah OU. Begitu juga jus iklan beruang di TV3. Ataupun kita boikot barangan coklat keluaran sebuah syarikat di Persiaran Raja Muda.

Diharap di antara kita yang mempunyai pekerjaan yang berkait rapat dengan bahan mentah ini boleh meneliti adakah terdapat lambang OU ini. Semoga dapat didedahkan untuk semua.

P/s : Tun, cheq la ni tak keja dah situ. Takmau la bersubahat dengan Israel.

salamun 'alaikum

1. one will have to go out in the path of Allah swt & meet people, perform dakwah, invite them to Masjid, strengthen amal.
2. meet different people, to different places in the world, as inner strength will have to be solid before thinking of saving others. dakwah was ment for ownself, but through telling others about iman.
3. when this is being done, make doa & let Allah swt decides what to do with Gaza. this was the method thought by Nabi saw & it will always be that way. As Allah swt always seeks soul with strong iman that shines in resulting of practising method thought by its beloved prophet, Rasulullah saw.

Will i support your Gaza work as a human being? I will.
But will I support you? No.

Why? I don't see any sincerity in you to help peoples of the world in general.

You are only interested in Championing Muslims Interest and you don't give a damn about the rest of us (non-Muslims).

I used to respect and idolize you as a model Prime Minister before but not now.

Assalamualaikum Tun,

I am mostly touched by this revelation. How true that, as far as Palestine is concerned, we are living in a very 'uncivilised' world that is ruled by the superpowers. And how ironic that these people are the ones who are championing the so-called human rights!

I believe that the peace-loving Malaysians will donate to the KLFCW.

Thanks to you for always reminding others of the sufferings and struggles of people are the victims of wars.
