

LABU AIRPORT
Chedet.co.cc
January 17, 2009
By Dr. Mahathir Mohamad

1. Air Asia has done well to explain the justification for the so-called KLIA-East in Labu.
2. Not having the facilities and personnel I can only give my very unprofessional view on the justification:

a) Passenger Capacity

I must congratulate Air Asia on its very remarkable success. By 2014 it will handle 26 million passengers. Present terminal at KLIA is handling about 25 million passengers.

KLIA is planned to handle 125 million passengers. It has 25,000 acres of land to build another terminal and four satellites. It can even duplicate these terminals and satellites. But Air Asia wants low-cost terminals with no aero-bridge, no luxury interiors. This is not a problem for KLIA.

There is enough space in the 25,000 acres of reserved land to build the low-cost terminal to accommodate the 60 million Air Asia passengers in the distant future. MAHB (Malaysia Airports Holdings Berhad) can do this. (Incidentally Putrajaya has only 10,000 acres of land). However, by 2014 the total number of Air Asia passengers would only be 27 million. Accommodating this number should be no big deal for MAHB.

b) Runway capacity

By 2014 Air Asia will have 77 aircrafts. LCCT capacity will still be for 33 aircrafts. Does Air Asia expect all its aircrafts to be on the ground in LCCT all the time?

Usually some would be in the air and many would be at other airports. Expanding the parking area would not be too difficult. There would still be enough land at KLIA.

As for the runways Times Online reports that Heathrow will now build its third runway to be completed in 2020. Presently Heathrow has only two runways and it still handles almost 70 million passengers.

As stated above, KLIA can build another three runways to handle 125 million passengers. If passengers and aircrafts increase to more than presently handled by Heathrow, a third runway can quickly be built.

If KLIA LCCT is not connected by rail and bus, the thing to do is to provide all these. Extension to the Express Rail Link line can be built. Terrain is no problem. We have sliced through higher hills to build roads.

If the waiting time for taxis has increased due to the huge airport layout (I don't understand this), whatever solution for this problem is proposed for Labu, the same solution can also be applied to KLIA LCCT.

c) Number of Gates

Since Air Asia will not be using the main terminal why should the small number of gates there be of concern to Air Asia?

If Air Asia will be putting more than 55 Gates at Labu to cater for its large number of aircrafts and movements, why cannot LCCT at KLIA be expanded to have maybe 100 Gates to avoid any shortages?

Will Labu be provided with 100 Gates? If so, when? Again, why be bothered about KLIA Terminal being equipped with aero-bridges etc when Air Asia does not want to use it?

3. The comparison with Dubai and Jackson Atlanta International Airport is misleading.

4. The picture shows four runways (no indication which airport). Multiple runways is common but they are operated by one airport with one control tower. The picture and the layout does not suggest separate towers for different runways. You cannot have multiple runways close to each other but controlled by different towers.

5. Perhaps Air Asia can show documents that separations between different airport runways of 2km are permissible. Is there any example of two major airports operating separately but located 2km from each other? I don't know. Please enlighten me.

6. The problem prompting the idea of a new airport is the allegedly high charges by MAHB for the use of LCCT by Air Asia. MAHB is owned by Khazanah and it is believed Khazanah has a stake in Air Asia. Both are therefore GLCs. The Government can tell them to negotiate fair charges. Or is it the Government that wants this airport at Labu for reasons other than need?

7. Or is it that Sime Darby now wants to go into airport business?

Salam Tun,

Saya tak nampak ketulusan kerajaan dalam perkara KLIA-East ni, melainkan nak menghabiskan duit rakyat. Dan kerajaan akan berterusan mengatakan 'KITA BUAT NI SEMUA UNTUK RAKYAT'...padahal menghabiskan duit rakyat. Maaf Tun, but we should change the government to make sure that the government tidak sesuka hati belanja ikut hati. Sebagai contoh, pembelian peralatan untuk institut2 latihan, 10 projek hanya diberi kepada 10 syarikat kroni, sedangkan puluhan lagi syarikat2 kecil yang menunggu projek2 sebegini. Yang kaya bertambah kaya, yang kayap bertambah kayap.

Salam.

Assalamualaikum Tun,

Walaubagaimana sekali pun alasan dan perkara yang cuba diterangkan oleh pihak AirAsia. Pastinya ia adalah amat melucukan.

Hari ini kita sudah ada 2 airport terminal. KLIA & LCCT.

Buat apa lagi nak ada kat labu? Jauh dari K.L.

Apa mungkin ia hanya baik untuk penduduk Utara Johor, Melaka & Negeri Sembilan.

Kesimpulannya kalau PM nak tinggalkan LEGASI nya sempat ke dia buat perasmian? atau bakal Ketua

Jadi saranan saya, selepas ni kita pastikan saja mereka2 ni tak dapat berkuasa lagi....

Tapi boleh! jika iman Kita kuatlah dengan dugaan KEMEWAHAN & HABUAN dari orang yang pernah paling berkuasa di tingkat 4 JPM.

we dont need another airport at the same place. it would look crowded and messy. not elegant at all and shame to us malaysian for not being able to manage our space efficiently..

By "My Way"Author Profile Page on January 17, 2009 4:40 PM

Dear Tun,

The explanation by Tony really shows how much they want that KLIA-East badly.

It is true that we have such a huge amount of land at the present KLIA and all we need is just build another 1 or 2 satellite building exclusively for Air Asia only.

Ironically, the Cabinet can just agree to the idea or probably they are just 'yes man' to the PM and Tony. Sime Darby definitely fits the puzzle in this debacle as well! It must be a farewell gift for the PM, good grief! Probably it would be called Abdullah Badawi International Airport!...God forbid!

Just hope that this battle wud not die-off, we've got to have our say and tell the government how much we are against this wastage of having another airport or will just be another laughing stock to Singapore and Thailand....which we are....

Ybhg. Tun.

Sebagai salah seorang ALUMNI SMAP (Sek. Men. Agama Persekutuan, Labu) dan pernah menghabiskan masa 5 tahun disana ketika dahulu, saya ingin ucapkan BRAVO dan TAHNIAH kepada kedua-dua AirAsia dan Sime Darby kerana berjaya mewujudkan satu lagi airport yang canggih di negara ini.

Saya juga seorang pengguna aktif LCCT di KLIA memandangkan saya bermastautin di Semporna, Sabah. Dalam satu tahun, lebih 8 kali saya menggunakan LCCT sebagai 'gate' untuk saya berulang-alik dari Malaysia Timur dan Malaysia Barat. Saya merasakan agak rimas kerana 'kesesakan manusia' setiap kali saya berada di LCCT.

Tetapi, selaku manusia yang berfikiran sihat (ditambah lagi hidup 22 tahun dizaman Tun yang selalu meminta rakyat memperkasa dan membudayakan ilmu) saya lihat banyak ruang kosong dan jalanraya yang panjang berlingkar-lingkar untuk sampai ke LCCT. Jika LCCT diperbesarkan dengan mempergunakan tanah yang saya sebutkan tadi, maka tidak perlu kita bersusah-payah untuk membina sebuah lagi LCC di Labu, Negeri Sembilan.

Tetapi, macam Tun katakan dulu 'Sime Darby is as good as the government', maka siapalah saya selaku rakyat marhaen ini dan biasanya jika bersuara pun akan dikategorikan sebagai 'suara-suara sumbang' sahaja.

Dengan ini saya sekali lagi menyambut saranan pembinaan airport baru ini dengan seribu tandatanya (berdukacita dan menyampah) dengan tindak-tanduk 'Ayahanda' Perdana Menteri kita kini, anak-menantunya, kroninya dan segala pencacai/tukang kipasnya dan mendoakan agar ia berjaya dilaksanakan (sesuai dengan kehendak rakyat yang sudah jemu dan jijik dengan pentadbiran BN sekarang ini) supaya kelak ia menjadi 'memorial' kepada keruntuhan sebuah dinasti.

Seperkara tentang media kerajaan - saya juga mengucapkan SYABAS kerana sentiasa menyiarkan berita-berita berat sebelah dan teruskanlah siaran anda supaya BN akan tersungkur terus di bumi Malaysia.

Mungkinkah pertukaran pucuk pimpinan akan berlaku pada March ini? sama-sama kita tunggu. Kalau saya jadi PakLah saya akan kata: "Saya tidak boleh memilih Datuk Najib kerana dia telah membuatkan BN kalah dua kali berturut-turut di Pulau Pinang dan Terengganu. Saya tidak boleh mewariskan kuasa kepada orang yang menyebabkan kekalahan parti. Maka dengan itu saya terus menjadi PM sampai masa yang ditentukan kelak. Lagipun, LCCT di Labu baru sahaja siap dan masih belum lagi saya rasmikan". Sebaik saya melafazkan kata-kata itu... seperti biasa, maka saya pun 'TER'tidur lena.

Salam hormat YABhg Tun,

Merger Sime Darby (SD), Guthrie dan Golden Hope belum tentu menguntungkan pemilik saham, khususnya pemegang saham ASB kerana ada merger yang gagal; yang pasti untung beratus juta ialah oihak tertentu (pakar runding dan broker).

Kemudian SD buat kesilapan kerana tamak untuk memiliki IJN sehingga rakyat mengamuk. SD gagal untuk belajar dari kesilapan tersebut lalu melakukan kesilapan yang lebih bodoh lagi iaitu hendak membina lapangan terbang di Labu.

Tun Musa Hitam selaku Pengerusi dan Pengarah Urusan SD (DATO' AHMAD ZUBIR MUSHID) patut letak jawatan untuk memikul kesilapan dan kebodohan tersebut.

Salam Tun,

Apa cerita ni? KLIA ngan Labu tu berapa jauh ada ke 3000 km jarak nya. Asyik nak bazirkan duit rakyat je apahal ni. Cubalah cari jalan lain yg bermanfaat sikit agar wang rakyat digunakan untuk betul2 kepada keperluan rakyat. Nilah masalah yg dihadapi oleh org besar. Mmg ada 'dapat' sikit kalau buat projek mega tu.

KLIA still the best our airport and at he moment our country no urgency to built new airport. So why to waste our rakyat money.

this sounds like another monumental waste of money which is quite common nowadays.. even klia seems to be underutilized.. there,s no point in building a new one.. unless to fill certain people's pockets he even make a special blog to explain to pplz about this stupid airport.

i wonder who is behind this project... i don't think it's tony...

SAY NO TO KLIA IN LABU

By sniperAuthor Profile Page on January 17, 2009 5:23 PM

i don't know why they call it the 'rakyat's terminal'.

it's supposed to be a terminal for everyone in the world! it's an international airport for god's sake. make it simple, link it up closely and let travelers have an easy transit experience. the more people there are in one single place the more an airport's shops there would be - that would be good for the local economy. being a budget terminal miles away, we have to drag our 30+kg of luggage from one terminal all the way to another and line up again to check in. what are foreigners going to think about this? why would someone need to transit in KL if they can do so much easier in singapore?

i'm sure we can build another extension of the existing KLIA with a smaller budget without the so called 'luxuries'.

furthermore if there's so many places one can fly to from KLIA's budget extension, there might be even more airlines willing to fly to KL. it's a synergy that will bring about growth.

please focus on the benefit to both the country and the travelers who paid to travel (by air i mean - not by carrying luggage, taking trains/cabs for miles, and line up again as if there's no better thing to do.)

By Muhammad HalimAuthor Profile Page on January 17, 2009 5:33 PM

More things to consider tun

-Building an airport involves heavy investment in a depleting resource.

Many geologists agree that the world supply of cheap oil has peaked and is declining. Major oil companies have reported that the replacement rate of their oil reserves has plunged. The fact that rail gives more value for the oil buck is widely known but bears repeating. A 150-seat airplane has a fuel consumption rate of 44.7 passenger miles per gallon. By comparison, a train of five coaches with at least 300 passenger seats has a fuel consumption rate of 292 passenger miles per gallon.

-Air travel is a heavy polluter

An airport at Labu would provide another setback to Malaysian's commitment to reduce air pollution. Air pollution is just one of several negative environmental effects of airports. The deicing process and spilled aviation fuel are water pollutants. Building runways often requires the realignment of waterways; an activity that has serious implications to others.

-An airport at Labu will produce jobs, but at a price.

Admittedly, airports generate jobs both directly and indirectly. However, the view that jobs must always trump environmental concerns is short sighted and dangerous since it makes no provision for experimentation and innovation. Industries, particularly emerging industries that are environmentally benign can also produce significant numbers of jobs if they are given the opportunity and the support.

-Construction of an airport at Labu will take fertile agricultural land out of production. (kelapa sawit, kolam ikan maybe)

Taking this land out of production accelerates the already destructive decline of land available for cultivation.

-The close proximity of the proposed Labu Airport to the KL International Airport is a recipe for disaster. The two are much too close for comfort.

-The "demand" for air transportation is a created demand.

The usual "demand" argument is recited in the draft report as a reason to build an airport at Labu. The usage of LCCT is expected to increase, therefore, "...so does the need for accessible and convenient air travel."

The belief that certain modes of transportation are more popular than others and therefore, should be supplied has a flaw wide enough to hold a Bombardier jet. "Build it and they will come" is the explanation for this phenomenon. In other words, provide air travel and neglect alternative forms of transportation, and the public will choose to fly. Rail, is a neglected alternative that needs to be built.

Ask Air Asia do Water Asia or Land Asia. The Labu airport brings no good. The existing airport LCCT and KLIA should be fully utilized first before building a new one. KLIA should be more flexible with the leasing and licensing.

Sekian.

Saya berpendapat Master Plan asal KLIA harus diikuti bagi mengelak pembaziran. Amat menyedihkan pelaksanaan sesuatu projek yang dikaitkan dengan rakyat sebenarnya dilaksanakan hanya untuk kepentingan suatu kumpulan tanpa memikirkan manfaatnya kepada masyarakat. Dengan hubungan lebuh raya yang baik diantara Kuala Lumpur, Seremban dan Melaka maka pembinaan KLIA East tidak akan memberikan impak yang besar kepada pengembangan ekonomi.

Kerajaan harus lebih rasional dalam melaksanakan sesuatu projek agar dalam kegawatan ekonomi ketika ini hanya perancangan yang lebih teliti akan dapat membantu pemulihan ekonomi dengan lebih cepat lagi.

Saya bukan penentang pembangunan tetapi ingin mengingatkan kerajaan bahawa rakyat sudah pandai menilai dan tidak menerima bulat-bulat apa yang dihidangkan oleh kerajaan.

Saya berharap kerajaan menimbang semula keputusan ini.

Selamat Berjuang Tun.

Again Sime Darby with its redundant business intentions. I suggest that they (Sime Darby) should look into reviving Plaza Rakyat replacing that old obsolete Puduraya or, why don't the decision makers at Sime Darby just take a ride in our Monorail from KL Sentral to Chow Kit and see many unfinished/incomplete building left idle, right in the city centre that can turn to new business centre/usage.

I am a big fan of AirAsia for what it has done to Malaysia. It has allowed Malaysians from all walks of life to travel to see the world, to widen their horizons, to open up opportunities elsewhere at minimal costs. It has also proudly enhanced Malaysia's name to the rest of the world. I admire Dato Tony Fernandes very much and I feel he fully deserves the credit he gets.

However, the 'KLIA East' proposal, in my opinion, makes no sense. I have tried to review the pro's & con's of this proposed project and I personally feel that the con's outweigh the pro's this time.

It is simple; duplication is a waste of resources, even if it is financed privately by SimeDarby. Especially with the proposed site being so close to the current airport.

I also feel that MAHB should work with AirAsia to come to a compromise regarding the airport fees, direct access to the ERL at the LCCT etc. It can and it should be achieved for the benefit of all parties and the country as a whole. If this is done then , AirAsia can do what it is best at (running a low cost carrier), MAHB can do what it is best at (running airports) and SimeDarby can do what it is best at which is running plantations.

ini semua sebab krisis antara Air Asia dan MAHB. Kedua2 entiti ini mempunyai hubungan yang sangat tawar. MAHB memang selama ini tidak menyukai Air Asia kerana Air Asia begitu banyak songeh, banyak cakap dan banyak provoke. Air Asia pula merasa begitu hebat dan rasa terhina apabila MAHB tidak mendengar cakap mereka, kerana pihak Air Asia merasakan mereka lebih bijak dari MAHB.

Semua ini berlaku adalah berdasarkan emosional decision, not a strategical decision. Air Asia gah kerana anak angkat Perdana Menteri berbanding MAHB.

Dua2 ini adalah kebanggaan rakyat Malaysia. kenapa perlu berelagah semata mata untuk menaikkan nama dan kehebatan masing2 dengan mengorbankan nilai2 kesejahteraan untuk rakyat dan alam?

Nampak di sini, ketamakkan (greddy) melampaui moral. sudah2lah...upgrade saja LCCT kat KLIA tu. untuk kos rendah sebagai pengangkutan sambungan dari kapal terbang, bina sahaja komuter dari LCCT melalui laluan2 baru yang lebih menguntungkan termasuk ke dalam putrajaya berbanding ERL, bina monorail untuk hubungkan terminal utama KLIA dengan LCCT, bina lebih banyak hotel murah dan lebih baik Sime Darby usahakan kawasan penempatan baru di kawasan berdekatan LCCT itu sebagai pusat pertumbuhan baru.

Kemudahan teksi dan bas sudah ada. tidak ada masalah.

mengenai kemudahan lapangan terbang itu sendiri, sebagai terminal tambang murah, nampak tidak ada masalah untuk membesarkan landasan dan pintu masuk kapal terbang. Cuma bina sahaja.

Yang penting, MAHB kurangkan birokrasi, Air Asia pula berhati perut.
Ka hebat kalau kedua-dua entiti hak milik Malaysia ni bekerjasama elok2.

"Jangan kerana nampak jerami itu kering, kita hanya guna puntung rokok sahaja untuk membakarnya, padahal di dalamnya ada banya yang masih basah".

Jangan biarkan diri CEO2 hebat kita dibelenggu ketamakkan dan kebodohan abad baru.

"55 Gates", etc

If there is no bridge, wouldn't a huge waiting hall with taxing buses be sufficient?
What's this great need for gates?
Are they having flights every minute?
Mind boggling.
By kamal ahmad Author Profile Page on January 17, 2009 6:17 PM

Salam Ayahanda Tun. This Labu airport is close to being put into deep freeze by the board of Sime Darby. It was all just a bail out for Air Asia parent company, Tune Air. Its an open secret that Tune Air had a disastrous financial year 2008. Creative accounting in or otherwise, that's the real tune this time Tun. From what I've heard, that new Labu Airport would be anew cash cow for Tony. He could either operate it directly or make good money over it with all LCC flying into Malaysia be made to use that airport by the government, or he could just lease out the whole package and just go relax somewhere counting his millions and perhaps even billions. In any case, it would be a breather on his current economic pitfall. What is an airport without a runway? Its like the penguin, technically classified as a bird, but it can't fly and can only swims. So Tony Fernandez expected all the planes to taxi in and out of the Labu Airport into the runways at KLIA, and then changed that into "building a runway" for the new airport? It all just sounds like an ill prepared statement and mere postscript afterthoughts. The new Labu Airport was set to nestled smack in the corridors of Sime Darby Central Vision Valley, a new town ship encompassing several smaller bird brains development packages. Well, like I have said before – for Tony to sell the idea of a "stand alone airport" would be kind of a hard push even for the owner of 70 airbuses. So couple that to the Sime Darby Central Vision Valley, that happens to be promising spurring this and that, so maybe it would look like a real honest to goodness economic stimulus development package for Labu and its vicinity. So we come to my next point, which is: both Air Asia wants to go into the airport business and construction sector, or Sime Darby wanting to into airport business and maybe even the LCCs. Sounds like there exist a common platform in between those two and it also sound like there is a common player here. A silent and yet elegant common player trying to bail out cronies with that quickie airport in Labu, sugar coated with the Sime Darby Central Vision Valley thing. So if this goes through, I am almost 95% sure that only the Labu Air Asia Airport would see the light of day, leaving Sime Darby Central Vision Valley eating dust. Air Asia (and cronies) needs a bailout, and an LCCT airport business would fix that (and they don't really need a runway), it would do wonders to their balance sheets locally and internationally. A stand alone airport is a no go idea. So get Black Moses to cook up a bird brained development package to it and then just get things on the go and just confuse enough people to actually see it gets done. This would improve all the credit ratings on Air Asia, and maybe even perhaps make it attractive enough to offer some new foreign partners into their business for some really quick cash deal...or why not just sell everything at a much improved pricing and parachute out with Abdullah? Its all about covering loses and a soft bailout. Tun, this all reminds me more and more to the aborted millions at ECM Libra Capital Berhad in 2006 - with those dim witted duo, Kali and Khairy. But now its Tony and Khairy. :)

Salam TUN,

All the facts that you highlighted do make sense to instigate the need for another airport. The only possible reason could be - they (AIRASIA) want an autonomy from MAHB. They want to prove that they can do better than MAHB.

I watched Tony's presentation to justify for the new airport. He acted like a developer, an architect and perhaps a politician as he used a catchy word 'RAKYAT' for marketing. The issue here is that the fund will be from a private company so that no issue of government involvement etc...It has to be seen in a much broader perspective. What about the land acquisition and ownership? Why in Labu, Negeri Sembilan? Issue of sustainability? Environmental issue? etc...

If the government allows this development to realise. I would have thought that PETRONAS can even venture into many areas of business. Or even PNB. Petronas has cash reserve. Petronas can always build not only 1 may be 2 or 3 airports. The point is that focus in business area. Why can't Tony just focus on how to make profit on airline business rather than being a developer, an architect and a politician. Soon he will come out with the idea of producing Airasia oil in order to fly their aircrafts.

Airasia will never represent a Malaysian business company from my perspective as they are many evidences to indicate that the company belittled MAS and the country. One of its marketing banner in Brisbane shows that 'YOU PAY PEANUTS YOU GET MALAYSIA'. How would you interpret that?

Kerajaan sepatutnya memikirkan apa yang sepatutnya dilakukan untuk menangani masalah kesesakan di LCCT dengan membelanjakan peruntukan ke arah itu. Bukan dengan membina satu lagi lapangan terbang yang akan menyesakkan ruang udara kita.

Thank you, Tun for highlighting this new project at Labu. I've just returned from Jakarta using the new arrival terminal LCCT. I've also been flying Air Asia to new destinations. And everytime I fly AA, I always think highly of Tony Fernandes and like to thank him for what he has done for Msia.

But this new development at Labu seems to be souring my impression of him as a genuine entrepreneur, the man who beat the big boys and Malaysia Airlines and came out victorious. Now is the opposite. He seems like the corporate opportunist using political connections for his own advantage at the expense of Asian taxpayers and Asia too. He is just another grovelling $$$ man. Whether he is being used or otherwise, for their greediness, I do not know. If he is, then Mr Tony Fernandes, you don't deserve the accolade given upon you.

Salam sejahtera YBhg Tun,

Nampaknya mereka seolah-olah tidak tahu atau memang mengeneipkan prinsip2 Kejuruteraan Awam dan prinsip2 Perancangan Bandar (KLIA Master Plan, etc). Prinsip2 tersebut amat penting untuk pembangunan yang teratur dan terancang sehingga ke 100 tahun.

KLIA mungkin dikategorikan didalam 50 years ataupun 100 years design.

Daerah Labu masterplan tak boleh pakai lah dengan adanya airport baru ni. Kena buat baru..

Tun, tolong jawab dengan isu ini:-

Singapura

Republik ini walaupun kecil tetapi taringnya lebih besar dari Harimau Malaya. Maka tidak hairanlah jika ada orang mengatakan jika Malaysia berperang dengan Singapura maka Malaysia akan kalah.

Sejauh manakah kebenaran kata-kata ini?

Jawabannya memang benar. Singapura yang kecil itu sebenarnya menguasai hampir keseluruhan sistem keselamatan Malaysia melalui tali barut-tali barut di Malaysia. Boleh dikatakan tiang seri ekonomi Malaysia hampir 60 % dimakan anai-anai Israel yang bersarang di Singapura.

Israel Menguasai Malaysia Melalui Singapura

Dalam menguruskan sistem keselamatan negara, salah satu aspek penting ialah sistem komunikasi dalaman iaitu antara pejabat persekutuan dengan ibu pejabat negeri. Kawalan ke atas sistem komunikasi amat penting kerana kebocoran maklumat akan menyebabkan pihak luar mudah meneroka strategi rahsia keselamatan negara. Namun sekarang, ia bukan sekadar tidak selamat, malah dimiliki sepenuhnya oleh Israel melalui agen-agenya di Singapura. Sistem komunikasi PDRM dimonopoli terus oleh syarikat-syarikat Yahudi di Singapura. Perkara ini disahkan sendiri oleh akhbar The Star pada 5 Ogos 2008 (Selasa).

Agensi Israel Dalam Sistem Komunikasi PDRM

Keseluruhan tender pembinaan sistem komunikasi yang akan ditukar dari analog kepada digital telah pun diserahkan secara rasmi kepada Asiasoft (M) Sdn. Bhd. (no. Syarikat : 150529-H). Syarikat ini adalah milik penuh kepada syarikat tunggalnya iaitu Asiasoft Pte. Ltd. yang berpangkalan di Singapura. Nilai penuh tender yang diberikan kerajaan Malaysia ialah RM1 billion tetapi dikecilkan menjadi RM42 juta. Apa yang mencurigakan ramai penyelidik ialah 'individu' yang bertanggungjawab membina sistem itu. Individu tersebut dikenalpasti sebagai bekas tentera Israel yang berkhidmat sebagai programmer semasa di Israel. Programmer yang bernama Izhak David Naskar yang memegang pasport Israel bernombor 10902695 itu masih lagi warganegara Israel. Jadi, bolehkah kita menganggap ini suatu kebetulan? Paling membimbangkan ialah Izhak bukanlah tentera atau programmer biasa, beliau adalah 'pakar' sistem komputer yang telah memenangi anugerah daripada Kementerian Pertahanan Israel. Malah beliau juga bertanggungjawab membina sistem risikan berteknologi tinggi untuk pasukan pertahanan Israel sekitar 1970 hingga 1987. Seorang lagi rakan Izhak yang bertanggungjawab membina sistem komunikasi PDRM ialah Ido Sccheschter yang memegang pasport Israel bernombor 56626252. Ido pula lebih mencurigakan kerana selaku ahli pasukan yang bertanggungjawab membina sistem komunikasi untuk PDRM bersama-sama Izhak, hingga saat ini beliau masih lagi seorang tentera Israel yang sah bukannya tentera pencen. Apakah yang menyebabkan PDRM mengambil orang-orang Israel ini? Adakah kerana terdesak atau didesak? Bukankah lebih baik jika melantik programmer-programmer dari kementerian pertahanan Iran yang sememangnya lebih pakar dari Israel.

Penguasaan Singapura dan Israel di Malaysia

Seperti yang didedahkan sebelum ini bahawa Henry Kissinger telah pun berbincang sesuatu dengan mantan Perdana Menteri. Tetapi kita harus ingat perletakan jawatan Dr. Mahathir bukanlah titik noktah penguasaan Yahudi ke atas Malaysia.

Kerja-kerja penguasaan Israel ini disambung pula oleh Khairy Jamaludin apabila bertungkus lumus menjual saham Pantai Holding kepada Parkways Holding iaitu syarikat milik pelobi zionis terkenal iaitu Richard Blum.

Isu-Isu yang perlu diberi perhatian

Penjualan saham Pantai Holding oleh Khairy Jamaludin kepada Parkways Holding. Jumlah saham sebanyak 31 peratus. Penjualan saham Telekom sebanyak 5 % kepada syarikat Singapura iaitu Temasik Holding. Syarikat MITV milik Israel di Singapura berjaya memenangi lesen penyediaan 3G di Malaysia. Kemenangan mengalahkan syarikat lain yang lebih layak iaitu DiGi.

Penjualan air Malaysia kepada Singapura yang tidak masuk akal sebanyak 3 sen untuk 1000 gelen. Untuk menampung keperluan air rakyat Johor, kerajaan perlu membeli semula air kepada Singapura dengan nilai 50 sen untuk 1000 gelen. Ini seperti memberi air percuma kepada Singapura. Dikhabarkan sistem keselamatan komputer Kementerian Pertahanan (MINDEF) sentiasa diserang hacker dari luar negara setiap 15 minit.

Kesimpulan

Sehingga kini Singapura amat bergantung hidup kepada Amerika dan Israel. Keseluruhan sistem keselamatan dan ketenteraan Singapura adalah kembar siam dengan ketenteraan Israel. Apabila keberkaitan ini berlaku maka harus bagi kita melihat akan tujuan tersembunyi Singapura yang cuba menguasai ekonomi Malaysia. Kita harus sedar, negara Israel yang kecil itu sudah pun menguasai ekonomi kebanyakan negara-negara dunia berkuasa veto. Orang-orang Israel adalah pemilik-pemilik saham terbesar bagi syarikat-syarikat gergasi dunia. Saham adalah kunci pintu gerbang untuk memasuki ruang pembuat keputusan sesebuah negara. Walaupun pemimpin dipilih rakyat dan pemimpin akan mengikut kehendak rakyat, namun putaran itu akan kembali semula kepada penentu kemajuan ekonomi negara iaitu pemilik-pemilik syarikat gergasi dalam negara.

Some of you say in regards to my post that it is stupid to say God will take revenge on our behalf..

Well, let me quote the bible for you:

Romans 12:19

"Never take your own revenge, beloved, but leave room for the wrath of God, for it is written, 'Vengeance is mine, I will repay,' says the Lord"

So you see, from the Christian perspective, we should never take revenge because God will avenge on our behalf. The bible teaches us to love our enemies and bless them that curse us. (So different from the quran's teachings)

Let me get it straight. I LOVE muslims, but I HATE Islam. Everyone is made in the image of God therefore I must love them yet I had the wrong teachings they have submitted themselves to. I love the people of palestinians and the jews alike..I wish they are not caught in such situations of war. However, this is a fallen world we are living in - this is an IMPERFECT world where there will be hunger, famine, war..etc..

Let me sum up my belief for you by the command from Jesus Christ, my God and Saviour.

'This is my command to you, that you love one another' - Jesus Christ.

Dearest Yg Berbahgia Tun,

1. WELL SAID TUN! Say "TAK NAK" TO "LABU AIRPORT".

2. I believe, Sime and the government agreed with "LABU" as the location of the "fourth floor guys airport" so that it's easier to change the name to "PAK LAH LABU LOW COST CARRIER AIRPORT".

3. I also received an email from Air Asia asking me to support their proposed "Labu airport". I replied by saying that I will not use Air Asia anymore if they move to Labu.

4. I have experienced being at a number of airports in the world, and from my point of view (without bias), KLIA is still the best airport in the world. Since it is still under utilized it is best if we make full use of it. There's no VALID reason for building a new airport only 10km away from KLIA. It is DUMB! I wonder why the cabinet approved the project. This is the problem if we have a PM who's not aware about a lot of things; lack of knowledge too.

Sebab itu kita dapat perhatikan kebanyakan Projek Kilat yang di bina tak memberi faedah atau merugikan saja. Wallahualam.

Dear Tun

I think the problem is that Air Asia has no confidence that MAHB can build a LCCT with the facility Air Asia requires in the time frame Air Asia needs. This feeling is not unfounded due to past failures by MAHB to give the facilities and charges that Air Asia needs.

I think Tun did not address this issue.

By wanminAuthor Profile Page on January 17, 2009 9:17 PM

Salamualaikum TUN,

Your unprofesional comment is professionally accepatable. Everyone can look in the net about recommended international standard for airport planning and construction.

Most airport in the world can be considered an international infrastructure. Airport are designed to international standards to qualify as a certified ICAO(international civil Aviation Organization)Airport.

If you build an airport not in accordance to the standard and recommendation of ICAO,you will still have an airport but not a certified one.

International Airline will only operate from an ICAO certified airport.

This 'serawa'Labu airport will most likely not be recognized by ICAO and the disaster is,this Labu will drag down KLIA all together,because they are so close one will effect the other.

In Malaysia even military base is ICAO compliance.It is a wonder which company will give insurance coverage to a Low Cost Carrier which operate from uncertified airport.Maybe Sime will extend into aviation insurance next!!

Saya baru berjumpa dengan Dato kamaruddin dan bertanya kapada nya apakah rationalnya untok pergi ka labu dan membena airport sendiri.

Jawabnya,MAHB terlalu cookie.Melayan Air Asia saperti anak tiri dan mahu Air Asia membayar kapadanya dengan bayaran yang biasa.

Kejayaan Air asia telah memberi kejutan kapada ramai Oeang.yang paling ketara ialah komen dari Lee Kuan Yew.la berkata ia tak sangka yang budget Airline bagitu berjaya sekali dan Singapura terpaksa bertindak dengan pentas.la membena LCCTnya.kalau di banding dengan LLLT di Sepang amat memalukan.

kalau Tun ada masa cuba melawat LCCT.macam pasar Selayang di pagi hari.Jumlah penumpang melimpah ka luar.Tiada tempat dudok di sediakan.kemudahan tiolat tak cukup.panas dan tidak teratur.MAHB telah membelanjakan 110 juta.

Kamaruddin berkata,Air Asia sekarang telah membawa penumpang melebihi SIA.In satu kejayaan yang membanggakan.kenapa ia di anak tirikan.

Kenapa MAHB bias kepada Mas.Firefly di benarkan terbang dari Subang.Kenapa AirAsia tidak di benarkan.Cuba lihat berapa banyak MAHB telah belanjakan untuk memajukan Subang.Cantek dan canggeh.

Kwejayaan Air Asia patut dijadikan satu contoh anak Melysia tanpa bantuan kerajaan berjaya mengatasi SIA.Mengikut kamaruddin,Temasek mahu mambeli saham Air asia dan ia mahu Air Asia menggunakan Changi sabagai Hubnya.

Untuk,pengetahuan Tun.Khazanah bukan dan tidak menjadi pemegang saham AirAsia.Tabung haji ada 50 juta saham dan EPF ada 90 juta.

Kamaruddin juga hairan kenapa banyak orang mementeng rancangannya untuk ka Labu dan membena terminal sendiri.Ia tidak menggunakan wang kerajaan.katanya penumpang akan dapat pergi ka Labu Railway station dengan hanya membayar tambang $5.50 sen,berbanding dengan $ 15 ringgitka KLIA dari central.

It's all about few personal trying to make money.... I don't see the need especially when KLIA is yet to be fully utilised. I am a frequent traveler and everytime I am at KLIA, I feel pathetic.

We don't know how long Air Asia can sustain its business.....

I think many Malaysians wish that KLIA be used to the meximum before government thinks to have another airport.

Many still cannot believe why the government approved the Labu airport. Our neighbours are laughing at us for yet another un-clever decision. I am confident to say that 80% of airasia's passengers were malaysian, will these travellers travel every month? - to meet the 27 million mark by 2014.

The Tigers and Lions are also doubling their flights around this region. Can Airasia maintains and keeps its customers?

We have enough white elephants here so please review the decision. Do not rush in making decision as it makes one to think of a "personal interest" is involved.

Salam Yg Amat Berbahgia Tun,

Tun, saya dah agak UMNO/BN pasti tewas di KT. Sebabnya mudah. Orang ramai sudah TERAMAT MELUAT, MUAH DAN AMAT MARAH dengan Pak Lah & Co. Isu "LABU AIRPORT" salah satu punca kekalahan. Majoriti PAS lebih 2,500.

Saya tidak menyokong PAS kerana PAS TERBUKTI cuma menjadi kuda tunggangan DAP; banyak tindak-tanduk PAS amat mengecewakan terutama di Perak. Tapi, saya ada berdoa, jika kekalahan BN/UMNO di KT PERLU untuk MENYEDARKAN Pak Lah & Co, biarlah BN/UMNO kalah. Jika tidak, Pak Lah & Co akan bertambah ANGKUH dan LUPA DIRI, dan UMNO akan terus hancur.

Kepada Pak Lah & Co, "Selamat Jalan", insafilah. Jangan lagi buat keputusan yang tidak cerdik dan merugikan rakyat.

Semoga segala usaha Tun berjaya dan sentiasa diberkati Allah SWT.

Salam Ayahanda Tun, izinkan saya sedikit ruang disini untuk menjadi individu pertama mengucapkan tahniah kepada BN atas kejayaan besar mereka di P036 Kuala Terengganu. Adik saya si Kamarul baru telefon bagi tahu berita kemenangan besar ini kepada saya.
Terima kasih Tun atas ruang ini.

Assalamualaikum YAB Pak Lah, saya mengucapkan setinggi tahniah kepada YAB Perdana Menteri yang dikasihi dan dihormati diatas kejayaan besar calon BN Datuk Wan Ahmad Farid memenangi pilihanraya P036 Kuala Terengganu. Jelas sekali ini menunjukkan kepercayaan tinggi daripada rakyat Kuala Terengganu kepada kepimpinan BN dan juga UMNO. Ini juga telah sekaligus membuktikan kepada pengkritik-pengkritik tegar Khairy di laman popular chedet.cc ini yang bahawasanya, calon pilihan Khairy ini telah dapat diterima dan disanjung oleh rakyat di P036. Saya nampak masa depan yang sangat cerah bagi BN terutamanya UMNO untuk terus kekal memerintah Negara Malaysia selepas PRU13 kelak. Jelas sekali, sokongan padu daripada MCA, MIC dan Gerakan serta PPP yang telah turun padang berkempen senada dan seiring dengan UMNO dalam pilihanraya ini telah berjaya membuahkan kemenangan BN yang lebih besar pada kali ini. Sekali lagi saya mengucapkan tahniah kepada jentera BN khususnya Datuk Abdul Azeez dari UMNO dan juga tidak lupa, kepada YB Khairy Jamaluddin. Sekali lagi, saya mengucapkan tahniah kepada YAB Pak Lah, YB Khairy, dan juga YAB Datuk Seri Najib.

UMNO: Dulu Kini dan Selamanya!
Cemerlang Gemilang Terbilang!
Hidup Pak Lah!
Hidup Khairy!
Hidup Najib!
Hidup UMNO!

Dear Tun,

It seemed these days SIME DARBY's decision making had been done by "invincible hands". Labu Airport saga is another "unwised" business making decision. SIME DARBY was not disturbed by anybody during the time of the former SIME CEO Tan Sri Nik Mohamed. Tan Sri Nik left SIME with billions of cash and SIME is still a very profitable company. The current CEO Dato Seri Zubair should aware that Sime belong to 10.5 millions shareholders where most of them are BUMIPUTRAS as claimed by him during IJN saga. How's ironic. The shareholders interest should be protected and not repeated similar to IJN saga and SIME BANK "black-episode".

Salam buat Tun,

Nampak gaya Tun tak letih-letih nak kondem projek Labu ni. Biarlah, Pak Lah nak buat satu lagi koridor ekonomi dia.

Yang diberi kat Sime Darby di utara sana, tiga-tiga negeri dah tumbang. Habis tu, peruntukan kat sana bawak la turun mai sini. Dekat sikit dengan kampung menantu - senang nak kontrol.

KWSP pun tak lama lagi ada tabungan dekat setengah trilion, kalau tak bagi pinjam projek-projek macam produktif macam Airport labu ni, terperam la duit - macam simpan duit siling dalam labu Sayong. Susah CEO KWSP ni nak urus duit banyak-banyak.

Lepas tu, dalam PRU akan datang, NS lak tumbang dan mintak la Sime Darby angkut duit dia ke negeri lain.

Cadangan lebih baik - kerajaan DAP Pulau Pinang dah mintak LCCT kat Bayan Lepas. Sime Darby boleh la buat kat sana kerana AMAT BERTEPATAN SEKALI sempena dia jadi entiti teras NCER.

Good luck..

Dear Tun,

Firstly, wishing you a Gong Xi Fai Cai and good health always.

As for the KLIA East issue, I am totally confused and lost on why we need to build so many airports in the vicinity of KL and Sepang. It does not make any economic sense at all.

KLIA could not be built as a RM10 billion white elephant and its capacity been under utilised for the next 20 years.

Why can't MAHB and AirAsia both GLCs sit down and resolve the issue for the interest of our nation. The fact is that our resources should be better utilised and should not be used for the benefits of a few individuals.

So, Tun., for the good our nation, I really hope that you can do more to "influence" the current government to stop this type of non-sense.

Betapa Cinderella bergegas pulang sebelum tiba waktunya (12.00 midnite) sebelum kuda dan keretanya bertukar kembali menjadi tikus dan LABU.

A'kum Tun,

Off topik sikit. Saya terkejut melihat KT jatuh kepada PAS memandangkan TPM mewawarkan BN bakal memperolehi majoriti yang lebih besar. Melihat kepada statistik PRU yang lepas, tidak menghairankan kerusi parlimen boleh bertukar tangan kerana majoriti nya adalah sedikit. Di dalam temubual Awani sebentar tadi mengatakan DUN bandar majoriti chinese telah memihak kepada PAS. Kalau begini trend nya, Trengganu bakal jatuh kepada PAS pada PRU yang akan datang. Lebih memalukan keran TPM telah mengetuai 2 pilihanraya kecil tetapi akhirnya mengaku kekalahan. Telah sampai masanya TPM memikirkan strategu untuk PRU yang akan datang. Cara berfikir BN sekarang telah lapuk. Telah sampai masanya TPM menerima nasihat daripada Tun.

salam...

Tun

saya rase amat malu dengan pentadbiran sekarang ni...
apelah terlalu ceteknyer penilaian utk melaksanakan sesuatu plan pembangunan...

saya juga amat dukacita dgn kenyataan menteri MOT, apa dia ni terlebih belajar atau pegi belajar tapi tak tau ape ke??

andai dia baca komen saya ni...harap jawaplah

1. jika pembinaan LCCT diteruskan, bagaimanakah sistem jaringan pengangkutan? siapa yang akan funding kos2 membina, kawalselia dan agensi seperti JKR tidak terlibat ke? bukan ke duit rakyat juga akan mengalir?

setahu saya... sekalipun ia pembiayaan swasta, bagaimana nak tanggung semua kos2 terbabit jika ia terlaksa??

2. bila masa pulak projek yang berimpak tinggi tidak perlu dikemukakan plan pembangunan kpd agensi kerajaan??

3. kalau tidak perlu permakluman... bagaimane hendak kemukakan EIA bukankah ia melibatkan agensi dlm kerajaan??

bukan ke ia meningkatkan lagi kos perjalanan dan mase ke LCCT LABU?
jadi bermakna rakyat kena gula2 saje tentang tambang murah..tertapi dikira semula kos rakyat untuk kesana, maka ia menjadi syarikat Tambang MAHAL pada saya LCCT tu dah cukup baik dan hanya perlu beberapa perubahan kerana kapasiti LCCT KLIA boleh dipertingkat dan diperbesarkan lagi dan lagi...

Air asia ni pun satu hal... termakan pujuk rayu sime betul2 tamak simenergy darby.. pas nak IJN blom berjaya, inikan pula nak buat pelaburan pasal airport pulak?

Tun,

I am very impressed with the figures you have given above. The question is, why build the present LCCT in the first place? Why was the Main Terminal Building (MTB) of KLIA not expanded the last time to accommodate low cost carrier?

By malimAuthor Profile Page on January 18, 2009 1:14 AM

a'kum Tun...

1. Tidak dapat dinafikan Airasia telah banyak memberi peluang kepada rakyat Malaysia untuk 'now everyone can fly'. Namun kerajaan sepertinya memberikan 'kelebihan istimewa' terhadap Airasia sehingga mengancam perkembangan syarikat penerbangan lain?
2. Mengapa begitu? Apakah kerana sesetengah golongan berpengaruh mempunyai kepentingan tertentu dalam Airasia? Sehingga kerajaan hanya menutup mata terhadap monopoli tidak sihat yang dilakukan Airasia?

3. Pembukaan LCCT di KLIA belum terlalu lama dan belum digunakan secara maksimum, namun sekarang sudah dirancang untuk dibina sebuah airport baru? Lebih pelik lagi pada jaraknya yang terlalu dekat dengan KLIA.

4. Masalah bukan sahaja akan timbul dari segi pengaturan lalu lintas udara, namun pembaziran yang bakal timbul terlalu besar. Seharusnya terdapat pendekatan yang lebih bijak untuk meningkatkan kemampuan terminal yang sudah sedia ada.

5. Tergantung samada pembinaan KLIA-East sebagai sebuah lapangan terbang yang baru atau hanya pelebaran dari KLIA yang sedia ada, ia hanya akan menyebabkan pembahagian fungsi yang tidak wajar sehingga boleh menyebabkan terhambatnya perkembangan dari salah satu lapangan terbang ini.

6. Seharusnya kerajaan berfikir lebih objektif dan melakukan penilaian yang komprehensif untuk menjadikan KLIA sebagai 'hub' pengangkutan di rantau ini. Bukan hanya semata untuk memenuhi ketamakan sesetengah pihak!

Kelewatan kerajaan dalam menangani isu ini seberapa segera akan merumitkan rakyat dan kerajaan itu sendiri.

Kerajaan perlu membuat keputusan cepat, tepat dan yakin. Semua yang di sebut diatas adalah berkepentingan dengan kerajaan. Lebih lama ianya bising-bising maka ianya akan memburukkan dan menghakis kredibiliti syarikat 'rakyat' dan orang2 besar di dalam maupun di belakang mereka. Untuk memulihkan persepsi negatif rakyat terhadap syarikat-syarikat hitam ini memakan masa yang panjang (telah terbukti), ditambah executive/ businessman ini sudah tentu sukar menangkis serangan2 ini yang berbau politik.

Sejak-sejak ini banyak sudah kita lihat syarikat besar harapan rakyat kita entah mengapa menerima ujian begitu hebat, ada saja benda tak kena 'mereka' buat.

Pemimpin perlu yakin dan tegas membuat keputusan dalam hal ini dan menghentikan semua ini.

Adakah ini semua dinamakan persaingan dunia perniagaan atau permainan orang politik sebenarnya..?

Assalamualaikum Y.Bhg Tun,

Nampaknya BN kalah di KT. ini sudah dijangka...memandangkan Pak Lah sudah menjanjikan jawatan kpd calon BN jika menang. Faktor ini juga boleh menyumbang kepada ketidakpuasan hati terhadap BN.

Pak Lah sudah berlepas untuk lawatan kerja ke negara luar, lawatan ke Bahrain selama dua hari mulai esok, dan diikuti lawatan dua hari ke Qatar dan diakhiri dengan lawatan dua hari ke Emiriah Arab Bersatu (UAE) bermula 22 Januari.

Wah...sempat lagi ke luar negara dalam menghitung hari2 terakhir...Kalau dah tak jadi PM nanti, susah agaknya nak ke luar negara dan disambut dengan rasmi. Dah hilang keistimewaan....nak harapkan jemputan khas untuk beri talk tentang ekonomi etc, apalah yang boleh diharapkan dari Pak Lah agaknya....

Dengar2nya, Tun Musa Hitam juga turut serta dalam lawatan tersebut. agaknya utk projek Sime Darby di sana agaknya selepas projek airport Labu...mungkinah Musa Hitam salah seorang penasihat Pak Lah selain anak menantu dan group tgkt 4?

Pak Lah..Pak Lah...masih tak sedar2kah rakyat dah menyampah dengan tindak tanduk beliau?

I find it absolutely diabolical to build another airport when KLIA is still underused and has plenty of 'space' to cater for the demanding needs of AirAsia now and in the future.

KLIA is now voted the 4th best airports in the world (as seen on CNN of late) and wouldn't it be nice for tourists to see what a great airport Malaysia has to offer them rather than sending them off to a 'boxed up' looking riff raff cheapo airport.

There's obviously some 'deals' going on in the upper echelons of the ranks and all parties seem very much interested in filling up their back pockets and enjoy life to its utmost greatness with no great concern to the environment and public tax payers money.

British Government has just approved the 3rd runway at Heathrow.

http://news.bbc.co.uk/1/hi/uk\_politics/7722261.stm

It's never easy for them to finally decide on the 3rd runway. The environmentalist protestors are still raging outside the airport even as we speak. In fact, protestors had even breached airport security to protest close to the runway at Stansted Airport!

The decision towards creating Heathrow 3rd runway is probably understandable. Heathrow is one of the busiest airports in the world and they need another to feed the demand and also to ensure that it remains the hub for Europe and the world.

But this is nothing in comparison to KLIA. It is 'barren' compared to Heathrow (in terms of passenger traffic). So, why do Malaysia need another?

Where's the environmentalist people in Malaysia? Are they not voicing out their concern about air pollution, lower quality of life due to noise etc.? C'mon guys, I definitely would not want to live under the flight path. I'd move out.

Anyway, my point is - AirAsia stay in KLIA and don't waste my tax money on some other stupid airport. You're just being greedy with divaish behaviour. Stop giving lame excuses! It's ridiculous!

Ambar.

Adakah keputusan PRK-KT menunjukkan rakyat kawasan itu masih ragu-ragu, Dato Badawi akan menyerahkan jawatan PM kepada Dato Najib Mac ini? Kalau begtulah, sesungguhnya orang Kuala Terengganu silap, Badawi pasti akan serahkannya pada Najib, dia pasti serahkan! percayalah..

Dear Tun,

Well written. Layman like us will not be able to visualise how the building of Labu airport will result in wastage.

1. reading your blog is like reading 'Logic diagrams', and it make my brain working.
2. I am from Kubang Pasu, Graduate from Local university and directly employed to work in Japan after graduating from university.
3. I fly back to Malaysia 3-4 times/year. Sometimes using changi airport to visit my brother who stay in JB.

4. Well, very sad to say i have to rank the three airport i use as:(1)Singapore Changi (2)Tokyo Narita,and (3)KLIA.

5. I believe you have used these 3 airport more than me, and i also believe you have seen these airports growth.Why KLIA's growth lost to the other 2 airports?

6. In japanese company, although you have done a good job, you will get 90% criticize and 10% praise, and it is because of team work(although 90% is your work). Through this, one is motivated to accomplished a better result in the next task.This is how a japanese being trained to improve from current situation although you think you already did a good job.Same for the company, and it is same for an airport management.

7. For KLIA, much improvement after its operation for the years? I only heard more and more passengers using KLIA, but everytime i want to go back Malaysia, the only choice i have for direct flight from Japan is MAS and Japan airlines JAL, and ANA(share code with MAS) and the price is very expensive. at the end, i chose to use changi as i have more choices, which mean i can find a cheaper flight.Just FYI, i can save around RM 2000/trip compare using changi airport from KLIA. KLIA is not yet able to be called as Asia/South east asia HUB at least in coming few years.

6. KLIA-LCCT-Subang is all under MAHB. Frankly, I am doubt of MAHB management. Why MAHB can not fully expand and manage these airport, improve the service, facility, transportation etc. Subang airport is under-utilised, KLIA is under utilised, relationship/partnership between MAHB-Airasia in LCCT seems going to finish after labu being used.Firefly can not have any competitive advantage for domestic flight even through it is using subang airport. If Airasia is allow to use subang airport, what will be current situation?

7. All this is management and implementation. Why we stop growth where else other country is heading towards better and better.

8. Again it come to management and implementation. Pak lah is lack of this 2 DNA.

9. Airasia make Malaysia more popular and bring more tourist to malaysia, why MAHB or current goverment cannot play a role to manage it properly to bring benefit to all of us.Again, i blame it as poor management and no proper implementation/management of KLIA.

10. lastly, to Tun and family, Please do take care of health as it is more than anything.

Salam to Tun and All,

Basic problem: AirAsia and MAHB can't agree on the cost and facilities.

Shouldn't the gov focus on these issues rather than choosing easy way out by building another airport?

We dont need new airport!! Be firm and publish the detail. Make it transparent. If there is a will there is a way...unless the will is to make money.

As pointed by many readers, directly and indirectly, rakyat money will be used in the end. Is this how gov plan on spending my hard earn "tax" money? My middle finger to all responsible in this shady deal.

Tony,

as an Air Asia frequent flier, I support yr bussiness but not to the point that it is detrimental to the country. Channel yr energy to ensure yr new aircraft always looks new. They look "season" in comparison to other carriers (I fly alot due to my nature of work). Yr boarding process - sometimes really looks like free for all (at the gate and in the plane). Yr steward/stewardess can do with less chit chatting noisily (between them) and better grooming. And ..yr communication people, they never reply my mail. Not even acknowledging it (remember yr email: "we aim to improve" on 29th Oct 2008).

God bless all of us.

Salam Tun,

KLIA Labu turn into pumpkin.....

KLIA sepertimana Tun tahu under utilize dari segala sudut. Dari Main Terminal Building, Satellite Terminal, Parking Apron, Runway dan airspace semuanya under utilize. Jadi mengapa dibenarkan pembinaan LCCT pada awalnya. Daripada MTB yang selesa dan aerobridge, penggunaan dipaksa menggunakan tangga di tepi dan luar aerobridge untuk menaiki pesawat dengan alasan kos aerobridge dalam amat mahal. Kemudian terbina LCCT di KLIA tanpa aerobridge dan kemudahan yang jauh lebih teruk dari MTB. Setiap kali hujan, penumpang akan menggunakan payung untuk ke pesawat di LCCT. Setelah sekian lama penumpang tersiksa, laluan koridor berbumbung terbina bagi keselesaan penumpang walaupun pada dasarnya aerobridge jauh amat selesa. Saya difahamkan caj aerobridge di MTB hanyalah RM85 sejam. Bagi pesawat A320 Air Asia dengan turn around 20 minit, 180 penumpang, kos penggunaan aerobridge hanyalah 47sen seorang. Sekiranya penumpang mampu membayar RM5 bagi check in bagasi, apalah kos sebanyak 47 sen yang hendak dijimatkan.

Kita ambil contoh ruang udara....Approach bagi KLIA kini dilakukan dari ATCC Subang dimana pesawat telah disusun untuk mendarat satu persatu manakala KLIA Tower akan menerima pesawat yang akan mendarat pada aras lebih kurang 4000 kaki dan lebih kurang 10nm dari landasan. Bagi penerbangan berlepas, KLIA Tower akan coordinate dengan ATCC Subang dan membenarkan pesawat berlepas dan sebaik sahaja berlepas, pesawat akan menghubungi Departure di ATCC Subang dan meneruskan penerbangan ke destinasi.

Lapangan Terbang Subang pula terletak lebih kurang 20nm di Utara KLIA dan mempunyai ruang udara tersendiri iaitu lebih kurang 10nm radius dan ketinggian 2500 kaki. Ruang udara melebihi keluasan yang dinyatakan dikawal oleh ATCC Subang. LT Subang kini amat sibuk dengan Firefly, Berjaya, TUDM dan pesawat pesawat jet koporat dan kelab penerbangan serta helikopter.

Walaupun terletak 20NM di Utara KLIA, pergerakan pesawat di LT Subang amat terhad dan ketat. Ini kerana takut mengganggu pergerakan penerbangan KLIA. Cuba bayangkan pergerakan 77 buah pesawat Air Asia di KLIA Labu yang hanya 2km dari KLIA. Yang 20nm amat terhad, bagaimana pula yang 2km akan dapat beroperasi dengan sempurna. LABU TURN INTO PUMPKIN Kemudahan ATCC Subang amat terhad. terhad dari segi peralatan radar dan juga tenaga kerja. Kekurangan kakitangan di ATCC Subang amat ketara. Walaupun pengambilan tenaga baru dilaksanakan namun yang telah lama berkhidmat banyak juga yang bersara. Bukan mudah bagi mengendalikan Radar service Approach dan Departure. Pengalaman amat penting bagi memastikan tidak berlaku perkara yang tidak diinginkan seperti air miss dan head on. Walaupun dengan bantuan teknologi radar yang canggih, ia masih memerlukan input manusia untuk berfungsi. Jadi apabila berlaku kekurangan pegawai ATCC yang terlatih, bagaimanapula DCA Malaysia akan mengendalikan Tower di KLIA Labu dan mengendalikan radar tambahan di ATCC Subang dengan efisien.

Kedudukan Runway KLIA adalah 32L 14L dan 32R dan 14R. Bagaimana pula kedudukan Runway di KLIA Labu. Dengan kedudukan hanya 2km dari KLIA, kedudukan runway KLIA Labu yang selari 32 dan 14 pastinya bakal menimbulkan kekeliruan juruterbang. Ini kerana apabila juruterbang tidak teliti dan peka, kejadian seperti tersalah mendarat di landasan yang betul akan terjadi. Ini lazimnya akan berlaku kepada juruterbang yang pertama kali ke Malaysia ( jarang berlaku tetapi ini pernah berlaku di luar negara ) dimana dari udara ia akan kelihatan 3 runway yang selari. Yang mana satu 32R. Yang tengah atau yang paling Kanan. Sekiranya runway KLIA Labu berkedudukan tidak selari dan melintang contohnya kedudukan 23 dan 05, ini sesuatu yang amat berbahaya. Bayangkan pesawat KLIA menggunakan runway 32L dan pada masa yang sama pesawat berlepas menggunakan runway 05. Andaikata ATCC subang terleka ataupun Tower KLIA Labu tersilap memberi kebenaran berlepas ataupun juruterbang Air Asia sendiri tanpa mendapat kebenaran tower telah berlepas, pastinya ini akan membawa kepada pertembungan udara yang dahsyat. Kejadian juruterbang berlepas atau mendarat tanpa kebenaran selalu terjadi di Malaysia. LABU TURN INTO PUMPKIN

Air Asia tidak reti berterima kasih walaupun Kerajaan melalui MAHB telah memberikan imbuhan insentif berupa caj pendaratan, parking pesawat, ANFC yang amat rendah berbanding MAS. Apabila MAHB telah memberi insentif yang menarik, adakah wajar bagi Air Asia lari membuka KLIA Labu dengan menyatakan MAHB telah over charged dan Terminal kendalian MAHB tidak mempunyai kapasiti yang mencukupi untuk menampung penumpang Air Asia.

Ini tidak termasuk isu CIQ, Kuarantine dan sebagainya lagi...LABU turn into PUMPKIN

Dear Sir,

I wonder how you manage your time and your ability to match on despite all the adversaries out there to fight against you and your gangs.

The announcement of developing this so called new LCCT caused such a grave concern of yours, you had made many good comments and believe the Minister of Transport has yet made his stance in the public.

I found the strategies we had for the ports/airports are not well placed.

Could any of you could put the interests of public and travellers first before you guys fight on??

The principle of sustainabilities are to ensure the self supporting kinds of keep churning the acitivities which are desired by the users/public.

If you do go for the LCCT in Sepang, you found the crowds are increasing in leaps and bounds.

Why it was able to be keeping up the business and keep the crowds coming and coming, while we could not have such similar experiences like in KLIA??

Please do some real investigations and understandings about the big differences we had here.

Air Asia grew so well and we noted the needs increased, and surely the impositions of the services and the needs of Air Asia to pay MAHB has a lot to do with the request by Air Asia to get the central government to support its growth.

But all goes up has to come down.

Who is to guarantee that Air Asia will be able to maintain such a crowd till we could have a chance to recover the invested money of RM 1.6 billions to develop this new LCCT?

Again, what had been the objectives and actual plans when we had such a large land bank for KLIA??

Those who held the privileges of the RIGHT information must be professional to present the real TRUTH of the move which cost Malaysians Billions and not just the development of this new LCCT, the operation cost, maintaining, the infra to support this LCCT.....

How could we help the public and majority of Malaysians more with this billions of money in this trying time??

Why only Sime Darby at Labu??

Why not in Rawang of Selangor??

How about Ipoh in Perak??

Or Kuantan of Pahang??

Surely we could give very good reasons for the choice we had made.

However, no matter what you had raised, I trust the relevant experts had more and better answers than you.

The point is the remnants of your ability to govern and administer as your wish in your era had led us to this current situation, the Chief decided, the rest must find answers to justify the decision made.

However, I trust we still have some real good civil servants who could help the relevant chiefs to come to sense.

I pray for them to be able to convince the respective Bosses to decide what will be the best for all Malaysians!!

I still find the idea of this Labu LCCT is not as rosy as we had been made believe in.

The real growth of the air traveling industries could be badly affected with such a severe world economic contraction, I would be glad to find money are channeled to assist the abilities of Malaysians via education, via re-training, and via many other efforts to keep Malaysians are best for all who desired to enjoy the abilities and competitiveness of Malaysians!!

So long and I wish you a very good Sunday!!

Best regards,

peter Leow

Y.A.Bhg Tun.....,

Dear Bloggers & friends,

1. Appending below is the email I have received from Air Asia.com on January 14, 2009. Obviously it was from Air Asia. As I have read it over and over again, it does not sound like from a true Malaysian Company. It sounded like nothing but from an arrogant and greedy person whom is so ungrateful of what he is now.

2. Mr. Tony, you were actually lied to the Malaysian public. Obviously there were no detailed discussion or meeting between you and MAHB. Perhaps once or twice only, just to show that discussion did happen. When both failed to reach to a solution, you have decided to go the govt, knowingly that someone there could help you and again to show that you are somebody now.

Email from Air Asia,

"quote" Dear Valued Guest,

We at AirAsia and AirAsia X appreciate your patronage in choosing us for your travel. As a regular user of the Low-Cost Carrier Terminal (LCCT) in Sepang, we have heard your concerns and complaints about the cramped facilities at the LCCT. Many of you may not be aware that the terminal is owned, operated and managed NOT by AirAsia but by Malaysia Airport Holdings Bhd., a government-linked company.

To help serve you even better, AirAsia – together with Sime Darby Bhd. – proposed to the government that we be allowed to construct and operate a new terminal to cater to the airline's exponential growth. The Cabinet approved our request for the new terminal – KLIA-East, or as we like to call it, The Rakyat's Terminal – to be located just a short distance from the KLIA Main Terminal. The new terminal in Labu, Negeri Sembilan, is scheduled to be in operation early 2011.

In recent days, the proposed KLIA-East terminal has generated a lot of debates and discussions in the media – print, broadcast and online. We appreciate the fact that almost everyone who has voiced their view agrees that AirAsia needs a new terminal. For us, the staff of the airline, the new terminal is very much a matter of the company's survival given the number of new aircraft joining our ranks – at least two are being delivered every month – and the growth in passengers, estimated to reach 60 million in 2013.

We would like to appeal for your support in helping us deliver on our promises to you and in making The Rakyat's Terminal a reality. We have set up a designated web site where we will try and clear misconceptions regarding the project and provide answers to questions you may have regarding KLIA-East. Do drop by and have a look. We would also like to appeal to you to voice out your support for the project – and for lower fares, convenience and a comfortable environment – by writing to the print media, appearing on broadcast media, responding in the online media, especially blogs, and contacting your elected representatives. "unquote"

Mr Tony.. You need to answer these,

- a. Does the MAHB closed its door for discussion?
- b. Knowing the facts that KLIA has vast area to built one or two more runway, it is necessary to have another airport nearby?
- c. Do we not have capable contractors to construct or rather extent the existing LCCT?
- d. Please don't sell anymore your words 'bringing in millions of visitors, more big planes of yours, near to KL city, cheap transport fare, bla..bla..bla...., does it not sound selfish?

e. You did a great job so far, does a word MALAYSIA never come across in your mind?

Mr. Tony, I did respect for your courage bringing Air Asia up to the present level. Therefore share your expertise to bring KLIA to what it is worth for.

Mr. Tony, you may not realise that, you are the main contributor to the loss of BN in Terengganu BE.

Taking passengers with low fare is one thing, and giving good service is another. But have you improve your services? unlikely.

Thanks, osane.

Assalamualaikum Y.Bhg Tun,

Kami sebagai rakyat Malaysia sangat kecewa dengan kepimpinan AAB mentadbir negara. Idea2 dan cadangan yg dikemukakan sebelum nie oleh AAB hanya bagus untuk publisiti dirinya dan kebanyakan dipetik dari pembelajaran di O & H oleh para pembantu beliau yang masih hijau. AAB sepatutnya mempunyai wawasannya sendiri untuk negara dan mengukur kemampuan setiap projek yang ingin dilaksanakan.

He should set his own direction for the country and not depending on the genius from O & H to think. The genius should assist you and not u assist them in implementing each project. This is different during your leadership Tun even each words that written been checked. You will be stay up late to check all the proposals that been prepared as per your direction.

I really hope that AAB would reconsider building the airport in Labu. Please look into a bigger picture rather than all the benefits that TF presented. AAB should assign SIME to focus on the expansion as the biggest plantation company rather than competing with MAB. Competition between MAB and SIME would not be healthy as both are owned by Khazanah. DAM please advised them and revise their KPI for 2009.

May ALLAH bless and protect us,INSYALLAH.

Selamat pagi dan salam Tun,

Huh...? Sime Darby masih nak menjalankan pembinaan Labu Airport di N9 by showing the investors the most ridiculous facts & examples to make sure its land is sold to Air Asia? Tun, are they that desperate, either they do it or die, sikap seperti Khir Toyo and KJ ke?

Tun, Sime Darby has mutated into a 1st class and 1st of its kind "Koporasi Kongsi Gelap" manipulating its power through strong cables to the family of Pak Lah and cronies. I know that Tony is smart, work smart and determine to make sure he can do it. He dares to challenge MAHB to show his ability is better, the problem with Tony is that he does not love the country (kerana sikap ini, dia dah kalah lah, unless dia nak ikut stail main kotor) and he is just only a puppet (mangsa) to KJ and Pak Musa Hitam only. What a pity!!!!

Tun, Pak Lah kata PAS ada masalah, DAP ada masalah, BN ada masalah, semua parti2 ada masalah dengan kuasa oomp-nya (Pak Lah tampak lebih bodoh, ego dan menyampah), masalah apa tu, Tun?

Yang I lihat, paling bermasalah adalah Pak Lah & Co. saja.

Buat Kempen Beli Barangan Tempatan seperti yang dilaksanakan Tun pada 1998(yang sepatuhnya, Pak Shahril yang nak lancarkan kempen ini untuk menyelamatkan dirinya daripada dipecat (atau disuruh untuk tender resignation-nya) merupakan 'a window dressing' sahaja to make sure "deal Labu" di"approve" kan sebelum Pak Lah berundur. Dah terlambat lah Pak Lah, kalau ko (beliau) berundur dengan membawa keluar sekali gus semua MP's seperti KJ, Shahril Samad, Wan Farid (he looks like a crook to me), Ahmad Said, Sharizat, Azalina Othman (Menteri Perlancungan) dan kroni2 sekarang, mungkin BN akan dapat diselamatkan dengan hanya 51% chances pada PRU 13 'HANYA JIKA' DS Najib & kabinetnya berani mencabar diri mereka untuk menyelamatkan UMNO dan BN.

Dah dijangka PAS menang, dgn majoriti lebih dpd 2,600, yang tak undi adalah lebih 16,000 (20.5%)rakyat. Mengapa mereka ini tidak mengundi, ini bukan kerana mereka 'duduk atas pagar', mereka ini adalah kumpulan yang lebih sabar dan tahu apakah yang mereka inginkan.

TAK NAK LABU AIRPORT, TAK NAK AIR ASIA (kakitangan2 di Air Asia jangan gusar, andai sekalian pasti akan diambil bekerja dengan MAS, Fireflz dan KLIA to make Malaysia more systematic, more patriotic and more respected locally and internationally, yang kena bimbang adalah pihak "management dan board of directors" saja, so is better to'blah' sekarang. Tokdet dah keluarkan ariticle ini, pasti Air Asia akan dibungkuskan rakyat selepas Mac 2009 dengan cara BOYCOTT!!!!

By raychua81Author Profile Page on January 18, 2009 8:28 AM i was wondering is this really true the LABU airport is using our rakyat fund to build????? If this is not we shouldnt care so much at Air Asia will need to use their own money to build. But if it is, we are doing the right thing to condemn.

Who failure for not able to utilised the KLIA airport? The government itself???? Or the KLIA management? Why MAS wasnt able to give some competition to Air Asia. Almost every airlines is not making money now. So wish Air Asia the best.

I love the KLIA airport but it was so so quiet.....not many stall there. Maybe we should start the initiative such as lowering down the rental. You know even in Penang, there is one place which being rented out at 99cent.

Your view point can be made it live to condemn the government to approve the Labu airport. How many more land will be taken up for development. One day there wont be any more jungle/tree left in Malaysia soon. Sigh.....

By juara_kampungAuthor Profile Page on January 18, 2009 8:34 AM

I think this new Labu airport has nothing to do with the actual need. I think somebody desperately need a "big construction" job.

Is it possible that once the Labu airport is completed, "somebody" will twist MAHB's arm to "compulsory purchase" the Labu airport at it's "construction cost" and intergrate it with KLIA? This probably also explain why there were no mention of construction of new Control Tower in the Labu airport.

Along the way, somebody somewhere will pockets billions of ringgits in a "legal" manner.

Salam YBhg Tun,

Sikap kita orang Melayu khasnya (dan Malaysia amnya) ada empat.
Teman namakan '4N':

N pertama: 'Nganga' [mulut terbukak]. Bila sedap dengor orang lain bercakap, kita nganga. Sedap benor le tu!!

N kedua: 'Ngelat' [cakap tak penah betoi]. Bila bercakap, kuahnya lebih dari isi. But most of d time, takda isi langsung!!

N ketiga: 'Ngelak' [tak mau terima kenyataan]. Bila rasa kantoi waktu bersembang/ berbincang/ berdebat, mule le kita buat2 tak dengor. Cabut le, tunggu apa lagi!!!!!!

N keempat: 'Ngamok'. Bila nampak keadaan tak betoi sikit, nak ngamok aje keroja dia. Orang lain salah, dia aje yang betoi!!

Teman rasa isu LCCT ni ada kat N kedua. Paklah & Co ada kat N pertama!! kita pulak ada kat N berapa??

Terima kasih atas nasihat ini. Secara logiknya memang betul kenapa perlukan kawasan lain sebagai LCCT? tidak bolehkah kos yang agak mahal itu dikurangkan oleh pengurusan di LCCT sekarang ini?

Sejahtera kepada TUN dan keluarga

I Like your your last sentence " Sime Darby want to go into airport business". Bukan Sime Darby TUN tapi "mastermind" nya dan kunci2 nya yang decide. Patut lah tak jadi PM kerana "niat" dari awal dan sampai sekarang tak betul. Bukan nak membina tetapi nak merosakan bumi bertuah Malaysia.

Tumpang sekejap TUN , kerana nak nasihat kan Najib.

BN boleh menang jika sekiranya pilihanraya akan datang jangan benarkan INDIVIDU tertentu pergi berucap masa kempen kerana kebanyakan kami tidak mahu dia hadirkan diri dimana mana majlis lagi UMNO dan Barisan lagi.

Kerja mereka-mereka ini telah berjaya nampak nya kerana tujuan mereka dalah untuk menghancurkan BN dan UMNO am nya. Orang bukan tak nak mengundi BN tetapi bila nak mengundi dan muka muka ni datang terus pangkah PAS.

Singkirkan mereka ini pada pemilihan UMNO bulan March 2009 nanti.

Tahniah kepada PAS kerana telah memilih calon yang sesuai kerana perwatakan dan latar belakang pun diantara faktor yang mesti di pakai bila memilih calon.

Pak Lah nak buat Airport kat Padang Pasir ya atau nak tanam kelapa sawit. he he he he Kesian kita semua tetapi Alhamdu kerana Allah pasti berserta KITA.

KLIA di buat sangat cantik "oleh Tun Dr Mahathir". Rakyat Kelantan naik Air Asia atau Fire Fly menggunakan airport LCCT atau Subang, macam airport Cape Town sahaja, sangat kodi berbanding dengan KLIA.

Kami ingin juga menikmati kemudahan airport yang setanding dengan Heathrow, Beijing dan sebagainya yang ada pada KLIA.

Buat apa KLIA dibina 5 tingkat, ruang yang luas, mempunyai berbagai-bagai kemewahan dan keselesaan sedangkan kami terpaksa berkerumun di LCCT macam kandang kambing sahaja.

Kawasan KLIA boleh dibesarkan dan mampu menangani 125 juta penumpang, manakala sekarang hanya baru ada 25 juta. Buat apa nak bina "LABU"? Syabas Tun kerana mencelikkan mata rakyat yang ingin membukanya. PM, TPM,...etc kena prihatin tentang rakyat yang nak menikmati KLIA ini. Kalau KLIA itu "kecil", dah tak muat lagi, kami terpaksa terima hakikat bahaawa "yang murah ialah shack dan yang mahal ialah bungalow"

Dear Tun,
I feel you're being too quick to the gun in criticizing the proposed building of the Labu airport.
You say it's irrational.
Weren't you the one who had also wanted to build just as wasteful an airport in Northern Malaysia so that you could close down Penang's airport, thus wresting control of the state from the opposition?
Air Asia true motives are still unclear.
But you, of all people, should know better than to believe that economic decisions made in Malaysia are not politically motivated.

Dear Tun,

Mengapa Barisan "kalah" di KT? Satu pengajaran lama yang dilakukan berulang kali oleh pemimpin UMNO dan masih lagi tidak sedar diri. Ba UMNO akan terus hancur selagi pemimpin haprak dan HP6 seperti KJ, Mike Tyson, Khir Toyo, Pak Lah, Ali Rastam dan lain-lain masih lagi berada di puncak kepimpinan UMNO. Mereka ini semua adalah "liability" kepada UMNO yang membawa "balak" dan padah kepada image UMNO yang dah rapuh. Mereka sudah jadi "kayu buruk".

Disamping itu UMNO masih lagi gunakan strategi lapuknya tiap-tiap kali berkempen. Strategi "MAKAN DIRI SENDIRI". Pemimpin UMNO dah hilang pedoman. Dah hilang keyakinan. Dah hilang maruah. Dah hilang segalanya !! Pemimpin UMNO dah "pekak, buta, dan bisu". Bolehlah diumpamakan pemimpin UMNO bila berkempen dan bercakap menggunakan "bahasa isyarat" orang bisu kepada rakyat. Maka rakyat yang celik dan tidak pekak tidak paham apa yang dikata oleh pemimpin UMNO yang diumpamakan seperti orang "pekak dan bisu".

Umno Oh Umno !! Sungguh jauh kau akan ditinggalkan oleh orang Melayu untuk selama-lamanya.

Apakah hikmahnya dari kekalahan yang dialami oleh UMNO di KT. Jawabnya ada pada diri pemimpin-pemimpin dan juga ahli-ahli UMNO yang tak sedar diri. Semua pemimpin tertinggi UMNO mesti tengok cermin dan lihat muka masing-masing dan ukur diri mereka sambil bertanya SIAPA AKU INI? Mungkin semuanya akan menjawab, "Ya, benar, aku haprak. Aku HP6. Aku pemimpin dah bodoh stupid.
By pakbelalangAuthor Profile Page on January 18, 2009 10:52 AM

Dear Tun,

Najib must act now and put this stupid project to rest. Don't let it drag too long and it will be backfired on his leadership. The truth now the airport is not necessary, period. Don't defend the project when you know that the rakyat now are fully aware of the situation. Thank you Tun, for giving us the opportunity understand the issue of building the new Airport. Now we are very clear indeed.

Tun Musa is coward for not giving any statement on behalf of Sime Darby regarding this matter. Silence Is Elegant !!!!!

If the project is on, it is worthwhile for the rakyat to demonstrate peacefully to protest this project. Will somebody sponsor to distribute T-shirts having "NO TO NEW AIRPORT" campaign.
By azmanyAuthor Profile Page on January 18, 2009 10:57 AM

In case BN leaders are in supreme state of denial - via KT by-election - the rakyat has spoken again. "We hate the current leaders and we reject the current state of government"

The timing of this Labu Airport and previously the IJN fiasco are perfectly time to remind the people to continue sending the message. To all the top hierarchy in UMNO, I do appreciate the concept of teamwork and being a 'party man'. But our Malay saying also goes 'Raja Adil Raja Ku Sembah, Raja Zalim Raja Ku Sanggah'.

Back to LabuLabi Airport:

1. To people of Labu, remember that KLIA now has a buffer zone of about 10,000 acres surrounding the airport in which NO BUILDING DEVELOPMENT IS ALLOWED for safety reason. This is commented by Muhammad Halim earlier; the people of Labu will actually lose economic opportunity when their land can no longer be allowed to be developed.

2. It is a new strategy by concession-cronies to "profit by construction contract now, go to hell with future". Basically the strategy is attempt to 'help government' by building public infra by concession, get all the construction contracts with good profit (this is private business transaction, so no need public disclosure) . Get concession company suffer a few years and then plea to government, "bail us out or else we will go bankrupt". Because it's public infra, government will do so and they will cleanse their hand". STOP THIS FROM HAPPENING HERE.

The nawaitu of this proposal is indeed very dark and blatantly not sincere. Some projects, we can only know the folly after the event but we know when they started, the intention seemed sincere. Not this one, whether it is to blackmail MAHB or plain profiteering : the intention is clearly insincere.

Dear Tun,

The present hard headed BN government with their personal interests in mind would no more be acceptable by the Rakyat of Malaysia. This has clearly been seemed in the by election at Permatang Pauh ang KT election at Kelatan.

Rakyat of Malaysia would not protest vebrally and physically like before but silently and peacefully now! If the BN government tends not to receive such continuous protest from the Rakyat, they better change the attitude of governing the country properly at all times and not just to biase the rakyat by giving gula gula during the election!

I am glad to see that after having gone through half a century of independence, the Rakyat of Malaysia have indeed grown more mature which BN government has to attend it seriously! Or else it will be the end of BN empire in Malaysia...

Dear Tun

I wonder when the government/investors decide to spend billions of ringgit on building another new airport to cater for Air Asia needs, what happens in the worst case scenario when Air Asia company faces major problems eg lower demand than projected because of stiff competition etc, facing financial problems due to recession in the unforeseeable future, and facing bankruptcy and closes down? They are other probabilities you can think of and I wonder whether the 'smart guys' are thinking hard before they make any decisions! What will become to the airport if all expectations fail?

We have a beautiful airport in Sepang and why not USE IT for any expansion in the future! Logically the infrastructure is there and all you need is to have all the right logistics and proper planning and experienced people to execute them. Are Sime Darby/some VIPs have hidden agendas we don't know about?

Asalamualaikam Tun,

- 1) Everybody knew the selfishness of our Tony and Sime Darby. These two hooligans will do anything on earth to achieve their goal.
- 2) Abdullah and Najib had received the signal of BN defeat in KT. People are fed up of what is running around. The country is now being managed by another hooligan KJ. Stop the airport issue. Us stern answer, NO. Forget about Tony's explanation. That fella will even kiss PM ass as to achieve his needs.
- 3) Every sound mind citizens and experts in air traffic management will conclude that it is unnecessary to have another airport at a stone throw distant from KLIA. Of course KLIA and KLCC can be upgraded to meet so call Tony's passenger figure (I am a bit skeptical and doubtful the future vision of Tony).
- 4) I am positive that Tony, Sime Darby and the group is cursing Tun. Let it be, they should be standing on the ground rather than flying in fantasies.
- 5) To Tony, stop being non sensible for a moment. MAHB can meet your requirements and upgrade the LCCT. With your requirements and co-operation with MAHB I believe the upgraded LCCT can sure outclass the Singapore Low-cost Terminal and Bangkok Suvarnabhumi.
- 6) As for Sime Darby, go more global. Follow Petronas footsteps, explore the world and put Malaysia flags in other countries. Malaysian will be proud of you.

7) If there is a signature drive against Labu Airport, I will for sure endorse my signature twice base on reality.

Enough is enough.....

Salam Ayahanda Tun,

Mungkinkah apa yang berlaku kini dengan pembabitan Sime Darby adalah kerana ketidakpuasan hati kerana pernah diketepikan dan diambil tindakan yang menjatuhkan karier dan peluang untuk memerintah dikala zaman yang pernah suatu ketika disebut sebagai, 2M?

Individu berkenaan mengatur semula strategi untuk "memerintah" atau yang lebih popular "master of puppet". Beliau menggunakan beberapa orang sebagai percaturan menguasai pemerintahan politik dan penguasaan ekonomi Malaysia.

Apa yang dapat saya perhatikan beberapa perkara berlaku apabila DSAAB mula menerajui pemerintahan selepas persaraan Tun, individu ini mulai diberi pengiktirafan dan mula diketengahkan oleh media dan mendapat publisiti, penghargaan bintang kebesaran dan mula menduduki kerusi-kerusi "hangat dipasaran".

Mungkin ini hanya pandangan saya yang tidak begitu arif tentang politik dan ekonomi.

Walaubagaimanapun, seperti teman-teman yang lain saya merasakan kerajaan DSAAB perlu berintegriti seperti yang disarankan oleh beliau sendiri. Ini jika tidak dilakukan maka suatu hari nanti Malaysia akan beralih pucuk pemerintahan kepada "Pembangkang" maka mereka pula yang perlu membangkang seperti yang terjadi di 4 buah negeri yang kini dikuasai pemerintah yang berlainan ideologi daripada pemerintah persekutuan.

Bila ini berlaku, saya amat pasti individu-individu yang bertanggungjawab kini tidak akan ada untuk melihat perkara ini berlaku.

Saya amat berharap jika ianya betul-betul berlaku, saya tidak dapat melihatnya kerana tidak mampu dan mahu dipersalahkan oleh generasi yang akan datang yang akan menyalahkan saya kerana tidak melakukan yang terbaik untuk mereka sebaliknya hanya untuk kepentingan saya dan segelintir teman-teman akrab.

Salam bahagia buat ayahanda Tun sekeluarga.

Salam Tun,

Ini komen saya berkenaan tingkah laku Sime Darby akhir-akhir ini. Baik ianya berkenaan IJN mahupun isu Labu. Betul atau tidak hanya Allah yang tahu, maklumlah saya hanya nujum Pak Belalang.

1. Saya raya Sime Darby @ Musa Hitam sudah terdesak untuk mengejar dateline Mac 2009 kerana selepas itu Musa tiada lagi tempat bergantung iaitu Pak Lah.
2. Jadi, difikirkan semua yang mega-mega untuk disapu bersih dan dilobi oleh Musa sementara masa masih ada.
3. Bila rakyat mengamuk pasal IJN, Musa kangtoi terpaksa menyerah kalah.
4. Lalu dilobi habis-habisan pulak dengan Labu-labunya. Seperti biasanya, Air-Asia akan diperkudakan untuk menguatkan sokongan tentang segala macam justifikasi.
5. Inilah Musa dengan Labu-labunya.
6. Yang tinggal harapan hanyalah Tun untuk melobi sehebat-hebatnya agar Musa akan kangtoi juga dengan Labu-labunya.
7. Kalau Musa berjaya, maka ini semua akan menjadi beban kepada Najib dalam pilihanraya akan datang.

Sekian, wassalam.

Nujum Pak Belalang.

Dear Tun,

I sense that, mr tony did wanted a new airport since the souring relationship between AA & MAHB for quite sometime, but the main character who made everything possible is the 3 blokes..

the "bapa Kejatuhan Malaysia", the Black Moses (musa, who has a lot of hatred against you), and the one and only K-J..

anyway, if you look at the link posted by our dear friend here, Mr. Iskandar, <http://blog.airasia.com/index.php/airasia-launches-klia-east-microsite-1#comments>, you will see one thing in common on the people who posted all those supporting comments towards AA, that is ..... Ikut pelan asal Kerajaan! Kalau ada yang kurang dalam pelan, ubah suai n tambah baik. Bukan buat pelan lain yang bukan sahaja tak selari, malah mengganggu pelan asal.

Kerajaan mempunyai jangka hayat yang lebih panjang berbanding Air Asia dan Tony. Pelannya mengambil kira kepentingan hampir semua pihak. Tapi, pelan Air Asia n Tony ni hanya untuk kepentingan dia je. Selagi dia boleh buat untung dia akan pursue pelan dia. Tapi, kalau dia cabut, apa akan jadi?

Kalau tak silap saya, LCCT tu pun untuk accommodate keperluan Air Asia. Setelah Kerajaan keluar duit untuk bina LCCT, Air Asia nak buat terminal baru kat Labu. Apa akan jadi pada LCCT Sepang?

Alasan yang diberi memang TAK BOLEH DITERIMA! NONSENSE! Tony, kalau nak tunjuk pandai pun, bukan at the expense of Negara dan Kerajaan ok!

Menteri Pengangkutan sila ambil tindakan! Memang pembinaan tu u boleh kata bukan bidang kuasa u, tapi kalau mengganggu pelan induk KLIA tu, takkan masih bukan bidang kuasa u. Put politic aside ok! Stand up and do your job! Or else I'll kick ur ass bro!

The rela reason Tony AirAsia want a new airport is because MAB and KLIA are so bloated by corruption that Airasia will be bankrupt by their inefficiency. [ROOT CAUSE]

The reason why government of present day want another airport is because the potential corruption money can be obtained from Airasia and Sime Darby. [PULL]

The reason why government of present day does not do its duty to guide KLIA and MAB to operate efficiently for the interest of Airlines base in Malaysia is because there is no corruption money to be made by the leaders. [push]

Salam Ayahanda Tun.

This is all a bailout. As simple as that, nothing more and nothing less. But instead of using government cash, the government is using the "private sector initiatives" for that goal. And I state here, that there is no such thing as a -totally privately funded- exercise for this. That is one big and lame bullsh*t. The unspoken risk (the silent elegant risk) is far too great and in the end, we would lose so much more than what has been stated anywhere yet or by anyone yet. By having this huge "parking lot" in Labu, Air Asia would have a very nice balance sheet to entice foreign players into buying up some shares for quick cash - or if the offer is good enough, they might just dump the whole lot and smile all the way to the bank. Taking the KTM Komuter to Labu still requires a connection to the vicinity of the new proposed airport. And by the time you arrive to your destination, it won't be RM5.50 anymore and you would be all greasy from sweating along the connecting journey. And anyway, why the sudden change of tune here? I thought Pak Lah has been telling the media that KTM has started looking into building the new tracks to KL Sentral already? And when the highly educated rakyat started to question that very move - especially on this blog page, Air Asia is suddenly quitting on that new Komuter track to KL Sentral story too? And telling people to just use the existing Labu KTM station now? Do we detect a change in tune again over at Tune Air? Just like what Tony Fernandez went and did with that runway/no runway arguments and bluff? Be very aware of this point folks, it's a matter of rapid revival for Air Asia, getting their books to look really nice and neat again with some promises of huge return on the very near future. And then we can expect to see maybe Singapore's Temasek coming in with some other regional players (Australians? Indians?) for a slice of Air Asia (along with the new Labu Airport as well), or maybe they would just go for the whole thing lock stock and barrel? Just get Kamarudin Meranun to sing his tune in full and you will know what I mean. In the end, who would actually be the new proud owner of that new Labu LCCT and its huge piece of land? Local? Foreign? Air Asia? Temasek? Any firewall against these new foreign players from making any tactical and strategic moves at acquiring KLIA and the Sepang F1 Circuit later? Would they be happy with just that small LCCT in Labu? Don't they too have long term plans for their books? This is globalization, Khairy, Abdullah & Tony style – the three stooges @ Tiga Abdul. But at whose expenses really? Think hard and think smart people. Say no to this bailout and put a stop to this re-colonization bid! Singapore already owns the Iskandar Economic Region in the south of Malaysia, and now with the proposed Labu LCCT acquisition – on the proposed Air Asia airport, it would mean that Singapore (via Temasek Holdings) have expanded their acquisition march right into the central region of Malaysia. And by the way things are going with UMNO and BN now, all they need to do is just wait for PRU13, then preach globalization to Anwar Ibrahim and just take over everything from south to central. in the end, it's a "soft" invasion and re-colonization, by courtesy of Khairy and Co. And our children tomorrow would spit on us for that! Does all that make sense now? Think down the line a bit here; and just stop the rot today and now. Its time somebody turn on the lights for dim Black Moses - who by the way, has bitten more than he could chew on this one. Fire him immediately and overhaul the whole board at Sime Darby. Leave Air Asia to struggle -without any forms of government assistance or bailouts- just like what Tony Fernandez had been preaching all these years. Walk your talk Air Asia.

malaysian always like the cheap , the low cost... meaning, low cost carier is the best choice...

If i'm the travel agency and have to give recomendation to some of my customer between air asia airline and Mas, many aspect will take in count.

1. the price, air asia is cheaper....only rm99 including all charges. the MAS is about rm150. that quiet big amount of money. sure people my customer will ask for a cheaper one. thus, air asia is more competitive.
2. the transportation to air port terminal.

for LCCT, they have bus from kl central rm9, rm8 and also from pudu rm10. The taxi is more cheaper since red taxi is incharge , only rm60 to central of kuala lumpur.
for KLIA terminal . they have high speed train, cost about rm 35. very fast... but only for rushing . the taxi@ limo about rm140 to kuala lumpur. the red taxi is not allow to enter KLIA terminal . how poor to them. the buses is very poor, every a hour per bus to kl available.
LCCT have every 15min. very exclusive buses. fast and comfort.

3. the services, the MAS sure have a very nice hospitality, the food, the cabin attendant. So polite, friendly and i feel overwhelm for that aspect.

Assalamualaikum Tun,

So cunning this sime..firstly it wants to take hold of the jantung hati rakyat then it wants to wipe out the oil palm trees...for what?..for money of course and money means power and power means it can hold the government by its neck.

I think building the Labu airport by the "Labulabies" is an unwise move in the security and environmental expects. There will be influx of the immigrants and this will added grave to the social problems to the locals and the nearby areas. More unwanted rubbish and who's going to monitor them..sime? And I guess you have to pay toll to get there. Cekik darah rakyat lagi!

Security is very important now, you'll never knows what is going to happen when many people of all sorts enter the country. if this project is privately funded then it has to provide its own police, security personnel, bomb squad, firefighters and so on. Or later by some unforeseen circumstances the government has to bailout and buy it using the rakyat's money again.

What I'm most afraid of is the planes colliding with each other as KLIA is near it, if the people at the control tower are not doing their job professionally. May it never happen here. What about noise and air pollution? Every corner of this project has to looked into very thoroughly.

To make things easier just expand the existing KLIA and make full use of it. Why need another one unless you build a modern fully equipped army airport for defense from (who knows when) invading enemies..and missiles and bombs maybe? May Allah protect us and this beloved country. Now whatever projects is think of security of the country must be top priority and not making someone's pocket bulging.

Tun, PAS has won in KT. I just wish someday it break off with DAP because it arrogantly has belittle Islam. Do you see DAP's flags and hindraf's demo there? There's no DAP and hindraf spoiling it so that's why the people there are just too happy to vote for it. Just my opinion nothing politically.

Tun again I plead with the people of the world to STOP THE MADNESS IN GAZA! PLEASE SAVE THE CHILDREN AND PEOPLE OF PALESTINE!
STOP THE ISRAELIS AND THE US FROM PLAYING GOD!

Take care Tun and May Allah Look Upon You Always.

Askm Tun & fellow readers

What can we do against these people who won't listen when all they hear and think about is "How much will I be able to pocketed when all this are done?". I definitely agree with Tun that KLIA is huge enough to accommodate Tony's toys~ its not like all of his plane will be on the ground. You can see at google earth or if you people have taken off from KLIA you'll be able see the magnitude of KLIA.

It will be a waste of money of all parties. But I guess Air Asia and Sime Darby has lots of it~ They should channel this resource through other means like other readers commented, Air Asia could build a university or an institute to train more pilots, aeronautics engineers and more while Sime should really concentrate on making their shareholders and plantations' participants happy.

In the matter of creating job opportunities, wouldn't it be the same if a satellites/extensions/new terminal be built at KLIA? It's more cost effective and it would make transiting planes easier.

Correct me if I'm wrong but KLIA was designed to handle 125 million with the current infrastructure. So, one could expect if a satellites/extensions/new terminal were built it could easily handle more. Also, like Tun mentioned, KLIA can also construct more run ways if need to and other amenities to run the airport i.e bridges, transit buses, rails, commuters etc. Location wise, it's WAY TOO CLOSE to KLIA. Taxiing back and forth is a waste of precious time and money. Why Labu to begin with?

Pak Lah is a weak leader, I don't even respect him as the PM. He's unable to control the people under him, hardly delivers his promises to the nation and does things half way, a typical malay qualities unfortunately.. Khairi aka KJ, who's he? What has he done for the country? What contribution he gave to the people? Pak Lah's son-in-law? So what? From what I've heard from all around, he's the type of person who should not be in politics or anywhere close. Now I understand why Musa Hitam never last in the Government, he couldn't even make proper decision. Now at Sime as its Chairman, he's still the same. Mr. Tony, I used to respect him. How he turn loss to profit. How he lifted the Air Asia brand to where it is now. But, he is now just another "politician"..

Even though we expressed our concerns, what can we do? Will the current Government listen? To my eyes, all I see in the parliament are bunch of showy, whimsical, selfish, ignorant, retards squabbling for power and supremacy. So few are actually fighting for what the people want or need, makes me sad really. Now, those NON-BUMIs, especially the so-called "Pakatan Rakyat" dared to questioned the BUMI's rights even though it has clearly been stated in Article 153 and agreed upon by all parties during independence.

PLEASE SAY NO! TO THE NEW AIRPORT IN LABU.

P.s, if I'm wrong do please enlightened me.

airasia seems to be like it is in a hurry. first it wants to operate from subang. then it wants the lcct. now this fiasco. must be more to this than meets the eyes. buiding an airport in melaka sounds more sensible than in labu.

Dear Tun,

1. I was in Seremban, last week for business meeting.
2. Talk-talk... we end-up in Labu Airport.
3. To my shock, my friend, knew about this (that something big going to happened in Labu area) about 5-6 years ago.
4. Just as info, my friend is Umno-NS strong people, and he been instructed to buy land and invest in house development near labu areas.
5. When my friend ask, why develop house in jungle, his Umno *contact*, indicated, just do, you will not regret.
6. After 5-years++, the housing project completed with 100% unit sold, to BN investors.
7. Then after 1-year, SD and AirAsia announcement, the demand sky-rocketed. The BN investors made quick money.

8. This is how million's "CREATED BY NPE and UMNO".

9. I am Malaya, who have been request by my government to control my spending and share the burden of high fuel price.

10. Here NPE and BN, creating wealth for thier cornies...

11. I must now look for "BN-Cronies for Dummies" book and learn this trick for the survial of me and my children.

Salam YAB Tun and fellow bloggers,

1. I'm sure Dollah and his goons are not happy cos Tun chose to pursue this matter on labu's airport. Others had seemed to have kept quiet.

2. Tun knows what Dollah and his gangsters are up to...but Tun still tried to be fair by giving is opinions, suggestions. Logically Tun is right and Dollah, Musa Itam and oter goons should take note.

3. But, Tun and most of us know for sure Dollah and his greedy goons are going for the money...they ad robbed us over and over again under the pretext of development, helping the poor, education, etc. Full of lies.

4. Serve him (Dollah) right for putting an arrogant fatty and he lost in KT. Again, Tun's opinion about people rejecting BN cos of Dollah proved accurate. Instead of admiting, they (Najib and other ministers)kept on giving excuses...hey nincompoops, ow many more loses you need to see before admiting the facts? That's why Tun is against late transfering of power from Dollah, the later, the more serious damage done. Najib, hold your balls and stand up against Dollah.

5. Sometimes I think it makes sense when it was suggested that Najib may be UMNO's president but Dollah remains PM...since it's only a tradition for UMNO president to become PM. Then why Dollah wanted his men to dominate the cabinet?

6. Para 4 & 5 are relevant and related to all nonsense done by UMNO's reps, GLCs, MBs, etc. Thank you Tun for your consistant belief in the truth.

Dear Tun,

I assume Tony Fernandez must have promise to offer Chairmanship of Air Asia once Pak Lah steps down as Prime Minister. Maybe Tony promises RM100,000 a month allowance plus other perks.

So what do you expect when the offer is so lucrative for Pak Lah to enjoy his retirement until he dies. And KJ pun tumpang sekaki !!

In any case, we as Malaysians must oppose this project. There are so many options for Air Asia to expand its wing but not try to manipulate with all kinds of proposal that can cause wastage of resources particularly when it involves public funds directly or indirectly to benefit Air Asia.

Thanks Tun for your explanation. Just nak tanya Tun...after all of these issueswith kelembapan & scandal oleh Pak lah...why don't we start a campaign to throw shoes to Pak Lah..like a guy throw shoes to Bush..is this ok?

I'm going to meet him in one occasion..what is the implication of doing this?...How many of us have guts to do this?...I think someone need to start...What is your opinion Tun?

If people start to throw shoes to him..then he will get a clear message...dah cakap macam2 pun dia buat pekak jer....I think this is the best way...Please give me your opinion please?

Salam Tun

I've once read that CEO of BA predicted that almost 30 airlines will go bust due to credit crunch & economic crisis....

Look around the world...people are less travelling and American Airlines has grounded plenty of its aircrafts.

So the idea of expansion Labu Labi Airport is just a diversion of Tony on how strong the market is. I'll BET that their flights to London also will FAIL...Don't they learn from what happening with Oasis Hong Kong?.

People in UK & Europe are all now halt their travelling & spending. Economy are so bad....MFI, Woolworths and lot more retail outlets are closing down...& in fact lot of banks also facing difficulties...and yesterday Barclays share plummeted 25% from its value & they lost billion of pounds in the market...

Does Tony still think the airline industry will not affected?

I reckon this Labu Labi airport is just a diversion so that he, Tony will have excuse if the airline industry is fail & they AirAsia & Sime Darby at least can make some money out of this new airport. They don't care whether we need new airport or not...they just want their portion of the cake...so if AirAsia go bust soon...he at least have his pension save somewhere...They get money people invested in..then blalah...no different from Bernard Madoff!!

..Pak Lah also may want to save some pension for him...even dah banyak dia sapu....

To Pak Lah...my message is...DUNIA NI JANGAN KEJAR SANGAT...MAKIN KITA KEJAR MAKIN DIA LARI...& KEPADA ALLAH JUGALAH KITA KEMBALI....BALASAN DARI ALLAH ITU KEKAL AKAN BERLAKU!...INGAT-INGATLAH

Wake up people?? Look what's happening around the world now & how worst it is?

Start a campaign NOW..."NO TO LABU LABI AIRPORT"

Dear Sir,

As much as I am a fan of AA and what its done for travel consumers and boosting Malaysia as a travel hub for the region, one has to tread and monitor its corporate actions and proposed dealings very carefully. I applaud the attention you've given to this recent proposed corporate action of theirs.

If one is a shareholder, please be wary of RPTs.

And yes, just sit a roundtable and thrash the transfer pricing, charges etc. In the end, we just want a world class airport (KLIA), airline (MAS) and LCC airline (AA).

I am glad that you have presented some facts to substantiate why Air Asia idea of building an airport in labu should not be done. Basically it has supported the argument put forward by Dr Rafick in his blog under the article

It's been sometimes since I visit your blog. I see you've moved to a new domain with adverts and all. You've even give allowance for responses. That's very cordial of you. But Im still sad that nothing is change with regards to your adversaries. After not being able to take over IJN now they are collaborating with Air Asia to build the 4th Airport. What next?

By 20th Jan, US will have a new President after 8 years of having a moron for a President.

What is the faith of Malaysia, I wonder. Will the moron PM still cling on to his post until death?

So Malaysia can now come out with a new award befitting a statesman, JMSM (Jadi Moron Sampai Mati).

Is A New Airport Needed, Questions Chin

KUALA LUMPUR, Jan 17 (Bernama) - Minister of Plantation Industries and Commodities Datuk Peter Chin Fah Kui said that his ministry was not against any development including building a new airport, if needed.

The issue is not whether the airport can be built on palm-oil land or not, he said to reporters when asked on Sime Darby's plan to build the permanent low cost carrier terminal (LCCT) on its land in Labu, Negeri Sembilan.

"The issue is whether we should have a new airport or not," he said.

comment:

The issue now is for the government to retract the approval given to Sime Darby Bhd. The approval is made out of greed and without any strong commercial basis to support the building of the new airport. It is scandalous, no merit and does not make sense at all. The government should listen to the public outcry over this serious issue. Don't be blind, deaf and dumb !!!! Don't be haprak, HP6 and dah bodoh stupid! NO WONDER THE GOVERNMENT IS FAST LOSING SUPPORT FROM THE RAKYAT. They think they can just bulldoze everything. No, no, no !! Time is over for them to just ignore the public view.

Alright, if they don't cancel the project, they will face the consequences. They will be thrown out of power for sure in the next election. By that time Pak Lah already wash his hand and probably will become the chairman of Air Asia with a fat allowance of RM100,000 per month.

Mana Musa Hitam and Zubir? Why they remain silence? Buatlah statement !! Otak dah beku ke? Kalau beku tak payahlah nak jadi Chairman dan CEO !!!

Then you don't know which is which.

Are these lies? Are those truth?

Later you find yourself next to Dollah.

This is the sure short-cut way of becoming billionaires.

Tun did the same way of enriching himself and his gang through YTL and other IPPs at the expense of the poor and debt-ridden TNB.

Now it's time for Dolah and the gang. Having enriched themselves through Air Asia at the expense of Mas, why not consolidate further through the proposed Labu airport at the expense of KLIA.

Comparing the two regimes, the latter has passed something to the Rakyat, in which Air Asia has now made "everyone can fly".

With the synergy obtainable in the Labu Airport, I'm confident that Tony would be very much generous in remitting further benefits to the Rakyat. Whereas the IPPs, which blatantly are seeking and keeping super profit at the expense of TNB and the Rakyat. In spite of the hike in the tariff for the sure IPPs, TNB is left with carrying a debt to the tune of some RM25 billion for the Rakyat to shoulder ultimately.

Salam Ayahanda Tun. Hari ini saya melihat Datuk Seri Najib sangat kusut wajah beliau. Raut wajahnya adalah jauh lebih tua daripada umur beliau. Saya tengok beliau nampak macam benar-benar seorang yang tertekan dan berada dalam kebuntuan. Saya tak nak menyindir beliau dalam komen pada kali ini. Sebab saya merasakan yang sebenarnya memang beliau telah bekerja keras di Parlimen 036 Kuala Terengganu baru-baru ini. Dan jika seseorang itu telah berikhtiar dengan kuat, maka siapalah kita untuk mempersendakan apa-apa tanpa kita jua yang akhirnya akan kehilangan maruah sendiri - dengan cara menyindir sebegitu. Datuk Seri Najib perlu ikhlas bertanyakan diri beliau sendiri, adakah kepimpinan beliau diterima rakyat? Jika kebarangkalian jawapannya adalah: Tidak, maka beliau perlu melihat permasalahan ini dengan jujur dan berani. Nescaya juga jawapan yang bakal beliau perolehi kelak akan bernaungkan kejujuran dan bertiangkan keberanian. Saya merasakan yang rakyat TIDAK menolak Datuk Seri Najib. Rakyat TIDAK menolak BN kerana bencikan BN, dan rakyat tidak menolak UMNO kerana bencikan UMNO. Tetapi sebenarnya, apa yang telah berlaku di P036 adalah merupakan undi suara protes rakyat kepada kepimpinan Perdana Menteri Datuk Seri Abdullah Haji Ahmad Badawi dan juga kepada pembawa menantu lelaki beliau, iaitu Khairy Jamalludin. Ini adalah merupakan cubaan rakyat untuk membersihkan (melalui lunas demokrasi dan secara terhormat) kepimpinan negara daripada pengaruh Abdullah dan Khairy serta para sekutu mereka. Pengunduran Abdullah sudah tidak lagi mencukupi buat rakyat. Dan Datuk Seri Najib tersepit ditengah kemelut diantara kesetiaan beliau kepada ketua dan keikhlasan kepada diri beliau sendiri dan juga rakyat. Di antara Anwar Ibrahim, Hadi Awang, Najib Razak dan Abdullah Badawi - sebenarnya Datuk Seri Najib jauh lebih berkaliiber untuk memimpin Malaysia. Ramai yang bertindak untuk tidak keluar mengundi di P036 baru baru ini sebagai suara protes mereka yang khas ditujukan untuk PM dan menantu beliau Khairy. Wan Farid semua tahu tentang hubungan rapat beliau dengan keluarga PM. Semua kenal siapa Wan Farid. Tetapi kenapa beliau tetap dicalonkan untuk bertanding dan akhirnya membawa kekalahan kepada UMNO? Sikap PM yang berlepas ke Qatar pada hari pengundian telah mengakibatkan imej paparan malam kekalahan BN di P036 terpaksa di tanggung oleh Najib seorang diri. Saya hairan kenapa sampai begini jadinya kredibiliti Datuk Seri Najib? Di manakah pendirian beliau? Di manakah sifat-sifat perjuangan dan kepimpinan beliau? Entahlah Tun. Saya tulis semua ni sebab saya sempat melihat imej terbaru Najib, dan jika di sebelah Penang orang kata "dah gogeh". Datuk Seri Najib, lakukanlah sesuatu untuk menyelamatkan keadaan dan juga untuk menebus kembali maruah perjuangan anda. Jangan diizinkan diri anda diheret turun bersama Abdullah dan para sekutu beliau. Lupakan tentang teori RAHMAN, itu semua cerita karut sami India yang mula diperkatakan oleh kem Musa Hitam/Pak Lah pada awal tahun 80an dulu. Akhir kata Datuk Seri Najib, segeralah anda melakukan sesuatu untuk menyelamatkan maruah dan imej anda dikacamata Melayu di Malaysia sekaligus juga untuk menyelamatkan Melayu dan Negara Malaysia kita. Rakyat menantikan kualiti dalam kepimpinan.

Dear Tun,

KLIA is a fantastic airport. Great looking world class facilities.
The thing is this world class infra structure is managed by fourth world managers.

This point Tun did not touch on.

Airasia has proven themselves to be world class manager, so give them a chance to built and manage their own airport and make the country proud. They should be supported and championed.

A little bit of competition with MAHB will not be bad. For both parties. They might just buck up and ship these fourth world managers out.

Assalamualaikum Tok Dad...

It's been a long while ..after reading your posts and all, and sincerely, you have really inspired me further with your pep talk many years back about the difference of Dato and a Doctor to the world.

However, I have to say the peace, as I think many of our politicians are so engrossed in their own pockets and forgetting what is going on in the world.

Yes, 2KM connector is possible. Singapore Airport runway 20 R and 02 L is more than 5 km apart with a connector, but then, 02L is not usually in use, meant for RAF Changi and the SATS repair crew.

However, I do strongly support your cause, and wondering WHY DON'T WE MAKE THE FULL USE OF SUBANG and convert Sg Besi Airport to Kuala Lumpur City Terminal , just like LCY London Docklands Airport for firefly. Subang used to carry more than what AirAsia will ever churn out. Frankly speaking, they should just kick AirAsia out and just let them use Subang, since it's a no frills. 70 flights a day is what they can max out, and I believe the Ara Damansara residents can bear with it far better than those Singaporeans in Boon Lay tolerating the RSAF Fly By on a 15 min basis.

On another note, when will there be an airport in KULIM as it's a nuisance to drive to PENANG ISLAND, pay RM7 for toll and endure the 75mins drive to the airport from Kulim. Having one here is good for the High Tech Park...and everyone else.

Doesn't this simply stink to high heaven.

This is the trouble when leaders think the country belong to their family members and cronies.

And I thought Tony would have more brains than that. But what is this compared to the Bible, Quran or all the other holy books.

For these people $$$ is their God.

And wonder why the BN lost in the KT by-election. The coalition is guaranteeing itself to be out of power come the next GE.

The (BN) leaders still don't realise the leader of the country now is the DEVIL himself.

Assalamualaikum Ayahanda Tun,

Bercerita mengenai airport ini, baru-baru ini saya dengar cerita syarikat helikopter baru yang bertapak di Miri Sarawak Awaninspirasi Sdn Bhd telah mendapat kelulusan daripada seorang panglima tentera udara untuk membenarkan helikopter syarikat tersebut mendarat di Lapangan terbang Labuan (Military Base) dengan kedua-dua juruterbangnya adalah "mat Salleh" atau Urang Putih...Iban punya cakap. Setahu saya military base ini tidak dibenarkan mana2 pesawat mendarat di lapangan terbang tersebut melainkan mesti ada seorang juruterbang rakyat Malaysia.

Pada pendapat saya adalah orang itu yang sanggup MENJUALKAN Malaysia untuk Mendapatkan DUIT $$$$$$ Bayar Sejumlah $$$, boleh mendarat Sudah.... BAGUS la KERAJAAN Malaysia nihhh!!!! Boleh Jual Beli Lagih TUhhhh... Kena ingat Juruterbang Mat Salleh nih kebanyakannya bekas Tentera.

Assalamualaikum Tok Det.

CADANGAN PROJEK-PROJEK MEGA UNTUK PAK LAH

1. JAMBATAN BENGKOK JOHOR-SINGAPURA. Rakyat dan Sultan Johor yang juga negeri kelahiran Musa Black pasti gembira. Air di Selat Tebrau akhirnya bercantum juga. Musa Black akan pasti akan jadi HERO JOHOR!!!
2. PENGLEBARAN JAMBATAN PULAU PINANG SEDIA-ADA. Tak payah buat jambatan baru sebab kos tinggi. Lambat sangat nak siap. Lagi pun ekonomi tengah lembab sekarang. Pak Lah akan disanjung oleh rakyat di negeri sendiri. Paklah akan dapat gelaran HERO PULAU PINANG!!! BN pasti akan menang semula di Pulau Pinang!!!
3. PROJEK KERETAPI LAJU NASIONAL. Tambah laluan keretapi terutamanya di negeri yang tiada kemudahan keretapi seperti Melaka dan Pulau Pinang (di kawasan pulau). STESEN KERETAPI TERMODEN boleh dibangunkan di LABU dan konsesi diberi kepada SIME DARBY. Sebab stesen keretapi KL pun dan sesak dan uzur dan patut jadi muzium. KJ akan dapat gelaran HERO NEGERI SEMBILAN!!! Lepas tu akan dapat gelaran Datuk Seri KJ yang akan diberi oleh Ali Rustam!!!
4. PROJEK TERNAKAN BABI BERPUSAT DI PULAU. Mohd Taib boleh mencadangkan TERNAKAN BABI BERPUSAT di pulau yang tidak berpenghuni di Malaysia. Kalau boleh pulau yang berdekatan dengan Singapura. Kerana Singapura negara pengimport terbesar babi dari Malaysia. Lagi bagus buat di pulau berhampiran Batu Putih. Silap-silap Singapura akan beri semula pulau Batu Putih kepada Malaysia sebab tak tahan bau babi. Mohd Taib akan menjadi HERO SELANGOR kerana pusat ternakan babi di Selangor tidak perlu lagi diteruskan. Orang Melayu & Cina tentu akan suka dengan jalan penyelesaian ini yang tidak lagi mengganggu sensitiviti kaum selamanya. Mohd Taib pasti menang jawatan TPM sebab disukai semua kaum dan berjaya pula mendapatkan semula pulau Batu Putih yang DIJAJAH oleh Singapura sekarang!!!

KAMI RAKYAT CABAR PAK LAH BUAT SESUATU YANG BENAR-BENAR BERMAKNA KEPADA RAKYAT SEBELUM BERUNDUR!!!

KAMI RAKYAT MALAYSIA JUGA TETAP INGIN MENYANJUNG PAK LAH. WALAU APAPUN ORANG KATA PAK LAH TETAP SEORANG DARI BAPA MALAYSIA KERANA SEJARAH TIDAK BOLEH DIUBAH!!!

Tapi takut Pak Lah tak sempat sebab tinggal 2 bulan je lagi. Pak Lah pulak sibuk dengan SURUHANJAYA tak habis-habis daaa....

Salam YBhg Tun,

Saya melencong sedikit dari kesah Air Port Labu ini dengan cerita lain. Semasa Tun jadi PM dulu terkenal dengan Air Port in the forest KLIA. memang sangat menarik Air port KLIA tu. Juga dengan Garden City Putrajaya. Sekarang ini Putrajaya sudah ada 13 taman. Sekarang ada cerita Mont Kiara nak dijadikan berbagai-bagai Taman. Jean sudah jadi penasihat projek landskap ini. Apalah konsep Tamannya tak tau lah. kononnya nak jadikan tropical forest. Berapa banyaklah tropical forest. Rimba alam kat Putrajaya sudah ada tropical forest. FRIM sudah ada arboretum tropical forest. Kami dari kumpulan botanists mencadangkan mont kiara tu dibangunkan sebuah Taman palma, iaitu koleksi palma dunia. tapi tak dapat sambutan. Malaysia ni ialah Palm country. Malaysia mempunyai bilangan spesies palma kedua banyaknya dalam dunia selepas Amazonia. Kita sepatutnya sudah ada Taman Palma untuk pemuliharaan kepelbagaian biologi. Agaknya sudah ada orang yang nak ambil popularity Tun dalam membangunkan Taman-Taman. Komen sedikit Tun

KT By-Election Reflects Need For Reforms - Gerakan

KUALA LUMPUR, Jan 18 (Bernama) -- The result of the Kuala Terengganu by-election reflects the urgency for Barisan Nasional (BN) to carry out further reforms.

Gerakan president Tan Sri Dr Koh Tsu Koon said the result amplified the need for BN to become a more cohesive and effective multiracial coalition to continue representing, serving and uniting the people.

comment:

First thing first when you want to talk about reforms. UMNO must get rid of haprak, HP6 and dah bodoh stupid and corrupted leaders. Pak Lah and his "deadwood" hopeless konco-konco or cronies must be out from the limelight of UMNO top leadership like Mike Tyson, Khir Toyo, KJ, Ali Rustam and few others. They are just useless fellows and good for nothing. They are the spoilers and a total liability to the party. The UMNO members must kick them out. No two way about it. Najib must remove them for good. Don't give them positions at all. Dump them in order to save UMNO. That is a fact which UMNO members must accept outright. Rakyat dah meluat tengok perangai mereka yang dah tak ada credibility lagi. Rakyat dah benci melihat mereka. Otak mereka sebenarnya KOSONG. Macam TIN MILO KOSONG !!

Sometimes we have to be blunt to get the message clear. Or else they think they are still indispensable.

To initiate reforms we need brilliant technocrat politicians who have the mental capacity and IQ above average in order to get the respect from the rakyat. As for the present set of UMNO leaders unfortunately their level of intelligence does not deserve to lead the rakyat. They are not leaders but "penyangak besar" of the first order. Make no mistake about it. If they are still around for the next few years then I feel sorry for BN. BN will collapse. The nation will collapse. Malaysia will become a failed state.

The opposition parties led by Anwar just as hopeless as UMNO. They also cannot deliver because they simply do not know how to govern. Their political principles all ROJAK. How can they focus on championing the rakyat with different agendas and principles.

Salam

Tun yg dihormati,

Saya tidak bersetuju dengan pembinaan KLIA-East. Izinkan saya bercerita melalui pengalaman saya sepanjang berurusan di LCCT. Saya berkerja di travel agency di Shah Alam dan sering menghantar dan menyambut pelancong-pelancong asing yang keluar dan masuk ke Malaysia. Boleh dikatakan ramai juga pelancong asing yang menggunakan perkhidmatan agensi ditempat kerja saya bercakap tentang LCCT yang pada mereka terlalu nampak "murahan". Yang menjadi persoalan saya ialah kenapa MAHB membina LCCT yang ada pada hari ini cuma ala kadar sahaja dalam erti kata lain seperti melepas batuk ditangga. Kalau kita perhatikan LCCT sebelum projek pengubahsuaian seperti yang dijalankan sekarang ini tersangat ringkas walaupun pengguna masih membayar airport tax (kalaupun airport tax di KLIA lebih mahal itu pun tak banyak beza dgn airport tax di LCCT).

Apa yang ingin saya sampaikan disini ialah walaupun namanya LCCT (Low Cost Carrier Terminal) tapi jangan lah terlalu "low standard" nya kerana LCCT yang ada pada hari ini ialah "hub" utama Airasia dan Malaysia pada amnya dikenali oleh negara-negara lain di Asia sebagai tuan rumah Airasia jadi secara tak langsung nama negara kita juga akan ikut terjejas.

Saya amat berharap LCCT yang projek pengubahsuaianya akan selesai tidak lama lagi akan mementingkan kualiti dan kemudahan bertaraf antarabangsa kepada pengguna dan pengunjungnya walaupun namanya tetap Low Cost Carrier Terminal.

Terima kasih.

KJ Mula Bersuara: Petanda BN Akan Kalah

Beberapa buah media massa mula menyiarkan kenyataan Naib Ketua Pemuda UMNO, Khairy Jamaluddin mengenai pilihan raya kecil Kuala Terengganu. Seperti selalu, kenyataan tersebut bersikap angkuh dan memperlekehkan orang Terengganu, seolah-olah mereka bodoh kerana memilih PAS di tiga dari empat kerusi DUN dalam Parlimen Kuala Terengganu.

comment;

Ramalan blogger Jan 10, 2009 tepat. BN kalah.

KJ ini dah semacam bawa beban kepada UMNO. Dia patut dibenamkan kalau UMNO nak kekal selamanya....

Najib mesti fikirkan sama ada si KJ ni akan bawa tuah atau balak kepadanya.

Dear Tun,

I believe by now the Chairman of Sime Darby must be thinking of naming the new airport.

May I suggest to Musa Hitam to name the airport "LABU LABI INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT". Mr Labu becomes the Chairman of the airport and Mr Labi its CEO. Haji Baghil becomes the "advisor". kah, kah, kah !!!

By pakbelalangAuthor Profile Page on January 19, 2009 12:33 AM

To Najib,

Dengar cakap orang yang dah berpengalaman lebih 21 tahun mentadbir negara. Without the slightest shadow of doubt there is substance to Tun's argument. So the government must make the decision fast to cancel the airport project and move forward to other pressing social and economic matters.

You proceed with this project the BN government will face tough time in the next election. The internet is mightier than the sword !!

Long Live Tun!

Dear Citizens,

1. Pls have a look at the LCCT facilities.
2. Pls look at the price of the food inside the boarding area of the LCCT.
3. Pls look at the number of people in the LCCT.
4. Pls look at the no. of empty seat for you to sit on in the LCCT.
5. Pls look at the landscaping of the LCCT.

Then you will understand why MAHB is not really a smart choice to work with.

I have also heard the 4th floor guys have taken many of the projects including a VERY VERY spacious Police Station in Johor. The police station is bigger than a jail. When you have the time, you can go to Batu Pahat to have a look at the Newly built Police Station.

B, regards,

Salam Tun

To my mind the intention is clear, the government maybe trying to encourage free market by having another airport operator other than MAHB, which will cater for low cost budget carrier like Air Asia and the likes. This will break the monopoly of MAHB in the market, thus creating a competitor for MAHB. I foresee not only Air Asia will benefit from this venture but other regional low budget airlines who will be given landing rights here. Mr. Fernandez has also mentioned about opening other LCCTs in other states and even in neighbouring countries. This piece of information may have prompted the Penang CM asking for LCCT in Penang too. In the meantime talks are still ongoing, albeit behind closed doors, between Air Asia and Jetstar (the Australian low budget carrier) for a possible cooperation or merger. My reading is we will see some foreign interests in the operatorship of these LCCTs either directly or indirectly.

Frankly Tun, I am all for free market competition because I feel its good to have competition and at the end of the day, this will benefit the rakyat. However, on the other hand, the study done failed to take into account of other factors, besides the under utilisation of KLIA, what about existing airports like Batu Berendam in Melaka (which I heard is being upgraded) or even Ipoh for that matter or nearer still Subang. Can Mr Fernandez think of more challenging way to utilise these airports rather than choose a a short cut and simpler way out by building a new one in Labu? Is the same going to happen when Firefly or Berjaya Air becomes larger, they too will be given permission to build their own airports too ?? Now how many airports do we need here !! If this goes on, we have more airports than railway stations or bus terminals.

Of course this will be on rakyat's monies one way or the other..... apa nak jadi nie Tun...

Can someone put some sense into this government head that the rakyat is not at all convinced with all of this... just look at the results of the Kuala Terengganu by-election ! I think this government, more particularly the politicians which are running it, are bend in trying to destroy itself by alienating themselves from the rakyat !

Salam.

Dear Tun,

Mengapa Air Asia nak "menenggek" kat Sime Darby suruh buat airport? The present Sime Darby set up being typical of its "dah bodoh stupid" new Board members and management under Zubir is very raw not like the old guard of Sime Darby management who were very conservative but with full of leadership quality and charismatic outlook. They maintained and applied the highest degree of credibility, transparency and good management principles.

Dear Tun,

Macam mana Barisan nak bangkit semula jika tak habis-habis dengan dasar yang mengelirukan rakyat dan menaikan kemarahan rakyat. Semua projek yang diluluskan tidak masuk akal tanpa membuat "case study" yang menyeluruh untuk dibentangkan kepada rakyat dengan sejelas-jelasnya. Inilah yang dikatakan projek "flip,flop,flup". Akhirnya backfired but the damage has been done to reflect their gross stupidity and finally being ridiculed by the rakyat.What a shame!!

Salam Sejahtera Untuk Tun Dan Keluarga.

Semenjak Pak Lah mengambil tampuk kepimpinan macam macam hal berlaku. Kalau mengutungkan tak palah ini banyak yang merugi kan. Semua dapat di lihat dengan jelas tak ada wawasan langsung.

Semenjak itu negara bukan semakin maju makin mundur.

Sebaiknya Pak lah letak jawatan dengan segera.

Dulu ada yang berkata Tun bengkrup kan negara. Tetapi sekarang siapa yang membengkrup kan negara. Tuhan Maha Adil Tun,dengan sendiri perkara ini terjawab.Tun we still need you very badly. Tun tolong lah kami sama sama menyelamatkan negara kita.Kesilapan memilih Pak Lah telah berlalu,Pak Lah juga akan berlalu.Mari lah sama sama kita memartabat kan Malaysia saperti zaman Tun dahulu.

God Bless You Tun InshaAllah.

Dear Tun,

Selagi otak pemimpin-pemimpin kerajaan diletakkan diponggong mereka, kerajaan akhirnya akan menuju kehancuran. Kepercayaan dari rakyat saban hari semakin pudar, maka selamat jalanlah kerajaan Barisan Nasional.It is no joke. The sign is very glaring and the government is facing tough time to convince the rakyat whether they have credibility anymore to rule the country. Remember, 5 states already gone. Soon everthing is gone!! Do something before it is too late, Najib and gang. Pak Lah is "kaput" !! Deadwood !!

Do you still remember UMNO leaders had "brainstorming" session at Glemmarie after they almost lost in the election. What happens now? They still cannot revitalise their position. They still lost the by-election in KT.

Kata orang Johor, brainstorming "TAIK KUCING" !!

A'kum Tun!

The people involved in this business must get the benefits from it altogether. And it is a shame that the idea is so stupid to build a new airport for the low cost carrier. They already spend millions or ringgit on the LCCT and yet they want to build another one which is less than an hours drive. I really don't understand what is going on with out Prime Minister and the people running the show. They are so dumb and they can't spend the money wisely so that our economy will be better. Instead they waste more money on useless project like this. So sad...

The recent KT election result showed that the people are tired and fed up with the government and they want change. I still don't understand why Pak Lah and the gang do not get this. Even a boy would understand a clear message like that.

Tun, it is so sad to see our country become like this and it is so sad also to mention our Prime Minister is Abdullah Badawi because he is definitely not that great to be our leader. I wish that you could live forever and lead this country to a greater level. but insyallah one day there will be another great leader like you will lead us again in the near future but of course not Najib and his wife. I hope Rakyat will do something about this because from what I heard, he is worse than Pak Lah. So do we want someone worse than Pak Lah to lead our country again?

thank you

Pakatan Form Council Of Menteris Besar/Chief Minister

ALOR SETAR, Jan 18 (Bernama) -- Five states under Pakatan Rakyat (PR) today endorsed the formation of a council of Menteris Besar/Chief Minister and an Exco to ensure they will not be sidelined by the Barisan Nasional government.

Guan Eng said the formation of the council would be a platform for the menteris besar of the Pakatan Rakyat ruled states to be on par with other states when attending meetings held by the Prime Minister during Rulers Council meetings.

comment:

I think these new Chief Minister and Menteri Besars are suffering from cultural shock and inferiority complex. Mereka kena belajar the royal code of conduct apabila berhadapan dan mengadap raja-raja. kah, kah, kah. Carilah buku mengenai Protocol yang dikarang oleh Datuk Kolah.

SALAM AYAHANDA RAKYAT TUN
IZINKAN,

1. Air Asia has done well to explain the justification for the so-called KLIA-East in Labu.

UNFORTUNATELY, SOON AIR ASIA WILL DIG A 'WELL' DEEP ENOUGH TO DROWN THE WHOLE FLEET WHILST THE SDB (STINKING DUMB BASTARDS) AS THE TWO 'THIEFS' (BADAN AND NYAWA) IN THE MOVIE 'NUJUM PAKBELALANG' STILL COUNTING THEIR LOOT.. SATU RATUS JUTA UNTUK ENKKAU, DUA RATUS JUTA UNTUK AKU..

2. Not having the facilities and personnel I can only give my very unprofessional view on the justification:

SOMETIMES THE VIEWS FROM THE HEARTS WOULD PROVIDE THE JUSTIFICATIONS WHICH ARE KNOWN ONLY TO THOSE WHO POSSESSED THE 'FACILITIES'..AYAHANDA TUN IS AMONGST THOSE BLESSED WITH THOSE FACILITIES.

AYAHANDA TUN, ALLOW US TO GO 'OFF' TOPIC.

LAST SATURDAY NIGHT WHILE 'RESTING' ON THE VERENDAH OF THE WATER CHALET AT THE AVILLION HOTEL PD, A FRIEND CALLED TO TELL US THAT BN IS THE FRONT RUNNER IN THE KR BY-ELECTIONS. HE SAID THIS TIME OUR PREDICTION ON THE OUTCOME APPEARS WRONG. WELL, I RESIGNED AND SAID 'MAN PLANS, ALMIGHTY DECIDES'.

THEN CAME THE OFFICIAL RESULT. PAS/PR WON BY 2,600 VOTES. AGAIN, WE WUD LIKE TO MENTION THAT BN DID NOT LOSE TO THE STRENGTH OF PR BUT DUE TO ITS OWN WRONG DOINGS. WE STILL STAND BY THE VOICE OF OUR HEART..'MUSUH DALAM SELIMUT/GUNTING DALAM LIPATAN' FACTOR.

AND NOW FROM THE VOICE OF OUR HEART.. COMES PRU 13, AND THE RAKYAT WILL WITNESS A 'DOUBLE JEOPARDY'..THE 'ROASTING' OF THE 'BADAN' OF BN GOVERNMENT DUE TO THEIR DUMB DECISION ON THE SO-CALLED KLIA @ EAST AND THE WIND-UP 'NYAWA' OF AIR ASIA DUE TO PATRONAGE PHOBIA OF THE 'LONG AND WINDING' ROUTE TO THE NEW 'PUMPKIN' AIRPORT.. THE 'IJN @ LABU' FACTOR.

WE ADD TO OUR LIST OF VOICES FROM THE 'HEART'.

ALFATIHAH, AMIN.

To Sdr Kamal Ahmad; still remember 'your pointing out number 4 back to January 1999?.. kesian Najib.

asskum,

Tun yg dihormati.

Saya risau la Tun,kalau kita rakyat Malaysia masih lagi tidak sedar akan ancaman luar dan dalam negara.

Cuba kita lihat & ambil iktibar daripada kisah Gaza.Memang kasihan lihat mereka,tapi kita kena lihat pada sejarahnya,mengapa mereka menderita sekarang.

Jadi, kalau di Malaysia pula kalau rakyat tidak peka dan sedar akan ancaman-ancaman dari pelbagai bentuk (ekonomi,ilmu dan dll)kita akan ditindas macam tu saja.Terutamanya golongan bumi.Kita patut sedar di mana kekuatan kita sekarang.

Kami generasi baru ini sangat risau dengan masa depan kami.Cuba kita lihat pemimpin kita sekarang,semuanya tidak jelas vision,mission dan sifat ultra membela rakyat & bangsa. Seperti ada saja "hidden agenda" mereka. Kami boleh baca air muka dan hati mereka la.

Secara jujur kami sangat perlukan pemimpin seperti Tun untuk masa kini dan selamanya. Memang Tun dah tinggalkan platform untuk kami dan generasi pemimpin. Tapi rasa tidak yakin masih kuat.

Tun, boleh ke Tun hasilkan lagi sebuah buku untuk panduan dan ikhtibar supaya setidak-tidaknya menjadi pembakar semangat kepada kami. Sememangnya saya ada semangat nak membela bangsa saya.

The Malay Delema 2, the New Generation....can?

Harap Tun komen ye.

SEMBANG POLITIK SMS

Politik ialah teori serba mungkin. Pelbagai kemungkinan boleh berlaku. Jangan pekakkan telinga jika kita dengar sesuatu yang baru tetapi apa yang perlu ialah kita menghalusi dan menyiasatnya.

Saya ingin berkongsi pandangan dengan pembaca apabila seorang rakan saya yang merupakan penyokong kuat Pak Lah menghantarkan mesej pesanan ringkasnya sebagai ucapan selamat tahun baru kepada saya. Katanya, "Tahun baru yang kini tiba adalah satu transformasi perubahan kearah kebaikan, bergerak ke hadapan serta menggapai harapan tinggi untuk tamadun sebuah bangsa," "Semoga Allah yang Maha Esa memberi kekuatan, kesabaran dan Perlindungan kepada YAB Dato Seri Abdullah Hj Ahmad Badawi agar terus mengangkat tamadun ini ke persada lebih terbilang, rakyat kembali meyakini beliau, bersatulah kita untuk membantu beliau kearah transformasi ini, kita ketepikan pemimpin yang rakus, haloba, tidak mengenang budi serta.....Ayuh Malaysia, beri peluang kepada Pak Lah meneruskan cabaran tersebut.."

Saya membalas bertanya, ada peluangkah Pak Lah terus sebagai Perdana Menteri sehingga pilihanraya yang ke 13 dan beliau menjawab Insya Allah jika Allah izinkan, itulah yang akan berlaku. Maka saya terus ingin mendapatkan penjelasan lanjut dengan bertanya bagaimana prosesnya?.Maka kawan baik saya ini menurunkan senarai yang mungkin ada lojiknya. Menurut beliau;

1) Akan ada perkara yang mengejutkan akan berlaku pada sidang parlimen bulan januari 2009 nanti, di mana Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim dan ahli parlimen Pakatan Rakyat (82 ahli) akan membuat usul menyokong kepimpinan Pak Lah sebagai Perdana Menteri Malaysia. Berkemungkinan 'separuh' dari BN akan menyokong. Menurut beliau sebenarnya ianya hanya untuk menunjukkan yang PR tidak boleh terima Najib sebagai PM. Disitu, tambahnya lagi mana-mana ahli parlimen khususnya dari UMNO yang tidak menyokong akan terlibat dengan rombakan kabinet sebab ia ada kaitan dengan pemilihan MCA yang lepas.

2) Menurut beliau, sekiranya di Kuala Terengganu calon BN tumbang, itu merupakan mesej jelas dari UMNO, PR dan rakyat yang mereka tidak boleh terima Najib sebagai PM.

3) Katanya, Akta Suruhanjaya Pencegahan Rasuah Malaysia (SPRM) akan lebih menguatkan Pak Lah.

4) UMNO dan Rakyat telah lihat kerakusan Najib dalam isu Eurocopter, Nombor ekor dan pembelian Institut Jantung Negara selainnya Altantuya.

Setelah mendengar huraikan panjang lebar beliau saya bertanya satu soalan kecil, iaitu bagaimana Pakatan Rakyat mempunyai seramai 82 wakil di parlimen? Agak lama beliau menjawab, bukankah ahli parlimen PR seramai 82 orang? Saya balas, "Ibrahim Ali bukannya dari Pakatan Rakyat". Semua orang tahu bagaimana pendirian beliau di Dewan Rakyat yang lebih cenderung membela ISA, Polis, pelonggaran Akta Universiti dan Kolej 1975 dan bertelagah kasar dengan Karpal Singh dan wakil-wakil DAP yang lain.

Terganggu fikiran kawan saya ini agak lama baru beliau membalas, "dah tolak, jika masuk Ibrahim Ali jumlahnya 83 orang.." jawabnya lemah. Saya membalas menyatakan jumlah ahli parlimen 222, BN 140 orang, Bebas 1 dan Pakatan Rakyat masih 82?. Cuba kira betul-betul itu 'simple mathematic', kata saya. Sebenarnya Ibrahim Ali bertanding di atas tiket PAS di Pasir Mas, tetapi semua maklum beliau tidak menyokong Pakatan Rakyat di bawah pimpinan Anwar Ibrahim.

Beliau lantang dalam isu-isu Islam, Melayu, Raja dan Bahasa. Ini empat perkara yang menjadi asas perjuangan beliau. Soal "katak" adalah merupakan satu 'political swing' yang berlaku dalam seni mendapatkan kuasa, terutama di Kelantan. Pernah dalam satu sidang media dirumahnya pada hariraya yang lalu Ibrahim sempat bergurau, "Siapa ahli politik yang namanya berakhir dengan Ibrahim itu bahaya..". Wartawan tergelak kerana mengingatkan beberapa nama kontroversi seperti Zaid Ibrahim, Khalid Ibrahim dan Anwar Ibrahim. Tetapi Ibrahim Ali namanya di pangkal awal.

Berbalik kepada cerita kawan saya ini apabila beliau menyatakan jumlah yang salah maka saya membetulkannya dengan menegaskan jumlah ahli parlimen adalah 222 dan jika PR 82, BN 140 dan bebas 1 akan berjumlah 223. Pengajarannya adalah, periksa maklumat kita dengan betul walaupun ianya nampak mudah.

Beliau senyap, tetapi saya terus berdiplomasi dengan menyatakan bahawa pandangan politik selalu subjektif dan terdedah pelbagai tafsiran, pandangan dan tanggapan yang tidak semestinya betul. Saya nyatakan pada beliau, kalau saya berada di tempat Anwar Ibrahim, saya mahu BN menari ikut rentak politik saya dan itulah yang Pak Lah lakukan.

"Yang penting biarlah yang memimpin Negara ini bukan yang 'terlalu rosak' moralnya, tak gitu Dato?", Tanya beliau lagi. Saya tegas menjawab ya, "moral, amanah dan kebijaksanaan memimpin". Saya tak tahu samada beliau faham jawapan saya.

"Setuju Dato', mari kita bersatu membantu Pak Lah, saya yakin dengan prinsip perjuangan Dato", dan beliau mengakhirinya dengan mengundang saya untuk makan malam pada satu tarikh yang akan ditentukan kemudian.

Perbualan sms ini bukan dari orang yang berpengaruh dan berjawatan tinggi dalam parti, tetapi cukup untuk saya merenung jauh mengenai apakah debaran yang akan berlaku sehingga Mac 2009, tempoh yang seharusnya merupakan perletakan jawatan Pak Lah selaku PM.

Sebenarnya saya pernah mendengar kebimbangan ini dari orang-orang kuat Najib beberapa bulan dahulu dan kebimbangan ini semakin kedengaran. Ini terbukti lagi apabila Malaysiakini yang merupakan laman web yang menyokong kuat Anwar Ibrahim menyatakan dalam kepala beritanya: "Najib, KT is a do-or-die battle":

"Deputy Prime Minister Najib Razak couldn't have made it any clearer - the upcoming Kuala Terengganu by-election is crucial for Umno. Indeed for him, Kuala Terengganu is the key to reversing Umno's fortune."

Ahh, ini merupakan satu lagi percubaan baru dalam perlumbaan ke Putrajaya. Malang bagi Najib kerana mewarisi suatu suasana politik yang tidak menentu walaupun sarung keris sudah ditangan. Ramai penyokong Najib dan Anwar berdebar-debar siapakah yang akan sampai dahulu ke Putrajaya sebelum Mac 2009. Ini kerana peristiharan 'gempa' Anwar Ibrahim untuk menubuhkan kerajaan melalui pintu belakang belum berjaya.

Saya percaya, Anwar Ibrahim akan menggunakan langkah maksimum bagi memastikan Najib tidak akan menjadi PM. Caranya dengan membina tanggapan buruk rakyat terhadap peribadi Najib dalam pelbagai isu yang dibangkitkan. Tarikh akhirnya adalah Mac 2009. Betul atau tidak belum tahu tetapi tanggapan atau persepsi sudah cukup untuk seseorang itu disokong atau dihukum rakyat.

Saya ulangi, tanggapan dan persepsi rakyat dan bukannya mahkamah. Hakim mahkamah adalah hakim konspirasi sekiranya membuat keputusan yang tidak menyebelahi sesuatu pihak. Buatlah Suruhanjaya Kehakiman macammana sekalipun. Inilah trend politik baru sekarang. Yang penting strategi politik ialah orang yang menyerang bertalu-talu tak kan sekalipun tak masuk gol?.

Menyedari hakikat inilah kumpulan Pak Lah bersiap sedia untuk menghadapi suasana baru ini. Bukan untuk Najib dan Anwar, tetapi untuk dirinya sendiri. Begitu juga Anwar yang berkemungkinan membuat sokongan terbuka kepada Pak Lah, bukan untuk menyokong Pak Lah tetapi untuk menyekat kemaraan Najib yang semakin diserahkan tameng sari.

Ini kerana Kelemahan ketara kepimpinan Pak Lah merupakan 'lauk' kepada Anwar Ibrahim, seperti yang terbukti dalam persaingan mereka baik semasa dalam UMNO mahupun Pakatan Rakyat.

Apapun, ketidaktentuan suasana politik yang panjang tidak menguntungkan rakyat sama sekali. Para pelabur dan ahli perniagaan sukar untuk membuat keputusan perniagaan. Kita mengharapkan debaran ini akan cepat berakhir. Kalau Anwar Ibrahim mempunyai jumlah yang cukup untuk menubuhkan kerajaan buatlah sekarang dan saya percaya rakyat serta pemimpin yang tidak menyokong beliau akan membuat penyesuaian dengan cepat. Jika tidak hentikanlah 'gempa' yang tidak berkesudahan dan tunggulah peralihan kepimpinan pada Mac nanti atau Pilihanraya Umum yang ke 13 yang akan datang.

Tun.

Kerajaan Pak Lah tak serik2 membuat atau merancang projek2 yang kontroversi, bertentangan dengan pemikiran waras rakyat. Siapa lah 'master mind' semua projek2 ini.

Apa rational nya yang kerajaan bersetuju sangat2 akan projek seumpama ini.
Kerajaan maseh tak insaf dan maseh tidak mahu belajar untuk melihat bagaimana untuk menguruskan pembagunan yang benar2 menguntungkan seluruh rakyat bukan untuk segelintir yang berkementingan. Jawapan dan pertunjuk telah rakyat berikan dari segala kegalan kerajaan mengurus tadbir negara. Yang terbaru keputusan di P036 KT.

BN kecundang. Walaupun kerajaan menabur berjuta RM di KT. Tapi maseh ditolak rakyat. Kenapa? Apakah BN mahu terus ditolak rakyat pada PRU13? Renung2kan lah bakal PM. DSNTR. Usahlah ikut sangat rentak Pak Lah dan menantu nya itu. kerana merka lah KT kalah kat Pas.

Pengundi di KT meluat tenguk KJ berkempen untuk calon pilihan nya, proxy nya di Terengganu. Rakyat terengganu tahu dan nampak hal ini.

Tun, ada apa2 nak komen tentang P036 KT ini.

Saya gembira apabila melihat UMNO kalah di Kuala Terengganu.....apa pun, isyarat yang diberi oleh rakyat Terengganu amatlah jelas...mereka sudah bosan dengan kepimpinan UMNO sekarang. Saya sedih melihat wajah DSNTR sebagai Chief pilihanraya di KT tu... Apa yang boleh beliau buat...itu semua kehendak si Pak Lah tu. Tak sabar menunggu March 2009..tarikh keramat untuk UMNO dan BN mendapat tali hayat mereka semula. Untuk DSNTR jgm merasa sedih...rakyat terengganu sayangkan anda....mereka di Terengganu dan di seluruh Malaysia akan menyokong balek UMNO dan Bn bila kepimpinan sekarang telah di tukar ..... DSNTR akan menjadi PM dan Saudara Mukhriz menjadi Ketua Pemuda ..... INSYAALLAH....

sy belajar kat luar negara. tiap2 tahun paling kurang sekali akan balik Malaysia. rindu kat Malaysia la katakan.

dulu senang je. bila sampai KLIA, boleh terus ambil domestic flight balik rumah.selalunya air asia sebab lagi murah berbanding MAS.

sekarang? kalau nak naik air asia kena naik bas pergi LCCT.saya sangaaaaaatlah tak setuju bila air asia pindah ke sana. sekarang kena angkut beg besar 30kg+ naik bas.leceh.pakcik driver bas pun bukannya tolong angkutkan beg pun.

kenapa air asia pindah ke sana? adakah MAS takut bersaing dgn air asia? (masa tu mmg air asia tgh popular sbb lg murah.sy rasa firefly tu ditubuhkn pun sbb nk bsaing dgn air asia.tanak MAS rugi.firefly part of MAS kan?)if air asia was kicked out of KLIA coz of MAS, i am so frustated. tak fikirke kesusahan penumpang??

KLIA mmg bes. kemudahan lengkap. kecuali peak time-surau x muat. airport punya la besar, tapi surau kat corner2 je? selain tu, KLIA ni nampak suram la. KLIA siap dibina rasanya cam takdelah lama sangat, tapi nampak macam usang. airport changi memang lagi lawa la compared to KLIA and even other european airports i've been to.

tambang ERL mmg takleh turun ke? RM 70 pergi balik? kopak la poket. pengangkutan awam lain cam takde dah. teksi pun lebih kurang mahal je.

pengangkutan awam kat KL bile nak upgrade? buat la sistem bus pass. tak payah pakai konduktor bus dah.

kenapa KL kotor? sampah berlambak kat jln TAR. kenapa tak pernah nampak DBKL sapu sampah? selalu nampak jadi polis trafik pulak. bab trafik tak boleh bagi polis trafik PDRM uruskan ke?

hmm.. mungkin saya mengadu kat salah tempat. tapi nak jugak. dah lama geram.

saya sayang Malaysia. bila duduk oversea baru tahu macam mana perasaannya when u've got home to come back to... tahu tak macam mana perasaannya merempat kat negara orang???

1. i luv airasia because with few hundreds ringgit i can fly away and experience new "education" that we human being needs. dulu nabi muhammad kita kata, belajaulah sehingga ke negeri cina. la nih, dengan RM 0 + tax, kita dah boleh belajaq ke negeri cina.

2. about the aerobridge. cmon, KLIA is an international hub. it should have aerobridges. kesianlah makcik2/pakcik2 tua tuh, kena jalan kaki. macam ada sorang tuh suggest pakai bus, tuh pun ok, tapi still kalo ada aerobridge, takdalah susah sangat orang tua wheelchair nak naik kapal terbang.

tok det yang disayangi takpalah... boleh lagi dan masih kuat. Untuk pelanggan2 airasia yang dah nak cium bau tanah, mereka terpaksa panjat tangga kapal terbang dan berjalan beratus meter between arrival and departure hall.

then kalo lah saya jadi TKI ( tenaga kerja indonesia ) yang berulang alik surabaya-lcct, mesti saya akan heran kenapa bandara di surabaya ada aerobridge dan airport di lcct@KLIA takda. kuno jugaklah malaysia nih agaknya. di indonesia, major airports ada aerobridge and smaller airports yang pakai taxi dan yang lagi kecil barulah kena jalan kaki. secara perbandingan bodoh hamba ini, lcct yang bejuta2 tuh sama jek dengan airport indo yang paling kecil, yang ntah apa tah namanya.

3. selain dari itu, duit tax yang mahb kutip tuh apa lah gunanya. tak salah rasanya MAHB beli aerobridge dari muhibbah engineering banyak2. kalo lah setahun ada berpuluh juta airasia passenger kali dengan rm 20-30 airport tax, pehhhh... banyak aerobridge boleh buat tuh. satu aerobridge baru baper, rm 5 juta ke 10 juta jek. at least depa ada makanlah in these hard time. hehehe.

mungkin MAB akan kata duit tuh nak spend utk airport lain2 juga. tapi apa salahnya menyumbang balik kepada airport yang bagi banyak untung.

4. saya harap tidak adalah any pack yg dikatakan2 di atas seperti mahb-mas cuba bersekongkol utk trash air asia growth or airasia-sd cuba utk outdo klia. after all, malaysia nih kecil. kalo benda as simple as this kerajaan tak dapat intervenc, habislah. Apalah guna perkataan GLC pada MAHB tuh sekiranya kerajaan tidak dapat menentukan policy yang terbaik untuk rakyat dan para pekerja air asia mahupun MAHB +

MAS. Perlu diingat, although ada pembaca yg address airasia's stewardess skimpy dresses, tapi kat situ jugalah diorang mencari rejeki. MAS pun apa kurangnya dengan skandal pramugara terlampaunya.

Dan anda perlu tahu, kawan saya di airasia pernah bercerita yang airasia ada pilot pompuan yang comel dan pakai tudung lagi.

akhir kata, apalah guna akal yang panjang, kalo diguna untuk membunuh diri.

Selamat Sejahtera Tun,

What happen to Sime Darby, she is a agriculture giant, as such she should thinking how to expand existing businesses and should now thinking how to venture into agroculture and aquaculture businesses which have synergy with agriculture business. But look like she is now busy taking over Institute Jantung and expanding into airport bussiness. No wonder its share has plunged more than 50% since the new chairman took over.

Sincereby wish Tun in good health always.

Assalamualaikum Tun,

Ada yang berkata, biarlah AirAsia/Sime Darby nak bina KLIA-East. Mereka buat secara "private funding initiative (PFI)". Bukan pakai duit kerajaan. Dari segi funding tu, mungkin benarlah. Cuma dari segi kesannya terhadap sistem pengangkutan kita, nampak gayanya berterabur balik lah. Yang susah ialah rakyat.

Dari masa Tun M menjadi PM kita boleh nampak, ada usaha dan visi untuk memperbaiki dan meningkatkan mutu sistem pengangkutan kita. Oleh itu timbul lah PLUS, timbul lah KLIA, timbullah KL Sentral dan juga projek landasan keretapi berkembar. Nampak jelas hala tujunya. Dan rakyat boleh menunggu dgn sabar kerana mereka tahu perancangan masa depan dah jelas dan akan menyenangkan mereka.

Bila terbinanya LCCT, walaupun rakyat dapat menikmati perkhidmatan tambang murah, rakyat sebenarnya tidak mendapat yang terbaik. Bayangkan kalau kita ada connecting flights antara KLIA dan LCCT ini. Sistem teksinya juga masih lagi ditahap yang sungguh sungguh rendah. Kalau kita bina juga KLIA-East ini, maka keadaan ini akan menjadi lebih kelam-kabut (Dan juga, toloooong sangat2 lah, jangan nak kelirukan rakyat dengan menggunakan slogan "Terminal Rakyat"). Sepatutnya, KLIA itu diperbesarkan untuk menampung keperluan penerbangan tambang murah ini.

Sekarang ini mungkin KLIA-East, lepas ni? KL Sentral-East? atau Putrajaya-West? Mungkin Cyberjaya-North? Oh ye Litar F1-South?

Salam Tun and all bloggers,

After reading Tun's unprofessional point view:

- 1) "The Master of Labu" still and always thought that we are too stupid to understand the real image of shadow behind.
- 2) "The Master of Labu" always assume people won't read the "real" as Malaysian don't like so much on reading and there is no facility of retrieving data. i.e. Malaysian people never know how to use internet or e-mail. That's why they intend to give that "wangi" statements but misleading with hope people can't get it!
- 3) "The Master of Labu" is trying to meet the requirement of planned well future for bright attitude which it will give more benefit to the legacy of "Labi". (The old Labu & Labi failed to do that...they learned from there I guess)
- 4) The long term investment of "pertolongan" to all people who will give their full support to achieve the mission and vision to be Malaysia's "Pinggan Mangkuk" saya sokong " Say no to Labu Airport". Tingkatkan dahulu sistem pengangkutan awam kat darat di mana orang awam sangat memerlukannya dan bukan airport baru. Kalau orang turun pergi kerja dengan kapalterbang tak apa juga....Tetapi logik kah pergi kerja tiap tiap hari dengan menaikki kapalterbang sedangkan naik pun bus dah tak teratur dan dah tak terbayar bagi orang kebanyakan. Ini adalah penyalahgunaan duit rakyat yang sangat membazir. Dimanakah usaha kerajaan sekarang rakyat dapat melihat bahawa kerja-kerja meningkat sistem pengangkutan awam sedang dilakukan atau hanya dalam ucapan dan kertas sahaja.Sepatutnya kerajaan sekarang belajar merancang secara realistik ....Kalaupun naik bus dapat pergi ke mana-mana dengan sistem pengangkutan yang baik tak payahlah beli kereta pening pasal bayaran pada bank, penjagaan kereta, insurance tahunan, cukai jalan, minyak dan banyak lagi kos bila kereta dah makin tua....Bilalah kerajaan sekarang dan akan datang, betul betul berfikir untuk rakyat dan bukan rakyat berfikir untuk kerajaan...

Salam Tun,

Banyak lagi nak tulis tetapi semakin saya tulis makin saya sedar harapan pada kerajaan sekarang hanyalah angan-angan...

harap Tun terus menulis untuk rakyat dan demi rakyat, bukan macam Badawi untuk kroni dan demi kroni.....akhir sekali demi poket yang besar dan tak reti nak cukup..

Happy Chinese New Year and God bless u and ur family..

Salam Ayahanda Tun. In my view, the rakyat want accountability from someone for all the lunacies from October 2003 to date. That accountability is not forthcoming from the two most accountable figures in this fiasco; Abdullah and Khairy. Fat chance in hell it would be coming put of their gold filled mouths. So now the rakyat go for the next available "free" throat, which is the one on Najib's neck. So Najib has only limited choices here – he could go on ahead and be made PM by Abdullah the way Abdullah had intended in March; and this way, Najib would never ever be able to repair his image of being an Abdullah crony, an Abdullah nominee, an Abdullah subsidize replacement, an Abdullah stooge (etc...). Or for all that he is worth; Najib could make a stand now and break away from all this immediately. You have to fight for what you want in life, leave behind all the comforts and you just have to take your chances. And chances favor the prepared mind, and the daring soul. True, by the way and looks of how Abdullah and Khairy had arranged everything in UMNO today, Najib may lose his premiership by doing it this way. And really, Najib has no one but his own indecisiveness to blame for all this. He should have made this move 6 months ago. But at least by taking the fight out in the open for the rakyat to cheer and shout approval, he may lose with dignity today and would live to fight for another day. Or he may not even lose at all and survives better off. Who knows really. And that's the best part about life, its all about taking it and making it. In my book - a poor man's guide at life, sometimes losing is the only best way to win again on some other day. Najib's game is fast coming to a checkmate here. If the power transfer takes place as planned in March 09, well I guess that is probably about it for Najib and UMNO. Najib would inherit all the detestation, hatred and revulsion the rakyat has for Abdullah and Khairy - and Najib on his own, would be eaten alive on those accounts! So Najib, its time to do something here man. Or just go the easy way; hit that cruise control switch and just kick back. It's always your call to make.

Dear Tun,

Umno veep: BN needs new approach

MALACCA: Umno vice-president Datuk Seri Mohd Ali Rustam will call for a change in the approach taken by Barisan Nasional to woo voters following the coalition's loss in the Kuala Terengganu Parliamentary by-election.

Describing the loss as a minor setback, he noted that factors had surfaced which pointed to a need for Barisan to adopt new strategies to win back support.

"We are the ones doing all the work and bringing development, yet the diehard opposition supporters continue to vote for the Opposition in the belief that they will go to heaven," he told reporters after launching the state St John Ambulance's 24-hour service yesterday.

Mohd Ali said that Barisan, in particular Umno, must look at ways to overcome this "belief" amongst diehard opposition supporters if the party intends to make headway in opposition-held seats.

"The Opposition used the same old approach by saying that those who voted for PAS and DAP would go to heaven while those voting for Umno and MCA would go to hell," he said.

Mohd Ali also attributed intimidation by PAS supporters and some estimated 3,000 voters who failed to return home to cast their votes as reasons for the Barisan loss.

Comment:

Inilah kenyataan yang paling dah bodoh stupid dari naib presiden UMNO.

Sebenarnya UMNO kalah pasal rakyat dah meluat dan jijik dengan perangai dan sikap pemimpin UMNO yang dah sombong, rasuah dan tak sedar diri.

assalamualaikum ayahanda tun,

Ramai yang mengatakan bahawa tun amat berdendam terhadap AAB sehingga selalu mencari kesalahan AAB sehinggakan isu yang dibangkitkan tun tentang KLIA-East ini tiada lain hanyalah hendak menghentam AAB sahaja. Memang secara peribadi saya sendiri amat bangga dengan kejayaan yang telah dicapai oleh Air Asia. Melihat lambang pasukan kegemaran saya Man United terpampang di badan kapal terbang air asia adalah satu kebanggaan sebenarnya. Kewujudan Air Asia adalah juga dari restu Tun suatu masa dahulu. Pemimpin kerajaan mana yang sanggup memberi lampu hijau kepada sebuah syarikat penerbangan tambang murah untuk beroperasi pada waktu syarikat penerbangan nasional negara mengalami krisis kerugian paling teruk dalam sejarahnya ?. tapi tun beri jugak. Dan saye percaya tun sebenarnya juga bangga dengan kejayaan yang telah dicapai oleh Air Asia . Tetapi sekarang Air Asia yang diterajui Mr Tony Fernandes (dan tangan2 dibelakangnya) telah menjadi terlalu tamak . Mengapa dibazirkan kemudahan yang telah sedia ada ? its not just a facilities, is a world class facilities that just too good to be waste ... jadi saya merasakan bahawa rancangan KLIA-East ini adalah semata2 untuk memuaskan nafsu Mr Tony sahaja .. hes now become the most ambitious man in this country ... selama ini saya rasa kerajaan dah bagi apa sahaja yang mereka minta .. apalagi nak ? Kenapa mesti nak melampau ? kalau macam ni suruh jela MAS turunkan harga tiket dan gunakan strategi pemasaran mcm Asia biar semue orang beralih pada MAS and then lets see how they gonna survive ... geram lak aku ...

akhir sekali tun jage kesihatan k tun ... kami semua masih memerlukan tunjuk ajar dan nasihat dari tun ... malaysia dah teruk tun ... kami sentiasa doakan keselamatan tun sekeluarga ... Assalamualaikum ...

Tony sounds desperately indeed, however, does MAHB did their job? As mentioned being a Khazanah co. aren't they should be the first one to propose solution to AirAsia in order to keep the priority of low cost for the Rakyat? Proposal has been submitted to Cabinet in 2007, it takes 1 year to get approval.

MAHB doesn't aware about it earlier until cabinet approve it?

I think the mis-management from the top level of MAHB has eventually lead people lost of confidence on them. Should MAHB starts to review this case seriously? By the way, who wants to take the hassle to build a new airport and manage it?

Whether it is transparent or not, i think AirAsia willing to open book and in the event, Opposition could help us counter check.

Dear Tun,

Apa nak jadi dengan kerajaan kita sekarang? Setiap satu projek yang dibuat kononnya untuk kesejahteraan rakyat, untuk rakyat dan kepada rakyat. Benarkah? Yang pasti pemimpin sekarang lebih berminat untuk mengisi tembolok sendiri.

Tun, pilihanraya kecil Kuala Terengganu telah berakhir. Rakyat telah bersuara. Kalau beginilah iklim politik semasa, BN kena berharap semua wakilrakyatnya panjang umur. Kalau tak...kita dah boleh jangka kesudahannya. Rakyat tidak lagi boleh digula-gulakan dengan isu pembangunan dan kebajikan rakyat. Itu adalah tanggungjawab kerajaan dan pemimpin. Mereka memegang jawatan adalah untuk berbakti kepada rakyat dan menjalankan amanah yang dipertanggungjawabkan. Sebab itu mereka berada dikedudukan selesa tersebut. Segalanya rakyat tanggung. Kediaman, perabut, pembantu rumah, kenderaan, minyak kereta, tol, bercuti keluar negeri, keraian dan apa-apa saja kehendak yang kuasa boleh berikan. Keadaan dunia hari ini menyebelahi orang yang berjenama dan berkedudukan. Rakyat yang tidak ada apa-apa ini hanya berharap kepada pemerintahan yang adil dan saksama. Jika itupun tak dapat dipikul maka....tak perlulah wakil-wakil rakyat ini menawarkan diri untuk menjadi pemimpin kepada rakyat.

Ketahuilah wahai ahli politik, rakyat sekarang tidak lagi memilih parti yang dinaungi malah lebih kepada faktor peribadi calon itu sendiri. Termasuklah cara mana mereka ini mengendalikan rumahtangga sendiri. Kalau rumahtangga sendiri pun tak boleh jaga bagaimana nak menjaga negara.

Tun, take care. Malaysia still need u around

Tajuk : TUN MAHATHIR HARUS BUANG YANG KERUH1.

Di Kuala Terengganu, petunjuk yang boleh menyenangkan hati ialah BN masih disokong oleh 30,200 pengundi bermakna BN masih relevan.

2. Kemenangan PAS masih merupakan sambungan tsunami politik PRU12, menunjukkan pembangkang masih beruntung kerana trend itu masih berterusan.

3. Tun Mahathir tidak sepatutnya menutup pintu untuk membantu BN hanya kerana tidak bersetuju dengan Pak Lah atas beberapa perkara, kerana sebagai PM Pak Lah sudah pasti mempunyai alasan untuk meneruskan atau membatalkan satu-satu dasar untuk kepentingan negara. Perkara ini pun dilakukan Tun pada ketika Tun sebagai PM.

4. Tun Mahathir dikenali kerana semangat nasionalismenya yang kuat kepada bangsa Melayu & tanah air, namun dalam konteks UMNO Tun telah silap apabila tidak menyokong UMNO sepenuhnya semasa PRU12 dan PRK Permatang Pauh & terbaru K.Terengganu.

5. Jika Pak Lah seorang yang pendendam, sudah pasti Mukhriz tidak jadi Ahli Parlimen, malah sudah pasti Mukhriz akan digantung keahliannya kerana menulis surat yang tidak patut kepada Presiden.

6. Tunku dahulu tidak mengambil masa lama untuk memecat Tun Mahathir akan perkara yang sama.7. Maka itu, jika Tun memang benar-benarlah sayangkan bangsa Melayu, maka Tun perlu membuang egonya.

8. Jika Tun dalam usia 84 masih sanggup terbang ke Kuwait untuk membantu rakyat Palestin, mengapa tidak kepada orang Melayu & UMNO yang pernah dipimpinya dan yang meletakkannya ke mercu tanda.

9. Penulis berharap Tun berbaik-baiklah semula dengan Pak Lah, janganlah memberi syarat untuk membantu UMNO dan orang Melayu, jika tidak penulis percaya tidak mustahil PRU-13 nanti Perdana Menteri Malaysia terpaksa dipilih dalam kalangan MP DAP!

10. Ia tidak mustahil, dahulu di Singapura ada 3 Kerusi MP UMNO, akhirnya PAP berjaya leraikan, mansuhkan dan tutup sama sekali peluang UMNO & Melayu di Singapura.

Tun,

Frankly speaking, I do not want Air Asia to be succeeded at all, not because I am a die hard fan of Tun, or people nicknamed me as "pengipas or pembodek Tun" or whatever.

I believe if Malaysia (an Islamic Country) is build through the name "Asia", eg:- Air Asia, Asia Funds, Asia Flavours or anything that has an Asia word in it, Malaysia will be viewed in future as a threat or enemy to the western and middle and east countries.

Pak Lah, of course he won't see the threats of making Air Asia successful, to him, all he can think of is Tun zalim, jahat, cemburu, dictator, pandang rendah kat dia, these are the stupid reasons that he can think of. He would not be able to see that he is actually digging grave for our future generations. No matter what it is, Tun, DS Najib and DS Ong Tee Keat, DS Samy, Tok Nik Aziz, Lim Guan Eng (BN, PAS or PR) must stop this future disaster by closing off the Air Asia and the LCCT in Labu for the sake of our future generations. In religion, we are taught to be NEVER BE GREEDY, IF YOU ARE GREEDY, TUHAN Salah satu topik hangat untuk sembang-sembang di kedai kopi sekarang adalah mengutuk tindakan kejam Israel terhadap Palestin. Kita hanya mampu berdoa dan menghulurkan bantuan kewangan. Itu sajalah yang kita mampu.

Juga topik hangat di kedai kopi sekarang ialah kepimpinan Barisan Nasional yang lemah, berdasarkan rasuah, dan manusia tertentu yang ingin membolot semua projek di Malaysia. Kita hanya mampu menambahkan dosa masing-masing dengan mengutuk manusia-manusia tertentu ini. Selain itu tidak banyak yang kita mampu lakukan untuk menyelamatkan Malaysia.

KT pun dah terlepas ke tangan pembangkang. Saya amatlah yakin Malaysia akan terlepas ke tangan pembangkang tidak lama lagi.

Walaupun tak sanggup diperintah oleh pembangkang, nampaknya dah tak ada pilihan lain. Kita dah menyampah tengok hari-hari ada projek untuk orang-orang kaya yang inginkan kekayaan yang bertambah tambah dan tambah dan tambah lagi.

I read Tony's Q&A in one of the local dailies and was impressed with the objectives of Air Asia for the coming years. His detailed analysis for the need to expand his business in this region of Asia need to be congratulated. We need good infrastructures, conducive political climate and firm vision from entrepreneurs to embark in a no nonsense project of this scale.

Air Asia, earlier proposed to operate its LCCT Terminal from Subang and the former Transport Minister made many assurances to improve the facilities of the airport way back then.

Air Asia's preference to operate from Subang was a good news to many air travellers due to its vicinity to the city. But all of a sudden, many things went "wrong" and this did not materialise and Fire Fly, operated by MAS is using the facility now.

Since Air Asia is on the expansion path with the increasing fleet of its aircrafts and the potential of increasing its air routes, it would be only logic for it to have an airport independent of KLIA. This would be a check and balance and would help to improve the services of air transportation in general.

Since Air Asia is willing to fund the project, I see no reason why there is so much of fuss. As MAHB could not cope with the demands of Air Asia to increase or improve the facilities at the LCCT in Sepang, it is only prudent for any business concern in the field to find an alternative mode to fulfill its obligations. So the idea of another airport brewed!

Decision to build another airport is not a small matter, taking into consideration of the prohibitory costs. The new airport would certainly boost the country's image and imagine the flow of capital and revenue that would be generated in Malaysia by the increase in air passage. Employment opportunities too would be increased.

At a time when the world is facing economic slowdown, Air Asia has made an exceptional proposal for the construction of an additional airport. Whether this project would materialise is another matter. The positive attitude and intelligent business vision of Tony certainly need to be praised.

My personal view is that Air Asia should do a thorough soul searching of KLIA's capacity to meet Air Asia's needs for its long term requirement. Labu would be a good choice for the location of the new airport due to its close vicinity with KLIA which could be readily connected by rail and roads, but the building of additional runway would be a set back.

MAHB should seriously consider Air Asia's concerns and work closely with all parties concerned to meet the requirements rather than having a "closed mentality" approach which is typical of most of our government agencies. Convince Air Asia that KLIA is a better choice.

MAHB being the manager of a First Class airport still possess the Third Class business mentality.

MAHB, please shed your arrogant attitude and instead manifest your ability to meet customer obligations as stated in your business manifesto. GLCs should not be helmed by incapable managers!

KLIA is so huge and it cannot be denied that it is severely under utilised. It would be a slap on the face for MAHB if Air Asia's proposal for a LCCT in Penang come through. MAHB you better buck up!

Assalamualaikum Tun:

Memang payah untuk rakyat biasa seperti kami untuk memahami apakah tujuan sebenarnya disebalik kekecohan dengan LCCT baru ini. Tetapi bagi kami tanggapan pertama kami, mesti ada udang sebalik batu. Tanggapan ini yang amat mudah kita ambil memandangkan kerajaan dan pentadbiran yang ada sekarang memanglah tidak popular dan semakin dibenci rakyat dengan banyak program program dan pembangunan dan projek projek yang tak masuk akal langsung.

Kebencian rakyat telah terbukti sekali lagi di P036 Kuala Terengganu dan amat malang sekali Dato' Seri Najib menjadi mangsa kepada putar belit Abdullah Badawi. Tak payahlah saya 'elaborate' cara nya sebab umum tahu BN akan kalah di Kuala Terengganu. Buat masa sekarang ini kita doakan saja moga-moga tidak ada lagi mana-mana ahli parlimen yang tiba-tiba meninggal dunia sebab buat masa ini kalau diletakkan parti cap BELACAN pun untuk lawan BN di mana-mana pilihanraya kecil, sudah pasti parti cap BELACAN tu menang! Sebab apa, sebab BN tak pernah sebodoh BN sekarang ini, terlampau ramai politician BN termasuk pemimpinnya mementingkan tekak sendiri.

Kembali kepada masalah kapal terbang Air Asia ni, tidak dapat saya lupakan kepada satu lagi masalah benda- benda terbang yang menghantui Malaysia, nyamuk AEDES dan Dengue. Angin jugak saya bila memikirkan cara dan tindak tanduk kerajaan untuk menangani masalah ini, tak cukup dengan hanya memberitahu rakyat cara cara untuk membersihkan keadaan sekitar rumah kita sahaja. Masalah ini telah menghantui Malaysia berpuluh tahun sudah. Tetapi apakah inisiatif sebenar kerajaan Malaysia yang perihatin ini untuk memberi segala tumpuan untuk menghapuskannya dengan cara yang paling komprehensif. Berapakah jumlah belanjawan kerajaan untuk R&D kepada masalah ini? Tidakkah Malaysia ingin menjadi negara pertama yang menemui cara untuk menhhapuskan sama sekali virus dengue dan nyamuk ini?

Saya sendiri pun baru sahaja keluar dari pusat perubatan kerana dihidapi demam dengue. Percayalah demamnya amat menyakitkan sekali, tak dapat saya bayangkan bagaimana jika anak-anak kecil kita yang terpaksa melawanya, maut memang menunggu kita. Akibat dari trauma ini saya mungkin akan mati juga daripada akibat terlampau banyak menyedut aerosol anti nyamuk yang saya terpaksa gunakan sejak kebelakangan ini.

Tun yang saya hormati, kadang kadang projek-projek gah yang tak tentu arah ini bukanlah yang diinginkan sangat oleh rakyat jelata. Kami rasa sudah cukup apa yang Tun laksanakan dari segi infrastruktur untuk menjadi pemangkin kepada kemajuan seterusnya. Apa yang rakyat mahukan sekarang ialah keselesaan dan keselamatan kami untk menjalani hidup seharian. Keselesaan dari segi kesihatan dan keselamatan kemerdekaan kita dari ejen-ejen dan proksi-proksi Zionist yang semakin berkuasa sekarang ini di Malaysia.

Jadilah kerajaan yang perihatin dan mementingkan keselesaan dan keselamatan rakyat, rakyat akan menjadi rakyat yang sentiasa menyokong kerajaan.

I agree with you Tun. I'd been to many airports such as Changi, Jakarta, Hong Kong, Seoul, Dubai, Bahrain, Jeddah, Heathrow, Luton, Stansted, Dublin, and many more airports in Europe.

All airports more or less look similar but so far I found that the most under-utilised and the most unlividly airport is the KLIA. Despite the beautiful set-up and ambience, there are not many people in the shops or the cafes. Therefore, LCCT should not be built at first place. There are so much space in KLIA, make use of it.

If prices are the problem, MAHB should sort it out. Whatever the underlying problems are, the government should interfere.

Saya adalah salah seorang rakyat Malaysia yang sering ke LCCT kerana kerjaya saya yang memerlukan saya 'travel' selalu.

Bayangkan saya boleh menyamakan LCCT dengan stesen bas Puduraya.

Kesibukan LCCT dan kepadatan yang sesak adalah saya rasa wajar bagi satu lagi landasan yang boleh MENGURANGKAN KESESAKAN tersebut dan MELEGAKAN pandangan mata.

Apa yang perlu ialah bukannya kekangan terhadap memajukan tanah semak samun tersebut kepada sebuah bandar baru yang terancang.

Yang sepatutnya dibincangkan adalah agar tender terbuka bagi pemaju-pemaju yang bakal merebut projek.

Yang sepaptutnya dibincangkan adalah rentetan kemajuan yang bakal menyulami pembangunan di kawasan tersebut.

Jangan jadi primitif untuk menolak kemajuan tetapi bertamadun menyelia kemajuan dengan lebih telus dan adil.

KLIA-East dibina adalah kerana permintaan Air-Asia untuk menambah kapasiti penerbangannya.

Bayangkan kawasan yang semak samun itu bakal menerima kemajuan dari tempat menternak ular-sawa kepada kawasan bertamadun yang menyambut lebih banyak peluang pekerjaan

Assalamualaikum Tun .....

Tun Ni mmg kecoh.. ni kan projek jangka panjang (projek untuk 20 tahun akan datang).

Pada masa tu semua rakyat jelata akan menggunakan flight sebagai kenderaan awam atas alasan itulah terminal flight kena lebih byk dari terminal bas, terminal LRT atau Komuter.

Lagipun inilah penyelesaian atas rungutan rakyat kepada kutipan tol. Naik flight tak payahlah nak pikir pasal tol lagi kan ....

Mungkin waktu itu rakyat biasa yang kurang berkemampuan boleh membeli NURI 2nd hand untuk kegunaan hairan.....

Dear Tun Dr. Mahathir,

I very much agree with you. we don't need another airport. When LCCT was built, I was wondering why do they need another airport just for low cost flights. And now they're proposing another airport at the same place. Its bad enough that there are no connecting rails or trains between the two current airport, it will be a disaster if there were 3. You could get confuse and miss your flight.

Building another airport just because is stupid and a waste of money. Just use the current facilities.. Plus, KLIA isn't even running at its maximum capacity yet. Adding the LABU airport shows that the govt isn't using its facilities and money efficiently.

KLIA is already good enough for all of us. Its beautiful and hi-tech enough. Just compare it to Heathrow. Its loads better.

No to LABU Airport.

Apa khabar Tun? sebenarnya bagi pandangan peribadi saya ini berlaku bukan lah di sebab kan oleh masalah KLIA atau LCCT tapi berpunca dari rasa ketidak puasan hati dari orang orang yang tertentu terhadap apa yang sudah Tun laku kan,, boleh dikata kan mereka tak seronok tiap kali melalui KLIA yang telah di ilham kan oleh Tun.. Ini lah sebenar masalah yang timbul masalah orang Melayu Assalammualaikum TDM!

Ini yg dikatakan penjajahan cara moden, strategik & jangkapanjang.

Mula2 mereka menjajah pemikiran, ideologi & products loving. Sebab itulah gerakan baikot tak mungkin menjadi kenyataan di bumi Malaysia ini walaupun Iraq, Palestine @ negara2 lain hancur lebur angkara penjenayah dunia kerana kita semua sudah dipengaruhi sepenuhnya.

Langkah ke 2, menguasai kepentingan syarikat2 besar negara walau dengan apa cara sekali pun termasuk dgn dasar2 & perjanjian berat sebelah. Apabila mereka sudah menguasai saham2 tempatan mereka akan selangkah lagi dengan cuba menguasai tanah2 strategik dengan berbagai alasan seperti penggabungan, pengambilalihan dsbnya.

Di zaman sekarang, penjajahan tidak perlu ke medan perang, cukup sekadar dgn menekan mana2 butang yg mereka mahu. Hasrat mereka akan menjadi lebih mudah & licin jika ada dikalangan rakyat yg sudi berkerjasama dgn habuan yg lumayan. Sejarah telah membuktikannya.

Surat Terbuka BPN Kepada Tun Dr. Mahathir Mohamad

Harap semua ahli BPN dapat siarkan artikel ini di blog masing masing bagi membolehkan KITA MENDESAK agar Tun Mahathir ( bekas Presiden UMNO ) membuang yang keruh, ambil yang jernih dan kembali memberi sokongan kepada UMNO/BN.

Lebih lebih di bawah bakal PM Malaysia Ke-6 Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak bulan Mac nanti ...
Agar kekuatan Melayu Islam akan kembali kuat bagi menghadapi lawan yang semakin gigih berusaha menjatuhkan pembela agama bangsa kita sejak sekian lama dengan fitnah dan tipudaya....

Ayuhlah sahabat demi melihat bangsa kita tidak lagi diusir di bumi sendiri angkara bersengketa sesama mereka...

Tajuk : TUN MAHATHIR HARUS BUANG YANG KERUH

1. Di Kuala Terengganu, petunjuk yg boleh menyenangkan hati ialah BN masih disokong oleh 30,200 pengundi bermakna BN masih relevan.
2. Kemenangan PAS masih merupakan sambungan tsunami politik PRU12, menunjukkan pembangkang masih beruntung kerana trend itu masih berterusan.
3. Tun Mahathir tidak sepatutnya menutup pintu untuk membantu BN hanya kerana tidak bersetuju dengan Pak Lah atas beberapa perkara, kerana sebagai PM Pak Lah sudah pasti mempunyai reason untuk meneruskan atau membatalkan satu-satu dasar untuk kepentingan negara. Perkara ini pun dilakukan Tun pada ketika dia sbg PM.
4. Tun M dikenali kerana semangat nasionalismenya yg kuat kpd bangsa Melayu & tanah air, namun dalam konteks UMNO Tun telah silap apabila tidak menyokong UMNO sepenuhnya semasa PRU12 dan PRK Permatang Pau & terbaru KTerengganu.
5. Jika Pak Lah seorg yg pendendam, sudah pasti Mukhriz tidak jadi Ahli Parlimen, malah sudah pasti Mukhriz akan digantung keahliannya kerana menulis surat yg tidak patut kpd Presiden.
6. Tunku dahulu tidak mengambil masa lama untuk memecat Tun Mahathir akan perkara yg sama.
7. Maka itu, jika Tun memang benar2lah sayangkan bangsa Melayu, maka Tun perlu membuang egonya.
8. Jika Tun dalam usia 84 masih sanggup terbang ke Kuwait untuk membantu rakyat Palestin, mengapa tidak kepada orang Melayu & UMNO yg pernah dipimpinya dan yg meletakkannya ke mercu tanda.
9. Penulis berharap Tun berbaiklah semula dengan Pak Lah, janganlah memberi syarat untuk membantu UMNO dan orang Melayu, jika tidak penulis percaya tidak mustahil PRU13 Perdana Menteri Malaysia terpaksa dipilih dalam kalangan MP DAP!

10. Ia tidak mustahil, dahulu di Singapura ada 3 Kerusi MP UMNO, akhirnya PAP berjaya leraikan, mansuhkan dan tutup sama sekali peluang UMNO & Melayu di Singapura.

Labu airport - does NOT make geographic, economic and common SENSE! It can invite air-disaster. Pak Lah tu apasal la bodoh sangat... please do some researches before approving such proposals. Of course Tony Fernandez will give all the reasons to support his proposals and hope the current "thinkless" government akan termakan dengan proposalnya.

To the prime minister and ministers - please understand that the responsibility is to govern and lead Malaysia to prosperity, it is not about creating your own legacy and once the previous PM is down, all his initiated projects is put to a stop. There should be continuity...KLIA was built with at least 50-100 years projection - enough room for expansions (to accommodate up to 125 millions passengers, that is more than double than what Air Asia's expected growth - 60 millions), stick to the masterplan, fully-utilized the current facility. Please stop ridiculing the rakyat with all these diabolic plan-decisions.

Remember - development should be for Malaysia as a whole not partitioned to a certain group of people or certain time-period of "someone's" legacy. You have no legacy PakLah, so stop trying and do not ruin our beloved Malaysia further. Your only legacy is TOTAL DEBACLE!

Tun,

Somebody somewhere somehow is making something for themself. AAB, TMH, KJ are the culprits as usual. Good for highlighting this to us. Safety, Security and Environment is never considered for their gains. Their Greed must be stopped now.

Tun as earlier predicted KT Pilihan Raya Kecil was a blow to UMNO & BN. AAB still fails to realise his weaknesses, and still think he is needed. KJ on the other hand is trying to be Ketua Pemuda. Tun Musa Hitam is trying to make something from Sime Darby as their Chairman. Tony Fernandez is trying all out to make his mission accomplished, before AAB retire. DSN is now in a delima. UMNO is history come the next coming general election. Salam Tun, family & Fellow Bloggers.

Most of the people who commented here obviously have not read the newspaper interview with Tony or even check his website (airasia.com).

1. The new airport will not be built using rakyat's money. It will be funded by Air Asia & Sime Darby or some other private institution who is interested to invest.

2. Air Asia requires a new airport, regardless where it will be built or who will build it.

3. The problem is the Government or MAHB or MAS or whoever has the authority on the KLIA or LCCT or Subang Airport now is not cooperative with Air Asia. They are afraid and fear of Air Asia. So, their strategy is to delay the expansion of Air Asia until they have time to save theirs. These are selfish people, who only cares about their survivals, but not the nation (rakyat & negara).

4. Air Asia is not guilty but a victim.

5. I don't understand how Air Asia can be profitable and conquer the market in a very short time, but our national airline is striving to survive. Obviously the decision maker in the company needs to be sent back to management & finance school to learn how to run a business and make profit.

Thank you.

Assalamualaikum Tok Det

CADANGAN PROJEK-PROJEK MEGA UNTUK PAKLAH & SIME DARBY

1. JAMBATAN BENGKOK JOHOR-SINGAPURA. Rakyat dan Sultan Johor yang juga negeri kelahiran Musa Black pasti gembira. Air di Selat Tebrau akhirnya bercantum juga. Musa Black akan pasti akan jadi HERO JOHOR!!!

2. PENGLEBARAN JAMBATAN PULAU PINANG SEDIA-ADA. Tak payah buat jambatan baru sebab kos tinggi. Lambat sangat pulak nak siap. Lagi pun ekonomi tengah lembab sekarang. Pak Lah akan disanjung oleh rakyat di negeri sendiri. Pak Lah akan dapat gelaran HERO PULAU PINANG!!! BN pasti akan menang semula di Pulau Pinang!!!

3. PROJEK KERETAPI LAJU NASIONAL. Tambah laluan keretapi terutamanya di negeri yang tiada kemudahan keretapi seperti Melaka dan Pulau Pinang (di kawasan pulau). STESEN KERETAPI TERMODEN boleh dibangunkan di LABU dan konsesi diberi kepada SIME DARBY bagi menggantikan projek KLIA-East dan IJN yang dimansuhkan. Sebab stesen keretapi KL pun dan sesak dan uzur dan patut jadi muzium. KJ akan dapat gelaran HERO NEGERI SEMBILAN!!! Lepas tu akan dapat gelaran Datuk Seri KJ yang akan diberi oleh Ali Rustam!!!

4. PROJEK TERNAKAN BABI BERPUSAT DI PULAU. Mohd Taib boleh mencadangkan TERNAKAN BABI BERPUSAT di pulau yang tidak berpenghuni di Malaysia. Kalau boleh pulau yang berdekatan dengan Singapura. Kerana Singapura negara pengimport terbesar babi dari Malaysia. Lagi bagus buat di pulau berhampiran Batu Putih. Silap-silap Singapura akan beri semula pulau Batu Putih kepada Malaysia sebab tak tahan bau babi. Mohd Taib akan menjadi HERO SELANGOR kerana pusat ternakan babi di Selangor tidak perlu lagi diteruskan. Orang Melayu & Cina tentu akan suka dengan jalan penyelesaian ini yang mana tidak akan lagi mengganggu sensitiviti kaum selamanya. Mohd Taib pasti menang jawatan TPM sebab disukai semua kaum dan berjaya pula mendapatkan semula pulau Batu Putih yang DIJAJAH oleh Singapura sekarang!!!

KAMI RAKYAT CABAR PAK LAH BUAT SESUATU YANG BENAR-BENAR BERMAKNA KEPADA RAKYAT SEBELUM BERUNDUR!!!

KAMI RAKYAT MALAYSIA JUGA TETAP INGIN MENYANJUNG PAK LAH.

WALAU APAPUN ORANG KATA PAK LAH TETAP SEORANG DARI BAPA MALAYSIA KERANA

SEJARAH TIDAK BOLEH DIUBAH!!!

Tapi takut Pak Lah tak sempat sebab tinggal 2 bulan je lagi. Pak Lah pulak sibuk dengan SURUHANJAYA tak habis-habis daaa....

What ever it is Air Asia and MAHB should work together to solve the issues and this should notbe done by creating another problem. What is the point of building another airport if the current airport has not even reached the total passenger capacity? If another aiport is built, what will happen to KLIA? Everywhere I go there is always good remarks made about KLIA by foreigners and I believe, if it is properly managed, it can be a lot better.

I don't see a point of having another airport very near to each other. It's nice to have but it is not necessary unless it is very small and cater for private jets only (which I believe KLIA is capable of providing too).

If the Government can spend a lot of money in this time of recession, then it better be for the community development, retrenched workers, medically uninsured poor people et all. Not for some lazy people who want to make fast money.

Saya rasa agak setuju degan komen saudara pakbelalang diatas.

Tapi masaalah nya orang2 ni maseh tak sedar diri. Mereka nak lihat sehingga Umno ni hancur baru lah agak nya mereka faham dan sedar bahawasanya mereka lah punca nya. Selagi UMNO ni maseh bernafas walau pun tinggal nyawa ikan mereka maseh lagi nak kaut untung sampai kering kontang. Maseh lagi angkuh konon nya mereka adalah pemimpin yang maseh disokong rakyat. Segalanya kerana kepentingan diri dan keuntungan peribadi.

Peojek Airport Labu tu lebih baik diusahakan tanah itu untuk pertanian. Bukan kah Sime Darby ni lebih mahir dalam pertanian. Bukan kah Pak Lah telah lancarkan dan memberi keutamaan dalam industri asas tani.

Pengarah2 SD mesti lah ambil kira kesan dari projek itu. Dari segi alam sekitar. Pencemaran bunyi. kesesakan ruang udara.

Dari segi keuntungan dan pulangan pada rakyat rasa nya tak ada tapi keuntungan Tony dan berkepengtingan di Air Asia dan SD tu agak jelas positif.

By chiatdetAuthor Profile Page on January 19, 2009 3:16 PM

I wonder if this is permitted under the international law to have so many airports in such close vicinity. It will be a kemaluan besar if after we spent so much money and it's not approved by the international law.

But on a positive note, the rakyat near Labu can have bigger area for konvensyen, pasar pagi and karnival macam-macam. BN may organize the longest pasar pagi stalls in the god damm world.

Someone... please save Malaysia!

By 3rdGenerationAuthor Profile Page on January 19, 2009 3:25 PM

Tun,

I agree on this. We dont need another airport. I feel MAHB should just be fair to Air Asia. Currently their charges are ridiculous. Air Asia is a Low Cost carrier and if they get charged like that by MAHB it can't be called a low cost carrier. Air Asia pushing for a new airport would be an escape route to run from MAHB monopoly.

Just build another runway or two and expand the low cost terminal. Turn KLIA into a busy airport instead of making it a boring airport. MAHB must bring down the price of airport handling or whatever they do to make money. Think about just making enough profit,not too much. Trust me some where down they line all money spent will come back after operations through out the years. Yes it will take years, better late than never.

What is the cost to expand the terminal,gates and build a runway at KLIA? It is going to be much cheaper than building a new airport.

Air Asia should think about making the airlines even better than what it is now and Sime Darby, why not you buy planes and lease it out instead of wasting money on building an airport since you want to get into the aviation industry.

WE DONT NEED ANOTHER AIRPORT

By SideksAuthor Profile Page on January 19, 2009 3:27 PM

Salam Tun,

The true reason for Labu Airport is.....Fernandez wants it for FREE. He already owes MAHB RM85million in overdue parking charges not to mention other facilities. He wants to show profits at the expanse of others people.

LCCT was built at a cost of RM110 million (excluding VO)just for him. He would have more planes coming meaning that he has to park his aircraft somewhere, therefore this would attract airport charges. So build new airport so that he can park his aircraft for FREE.

Now he is even asking the Penang Government for LCCT, when the airport was just extended recently, due to his request to accomodate Air Asia check in counters.

He already got his way by both Govt opening up KUL-SIN sectors. Now he fly into the most lucrative market in ASEAN. OPen sky policies, with the assistant of BUDAK-BUDAK Tingkat 4, robbing MAS of the LON sector with his Air Asia X, and yet Tony Fernandez says he did it without the Govt helping him. What a bull!

Soon Air Asia capacity shall even exceed that of JAL & SIA combined, so he claims....another bull!

I wonder who ask TH and Khazanah to invest in Air Asia? With the kind of treatment that Tony Fernandez gets, Air Asia should be knighted "National Low-Cost Carrier" (no offence to Idris Jala).

He already loss millions due to the fuel hedging after the sudden drop in oil prices (there is GOD after all) but he did not disclose this. Yet he gets prestigious awards, for his so called "management skills".

I think DCA should send its team of inspectors to look at Air Asia aircraft. With the number of turnaround times and frequencies, I doubt maintenance is done. After all, recently there have been TWO (2) mishaps on AIRBUS A320 in the world (in US and Europe). So it's a good excuse to order checks before one of his A320 decides to "kiss" the ground.

I think it's enough preferential treatment given to Tony Fernandez and furthermore LCC has lost its hype, economically worldwide. This can be seen with the recent closure of so many LCC in the world.

Lastly, Pak Lah and Khairy must go at all cost. Enough is enough. Kuala Terengganu by-election is a clear indication, as clear as the blue sky that Air Asia flies.

Assalamualaikum Tun ,

KLIA EAST ?????

shareholders of tune hotels, air asia through proxies etc. including those have connection to higher ups.

now everyone can fly and now everyone knows who is behind air asia and tony fernandez. it is a story about rich to be richer.

mas suffered the last restructuring. due to air asia's greed and agreed by the government domestic routes were rationalised . air asia asked to be given sabah / sarawak routes from mas despite objection by mas air asia was granted its wish.

within a year air asia realised that the within sabah and sarawak routes were not profitable. they never were . mas was performing national service in sabah sarawak . flying poultry and goats is not profitable but it is social obligation..well done mas.

realising these problems air asia made second wish. they told the government that they have to return these inner sabah sarawak routes to back to mas. again mas objected. again mas was overruled.

during taking over of inner routes sabah sarawak and handing over of fokker planes to air asia the planes were in perfect working condition because mas holds one of the best safety records in the world. when these planes were returned to mas most of them were grounded and not airworthy. the fleet were badly maintained by air asia.

it was a crash program to spend RM108 million to build first LCCT as demanded by tony and proxies. then extension adjacent to the first one completed 1st quarter 2008. all this are taxpayers money. now they want to dump the terminal build KLIA EAST calling rakyat's . very clever.

transport minister was taken a joyride to france to receive air asia's first airbus A330. after that gula-gula the KLIA EAST was recommended to cabinet subsequently approved. by right minister can officiate the aircraft on arrival malaysia.

whatever happened MAS was the victim of circumstances by tony fernandez, shareholders/stakeholders and proxies.

since KLIA capacity is 125 millions passengers and under utilised government should direct airasia to use KLIA and pay RM85 for the aerobridge . airasia should use the RM10 charged to psgrs for choosing the seat and pay for aerobridge because allocating seat should be foc. now everyone can board the flight comfortably.

government please wake up.

By Faceoff Author Profile Page on January 19, 2009 3:55 PM

Going by what the present government is doing, Malaysia will be invaded by airports. If the airport is not doing well, then the government will use the taxpayers money to bail them out. This is just old story in new a packaging.

CAMNO LAK SDR. MENSUMBANGKAN UCAPAN TAHNIAH SEPERTI ITU, MAKIN BESAR LAH LAGI ATAS ADA BATU(AAB). KAMI JUGA INGIN 'TAIRU'KAN UCAPAN SDR. KAMI SEPERTI BERIKUT..

Assalamualaikum YAB Pak 'AAB(Aimless, Arrogant Bonehead),
Kami mengucapkan setinggi tahziah kepada YAB Perdana Menteri yang lemah dan longlai yang telah menguburkan senatorship dan jawatan timbalan menteri calon BN Datuk Wan Ahmad Farid memenangi pilihanraya P036 Kuala Terengganu.

Jelas sekali ini menunjukkan betapa tingginya kepercayaan rakyat Kuala Terengganu kepada kepimpinan BN dan juga UMNO. Ini juga telah sekaligus membuktikan kepada pengkritik-pengkritik tegar Khairy di laman popular chedet.cc ini yang bahawasanya, calon pilihan Khairy ini telah diterima dan disajikan dengan keropok leko dan kek 'masjid krystal' oleh rakyat di P036. Saya nampak masa depan yang sangat cerah bagi BN terutamanya UMNO untuk terus kekal bertahlil di masjid krystal dan akan dimakbulkan kerusi pembangkang diparlimen selepas PRU13 kelak.

Jelas sekali, sokongan padu daripada MCA, MIC dan Gerakan serta PPP yang telah turun padang berkempen senada dan seiring dengan UMNO dalam pilihanraya ini telah berjaya membuahakan labu-labu BN yang lebih besar pada kali ini. Bagaimanapun kami mengucapkan tahniah kepada jentera BN khususnya Datuk Abdul Azeez dari UMNO dan juga tidak lupa, kepada YB Khairy Jamaluddin dengan kejayakinan mereka mengekalkan kerusi P036. Sekali lagi, saya mengesyorkan kepada YAB Pak Lah, YB Khairy, dan juga YAB Datuk Seri Najib berambus dari UMNO jika sayangkan UMNO.

UMNO: Dulu Kini dan Selamanya!
Selagi 'Ada Abdullah Bungkus-UMNO'

It is difficult to understand why people would bother to have new airport, when we already have one big and well-known.

Or Air Asia and Sime Darby want to have Air-Darby Airport (ADA) to show the spirit MALAYSIA BOLEH?

Dulu Sime Darby nak ambil alih IJN, kononnya nak Privatise. Sekarang ni dah nak buat Lapangan terbang kedua di Labu NS pulak. KLIA is under utilized. Kalau KLIA atau MAB tak efficient sekali pun, runding balik dengan menaik taraf. Memang dah ada capacity utk KLIA expand. Apa yang susah sangat?

Apa? Pak Lah ada syer ke dalam Sime Darby kah?

Kepada Pak Lah, sudahlah tu... Dah nak pencen lagi dua bulan masih buat perangai yang sama. Buat rakyat benci kat hang lagi. Dah lah dok jalan sini sana. Hang ingat hang ni Foreign Minister lagi kah hoi? Eish... Pelik sungguh Pak Lah ni... Tak nampak apa langsung contribution dia pada negara...

Kepada Najib, tolong hentikan project Airport kedua ni. Satu pembaziran sahaja... Saya rasa Rakyat tak perlukan Terminal Rakyat ni...

Dear Tun,

Kekalahan UMNO di KT, Tun buat komen ini kerana pengundi tak ada confident dengan Pak Lah dan Najib tak bersalah. Nampaknya Tun dah Nyanok. Sorry.

Apa kena mengena dengan Pak Lah atas kekalahan ini. Bukankan Pak Lah sudah mengumumkan akan berundur pada Mac ini. Bukankah Najib yang mengetuai dalam kempen Pilihan Raya di KT. Dia yang merancang semua strategi.

Berhubungan dengan Airport di Labu, kenapa kita harus menentang hasrat Sime Darby dan Air Asia. Mereka tidak meminta satu sen pun wang kerajaan. Kenapa takut akan kejayaan Air Asia. Apa yang kerajaan akan rugi. Yang saya nampak yang akan mengalami kerugian yang besar ia lah MAHB. MAHB dan Khazanah Malaysia amat sombong dan cuba menghalang kejayaan Air Asia.

Saya nasehatkan TUN, sebelum menulis dalam Blog buat lah research dulu. Jika kita mahu orang menghormati kita, tulis lah dengan betul dan jangan fitnah. Khazanah bukan lah pemegang saham Air Asia. Tidak ada satu pun institusi pelabur seperti PNB dan Khazanah percaya akan kejayaan Air Asia. Kerana Air Asia lah kita dapati ramai kita dapat pergi ka Sabah dan Serawak dan versi versa. Satu kejayaan yang tun sendiri cuba laksanakan dahulu dengan menggunakan ferry dari Kuantan.

By obbi71Author Profile Page on January 19, 2009 4:48 PM

Dari email yang saya terima dari AirAsia, mereka hanya akan membina "TERMINAL" sahaja. Bermakna ruang udara tidak terlibat dalam pembinaan ini. KLIA Aerodrome dan Approach Control masih lagi menjalankan tugasnya bagi ruang udara di atas Labu (ini persepsi saya dari emailnya). AirAsia mau terminal sendiri. Let it be. Pesawat-pesawatnya mendarat di KLIA dan 'taxy' sejauh 7-10 kms ke Labu. Siapa yang menanggung minyak pesawat? AirAsia. Pesawat menggunakan lebih banyak minyak taxing dari 'flying in the air' Biarkan. Tapi masalahnya duit siapa yang digunakan untuk membina terminal berkenaan. Katanya "RAKYAT TERMINAL". Duit rakyatlah apalagi. Mesej dari Kuala Terengganu sudah kedengaran. Masih bisukah kerajaa. Tak Telus.

MASALAH UTAMA IALAH AIRASIA DAN MAHB TIDAK BERCAKAP. AIRASIA MAU FREE SEMUANYA.....Caj-caj dikawal oleh Kerajaan bukan MAHB.
By pakbelalangAuthor Profile Page on January 19, 2009 4:54 PM

Cukuplah! Barisan Nasional jangan nak cuba tipu rakyat dengan segala alasan yang karut-karut. Rakyat dah celik mata. Rakyat tidak lagi buta internet. Semua maklumat rakyat dah dapat tahu dengan sekelip mata je. Jadi pemimpin janganlah nak beri alasan yang tidak masuk akal tentang projek airport ini.

Lagi cepat kerajaan batalkan projek ini lagi baik untuk Barisan Nasional. Rakyat sekarang sudah hilang keyakinan dan kepercayaan terhadap dasar pembangunan Barisan Nasional. Semua dasar kerajaan yang dianjurkan tidak menepati kehendak rakyat. Semuanya tidak transparent. Semuanya kelabu kerana ada unsur-unsur untuk penyelewengan.

Teringat saya al-kisah Cinderella yang menggunakan LABU sebagai kereta kuda dan tikus-tikus yang menjadi kuda penariknya.

Betapa Cinderella bergegas pulang sebelum tiba waktunya (12.00 midnite) sebelum kuda dan keretanya bertukar kembali menjadi tikus dan LABU.

Sekarang bayangkan keadaan kita sekarang; Projek Airport LABU (Sime Darby), "Cinderella aka youknowwho", kuda-kudanya dan tarikh akhirnya (Mac 2009).

Apakah tikus berjaya membaiki LABU atau Cinderella akhirnya lari lintang-pukang hingga tertinggal "kasutnya"?

I could not agree more with Tun.

KLIA is designed to handle up to 125 million passenger per annum. The airport could upgrade its landside and airside infrastructure (up to 2 main terminals and 4 satellite terminals supported by up to 4 runways, 1 ATC and other facilities) as a huge piece of land has been reserved for this airport.

If Air Asia wants to have more control over its operations, I am sure one satellite terminal can be built and dedicated to Air Asia.

Besides the boarding gates, this new airport at Labu calls for capital investments in duplicating common infrastructure such as high-speed rail link, public transport, CIQ, airport safety and security, air traffic control and ground control.

I just don't see the business logic behind all these new capital investments for common infrastructure. Furthermore, Air Asia has already invested in a separate terminal at KLIA. Why couldn't the management be more far-sighted in planning their capacity previously, and now it is looking at another site to cater for future traffic growth?

Eventually, the users of the transport services will have to bear all these capital costs. Are we saying that Asia Asia can still be cost competitive by building additional terminal capacity and the associated basic infrastructures and facilities at Labu (instead of building a new dedicated satellite terminal for Air Asia at KLIA)?

Like Tun said, high charges from MAHB could be a key consideration here which could be negotiated. This is a commercial decision. I am sure Khazanah as a shareholder representing the government interest in KLIA/Air Asia, together with the Transport Ministry would have considered the entire air transport industry development and capacity planning in a holistic and coordinated manner, or have they not? Or are there some government cronies having something to gain from this scheme?

As the government, it is its role to protecting the consitituents' interest, i.e. we the tax payers and voters!!! So stop allowing the inefficient build out of infrastructure and capacity in this country!!!

Dear Tun,

Please send this message to Pak Lah.

1. Dear Pak Lah please solve the insane traffic jams in KL now intead wasting building a new airport.

2. I know traffic jam is good for real estate developer, car manufacturer, petroleum company and mechanics business but when the traffic is from 700 am to 1130pm, it start to look stupid. Tun Mahathir can check and take some pictures while test drive the traffic and post it on ur facebook, it is INSANE!!!!. Cause i know Tun sometime goes undercover checking around with your perdana and kancil.
3. I respect RapidKL but seriously it didnt give too much impact on the current traffic.
4. Public Transport like Putra is not efficient anymore, if u start to queue for ur train on 730pm, u can only get on your train on 830pm (maximum-if u r lucky u can get in within 30 min) cause the people is too many queing up. Or maybe Tun can pop at Putra Gombak Terminal or the other end at 8am and check yourself.
5. An average guy nowadays spend average 3 hours/day (back and forth on the road) which means 3.75 days/month on the road. In terms of effiency 3.75 days + 4 days (sundays) that means we got 7.75 days not working for each month exclude holidays. This does not include traffic during lunch and friday prayers. No wonder Malaysian are not that efficient anymore compare to vietnamese. Even bola pun boleh kalah (shame on u FAM).
6. Its time for Government to form a think tank on matters how to synergize Putrajaya-CyberJaya-KL situation cause i noticed theres inbalance between these 3 key areas. Putrajaya is lonely and KL is too crowded. It is better if GOM paying people to think about this matter and restore the inbalance instead making a new airport thinking to solve traffic jams on the air. I guarantee theres alot of money to be made in optimizing opportunities between Putrajaya-Cyberjaya-KL instead dozing some trees in Labu for some planes shortage on 2014. Come think of it, this might be some good business prospects for Sime Darby to get involve in, solving common ppl problem and making some money on the side.
7. This another strange ideas from Pak Lah admin. I dunno what their admin have been thinking, from judiciary, ijn, USA FTA, DEB, Johor bridge and etc. Too many strange ideas that doesnt make any sense, sigh. I expect the best ideas might pop up on the last days of his admin, but Pak Lah dissapointed me, so sad.
8. Well we got to bare for another 2 months of strange ideas to pop up. Clock is ticking.
9. But please Pak Lah if u read this, do something about the traffic, if u manage to do something within this 2 months, at least u have ease up some minor issues of all the common people in Malaysia. DO something to make KL-Putrajaya-Cyberjaya efficient again.
10. Im not asking for total solution but just to reduce from average time spent on the road for work from 3 hours/day to 1.5 hours/day thats all. Some guys spend 5 hours/day on the road if he works from Ulu Klang to USJ. It can be anything from updating the current public transport (train) with more EMU or new zonal areas or new highways, please do something about it, u have done nothing about it since u take position as PM in 2003.
11. If the GOM keep giving excuse like "This is world economic turndown and everyone is facing it" then let me be the Prime Minister, i can pop in the TV everyday 24/7 and give that excuse to the people and earn some pention. The reason we put him there is to figure out extraordinary things that normal people like me couldnt think. Like u Tun, u have done many extraordinary things from great to worse but still u did something. Out of 10, i can give Tun 7 great feats and 3 rotten ones. But bottomline, Tun indeed have behave like a leader with a direction, either we going up or going down, but still we heading somewhere. But Pak Lah, im confused either we going for Agriculture based or Industrial based, im so confused. Im even confused with Islam Hadhari, what it is all about? Different Islam? Smarter Islam? Im confused.
12. At least Bush have direction better than Pak Lah, he said hes going to war, which he really done it, even it doesnt work according to his plan for US in terms of economy or image but atleast he is heading somewhere.

Assalamualaikum Tun,
Semoga beroleh kesejahteraan.

- Terima kasih di atas segala idea dan legacy yang Tun telah tinggalkan pada kami.
- LCCT baru seperti yang di cadangkan oleh kerajaan sekarang, pada hemah saya cuma membazirkan wang rakyat ataupun Pak Lah ingin meninggalkan sesuatu sebelum beliau meninggalkan pejabat.
- Saya percaya semasa Tun membina KLIA dulu, semua benda yang berkaitan penerbangan masa hadapan telahpun di ambil kira. Dari segi keluasan tanah dan jumlah trafik udara.
- Dengan adanya menara kawalan yang terlalu dekat di antara KLIA, LCCT sekarang & LCCT baru ini, saya rasa pengawalan trafik udara akan menjadi sedikit kecoh dan tidak mustahil akan berlaku kemalangan(perkara terakhir yang kita nak tahu).
- Tak bolehkah kita cuma gunakan KLIA sepertimana LT Heathrow di London yang menempatkan semua urusan penerbangan di satu tempat yang sama. Dalam masa yang sama nama KLIA akan lebih gah di mata dunia dan tanah rakyatpun tak perlu di ambil.
- Janganlah kerajaan cuma pandai nak bazirkan wang rakyat tapi nak menang PRK K.Terengganu pun tak boleh.(Tak tahu mengukur/ mengatur strategi) Sekian Tun, sampai ketemu lagi.

Dear Tun,

The reason they were to build at Labu because its so near to Rembau, our very dear friend's hometown. Why not we use our available resources and build this so called new LCCT terminal in Singapore, yes in Singapore, with our very own money. The birth place of Kalimullah. And I am sure PM Lee would very much be very happy about this. Even now Singapore Changi control tower will take command frm all aircraft flying into Singapore from asfaras Jasin airspace.I fly Malaysia Airlines even if by Shuttle i will always insist Malaysia Airlines/.

Salam kasih dan hormat Ayahanda Tun. I am attaching that http link above because I am dumfounded after reading it. Reminded me to that roundabout statement made by Datuk Shahziman Abu Seman on reducing electric tariff a couple of days ago (before the BN grand victory in KT yesterday). He said give him three weeks and he can get the tariff down. So ok, we wait and count. But that Human Resource Datuk Menteri, he really makes me think Tun, and I am thinking hard for these past few minutes on what to make of his statement really. All I can say is: that he should be doing commercials for that condom maker Durex and not waste time working for this stupid Bedouin government. It's just simply the best - safe play - line for 2009 thus far. This guy used to be an English teacher or what? Anyone knows? Beat the grammar lines out of our Mr.Dorai anytime!

My Dearest Tun,

When the 1st day I heard news said that Air Asia and Sime Darby would jointly proposed to built new airport in Labu, my mind paused and started to thinking that, what will happen to KLIA? Yet another stupid proposal came out from Sime Darby. Labu and Sepang just 10km away, how come they would operate using 2 different control tower? How stupid it is this idea, clearly these people just looking on the business side than the other things.

Ironically, government just approve it without considering on the affect to KLIA. As Tun mentioned, what Labu Airport can do, KLIA could do the same and yet it is more practical than that stupid Labu Airport.

The affect could happen would severe if government decided to give green light to this new airport. Of course KLIA and MAHB will get the severe consequence.

There is too many stupid decision made by government under Pak Lah. Im beg to government pleaseeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee dont do it this stupid idea because it will shown how stupid it was the government. Eventually, government would not respected by the people anymore.

Dear Tun Dr M,

Of late, Dato Seri Najib is under criticism for various matters including the failure of BN to retain the Kuala Terengganu parliamentary seat. It is quite unfair to put the bulk of the blame him. From the start, all was not smooth for UMNO Candidate. The worse was, some of the UMNO members discredited their own candidate with slurs. So how do you expect the others support him.

As for Dato Seri Najib, he is heavily occupied with various matters which he thinks need to be addressed before March 09. Being the Finance Minister is another headache for him due to the financial crisis. Some of the recently announced controversial projects (I think it is from Najib at his capacity of Finance Minister) seem to be premature. If at all those projects are necessary then the public should be informed of it. Otherwise he would face open criticism which could be wrong.

Salam sejahtera Tun sekeluarga yang dikasihi dan juga pejuang Che Det sekalian.

Saya rasa lapangan terbang di Labu tu kalau dia berdegil nak buat juga, rasanya eloklah dinamakan KJ INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT, kan sedap bunyinya tu. Baru ada kelas sebab nak iras macam bunyi JFK di Amerika Syarikat. Lepas tu pulak eloklah rasanya kalau dibina sebuah lagi, kali ni lokasi paling tepat sekali adalah di Kepala Batas yang mana saiznya mestilah mengalahkan KLIA. Soal takut tak sempat sebab tempoh peralihan kuasa dah nak dekat tak timbul sama sekali. Tempoh itu boleh dilanjutkan selama mungkin kerana Najib seorang yang penyabar dan beliau tidak ada masalah untuk menjadi seorang penunggu sepertimana salah seorang wali songo yang bernama Sunan Kali Jaga. Ibnor Riza pun ada sebuah lagu hit berjudul 'Berdiri Seorang Perindu'. Nama airpot ini pula mestilah nama Pak Lah. Tapi kalau dia tak mau namanya diabadikan gara-gara jiwa hambanya atau 'ku cari damai abadi', eloklah ditukarkannya menjadi LIM KIT SIANG INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT, barulah Malaysia. Hidup Pak Lah!

Proposals To Improve CIQ Complex To Be Brought To Cabinet

JOHOR BAHARU, Jan 19 (Bernama) -- The Sultan Iskandar Building, which houses the Customs, Immigration and Quarantine (CIQ) centre, should be integrated with the Johor Baharu city centre for the benefit of the complex users and traders in the city centre.

Domestic Trade and Consumer Affairs Minister Datuk Shahrir Abdul Samad said six proposals had been drawn up to be submitted to the Cabinet for consideration, to improve the CIQ complex to make it more user-friendly.

comment:

Yes, six proposals to be submitted to cabinet but I wonder whether there is a proposal to build a crooked bridge??

Dear Tun, salam mesra moga sihat sejahtera. Minta izin...

.....'TAK NAK' ORANG BERJAYA

Skrng apa tindakan Pak Lah semua tak betul. Nak cari silap, dikorek cacing sampai dapat. Kalau hati orang dah putus tak nak, seribu hajat sia sia.

Menambah pasarana apa buruknya, lebih lebih lagi tanpa biayaan krjn. Kenapa sykt penerbangan lain mesti tunduk, tunggu si lembab MAHB, MAS. Agaknya dah tak tahan karena 'little Napoleon' mrk ini, lalu bina sendiri.

.....MEMBESARKAN PINTU NEGARA

Membina LCCT baru lebih berfaedah dari jambatan bengkok dari segi pintu masuk negara. Jambatan bengkok punyai kepala besar (di JB) leher kecil (di S'pura) dan ditanggung krjn. LCCT Labu dibina swasta dan jumlah penumpang dijamin swasta sendiri bukan krjn. (Banding kadar trafik lebuh raya dijamin krjn, bayaran tenaga IPP dijamin TNB)

Projek pasarana membuka serta merta laluan ke negara lain harus disokong. Projek pelabuhan (Kuantan, Pasir Gudang), zon dagangan bebas (PKFTZ) yg dibayar krjn lebih ragu ragu prestasi mrk krn tiada pelanggan.

Kalau masalah teknikal menara kembar bertapak atas tanah lembik boleh di atasi, apalah isu teknikal dua landasan berdekatan.

.....TAK MAMPU BERSAING MENEKAN, MENINDAS

Sykt penerbangan murah lain model operasi dgn yg biasa. Krn persaingan, ia ditekan bila berkongsi lapangan terbang, ATC, bayaran sewa di KLIA. Mirip cara Umno menekan.

Air Asia ambil jalan mengejut keluar dari KLIA, mcm 'orang' keluar parti bila tuntutan perubahan. Rakyat M'sia yg berkemampuan dan berkebolehan keluar negara atas sebab sama. Yg tinggal tak mampu dan tempang kemahiran.

.....PEREBUTAN KUASA

Inilah contoh perebutan kuasa dua GLC yg melemahkan negara seperti titah Raja Nazrin. Guna kuasa demi kuasa.

Whatever it is an alternative LCCT is not a sinister development, it is the sinister objection to it that is misplaced. Democracy is giving a choice. Highways and IPP are examples of non choices!

Tun,

Berdasarkan keterangan diatas , all we can say "money agenda"

The design of KLIA which huge reserved capacity and furthermore of utilized of Subang Aiport status , till to date , not full utilized.

If KLIA or Subang being chosen for upgrading as required for the demand it will not cost so much , compare new location which they can marked up the price from infra , local authority , approval until it build.

The new development initial cost will be around 2.5 B - 3.B , the question how will get the most benefits ?.

At the end , we rakyat have no choice but to used it. It will create unpleasant to rakyat bawahan , but for sure SD can smile , A can have nice sleep , T can start counting profit , the land will automatic price increased and the rakyat get O. Well plan.

Time to changed and all rakyat look forward 2013 when "Kuasa Rakyat" been return back to us. With current world and Asia economy down and not well managed, it will contribute to these changed factor and mood.

Is is good leason to learn and improved and open our wolrd view for next general election year 2013.What we can say "Anak cina makan pengat , sendiri mau ingat"

A'kum Tun, wish you all the best.

To have a another airport is just wastage of resources and time.

It is better for Air Asia to negotiate with MAHB to expand the current LCCT. Last time also, the Government has done well to develop a new LCCT within a very short time period!

Why the same thing cannot be done again?

Over expansion from the main core business requires huge capital and attention and this could straiten the company's financial capability to go through tough situation in the future.

Hopefully they will make a wise decision.

Well, Well..,Well Guys/Gals,

The major comments I see here is that Tony & Gang are bad guys/gals with self-interest & with hidden agenda's...yeah..yeah...yeah!! Tell me all about it!!! Mary Had A Little Lamb..Twinkle Twinkle Little Star..Snow White & 14 Cabinet Ministers, Pi Mai Pi Mai Tang Tung...Naik Tangga Turun Tangga..etc...

Please look back what Air Asia was in early 2000's when it was managed by DRB-Hicom (Government Linked Company) & they were bleeding to glory like how King Daud was slewing Goliath.

No other GLC or private corporate companies or even the Government or The Ministry of Finance had the little nitty guts to take upon this bleeding company. Then came in a small time boy called Tony Fernandez with a vision on Low Cost Carrier. He pawned his & his 2 other family members house just to ensure that there is cash available in bank to buy to obtain a RM 22 million debt...(no idiots @ fully spoon fed companies will ever even dream of doing that)& all of them were was laughing at him with thoughts of "What a dead meat Tony gonna be to the banks"

He eventually turned it around with his great vission & the utmost passion he had in him. He did it guys...from an ailing company with 2 rundown aircraft & RM22 million debts TO a now multi billion public listed company.

The greatest gift he gave to the all walks of life of the Malaysian including the lower income group was able to fly & they are enjoying it to the utmost as well & will continue to enjoy it. I bet that 85% or even 90% of you guys/gals above have flown under Tony's armpit..

So, the bottom line at the moment is that "Tolong Jangan Senang Lupa" as our Bapak Kemodenaan Malaysia @ Mahathir use to say...

In comparison, take MAS as a case study... Tajuddin Ramli of Naluri (or previously known as MHS) took the helm funded by the government & what he did?? He squashed & squeezed MAS to the ground with massive continuous losses with only the rich & elite who can fly.

To add salt to injuries to average Malaysians, he managed to sell back all the shares at the price he bought at RM8 when the actual value at that time was a mere RM3.8 under the expense of we tax-payers... we tax payers lost billions of ringgit (dah-lah bayar tinggi untuk terbang MAS & lepas tu kena tekan lagi... kena ganti rugi kat Tajuddin dengan cukai yang kita bayar)

All this was approved in The Cabinet by the then Minister Daim Zainuddin (sama kampung boy dengan Tajuddin @ Kampung Kangkung kat Alor Setar) under the eyes, nose & blessing of Mahathir.

Tony Fernandez have been awarded with multiple world acclaimed awards from world recognized bodies over the last 6 years for his contribution in aviation industry in various categories & one of it was being able the lower income group to travel by air. Whilst, Tajuddin Ramli was awarded with multiple courts suits from the Government, GLC's & private companies & as far as Germany.

All court suit's on Tajuddin Ramli have since died of natural death for some unknown mysterious reasons. Need to refer to Tan Sri Zaki (new Chief Justice) & that also depends if he still got an ear to listen as he is pre-occupied on sorting out his minor & major recent stunts/misconducts done in Perlis & in East M'sia respectively??? Wow!! Where are we actually heading to now..will stop here???

Tajudin Ramli is now a billionaire with properties under his/proxy from the North Langkawi, Central Lumut & heart of KL & Rawang to the South of Johor...& all this ill-gained properties he acquired is from our blood, sweat & tears...& we are still paying for the present & future fallout corporate spoon fed figures /companies.

So you guys/gals got to always remember that the greatest need of every human being is the need for appreciation...

To Tajuddin Ramli, Daim & Mahathir please remember that a man who has committed a mistake and doesn't correct it is always committing another mistake..

Last but not least to Tony & Air Asia Team and I am pretty sure it's in all of you that great human are true human.., the human in whom nature has succeeded. They are not extraordinary but they are in their true order. It is the other species of human who are not what they ought to be...

Keep on the smiling & cheering so that everyone can fly!!!

Have u read 'How to win friends & influence people' by Dale Carnegie. I'm sure that alot of what he says u have known before, however human have short memory of what they learn if the dont constantly practice it!

Model of the story, criticizing people or groups of people is very unlikely to achieve your goals!

If u have read the book, i suggest u review it.

1. Building a new airport should be based on current and future capacity.

2. Based on Tok det's explanation, the arguments for the new airport sure seems flimsy.

3. And we should compare or benchmark ourselves to heathrow.

4. At the end of the day, im sure the figures and stats will not be in favour for a new aiport. It will probably be in favour for a "get rich quick scheme" all too familiar in the ears of malaysians.

Hi, luvmal,

YAB Tun,

What you commented makes sense - its just that it is not reported. I read in the The Edge recently (Jan 19 issue) comment by M.Shanmugam titled LCCT- an acid test for Najib. The writer pointed out that Datuk Seri Tony Fernandes is facing his biggest battle for the new airport , I quote " Leading the charge is none other than former PM Tun Mahathir Mohamad, who has persistently found fault with Abdullah's administration over the last four years...."

He further wrote " But who can forget that the very reason an LCCT is being considered in Sepang or Labu is the mega KLIA that was built during Mahathir's era at a cost of RM 10 billion despite many objections? Until today, many still question the move from Subang to Sepang when there was ample land in the vicinity of the old Subang airport for expansion. One of the large plots in Subang is where the RRI is located.It is now said to be the domain of only well-connected housing developers.There were other large tracts in Subang as well, that, incidentally are mostly owned by Sime Darby Bhd....." " Today most of the Sime Darby land has been converted to residential and commercial developments, but some 15 years ago, there were no such plans...."

He further wrote " The KLIA was built at a cost of RM 10 billion in 1998 to cater for 25million passengers. The main terminal itself cost some RM3.5 billion, according to reports. In contrast, Air Asia's terminal, proposed some 10 years later is estimated to cost RM 1.6billion. So one can imagine the layer of fat that was creamed off by rent seekers. And who pays the cost? Joe Public again in the form of aeronautical charges. "

My own analysis as a layman...

1st, it clearly does make sense to have two airports just 2km apart from each other. I am not sure about the regulations.

2nd, clearly this writer do not like your ideas but trying to tell us Tony Fernandes ideas are great. I have read your justifications for having KLIA in Sepang and I must say I agree with your reasoning Tun. So, if you can enlighten this M Shanmugam guy....

3rd, Sime Darby seem almost desperate to spend billions as soon as possible. Healthcare, airport development or the whatever the business deal is not a concern...the idea is to find how to spend and justify it as a 'good business idea' is it?? hmmm....

4th, in my opinion the real test for Datuk Seri Najib, is not whether he chose to support Air Asia as a demonstration that he is business friendly and unbiased. The real test for Datuk Seri Najib is to be able to shed the real feelings that many feel about this flip flop Government. The real test for him will be to undo all the damage that Pak Lah have managed to inflict on the perception, moral, hope and vision of the people in his short tenure as PM. He will step down in March (dont forget flip flop, so dont count your blessings just yet) but the damage will remain if Datuk Seri Najib fail to address the real issues. The KT by election clearly demonstrate that the people are comfortable to not hope for a BN rule anymore and this is the prevailing spirit now. THIS is the real test for Datuk Seri Najib.

Salam Y.B. Tun.

On the corrupt UMNO leaders, I suggest Y.B Tun come out with the list of the most preferred leaders to win in the coming UMNO assembly. Eventhough the result will not be 100% as per Tun's list, at least the delegates will have some guidelines and also to deter manipulation by certain quarters to elect on certain candidates.

Though Im not an UMNO member, as a Malaysian Sarawakian who ever the delegates choose will effect us too.

Thank you - Zuuk

The major comments I see here is that Tony & Gang are bad guys/gals with self-interest & with hidden agenda's...yeah..yeah...yeah!! Tell me all about it!!! Mary Had A Little Lamb..Twinkle Twinkle Little Star..Snow White & 14 Cabinet Ministers, Pi Mai Pi Mai Tang Tung...Naik Tangga Turun Tangga..etc...//

Hi Larry,

Long time no see lah. Are you a macha??? Sorry lah, I ask because I am frightened of the incident of Mumbai Terrorism because we do have these macha yang diperalatkan kuasa barat to kill the innocent lives regardless their nationality.

These lyrics need to be updated in order to be relevant;

-Mary Had A little Lamb means Mary Had A Little Poodle (this is a cute animal too)?

-Twinkle Twinkle Little Star means Twinkle Twinkle Little Obama (he is black, we cannot see him at night)?

-Snow White means Snow Black (Michelle Obama, hitam jugak)?

- 14 Cabinet Ministers means Pak Lah Cabinet Ministers (he and his gang lah including your christian brother Tony)? They have to say Selamat Tinggal to Malaysia, Rakyat says selamat jalan, bye bye or goodbye, da da, jai chien (putonghua), tamil saya tarak tau,etc..

- Pi mai Pi Mai Pi Mai Tang Tung (it should be Tu not Tung) means kalau tarak baik, gostan (reverse) lah,jom balik rumah lah, go home, or GO BACH TO MAHATHIRSM = RUKUN NEGARA???

Naik Tangga Turun Tangga means Tony Naik Tangga Tony Turun Tangga?

Well, Larry the world is bulat(sphere), so like what the salleh says if we don't change, we will go back to square one. Sabar lah, we are doing this, sit tight and watch how we do it through chedet.cc.

Salam Tun,

It looks like both sides have valid reasons for/against Labu airport. Air Asia seems to have valid reasons to build KLIA-East and they did say that they will not spend wang rakyat. Conversely, the true KLIA is the best airport in the world (and I mean that) which would be a waste if Air Asia did not use it. Perhaps we need a meeting or debate on this where Tun can be the moderator. Or Datuk Tony can meet Tun privately to explain his reasons (to avoid any media circus)as both personalities are well known and respected.

I have to agree with Larry Jay's comment.

<http://chedet.co.cc/chedetblog/2009/01/labu-airport.html#comment-62412>

Tony did take a 'sure die' airline and transformed it to the behemoth it is today cos he had a vision, executed his strategy and managed the media well (perception). Side tracking a bit, this is how the Israeli people became the successful people they are today and we must learn from this.

Tun,

in today's The Star paper, even Khazanah MD had made a point that he's principally not aligned to the new airport at Labu. He recommended that we should follow the KLIA Airport Master Plan.

Hopefully, Khazanah having a stake in Air Asia, can try their best to influence the proposal before it's late.

I believe majority of us not against the new airport, but Air Asia & Sime Darby must come up with strong arguments and facts on why they really need a new airport closer to KLIA when KLIA itself is under utilised.

Until we're happy with the explanations, there'll be always dissatisfaction on the ground.
By RajaChulanAuthor Profile Page on January 20, 2009 11:12 AM

Dear Tun,

Truth is very easy to understand.

I sincerely believe all parties concerned understand what is right about the Airport issue.

As usual, what every party however is interested here is to sell (promote) their vested interest instead.

It is therefore Abdullah Ahmad Badawi's interest VS Mahathir's interest VS Musa Hitam's interest etc. Frankly, no one cares about Malaysia or its Rakyat's interest.

This is ALWAYS the case in this *^%#@? Malaysia.
Decision making in Malaysia is screwed up big time!

Am I correct, Tun?

Best regards

2. Gunalah KLIA yang sedia ada. Bincang elok-elok. Kalau MAHB yang incompetent tegur dan cari jalan supaya ia lebih efektif. Bekerjasama jangan lah n bermusuh pulak.
3. Don't re invent the wheel again. it's useless.

5. Our politic now is similar to this situation.

By Yazid Author Profile Page on January 20, 2009 11:43 AM

Dear Tun Dr,

In my opinion, the reason why they want to build a new airport is simply because they don't like anything that comes from you. KLIA was your idea, they want to build another one with their own idea. When they use KLIA, they can't stand the thought that it was built during your era.

They do not want to up grade and appreciate your idea, your hard work and your dedication. All they can think of is themselves (dengki hati).

They do not care what will happen to the government or the people.

Thank you

Warm Regard

By Jamal Author Profile Page on January 20, 2009 11:46 AM

Dear Tun,

Free enterprise that's the name of the game. They say, let enterprise do its things and it will benefit society. It will force prices down thus benefiting the consumers and public.

Economists hold this to be TRUE and it's like a "law of nature" to them. A law that cannot be disputed. No amount of argument or factual occurrences will change what they believe to be the TRUTH.

So they go on to say, let Tony exercise his free enterprise so that the consumer public will benefit.

The real question to ask, if we are really looking for the truth is - Will society as a whole benefit???

The answer is an unequivocal NO!

How can putting more airplanes in the sky benefit society. It creates unwanted needs. Not everyone needs to fly in an aeroplane!

Next is the question of National Interest. Airports have very significant national interest and national significance.

Why allow the enterpenur to dictate such things - as we all know they don't have national nor the public at heart. They are there to make money and more profits.

The need for airport MUST be reserved to the government.

Unless the goverment of course is a LAME DUCK one.

The Americans public have realised the folly of unbridled free enterprise and the danger of large corporations. They are fighting them now.

But here in Malaysia we are trying to emulate the Americans by giving free reins to these ideas of free enterprise and large conglomerates.

Wake up you all. Why copy a system that is failing.

Create a new one for god sake. A system that is equitable to the people, the earth and sustainable for our future generations.

Cheers

Khazanah Not Supportive Of LCCT In Labu

KUALA LUMPUR, Jan 19 (Bernama) -- Khazanah Nasional Bhd, the government's investment holding arm, is not supportive of the plan to buiild a permanent low-cost carrier terminal (LCCT) in Labu, its managing director Tan Sri Azman Mokhtar said Monday.

He said the National Airport Masterplan should be used as a reference on what should be built for the sake of the country's development.

"Under the masterplan, 10,000 hectares have already been set aside, of which only about a third has been used," he told reporters after presenting Khazanah's annual review here.

He was asked to state Khazanah's stand over the issue.

According to Azman, the airport sector is one where the clustering or network effect is important.

"We cannot have a few airports here and there because then you cannot get the connectivity," he said.

Describing it as a national issue, Azman said: "Certainly we should follow through".

comment:

If Khazanah has confirmed that it is not supportive of the project, it is an indication or a message to those who initiate the idea to just cancel the project, period.

Khazanah is the voice of the government under Ministry of Finance. So we can safely say that it is NO GO TO THE PROJECT not unless Pak Lah making a FLIP, FLOP, FLUP decision or a haprak and HP6 one to counter the statement made by Azman. If this happens Azman might as well resign because he is really having a "dungu" boss who does not understand what is going on. His boss now is enjoying and sleeping in a jet plane around the world.

Dah banyak dah projek - projek gomen yang membazir - menghabiskan duit rakyat. Tengok la disana-sini banyak jalan raya, flyover, jambatan yang separuh siap ditinggalkan begitu saja. Kalau tuan-tuan ke PutraJaya, tuan-tuan akan pasti nampak satu jambatan suspension yang separuh siap. ( Kalau sesiapa yang tak perasan dan mandu masuk ke laluan tu , mungkin akan terjunam masuk ke dalam paya.) Smart projek pun membazir sbb tak dapat diselesaikan sesak jalan raya di KL.

Sepatutnya, banyak projek yang lebih menafaat boleh dibuat dibanding dengan projek airport ke 4 nih. Buat lingkaran keretapi laju on ground / underground ke seluruh bandar dan pekan ceruk rantau di malaysia lebih berbaloi. Rakyat boleh jimat duit petrol & toll, kurangkan kemalangan jalanraya kalau berkereta, jimat tenaga & jimat masa dan keretapi boleh angkut beratus penumpang sekali trip.

Duit yang "tersave" dari pembaziran dah boleh buat utk bayar dole money kepada mereka yang kehilangan kerja di waktu ekonomi meleset ni, meningkatkan mutu sekolah & pembelajaran, mengada perpustakaan di setiap kawasan perumahan dan kampung-kampung, meningkatkan infrastruktur & kemudahan awam di luarbandar dsbgnya.

Gomen nak support satu lagi projek pembaziran di Labu, tentu menjadikan rakyat semakin tertindas. Tak ade ke lagi bijak pandai yang meneraju Malaysia la ni. Pemimpin2 selalu sangat ke luar negara yang tentunya guna duit rakyat, tak kan tak belajar dari pengalaman berjalan-jalan di negara-negara dunia?

Satu kes lagi, kalau rakyat dapat buat projek pun, biasanya ada pemimpin ni yang dapat "makan" dulu, rakyat "makan" kemudian. Dari dulu sampai sekarang sama cam tu jugak.

Seram betui tengok gelagat pemimpin negara di negara yang kaya dengan sumber alam dan makanan ni....kiamat pun dah dekat.

Salam Tun,

KLIA di kira bertuah kerana AirAsia menjadikannya sebagai hub, tapi harus dingat yang Singapore juga telah membina LCCT nya sendiri dan ingin melobi supaya AirAsia menukar hub nya ke Singapore dengan melayan segala kehendak AirAsia. Advantage hub di Singapore ialah connectivity mereka keseluruh dunia jauh lebih baik dari KLIA Kalau benar terjadi begitu, rakyat dan negara Malaysia yang rugi. Bagi saya yang kerap menggunakan khidmat AirAsia dan LCCT merasakan tidak mungkin MAS boleh menyediakan tambang murah seperti AirAsia.

Maka apa yang tinggal untuk KLIA dan Malaysia? nak harapkan MAS, nak berpuluh tahun masih di takuk lama. MAS yang sepatutnya bersaing dengan SIA untuk pasaran penumpang hanya bersaing dengan adik kecil AirAsia, ini boleh dilihat dari promosi MAS yang hanya menawarkan tambang promosi ke laluan AirAsia sahaja bukan SIA.

Dalam menangani hal ini, semua pihak harus berhati2 bukan ikut emosi. Mungkin saranan Tun untuk menggunakan KLIA boleh diteruskan dengan syarat bangunan terminal baru itu di uruskan sepenuhnya oleh AirAsia dan dibuat satu runaway baru khusus untuk AirAsia dengan berkongsi satu control tower.

Walaupun dibuat begitu masih terdapat kekurangan nya berbanding dengan Labu :-

1. Bayar tambang kapalterbang RM9, keretapi ERL ke KL Sentral RM35 berbanding tambang komuter dari stesen Labu ke KL Sentral RM5.10 kerana airport Labu akan dibina berhampiran stesen keretapi Labu dan KTM sedia berkerjasama dengan Airasia.

2. Dari stesen KTM Labu, penumpang boleh terus ke puluhan destinasi kediaman mereka di Lembah Kelang tanpa tukar tren di KL Sentral dengan tambang yang murah dan kekerapan 15 minit.

3. Stesen KTM Labu menyediakan connectivity terus ke Singapore dan bandar bandar lain.

Tun, kalau dengan RM1.6 billion tu, boleh tak Sime Darby bina jambatan dari Langkawi ke tanah besar, jarak terdekat tak sampai 30 km, sedangkan jambatan kedua PP 22km. Banyak faedah untuk rakyat Malaysia dan penduduk Langkawi Assalamualaikum Tok Che dan Nenda..

Malaysia ni bukannya negara yg besar sgt utk ada banyak sgt airport.

Walaupun kita nak menggalakkan pelancong dtg dgn mengadakan penerbangan terus ke destinasi, tapi kita juga perlu seimbangkan dgn penerbangan domestik.

Rancangan utk pembinaan airport baru di Labu itu sgt tidak wajar. Terlalu dekat dgn KLIA Sepang. Air Asia pun jangan lah sombong sangat sehingga tidak mahu berkongsi dgn MAHB. Setelah dah kaya raya ni, apa pulangan balik Air Asia kpd masyarakat?? (Tambang murah itu mmg dah sepatutnya!!)

Fikir-fikirkanlah...

Oh ye Mr Larry, I do remember what happened to MAS. But do we really need another airport??. Sepang tu besar ok. Boleh je tambah runway.

YABhg Tun

As a rakyat I don't understand why the Government is not asking the same question as you did with the proposed Labu airport? Why aren't the professionals voicing their concerns on the duplicity of the airport in Labu? Surely they won't get shot by Pak Alah (literally get shot at!) if they were to give their views.

To the upcoming PM, my statemate, please hear out what people are saying before committing yourself. The repercussions will be on you, Dato Seri Najib as the the new PM, so be PR savvy and listen to your 'publics'. Let the rakyat discuss freely and then decide. This is the only decent thing you can do now after the fiasco in Terengganu. You have enough professionals in your own office to advise you on 'issues'.

Tun, they are really clueless.

Salam hormat to you and family.

Hari ini warta berita TV3 memaklumkan bahawa Khazanah tidak setuju dengan cadangan PIA. Bagus lah tu. Kadang-kadang terfikir juga, Air Asia tidak pula buka airport baru di Thailand, Singapore atau di Indonesia. Mengapa?

Sudah saya baca kesemua komen yang tertera dan saya dapati komen-komen dari orang-orang ATC banyak juga. Sekurang-kurangnya ada pendapat dari mereka yang arif dalam bidang aviation ini.

Kepada AA/SD, fikirkan masak-masak dahulu. Jangan jejakkan negara dengan banyak sangat airport didalam satu kawasan. Kalau nak buat juga, buat kat Tanjong Malim / Slim River / Rawang, jauh dari KLIA tetapi dekat dengan KL.

AA/SD ni kalau sayangkan BN, lupakan saja projek ini. Kalau teruskan juga, mereka dah tidak kisah dengan BN.

AirAsia dulu beria-ia nak ambillah Rural Air Services (RAS) di Sabah dan Sarawak dari MAS. Apabila tidak tahan dengan kerugian (walaupun disubsidi), AirAsia serah balik kat kerajaan sehingga menjejaskan RAKYAT pendelaman Sabah dan Sarawak...tiada penerbangan sekian lama. Ini dinamakan "TERMINAL RAKYAT"? Jangan kelirukan RAKYAT. MAS yang ambillah balik RAS.

Hi Tun,

Saw this interesting comment on WeeChooKeong blog. I think i better paste it here for everyone to read.

Btw, i saw Air Asia register the domain "KLIAEAST.COM" for their future use.

Say NO WAY TO LABU

Angry Staff

Really... I'm the inside staff of Air Asia. There are many things that you guys out side doesn't know.

1. From what been told, MAHB charging us a lot... Totally lies.... From the fact, the air craft parking are free. Usage of terminal facilities, are free. The only thing Air Aisa have to pay are the passenger service charge (PSC), that been paid by passenger for Airport tax. And that is what Air Asia thries to run away.

2. Lots of money to build the new terminal.... lies.... Remember RM 100 million owes to MAHB??? Also, our staff bouns also was NOT paid. Last year, paid but the high bonus only paid to the higher management. For us, lower staff, just a matter of paying bonus. We work hard but to serve Tony big lies and wild life. Having parties at Pan Pasific, with the Air Asia girls. Having 6 to 7 rooms reserves for their wild party. Owes Pan Pasific money, also doesn't want to pay. If lot of money, why does Tony doesn't to pay the debts to MAHB and Pan Pasific???

3. Do you know that we doesn't have any yearly salary increment??

4. Discrimination.... Sex discrimination, skin colour discrimination, you name it. Where are our staff right?? No Staff Union. If anyone tries to create one, sure will be discharge or will be force to resign.

5. Staff working hours to long... Lots of incident that happen where involved staff over-worked. Accident happen, inside or outside Airports (during coming or going back home)

6. When told that many flight are coming in, we are happy cause MAYBE we gonna have BONUS or any insentive. But what happen is with short of staff now, we have to handle more flights. Blame on us if any delays, esspecially Malays staff.

7. Also rumors says that HINDRAF is sponsors by our beloved TONY and cronies....

8. Labu East really have HIDDEN Agenda. Contractor for LCCT existing and expansion are the same; Fajar Baru company.... KJ have a big share. Last time known as Rembau Company. KJ wife have shares in Air Asia. Labu contractor also KJ (with other company name).

We staff knows about the ICAO which meant for Airport regulation and also know about IATA for airline operators. But when ask to our management, they have little knowledge about it. So, I, as staff of Air Asia, really afraid for the safety of passenger using our Air Asia flight. And thats is why l'm moving to other airline by next month.

Please if you can do something. Look into this matter.

Dear Tun,

Ok i got the message from all those Tony's lovers.

1. Its not Tony's problem, Tony just a talented businessmen who wants to cash in the opportunity cause idea blank from Pak Lah Government.

2. MAS was undermined with many hidden hands to make Air Asia more frontal then MAS. I got MAS friends, they told me everything. They weren't allowed to compete with Air Asia but must kow-tow or bow to Air Asia. So Tony seized the day.

3. I still wonder how Air Asia going to compete when KJ is no longer there and MAS is unleashed for equal competition with Air Asia.

4. So Tony got alot of money and want to do some PFI, so simple, ask him to do some PFI in airport zoned area thats all, why go so far. If he doesnt like he can reclaim his own land in south china sea and called it tony's land and land whatever he wants there and stay away from our country. And whoever loved him, can migrate there and change your IC too.

5. So at the end of the day, Air Asia airport is not an issue actually, its only air asia, not Malaysia problem. Give him the ultimatum, if Air Asia wants to upgrade his airport, upgrade within KLIA region thats all. If other guy can listen, like Mcdonald serving halal food, why not him. Same case as Tajuddin Ramli when he wants to do something even bad things, he still do it within our reach, he just dont simply pop an idea want to make his own international airport in his kampung in Kedah.

6. Since Tony got money, u can do something else, do hotels or whatever, or international university or private hospitals or something. And make a special train connecting your LCCT in Sepang to your development area in Labu. If u do International University (UIA example or Al-Azhar) u can tap these muslim students with strap cash to come to study there (since they got issues with US Patriot act) and buy some houses around there and make your airline able to tap more middle east market. So at the end of the day, u end up having 3 areas, 1 in Sepang, 1 in Labu and 1 in between. And dont forget, can make the money on the side without making too many ppl angry. So at least Pak Lah can sleep peacefully for once since election disaster without having Tun barking at him in his blog and make him look like a fool.

7. So finally to those all Pak Lah supporters/advisors please for once give a very super duper smart ideas so that Pak Lah can be proud and sleep peacefully at night. I guarantee he keep on having bad dreams. Please do some best service for him. Pak Lah is great guy, and u guys (supporter and advisors) are giving him a bad name.

masih dengan KLIA EAST -LCCT.

Pengerusi air asia dengan angkuh berkata:

" apa yang kecoh? kami bukannya guna duit kerajaan, kami hanya mahukan kebenaran satu l;agi kemudahan pengangkutan"

" kami bukan hanya mahu membina LCCT, tetapi menjadikan LABU sebuah hub pengangkutan "airport city" ( bandar lapangan terbang) yang serba canggih dan lengkap dengan kawasan perumahan, sekolah, hospital, hotel, sistem pengangkutan yang tersusun serta taman tema supaya dapat menarik pelancong" untuk pengetahuan Dato Aziz kami rakyat tidak kecoh, tetapi kami fikirkan kepentingan nasional, iaitu menjadikan KLIA hub udara serantau dan bukan pentingkan keuntungan beberapa kerat dalam air asia.

syabas !! bangunlah kawasan perumahan, sekolah, hospital, hotel, sistem pengangkutan yang tersusun serta taman tema di labu, dan jadikan labu satu bandaraya canggih - rakyat akan tabek sebab ada peluang pekerjaan..

tetapi terminal udara (lcct) mestilah berada dalam kawasan KLIA sebab kemampuan KLIA ialah 125 juta penumpang setahun dan terdapat kawasan tanah yang luas untuk air asia bangunlah lcct sendiri disitu. Datuk Aziz mesti ada agenda nasional dalam diri.

Dear Tun,

Firstly, I want to establish the fact that I am great admirer and have the greatest respect for you. I consider myself a lucky person, I was born and raised in a good Muslim family, I have a loving and caring wife and most of all I thank God that you are not a Singaporean :)

I am deeply involved with the new airport mentioned and for this reason I have to keep my real identity concealed. KLIA is a great airport, the masterplan design and the forward thinking involved is top notch. Sure, some people will make silly complaints stating that it is too far away and that it's built on a lavish grandeur but let's not take anything away from it - it's a fantastic airport.

Unfortunately, the people that is running the show fails to make the most out of it. I list down some fundamental flaws of the KLIA

1. For a modern designed dual runway airport like KLIA, it should be able to comfortably handle 70 aircraft movements in an hour (the definition of movements is number of aircraft landing or taking off). However, KLIA bought an unsuitable radar system and as a consequence, KLIA can only handle 35 aircraft movement per hour! As a comparison, Gatwick airport in London (the world's busiest runway in the world) handles an average of 40.6 aircraft movements per hour with only ONE runway. If you ever wonder why there are always delays in the early morning, lunchtime and midnight rush hour, this is your answer. Aircraft are queuing, waiting in vain for the green light from the air traffic controllers to take off or land. Due to the serious error in judgement of the radar system purchase, KLIA runway is running at 50% of its theoretical capacity.

2. Sophisticated baggage conveyor system. Modeled after Narita airport's system, this is an impressive engineering hardware. But unfortunately, the guys who are sorting out the bags are immigrants whom very often can't read English or Malay. Sorting bags is not rocket science, but it does require the individual to be able to distinguish alphabets. Almost always, when you investigate the root cause on why there are severe delays in baggage collection, the answer is in basic human mistakes. The airport operator is clearly not investing in its people.

3. Weak security. We heard about armed robberies, non functional CCTV and alarm bells not working! This is a parody of gargantuan scale making us a world class banana republic. Recently, I have seen more heavily armed security personnel around the airport. But, I see them standing in a corner with their friends chatting away for hours at a time. I'm not sure if they are intimidating the would-be criminals or just rewarding them with extra composure? Again, the airport operator is not investing and managing its people well.

The problem with KLIA is in the human factor, there is nothing wrong with the infrastructure. It's very frustrating affair, it is as if you are in the fastest car but the driver insists on being stuck on second gear and driving at 60 kmh. Changi in comparison, it is an old design and beaten up airport, but they have world class professional on the drivers seat who are extracting every horsepower Changi can churn.

Nobody paid any attention when AirAsia voiced out the need for a permanent low cost facility equipped with sufficient capacity to house their long term ambitions. Instead, a make shift warehouse was built under the guise of low cost terminal (LCCT). Puduraya bus terminal stands out as a five star hotel in comparison to the comfort level at the LCCT – it is really appalling. The airport operator however, continues to waste money and build extensions at ridiculously escalated price to a company that is rumored to be mysteriously linked to the son in law of a very powerful man in Malaysia. Public money wasted again for an extension of LCCT that is only good for an additional 18 months before it is full to the brim – AGAIN.

AirAsia needs a permanent home, and it needs it fast and done in a cost efficient manner. Endless number of meetings has taken place with the airport operator, but the meetings yielded nothing! No agreement can be achieved with regards to project costing, project management, site locations and timeline.

This is a slight digression, but these are the reasons why AirAsia needs a permanent facility:

Support strong growth: In 2013, AirAsia Group alone is expected to carry 25 million passengers in KL. KLIA couldn't possibly cope with the current substandard radar system.

Low cost operations: AirAsia must have a cost effective and ergonomic facility. The philosophy and mindset of this terminal is completely different than KLIA or any other airports in Malaysia.

Exclusive use of the runway: LCC operations will heavily utilize the runway, from morning till late night. Full service airlines tend to be super busy during the early morning, lunchtime and midnight but they are very free in between. This highly skewed schedule puts a massive strain on the runway during the super peak hours and this causes severe delays. Therefore, it is always best to separate airports that are intended for full service airlines and airports for low cost airlines.

To be fair Tun, the airport operator did suggest two locations at KLIA to house a permanent low cost airport. But their plans will ultimately destroy the original masterplan and turn KLIA into the most confused airport in the world. Let me explain what I mean, (Plan A) North of KLIA: The site mentioned is where Concorde Inn is located currently. That hotel will be demolished and house a 30 million LCCT. This plan however, will disrupt the masterplan as it will encroach into the land that was supposed to house the second terminal building and 1 satellite building. The original for KLIA to carry 125 million pax pa, will be reduced to 90 million pax pa if this plan is carried out. Secondly, there won't be any ERL connection because of the geographical contour problems at the specified land and the way that the terminal is going to be designed.

(Plan B) West of KLIA. This is a swampy area and it will require significant amount of money and time to prepare the soil. The extra cost incurred will likely eat in to project feasibility and it defeats the purpose of building a low cost terminal. It is best to leave this and continue with the original masterplan, this land was supposed to be used to build extra runways.

The airport operator was adamant that the cost for their proposed plan will be in the vicinity of RM3-4 billion! AirAsia is of the view that this is grossly overstated and is not feasible. Remaining at KLIA is no longer an option, AirAsia had to go out and do business with someone who knows how to do business.

Thus, AirAsia have no option but to go ahead and do it alone. Various sites was studied which includes Subang. Subang would have been the perfect location as the facility is readily available with a good runway and it wouldn't cost a lot to build a terminal building. But the powers that be, coupled with a highly fragmented land ownership structure made it impossible. It's disheartening to see Subang rot like this, that airport deserves better respect. But when political consideration supersedes national interest, you get these kind of stupid outcomes Tun.

In my humble opinion, the ideal airport solution for Kuala Lumpur is the following § KLIA reserved for full service and premium airlines
§ Subang is reserved for low cost airlines (AirAsia)
§ Simpang (Sg Besi) is reserved for turbo-prop (Firefly)

After years of fighting with no results, one is compelled to accept the first break it gets. In the case of AirAsia, Labu is the so called 'break', not a perfect solution but beggars can't be choosers. Sime Darby has expressed their keen interest, they own the land and they have a construction arm that is fully capable of performing a project of this magnitude. The project cost is estimated to be RM1.6 billion. You may recall that this is half that what the airport operator was initially quoting.

This is commercially viable and many private investors have expressed their interest to participate. No public funds are required, and projects are done on a commercial friendly basis. I don't think the fat cronies will lay their fingers on this project; it won't have the fat margins that they are accustomed with.

Overall, this new airport will be good for Malaysia. Malaysia is in the forefront for the low cost airline industry. With this purpose built low cost airport – the first in the world, budget airlines will have no choice but to make KL their destination. This is part of the big strategy to make KL a big hub! Everybody seems to misunderstand the definition of a hub. KLIA is not the hub; Kuala Lumpur (the city itself) is the hub! London has 5 airports and they collectively function as the greater London hub. Similarly, New York has 3 airports and they function together as the New York hub. The same case applies for Rome, Paris, Tokyo, Melbourne and Nice – just to name a few.

This new airport might also resuscitate KTM from the living dead. Labu train station is less than 2 km away from the location of the new terminal and there are plans to link the two and transform Labu station into a integrated rail hub. Let's say that in 2013, Labu airport carries 25 million passengers, and let's assume 25% of passenger will take the train (in Gatwick, its almost 40%) and they pay RM10 each for a trip to KL Sentral. That amounts to RM62 million of revenue for KTM. (If you look into KTM's 2007 annual report, the KTM Komuter service provided roughly RM90 million of revenue). Furthermore, the connectivity will boost traffic for the intercity trains (KL-Singapore, KL-Thailand, KL-East coast). Imagine this, all the small town and tourist havens alongside the train lines are now connected to Labu airport.

I am not sure if the YTL Group will be interested to extend the ERL line to Labu airport. As this is a private funded project, they need to make their own investment and ensure the project is commercially viable. AirAsia and Sime Darby won't be kind hearted to offer compensation nor incentives for them to extend the ERL line.

A lot of people fear that KLIA will be a white elephant with the new airport. One must not take a one year forward view on this. True, when AirAsia leaves for the new airport in 2011, KLIA traffic will probably drop down to 20 million passengers. This is a temporary reduction; ones the prominence of the KL hub becomes real, all airlines have no choice but to boost their connectivity with KL. Right now, many full service airlines shun KL because they believe that it is sufficient to link Southeast Asia via Singapore and Bangkok only; they believe people make their own transfer to Malaysia via these two airports if they want to.

Very soon, KL will have more connectivity to the world than Changi or Suvarnabhumi thanks to AirAsia. Right now, AirAsia have a total of 59 routes in KL and 25 are unique routes (routes that have never been done in the aviation history). By 2012, don't be surprised if the number of route doubles. Kuala Lumpur will have the best and most comprehensive connectivity factor, and thus complimenting the hub strength. THEN, airlines will start to think its best to link KL, and then passengers can make their own connection to the other parts of the region.

Let's think of London as an example of hub success. London has five airports – all of which are in dreadful condition. But yet, these airports collectively carry 145 million passengers in 2008. Because of this sheer size, every airline in the world wants to go there. They can't afford not to have connectivity with London. To a lot of people in the world, London is seen as the gateway to Europe.

Kuala Lumpur can be the gateway to Asia. We need to build the volume first, expand the connectivity, optimize our cost efficiency and the rest will follow. Kuala Lumpur will be the biggest hub.

Tun, please don't worry. I am confident that this is a step in the right direction.

Salam Ayahanda Tun. Please allow me this small passage. Thank you.

To my brother Saudara samuraimelayu, thank you for pointing out to me that remark at 10:33 18 Jan, as I have flew pass that on auto pilot several times already and totally missed it :) Anyhow, it's good to be reading your regular comments again here. Day in day out, I would look up on this blog to post my comments, and my comments mainly are 100% of critical natures of Abdullah Badawi. I could never say enough gratitude to Tun for creating this space where we could all expose for the whole world to see, who Abdullah Badawi is, and who Khairy Jamalludin has become – and at what the two of them are doing to this country. Abdullah Badawi is a weak person. He always relies on somebody else to make his stand in everything. But for here and now, we shall touch only on politics. For a long time he had arwah Datuk Fatah to help him around. He was a good man. But after his passing on in 1999, Abdullah seemed somewhat lost. Thajudeen in my book is next to useless. Then along pop in that famous no good kid from Oxford. Pak Lah used to call Khairy "my Khairy". See Khairy claimed all the credits for "running the 2004 election". And that somewhat had ruffled many. Some of my family evens question me on my motives here. I am not here because I was denied any government project or the likes; I made what I have, away from all these. I have comfortably enough- to say no thanks. But I am here simply to keep on exposing and hitting Abdullah Badawi and his camp under the freedom of speech as enshrined by the Malaysian Democratic Constitution. As a very concerned citizen, here I am and I make my stand clear for all to read and understand. I have over the past few weeks been talking to people that are very close to Pak Lah and to my surprise findings, they have only negative remarks about Pak Lah and Khairy today. And some of this people are still serving in his administration. So we can imagine the chaos inside Putra Jaya today. And this chaotic situation has spilled over into Malaysian politics. Look at the standard of living today, its way too high for the average many. And yet, our PM and his family are still lavishing themselves in the absolute power that corrupts. Look at the destruction they have brought upon this country. Tun had worked hard at building this country, transforming it from an agriculture based economy to what we were then under Ayahanda Tun (before his retirement in 2003). But look at what Abdullah had done to all of us now? Everything is very nearly up in smokes. And it is through this blog that we have all gathered to speak our part. I agree with you saudara samurai melayu; till the day Abdullah Badawi actually leaves that 4th floor suite, preferably booted out, we would be here to keep firing those salvos. It's hitting them. They pretend not to get hit, but in truth their behinds are really smoking and its starting to smell. Just like Tom and Jerry :) Thank you brother samurai melayu. Warmest regards and best wishes from all of us here. Wassalam.

Selamat pagi Tun,

//By bluesgang on January 20, 2009 5:20 PM//

Hi bluesgang,

//1. Its not Tony's problem, Tony just a talented businessmen who wants to cash in the opportunity cause idea blank from Pak Lah Government.//

Yeap, it's not Tony's problem, it's Pak Lah's problem, that is why Hindraf was set up to go against BN, to them Tony is the hero, to me Tony is just a Donald Trump, buatan Malaysia.

//2. MAS was undermined with many hidden hands to make Air Asia more frontal then MAS. I got MAS friends, they told me everything. They weren't allowed to compete with Air Asia but must kow-tow or bow to Air Asia. So Tony seized the day.//

Because of this incident, rakyat has became smart, using blogging to unblog, launched by Dr M (the book costs only RM25) to expose these invisible hands so that Tony and these hands will be exposed and made to understand our Rukun Negara and the country name, Malaysia.

//3. I still wonder how Air Asia going to compete when KJ is no longer there and MAS is unleashed for equal competition with Air Asia.//

Well, I think A. Asia is going to be took over by MAS and Fireflz since they are underutilized because of Air Asia when KJ is no longer there.

//4. So Tony got alot of money and want to do some PFI, so simple, ask him to do some PFI in airport zoned area thats all, why go so far. If he doesnt like he can reclaim his own land in south china sea and called it tony's land and land whatever he wants there and stay away from our country. And whoever loved him, can migrate there and change your IC too.//

I don't think Tony got money, his supporters must have ran away from him and leaving him with all the hutang owed by Air Asia, siapa makan cili siapa rasa pedas, I pity him, but I don't feel sorry for him.

//5. So at the end of the day, Air Asia airport is not an issue actually, its only air asia, not Malaysia problem. Give him the ultimatum, if Air Asia wants to upgrade his airport, upgrade within KLIA region thats all. If other guy can listen, like Mcdonald serving halal food, why not him. Same case as Tajuddin

Ramli when he wants to do something even bad things, he still do it within our reach, he just dont simply pop an idea want to make his own international airport in his kampong in Kedah.//

I don't agreed with you on this, Air Asia should be abandoned in Malaysia or move down south to the Singapore Island.

//6. Since Tony got money, u can do something else, do hotels or whatever, or international university or private hospitals or something. And make a special train connecting your LCCT in Sepang to your development area in Labu. If u do International University (UIA example or Al-Azhar) u can tap these muslim students with strap cash to come to study there (since they got issues with US Patriot act) and buy some houses around there and make your airline able to tap more middle east market. So at the end of the day, u end up having 3 areas, 1 in Sepang, 1 in Labu and 1 in between. And dont forget, can make the money on the side without making too many ppl angry. So at least Pak Lah can sleep peacefully for once since election disaster without having Tun barking at him in his blog and make him look like a fool.//

Pak lah is a real fool, not because of Tun and bloggers making him look like a fool. HE IS A REAL FOOL! People now saying that PAK LAH IS BETTER THAN PAK ANWAR because at least Pak Lah is a fool, Pak Anwar is a crook!!!!

//7. So finally to those all Pak Lah supporters/advisors please for once give a very super duper smart ideas so that Pak Lah can be proud and sleep peacefully at night. I guarantee he keep on having bad dreams. Please do some best service for him. Pak Lah is great guy, and u guys (supporter and advisors) are giving him a bad name.//

I was told it's not Pak Lah's fault that he got bad names, it's because of his SIL, KJ. I say, if the cow does not want to drink water, we cannot force it to drink. If Pak Lah is not greedy, he will kept Tun's promises when Tun resigned. But he didn't, instead he let Anwar out, Raja Petra not to be charged unders ISA, Lingam's case, Salleh' ex-gratia payment, Zaid Ibrahim's issue, bar coucil, kept silent on racial, religion ,social contract issues etc... to protect his name. I don't think he can sleep now because he is scare that he may have too many bad dreams that "Tuhan" tunjuk in his dreams. Anyway, I am dissapointed with Pak Lah, but I will never say 'padam muka' and and never feel sorry for him. This is the punishment for those people who go against religion teachings, siapakah yang tidak mengenang budi, dia pasti akan di hukum, and tis is what we call "CAUSE & EFFECT. Good day bluesgang!

Sincerely yours,

Good day Tun.

P/S:- S..Tan, these are the some of reasons why I always go against you. I am not a racist, but I am a Malaysian, since this our country's problem, we have to be united, like Obama says, CHANGE OR PERISH, we learn from USA and do it MALAYSIA WAY (the best and proven way is MAHATHIRISM, and we improve from here, no more hypernating folks, wake up or perish, this is the global trend that is unavoidable, accept it in Malaysian way, that is refer to RUKUN NEGARA!!!!

nak pergi LCCT macam nak pergi pasar aje!! tapi tidak kedengaran pun cerita2 mengenai bantahan ke atas projek Labu ini di dalam media2..apa nak jadi dengan media kita ni nie?? sampaikan berita pembatalan kontrak pembelian rumah oleh Mahkamah Tinggi yang melibatkan beribu-ribu pengguna pun tiada disiarkan dalam media!!!

WHY NOT BOYCOTTING AIR ASIA?

By rusdiAuthor Profile Page on January 21, 2009 10:06 AM

Assalamualaikum Tun - semoga sihat-sihat selalu.

Isu KLIA@EAST-LCCT.

Pengerusi Air Asia dengan angkuh berkata:

" apa yang kecoh? kami bukannya guna duit kerajaan, kami hanya mahukan kebenaran satu laagi kemudahan pengangkutan"

Saya ingin bertanya Dato' Aziz Bakar, Pengerusi Air Asia dan juga Dato' Tony - Adakah Air Asia akan mengeluarkan semua perbelanjaan termasuk perkara-perkara berikut:-

1. Pembinaan Jalan : menyambungkan KLIA@EAST-LCCT dengan jalan utama;
2. Gaji pegawai & anggota polis (Kawalan keselamatan/Trafik);
3. Gaji pegawai & anggota Imigeresen;
4. Gaji pegawai & anggota Kastam;
5. Gaji pegawai & anggota DCA (Control Tower);
6. Menyediakan & menyelenggara perumahan mereka;
7. Pengangkutan untuk kakitangan tersebut; dan
8. Lain-lain kemudahan termasuk sekolan dan seumpamanya.

Kalau semua perkara tersebut diatas disediakan dan perbelanjaannya dikeluarkan oleh Air Asia saya berpendapat kerajaan harus menyokongnya projek tersebut kerana ianya akan menjana pekerjaan kepada rakyat malaysia, sekurang kurangnya 10,000 orang.

Tetapi jika sebaliknya kerajaan yang waras haruslah menolak cadangan tersebut kecuali kerajaan ada agenda terselindung dan mahukan kekalahan dalam PRU ke 13 nanti.

By amuthaAuthor Profile Page on January 21, 2009 10:45 AM well, i have been read all the comments above. it's sounds silly to me. please compare the KLIA and LCCT? Which are the one , that people are crowded? Which are the one they most prefer? For sure LCCT. Because Air Asia always says customer is right, and always works for their customers satisfaction. By the way Air Asia is a low fare airline and it's good in doin budget rather then paying the high rental in KLIA better to have a LCCT which can reduce the flight fare and helps the average level people to enjoy their life by flying through Air Asia. Please dont use political issues here. Use your brain n think. You can find a good solution for it. I will always welcome the LABU Airport project. AIR ASIA you can do it.

PEMINAT DAN PECINTA BOLASEPAK TANAH AIR

Saya adalah berjuta peminat bolasepak tetapi teramat sedih dengan prestasi Malaysia pada masa ini. Justeru itu saya terpaksa menggunakan blog Tun bagi menyampaikan mesej dan mencadangkan 1 dari 1000 cadangan yang boleh diterima pakai oleh orang-orang yang bermegah memegang jawatan dalam FAM sehinggakan tak mahu turun dari tahta jawatan yang yang dipegangnya seolah-olah tempat tersebut bapak dia yang punya ....

Ke arah Mengembalikan Kecemerlangan Bolasepak Malaysia

1. Realiti bolasepak di Malaysia lebih gemilang sebelum tahun 1990 berbanding selepasnya. Ini dapat kita lihat dengan pencapaian pasukan Malaysia di arena antarabangsa termasuklah Pestabola Merdeka yang dianjurkan dalam negara kita sendiri.

2. Selepas liga semi-pro dan professional diperkenalkan kemeriahan dan kemajuan bolasepak hanya di awal sahaja, kemudian tahun demi tahun ia semakin lesu.

3. Mengapa kemerosotan mutu bolasepak Negara berlaku? Jika kita bandingkan kemudahan bolasepak seperti stadium dan kemudahan lain yang berkaitan dengannya kita jauh lebih baik dari Vietnam, Myanmar, Iraq dan negara-negara Afrika tetapi mengapa kita setidak-tidaknya baik lebih sedikit dari mereka malah semakin jauh ketinggalan.

Bagi saya ada beberapa perkara yang kita perlu lakukan demi kemajuan bolasepak tempatan. Antaranya:

1. Perkenalkan pangkalan data dan Sistem Gaji Pemain Liga Profesional Secara Bersepadu.

FAM perlulah membayar gaji terus kepada semua pemain-pemain professional di liga yang berdaftar di bawahnya setiap bulan. FAM perlu menyediakan satu pangkalan data dan sistem gaji untuk semua pemain-pemain yang didaftarkan. Pemain yang terikat dengan perjanjian gaji ( kontrak ), ia perlulah didaftarkan melalui sistem yang dikendalikan oleh FAM dahulu dan bayaran gaji selepas tarikh tersebut akan dibayar oleh FAM terus setiap bulan kepada pemain selagi tiada pindaan atau penamatan tentang perjanjian diberitahu. Pasukan perlulah membayar total bayaran gaji pemain-pemainnya kepada FAM 20 hari sebelum tarikh gaji. Tarikh gaji bagi bayaran bulan tertentu yang dicadangkan adalah setiap 1 haribulan berikutnya. Jika FAM tidak menerima bayaran atau bayaran tidak mencukupi, FAM perlu mendahulukan bayaran gaji pemain-pemain pasukan tersebut dengan menggunakan wang tabungan kecemasan FAM ( khusus diwujudkan bagi menangani masalah seperti ini ). Denda ( bunga seperti 10% sebulan daripada hutang pasukan kepada FAM ) perlu dikenakan kepada pasukan yang bermasalah itu.

Satu perkara lagi, jika ada pemain pada tempoh-tempoh tertentu dipanggil untuk mewakili Malaysia bagi satu-satu kejohanan, bayaran gaji pemain itu pada bulan tersebut perlu diambil-alih oleh FAM dengan tambahan elaun tetap RM 100 sehari ( nilai lain jika difikirkan munasabah ) bagi setiap pemain tanpa mengira senioriti. .

Saya percaya dengan adanya sistem bersepadu ini masalah seperti kelewatan dan pasukan tidak membayar gaji pemain tidak akan timbul lagi. Selain itu kemungkinan pemain menjual permainan juga dapat dielakkan. Dengan adanya sistem gaji bersepadu yang dikendalikan terus oleh FAM ini juga akan menarik minat ramai rakyat Malaysia yang benar-benar berbakat menceburkan diri dalam profesion bolasepak secara professional seterusnya mewakili negara.

2. Menjanjikan Pekerjaan Tetap Sesuai Dengan Kelayakan Pelajaran Bagi Pemain Yang Telah Mewakili Pasukan negeri selama 3 atau 4 tahun berturut-turut.

FAM perlu meletakkan syarat kepada pasukan profesional iaitu adalah menjadi satu kewajiban bagi setiap pasukan negeri yang menggunakan khidmat seseorang pemain professional 3 atau 4 tahun berturut-turut perlu ( tempoh yang wajar boleh difikirkan ) memberi jaminan satu pekerjaan tetap dari kerajaan negeri ( pasukan negeri yang diwakilinya ) kepada pemain tersebut sesuai dengan kelayakan ( samada lulusan SPM / STPM / Diploma / Ijazah ). Jika tempoh minima berkhidmat dipenuhi pemain, pasukan negeri berkenaan wajib menyediakan pekerjaan tetap dengan kerajaan negeri selepas sebulan berhenti sebagai pemain professional.

Saya percaya dengan jaminan pekerjaan tetap kepada pemain oleh pasukan negeri yang diwakilinya, ramai pemain-pemain bolasepak negara yang berbakat besar lepasan Diploma atau Ijazah, rata-rata usia mereka 21 atau 23 tahun berani dan mahu bergiat aktif secara professional kerana pada usia begini mereka boleh aktif sekurang-kurangnya selama 7 hingga 9 tahun sebagai pemain bolasepak secara professional.

FAM perlu sedar Malaysia adalah pemungut pingat emas terbanyak di Sukan Universiti Asean pada baru-baru ini. Jika kita tinjau anak-anak muda pada usia 18 hingga 21 tahun, bilangan kumpulan ini ramai yang belajar di Pusat Pengajian Tinggi Tempatan samada swasta atau awam. Ini kerana dasar kerajaan yang mahukan ramai rakyat Malaysia yang berilmu. Berbanding sebelum tahun 1990 pusat pengajian tinggi awam dan swasta di negara ini boleh dibilang. Selepas itu dan selepas tahun 2000 kumpulan usia ini ramai yang melanjutkan pelajaran sekurang-kurangnya ke peringkat sijil atau Diploma. Kumpulan ini amat besar jumlahnya dan selepas belajar pada usia muda 21 tahun, jika mereka yang berbakat besar dalam bolasepak melihat bolasepak mampu memberi jaminan untuk masa depan mereka, sudah tentu bukan diri mereka sahaja yang berminat melibatkan diri secara professional malahan saya percaya ibu-bapa mereka juga tidak akan menghalang malah turut memberikan sokongan terhadap minat anak-anak mereka yang berbakat ke arah melibatkan diri dalam dunia bolasepak professional.

Saya percaya kelompok pemain bolasepak yang bergiat aktif secara professional di Malaysia sekarang ini 99 peratus adalah kumpulan yang "ketinggalan" dalam mendapatkan pekerjaan yang baik di pasaran kerja tempatan samada swasta mahupun awam. Sementara kumpulan yang lebih berbakat dalam bolasepak dan melanjutkan pelajaran ke peringkat Diploma atau Ijazah akan terus melupakan sukan yang diminatinya kerana ianya tidak menjanjikan masa depan yang cerah.

FAM juga perlu analisis sekarang ini dalam banyak-banyak kejohanan bolasepak bawah 18 tahun dan 16 tahun di peringkat antarabangsa khususnya di Asia, mengapa Negara kita standing dengan Jepun atau Korea? Tetapi selepas usia 18 tahun pasukan pasukan kita jauh ketinggalan. Di mana silapnya?.

Justeru itu saya yakin jika FAM dapat melaksanakan 2 perkara yang dinyatakan di atas, maka bolasepak negara kita kembali bersinar. Faktor yang tidak kurang pentingnya ialah pihak atasan FAM perlulah dipilih dari golongan yang tiada kepentingan peribadi. Peneraju nombor satu FAM yang gagal membawa kemajuan bolasepak negara perlulah disingkirkan. Kerajaan terutamanya dan juga swasta punya peranan yang penting Camputangan orang-orang politik dan kumpulan dari institusi raja juga tidak seharusnya dipilih menerajui FAM. Ini kerana satu-satu keputusan yang dibuat selalunya bermotifkan keuntungan peribadi tanpa melihat kebaikan atau kemajuan bolasepak secara menyeluruh.

Sekian.

Terima kasih Tun.

Tun,

Bg saya biar apa pun alasan bg meneruskan rancangan untuk membina KLIA EAST -LCCT di Labu ianya satu langkah yang kurang bijak lagi bodoh. KLIA dibina untuk wawasan yang jauh bg masa depan. Lainlah KLIA yg sedia ada sudah dan tidak mampu menampung keperluan Air Asia bg tempoh 15 tahun akan datang. Tambahan pula dalam situasi ekonomi yang tidak menentu ini.

Jika ianya diteruskan apa akan terjadi di KLIA? Sudah tentu segala perbelanjaan besar untuk membinanya dahulu bg keperluan 20-25 tahun akan datang sia-sia belaka.

Memang benar ia tidak melibatkan wang rakyat / kerajaan tetapi kewajaran sesuatu perkara dilakukan perlulah bijak dan masuk akal.

Tun, sejak Dolah Bodowi ini memerintah saya bukanlah membenci beliau tetapi kebodohan beliau membuatkan saya cukup meluat. Saya mula meluat apabila rancangan Jambatan Bengkong di Johor dibatalkan. Bg saya ia mampu mendatangkan income negara untuk jangka masa depan. Rancangan membina Jambatan P Pinang ke 2 yang kurang bijak itu bg saya ia jauh kurang mendatangkan hasil pada negara / kerajaan. Lg pun jambatan yg sedia ada hanya sesak pd hujung minggu sahaja. Alternatif jalan laut iaitu ferri masih ada. Sepatutnya kerajaan perlu memikirkan keuntungan kerajaan / rakyat diutamakan dahulu berbanding keuntungan syarikat atau individu terkemudian.

Saya juga menyokong sepatutnya Dolah yang bodoh patut ditolak seawal yg mungkin dari memimpin negara.

Saya juga menyokong pendapat seorang anak Terengganu bahawa kekalahan BN di Kuala Terengganu baru-baru ini di tangan PAS bukanlah disebabkan faktor orang tak suka pada Najib tetapi orang Terengganu terlalu meluat pada Dolah. Masjid Kristal dan beberapa projek besar di sana jatuh ke tangan kroni Dolah ditambah pula isu pulangan keuntungan minyak kepada rakyat Terengganu.

Sepatutnya UMNO sudah lama menolak kepimpinan Dolah ini kerana idea-idea yang diutarakan beliau lebih bersifat bodoh dari bijak. Saya sokong dan percaya pandangan ramai orang bahawa semakin lama Dolah memegang jawatan PM semakin besarlah "barah" dalam Perikatan BN dan UMNO itu sendiri.

Sekian Tun.

Dear S...Tan

Seperti yang anda nyatakan

"Membina LCCT baru lebih berfaedah dari jambatan bengkok dari segi pintu masuk negara. Jambatan bengkok punyai kepala besar (di JB) leher kecil (di S'pura) dan ditanggung krjn. LCCT Labu dibina swasta dan jumlah penumpang dijamin swasta sendiri bukan krjn. (Banding kadar trafik lebuh raya dijamin krjn, bayaran tenaga IPP dijamin)"

Nampaknya anda tidak membaca dan berfikir dalam2 sebab utama jambatan bengkok dicadangkan.. jadi jangan menulis seperti budak belasan tahun. Baca juga artikel yang telah ditulis oleh Tun M tentang perkara ini.. Benarkah pembinaannya oleh swasta? siapakah mereka ini? dan juga pekerja imigrasi & kastam? Polis? ditanggung oleh Air Asia ke?... baca lagi Mr. Tan.

"Kalau masalah teknikal menara kembar bertapak atas tanah lembik boleh di atasi, apalah isu teknikal dua landasan berdekatan."

Dua masalah yang dinyatakan merupakan perkara berbeza. perkara pertama memerlukan penggunaan teknik kejuruteraan yang luar biasa.. manakala perkara kedua hanyalah perbuatan yang saja mencari masalah.. fikir-fikirkan..

and MR Larry Tan,

Its a very frightening situation thinking that people having good writing skills like yourself tend to manipulate data, facts and history for your own gain. Unlike the most of us thats need to validate whatever it is that we are trying to convey, we hope that you will not believe on your own lie..

Did Tony himself came out with the idea of buying the ailing airline? NO Larry..NO!! Tony and gang only came out with the idea of low fair flight which Tun has actually forseen the possibility of its implementation in malaysia.. They are actually applying for new license.. It is TUN that advised them to go and acquire one from the existing airline company in Malaysia.

And about Tan Sri Tajudin.. it seems that you are really desperate to manipulate facts in order to create hatred to Tun M, Tun Daim and Tajudin.. or is it that you are blinded by your ill feeling to them that you refuse to read?

There's an agreement between Tajudin and Malaysia goverment. And please.. show the facts and figure when you said that Tajudin failed MAS?.. or is it those who hated the succes of MAS and wanted to monopolized the flight industry for himself did it??

Come la.. dont let us generalize on your kind of people.. Please...

Tony...the Malaysian entrepreneur who created a successful low-cost airline...a man with vision. Is it?

Really? If not for a silly company who actually sold Air Asia for RM1 (and still kicking their own butts until now) and assuming the RM50 million in debt, Air Asia wouldn't see the light of day. If not because of Pahamin Rejab, Tony would still be selling CDs. Ingat senang nak convince the government to change the very regulated industry like aviation? Sudah la Tony, The Edge sahaja yang tak habis habis mengagungkan kau. Mmmm....maybe that Shanmugan was his old friend.

Hello tun, i've read a book titled "Mahathir Mohamad, Achieving True Globalisation" by Dr Kohei Hashimoto. It might b an old book but what i like about this is that u have this vision of looking east, particularly Japan. Among many topics in ur website, this topic is d nearest in terms of modern transportation. I know this is about the aviation industry, but i think we shld also look at our railway industry. The best we have is the ERL which connects klia n kl, n the lesser 1, the ktm commuter which connect as far as seremban down south. when it comes to japan, its all about their bullet train called "Shinkansen". It connects japanese major cities troughout the island accept Hokaido maybe which is still under construction maybe. I really like these trains because they r really fast(300km/h) n d latest ones have cool designs. When ur in it, its almost as if ur in an airplane. I think our airport in KLIA is already a world class airport n doesnt need anymore attention. I think we shld move on on building new things i.e. "MALAYAN SHINKANSEN" which connects Georgetown - KL - JB within an hour or 2 or 3. I think malaysia shld start bragging on building a High Speed Rail Network throughout malaysia. Imagine a Malayan Shinkansen passes through Gunung Ledang like a shinkansen wo do through mount Fuji!! ;)

I wish u n family long n healthy life Tun.

Salam Ayahanda Tun. Mohon di-izinkan saya sedikit ruang disini. Terima kasih.

Dear Puan HBT, thank you for sharing with me your very interesting take over the Air Asia issue. Yes it's true and I agree with what you say. Tony has not much money left to run that airline anymore (but personally he still kaya lah). I have nothing personal against Tony. He was once a good and respected fighter. And for that he has earned much and many admiration. But he went and did the biggest error by taking in Kali, Khairy and Co on board. Coupled to that he has erred so much on Tune Money and his fuel hedging. He begins incurring business enemies. He has big business debts. That is why he (they) needs that Labu space. As for Tajuddin Ramli, :) LOL! What can I say? I also don't know what to say already lah...headache one. Just about everyone is correct on him. But I used to see him at the TTDI Pasar Minggu long then and I just have no idea where he is today. I remember him flying on MAS at the stroke of midnight in greeting the Y2K then. And that World Ranger PR stunt on the 767. Let's hope he's reading this blog really.

Well Puan HBT, take care and Gong Xi Fa Cai to your good self and family. Thanks

By MoMan on January 20, 2009 7:35 PM

Dear Mr MoMan,

I thank you for your views on some hiccups in KLIA due to human factors. I agreed with you that KLIA is one of the best masterplan design airport in the world, better than Changi Airport, but at par with Hong Kong - Chek Lap Kok Airport.

However, as a Malaysian, we are bind to 5 Rukun Negara for 51 years now. Air Asia has become the so-called famous low cost international and domestic airlines in such a short time is not because Tony is capable, it is because Tony has intimate contact with Singapore through the support of KJ, the ONE SON-IN-LAW of Pak Lah (our PM -Patung Mainan, ex-finance Minister and now the Defense Minister).

Everyone knows that only international air flights can generate profit, domestic flight is a social responsibility binded by national carrier to cater domestic market and connectivity to other airlines which can only generate income to sustain the operation cost. MAHB is doing its responsibility as the national carrier in the correct manner, however Air Asia has lost its vison and social responsibility to the country. Air Asia is only interested in making profit without protecting the country from soft invasion from the west through Singapore. What's the point of having of Air Asia that will only make the rich become richer, the poor become poorer. The poor become poorer because they believed that they must obey their religion teachings. The rich is only interested in protecting and increasing their power and wealth, to them they are the god which are forbidden in Islam.

Because of the issue of Air Asia, BN has lost 2/3 majority in PRU 12. This shows that many of the BN supporters are not ready and do not like our Pak Lah and his cronies, especially that SIL, for their arrogant, ignorant and greed, turning their responsibilities to power by making the rich become richer. These so-called rich and powerful people may not be able to sleep for many many years from now because they were caught in this USA economy crisis. We have learned hard in 1997, we were attacked in 2008 because Pak Lah did not kept his promises to Tun.

Indeed very sad, the Pak Lah & Gang has expanded the corruption through elegance silent using their power that has jeopardized our Tun's image and hard work for all these years. The best that BN can do now is, abandoned Air Asia that carries the name of korap jantan, so that the rakyat will have confident in BN.

Take care Tun and so is mr MoMan.

Kuala Lumpur can be the gateway to Asia. We need to build the volume first, expand the connectivity, optimize our cost efficiency and the rest will follow. Kuala Lumpur will be the biggest hub.

Tun, please don't worry. I am confident that this is a step in the right direction.

Can we afford another airport? Should we buy more land to build new international airport? Whose land is being earmarked at Labu anyway?

Who really needs the new airport?

It is better just to extend the present KLIA as you have suggested to meet future demands.

By danielAuthor Profile Page on January 22, 2009 7:05 PM

This is another classic example of how the very selected few trying to make billions out of silly and irrational justifications. Im not surprised at all as under the Malaysia Boleh tagline, we can do everything including to build two airports in such a close distant. Why not? Malaysia boleh, as always.

Restore it back to where it belongs. Sisihkan Pak Lah dan konco-konconya yang tak mengenang budi dan tak berguna itu. Kami benci kepada Pak Lah. Kami benci kepada Khairy. Pak Lah telah merosakkan parti, bangsa dan negara. Beliau tak berkemampuan untuk menjadi Presiden UMNO, tak hebat untuk menjadi Pengerusi Barisan Nasional dan tak berkharisma untuk menjadi Perdana Menteri Malaysia. Kami BENCI pemerintahan Pak Lah. Kami juga marah dengan Tun kerana memberi kami Perdana Menteri yang lemah. Kami berasa malu untuk mengaku Pak Lah sebagai Perdana Menteri. Kembalilah pada UMNO barang dua hingga empat tahun untuk memulihkannya dan mendidik Perdana Menteri yang baru. Singkirkan mereka yang Tun sendiri pilih dulu tetapi kini tak tahu mengenang budi (seperti Pak Lah) dan biadap (seperti Nazri Aziz - siapa dia ini? tak kenal pun? patut dibuang negara?) Kami akan sokong dan setia pada Tun. Lagipun Tun yang lebih berusia daripada Pak Lah tetapi kelihatan macam Pak Lah yang dah nyanyuk dengan keputusan-keputusan yang tak masuk akal. Kami marah bila Jambatan Bengkok dibatalkan. Apa guna koridor-koridor tersebut? Untuk kemewahan keluarga atau konco Pak Lah??? Siapa peduli Singapura kerana mereka tak peduli kita? Tetapi kami bangga dengan KLIA, KLCC, Putrajaya dan Proton. Pak Lah bukan orang jahat tetapi beliau lurus dan lembik (dan mengantuk?) hingga dipergunakan oleh si Khairy dan Kamaludin bedebah itu (let them rot in hell). Nyah lah Pak Lah, konco-konconya dan ahli keluarganya dari UMNO dan BN. Kami benci anda! Anda semua pengkhianat bangsa, agama dan negara! Terima kasih, Tun. Semoga Allah selamatkan Tun.

Dear Tun, salam msera moga sihat sentiasa. Minta izin menjawab seorang pengulas...

Dear 'mieze81' ref January 21, 2009 3:42 PM

Terima kasih, krn memberi pendapat pada komen saya.

.....SEBAB JAMBATAN JADI BENGKOK

Di peringkat umur sdr, tak baik menggelar tulisan orang budak belasan tahun. Belum cuba belum tahu.

Tujuan lain jambatan bengkok boleh dicapai tanpa membina jambatan bengkok. Kerja dalaman di JB cukup. Jambatan menjadi bengkok krn sikap perasan, degil dan menunjuk.

Akibatnya belanja tinggi, faedah tak bertambah krn laluan tetap Kempis ditengah laut. Belanja tak memadai manfaat.

.....TAHAP PENGSWASTAAN

Pengswastan pada GLC lebih baik dari pengswastan pada kroni. Kerabat kroni kena jamin mrk untung, pinjaman diberi atau dijamin krjn, jaminan ambil balik kalau lingkup, rugi krjn tanggung untung orang punya.

Immigresen, kastam, polis patut ditanggung krjn kalau LCCT berjaya menarik penumpang. Hasil dari penumpang lebih dari cukup menanggung saraan mrk. Menambah peluang kerja tak baik?

.....CARI MASAALAH

Kalau manusia tak cari masalah, banyak benda tak akan tercipta. Dah ada lilin, obor knp cari masalah risiko sumber api lain. Dah ada kereta dan keretapi buat apa susah susah cari pengangkutan udara dgn bahaya terhempas.

.....PERCAYA SIAPA?

Pengswastan ini soal percaya Tun atau percaya krjn skrg.

Saya lebih percaya pada orang yg batalkan pengswastan dgn hanya 'suara' bantahan (IJN), dari orang yg teruskan pengswastan dgn memukul, menangkap rakyat menunjuk perasaan membantah projek jalanraya tol.

Saya lebih percaya orang mendedahkan 'con sessions' agreement dari orang menyembunyikannya dgn OSA.

Dearest Tun,

We know there is absolutely no justification whatsoever for that airport in Labu when so much can still be done to further develop the potentials of KLIA. But Tony Fernandez wants to be the KING of budget airlines, so how can the KING not have his own airport? Ego aside, I am sure such a deal also bring millions of ringgit to certain interested parties. Nothing unusual, given the fact billions have been wasted in recent years! It is also not unusual that we love to do silly things like Labu that makes us the laughing stock in the press of our southern neighbor!

Never mind the damage to the environment that a new airport will caused! Never mind that the runways of two airports are dangerously located within 2km from each other! Never mind even if there is a mid-air collision!! Never mind if we lost 5 states to the opposition in the last general election!! Never mind if we lose the next election totally to the opposition!! This is to be expected of Malaysia today, a leaderless country!!

While the US have seen the departure of a moron from the white house, who do you think is occupying Seri Perdana now or in the future ??

When I see the word Labu,I suddenly think of the famous Malay fable- Pak Pandir Dengan Labu Labunya- I cannot help but wonder who the Pak Pandir is? It's very sad to be a patriotic Malaysian today, but never mind....

Dear Tun,

Dengan izin...:)

S...Tan, minta maaf kiranya terasa dengan pernyataan saya sebelumnya..Sesungguhnya saya budak baru belajar.

.....Tahap pengswastaan

Apa yang anda katakan benar...memang perlu panambahan peluang pekerjaan. Tapi yang saya tidak sokong adalah pembinaan perkara yang tidak perlu.. mengapa tidak saja LCCT yang ada sekarang dibesarkan, ditambah, dicantikkan, dipermodenkan.. tentu saja apa2 pembaharuan yang seperti saya katakan akan memerlukan penambahan pekerja..

.....cari masalah

Semua yang anda terangkan adalah penciptaan perkara yang baru. Tapi apa yang dicadangkan disini adalah perkara yang sama..LCCT diganti LCCT..cume ditempat yang berbeza..lainlah kalau cadangan tersebut merupakan LCCT yang terapung diudara...sayalah diantara orang yang akan menyokongnya...:)

YABhg. Tun,

Salam hormat.

Kepada bloggers berbangsa Cina , diucapkan Gong Xi Fa Cai.

1. Seperti biasa pada cuti perayaan ini dan cuti yang panjang, warga KL dan PJ anak balik ke kampung masing masing dan lebuh raya akan menjadi sesak. Seperti biasa banyak kemalangan jalanraya yang meragut nyawa.
2. Soalnya, do we need another North-South and East West Highways or do we need badly a new Labu Airport? Do we need another new rail track to accomodate fast trains or to replace the existing unreliable KTMB tracks?
3. Kalau tidak, sampai kiamatlah rakyat Malaysia menanggung sengsara kesesakan jalan raya.

Bayangkan bila jumlah penduduk dan bilangan kenderaan meningkat 2 kali ganda... perjalanan dari KL ke Ipoh yang mengambil masa 4 jam di masa kesesakan akan mengambil masa 8 jam...

Dear Tun,

Reading MoMan's comments is very interesting. For all we know he could be Tony himself ;-)

Anyway welcome to the real world of having to bang your head against the "establishment".

As a businessman Tony would do well to be cautious with his approach to getting things done. Especially burning bridges, shooting people in the foot and side-stepping people.

Worst is to patronise the very people who will be his customers. Tony will be better advice to hold his horses for this project for the moment.

Your idea may be good and may even have come out of your frustration with the "establishment". But steam-rolling it thru is NOT the way right for now.

He can always revisit the problem in another way, another format or even another idea.

We have heard his story and you have heard our story.

Perhaps someone from KLIA operators can to comment your side of the story?

We all want what is BEST for Malaysia - bit lets not do things that may disadvantage other Malaysians in the process.

Najib: No Decision Yet On New LCCT In Labu

PETALING JAYA, Jan 23 (Bernama) -- The government has yet to decide on low-cost carrier AirAsia's proposal to shift KL International Airport's (KLIA) low-cost carrier terminal (LCCT) to Labu in Negeri Sembilan, Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said today.

"We are looking at it but have yet to make any decision. I cannot pre-empt the decision by making an announcement," he said.

Najib said the government was studying the Labu LCCT proposal to see "if we can go ahead or we need to make a different arrangement."

To be called KLIA East, the proposed new low-cost carrier terminal is expected to sustain AirAsia's exponential growth as opposed to the LCCT at the KLIA from where it is operating now.

comment:

To Najib,

A leader must be able to make quick and precise decision. Don't try to avoid the issue. You have heard the majority of the voices of the rakyat who oppose the project including our former Prime Minister. Listen to them. They don't make mistake on this issue. It is very clear that the building of the airport is ridiculous and rubbish proposal made by greedy people with vested interest, period.

There is no different arrangement to be considered as far as building of the airport is concerned. It must be cancelled. Let Air Asia and Sime Darby sort out their business to find other alternatives.No need to propose anything to them. Not the government business. Why should the government accommodate much time to this private project on Labu Labi airport. There are other pressing economic matters which Najib must focus. Unemployment rate is now increasing by the day and what Najib is going to do about it. Foreign workers are hanging around by the thousands without jobs now and what Najib is going to do to avoid social problems arising from these unwanted foreigners. Urban poverty must be tackled immediately. There are a lot of people in the urban areas are now suffering with limited financial resource to maintain their families. It is serious, Najib. This airport business must not be of concern to the government at all, not unless there are cronies keep on knocking at Pak Lah's door as a last "kopek" before he leaves office disgracefully without anything to show of his deeds except to cause almost the downfall of Barisan Nasional government.

Assalamualaikum Tun,
Rasanya kes Labu lebih kurang aje dengan kes Sepang,Putrajaya dan yang seangkatan dengannya..
Pembaziran wang rakyatlah,kronilah,rasuahlah,kepentingan individulah dan apa-apa je lah..
Tapi akhirnya yang bising2 tu pegi juga KLIA,pegi juga buat rombongan melawat Putrajaya..
Kenapa mesti ada kes Labu?Kenapa Tony nak buat airport baru?
Kenapa kita jadi cacing kepanasan???
Belajar la dari Tony untuk masa 20-30 tahun akan datang dia sudah nampak.Sepatutnya kita dah belajar 50 tahun lebih dari Tony.
Sekarang rezeki dia la..sapa suruh biarkan lompong kesempatan diambil orang lain.Bising2 tak ada guna.
Sebagai contoh projek2 masa zaman Tun ,sekarang baru kita nampak hasilnya.Itu sebab Tun buat Wawasan 2020.lkut cara dia la, tengok masa depan bukan asyik tengok belakang.

I am impressed with Tun's comments on the need to built another international airport within close proximity with KLIA with separate control towers and runways and the fact that KLIA is designed to cope with more traffic. I shake my head also but hard to blame AA when MAHB is not doing what it should do? I would probably do the same, given the circumstances ..... All nak jaga their own pockets and interests.

This is OT but would love Tun to enlightened a frustrated Malaysian on the need to built KLIA which is so far away from everyone else in the Klang Valley. I have been asking myself and find it extremely hard to explain to visiting friends from overseas why you decided to built KLIA. The area within KLIA and Putrajaya has not developed much and find myself *^&* everytime I travel so far from PJ to pick up friends and families from KLIA. The travel is burning a freaking hole in my pocket and I believe many Malaysians are facing similar problems. KLIA is nice but compared to our southern neighbour, it is still far behind. Look how sg respond with T3 and the excellent services and connectivity. SG is world class no doubt and not any amount of spending by its competitors can match. Sad to say this but this is my experience as an airline passenger. I can really feel the difference when I cross the border and world travellers concur the fact.

The spanking new Putrajaya offices are really nice but whenever I go there for official or just visiting, I shake my head. Why? Because the facilities are 1st class, world standard but the mentality 4th class. Malaysians esp the hard core you know what, have a long way to go before they can compete internationally. I mean really long long way.

I think you are too far sighted and too optimistic. Petronas so kaya and why not spend them while you can, right?

Dear Tun,

Pada pendapat saya, KLIA-East adalah satu jalan yang terbaik bagi syarikat penerbangan AirAsia untuk terus berkembang dan menjadi brand yang terkenal satu dunia. Semua justifikasi telah pun diberikan dengan terperinci oleh AirAsia sendiri. Saya secara peribadi menyokong keputusan AirAsia tersebut untuk membina KLIA-East.

Saya berasa terkejut dan sedikit kesal dengan beberapa komentar yang mengatakan projek tersebut akan membazirkan duit rakyat. Seperti yang Tun sendiri sedia maklum, AirAsia merupakan syarikat swasta sepenuhnya dan pembinaan KLIA-East hanya akan dibiayai oleh Sime Darby, bukan kerajaan. Justeru tidak timbul isu pembaziran duit rakyat di sini.

Mengenai huge airport layout. Dalam lapangan terbang sebesar KLIA, jarak sebuah pesawat itu perlu bergerak dari gate ke landasan dan juga sebaliknya adalah sangat besar berbanding dengan lapangan terbang yang kecil. Ini akan menyebabkan kos masa dan minyak kerana pergerakan pesawat pada kelajuan rendah adalah tidak efisien dari segi minyak. Sebagai sebuah syarikat penerbangan tambang murah, ini merupakan satu kerugian yang besar. Justeru KLIA-East akan dibina dengan jarak landasan ke gate yang singkat untuk memaksimumkan penjimatan masa dan minyak.

Accessibility juga menjadi satu isu besar buat KLIA. Masalah timbul kerana sistem pengangkutan dari KLIA yang amat terhad dan tidak reliable. Masalah tambang yang terlalu mahal dan bas yang tidak mengikut jadual seringkali berlaku dan malu sekali rasanya apabila isu ini ditimbulkan oleh pelancong asing. Langkah yang Tun cadangkan ialah, "provide these". Masalahnya, adakah syarikat penerbangan sendiri yang bertanggungjawab menyediakan bas dari airport? Air Asia tidak patut dipersalahkan dalam soal ini kerana komitmen kerajaan sendiri perlu dipersoalkan dalam memantapkan accessibility KLIA.

Saya juga ingin sentuh isu expansion. Dalam komen Tun, Tun banyak mengeluarkan cadangan supaya membina terminal baru, menambah gate dan sebagainya. Sekali lagi persoalan yang sama seperti perenggan sebelum ini timbul, adakah AirAsia yang bertanggungjawab membina terminal baru di KLIA? Adakah mereka juga yang perlu dipertanggungjawabkan untuk menambah bilangan gate di KLIA? Sememangnya kerajaan yang perlu memikul sepenuhnya tanggungjawab ini sekiranya kerajaan mahu KLIA menjadi salah satu hub antarabangsa di Asia Tenggara.

Kesimpulannya, kerajaan adalah pihak yang bersalah kerana menjadikan KLIA sebagai kambing hitam dalam arus pembangunan perdana. KLIA dibiarkan terumbang ambing dibawah pengurusan MAHB dan bila AirAsia mahu membina lapangan terbang lain, barulah nilai, visi dan misi KLIA disebut-sebut. AirAsia hanyalah sebuah syarikat swasta yang bermotifkan keuntungan dan mengikut model ekonomi semulajadi untuk berkembang dan terus berkembang. Kerajaan yang tidak efisien menyebabkan syarikat ini tidak ada jalan lain untuk berkembang selain melakukannya sendiri (membina KLIA-East).

ps: saya lahir dan membesar dalam zaman Tun memerintah. Sampai sekarang saya masih harap Tun adalah PM kerana PM sekarang ni menyebabkan ekonomi dan pembangunan kita terbantut. Kita dah ketinggalan jauh berbanding dulu.

Thank you for your advice and critics, I will learn from your comment. I won't run away like the Americans.

YABhg Tun,

Walaupun tanpa data statistik, pengamatan secara rambang yang di buat keatas terminal KLIA dan LCCT dapat kita merumuskan bahawa LCCT lebih sibuk serta aktif berbanding KLIA.

Selaku airline tambang murah, Airasia seharusnya memerlukan kemudahan prasana yang boleh menjamin matlamat asas mereka berdasarkan 'tagline' syarikat, 'now everyone can fly'.

Pembangunan KLIA-East di Labu N Sembilan semestinya satu strategi syarikat jangka panjang bagi menampung trafik yang semakin tinggi. Pembesaran terminal LCCT sekarang sudah pasti tidak mungkin dapat membantu pertambahan trafik di masa akan datang. Malah secara umum, Airasia sememangnya memerlukan sebuah terminal LCCT yang baru.

Walaupun bagaimana pun, pemilihan lokasi di Labu N Sembilan bukanlah satu lokasi yang begitu strategik. Ini disebabkan oleh kedudukannya yang amat berdekatan dengan KLIA dan pengawasan serta pengurusan trafik udara akan menjadi sukar dan ianya akan menjadi prone kepada kemalangan udara. Analisis yang dibuat oleh YABhg Tun ini memang bertepatan sekali.

Malah, pelan pembangunan KLIA yang boleh menampung sehingga 5 landasan serta 6 terminal satelite secara automatik nya tidak memungkinkan pembangunan KLIA-East.

Walaupun pembangunan KLIA-East secara keseluruhannya akan di tanggung oleh pihak swasta, tetapi operasinya secara tidak langsung akan di tanggung juga oleh kerajaan. Kerajaan perlu menempatkan agensinya seperti kastam, imigresen, polis, bomba, bebanan kawalan trafik udara dan sebagainya. Sekiranya, Airasia menanggung kos perbelanjaan operasi ini sudah tentu tidak semua boleh terbang dengan Airasia lagi.

Walaupun saya anak N Sembilan dan amat gembira melihat pembangunan di bawa ke negeri adat perpatih ini, namun pemikiran secara professional serta kajian lebih mendalam terutama kedudukannya harus di beri keutamaan.

Airasia perlu duduk serta berbincang dengan MAB bagi mengeksploitasi pelan perancangan KLIA. Tidak ada gunanya kita mempunyai kemudahan bertaraf dunia sekiranya trafik udara di KLIA amat sedikit sekali. Kita amat jauh ketinggalan dari jumlah penumpang dan trafik udara sekiranya di bandingkan dengan Changi Airport dan Suvarnabumi Bangkok. Sekiranya kos yang tinggi dikenakan kepada airline, maka trafik udara akan berkurangan dan pendapatan akan melebihi 'capex' maka wang rakyat yang banyak diperlukan lagi bagi menampung segala kerugian.

Malah, sebahagian dari pembangunan KLIA juga boleh di gunakan sebagai hub bagi airlines tambang murah di rantau ini dan secara langsung memangkinkan pertumbuhan KLIA itu sendiri.

MAB seharusnya bersedia menerima anjakan paradigma ini, sekurang kurangnya bagi pelan jangka pendek bagi menampung kehilangan mendarat syarikat besar airlines yang lain seperti British Airlines dan etc.

To HBT,

Your brains are over-developing rapidly after reading my comments...but its shrinking at the eastern hemisphere. Dont allow the elements of emotions & sentiments out-do whatever capabilities left in you which is very much shown in your last two comments. You should stop assuming as what I have seen in most of your feedbacks... as you got to always remember that "Assumptions Is The Mother of All Screw Ups' & for your own sake stop ASSUMING!!

I am no supporter of any political party or any individual...but any positive contribution by any parties which would benefit the people of Malaysia..I will always hail & support. I can be a Jakun, Malay, Sekoi, Negrito, Chinese, Melanau, Indian, Dayak, Kelabit, Iban,Portuegues, Bidayuh, etc.. & that is just a race & culture we all have in us but the most important fact is that we are all known as Malaysian.

Opinions, feedbacks & views may defer but not our CITIZENSHIP which is well protected under the Federal Constitution.

So HBT, its not advisable for your brains to over-develop at the moment as the symptoms is unfavourable. Take things one at a time & you will be able to focus & accomplish better!!

But after longer tea talk with my buddies; maybe u ( not saying literally you but they the ppl who is gonna get this business) would only allows swipe once for the stakes.

Since Air Asia is a private business, if it wants to have its' own infrastructure, then it has to pay for all of it. The purchasing of the land, the construction of the runway, the building of the terminal, the staff, the services and so on and so forth should be foot by itself. Then it would not be using the people's money and I think the people would not jump over it. Instead, the people would think it is a good idea. However, looking at KLIA, I would say that this mega airport is not doing a very profitable business. Air Asia used to share the KLIA main terminal. I cannot understand why there is a need to separate it. What I see is it is all about status. Just because it is a low budget airline, people cannot get to enjoy first class facilities. Why can't people have 5 star facilities at 1 star price ? The 5 star being KLIA itself and the 1 star being the airline. And since MAS and Malaysia Airport is semi government, people's money is being wasted away instead of being fully utilised in the sense that Air Asia can share in KLIA's terminal. The budget airline phenomenon has made many people think about what is necessary and what is not that necessary, especially in terms of how money is used.

Pada pendapat saya Tun, Sepatutnya Air Asia beroperasi sepenuhnya di KLIA bukannya di LCCT atau di subang atau di Labu. Cuma penghalangnya sekarang adalah sikap HASAD DENGGI dan BUSUK HATI yang ada disesetengah pegawai di MAHB dan mungkin juga segelintir menteri yang ada menghalang dari perkara ini dari terlaksana. Sudah sampai masanya MAHB menerima KEBODOHAN mereka sendiri mentadbir KLIA. Ini kerana mereka hanya makan gaji...so tak perlu nak fikir susah payah atau untung rugi syarikat. Cuba mereka mentadbir. syarikat mereka sendiri adakah mereka akan membiar syarikat mereka mengalami kerugian? Sudah semestinya tidak. Seharusnya MAHB + Air Asia + MAS, bergabung tenaga memajukan industri penerbangan di Malaysia DAN BUKANNYA memusnahkan semasa sendiri dan akhirnya siapa yang akan rugi?

AIR ASIA DAN SIME DARBY MAHU RUNTUHKAN WAWASAN TUN MAHATHIR
Friday, January 23, 2009

Tentunya rakyat Malaysia yang berwawasan menyambut baik pengumuman Timbalan Perdana Menteri, Datuk Seri Najib Tun Abdul Razak bahawa kerajaan belum membuat keputusan berhubung status pembinaan Terminal Penerbangan Tambang Murah di Labu Negeri Sembilan.

Rakyat yang tahu bahawa KLIA dibawah pemerintahan Mahathir telah diperuntukan seluas 25,000 ekar tanah untuk penambahan terminal dan dan 4 satellite lagi telah terkejut bila Kabinet meluluskan cadangan pembinaan LCCT (Terminal Tambang Murah) untuk Air Asia itu.

Sekaligus bila sahaja mendengar pengumuman itu orang terus bertanya apakah tidak ada menteri yang mengingatkan tentang hal ini dalam persidangan kabinet atau ini merupakan salah satu "tolak ansur" antara Abdullah dan Najib untuk membolehkan Najib mengambil alih kuasa dengan licin dan mudah atau adakah ini termasuk dalam agenda kerja Abdullah yang hendak diselesaikan sebelum bersara.

Prasangka buruk juga timbul bahawa yang terlibat dalam konspirasi menyokong LCCT LABU ini ialah Khairy Jamaluddin Naib Ketua Pemuda UMNO( orang Negeri Sembilan) Kalimullah Hassan (bekas Ketua Pengarang Kumpulan NST) dan Tun Musa Hitam. Kesemua mereka ini yang merupakan sahabat baik Tony Fernandes mempunyai pengaruh yang kuat keatas Abdullah Badawi.

Abdullah telah pun menyamakan taraf Musa Hitam dengan Mahathir dengan memberikannya Tun untuik mengubati hatinya yang luka tidak dapat menjadi Perdana Menteri. Sejak menjadi Pengerusi Sime Darby Berhad, Musa telah berkerja keras siang malam (termasuk ketika berada di disco) untuk membuktikan bahawa beliau adalah seorang negarawan dan ahli perniagaan yang lebih pintar dan lebih cekap dari Tun Dr.Mahathir . Maka beliau pun mencadangkan penswastaan IGN yang pantas mendapat balingan kasut dari rakyat dan kemudian beliau dikatakan seronok untuk Sime Darby bersama Tony Fernandes membina lapangan terbang di Labu.

Sebagai seorang ahli perniagaan baru yang cekap maka Musa Hitam sudah tidak mengambil kira berapa hutang yang tidak dibayar oleh Tony Fernandes kepada Malaysian Airport Holding Berhad kerana ini semua boleh "belakang kira"

Utusan Malaysia dalam laporannya mengenai kerajaan belum membuat keputusan tentang pembinaan LCCT di Labu itu telah menyebutkan bahawa pembinaannya akan menjejaskan Lapangan Terbang Antarabangsa Kuala Lumpur(KLIA) yang dirancang menjadi hab penerbangan utama negara dengan begitu banyak wang telah dibelanjakan.

Khazanah Nasional yang memiliki kepentingan dalam MAHB(Malaysia Airport Holdings Berhad) turut membantah cadangan itu kerana porojek berkenaan bukan sebahagian daripada Pelan Induk Lapangan Terbang (PILT).

Sesungguhnya Tun Mahathir telah membuat rancangan pembangunan negara yang berwawasan untuk negara ini muncul di masa depan sebagai negara maju yang berrmaruah tinggi ,tidak sahaja dari segi kekuatan ekonominya tetapi juga persekitaran yang indah,teratur dan kemas. Projek yang boleh disepadukan tidak perlu di letakan berasingan.

Secara kasar kita dapat mendakwa apa yang dilakukan oleh Air Asia ini adalah untuk mengkhianati Wawasan 2020 Tun Dr. Mahathir. Orang India cukup berkuasa sekarang,mereka bukan sahaja boleh menceroboh masuk bilik mayat di hospital malah mereka dapat meruntuhkan Wawasan 2020. Insaalah ini semua akan berlaku dengan sokongan orang Melayu

Dear Tun,

I have been involved in flying ( big, small, slow and fast planes) airport and air traffic operations for almost 40 years. I have been to most of the world's busy airports like O'Hare Chicago, JFK New York, Heathrow London, Atlanta Georgia and physically saw the air operations at these airports. I must inform the PM and his Cabinet that these are real busy airports and KLIA will NEVER be as busy as these airports in 2020, even 2 more runways and satellite terminals are built and all AIR ASIA 70 planes operate out of KLIA! Please go and see air operations at these airports before making decisions based merely on inaccurate informations and very shallow justifications.

After reading Tun's views and some very sound comments from readers I can only add one comment: Building another airport in LABU, next to KLIA is MADNESS.

I have the highest respect for YAB Dato' Sri Mohd Najib and I strongly recommend that when you become the PM, please scrub the idea of building KLIA- East in Labu! Enough is enough!!!

Sorry, AIR ASIA and SIME DARBY must leave airport business to MAHB. The government and all parties involved must make concerted effort in bringing KLIA to be the world's best airport and petty differences MUST be resolved!

It souds silly, but we don't want AIR ASIA to build own runways and airports everywhere they operate!

First of all, I would like to convey my gratitude towards you, Dr. Mahathir for developing Malaysia and the Malays way of thinking in order to become a successful race.

About the plan of constructing an airport in Labu, Negeri Sembilan, before that I would like to ask you on the projects that have been disallowed by former deputy premier, YB Dato' Seri Anwar Ibrahim which for me is as a waste as the project that is being carried out in Labu. I didn't see you, Dr. Mahathir, fighting for the righteous cause as what Dato' Seri Anwar did all this while until currently. For me, both you and Dato' Seri Abdullah Ahmad Badawi (Pak Lah) is as coward as what was told by Dato Seri Anwar towards the the Malaysians. You, Dr. Mahathir, should realise that Dato' Seri Anwar is not creating rumours or tensions. He is trying to save you and Pak Lah from getting from bad to worse. That is why, Dato' Seri Anwar didn't want to rejoin Umno and BN if the two parties wanted him to rejoin them. And, that is why Dato' Seri Anwar preferred to be in Pakatan Rakyat especially, Parti KeADILan Rakyat (PKR).

So, before you want to demolish Dato' Seri Anwar from the Malaysia's politic's arena, I hope you could answer Dato' Seri Anwar revelations about your misconduct of powers and of you doing corruption activities when you were the premier of Malaysia.

Thank you.

Dear Tun,

Your comments on LCCT Labu are valid but don't you think that your push for IPPs during your tenure was not fair for the country. If your argument for establishing the IPP was because TNB was not efficient than it is your failure to hire the correct CEO of TNB at that time. Your decision was always for your political agenda. Why was that all ok during your time? I remember the drama of a national power outage to justify IPPs to exist. Then the license was given to your cronies which than TNB is forced to buy power from them. What kind of economics was that. Why now the talk about who will benefit if the Labu airport is completed????

I SUPPORT AIRASIA TO HAVE ITS OWN AIRPORT:-

(A) KLIA WAS BUILT WITH 1ST CLASS INFRASTRUCTURE, BUT WITH NO-CLASS BRAINER/CAPABILITY; SAME WITH OTHER MEGA PROJECTS THAT EVERYBODY SEEMS WANT TO PROMOTE. AS LONG AS ANY MEGA PROJECTS WITH A 3RD CLASS MENTALITY RUNNING IT, IT WILL BECOME A WHITE ELEPHANT.

(B) COMPETITION IS NEEDED TO PROVE THAT - WHETHER AN ENTITY IS RUN BY A CAPABLE PERSON? ARE MALAYSIANS UP TO THE CHALLENGE? WORRY ABOUT AN ENTREPRENEURS NOT HAVING A HEART?? BUT WHAT I KNOW THERE IS LAW OF THE COUNTRY. IF THE ENTREPRENEURS RUN FOULS AGAISNT THE LAW, LET THE LAW DEAL WITH HIM. WAIT A MINUTE.... A LAW WILL BECOME AN ASS IF THE LAW ENFORCER IS NOT CAPABLE.... I MEANT AN UNTOUCHABLE LAW ENFORCER WITH 1ST CLASS ATTITUDE.

(C) 22 YEARS WAS A LONG TIME TO BREED THESE MOBSTERS/MONSTERS. TELL ME WHO WAS THE MENTORS? FROM WHOM THEY LEARNED THE MEANING OF "DEVELOPMENT".

(D) AS USUAL WE THE RAKYAT SUFFERED THE MOST. WE HAVE NATURAL RESOURCES TO BEGIN WITH, BUT WHERE ARE ALL THE MONIES?? DON'T YOU THINK WE SHOULD HAVE 1ST CLASS EDUCATION? 1ST CLASS ACCOMODATION - NOT LOW COST HOUSE. 1ST CLASS PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION??? OK I HEARD YOU SAID WE HAVE NORTH-SOUTH HIGHWAY, PUTRAJAYA, PROTON, KLIA, WHAT ELSE, TWIN TOWERS ? I CAN'T THINK ANYMORE.... BUT CAN IT BE CONSIDERED AN ACHIEVEMENT WHEN PLUS OWN THE HIGHWAY, PUTRAJAYA REMAIN LIKE ANY PLACE IN KL, WHAT IS SO GREAT? EVEN JALAN TUANKU ABDUL RAHMAN IS BETTER - LIVELY, FULL OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP , HARDWORKING PEOPLES, A PLACE WILL REMAIN A PLACE, BUT WILL A PLACE CAN BE A PALACE AS REFLECTED BY PEOPLES. PROTON - BUT SUBSIDISED BY THE VERY PEOPLE OF MALAYSIA. KLIA - LOOK AT IT NOW?? I BET THE COST OF MAINTAINING ... IS GOING TO YOUR CRONY'S POCKET. GIVE ME A NAME OF ACHIEVEMENT, I WILL SHOW YOU THAT WE STEPPED 10 YEARS BACKWARD.

(E) SO... YOU UNDERSTAND THE MEANING OF MERITOCRASY....

(F) ARE YOU GOING TO REPLY THAT LOOK AT THE GLOBAL FINANCIAL CRISIS..... MERITOCRASY FAILED??? NO..... GLOBAL CRISIS BECAUSE EACH GOVERNMENT'S FAILED. WHY BECAUSE THE GREED WAS THE CAUSE.

(G) SO ARE YOU GOING TO CONTINUE TO BLOG LIKE A REAL STATESMAN, OR JUST TO PASS YOUR SWEET TIME?

Dear Tun,

Decision On New LCCT In Labu In Three Weeks' Time

KUALA LUMPUR, Jan 30 (Bernama) -- The decision on AirAsia's proposal to build a new low-cost carrier terminal (LCCT) costing RM1.6 billion in Labu, Negeri Sembilan will be known in two to three weeks' time, said Transport Minister Datuk Seri Ong Tee Keat.

"Actually, the government has not made a decision on the matter. What is important is that all the fact finding and details arising will be scrutinised," he told Bernama after attending a Chinese New Year dinner function organised by the MCA, here, Friday.

Ong said the government needed time to decide on the matter as it involved many parties.

"The Transport Ministry, Economic Planning Unit, Finance Ministry, Malaysia Airports Holdings Bhd (MAHB) and AirAsia are meeting for the good of all parties concerned," he said.

Bernama on Friday reported that the government had rejected the proposal for a new LCCT in Labu, but the low-cost carrier was said to have several concessions, according to sources.

It was reported that MAHB would be given the responsibility to build a new LCCT near the existing terminal, which is next to the Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA) in Sepang.

The sources were also quoted as saying that the decision to cancel the proposed project was conveyed to AirAsia at a meeting chaired by Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak and was attended by Finance Ministry, MAHB and AirAsia officials.

comment:

I just want to observe how Najib handles this issue. Whether the decision will be haprak, HP6 and finally flip,flop,flup just like always the case when Pak Lah made his decisions. Today "boleh" tomorrow "tak boleeeeh" macam iklan TV nak order teh tarik setengah glass, "tak boleeeeh" dan Tony Fernandez pun jawab "kenapeee tak boleeeeh?" !! kah, kah, kah !!!

I wonder what "concesssions" Tony is getting from Najib for Air Asia. My advice to Najib "jangan main silap mata". It will be backfired later on.

Don't "play-play" with the rakyat, Najib. Soon you will be seating at the driver's seat. Once you made a bad decision, you are finished politcally. Remember the bloggers are mightier than one million swords. They can "kill" your career instantly.

Dear Tun,

Air Asia simply does not have the financial capacity to build an airport, period. Air Asia simply trying to provide creative ideas to promote its business but at the end of the day it is actually trying its luck to make others as suckers. Those who support the idea of Air Asia having the capacity to build airport are really "blind, deaf and dumb".

Tony Fernandez is a dreamer. Yes, you can dream, dream and dream but not all your dreams will become reality. Accept this fact and be contented. Don't behave like a monster where you can manipulate other peoples' brain no matter how 3rd class their brain is. As long as they are not moron the 3rd class brains still have the capacity to think what is right and wrong!!

sorry off topic, would like to respond and i quote his post "By I love Jews on January 17, 2009 7:21 PM
Some of you say in regards to my post that it is stupid to say God will take revenge on our behalf..Well, let me quote the bible for you:

Romans 12:19

"Never take your own revenge, beloved, but leave room for the wrath of God, for it is written, 'Vengeance is mine, I will repay,' says the Lord".....

Islam doesn't teach Muslims to revenge from anyone. Yes, Islam does command the Muslims to repel evil with good and to forgive and forget, but Islam also on the other hand, prohibits the Muslims from being hypocrites and it commands them to fight the aggressors in the name of GOD Almighty. If you, for instance, come and slap me on the face, then Islam commands me to forgive you. But if I find you, for instance, hitting and hurting again and again, then Islam commands me to fight you and stop you.

Whether people speak evil of you, in your presence or behind your back, or they do evil to you in either of those ways, all is known to Allah Almighty. It is not for you to punish. Your best course is not to do evil in your turn, but to do what will best repel the evil. Two evils do not make a good.

GOD COMMANDS FORGIVENESS NOT REVENGE

We did not create the heavens and earth and everything between them, except with truth. The Hour is certainly coming, so forgive with fair forbearance. (Qur'an, 15:85)

Those of you possessing affluence and ample wealth should not make oaths that they will not give to their relatives and the very poor and those who have made emigration in the way of God. They should rather pardon and overlook. Would you not love God to forgive you? God is Ever-Forgiving, Most Merciful. (Qur'an, 24:22)

Make allowances for people? (Qur'an, 7:199)

A good action and a bad action are not the same. Repel the bad with something better and, if there is enmity between you and someone else, he will be like a bosom friend.? (Qur'an 41:34)

The repayment of a bad action is one equivalent to it. But if someone pardons and puts things right, his reward is with God. Certainly He does not love wrongdoers.? (Qur'an, 42:40) those who give in times of both ease and hardship, those who control their rage and pardon other people ? God loves the good-doers" (Qur'an, 3:134)

You will never cease to come upon some act of treachery on their part, except for a few of them. Yet pardon them, and overlook. God loves good-doers. (Qur'an, 5:13)

1. I would like to have the Malaysian Armed Forces attack the United States and Israel.
2. But I don't think the Government and the MAF would agree with me.
3. So what do we do?
4. We could blockade the United States and deny it food and medicine.
5. The blockade would have to go on for a hundred years. A lot of innocent people would die. But as Madeleine Albright said when asked whether killing 500,000 Iraqi babies was worth it, she said it was difficult but it was worth it. So Malaysians should not mind killing a few million Americans including babies because although it will be difficult it would be worth it.
6. But I suspect we cannot blockade either.
7. So what do we do? Let the bully do what it likes? But the bully is killing lots of innocent people together with small children and babies.
8. But on the other hand we need to drink Coca-Cola, use the Internet, fly Boeing jets, see Rambo movies etc etc. Can we sacrifice all these simply because babies are being decapitated by Israeli soldiers using highly sophisticated and costly weapons donated by the kind Americans? Of course we cannot.
9. What we can do is totally worthless. We can boycott US products.
10. But can we? Well not completely. Maybe partially. Like not drinking Coca-Cola, or not seeing the latest blockbuster.
11. It is not going to stop the United States from remaining the most powerful nation and continuing to kill people directly or indirectly.
12. But if 10 per cent of the people in the world who drink Coca-Cola stop drinking it there would be some impact. If Malaysians drink, say 50 per cent less Coca-Cola (because their lives depend on it) there would be some impact also. If nothing else it will demonstrate our displeasure with the Americans.
13. But what about the Malaysians working in factories producing coke? I don't believe they produce only Coca-Cola. They produce other drinks as well. If people switch from Coca-Cola to another drink produced by the same company, then the company will have to produce more of this alternative drink and there would be no need to close down and sack the workers.
14. The idea is to do what we can to show displeasure at what the US is doing. We will not bring the US economy crashing down. It will continue to prosper. But the US and Americans must know how much the world dislike or even hate them.

15. Presently the President of the United States claims "the world respects America for its compassion".

16. I am appending below an article by Paul Craig Roberts, former Assistant Secretary of the Treasury in the Reagan Administration.

17. Please read it carefully since you may think as a Muslim I am biased against the United States and Israel.

18. I will be putting on my blog other articles by other people and you can judge for yourselves.

The White House Moron Stumbles to the Finish

The Humiliation of America

By PAUL CRAIG ROBERTS

"Early Friday morning the secretary of state was considering bringing the cease-fire resolution to a UNSC vote and we didn't want her to vote for it," Olmert said. "I said 'get President Bush on the phone.' They tried and told me he was in the middle of a lecture in Philadelphia. I said 'I'm not interested, I need to speak to him now.' He got down from the podium, went out and took the phone call."

"Let me see if I understand this," wrote a friend in response to news reports that Israeli Prime Minister Olmert ordered President Bush from the podium where he was giving a speech to receive Israel's instructions about how the United States had to vote on the UN resolution. "On September 11th, President Bush is interrupted while reading a story to school children and told the World Trade Center had been hit--and he went on reading. Now, Olmert calls about a UN resolution when Bush is giving a speech and Bush leaves the stage to take the call. There exists no greater example of a master-servant relationship."

Olmert gloated as he told Israelis how he had shamed US Secretary of State Condi Rice by preventing the American Secretary of State from supporting a resolution that she had helped to craft. Olmert proudly related how he had interrupted President Bush's speech in order to give Bush his marching orders on the UN vote.

Israeli politicians have been bragging for decades about the control they exercise over the US government. In his final press conference, President Bush, deluded to the very end, said that the whole world respects America. In fact, when the world looks at America, what it sees is an Israeli colony.

Responding to mounting reports from the Red Cross and human rights organizations of Israel's massive war crimes in Gaza, the United Nations Human Rights Council voted 33-1 on January 12 to condemn Israel for grave offenses against human rights.

On January 13, the London Times reported that Israelis have gathered on a hillside overlooking Gaza to enjoy the slaughter of Palestinians in what the Times calls "the ultimate spectator sport."

It is American supplied F-16 fighter jets, helicopter gunships, missiles, and bombs that are destroying the civilian infrastructure of Gaza and murdering the Palestinians who have been packed into the tiny strip of land. What is happening to the Palestinians herded into the Gaza Ghetto is happening because of American money and weapons. It is just as much an attack by the United States as an attack by Israel. The US government is complicit in the war crimes.

Yet in his farewell press conference on January 12, Bush said that the world respects America for its compassion.

The compassion of bombing a UN school for girls?

The compassion of herding 100 Palestinians into one house and then shelling it?

The compassion of bombing hospitals and mosques?

The compassion of depriving 1.5 million Palestinians of food, medicine, and energy?

The compassion of violently overthrowing the democratically elected Hamas government?

The compassion of blowing up the infrastructure of one of the poorest and most deprived people on earth?

The compassion of abstaining from a Security Council vote condemning these actions?

And this is a repeat of what the Israelis and Americans did to Lebanon in 2006, what the Americans did to Iraqis for six years and are continuing to do to Afghans after seven years. And still hope to do to the Iranians and Syrians.

In 2002 I designated George W. Bush "the White House Moron." If there ever was any doubt about this designation, Bush's final press conference dispelled it.

Bush talked about connecting the dots, but Bush has failed to connect any dots for eight solid years. "Our" president was a puppet for a cabal led by Dick Cheney and a handful of Jewish neoconservatives, who took control of the Pentagon, the State Department, the National Security Council, the CIA, and "Homeland Security." From these power positions, the neocon cabal used lies and deception to invade Afghanistan and Iraq, pointless wars that have cost Americans $3 trillion, while millions of Americans lose their jobs, their pensions, and their access to health care.

"These obviously very difficult economic times," Bush said in his press conference, "started before my presidency."

Bush has plenty of liberal company in failing to connect a $3 trillion dollar war with hard times. The Center on Budget and Policy Priorities blames Bush's tax cut, not the wars, for "the fiscal deterioration."

Bush told the White House Press Corps, a useless collection of non-journalists, that the two mistakes of his invasion of Iraq were: (1) Putting up the "mission accomplished" banner on the aircraft carrier, which, he said, "sent the wrong message," and (2) the absence of the alleged weapons of mass destruction that he used to justify the invasion.

Although Bush now admits that there were not any such weapons in Iraq, Bush said that the invasion was still the right thing to do.

The deaths of 1.25 million Iraqis, the displacement of 4 million Iraqis, and the destruction of a country's infrastructure and economy are merely the collateral damage associated with "bringing freedom and democracy" to the Middle East.

Unless George W. Bush is the best actor in human history, he truly believes what he told the White House Press Corps.

What Bush did not explain is how America is respected when its people put a moron in charge for eight years.

Paul Craig Roberts was Assistant Secretary of the Treasury in the Reagan administration.

Agreed. I think Coca-Cola Malaysia or Starbuck Malaysia should state their stands against the Israel. They should put a campaign donating Rm0.05 for each can/transaction to the Palestenian if they don't want the Malaysian to boycott their product. At least you shouldn't provoking to sack the Malaysian workers.

Salam Tok Det,

Kan dah kata, Amerika ni barua Israel... Sapa jadi ejen Amerika bermakna indirectly barua Israel... baru ja cerita benda ni dlm blog saya semalam...

Jadi, kita hantaq Askar sajala.. mcm Tun penah hantaq Mujahidin ke Afghan dulu.. (ni Anwar Berahim yg exposed.. ada dlm youtube... kalau dia tipu, memang kita maklum la dia ni macam mana), tapi tak boleh jugak, ramai antara kita ni semangat saja lebih, tapi nak pi National Service pon macam2 alasan.. ni kan pulak nak pi pecah2 muka, patah2 kaki tangan semua..... yillek.. kalau Tentera Malaysia ok la, tapi kalau belia Malaysia zaman la ni, susah dah...

Kiranya, setujula dengan saranan Tok Det... boikot la apa yang kita ada altenatif. Sebut pasai Coca-Cola, saya nampak Starbuck lagi barua besaq... Apa kata kita boikot minum kopi Starbuck... macam la koman sangat kopi tempatan.. pegidah, kedai mamak pon ada espresso la la ni....

Saya rasa jugak la, kalu nak hantaq jugak askar, kita hantaq sekali dengan askar Iran, Syria... buat2 jadi tentera pengaman.. pastu malam-malam kita pi la bom Israel.. bantu HAMAS.. hehe.. tp mcm Tok Det kata laa..... mana ada gomen yang setuju camtu.. sebabnya satu ja, kita lemah, orang tak takut dekat kita... ekonomi punya kekuatan kita tadak, yillek, nada, boliau.....

Tok Det, bila la kegemilangan empayar Uthmaniah akan muncul kembali? Habaq mai sat kat chek semua.....

Wassalam....

Salam YBhg Tun,

It is really sickening to see the images in the media of Palestinians dying and suffering. The Americans indeed have put a moron in the White House in the last 8 years. Seems to me the American leadership have no regard for Palestinian lives, perhaps because they are mainly Muslims. I am not sure what impact a boycott would have on America, but I remember sometime ago when you were in charge, you wanted to organise a Muslim 'lobby' from among Muslim nations to 'enlighten' Americans on their ignorance of Islam and Muslims. Such an effort if continued could at some stage influence their leadership and could eventually be an even more powerful lobby (since the US economy has been wrecked by the Jewish and Jewish backed financial institutions- if they don't realise it already). Pity that there is no follow through on your initiatives.

Thanks GOD you are retired. You really think MAF are a match for Israel. In your old age you appear to be losing your mind

Why just stop at Coke, why not expand to all US products.

Why not just sponsor your supporters to and attack Israel and the US.

Tun,

Given the choice, I would buy local Malaysian products first, and buy pro-Israel products (including American products) last.

I won't die not drinking Coca Cola, but if I want a drink, I can drink locally made products.

Likewise, if the Government wants to purchase equipments, we can buy Russian or others.

Should we boycott German product as well as they also involve in Gaza conflict?

But i don't think SOME people will do this, as SOMEBODY's SON is a distributor of Porsche car (notes: porsche owned by German)

If one can of coca-cola priced at RM1.00, and one porsche car priced at RM1 million ... SOME PEOPLE rather 1 million of Malaysian boycott coca-cola, RATHER than ONE SON dont sell one porsche car ...

Boycott is too slow.

We should expel the US Ambassador immediately to demand for ceasefire in Gaza.

No need to protest, expel immediately !

The UN headquarter in Gaza has just been bombed by Israel. And the funny thing is the UN Chief will still meet and talk to the Israel President. This is real funny.

Hons Dr. M,

For a tiny country and a developing country to go hard against US is seems to be like an egg -vs- a stone. This is madness and crazy especially Malaysian Gov is a coward and pussycat when speak in public against other matter non-Malaysian.

The Best advice and suggestion, sort out AAB's gangs and all your internal affair before commenting others. This eras is not the same as yours previously. Eg. Condemnation openly at UN Speech against US acts. This really an eyes opening speech but who cares now - you are no longer a PM nor any powerful person that have authority to control anyone faith and destiny. It is just a waste of time and energy!

Your Malaysian Gov is Corrupted, Useless, Coward and self-center gov total a rubbish/junk category - it is a shame to you and all Malaysian. Your gov is fighting among yourself just for a bloody MP position even willing to bribe each other to achieve their goal. Your gov willing to disloyal against each other to lack any information against his/her own party so that when the slightly more will known/powerful party will give them - in hope they can have a share when they in-power. Your gov is spending unnecessary gov funds on their own benefit not the Malaysian as whole.

Your gov even no longer able to control your own culture and races among yourself. Willing to kill each other just because "Ketuanan Melayu" word! a total idiot and brainless homosapien.

Dr. M - save you energy and focus on these issues and affair that are happening around yourself now then planning a plot against something that you will never able to achieve in near time. Also, with the current economic crisis - i think is better for yourself lecture your own people before it end as the same 1997! without you oversee the country economic and financial sector

Tun, harsh words from you but I do think that America should co-exist with the Muslim Civilisation as when back then we read regarding that we need the power of counter balance as proof by the existence of Uthmaniyyah to Great Britain Empire and The Great USSR to USA. Now what we are missing is the country that can say no to America without jeopardizing their people like the USSR did back in 20th Century. China looks to be the next super power but we can see lack of people in China trying to maintain the communist idealism and currently looking like more capitalist than America. India with vast people, heritage and culture seem to be a good candidate. But we can see that India has a lot to learn to cope with multiple religion and ethnicity that keep causing it problem. How about in South East Asia? Right now the only setback is ASEAN ideology and principle that cant prove that we can move in one direction. EU under German and France still cant move away of the shadow of America. Middle East and the Arabic world with UAE and other rich petroleum countries seem undecided still. So whats next for us? I would suggest to use a platform already existed now called OIC. But instead of just a meeting for economical condition, we make an alliance of army like NATO. Our center of training is in a place with the Largest MUSlim found- Indonesia, where we train officially our army, keep to date our weaponry and have our own Military building. Then we equipped ourself with nuclear missile not to attack other country (Like the Americans are saying) but to protect ourself from terrorist. First step has been made by Iran and Pakistan but Malaysia can do it if we want. It seem easy to plan but do we have the courage to implement it -

Salam Ayahanda Tun.

Pak Lah may somewhat take comfort in the fact that he is not the only lame duck leader of this here free world. He has the outgoing Bush to accompany him on this ride. And the similarity don't stop there either, as both of them have parasites taking their last bite at all they can get in this brief window of opportunity. For Pak Lah he has Khairy & Co. handling that department and as for Bush he has Olmert doing the all you can bite buffet deal. See Tun, this whole conflict with Israel and Hamas has been very well timed between Washington and Tel Aviv. It has been in the pipeline for quite a while. Bush and his wife is already busy packing, too busy to handle other chores like running a country say. Or so it seems anyway – as the want it all to be seen anyway. And it won't be until the 20th January before Obama takes office as new home boy for the Jews. And so there they have it, that very brief window of opportunity to take care of any unsettled business. Comes the 20th, the new President steps in; he would call it a halt/truce and both he and his new Secretary of State would smile really nice and look really good for the cameras. That's the script with Washington and Tel Aviv this time around. So all in all, it's just the Jews playing their music and the world dancing to it – yet again. When would all this end? When enough American kids gets blown away to smithereens in a foreign land and their parents finally wakes up to the truth, switch on their cheese burger brains and actually vote both Democrats and Republicans out from Washington. Malaysians, forget not: you too have a Jewish collaborator working his way into the power seat of Putra Jaya. See, Dollah Badawi is a smart fellow, he knows there's nothing he can do about it and so he is just plain not doing anything about it. Smart man that Prime Minister. He is giving Mr Bean a run for his money really. So today, the real hero in UMNO, in my book at least- is Muhyidin Yassin. He may be off beat some here and there, but he has that quality to lead by example and he has the balls for the job. Anyway, that's my 2 cents in between doing the dishes and what not Ayahanda Tun. Take care, good night and warmest regards and love from all of us here.

Assalamualaikum my dear Tun,

Since your call to boycott US products/services and the use of USD in trade, I have read and heard a lot of opinions, especially bloggers who commented on the issue. While a lot have answered the call, quite a lot also had questioned the move as irrelevant, justifying by the fact that it will hurt our economy more than that of the US.

Personally, I am in the agreement that boycotting the US products/services will not much topple the US economy, nor would it help reduce the contribution of American companies towards the fascist Zionist regime, and I am in the opinion that it would be a tough effort to bring all Malaysian Muslims to support the cause (even tougher convincing the non-Muslims). Though I am not convince that this cause will bring much difference to the current conflict, I would rather have a clear conscience knowing that I had not contribute to the wealth of certain companies who contribute certain sum of their wealth to the plight of Israel.

With your permission, I would like to quote Dr. Yusuf al-Qardawi's fatwa on the issue of boycott on April 4, 2004:-

"If people ask in the name of religion we must help them. The vehicle of this support is a complete boycott of the enemies' goods. Each riyal, dirham ...etc. used to buy their goods eventually becomes bullets to be fired at the hearts of brothers and children in Palestine. For this reason, it is an obligation not to help them (the enemies of Islam) by buying their goods. To buy their goods is to support tyranny, oppression and aggression. Buying goods from them will strengthen them; our duty is to make them as weak as we can. Our obligation is to strengthen our resisting brothers in the Sacred Land as much as we can. If we cannot strengthen the brothers, we have a duty to make the enemy weak. If their weakness cannot be achieved except by boycott, we must boycott them.

American goods, exactly like "Israeli" goods, are forbidden. It is also forbidden to advertise these goods. America today is a second Israel. It totally supports the Zionist entity. The usurper could not do this without the support of America. "Israel's" unjustified destruction and vandalism of everything has been using American money, American weapons, and the American veto. America has done this for decades without suffering the consequences of any punishment or protests about their oppressive and prejudiced position from the Islamic world."

May Allah give protection to the Palestinians and destroy the fascist Zionist regime. Amen.

BUT THEY ARE WRONG...
WE HAVE REASON TO DO THESE...
WE DO IT NOT BECAUSE WE HATE AMERICA,
IT IS BECAUSE OF WAR CREATED BY THEM...

WHY DID CVCO THINKS LIKE THAT? SAME THING GOES FOR ROB TOO..

IF WARS IN THIS WORLD NOT CAUSED BY AMERICA,

Assalamualaikum Yg Bhg Tun,

Ada barangan US yang kita boleh boikot seperti Coca-cola yang memudaratkan kesihatan dan juga barangan lain seperti rokok Marlboro, Benson, Salem dll. Juga kereta cap pangkah iaitu Chevrolet yang kononnya lambang bowtie tetapi sebenarnya propoganda kafir untuk membiasakan umat Islam dengan lambang pangkah!!

Juga ayam segera yang dimasak tidak mengikut syariat Islam, Bismillah entah kemana, selawat jauh sekali. Itu sebab berbau hanyir. Sebagai umat Islam hendaklah kita memakan dari tukang masak yang beriman.

Ais kopi starbuck yg dijual 20 x ganda dari kos sebenar juga membazir dan dikira amalan syaitan. Namun atas kelemahan umat Islam itu sendiri kita tidak mampu pula memboikot Microsoft, kalau boikot, blog ini juga kita tak dapat tengok, begitu juga Google, Yahoo dan mungkin juga komputer yang sedang kita guna sekarang ini brand HP, Dell, IBM dll.

Bagaimana pula kita pergi menunaikan fardu haji jika tiada kapalterang Boeing buatan mereka.

Kita boikotlah apa yang termampu.

Assalammualaikum Tok Det,

5 SOALAN.....

1. Kenapa OIC tak "officially declares boycott US and Israel products"?

2. Mengapa OIC tak tubuhkan tentera bersekutu sendiri seperti NATO untuk membantu negara Islam seperti Bosnia, Afganistan, Somalia, Iraq dan Palestin dan lain-lain?
3. Adakah sumber kewangan OIC amat terhad sedangkan anggota OIC juga terdiri dari negara-negara kaya pengeluar minyak?
4. Apakah OIC tidak boleh menyekat pengeluaran minyak atau tidak menggunakan US Dollar dalam urusanniaga minyak sedangkan majoriti ahlinya negara pengeluar minyak terbesar dunia?
5. Tidak bolehkah OIC yang majoriti dianggotai Negara Arab bersatu menghancurkan Israel dengan melancarkan serangan dari setiap penjuru dan sempadan Israel secara serentak dan tiba-tiba?

1 JAWAPAN.....

Umat Islam tidak bersatu dan berpecah-belah berpunca daripada TERLALU BANYAK PERBEZAAN yang dicipta oleh Umat Islam sendiri seperti:-

- a) PERBEZAAN asas akidah (cth:-Ahli Sunnah dan Syiah)
- b) PERBEZAAN asas ibadah(cth:- perbezaan cara ibadah mengikut mazhab)
- c) PERBEZAAN pendapat dalam tafsiran Al Quran dan Hadis Nabi.
- d) PERBEZAAN fatwa dan pendapat ulama.
- e) PERBEZAAN ideologi pilitik
- g) PERBEZAAN adat dan budaya setempat, dan
- h) Banyak lagi segala macam PERBEZAAN yang dicipta dan diamalkan oleh UMAT ISLAM sendiri YANG SEMAKIN BERTAMBAH!!!

KENAPA MESTI ADA "PERBEZAAN"???

BUKANKAN SETIAP JIWA UMAT ISLAM SAMA DISISI ALLAH TIADA SEBARANG "PERBEZAAN" .... kecuali amalnya???

BUKANKAH SEMUA UMAT ISLAM BERSAUDARA DAN TIADA "PERBEZAAN"???

TIDAK BOLEHKAH DUNIA ISLAM TANPA "PERBEZAAN"???

UMAT ISLAM HANYA AKAN BERSATU BILA SEMUA "PERBEZAAN" INI DIHAPUSKAN!!!

ULAMA DAN UMARA ISLAM MESTI BERSATU MENGHAPUSKAN SEMUA "PERBEZAAN" DI DALAM DUNIA ISLAM!!!

SEMUA UMAT ISLAM ADALAH BERSAUDARA TANPA SEBARANG "PERBEZAAN"!!!!

SEMUA AKIDAH DAN IBADAH ISLAM MESTI SAMA DAN TIADA "PERBEZAAN"!!!!

SEMUA FATWA DUNIA ISLAM MESTI SAMA DAN TIADA "PERBEZAAN"!!!!

Bagaimana UMAT ISLAM boleh bersatu jika TERLAMPAU BANYAK PERBEZAAN dikalangan UMAT ISLAM sendiri????????????????

Ya ALLAH....ampunilah kami dan berikan kami petunjuk.

Dr M,

There are 4 things you hate in life.

- 1 - Singapore
- 2 - Jews
- 3 - Israel
- 4 - USA

Those who cant see it are blinded by your devious teachings. Perhaps you should take a look at your blog and see how many articles that you posted are against any of the 4 mentioned.. Even the blind can simply pin point of those hated articles you have written..

Sometimes, I wonder if they owed you or your ancestors in their former lives..

Live and let live!!

Also in your earlier article I mentioned that you and the politicians perhaps should walk the talk and (a radical idea) is to stand in front of the MNCs like AMD, Intel, HP and shout for mass resignation.. That would be so great and effective.

I wonder why the same magnitude of hoo hah wasnt really given when Chenchens were killed, when Burmese were oppressed (to name a few of the many). Is that not what biased is?
By chewchewAuthor Profile Page on January 15, 2009 9:42 PM

dear tokdet,

I THINK WE SHOULD PERSUADE THE NON-JEWISH AMERICANS TO TAKE A CLOSER LOOK ON JJEWISH POPULATION IN THEIR COUNTRY.
WE SHOULD SIT WITH THEM AND STUDY ABOUT JEWISH BEHAVIOUR
FROM THEIR ANCESTOR UNTIL NOW.

MAYBE WE ARE NOT CHRISTIAN, BUT WE CAN SIT WITH THEM, DISCUSS & THINK ABOUT WHAT IS THE BEST THING TO DO.
(THIS REMINDS ME ABOUT YOUR MEETING WITH LATE POPE JOHN PAUL)
THERE ARE QUITE LARGE AMOUNT OF AMERICANS & THE CHRISTIANS WHO DISLIKE THE JEWISH.

I THINK WHILE WE BOYCOTTING THE US,
WHY NOT WE INVITE ANY RELIGIOUS (CHRISTIAN PARTIES) AROUND AMERICA, WE TALK TO THEM ABUOT THE DAMAGES THESE HUMN BEING CALLED JEWISH HAD CAUSED TO THE WORLD.

I BELIEVE IN THIS CRITICAL MOMENT,
ISLAM CAN WORK CLOSELY WITH CHRISTIAN TO FIGHT WAR...

IN TECHNICAL OR POLITICAL PERSPECTIVE,
IT IS HARD TO BRING THE OUTCOME WE EXPECT.
BUT IN RELIGIOUS PERSPECTIVE, I THINK IT WILL WORK.

IS IT POSSIBLE FOR 2 BIGGEST RELIGION IN THIS PLANET, SIT TOGETHER TO FIGHT WAR BY THE ZIONIST REGIME?

IT IS BETTER TO HAVE ONE FRIEND (CHRISTIAN)
RATHER THAN TO HAVE TWO ENEMIES (JEWISH & CHRISTIAN)

As Farish Noor said in his blog, a blanket boycott of all US products would be worthless. Furthermore, Malaysia is a small country and whatever impact we may have, is limited. What is needed is a coordinated and concerted effort at boycotting specific companies. Not all US companies are evil.
By CaptAuthor Profile Page on January 15, 2009 10:00 PM firstly we must also blame ourselves for lacking in muslim unity.

because we muslim are not united, others are taking advantage of it.
perhaps, if you can advise our muslim brothers and sisters on how best to achieve this unity, it would be more effective than going to war with the USA/Israel ?
with your connections and networks, am pretty sure many would listen and act.
economic war ?,,,,indeed would be more effective too.
but before we can preach others, we must also practise.
as malaysian, we have much to correct ourselves too,,,yes agreed that the killing must stop in Gaza and collectively we are all contributing in whatever positive means possible presently.
our frustrations etc are in our blogs and in the papers and street demo.
most of us, like you, we can't sleep at night nowadays,,,sakit hati-nya.
we are winning in morality and the Israelis as the living devils.

Since the first century CE most Jews have lived in exile, although there has been a constant presence of Jews in the Land of Israel (Eretz Israel)... According to Judaism, Eretz Israel, or Zion, is a land promised to the Jews by God according to the Bible... Jewish immigration to Palestine started in earnest in 1882... Most immigrants came from Russia, escaping the frequent pogroms and state-led persecution... They founded a number of agricultural settlements with financial support from Jewish philanthropists in Western Europe...

In the 1890s Theodor Herzl infused Zionism with a new ideology and practical urgency, leading to the first congress at Basel in 1897, which brought the World Zionist Organization (WZO) into being... Herzl's aim was to initiate necessary preparatory steps for the attainment a Jewish state... In 1947, the UN recommended the partition of western Palestine into a Jewish state, an Arab state and a UN-controlled territory (Corpus separatum) around Jerusalem... On 14 May 1948, at the end of the British mandate, the Jewish Agency, led by Ben-Gurion, declared the creation of the State of Israel...

Dear Tun and Fellow Readers,

Tun was suggesting of boycotting the American products. One of the reader suggesting expelling the ambassador.

1. What would happen to Malaysia if the US government ask all American companies to pull out their investments in Malaysia as what they did to Libya ?

2. What would happen to Malaysia if the US government ask all Malaysian students out of the America soil immediately ?

Think about it.....

Pendapat saya tok det , Kita tunggu Presiden Obama naik dulu kita lihat aksinya dulu, Apa yang dia boleh buat . Sebab Presiden Obama masih mentah dalam pemerintahan jadi kita boleh gunakan dia atau kenakan dia .Tapi dengan syarat semua negara Islam mesti berpakat .

Peringkat yang pertama kalau Obama tidak boleh berbuat apa - apa Semua negara Islam akan menghalau duta Amerika dan kita lihat apa tindakan nya.

Peringkat kedua kalau amerika masih besar kepala , Semua negara islam mesti bersatu dan sedia bersetongkol dengan pihak negara kuasa besar , seperti china , russia atau apa - apa negara yang besar yang ditakuti oleh amerika dan israel dan mereka juga tidak menyokong Amerika . Apabila kita dapat bersetongkol dengan negara besar atau kuasa besar kita mahu negara amerika dan israel dilucut kan dari PBB . Kita lihat aksi obama dan israel selepas itu .

Dan yang terakhir kalau itu semua tak berjaya , Kita terpaksa menolong dari pintu belakang . tapi mungkin tindakan itu akan menjejaskan negara Malaysia dimata dunia , melainkan semua negara Islam bersatu untuk menghulurkan bantuan dari pintu belakang . kesannya mungkin akan tercetus perang dunia ketiga antara Islam dan kafir .

kalau kita hantar askar kita pun tok det bukan boleh buat apa- apa kalau peperangan dinegara kita sendiri itu lain lah. Memang kita boleh menang punya tetapi dinegara orang , lain caranya .Melainkan dibawah kuasa PBB , mungkin kita boleh hentikan keganasan israel . sebab selagi amerika dihormati negara lain , kita memang susah untuk menjatuh kan amerika dan israel . melainkan kita boleh meracuni pemikiran - pemikiran orang yang meyokong amerika selama ini , itu pun kalau kita cukup bijak nak kenakan amerika .

itu idea yang ada buat masa ini, idea lain belum dapat difikirkan lagi.

Tun,

Boycott American?

Are you really serious about it, Tun? Is it just a gimmick for you to attract people's attention because you have not been exposed in the media's headline for quite a long time?

Do you still remember that in 1998 during the currency crisis when there was a Malaysian calling other Malaysians through email to boycott American, especially boycotting US Dollars as a settlement currency for international transactions, you allowed the then IGP Tan Sri Rahim Nor to send him to the ISA detention camp? You also allowed the Police to prosecute him in court upon his being released from 44 days' ISA detention. Yet you want to call other Malaysians to boycott American!

Exactly how trustworthy could you be when you yourself were indicating so much inconsistency and so confusing in applying double standards in the simple matter of yelling the slogan of "Boycott American"?

In order to prove your sincerity in making the "Boycott American" call, shall you consider giving your fatherly advice to your beloved daughter, Marina Mahathir, and your beloved son, Mokhzani Mahathir, and requesting them to stop using their skills and knowledges in their daily business because those skills and knowledges they possessed were actually acquired by them from the American universities during 1980s?

Shall you also consider quitting the use of American drugs from now on in event that you have to fall sick sometime in the future?

Dear Tun Dr M,

It is very obvious that you get very angry, agitated and emotional when it comes to US and Israel. Due to that, you have made certain statements which we could not believe that it came from you. One example is to ask those who are working in US and Israel funded concerns to quit without suggesting alternative employment. The more you get emotional the more the enemies will gain control. Tun, you need to compose yourself and be very alert.

As I meant in my earlier comment, the effective and easy to practice boycott would be on entertainment and fashion merchandise i.e. No American movies, no American albums, No American entertainment programs acquired by local public and private television stations, visit US or buy US products only when it is unavoidable. The next is applicable to the rich and moderately rich Malaysians. Strictly don't buy American or Israeli funded companies' branded products. They have other alternatives from the Europe or that of Asian made.

I feel the above would not tax on the Malaysians much. Just do it for at least 6 months and see the result.

Good reference tun, atleast those that find it hard to accept your opinion on the matter just because you are muslim now can read what the non-muslim are saying on the matter. Of coz they have to be from a reliable sources.

This is a good effort from you of providing link to other information source for us to judge ourself on the subject matter and to see it from different angle. coz some ppl like to comments without prior knowledge and too lazy or reluctant to find other source by themself. Maybe most of them just afraid of finding out that they are wrong or what u said is correct. They will support or object if only it serve their own desire of the outcome regardless of the truth. who knows the real truth? Who should we believe in their story? It is best sometimes to hear it from the 3rd person. Then again the 3rd person maybe biased too. Then go to 4th person.. and based on majority opinion and the effort of the ppl around us.. we should be able to conclude that israel is on the wrong side. Why the world doesn't sympathise the israeli cause is because they don't deserve it, despite strong support from USA. When reading reports and news that are pro-israel, the credibility of the reporter and the proof they provided are too weak.

Even majority is not always right, but they most of the time is right. Because the world doesn't seem to take any action against the israel, some ignorant ppl will see that israel is right without knowing the real issues why the world doesn't make any move.

The veto granted for america should be removed and replaced by bonus vote instead. e.g 1 vote from america will count as 10 votes. And even given 100 bonus votes, they will still lose and the UN resolution will be carried out. Such is the ratio that everyone with a wise mind should have understood what the world thinks about this bloody war. I imagine that if that veto is to be reduced to bonus votes then israel the Zionist will be busy lobbying half the world leaders as to always win a vote. That at least reduces their abilities in toying with the UN.

And about sending our own troops attacking the US and israel, I cannot agree with you. I would prefer our troops are sent to the crisis area to defend the weak against the oppressor. Then the israel should be pushed back to their original border as given to them by the UN. Their reason for protecting their citizen on the newly built settlement on an illegally occupied land is not acceptable. To reduce civilian casualty, any advancement of reclaiming the palestinian land should be announced. They should mobilize their citizen or bear the consequences of collateral damage.

To give a clear example that close to us is that if a Singaporean developer were to develop an estate in Malaysia, in Johor most probably and sell the unit to Singaporean only, then we will have 1 whole estate full of Singaporean, and suppose some of them have been living there for years since the estate started. Would it be right if the Singaporean government were to use military might in order to protect their citizen interest from being harmed by the unsatisfied locals for whatever reason? If the Malaysian government cannot protect Singaporean citizen from the local then it would be wise for them to move out, perhaps with some compensation from the government rather than sending their army to settle and guard in that estate. And that's exactly what the israel were doing to the palestinian. Sending their army instead of moving out and claiming it's their land.

For the citizen it would be their land but it still under the jurisdiction of the local authorities. Foreign military in that area can only mean invasion and should retreat or be forced out.

This example is for those among us that don't know or understand why it all happens. As of now.. the israel claimed area are more than the original Palestine.. it's like Singapore had claimed Johor, Pahang and Perak leaving the other states separated with each other. They even push the local ppl out of the area to cram into refugee camps.

The Palestine government failure is to notice this at an early stage, and been outsmarted by the Jew.

That's it for now. Sorry for lengthy, incoherent and unstructured writing. I am not as good as Tun in this.
By hellyAuthor Profile Page on January 15, 2009 11:48 PM

Tun, you have good sense of humor. Sad to see that someone takes your words' face value not the point and launch personal attack.

For those 'someone', human life is worth less than farm animals.

Since Israel exists, wars haven't stopped for a single day. Seemingly they are the victims of the conflicts and pretend incapable to resolve the problem they created and yet they are controlling the world (incl. US) thru US with all their "Hi-Tec" conspiracies. The mind set behind is "poor and helpless should not live on 'our' expenses"! (based on recent world events).

Tell these living dead (without heart): "when they start to love their enemies (or rather, those oppressed by them), the world will have a very bright future!"

If you can persuade the OIC to use gold dinar in trading instead of using US dollar, it will push US further to recession. The Arab countries are very rich, we can use them as proxy. If you manage to do this, you will be known in the history of Islam. The muslim (Mahathir) who crumble the US and Israel
By Virtual RealistAuthor Profile Page on January 16, 2009 12:04 AM

So Mr. Mahathir, you would like to see the Malaysian armed forces attack the US?

Are you serious or are you just sort of puffing up so we can observe your indignation?

Have you thought this through? Something like Pearl Harbor perhaps?

What result would you be hoping for in the wake of an attack on the US?

Can you give some probable US responses to a Malaysian attack?

I wonder if Hamas goes through a similar process when deciding to launch missiles across the border into Israel? What kind of response are they expecting?

I really doubt that Israel likes blockading Gaza, it is expensive and painful for Israel and the Gazans. Why does Israel blockade Gaza? Maybe something about the Hamas charter calling for the elimination of Israel? Rockets? Weapons smuggling? Suicide bombings?

Israel gets weapons, they kill Hamas rocket teams/Leaders. So it seems one big difference is the Hamas charter vs. the Israeli constitution, Hamas specifically says they are working to eliminate Israel. Well fine, they have picked their enemy, all the dead babies, bombed schools and suffering are just wreckage along the way to Israels destruction right? Because they probably expect the Israelis to fight back I guess.

Remember Israel ended their occupation of Gaza in 2005, land for peace? well, land to launch rockets from more like.

Contrast Gaza with the West Bank. No rockets, no IDF response, no blockade.

I know the history of the Romans, Ottomans, the Mandate, the Balfour declaration, UN 181. The Jews accepted what they could get, the Arabs grabbed what was supposed to go to the Palestinians. In fact the Palestinians have never had a voice, Egypt or Jordan or Iraq or Syria or Iran or the Gulf Arabs have always been there to speak for them and never exactly in their interest. Now Hamas/Iran uses Gaza as a grievance machine against Israel, dead babies have a use. Hamas knows they can force Israel to make a choice between being eliminated or attacking the people who are sworn to kill them as they launch rockets from inside a city.

Poor Palestinians, their leaders SUCK, so they starve and die. I think they should all try to get asylum in the US.

Salam to Tun and All,

Priss01,

U still dont understand Tun's style and what the man trying to convey. Pls read other snippets.

From my perspective, the best way is to have as many american aware on what is happening and the history behind Palestine issue. Most american that I had met are quite fair and does not support their gov action in middle east/rest of the world. Only the ignorance one (like Rob) defending their gov. We also need to understand that most american are very patriotic...which their gov has manipulated for years. So we need to get the truth to them and bypassing the mainstream media (CNN etc). Lets start by forwarding Paul Craig's article to as many american as possible.

By the way, not all jews support the israel action infact there are some groups protested against it.

God bless all of us. God willing, Palestine will never be wiped out.

Dr.M,

What about create a blockage/boycott multi national company from america that standing in our soil? HP, DELL ?

shut down the entire operation office in cyberjaya?

definitely a superior impact if operations goes down.

Oh my god, what a write up TUN. At least we do know that not all American support the tyranny of the American Government.I do believed that there are a lot more like Paul Craig Roberts in America who are against their Government policy.

So why do Malaysian worry about telling off the American Government. We are not against the American people but against the American governments policy. We should help the Americans that are against their government policy. Boycotting their product is one way to make them aware that Malaysian are upset and very angry with the American Governments policy. Hopefully they will be able to pressure their Government to take a different stance.

About the Armed Forces, Tun, dont you think we need to look deeper about strengthening our Armed Forces? We should at least encourage the Armed Forces to start getting the nuclear technology now. Personally I feel the Muslim world should have the upper hand on the nuclear weapon if a balance of force is to be maintained. The Muslim world should take advantage of the current situation to work closely with China, Russia, Cuba and North Korea. The Muslim world should invest their money with these countries to get the best of everything from them. The world need to counter the American and the European to stabilise the situation.

May God bless you and your family with an excellent health.

DATO' SERI DR. MAHATHIR BIN MOHAMAD
PERUTUSAN SEMPENA 1 MUHARAM 1403
01/10/1982

Dari peristiwa ini umat Islam di zaman-zaman yang mereka ditindas bolehlah mencari inspirasi bagi mengukuhkan semangat. Sebenarnya apa yang dihadapi oleh umat Islam sekarang tidak sebegitu berat dan teruk seperti cabaran yang dihadapi oleh Nabi Muhammad s.a.w. Umat Islam di zaman ini amat ramai. Sebahagian daripada mereka kaya-raya. Mereka memerintah wilayah-wilayah yang besar. Sudah sepatutnyalah mereka mencapai kejayaan. Tetapi mereka tidak mencapainya. Sebaliknya mereka di usir dari satu wilayah ke satu wilayah, ditakluk oleh kuasa-kuasa asing, disiksa dan dibunuh tanpa mereka boleh membuat apa-apa. Mereka cuma meraung dan merayu kepada orang lain. Di Palestin dan Lubnan mereka diserang, dibunuh beramai-ramai dan diusir dengan sewenang-wenang oleh Yahudi dan kawan-kawan mereka. Dengan pemindahan orang Palestin, kita sekali lagi melihat peristiwa penghijrahan.

Memang benar nasib buruk orang Islam sekarang disebabkan oleh perbuatan orang Yahudi dan penyokong-penyokong mereka. Kita patut salahkan mereka ini dan kita patut kutukkan mereka. Tetapi kita patut juga periksa diri kita sendiri. Apakah semangat dan ketabahan hati yang terdapat pada Nabi Besar kita dan sahabat-sahabat Baginda ada pada kita.

DATO' SERI DR. MAHATHIR BIN MOHAMAD
PERUTUSAN HARI RAYA AIDIL FITRI (PUASA)
01/08/1982

Tahun ini saja Masjidil Aqsa telah dicemar dengan pembunuhan yang dilakukan di dalamnya oleh pihak Yahudi. Dan baru-baru ini pihak Israel juga telah mencabul kedaulatan Lubnan hinggakan begitu ramai menjadi korban. Umat Islam terpaksa mengalami peristiwa sedih seperti ini dengan berpeluk tubuh kerana kita tidak mampu membuat apa-apa yang bermakna. Orang Islam sanggup berperang dengan orang Islam sehingga satu pihak mencapai kemenangan tetapi berhadapan dengan pencabulan oleh bangsa Israel yang cuma 3 juta, kita kaku dan tidak dapat membuat apa-apa dengan berkesan. Yang lebih menyedihkan ialah masih ada orang Islam yang tidak sedar dengan nasib yang menimpa umat Islam dan suka bersengketa sesama sendiri.

DATO' SERI DR. MAHATHIR BIN MOHAMAD
PERHIMPUNAN RAKSAKSA PALESTIN
06/03/1990

Apakah yang sedang berlaku sekarang di dalam Wilayah Palestin yang telah dijajah oleh pihak Yahudi. Yahudi mengadakan satu pemerintahan yang amat kejam. Setiap hari mereka menyerang rakyat Palestin yang tidak mempunyai senjata. Rakyat Palestin bukan terdiri daripada orang dewasa semata-mata tetapi kanak-kanak juga diserang oleh kerajaan Yahudi, kerajaan Israel. Hari ini lebih daripada seribu orang Palestin telah dibunuh selama 27 bulan Intifadah diadakan di Palestin. Pembangunan negara Palestin, Intifadah telah diadakan selama 27 bulan. Dalam masa 27 bulan ini tentera dan polis Israel telah menyerang orang yang tidak berdosa, orang yang tidak bersenjata, kanak-kanak sehingga yang dalam buaian semuanya telah diserang oleh orang yang bersenjata ini dan dibunuh, dcedera, ditembak dengan peluru, ditembak kononnya dengan peluru getah yang juga boleh membunuh. Digunakan gas pemedih mata, bahkan digunakan chemical weapon terhadap orang yang tidak bersenjata yang cuba menunjuk perasaan mereka untuk mendapat kemerdekaan, itu sahaja yang dibuat oleh mereka.

*****

Janji Allah SWT akan sampai bagi memastikan Islam akan tinggi semula dan musuh-musuh Islam terutamanya Yahudi akan kembali ke era kesusahan dan penindasan seperti keadaan asal mereka.

Kita meyakini usaha mereka mengumpulkan bangsa mereka di tengah-tengah negara umat Islam itu akan berakhir dengan penghapusan mereka secara terus dari muka bumi Allah SWT ini. Ini bersesuaian dengan maksud sebuah hadith sahih riwayat Al-Bukhari dan Muslim:

"Tidak akan berlaku kiamat sehinggalah orang-umat Islam berperang dengan orang-orang Yahudi (di sebuah tempat). Orang-umat Islam akan membunuh mereka beramai-ramai sehinggakan apabila mereka bersembunyi di sebalik batu dan pokok, tiba-tiba pokok-pokok dan batu-batu itu bersuara menjerit memanggil umat Islam agar membunuh orang-orang Yahudi itu, kecuali pokok 'Gharqad', kerana ia adalah pokok Yahudi".

Janji Nabi pastinya benar. Peristiwa ini akan berlaku bagi menamatkan siri pengkhianatan Yahudi terhadap Islam dan manusia secara keseluruhannya.

Dear Tun, salam mesra moga sihat sejahtera. Minta izin...

.....WISHFUL THINKING

True what we wish to do is far from what we can do. I hope Hamas also realise this in their struggle. They have as much power as Israel over the Palestinian suffering.

A crime victim can 'contribute' to the crime (by his own actions) although he is absolutely right to demand justice, retribution.

Its in both these parties hands not ours or Tun. We are only egging them on, aggravating matters or widening the conflict.

.....MANAGED BOYCOTT

This toned down, realistic boycott objective departing from the earlier gung ho, American bashing? I wish this displeasure objective the success it deserves.

On American hate orgy, destroying American companies, crippling US economy, cause hardship to Americans, we are becoming M'sian branch of Hamas. We are using indiscriminate force that we so righteously accuse others.

When M'sians become targets we may have to reply like Madelene Albright.

I wish all bullies be shown the displeasure, dislike, hate including M'sian bully Umno.

There is so many boycott suggestions.

The best way is to shut down your windows now.

since majority users replying here running on windows Operating systems belongs to microsoft an US giant company.

there is no way a person can boycott all things. especially when you are reading/writing this with your computer running on windows.

Cara-cara boikot yang berkesan :

1) Jgn minum coca-cola, pepsi atau apa-apa pun minuman bergas. Minuman2 ini mmg tak baik untuk kesihatan. Minuman2 macam ini dicipta oleh Yahudi untuk menghancurkan kesihatan umat manusia sedunia. Cuba korang tanya orang Yahudi, depa ada minum coke tak?

2) Starbuck - Carilah cafe yang lain pulak contohnya OLD Town White Coffee, Ali Cafe, Dome Cafe dan sebagainya. Nak lebih afdal lagi lepak jer kedai mamak.

3) Colgate - Tukarlah pulak brand lain contohnya Darlie, Sensodyne, Safi, Mukmin dan sebagainya. Korang ingat tak dulu Colgate ada kes campurkan benda haram dalam Colgate. Itulah kerja Yahudi.

4) Last sekali Pasaraya Tesco. Tokey besar Tesco ini memang orang Yahudi. Tukarlah pasaraya lain contohnya Giant, Carrefour, Pasaraya Segi, Econsave dan sebagainya. Untuk pengetahuan korang barang runcit yang paling murah nak di beli ialah kedai ubat Cina. Kalau tak percaya cuba selidik.

Coca-cola, Starbuck, Colgate dan Tesco. Kalau keempat-empat produk ini di tolak atau boikot bulat-bulat oleh rakyat Malaysia nescaya Amerika boleh mendapat kesusahan yang besar.

I feel so sad for your dr mahathir..there is so much hatred in your posts..

No matter how justified we feel we are, we must never take revenge into our own hands..Revenge belongs to God alone..

Besides, revenge is like a boomerang that will come back to hit its thrower.

I cannot believe that Islam actually tells people to kill the jews..it's evil to kill no matter who.

I am speaking from the perspective of a Christian.

Sejak berpuluh tahun lamanya, setiap kali umat Islam diperangi oleh AS ataupun Yahudi, maka laungan penyelesaian "boikot" barangan Amerika sering dilagukan. Sudah berapa kali siri pemboikotan dilakukan, apa yang nyata adalah, nyawa umat Islam semakin banyak yang melayang dan ekonomi AS dan Yahudi tetap teguh. Hakikatnya, apa yang menyumbang kepada kejatuhan ekonomi AS sekarang ini pun langsung tidak ada kena-mengena dengan pemboikotan oleh negara umat Islam, ia adalah krisis subprime yang berakar umbi dari sistem ekonomi Kapitalis itu sendiri – inilah yang menyebabkan kejatuhan ekonomi Amerika, dan bukannya pemboikotan barangan mereka oleh negara luar! Kenapa para pemimpin dan ulama masih seakan-akan buta melihat hakikat ini?

Bayangkanlah jika Malaysia sedang diperangi Amerika atau Yahudi, dan kaum keluarga serta sahabat handai kita mati bergelimpangan di bunuh musuh di sekeliling kita, peluru dan bom pula saban hari jatuh di depan mata, maka apakah kita mengharapkan (pada ketika ini) agar negara lain memboikot barangan Amerika dan Yahudi??? Atau apakah yang kita harapkan? Derma yang tak pernah kunjung tiba? Atau bantuan ubat-ubatan bagi yang telah meninggal? Atau kain selimut untuk menutup mayat-mayat? Atau apa???

Atau apakah pada ketika ini kita mengharapkan datangnya tentera-tentera umat Islam dari pelbagai negara untuk menyelamatkan kita? Manakah yang lebih menggembirakan kita, menunggu derma jutaan ringgit dari seluruh dunia atau menunggu bantuan ketenteraan untuk melawan Yahudi yang sedang mengganas? Sudah tentulah akal fikiran yang waras akan menjawab bahawa, saat ini kita sesungguhnya memerlukan bantuan ketenteraan dari tentera-tentera umat Islam!!!

Ya, inilah jawapan dan penyelesaian yang sebenar yang diperlukan oleh saudara-saudara kita di Gaza saat ini. Mereka memerlukan bantuan ketenteraan, bukannya bantuan simpati kemanusiaan! Dan mereka tidak menghendaki kita hanya memboikot barangan Yahudi di saat Yahudi sedang menyembelih mereka, satu demi satau, hari demi hari. Demi Allah! Sesungguhnya penyelesaian yang hakiki ke atas masalah Palestin adalah dengan menghantar tentera bagi berjihad melawan Israel di sana!!!

Sesungguhnya pemboikotan tidak akan memberikan apa-apa kesan untuk memberhentikan kesombongan Israel sedikitpun. Dan ia juga tidak akan menghentikan pembunuhan Israel ke atas umat Islam sedikitpun. Tapi malangnya inilah hakikat pemikiran yang dimiliki oleh sebahagian daripada umat Islam saat ini, hanya boikot sahaja yang dapat mereka fikirkan.

Sebagai seorang Muslim kita perlu melihat dan menyedari bahawa produk buatan Amerika dan Yahudi bukanlah hanya dalam bentuk barangan fizikal semata-mata tetapi lebih jauh dari itu ialah 'produk pemikiran' yang saat ini jauh lebih banyak diambil oleh umat Islam. Produk seperti nation-state (negara bangsa), demokrasi, HAM, Pluralisme, Liberalisme dan yang seumpamanya adalah produk pemikiran kuffar Barat yang sehingga kini masih dipegang kukuh termasuklah oleh ulama Islam.

UMNO yang memerintah Malaysia masih berpegang erat dengan segala produk pemikiran kufur di atas sehingga menyebabkan tidak ada seorang pun pemimpin UMNO yang kembali kepada Islam dan cuba menyelesaikan masalah Gaza dengan menghantar tentera ke sana. Apa guna memboikot produk fizikal Amerika dan Yahudi walhal produk pemikiran kufur mereka dipegang erat dan dijaga rapi!!! Produk pemikiran ini jauh lebih berbahaya dan inilah yang menyebabkan Gaza terus bermandi darah, kerana para pemimpin dan ulama yang ada masih berpegang teguh dengannya.

Produk pemikiran kufur menyatakan bahawa Malaysia ada batas sempadan negara sendiri (yang telah ditetapkan oleh British), maka akal para pemimpin dan ulama juga ternyata 'terbatas' pemikiran mereka oleh sempadan yang dicipta British. Mereka sudah tidak nampak dan tidak boleh pergi lebih jauh sedikit bahawa sempadan palsu ini hanyalah rekaan British semata-mata. Sesungguhnya sempadan ini langsung tidak wujud dan umat Islam adalah umat yang satu. Dan satu-satu penyelesaian yang diajar oleh Islam dalam memerangi orang-orang kafir yang sedang memerangi Islam adalah dengan jihad. Ya! Ini kerana situasi di Palestin sekarang adalah situasi perang, dan perang wajib dijawab dengan perang (jihad), apatah lagi yang membunuh umat Islam itu adalah kaum Yahudi laknatullah yang telah mempunyai sejarah kejahatan yang sejak lama terhadap Islam.

Setiap negara umat Islam mempunyai tenteranya yang tersendiri, namun tentera ini semuanya dimandulkan oleh pemerintah yang pengkhianat. Langsung tidak digerakkan ke medan jihad, walaupun di saat saudara-saudara kita di Palestin di sembelih dengan dahsyatnya oleh kaum terkutuk Yahudi. Semua ini berlaku kerana kuffar British telah mengajar bahawa, Palestin adalah negara 'orang lain', Malaysia negara kamu dan kamu tidak boleh langkau sempadan! Kedudukan kamu yang paling baik adalah berkecuali, menjadi negara-negara yang berkecuali dan jangan masuk campur urusan negara lain. Inilah 'ajaran' setan British yang sehingga kini masih tertanam dengan kukuh di minda pemimpin dan ulama Islam. Kerananya, tidak ramai ulama yang berani menggesa pemerintah agar melancarkan jihad di sana, kerana hal ini bermaksud 'mencampuri urusan negara lain'.

Jika benar kita berpegang teguh dengan Al-Quran dan Sunah, maka apa yang sepatutnya dilakukan oleh umat Islam masa kini, apatah lagi para ulama, adalah dengan menggesa pemerintah yang ada agar mengambil penyelesaian Al-Quran terhadap apa yang berlaku. Dan penyelesaian Al-Quran di dalam masalah ini tidak lain kecuali dengan menggerakkan tentera untuk berjihad melawan Israel yang sedang memerangi umat Islam. Inilah tindakan yang wajib diambil dalam keadaan sekarang. Firman Allah SWT,

"Perangilah orang-orang yang tidak beriman kepada Allah dan tidak (pula) kepada hari Kemudian, dan mereka tidak mengharamkan apa yang diharamkan oleh Allah dan RasulNya dan tidak beragama dengan agama yang benar (agama Allah), (yaitu orang-orang) yang diberikan Al-Kitab kepada mereka, sampai mereka membayar jizyah dengan patuh sedang mereka dalam keadaan tunduk" [TMQ at-Taubah (9):29].

"Perangilah mereka dan Allah akan mengazab mereka dengan tangan-tangan kalian dan menghinakan mereka serta membantu kalian mengalahkan mereka dan Allah akan melegakan hati-hati kaum Mukminin" [TMQ at-Taubah (9):14].

Hanya dengan Bergeraknya tentera dengan mengikuti perintah Allah dan Rasul, inilah sahaja jalan bagi menyelesaikan masalah umat Islam di Palestin, bukannya dengan boikot!!!maaf andaikata ada yang tidak puas ati kepada saya bila membaca ini..ini adalah luahan perasaan marah saya kepada zionis..

diharap tun dapat membalas ape yang saya katakan..sekian terima kasih.

Salam Tun & semua..

- 1.Kita memang lemah dari segi ekonomi dan pertahanan ,semuanya kerana negara2 oic tidak bersatu.
- 2.Sudah tiba masanya negara oic membentuk kesatuan sepertimana United States of America ataupun Kesatuan Soviet Union .Bersatu kita teguh,bercerai kita roboh.
- 3.Kesatuan ini harus mempunyai sektor kewangan(mengurus pendapatan minyak dan Negara secara Islam),buat mata wang sendiri.
- 4.Mempunyai sektor pendidikan( tambah jumlah universiti sebanyak mungkin untuk melahirkan jutaan saintis Islam supaya boleh menghasilkan semua barang keperluan umat islam sendiri),kajilah Al-Quran dari pandangan sains,bongkar rahsia nya sangat lah banyak dah yg orang kafir sendiri ambil isinya.Burung ababil tu nabi suruh kita buat fighter jet sendiri,kaum perempuan itu dari rusuk lelaki pun baru2 ni dah terbukti oleh saintis bahawa dari rusuk lelaki boleh cipta klon tapi yg berjantina perempuan. Nak contoh lagi Al-Quran itu adalah sains? Cuba baca perenggan akhir .

5. Mempunyai sektor pertahanan ( r&d dan memproduksi sendiri senjata darat, laut & udara), iran dah ada nuklear, Malaysia boleh buat kereta mesti juga boleh buat burung ababil yang menyerupai sukhoi/mig/f-16. Indonesia pun tepi jalan banyak jual senapang angin mesti boleh buat m16/ak-47/sniper, baru ni di media mereka student depa pun banyak buat missile jarak dekat.

6. Kesatuan ini hendaklah dimulakan oleh Tun yang sangat berpengaruh sementara masih hidup ini supaya dapat disambung oleh generasi berikut, kita ni mana lah orang nak dengar dan percaya . Tun boleh cuba untuk yakinkan Pak Lah melalui Kementerian Luarnya untuk buat proposal dan lawat semua kedutaan Negara oic, buat presentation dan yakinkan pemimpin2 negara oic ni, buat sebaik mungkin InsyAllah jalan. Takat duduk doa dan tawakal tapi takdak usaha mana burung ababil nak turun bawak batu berapi. Israel la ni dah bela burung ababil dan tabur batu berapi atas Gaza tu.

Ni contoh ayat Al-Quran yang mengandungi maksud sains:

Bismillahirohmanirohim:

Surah An-Naml , ayat 88:

Terjemahan: "Dan Engkau lihat gunung-gunung, kau sangka mereka diam di tempat, padahal mereka terbang melayang seperti awan."

dari pandangan sains:- Memang mata kasar kita tengok gunung manapun takkan bergerak, tapi kenapa firman Allah menyebutkan "padahal mereka terbang melayang seperti awan" ? tak ke kita rasa pelik? Mana boleh gunung terbang melayang pulak lagi seperti awan.

Sebenarnya ayat ni mempunyai tafsir ilmiah, dimana sains menemukan bahwa bumi kita ni sedang berputar dengan kelajuan 1670km per jam. Manusia yang tengah berdiri di permukaan ,tak rasa yang dirinya sebenarnya sedang bergerak secepat peluru, begitu juga gunung-gunung padahal kita nampak gunung-gunung tak bergerak sedikitpun. Pada masa yang sama juga bumi melayang mengelilingi matahari dengan kelajuan yang lebih tinggi lagi iaitu 108,000km per jam. Jadi manusia dan gunung-gunung nampak saja diam ,tapi faktanya sedang bergerak 60 kali kelajuan peluru. Allahu Akbar...

Tun,

Yes, boycotting US and their Greenback dollar is the best idea i have heard. I personally believe that is much better than sending troops to Gaza or collecting donation to the war casualties. Having say that, we can't let them (the casualties) suffer, so we still have to help those who in needs.

Helping those who in need in Gaza will only stop the bleeding but we have to go to the cause and by BOYCOTTING it will. It won't happen overnight but they will get the effect in the future.

BOYCOTTING is not just stop eating McD or Starbuck as the enemy know that is our next move in the big chess game. That is why it seems so hard to do.. Its in the Mind and how we live our life... Hope everybody understand..

And too bad the Arabs are made to kowtow to the damn American and western countries who just sit and watch those children and babies being murdered.

My prayers is that God would show his mercy on the Palestinians and spread disastrous plague that will ruin Israel and America and its people.

The Americans are bunch of bastards.
The Israelis/ Jews are damned race in the world which will be burnt in hell undoubtedly.

NO POINT IN BOYCOTTING TEMPORARILY.
NO POINT SENDING SMSES ASKING FOR BOYCOTT WHEN YOU STILL BUY ALL OTHER

Salam Tun,

I do not think Obama will do anything much on this matter at all.

He is busy cleaning up the White House putting in another bunch of Jewish lovers and believers everywhere in his departments. Otherwise, he would have long gone six feet under and would not be able to sit in that chair now.

So, the murderer is taking this time killing and swiping off the Palestinians from their ground, while Obama wrote 'nice 'letter to his daughters. Bullshit.

Damn you Americans.
Your government is a total murderer and rapist of world freedom and sovereignty.

salam ayahanda dan bonda, diharap berada di dalam keadaan sihat walafiat hendaknya...
terima kasih yang tidak terhingga ayahanda di atas penerangan serta jawapan yang diberikan kpd soalan anakanda semalam..
mmg benar, mungkin kita begitu kerdil jika ingin dibandingkan dgn kelengkapan dan kecanggihan ketenteraan milik "Kerajaan Angkuh" diluar sana yang terus biadap membunuh insan2 tidak berdosa di bumi suci palestina, tp sy percaya seperti yang dinyatakan oleh ayahanda, kita masih mampu menyuarakan rasa marah, benci serta kecewanya kita dengan tindakan seperti 'binatang' kerajaan2 angkuh tersebut dengan memboikot barangan mereka. apalah sgt dgn tidak dpt menghirup coca cola jika hendak dibandingkan dengan limpahan darah yang terus menerus di tanah palestina. mungkin kita tidak mempunyai kekuatan ketenteraan atau gah dari segi peralatan2 canggih (wlpun pada dasarnya kita tahu kewujudannya hanya utk menghancurkan dan membunuh), tapi kita adalah rakyat yang saya percaya masih mempunyai kekuatan HATI dan kecanggihan MINDA di mana kita masih mempunyai dan dikurniakan perasaan belas kasihan, perikemanusiaan dan cintakan keamanan. Saya berharap kempen memboikot barangan dari US dan ISRAEL ini dpt sambutan secara total dari masyarakat dunia secara amnya dan rakyat di negara kita secara khususnya....Amin...
Salam Sayang dari anakanda buat ayahanda dan bonda....

another approach would be for the Muslim world to unite and slowly get control of the financial world (if only it can happen in the near future). We had the window of opportunity opened for a short period of time last year. The collapse of Lehman Bro., FMs, AIG and the like... the Muslim world should have taken the opportunities then to infiltrate into these near-bankrupt institutions. Once we get hold on the big boys of the financial world we can at least dictate the source of fund that goes around the globe. But then, we were busy fighting each other... God knows why...

Tun.

Apa lah daya kita. Nak berperang dengan Amerika dan Israel dah tentu lah tak mampu dengan hanya cuma satu dua squadron Sukoi atau MiG. Dua buah scorpene bukan lah kekuatan yang mampu untuk menyerang USA dan Israel.

Tapi kalau kita semua atau sebahagian rakyat Malaysia bersedia memBOIKOT sebahagian produk Amerika, saya pasti lebih berkesan untuk jangka panjang.

Minuman coca cola tidak baik untuk kesihatan kerana ia bolih menyebabkab diabetes.

Jenama yang berasaskan kopi 'Tongkat Ali' tempatan lebih baik dari 'Starbuck'.

Walau bagaimana pun saya setuju jika askar2 kita berperang jihad dengan yahudi laknat jika waktu itu benar2 memerlukan kita untuk membantu Palestin. Maksudnya didalam kumpulan anggota tentera UN atau negara2 Islam yang lain lah, tak kan tentera kita saja yang terlibat.

Izinkan.

Saya rasa si michael ni orang yahudi, marah betui dia kat TUN.

Orang yahudi memang tak berhati perut. Menghina negara kecil seperti Malaysia. Tapi saya rasa dia takut kalau kita mulakan kempen perang saraf boikot barangan yahudi. Dah pasti ada impak nya.

Asalamualaikum Tun,

We share similar sentiment on the plight of Palestine people.

What most Malaysians (and the rest of the world) doesn't know is;

Althought boycotting sounds a bit ridiculous, it is NOT the END RESULT we seek. Instead what matters the most is the EFFORT placed on to help the Palestine people!

Perhaps, now is the best time to strike the Americans (by boycotting). Their economy is still weakening due to recession and Tun has a good point, any percentage of sales drop in any of these US/Israel products could at least teach this evil people a good lesson.

The Muslims are not totally united, we do not own any military power supremacy, we do not have powerful economic backbone (unlike certain fuel rich countries at Middle East), we are not sociologically accepted by the world (being mislabeled as terrorist) and we are not educationally verse too. Even with these weaknesses we will throw whatever we have to fight of these evil twin terrorists (US/Israel)! May Allah bless and unite us all Muslims against our common enemy!

A quote from one of the Prophet Muhammad s.a.w. hadith:

*****

“from MSN Groups Soldiers-of-Allah@groups.msn.com“

The Holy Prophet peace be upon him said :

“When you see black flags coming from Khorasaan, then you must join them, even though you have to be dragged in the snow...Mahdi, will be amongst them." (Ahmed/Baihaqi)

Terjemahan:

Rasulullah s.a.w. pernah bersabda kira-kira bermaksud :

"Apabila kamu melihat bendera-bendera hitam dari arah Khorasaan, maka hendaklah kamu menyertai mereka, walaupun kamu akan diheret di dalam salji; yakni Mahdi akan berada dikalangan mereka".
(Ahmed/Baihaqi)

Lagi petikan tentang tempat bernama Khorasaan:

This definition tells that the following area is included in the Historical region of Ancient Khorasan.

- Northern Part of Iran,
- Afghanistan,
- North Western Part of Pakistan and,
- Southern parts of Central Asian Turkish states like Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan.

Insyallah, Kebathilan akan dimusnahkan oleh cahaya yang Hak!

A messiah will come to lead us! To the US/Israel, your days are numbered!

tp mcm Tok Det kata laa..... mana ada gomen yang setuju camtu.. sebabnya satu ja, kita lemah, orang tak takut dekat kita... ekonomi punya kekuatan kita tadak, yillek, nada, boliau.....//

**Kita bermula dari BOYCOTT produk Amerika/Israel, Pak Lah & koncu2nya, PAS yang berpakat dengan Anwar, Raja Petra dan KJ, DAP yang suka ikut stail Singapore supaya Malaysia akan kembali menjadi kuasa yang penting (bukan sombang dan tidak berperikemanusiaan) di rantau ASEAN, jadi Malaysia akan disokong kembali bila kita bersatu kerana Tokdet, itulah yang kita kena buat mulai pada hari ini thro "blogging to Unblog by Dr Mathathir Mohamad", strategi Malaysia yang terbaru dan canggih di dunia!!!!

I lega hati bila I lihat Starbuck tutup kedai di kawasan cina, kerana ramai cina dah fed-up dengan America yang asyik memburukan dan memiskinkan negara China via Taiwan dan Singapura.

Malaysia adalah negara yang paling strategik untuk kuasa Amerika di ASEAN. Tetapi kerana Tokdet kita tidak melayan mereka selepas 1998, Amerika support Singapura. Yang sedihnya, Pak Lah lupa diri, bangsa dan agama, Tokdek kita dimaki hamun dan belasah. JOM, tokapi, mari kita BOYCOTT PAK LAH, KJ, Pak Musa-ng Hitam dan koncu2nya.

Kepada Nazri (ketua MACC), betul apa hang kata semalam, rakyat dah bijak, jadi, jangan main2 (dengan rakyat)!!!. Hang tau apa yang rakyat nak, iaitu RAKYAT TAK NAK RASUAH & POLITIK WANG yang boleh mengadaikan negara kita kepada anjing Israel dan America, jangan lupa, rakyat dah faham maksud pepaduan dan keselamatan negara!!!
Selamat tahun baru Muslim, Tokapi.

Good day Tun.

Tun,

Instead of promoting Boycott Israel's products or companies supporting Israel, govt all around the world, including bankers and politicians should promote competition. There are around 24 super huge companies with thousands of smaller companies subsidiaries of them, that support Israel, which makes its almost impossible for people all around the world to boycott them. Malaysia and other countries should invest heavily on producing alternative consumer products to compete with these 24 companies. The key, ORGANIZE ORGANIZE ORGANIZE. Financial assistance, supporting policies, Awards should be given for any companies that are determine/striving to compete with these 24 companies. For every country that protest against Israel, must contribute to form and shape companies that produce or supply alternative products to those supplied/produced by those 24 companies. And of course...profit sharing. We battle by competing in production not boycotting. Below is the list of 24 huge companies

AOL Time Warner, Apax Partners & Co Ltd, Coca-Cola, Danone, Delta Galil, Disney Estée Lauder, IBM, Johnson & Johnson, Kimberly-Clark, Lewis Trust Group Ltd, L'Oreal, Marks & Spencer, Nestle, News Corporation, Nokia, Revlon, Sara Lee, Selfridges, The Limited Inc , Home Depot, Intel, Starbucks, Timberland, McDonald's, Arsenal FC

Education for the working class plays an important role. Islamic banking (no interest) should be promoted. We send our kids to oversea to learn the western way of building wealth (In debt we trust) and they come back being in 'flying geese' pattern trying to follow westerners that are in the game 100 years ahead. But how do we get out of the circle? Everyone wants easy money, put money in bank, gain interest, and let the money work for you. Western propaganda. Reduce interest rate close to 0. Cooperate with other countries to change current currency practice of using US dollars to using currency of economies with zero debt until Tun's idea of Dinar possibly recognized.. Drastic move? Today's news that Bank of America has miscalculated their debts and requires more fund from Federal. I believe next 4 years, US economy will soon collapse. US however is a huge ONE country, EU with many disagreement between members is suspected to collapse before US.

Tun, with your influence and brain, you could open an international club for companies, leaders, the riches, the intellects, muslims and non muslims from around the world that suspicious/fear of Jewish monopoly. With unity of those that 'soon gonna be' panic from Zionist aggression, more improved outcome could be achieve.

Sekian, M. Halim

Salam kasih dan hormat Ayahanda Tun.

In my 2 cents observations, what the Americans really need to do is to kick both Democrats and Republicans out from Washington. Then they should turn Pentagon into a budget motel with wireless internet access for fast money making spins. Over the years there has never been any real heavyweight contenders for these two. The Democratic Party traces its origins to the Democratic-Republican Party, founded by Thomas Jefferson, James Madison, and other prominent opponents of the Federalists in 1792. Conversely, the modern Democratic Party arose in the 1830s, led by Andrew Jackson. While the Republican (often called the Grand Old Party or the GOP), was founded in Jackson, Michigan, in 1854 by anti-slavery expansion activists and reformers to the old American doctrines. These two parties have been helming the power batons over the past 200 years of the US history.

In America, even Elvis is Jewish and almost just about everything is Jewish. For the past several decades, and especially since the Six-Day war in 1967 and the Yom Kippur War in 1973, the focus of US Middle Eastern policy has been its affiliation with the state of Israel. The mishmash of untiring support for Israel and the related effort in "democratizing" the Arab world and the region has successfully inflamed Arab and Islamic civilizations of the world today. This condition simply has no equal in American political record. So why has the US willingly sets aside her own safety and that of many of her allies in order to press forward the interests of another state? You may imagine that the bond between US & Israel was based on strategic benefits or even convincing ethical necessities, but neither clarification could account for the significant level of material and diplomatic support that the US had over the years provided Israel with. In truth, it's the US domestic politics that's doing all the US foreign policies agenda. Through the activities of the 'Israel Lobby' groupings, they have managed to slant foreign policies, but at the same time - being very cautious as not to divert it as far from what the real national interest would imply, while simultaneously convincing voting Americans that US interests and Israel are fundamentally identical.

Since the October War in 1973 during the Menachem Begin era, Washington has been steadily providing Israel with a level of support dwarfing that given to any other state. It has been the largest annual recipient of direct economic and military assistance since 1976, and is the largest recipient in total since WW2, to the tune of well over $140 billion (in 2004 dollars). Israel receives about $3 billion in direct assistance each year, roughly one-fifth of the foreign aid budget, and worth about $500 a year for each and every Israeli. Other recipients get their money in quarterly installments, but Israel receives its entire sum at the beginning of each fiscal year and can thus earn huge interest on it by way of laundering it through the massive Jewish global financial networks. It is the only recipient that does not have to account for how the aid is spent, such as building settlements on the West Bank. Moreover, the US has provided Israel with nearly $3 billion to develop weapons systems, and given it access to such top weaponry. Finally, the US gives Israel access to intelligence it denies to its Nato allies and has turned a blind eye to Israel's acquisition of nuclear weapons.

Washington also provides Israel with consistent diplomatic support. Since 1982, the US has vetoed 32 United Nations Security Council resolutions critical of Israel, which figure more than the total number of vetoes cast by all the other Security Council members. It blocks the efforts of Arab states to put Israel's nuclear arsenal on the IAEA's agenda. Nonetheless, at the insistence and leads by the Israelis, Washington had successfully pushed for the IAEA to pressure other Islamic states in the region to comply with the IAEA resolutions. And Israel was even successful in getting the US to use the deceitful IAEA reports to invade Iraq, capture Saddam, hanged Saddam and tap into all those oil barrels for themselves. Its perhaps part of the grand Jewish New World Order agenda, the illuminati, the Wolfowitzs, The World Bank, The Soros and their affiliates across the globe that has been placed strategically to respond to their masters on a minute notice.

This extraordinary US generosity might be understandable if Israel were a vital strategic asset or if there were a compelling moral case for US backing. But neither explanation is convincing. One may state that Israel was an asset during the Cold War days - by serving as America's proxy in the region (post 1967), it helped contain the USSR war machine in the region and inflicted crushing defeats on Soviet patrons like Egypt and Syria. It occasionally helped protect other US allies (like Jordan and now Kuwait) and its military ability had forced Moscow to spend more on backing its own client states thus expediting the threats of the once Cold War era. But now almost all of those reasons mentioned above has expires. So what else is that to it that still bonds Americans, from the cradle to the grave to these Jewish agenda? Perhaps that over the years both the Democrats and the Republicans has been taken over lock stock and barrel by the Jewish lobbyist in America. The two large political parties are in truth the same one owned by just one entity – the Jews. All those democratic elections and process are just window dressings for the world. And they keep the rest of the world believing in them by flaunting their military might and world dominance agenda and the legendary UN veto votes.

So the rest of the free world can start by removing that golden veto vote, then go on to replace the Democrats and Republicans in Washington, and somewhere down the line, replace the USD as world trading currencies to something else. Or start from the bottom (with replacing the USD into gold dinars) like what Tun had been suggesting, and work our way up to the top of the list. More and more Americans are waking up to this reality, and some movements are sprouting across America today in the quest of wakening their long slumbered ignorant fellow Americans on this very real facts: that slavery never ended in America. It was merely reinvented and rescaled to include each and every Americans of legal drafting age into a slave-master relationship with the state of Israel. And now with Obama taking the White House on a silver platter made in Israel, its interesting to see the culmination to this Kunta Kinte epic.

Tun, I apologize for my long and winding comment on the subject, but it's just not everyday in my life that I get to share my views with a world renowned statesman from my life time such as your most honored self Tun. Best regards, warm wishes and love from all of us here. Thank you sir.

Giving 'nationality' to the Chinese and Indian and on the other hand, the Chinese and Indian agreed to NOT take the Malay's right as the owner of the land.For many many years we had live peacefully in respect to our ancestor's deal towards each other. And having total idiot and brainless homosapien like you as Malaysia Citizen will be the only factor contributing to disaster in the country. Hope you are not from ANY of us.Of course , We do have a few people like you around but most of us do understand history.Most important we understand the meaning of the word "PEACE" very well.PEACE here and anywhere in the world.

Selagi ada Yahudi di muka bumi ini, selagi itulah dunia tidak akan aman buat selama-lamanya. Dalam beberapa ayat Al-Quraan ada menyebut bahawasanya bangsa ini mempunyai sikap dan sifat yang berdolak dalih, suka bermusuhan, putar belit, pembunuh, mengadu domba dan bermacam-macam lagi yang menuju kearah kehancuran muka bumi ini. Sebab itulah Presiden Iran Mahmod Ahmadenejad mengeluarkan kejyataan bahawasanya Israel perlu dilupuskan dari peta dunia demi keamanan muka bumi.

Saya sokong seratus peratus untuk kita sebagai orang islam tidak membeli dan mengguna barangan daripada negara Amerika dan Israel supaya dapat sedikit sebanyak membantut ekonomi bangsa laknatullah.

To some it all up, the Palestinians has the pity of the world. Israel and America will continue with their policies and practices, they will never change.

Boycott? Tactic and strategy is too naïve and wouldn't work today. We can't go back to the kampung ways.

UN is a toothless tiger.

Solution? Not deliberately breaking anyone's moral grounds, but there is nothing we can do.

Change takes years if not decades and centuries.

Obama should do the right thing. If not, Americans can vote again....

Salam Tun,

There are a lot that we should do. We should;

1. Our fatwa council should come up with a fatwa to ban the smoking among Muslims in Malaysia as we believe all cigarette companies are related to Jewish.

2. We should not rely only on UN. Israel-Palestine conflict is going on for more than 60 years. Shall we wait until there is no more Palestinians around before we could take any action. Why wait for those As-Sauds, they are just a baghal clowns created by Jewish proxy known as 'Lion of the dessert'. OIC is the best platform to do anything yet our PM is still in his 'denial sindrom'. OIC should re consider gold dinar instead of the bloody dollar.

3. YOU should lead this OIC or nothing can be achieve. Why bet on our moron PM?

GoodDay TUN,

Actually boycotting the American products such as Coca Cola, Starbucks or Mc Donals are the most effective way of telling the Americans that we hate your guts. Personnally i think the next American government should think about how to handle there foreign policy with other country especially in the Middle East region. History tells us that the Americans has never won a war which they actually started just for the name of bringing democracy to the that country. They lost the war in Vietnam, North Korea, Iraq and now there are actually going to lose the war in Afganistan and in Gaza.

Everbody knows that President Bush is a Baffoon. His face and act tells it all. His 8 years of incharge of America have brought terror to the Muslim world. And Israel has always been a pet dog to him.

I hope somebody prosecute this guy before he dies of old age. He is just a crap up dog with no human feelings or a brain.

Assalamualaikum w.b.t,

Tun,

Kita di Malaysia seringkali berdemo dengan membakar bendera Amerika untuk menunjukkansokongan kepada Palestin. Mungkin kita terlepas pandang kesengsaraan Palestin disebabkan tiada kesatuan di antara orang Arab itu sendiri. Sedangkan negara-negara Arab kaya raya dan menghabiskan @ mengguna bajet perbelanjaan negara dengan membeli senjata canggih lebih daripada perbelanjaan senjata Amerika sendiri.

Jadi adalah lebih baik kita menggesa dan memberi tekanan agar Negara-negara Arab bersatu dan bantu Palestin. Kita demo depan kedutaan negara Arab, kita bakar bendera negara-negara Arab kita tunjukkan dan kita cuba bangunkan orang Arab itu sendiri. Mereka berkemampuan untuk bantu dan mereka adalah saudara Islam yang paling hampir kedudukan dengan Palestin. Kita putus hubungan dengan negara Arab, kuatkan kerjasama dengan Venezuela dan Bolivia, itu lebih baik.

Tiada guna kita bakar bendera Amerika, tiada hasil hanya umpama angin lalu... Negara Arab perlu disedarkan dari lena mereka yang panjang... Sedarkan mereka dengan pengetahuan sejarah yang sepatutnya mereka tahu. Sesungguhnya Islam itu kuat jika semua bersatu!

Saya yakin jika Tun masih jadi PM, Tun akan ambilkira pandangan saya yang tak seberapa ini.

Semoga Allah mencucuri rahmat kepada roh saudara kita yang gugur di Palestin bumi Anbia... Dan Allah panjangkan umur Tun dan isteri, Insya Allah.

hanya orang yg berfikiran cetek, akan membuat sesuatu yang meluru ...

keadaan di Gaza bukannya berlaku pertama kali, namun ia BERULANG-ULANG sejak berpuluh-puluh tahun ... berapa ramaikah umat Islam yg tidak berdosa telah dibunuh oleh Amerika dan Israel yg zalim? jawapannya tidak dapat dihitungkan ...

setiap kali komuniti Islam dizalim, pertubuhan bangsa-bangsa bersatu tidak berbuat apa-apa. Ramai yang berarak, memboikot, membakar bendera dan mengamuk ...

INGAT ... sekiranya tindakan mengamuk boleh membawa penyelesaian di Gaza, sudah lama issue Gaza dapat diselesaikan dan bukannya sehinggalah hari ini ramai umat Islam masih dizalimi ...

PENTING ... jangan lupa media di dunia ini dikuasai oleh Barat .. setiap kali perarakan dan tunjuk perasaan diadakan, lebih-lebih lagi membakar bendera negara orang lain ... situasi ini memberi imej kepada golongan BUKAN Islam satu PRASANGKA bahawa itu satu gejala yang liar ... sebab itu, negara lain yg tidak terlibat secara langsung wujudnya kebimbangan terhadap tindakan sebegini ... ini adalah SEBAB UTAMA mengapa negara lain tidak memberi sokongan yg PADU, sekiranya kepentingan mereka tergugat apabila menentang Amerika ...

INGAT ... siapa yg berkuasa, mereka mampu mempergunakan media untuk memberikan maklumat yang memihak kepada mereka sendiri ... Saya rasa Tun ketahu benar dengan situasi ini ... Di Malaysia, setiap tunjuk perasaan yg diadakan, walaupun pada sesetengah orang, itulah satu "perjuangan" ... namun dengan kekuasaan kerajaan terhadap media utama ... segala kelakuan sepanjang tunjuk perasaan, DIPAPARKAN sebagai TINDAKAN LIAR yg bertujuan untuk mendapat sokongan PIHAK NEUTRAL ...

Daripada mengamuk, alternatif lain perlu digesa dengan secepat mungkin supaya kezaliman terhadap umat Islam yg tidak berdosa di Gaza dihentikan serta merta ...

(1) Menghantar rombongan wakil ke negara-negara asing untuk mendapatkan sokongan .. setakat menyurat sahaja tidak menunjukkan keikhlasan ...

- Inilah satu-satunya kaedah yg boleh menghapuskan prasangka negara lain agar mereka memberi sokongan yg sejati ...

Oleh yg demikian ... sila BENAR-BENAR menghukurkan bantuan yg IKHLAS ... dan bukan sekadar hendak menunjukkan KEMEGAHAN diri ... berikanlah "bantuan" yang benar-benar "membantu" ....

mengamuk itu tidak dapat membawa penyelesaian ...

Dear Tun,

At the beginning, I have the same thought with u when u say u wish u could send the MAF to attack the US and Israeli BUT after giving a longer thought, I thought, why do we bother when the OIC, the biggest Islamic Organization can only act as the "Oh I see" Organization. I wonder what has pulled them back from defending each other. OIC was much more stronger during your time as our PM. You had given them a magical strength every time you stand at the podium But as the tenure had been passed on, the Arabs country seems to ignore the role of OIC in restoring PEACE in the gulf. I believe should OIC unite, neither US nor Israeli have the guts to attack the Muslim countries. Why were they so selfish when after all they will be the next country to be attacked by the US?

Good Morning Tun,

A very hard hitting piece indeed, sir.

You all should read John Perkins's confession of an Economic Hit Man and The Secret History of the American Empire. Perkins was such a Economic Hit Man and gives us an insider expose of the going on of the American diabolical schemes. This includes, assassinations, corruption, blackmail, sex traps and all the thing we thought were James Bond film plots.

How heinous can people in power get. He expose them with names and places.

The South American have fought back and their shining light and spokesman is Hugo Chaves. But the American power players (Perkins call them Corporatocracy - involving American Big Businesses / corporations who wield sway over the "elected goverment of the day"). From there the complicity of the CIA, IMF, World Bank all come into play. They will resort to any thing to get what they want.

We must fear for Obama as two previous true democrates John Kennedy and Abraham Lincon were assinated. Obama needs to watch his back and his actions so as not to be trapped in the deceit of the Corporatocracy.

The Isreal issue is part of the strategy for them to hold sway over the Oil in Saudi Arabia. Oil powers the machinery of these corporations - it is their lifeline to wealth and power - so they MUST at all cost control it.

They are now making Colombia the Isreal of South America. Don't be surprise if Singapore is a candidate for such a role for South East Asia hovering over Indonesia (an Oil Producing Country). Malaysia under the stewardship of TUN had prevented Malaysia being made use of.

Under Pak Lah and KJ we are not too sure now, esp. after seeing what is going on so far.

In any event, yes Tun you are correct we will not be able to make a dent on the Americans with our boycott, as is.

BUT the Saudis; and all Muslim must pressure the Saudi king to NOT SELL THEIR OIL IN US DOLLARS AND NOT TO INVEST THEIR OIL MONEY IN THE US!!!!!! If the people of Brazil, Venezuela, Bolivia, Ecuador and Iran can do it why not the Saudis, the Kuwaitis, the UAEs, the Iraqis???

With what is happening in GAZA the SAUDI KINGS have the blood of the children of GAZA on their hands. And if the Saudi people do not act - they too will have the blood of the innocent children of Gaza on their hands.

May ALLAH give us the strength to oppose such evil deeds.

Wassalam.

Assalamualaikum Ayahanda Tun,

Not only limited on boycotting Coca-Cola. Append below please find other 8 brands which directed directly to Israel and I think it is no harm for us not to produce or consume them:

1. Coca Cola

From 1966 onward Coca-Cola has been a staunch supporter of Israel. In 1997 the Government of Israel Economic Mission honored Coca-Cola at the Israel Trade Award Dinner for its continued support of Israel for the last 30 years and for refusing to abide by the Arab League boycott of Israel. [ In contrast Pepsi abided by the Arab League boycott of Israel which ended in May 1991, after 1992 Pepsi is also trading in Israel]

In 2001 the Coca-Cola World Headquarters hosted and was the main sponsor of the American-Israel Chamber of Commerce Awards Gala. It has been revealed that Coca-Cola Israel sponsors training programs for its workers on subjects including the Israeli-Arab conflict. The course content is created by a company funded by the Jewish Agency and the Israeli government.

In February 2002, Coca-Cola teamed up with "Friends of Israel" and National Hillel to cosponsor a lecture given by the infamous Zionist correspondent Linda Gradstein at the University of Minnesota. In July 2002, it has been announced that Coca-Cola, in return for millions in incentives from the Israeli government, is to build a new plant on stolen Palestinian land at Kiryat Gat. In October 2005, Coca-Cola increased its investment in Israel by buying a 51 percent controlling interest in the Tavor Winery.

2. McDonalds

McDonald's is the largest and best-known global food service retailer with more than 30,000 restaurants in 121 countries. McDonald's chairman and CEO Jack M. Greenberg is an honorary director of the American-Israel Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Inc., of Metropolitan Chicago.

According to the Chicago Jewish Community Online (website of the Jewish United Fund of Metropolitan Chicago), McDonald's Corporation whose global headquarters is based just outside Chicago is a major corporate partner of the Jewish United Fund and Jewish Federation.

Through its Israel Commission, the Jewish United Fund "works to maintain American military, economic and diplomatic support for Israel; monitors and, when necessary, responds to media coverage of Israel"

The Jewish United Fund runs "Fun-filled Summer Family Missions to Israel" (the next one is on Aug 19 2002) where families get to "visit an army base and meet with Israeli soldiers" and "visit our sister city, Kiryat Gat and see the important work we are doing there"[3]. Kiryat Gat, you may be aware from the Boycott Intel Campaign, is built on stolen Palestinian land - the lands of the villages of Iraq Al Manshiya and Al-Faluja whose residents were ethnically cleansed in 1949 in contravention of International Law[6]. Through its "Partnership to Israel" programme, the Jewish United Fund provides $1.3 million annually[5] to help the development of Kiryat Gat and to promote further illegal settlement there.

In the Jewish United Funds outreach program they pay for Christian leaders and American high school kids to visit Israel and be fed Zionist lies. McDonalds entered the Israeli market in 1993 and now has 80 restaurants across Israel, providing employment to some 3000 Israelis.

3. Starbucks

Howard Shultz, the chairman of Starbucks is an active Zionist. In 1998 he was honoured by the Jerusalem Fund of Aish HaTorah with "The Israel 50th Anniversary Friend of Zion Tribute Award" for his services to the Zionist state in "playing a key role in promoting close alliance between the United States and Israel". The Jerusalem Fund of Aish HaTorah funds Israeli arms fairs chaired by the butcher of Jenin - General Shaul Mofaz, and the Zionist propaganda website honestreporting.com.

His work as a propagandist for Israel has been praised by the Israeli Foreign Ministry as being key to Israel's long-term PR success.

Recently whilst the Israeli army was slaughtering Palestinians in Jenin, Nablus and Bethlehem he made a provocative speech blaming the Palestinians of terrorism, suggesting the Intifada was a manifestation of anti-Semitism, and asked people to unite behind Israel.

At a time when other businesses were desperately pulling out of Israel, Starbucks decided to help Israel's floundering economy and invest in Israel - a joint venture with Israeli conglomerate Delek Group for Starbucks outlets in Israel (Shalom Coffee Co). A bad business decision - Starbucks made heavy losses and in April 2003 Starbucks were forced to announce that all 6 Starbucks cafes in Israel will be shut down and its partnership with Delek end. It has been revealed that Starbucks still continues to support Israel by sponsoring fund raisers for Israel.

4. Revlon

Financier and cosmetics billionaire Ronald Perleman, who controls cosmetics maker Revlon, is a Zionist. Also owns New World Entertainment & Forbes. He supports Zionist causes - for example he is a trustee of The Simon Wiesenthal Center which uses the Holocaust to promote Zionism and Israel.

5. Nokia

Nokia have started to invest heavily in Israel. Nokia general manager Lars Wolf said in an interview with The Jerusalem Post (4 March 2001): "We are really focusing on Israel from all perspectives, because we have an internal project called 'Project Israel' which means we are looking at Israel from a networks perspective, from the perspective of Nokia Ventures Organization, and also from the perspective of Nokia Research Center". Nokia Venture Partners, a branch of Nokia Ventures Organization, launched a new $500 million fund in December 2000 and allowed that a "disproportionate" amount of it would go into Israeli companies. Nokia Research Center is on the lookout for Israeli start-ups with which it can cooperate.

6. Arsenal

Arsenal Football Club has just signed (26th February) a sponsorship deal to promote Israel as a tourist destination. The £350,000 agreement makes Israel Arsenal's "official and exclusive travel destination." Israel will be featured on digital perimeter boards and 450 high-definition LCD screens at the stadium on game days. The tourism ministry will also have access to the club's official website Arsenal.com, database and magazine to promote Israel as a holiday destination.

The televised ads will reach audiences of up to 700 million in an estimated 198 countries. The Israeli Tourism Ministry will also receive intellectual property rights, the use of the team logo and the right to use photos of the team and its players in ads. For an additional fee, Arsenal players will also appear in the ads. The deal doesn't stop with promoting Israel but actually grants Israel a physical presence in the stadium. The Israeli Tourism Ministry can use the stadium's banquet hall twice a year and can organize an exhibition at the end of the playing season. The stadium will also feature permanent sales tables for t-shirts.

The two-year sponsorship deal begins at the start of next football season in six months' time. With the world boycotting Israel as a tourist destination Israeli tourism minister Abraham Hirschson admitted employing Ernst & Young financial advisers to help develop a new strategy to entice people to Israel. He estimated that the sponsorship deal will bring in an additional 2 million tourists to Israel annually. Arsenal's managing director, Keith Edelman at a press conference in Israel explained how Arsenal could help sell apartheid Israel: "We are the largest club in London and have 30 million fans around the world. We are in the forefront of the anti-racism campaign in England and have an excellent brand that can promote any product ... we will assist Israel become a more popular destination". He also promised "when we find the time, club representatives and players will come to visit Israel."

7. Estee-Lauder

Estée Lauder's chairman, Ronald Lauder, also one time chairman of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations, is the current president of the Jewish National Fund (JNF) - a quasi-governmental agency whose main function is to legitimize Israeli occupation of Palestinian land. Ronald Lauder is an ardent Zionist, his activities have been catalogued by American Muslims for Jerusalem who called for a boycott in February 2001. In fact his views are often more extreme than some Israeli governments!

8. Johnson & Johnson

Johnson & Johnson purchased Israeli company Biosense for $400 million. In 1998, Mr. Roger S. Fineon behalf of Johnson & Johnson, received the Jubilee Award by the Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu. This is the highest tribute ever awarded by the "State of Israel" in recognition of those individuals and organizations, that through their investments and trade relationships, have done the most to strengthen the Israeli economy.

9. L'Oreal

After being fined $1.4 million by the US in 1995 for writing a letter to the Arab League claiming that they had stopped production in Israel, they have been engaged in actively courting Israel with investments and large-scale commerce.

American Jewish Congress has expressed "keen satisfaction that L'Oreal has become a warm friend of Israel". L'Oreal has established Israel as its commercial center in the Middle East and has increased investment and manufacturing activities ranging from a new production line established in Migdal Haemek, to joint research and development projects with Israeli affiliates, as well as education and public service campaigns. In 1998 Mr. Pascal Castres St Martin of L' Oreal, received the Jubilee Award by the Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu. This is the highest tribute ever awarded by the "State of Israel" in recognition of those individuals and organizations, that through their investments and trade relationships, have done the most to strengthen the Israeli economy.

Please boycott the above mentioned products. We can make a difference. Save Palestine people!!!

Dr. M

For you to clump all Americans as being hated is despicable. I just got back from an oversea trip and Americans are still very much loved. It is people like you that send the wrong messages to the world and to your incorrigible blind supporters of your propanganda. We Americans recognise that not all Malaysians are fanatics or blind followers of your nonsense. Thus not all Malaysians are bad. A lot of them hates your policies when you were in power.

America has plenty of compassion and not all Americans support death and destruction to the innocents. However ,we do not have any qualms at all to use all the might at our disposal to destroy terrorists and people who wants to kill us. September 11 changed all our outlook and trust of things. We are more guarded and will fight back anywhere this time. Hamas is a terrorist group and has publicly called for the destruction of America. The Palestinian people have chosen Hamas and has to face the unfortunate reality of death and destruction. Just like in WW2 when the Germans chose the Nazis and the Japanese chose the Emperor. The rest is history and innocent people gets killed.

A man of your statue should realize the intricacies of world politics and reality. What you are trying to do to make yourself out as the holier than thou saviour of the Islamic countries is a continuous joke. I would prefer that you look at yourself in the mirror and ask whether you yourself is a racist and holds elephant memory grudges. Let the blind hatred of you being mistaken for a servant driver's friend in Singapore go once and for all. It is only eating you alive inside and clouding your judgement of equating Singapore with Israel and the United States. After all you are an old man now and needs to clear your conscience.

Boycott all you want as we are "THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA". God bless America and the defacto 51st state of America- "Israel"

Dear Tun,

Do not waste any more time to boycott America or Israel now. Since they are super power and would like to fight and control the world, those countries who dislike them shall unite together to settle the problems with them by force! Let the war settle their disputes....

I just hate of what the UNSC has done. They have spent too much time to discuss and compromise the issue with the world leaders... in fact they should have sent UN troops to keep the cease fire or if not just attack Israel so to make him withdraw from Palestine. Do you know how many innocent civilians will die just for a day delay? Don't you think UN is merely a PAPER TIGER!

Salam Tun,

I cannot disagree with you. Realizing that we do not have the strength to fight the U.S. and the murderous Israeli armed forces, the least we could do is just to say it aloud - "Fight and Kill Them On Sight!", for the sake of humanity.

There will come a time that memory of yesteryear on the KAMIKAZE attack on the U.S. aircraft carrier, at Pearl Harbour, that inflicted many deaths to U.S. navy personnel will again come to life. This time, this will be carried out by the jet-fighter/s coming from the near-by Arab countries. For all we know, it could come from Saudi Arabia (the strongest ally of the American, British and the Israeli murderous governments)

The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia has always been detrimental to the unity of the middle eastern people, perhaps since the divisive SYKES-PICOT 1916 agreement being shoved to them and accepted almost without oppositions that allows the empirical British and the French to divide and rule the ARAB EMPIRE thus making them so weak and dependent on these colonialists power.

This is the similar simple game the British played and manipulated the people of Malaya, Singapura and other countries in Asia. They established the Malay Settlement, Chinese, Indian to have a good control over these people, and creating an "ELITE" club supportive of their colonialist agenda. We were so stupid then (and now!) over this simple strategy of the British's rules.

No one race is spared from the misdeed of the British colonialist power. The Chinese in China once had a bitter and humiliating encounter of the evil deed of the British rules. In China then, a notice was displayed in the park, saying, "NO DOGS AND CHINESE ARE ALLOWED"! In India they had their humiliating experienced too! Ask the Indians, the affirmative answer will just come out profusely out of hatred!

Malaysians! Wake UP! Do not wait till the UGLY HEAD of the next colonial power appears. Little do we realize that we are the modern slaves of those people who in control of the world economy. What makes you think, only those in poor Africa are the only slaves?

Look! It is happening, again! Isolating and overcrowding the Palestinians into the Gaza Strip, with its poor infrastructure and deprived of their daily basic necessities. Putting the Palestinians in "ONE PLACE" is part of the murderous Israeli government's plan to eventually annihilate the Palestinians. It is an EASY TARGET, especially by the Israeli American-made jet-fighters.

1)Sejak 2003 apabila beli-belah saya tidak beli produk buatan Malaysia tetapi saya hanya beli produk buatan SYARIKAT Malaysia.

2)Produk F&N dibuat di Malaysia tetapi ia syarikat Singapura,jadi sebahagian duit saya akan mengalir keluar dari Malaysia jika beli produk F&N.

3)Mungkin sukar hafal senarai panjang produk Yahudi/Amerika,tetapi bukankah lebih mudah jika anda hanya beli produk buatan SYARIKAT Malaysia.

4)Harus rajin baca label,pandai-pandailah anda amati samada ia buatan SYARIKAT Malaysia atau syarikat asing di Malaysia.

5)Saya amat berbangga apabila hanya beli produk SYARIKAT Malaysia,sebagai contoh SYARIKAT Malaysia seperti Lam Soon punyai pelbagai jenis produk keperluan harian yang boleh dijadikan alternatif. Terbaru syarikat bumiputera iaitu HPA melalui jenama Radix telah punyai pelbagai jenis produk termasuk Restoran Radix Fried Chicken yang sehebat KFC,malangnya produk-produk Radix masih kurang agresif di sekitar Selangor.

6)Hasil ujikaji berkali-kali oleh saya, petrol bagi semua jenis syarikat minyak punyai penjimatan, kualiti, dan prestasi yang sama, adalah satu persepsi hampas apabila ada yang menyatakan petrol Shell/BHP lebih menjimatkan. Maka, sokonglah Petronas demi ekonomi negara (yang mana akan beri kesan kepada ekonomi anda juga)

7)Saya menutup akaun bank konvensional dan buka akaun bank yang menjalankan Islamic Banking bagi mengukuhkan ekonomi Islam.

8)Apabila beli-belah di kedai, saya menyatakan "TAK NAK PLASTIK".

9)Saya pakai tali keledar belakang sejak 2003 dengan bangganya di hadapan rakan-rakan kolej saya yang menggelar saya "Skema" dan "Poyo".

Salam Tun,

I love your opening statement:

1. I would like to have the Malaysian Armed Forces attack the United States and Israel.
2. But I don't think the Government and the MAF would agree with me.

In my mind I was thinking, "This old man has gone senile". Then after reading it fully, along with the attachment, we get the whole picture which is enlightening. Sure, if I, one person refuse to drink Coke ( I don't drink carbonated drinks anyway), the US will lose out on about 20cents of my money. But if all of us make a concious effort not to drink Coke, then it will make a difference. Of course, we can't live without Internet and Microsoft and Boeing and Intel, for now. But at least we can send a big enough signal saying "Don't mess with us".

The most important question now is "What comes after boycott?". It should be with coming up with alternatives. We have Ramly burgers which are better than McD's. Islamic Financing and Takaful which is way less risky then conventional banking. Proton and Perodua cars are decent, no matter on what some politicians say. Now, we have to continue that effort with IT products (such as ERP software, network equipment,...),heavy industries (like aerospace and military), advanced Universities and producing knowledge leaders (Nobel Laureate standard).

I am glad you have this blog where everybody in the world can praise, ask, comment or even criticise you. Not many 80 year old retired leader of a nation are willing to be exposed to this cyber onslaught. Caya lah, Tun !!

RichDad is actually a poor dad. Only a loser like RichDad thinks that we cannot survive without relying on US. It doesn't matter if US ask our students to go out from US. There are many other good places we can send our students. This is the time we should stop on relying upon US in any matters.

Salams Tun,

Mengapa sekarang baru nak berperang? Kerana hati sudah sakit. Perang tanpa strategi sememangnya tidak menjamin kemenangan. Puak Zionist sudah merancang beratus tahun, baru hari ini dapat menunjukkan kekuatan. Kita hanya mahu berperang jika disakiti. Patut la kena buli.

Ini bukanlah masa utk berbincang dgn Amerika. Ya,..perbincangan dgn puak Zionis hanya sia2. Sekarang mereka berkuasa. Ini sudah tertulis. Hanya kita yang lupa, yg lalai dengan kekayaan sementara, dan bersikap hipokrit setiap kali masalah tiba.

Saya bercadang, kita rancanglah strategi baru. Untuk permulaan, fokus kepada masalah dalam dulu. Masyarakat semua bangsa dlm negara kita mesti bersatu, wujudkan lebih banyak peluang pekerjaan di negara kita. Lebih banyak rakyat dapat bekerja dgn syarikat tempatan. Naik taraf kehidupan rakyat tempatan, agar seluruh rakyat berkemampuan mendidik anak2 mereka ditahap yang tertinggi. Bila semua berkemampuan, lebih banyak syarikat tempatan akan dibuka, maka lebih banyak peluang pekerjaan dpt disediakan untuk rakyat sendiri.

Kedua, bila peluang pekerjaan banyak, maka tutup "SELURUH" syarikat Amerika, tutup terus peluang Amerika berniaga malah seluruh peluang perniagaan dari Amerika di haramkan di Malaysia. Jika Malaysia berjaya berbuat demikian, usulkan idea ini keseluruh dunia, sambil mengingati kejadian pembunuhan rakyat Palestin yg berlaku hari ni.

Untuk melumpuhkan ekonomi Amerika adalah karut, tetapi tidak mustahil. Yang membantutkan usaha ini adalah pemimpin yang hipokrit dan hanya mementingkan keuntungan semata2. Jika pemimpin dinegara kita hanya tahu berpolitik, usahlah berangan2 untuk berperang dengan Amerika dan Zionist. Kerana peperangan senjata bukanlah kemahiran kita.

Ya, sebagai seorang muslim, saya yakin, hari pembalasan akan tiba.

Assalamualaikum Tun,

Oh my dearest Tun, please..please..ask these MAD Israelis to stop their madness..their cruelties..their killings of the beautiful Palestinian children and their loved ones.

i just can't bear it anymore, everyday these children and the Palestinians are being killed mercilessly. My heart is in great pain and tears are flowing profusely, nothing compared to the pain and sorrow of the Palestinian people.

I was once schooled in a convent and I've learned scriptures and the Ten Commandments and I remember it says: LOVE THY NEIGHBOURS
THOU SHALL NOT KILL

Then why are they not following the teachings in the Torah or are they not believe in God and that they are God so they can do as they please?

As a mother and a woman I'm willing to fight alongside the people of Palestine with my bare hands and body and soul, if only I could be there.

Oh please.. please Tun ask them to stop the MADNESS! PLEASE THOSE WHO STILL HAVE COMPASSION PLEASE HELP TO STOP THIS MADNESS!

Hi,

To all the dearest who found the act of boycott and whichever acts against the US/Israelis, would give more effects (negative) to us than to the US/Israelis,

...that's the main problem to most of our people of the world. rather to might lose something or everything, by stand up and fighting the crimes and evils, we preferably to chose to stay on stand still, and just mourn and mourn of whatever others have lost. sacrifice has no meaning anymore. what's left is just a word.

To dear "I love Jews", who feel so sad for Tun, for Tun's hatred, and who couldn't believe that Islam tells people to kill the jews,

...i'm feeling as sad as you are, but not to Tun, but to you, who loves so much with the Jews (translates clearly enough by your nick) for their(the Israelis including you) hatred to the Muslims, who fought for their survival and rights, launching rockets because of the depriving of foods and waters and economies from their land.

...you shouldn't believe that Islam is telling Its followers of faith to kill the Jews, instead you should believe that the Muslims should fight whoever declares war with them. We must not take revenge, but there are rights to stand up for, no matter how justified you feel for the Israelis or whichever side you are on. I'm speaking in the perspective of a human being.

Lastly, to dear hardhitter, who listed the 4 things Tun hated in life,

...ask the same question to the Israel, and the America, and I guarantee you, their answer is only one instead of four.

Seeing Through the Lies
The Facts About Hamas and the War on Gaza
By NORMAN FINKELSTEIN

The record is fairly clear. You can find it on the Israeli website, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs website. Israel broke the ceasefire by going into the Gaza and killing six or seven Palestinian militants. At that point—and now I'm quoting the official Israeli website—Hamas retaliated or, in retaliation for the Israeli attack, then launched the missiles.

Now, as to the reason why, the record is fairly clear as well. According to Ha'aretz, Defense Minister Barak began plans for this invasion before the ceasefire even began. In fact, according to yesterday's Ha'aretz, the plans for the invasion began in March. And the main reasons for the invasion, I think, are twofold. Number one; to enhance what Israel calls its deterrence capacity, which in layman's language basically means Israel's capacity to terrorize the region into submission. After their defeat in July 2006 in Lebanon, they felt it important to transmit the message that Israel is still a fighting force, still capable of terrorizing those who dare defy its word.

And the second main reason for the attack is because Hamas was signaling that it wanted a diplomatic settlement of the conflict along the June 1967 border. That is to say, Hamas was signaling they had joined the international consensus, they had joined most of the international community, overwhelmingly the international community, in seeking a diplomatic settlement. And at that point, Israel was faced with what Israelis call a Palestinian peace offensive. And in order to defeat the peace offensive, they sought to dismantle Hamas.

As was documented in the April 2008 issue of Vanity Fair by the writer David Rose, basing himself on internal US documents, it was the United States in cahoots with the Palestinian Authority and Israel which were attempting a putsch on Hamas, and Hamas preempted the putsch. That, too, is no longer debatable or no longer a controversial claim.

The issue is can it rule in Gaza if Israel maintains a blockade and prevents economic activity among the Palestinians. The blockade, incidentally, was implemented before Hamas came to power. The blockade doesn't even have anything to do with Hamas. The blockade came to—there were Americans who were sent over, in particular James Wolfensohn, to try to break the blockade after Israel redeployed its troops in Gaza.

The problem all along has been that Israel doesn't want Gaza to develop, and Israel doesn't want to resolve diplomatically the conflict, both the leadership in Damascus and the leadership in the Gaza have repeatedly made statements they're willing to settle the conflict in the June 1967 border. The record is fairly clear. In fact, it's unambiguously clear.

Every year, the United Nations General Assembly votes on a resolution entitled "Peaceful Settlement of the Palestine Question." And every year the vote is the same: it's the whole world on one side; Israel, the United States and some South Sea atolls and Australia on the other side. The vote this past year was 164-to-7. Every year since 1989—in 1989, the vote was 151-to-3, the whole world on one side, the United States, Israel and the island state of Dominica on the other side.

We have the Arab League, all twenty-two members of the Arab League, favoring a two-state settlement on the June 1967 border. We have the Palestinian Authority favoring that two-state settlement on the June 1967 border. We now have Hamas favoring that two-state settlement on the June 1967 border. The one and only obstacle is Israel, backed by the United States. That's the problem.

Well, the record shows that Hamas wanted to continue the ceasefire, but only on condition that Israel eases the blockade. Long before Hamas began the retaliatory rocket attacks on Israel, Palestinians were facing a humanitarian crisis in Gaza because of the blockade. The former High Commissioner for Human Rights, Mary Robinson, described what was going on in Gaza as a destruction of a civilization. This was during the ceasefire period.

What does the record show? The record shows for the past twenty or more years, the entire international community has sought to settle the conflict in the June 1967 border with a just resolution of the refugee question. Are all 164 nations of the United Nations the rejectionists? And are the only people in favor of peace the United States, Israel, Nauru, Palau, Micronesia, the Marshall Islands and Australia? Who are the rejectionists? Who's opposing a peace?

The record shows that in every crucial issue raised at Camp David, then under the Clinton parameters, and then in Taba, at every single point, all the concessions came from the Palestinians. Israel didn't make any concessions. Every concession came from the Palestinians. The Palestinians have repeatedly expressed a willingness to settle the conflict in accordance with international law.

The law is very clear. July 2004, the highest judicial body in the world, the International Court of Justice, ruled Israel has no title to any of the West Bank and any of Gaza. They have no title to Jerusalem. Arab East Jerusalem, according to the highest judicial body in the world, is occupied Palestinian territory. The International Court of Justice ruled all the settlements, all the settlements in the West Bank, are illegal under international law.

Now, the important point is, on all those questions, the Palestinians were willing to make concessions. They made all the concessions. Israel didn't make any concessions.

I think it's fairly clear what needs to happen. Number one, the United States and Israel have to join the rest of the international community, have to abide by international law. I don't think international law should be trivialized. I think it's a serious issue. If Israel is in defiance of international law, it should be called into account, just like any other state in the world.

Mr. Obama has to level with the American people. He has to be honest about what is the main obstacle to resolving the conflict. It's not Palestinian rejectionism. It's the refusal of Israel, backed by the United States government, to abide by international law, to abide by the opinion of the international community. And the main challenge for all of us as Americans is to see through the lies.

Note: Norman Finkelstein is author of five books, including Image and Reality of the Israel-Palestine Conflict, Beyond Chutzpah and The Holocaust Industry, which have been translated into more than 40 foreign editions. He is the son of Holocaust survivors.

All have said, we are too WEAK to pull off atleast some pressure to US. Everyone knows that we are not STRONG putting pressure the US to stop the war. You all fully aware that Malaysians are too SMALL comparing to US.

BUT not many realized that we are STRONG enough to say openly that we condemn the US attitude towards Israelis soldier's action in killing the old, babies and innocent people of Gaza.

Tun is only one old man. But this one old man said, lets our MAF go and fight the Israelis soldiers! If this old man have the courage to say that, imagine what would be the rest of more than 20 millions people in Malaysia gonna say.

Tun is only one old man. But this one old man have the courage to openly condemned the US president over anything that displease the people of the world.

Tun is only one old man. But there are some people who are still saying that Tun is out of his mind for calling of boycotting US products and so forth and still support the US and Israelis conduct over the killing many people in Gaza. Why are these people having a grudge over whatever Tun's said on US and Israelis?

Perhaps, Tun is not as old or as weak as most people think of.....

Salam Tun and readers.I'm refering to an article on IHT regarding the attack on a UN building yesterday.Here's the link to it.

<http://www.iht.com/articles/2009/01/16/africa/16mideast.php>

This is one of the many incidents in recent history of which the Israeli's armed forces attacked facilities run by United Nations.Despite all these,the most that Ba Ki Moon and perhaps,even the UN can do is to "condemn" and express their utmost "regrets",without going for anything significant to stop all these acts of war crimes.

This is not a strange thing as the biggest donor to the UN is none other than the US,which is also the strongest ally of Israel.The vetoes used by US in the past in the Security Coucil have also allowed Israel to do what they like,no matter how brutal their acts are,since they know that they have someone to protect them from being prosecuted.Here are some of them:

<http://www.jewishvirtuallibrary.org/jsource/UN/usvetoes.html>

To me,harbouring any hope that the UN will act against Israel at this moment is no more than what one of the Malay proverbs say,"Bagai menunggu bulan jatuh ke riba",which can be translated literally,"Like waiting the moon to fall on the laps" .

Perhaps,one of the things that the Muslim countires can do is to temporarily boycott the UN,at least regarding this conflict.We've been talking about boycotting US products which are supporting Israel,but have we ever considered boycotting an organization which gets the funding and support from US,and acts biasedly when it comes to protecting Palestinians from Israelis' attacks?

As an alternative,the Muslims can strengthen the OIC and act as a unified force under its banner.It is also possible to have OIC's very own peacekeeping force,which has been suggested by one of our ministers,to go and protect the Palestinians and hopefully,other Muslim countries being attacked illegally in the future Nauzubillah.As for funding,I don't think that's a big problem.If one's willing to spend 100 million pounds on one football player,maybe they can spend more than that for the benefit of the Ummah.

If the OIC has become like what I've suggested,we at the same time should not disregard the contributions made by the UN in terms of humanitarian efforts.The OIC must play a greater role in this matter,like working along them and even contribute more funds to these aids.It's time that we stop relying too much on others.We are not that helpless anymore.

As for the UN,maybe it should move form New York to other place.

Tun,

If you can speak based on the following religious principle, then you will find that you are able to attract much more attention from others and impress people, including those who don't quite like you.

The unrebuttable religious principle is that "we must love the sinner even though we have to hate the sins!"

If you can set your motive right, then noone will ever have any good reason to accuse you for being a chronic hater who harbours the joys and happiness on the nourishment of unscrupulous hatred and relentless vengeance.

Cuba fikir-fikirkan..

Berapa banyak negara islam dalam dunia ini?

Katakanlah ada 70 buah negara dengan masing mempunyai kekuatan tentera secara purata 200,000 org. OIC perlu fikirkan secara serius cadangan ini.

Kalau kita pinta setiap negara ini menghantar sekurangnya 1% dari jumlah kekuatan tentera mereka untuk ke Gaza..agak2 ada berapa ramai tentera islam di bumi Gaza ketika itu? Do ur own math??

makin ramai kita tunggu.. makin ramai kanak-kanak terkorban. Action speaks louder than words. Bebaskan Gaza dan perkasakan Islam. Dengan kekuatan, kepakaran, kecerdikan Panglima-panglima dari negara2 Islam ini, siapa yg perlukan Amerika laknatullah itu lagi!!!

Jihad atas nama islam, bukan individu atau negara. Kalau tidak percaya...cuba tanya dengan askar-askar melayu islam di negara ini, "Siapa yang hendak pergi berjihad menentang pembunuh-pembunuh saudara-saudara kamu di GAZA" saya pasti...ada yang akan mengangkat tangan, Insyallah.

Kalau diberi peluang saya sudah pasti akan turut serta, walaupun tidak pandai mengangkat senjata tapi masih pandai gunakan kayu, batu dan besi untuk belasah si israel laknatullah itu.

Fisabilillah....Allah Hu'akhbar.

hanya pendapat..

Assalamualaikum Ayahanda ,

A great article from you. You're not really serious aren't you about sending our armies to Israel ? Well, anyway what do you expect from a race that assassinated their own prophets? Prophet Zachariya, John had been murdered by them without any remorse . Even Jesus also had nearly been killed by those heartless beasts .

Who's Bush ancestors? Jon of Bryan the participant in the Crusades war against the Muslims led by Saladin . That tells a lot!

Sir,

The United States of America, Great Britain and several other modern European nations are all part of the so called 'Lost Ten Tribes of Israel'. According to the Christian Old Testament Bible, God promised Abraham and his descendants spiritual and materiel blessings including the Promised Land(Palestine). These heavenly promises came with the condition that they obey God's commandments. These ancient Hebrews made up of the people of Israel and Judah(from where we get the term Jew) started off with good intentions but, as history shows, they soon fell into a pattern of bad behavior that, in effect, prevented God from fulfilling these promises. Even after God sent numerous warnings to them through His prophets and even saved them many times from potential disasters, these people refused to obey God's fundamental laws. Eventually, God had to remove them from the Promised Land and, as a result, ten out of the 12-tribe nation of Israel were 'lost' to history. These peoples have reappeared in modern times as America, Great Britain, Australia, Canada, New Zealand and several other modern European nation states. Not only that, God also promised to punish them if they continued disobeying Him with even greater troubles. This has already happened to Israel and Judah. History shows they were exiled from the land and became slaves to other people who ruled over them. As late as 1945, they world saw six million Jews slaughtered by Hitler and his Nazi followers. Yet since God had promised national blessings to Abraham's descendants, He revisited the people of Israel(all of the above countries) with great blessings. This is the reason America and Great Britain including some European countries have stood tall and strong for the past 200 years or so. God had kept His part of the bargain but not so these peoples even until today.

The point of this narration is to show that these peoples will get what is coming to them. As can be seen today, these Western nations are horribly sinful in their behavior and attitude. I do not have to enumerate them here but Israel's atrocities in Gaza, at present, is just one of them.

God always keeps His promises and so we shall soon see a lot of bad things happening to these countries. America and Great Britain will feel the effects of God's punishment not because God is bad but because of their own sins. The USA will no longer be the sole super power be it military or economic wise. China, India, Russia and some Latin American nations will take over that power but Europe will still be around to cause much trouble for the world.

So actually we don't have to do anything to teach these peoples a lesson. Their own doing will be their downfall.

YABhg Tun,

Salam hormat.

Majoriti rakyat Malaysia setuju boikot produk produk keluaran Israil dan khasnya Amerika yang merupakan sekutu kuat Israil. Negara negara lain yang menyokong tindakan kejam Israil patut juga diambil tindakan yang sama.

2. Bagaimana rakyat dan pemimpin sebuah negara yang diam membisu? Tiada kecaman daripada rakyatnya apatah lagi pemimpin pemimpinnya. Diam samalah seperti abstention Amerika dalam PBB. Wajarkah kita boikot Singapura?

Salam,

saya tak berapa pandai menulis... jadi saya ingin komen sedikit sahaja...

saya setuju... memboikot barangan amerika dan israel adalah langkah terbaik untuk meluahkan bantahan kita kepada amerika.

1. zaman sekarang zaman duit. pengurangan walaupun 5% dalam pendapatan coca cola akan membuatkan kapitalis menekan kerajaan amerika dalam dasar luarnya.
2. menunjukkan umat islam bersatu dalam isu palestin menghantar tentera ke palestin tidak praktikal kerana pejuang palestin bukan kekurangan anggota, tapi senjata dan teknologi.

untuk penyelesaian jangka panjang, umat islam perlu menjadi kuat. kita boleh mulakan dengan masyarakat melayu di malaysia dulu, mungkin boleh menjadi model kepada masyarakat islam di tempat lain. antara langkah2 yang boleh diambil ialah:

1. menekankan kepada anak2 agar menceburkan diri dalam bidang profesional seperti doktor, akauntan dll
2. rajin belajar
3. rajin berkerja
4. menguasai bahasa inggeris

bila kita kuat, insyaAllah Israel dan Amerikapun akan gerun dengan kita. sekian

Dear Tun,

Yahudi memang satu kaum yg dilaknati Allah,hari pembalasan tetap akan tiba akhirnya,ariel sharon dah terima pembalasan di dunia lagi,tapi adakah kita patut juga melaknati kaum yahudi? pada saya cuma allah yang layak berbuat demikian,sebabnya ada rasul dan nabi juga dari kaum yahudi,saya percaya,ramai juga kaum yahudi sendiri tidak merestui kerajaan mereka menyerang palastine. Pada pendapat saya,israel sebenarnya bukan memerangi islam,ramai juga org palastine beragama lain,mereka sebenarnya memerangi orang palastine yg satu masa dulu bangsa yang gagah,ini lebih pada dendam kesumat pada bangsa palastine.Tapi saya percaya bangsa ini akan terhapus juga nanti sebagai mana terhapusnya kerajaan yang agung zaman dulu spt empayar rom,babylon,mesir,cina,utmanniah soviet dan lain-lain.

Tak banyak yang kita boleh lakukan,pada seluruh rakyat malaysia tak kira agama dan bangsa,marilah kita sama-sama berdoa semoga segala kezaliman ini dapat dihentikan segera,jangan ada antara kita memandang kezaliman ini keatas umat islam sahaja,kita patut memandang kezaliman ini adalah kezaliman keatas umat manusia..

Kepada Tun yg dihormati,teruskan bersuara selagi mampu,semoga allah memberkati usaha Tun dan kami akan sentiasa bersama menyokong usaha Tun.

Salam hormat.

TDM

Paul Craig's article speaks volumes. We hardly heard the non-malays/non-muslims in Malaysia produce the equivalent piece & mentality.

2. Like ISAF, NATO and the like, it is the time the Islamic World to form the similar military alliance which the Muslim countries don't have. And next to form alliance with other non-Muslim countries & be recognised. In my opinion it is not for war and inflict damages to nations but rather to send message across the globe that Muslim countries have strength and united. At the same time strengthen the economy power, knowledge & civilisation. I think the solidarity is what the Muslim countries need to have now which missing. Protesting on streets and boycotting alone may not stopping the US & Israelis bullying & robbing the weaker nations. It is the time to make step. Only the true leaders like TDM can bring this into reality.

3.In the eyes of peace loving people, the atrocities by Israeli & Bush is a real genocide in Gaza. The fighting is not apple to apple by comparison but apple to peanut. The similar proven barbaric invasions & aggressions the US did in Afghan,Iraq, Vietnam etc. There is no way US will fight and give hands for liberation of the people in several African countries, Sri Lanka, Burma etc, since America fights for the favour of Israeli, oil, money & power - Bush and Israelis are the real terrorists!

Well, dear Tun eventhough you no longer PM of Malaysia, but your statement carry a weigh in some of your supporters.

As Tun, you wrote in your blog 'Open Letter to Barack Hussein Obama President-elect of the United States of America'

You stated 'War is primitive, the cavemen's way of dealing with a problem. ' So why hit your own face when you like MAF to attack others?

Violence against violence is a dumb resolution.

What can be achieve by declaring a war?

I hope everyone please calm down, we need to make peace by PEACE not violence. We cannot control what others do, but definitely we can control ourselves.

So for those who makes names calling, rude comments. Please take a deep breath and think, what can you achieve by doing this?

Saya tabik cara Hamas mengistiharkan perang.

Hamas mengangkat bendera putih dan bersetuju untuk mengadakan gencatan senjata. Tetapi Olmert berkata Israel tidak akan bersetuju dan berpendapat bahawa Zionis semakin hampir menguasai Gaza berpandukan pada kenyataan Hamas itu.

Maka serangan udara, darat dan laut dikerahkan oleh Olmert untuk menguasai Gaza sepenuhnya.

Salam Tun (walid)

Saying is easier than doing it. Nearly or almost 100% agreed to boycott the Americans product such as coco-cola, starbuck to name a few and many other product made in America and its services.

What we need is to have is

1) A complete list of all the product – supplier – manufacture – sales and distribution of all this and do include the alternative.

2) To include all company which have their services in Malaysia, such as Citibank, Microsoft etc.

With the above information we able

1) To educate the public thru

a. Public talk

b. Poster

c. Door to door

d. Flyer

e. Adv. On TV or Internet

2) Monitoring their sales.

3) Review government policy.

And many other.

PLUS we need also to monitor all our donation. Where do it goes. Do all the money channel the correct government in which was elected by their people? We also needed to ask as to why our elected government only works or recognises the Fatah party.

Lastly Tun (walid), please (help needed urgently) can you form up a new action team to act on this.

Salam pada YAB Tun dan rakan2 bloggers,

1. Tun sudah lama 'walk is talk'...dari semasa ada kuasa hinggalah sekarang. Tun tidak beremosi sahaja tetapi melakukan apa yang terdaya. Ceklah rekod Tun.

2. Kita semua tidak patut bercakap sahaja pasal masalah tetapi patut lakukan sesuatu yang mampu...kalau mampu memboikot barangan buatan israel dan amerika, lakukan segera! Jangan underestimate impak kita...bayangkan kalau semua orang Islam memboikot, semua bukan Islam yang berpendirian memboikot? Besar impaknya. Be positive, we can change the world. Saya masih ingat kes seorang individu yang dapat mengalahkan sebuah syarikat gergasi yang cuba membulinya. Pada mulanya syarikat tu perleceh beliau tapi kuasa melalui internet, individu itu dapat sokongan ramai. Dalam famili saya ada lima orang, kalau lima orang memboikot, bayangkan semua orang Islam dalam dunia!

3. Mereka yang pesimistik, mereka yang penakut, mereka yang berhati kecil, yang berkepentingan tidak berani memboikot dan sebaliknya marah dan menghasut kita jangan memboikot pula. Anwar yang kanceng dengan Camdesus, dengan yahudi world bank, tiba2 tunjuk baik menghentam yahudi....lakonan semata2 sebab pilihanraya gano. Venezuela dan Bolivia terang2 benci yahudidan tahu kesan akibat tindakan mereka, tetapi kerana bermaruah, mereka tidak peduli. Malaysia dipimpin oleh orang tak bermaruah....Apabila keluarga Dollah mengampu Singapura, ertinya mengampu amerika dan yahudi.

4. Ada usahawan tempatan yang merayu supaya jangan boikot kerana mereka ada kepentingan...peduli apa kita? Beratus ribu orang Islam mati ada mereka pedulikan? Kalau berani mangambil risiko buat bisnes dengan amerika setan, beranilah terima akibatnya. Masa untung, berapa ko orang bagi untuk orang dan keluarga Islam yang dibunuh? menjadi cacat? menjadi anak yatim? It's pay back time. You ad sucked our blood, now our turn to suck yours. Ahli politik kita akan kelamkabut backing syarikat2 ini kerana ada kepentingan, itu sahaja.

Tun, thank you for sharing with us your homework...something yang should be done by our govt.

Assalamualaikum Tun,

Pada pendapat saya, untuk boycott barangan buatan US dan Israel ni memang mengundang kepada masalah lain. Singapura juga tidak patut terlepas dari sebarang usaha untuk "Boycot" kerana Singapura juga sekutu Israel & US. Apa yang saya cadangkan ialah bukan perkara baru, malah Tun sendiri pernah menjelaskannya. Berikut adalah beberapa langkah yang boleh kita ambil:

1. Tukar mata wang perdagangan dari standard "US Dollar" ke Dinar Emas. Matawang dinar emas lebih stabil dan tidak mudah di "cetak" sesuka hati.
2. Cari alternatif lain sumber perdagagang seperti lebihkan lagi perdagangan dengan negara India, China atau Negara dunia 3. Kos harga barang lebih murah, inflasi akan menurun.
3. Sebagai ahli OIC, apa tindakan badan ini didalam usaha membantu menyelesaikan isu Palestin. Adakah kita hanya mampu "bersidang" dan "bincang" atau mengambil langkah lebih drastik seperti membuat resolusi untuk memulaukan US dan sekutunye?
4. Semua ahli badan OIC dan ASEAN seharusnya membatalkan keahlian mereka didalam UN sebagai protes kerana sebagai badan / organisasi dunia, UN sekali lagi gagal didalam menifesto atau perlembagaan yang sedia termaktub.
5. Seluruh negara Arab atau Islam seharusnya bersatu sebagai "jihad" demi membantu Palestin. Memandangkan Palestin dikelilingi negara "giant" Arab, mesti ada cara kita boleh menyalurkan bantuan kepada mereka.
6. Arab Saudi seharusnya menarik balik semua pelaburan / simpanan mereka dari US dan mana-mana negara yang sekutunya.
7. Seluruh umat Islam seharusnya menghantar nota memorandum kepada NATO untuk membantah sikap diam diri mereka dan "demand" mereka melakukan sesuatu terhadap kekejaman Israel. Sekiranya NATO masih enggan, sebaiknya badan ini dibubarkan.
8. Kita harus menghantar memorandum kepada mahkamah agung untuk membicarakan Israel sebagai negara yang telah melakukan jenayah perang, penghapusan kaum dan kekejaman / membunuh keatas kanak-kanak, kaum ibu dan rakyat palestini.

Saya rasa sekiranya kita sebagai umat Islam mampu melakukan perkara diatas, pertumpahan darah mampu dielakkan dan keadaan akan menjadi aman.

Persoalannya sekarang siapa yang sanggup melakukan perkara diatas? Adakah kita sebagai umat Islam sanggup melihat kekejaman ini dilakukan keatas saudara se-Islam kita?

Dear Doctor,

Malaysia to send its armed forces to attack America? I did not expect that you too can have fantasies like this. I know you want to enlighten your blog with some jokes.....but not to the extent of putting our army at such a risk! I dont "agree" with you. Give our Wira Kampong a break. We need our shining weapons for display during National Day Parades.

Referring to your serious notes, I quite agree that Bush had made serious blunders during his office.

Hundreds of innocent lives sacrificed for nothing. The world is not getting any better. Anyway he had the guts to admit his mistakes and we should give him some respect for this admission. It takes courage for a person to admit his mistakes and I'm sure he is not a happy man for some of his decisions that backfired. Put yourself in his shoes and imagine the guilty conscience that would linger on him for the rest of his life. Its not possible for us to boycott American goods and on a serious note, the American influence is everywhere and it is foolish to get engaged with such discussions. We breathe American in our daily life...whether you like it or not!

The onslaught in Gaza is the own doing of the Palestinians. Dont they have any common senses to think that they are fighting a meaningless battle? Innocent lives is being lost due to the cowardly acts of the Hamas militants. Everyone has a right to live and it is not justified to fire rockets into Israel and put innocent lives at risk. It doesnt matter whether they are Isrealities or Palestinians. Israel has been receiving the brickbats from the Hamas militants for quite a while and now they react. Hamas should put a stop to the acts of terrorism and get back to theis senses.

Israel has not attacked Palestine to this extent and it is a very sad state of affair in the Middle East.

Instead of condemning Israel for the attacks, the world should convince Palestine to stop firing rockets and engaging in acts of terrorism.

Israel and Palestine has never been at ease as far as we know and there is some justification for Palestinians to get annoyed with Israel. They dont have a choice but to live side by side. Rather than fighting with one another, compromising should be attempted and the UN should plan a different strategy to bring these nations together and instil everlasting peace in the region. Lets work to remove the badblood for the sake of their citizens who has a RIGHT to LIVE.

Please post affirmative reports rather than been spitefully avenging America or Israel for which we do not have control. We all know of the atrocities in the region and we should make Israel and Palestine collectively responsible. If there is a action there would be a re-action.

I hope this war would come to an abrupt end and peace be word of the day.

Dear Tun,

I have a better suggestion to make:-

Why not come this March 2009, All UMNO members gather in Palestine (Gaza Strip) instead and then march in great numbers (2 million?)into Israel? Also, all the UMNO Putras(nuts) who often go for their "London and Australia retreat" a couple of times using the rakyat's money and other corrupt monies also join in this march into Israel.

Even if the Israeli army were to bomb them, how many can they kill? Even if they manage to bomb 50%, still a million others can enter Israel and recapture the land and give it back to the poor Palestinian. People like KJ, Nazri, Bung(a) Mokhtar, Khir Toyo(l), M2 Taib, Ali Roostam, etc should be allowed to lead this march. If they all die they will be guaranteed Haven won't they? Also, there will be less trouble in Malaysia without them around. What is the use of all this people demonstrating in Malaysia?

My suggestion is much more practical and doable, don't you think?

Dearest Tun,

Sad to say but realistically, boycott will have no effect to US, coming from a peanut country like ours.

Only action will come from their new President, Barrack HUSSEIN Obama. IF he has the sense to save his Muslim half-brothers.

All leaders of the world should bombard him, pressure him to hold talks with Israel and, hopefully, end the conflict. Simple, right? Not the least. There's a lot of brain-busting to do.

Dear Tun,
Since we cannot possibly attack US, then the logical conclusion is to unite against Israel. What I find incredulous is that if Israel's action can be defined as terrorism, then wouldn't US be defined as a state which sponsors terrorism? It is funny a country which comes out with the phrase state sponsored terrorism to fail by their own standards.

Hamas while not saintly was an democratically elected government. Just because US doesnt agree with their policy they deem fit to topple it. If this is the kind of democracy US is forcing down other people's throat, then no thanks. I bet the Founding American fathers would be turning in their graves or shouting "This isn't the kind of democracy we envisioned you idiots!"

Assalamualaikum Tun,

Persoalannya sekarang mampu atau tidak untuk kita memboikot barangan Amerika (Yahudi)???
Jawapannya mustahil. Selagi Yahudi menguasai Amerika, Eropah, "Singapura" dan dunia. Selagi kaum Arab dan umat Islam tidak bersatu. Jangan kita semua bermimpi untuk menyelamatkan Palestin.

Kaum melayu yang beragama islam di Malaysia yang sekangkang kera ni pun berpecah belah dan tidak dapat disatukan oleh pemimpin negara inikan pula kaum Arab yang jauh lebih ramai bilangannya.

Seperti biasa kita di Malaysia ni hanya mampu menjadi penonton kepada tindak tanduk Israel keatas rakyat Palestin di Semenanjung Gaza ibarat kita menonton cerita blockbuster dipanggung.

Heroes only live in America, victims only live in Israel....

Some people talked about the long term psycholocial effect of bombings to their children - like it happens to them everyday.

In reality, there are children and adults too, who every day have to live hearing and fearing bombs that would actually hit them and maybe throwing them to so many feet above the ground or getting their body parts strewn into pieces on air and hit the ground they used to walk and play?

Conclusion :

.... if if if if if if if if if it happens to them its horrific and unjustified!

BUT...when when it happens to others, its just a great movie to watch.....

Being civilize means one can shift, pick,choose, exaggerate fear, to justify for ungentlemanly killings.

I am a husband, a father and a son in law.I am working, get decent pay to feed my family and enjoy pay tv and maybe go picnic sometimes with them [if I have the time].

Thats reasons not to blow myself up!

I would not blow up my neighbors house, so that I can have their space.

I would deal with him.....,

man to man ,man to man, man to man,man to man, man to man, man to man, man to man,man to man, man to man, man to man,man to man, man to man, man to man, man to man ..... and see whether he would give away his space to me!

Correct,... thats ridiculous [never heard of].

Sure he won't give, and I aspect that,I should find ways on how to make my 1296sft of land spacious enough for just the 4 of us [maybe go vertical].

I can sleep at night being a silly man.

I can't, when feeling like a beast who pretended to be a man.

Killings spree, natural disaster.

Some championing preservation of greens, for who?Our children, the future generation?

Wood, children, wood,children ,children ,children ,wood.....
Some part of the world people cry when woods being cut
Some part of the world people cuts and kills children with bullets and all sort of bombs.
Wood, children, wood,children ,children ,children ,wood.....
Yes many cry, only a different kind of cry..., cry of victory.
The world seems to need lesser people and bigger space.
Who should go and die then?
Who amongst us are collateral damages?Who decides?
Its not hard to tell, isn't it?

Picture our muslim brothers and sisters in Palestine,empathize, feel their fear, their hunger,the cruelties done to them, reached up to them in our muslim ways...

...laillahailauwah... ,laillahailauwah .., let this be the lyrics to our song of hope for them.

Kita kena bersatu dahulu,rapatkan saf , sedar maknanya tahu dan selepas kita mahu, barulah sesuatu akan berlaku.

Audience kita adalah ugama dan tuhan kita ,bukan yang datang kat parlimen nak beri/dengar ucapan berapi atau yang curi intai melalui satelit.

looks like the only way we umat Islam yg lemah ni to teach the world that we r not taking all these atrocities lying down is for someone able 2 lead the ummah and do a Mahatma Gandhi. No need 4 modern n destructive weapons..all we need to do is a peceful march of 1,000,000 muslims n muslimats towards Jerusalem from say Mecca..in a way lets perform an umrah towards the 3rd holiest muslim site..!!!

what say you Tun?

Dear Tun,

My heart goes out to the Palestinians who are dying everyday in Gaza. It's a situation that angers me and most of the world, and yet I feel there's a growing sense of frustration with this whole situation.

We as normal civilians can hold our demonstrations, our boycotts, or whatever other scheme we can, but the reality is that the ignorant Americans and arrogant Israelis will never hear our voices. So we have to turn to world leaders to help the Palestinians. Yet, world leaders are again frustrating any effort of a ceasefire:

a) UN is a lame duck as long as the US continues to abstain or veto any resolutions condemning Israeli. Even if hell freezes over and US decides to support the resolution, Israel is not binded to adhere to this resolution.

b) The Arab countries are divided over this situation. The reality is that most of them have a lot of trading with not only the US, but also Israel. It is distressing to see Arab countries prioritising their own wealth over the lives of fellow Muslim Palestinians.

c) Most importantly, as long as USA, Britain and countries like Germany continue to support Israel, we'll never see the end of the atrocities. There are not many countries who are willing to go up against these superpowers for fear of their own security and economic safety.

A boycott? It may help, but it won't be effective if only civilians participate. We need the support of our government, and then the support of the international community to band together and boycott all American products as a whole. Then that will be a message worth sending to the Americans and Israelis.

Dear YAB Tun,
How are you sir?

Tun,
Although what you posted above is possible but it is not easy to achieve... For example when Saddam Husseini got caught he has millions of US currency with him...This is only what we saw and those arabs who has millions of US dollars with them in the middle east will not agree to this.
Do you know how much a bottle of coke worth in Iraq? It's worth around USD 5.00 and those Iraqi are crazy about drinking coke. This is a fact. All hotels in Iraq uses only accept US dollars and not local currency. Those who wants to any business or deals with any business in Iraq only uses US dollars in their businesses...
Further more most of the GCC (Saudi Arabia, UAE, Kuwait, Bahrain, Qatar and etc..) countries in the middle east are more pro to the Americans.

Further more by punishing these American companies we might weaken the Americans but what about those people who are depending on the American companies for jobs to feed their families around the world including Malaysia? Don't you think innocent people also will be punished by doing this? Where are these people going to go for job if these American companies shut down business in other part of the world? With current situation one who has a job is already consider lucky.....Do we have plan for those people if such action imposed and forcing American companies to wind up business other part of the world?

Those people who are successful and well to do will survive but those who depends on the month end salaries what will happen to them?

I don't have answer on how to end the war and terrorism around the world but I believe leaders like you and other leaders around the world can come-up with a better solution to stop this cruelty on human being.

Thank you.
Harimau 1900.

Boss,

1. We bring their biggest competitor masuk to emerging markets. Especially China and Russia. Kalau boleh selit dalam OIC, kita selit je, kalau boleh selit dalam ASEAN kita selit jer. Kita kena ingat dalam OIC USA dah jadi ahli melalui 2 negara (Iraq and Afghanistan).

2. Competitor mereka ni dah lama nak ajar USA.

3. Kalau tak boleh boycott, kita beli produk mereka terakhir jika tiada. Untuk Boeing punya case, we should give better treatment to Airbus atau lebih baik Jepun melalui syarikat Honda bekerjasama dengan negara Asean menghasilkan kapal terbang penumpang seperti di Eropah (Airbus).

4. Untuk Coca Cola, kalau kita tak boleh boycott, kita sabotaj, macam mereka tak pernah sabotaj Proton punya imej di sana. Negara kita boleh buat kempen kesihatan seperti tidak mahu merokok. Kita tampilkan poster2 akibat daripada minum Coca Cola/minuman berkarbonat, seperti kencing manis dan kanser. Kita letak je gambar penyakit, lepas tu kita letak gambar coca cola di sebelah. Kalau mereka complain, kita buang nama Coca Cola tapi letak tin warna merah. Sedikit sebanyak penduduk dapat mesej. KITA BUAT KEMPEN MAKANAN SIHAT BESAR-BESARAN, kerana majoriti makanan tidak sihat adalah buatan USA.

5. Dan banyak idea-idea industri sabotaj kita boleh buat, tetapi kebanyakan tidak mahu buat sebab kebanyakan orang di atas dah dapat "HOON" daripada mereka ni.

6. Sepatutnya golongan bukan islam tidak sepatutnya menganggap ini adalah gerakan pro islam, tetapi ini boleh membawa banyak kebaikan kepada semua penduduk Islam dan bukan Islam di seluruh Asia. INILAH MASA TERBAIK UNTUK MEMPERKENALKAN PRODUK-PRODUK KITA (SAMA ADA ISLAM ATAU BUKAN ISLAM) SENDIRI MELALUI PROSES BOIKOT DAN SABOTAJ!!!
KAMU SEMUA TAK MAHU KE PRODUK HANDPHONE KAMU SENDIRI MENGGANTI MOTOROLA?!!!
KAMU SEMUA TAK MAHU KE NESTLE DI GANTIKAN DENGAN PRODUK KAMU SENDIRI?!!
AMBILLAH PELUANG INI. Eropah, China dan Russia betul-betul mengambil peluang daripada keadaan seperti begini, tetapi kita masih ternganga dan menentukan siapa bersalah dan siapa tidak.

7. Amerika dah tersilap langkah dan mereka sedang membuat damage control dan kita (semua rakyat malaysia) sepatutnya mengambil peluang yang tidak selalu tiba ini. Bayangkan produk ubat gigi yang di kuasai oleh palmolive, kalau kita dapat sebat 20% daripada pasaran mereka di sini sahaja, ramai pengusaha ubat gigi dah jadi jutawan tidak kiralah orang Islam ke atau bukan Islam. Jangan tunggu sampai imej mereka dah kembali bersih nanti tiada peluang lagi.

Dear Tun,

I can share your frustration and the sense helpless for the palestinian people.

However, the root of this latest war is very clear. Both Hamas and Israel government is facing the new election soon.

Hamas try to win more support by firing rockets to israel and israel retaliate to reclaim their voter's trust.

I feel the evilness of politics to manipulate people for the interest of certain party and ppl. The victim is always the ordinary citizen who suffers without knowing the true motives of the politician.

Same situation happen at home. Politician is creating confrontation between races to gain support. etc Malay supremacy...non-bumi as pendatang..

The fact is both palestenian and israels's leader is selfish, senseless, careless jerks to put your own citizen and soldiers at risk for their own personal gain.

It always amazed me and Im still very proud that Malaya gain her independency from the mighty British Empire in a peaceful manner.

Considering more than 50% of the world's cargo must pass through the strait of melaka each year.

The British must be very unwilling to give up such strategic place with abundant of natural resorces to serve the empire.

I always think of you sir as the modern Gandhi. Victory through the course of JUST not by might.

The Americans may not be willing to listen to us but the Arabs may. In fact, the Americans is having bigger troubles at home than to care about the situation in middle east.

I understand the French is trying their best to broker peace between Israel and Palestinian. Why Not Malaysian ?

Since the 15th century Malaysia is the gateway between the east and the west. We also can contribute to the peace of the middle east. No matter how small we are.

We did it, India free herself from centuries of enslavement. Victory cannot be win by brutal force.

Che det said: "But what about the Malaysians working in factories producing coke? I don't believe they produce only Coca-Cola. They produce other drinks as well. If people switch from Coca-Cola to another drink produced by the same company, then the company will have to produce more of this alternative drink and there would be no need to close down and sack the workers."

Let me see, that's like saying stop using Windows and Mac, move to Linux which is essentially American product too.

Coke or not coke, the factory will still produce pepsi, mountain dew and more. Instead of boycotting, why don u tell them to drink the Mecca Coke some muslim businessman produce, don like the taste?

Malaysia needs america more than they need us, ironically, most medical equipments comes from america, including those used for ur heart surgery years ago.

Is it that hard to get along? Have u forgotten the tsunami that hit acheh? where are the arabs when the entire world poured so much funds into rebuilding a muslim country. What has palestine contributed to our economy, time we mind other people's business and look at our own backyard, so many poor malays and natives in kelantan, sabah and sarawak... i bet some are worst than the rich high class palestine. Take care of our own people FIRST!

Assalamualaikum,

Saya daripada Singapura dan saya sokong cadangan Tun tentang 'boycott' barangan US. Saya sendiri telah mengambil langkah membeli produk-produk tempatan atau Malaysia. Tak kesahlah, asalkan bukan daripada US atau Israel. Walaupun product seperti kentang goreng daripada US itu lebih sedap, tak pelah, macam Tun cakap, takkan matilah kalau tak makan. Sebagai seorang Muslimah, saya adalah adik/kakak kepada umat Islam di Palestine. Saya tak boleh tak buat apa-apa.

As a foreigner staying in Malaysia for sometimes I radar not make a comment but I could not help myself to noticed that some of your readers makes comment about Gaza it is a bit disappointing maybe it is ignorance. It seems they even want to justify Israeli & American brutalities towards 1.5 Million population kept in prison no import export of any kind last 18 months.

Maybe readers can read www.antiwar.com to get more non bias news.

If one lives in China (as a minority for example) it would be unthinkable or one end up in jail to touch the subject of Tibet & Taiwan issue that is National interest and very sensitive subject to make a comment against China policies.

Palestinian issue is a serious matter for Malaysian government and Malaysian public and Malaysia does not recognise Israel, that is a signal to people who make a comment favorable to Israeli brutalities.

Stop wasting your time trying to persuade non muslim to join this cause, they wont give a damn what happen to palestinian, to them the better israel get rid of the muslim somewhere is better. They will argue on Darfur or other incident to justified that this is all just the same and why should we concern just about Gaza. Or they could go on offtopic to how corrupt our government is (which is true anyway)... Please don't put any hope on them. This is our struggle as a muslim and i think we're on this on our own..

Salam Tun,

Betul macam tun kata, lama mana kita boleh boycott barang keluaran barat ini, sebulan, dua bulan, lama kelamaan kita akan lupa (malaysian mudah lupa) dan kita akan kembali beli McDonald, Coca cola, ROKOK dan sebagainya. Jadi apa hasilnya, Orang orang Barat akan ketawa balik ke muka kita semua, Jadi apa patut kita lakukan, cadangan saya agar rakyat boleh mulakan boycott, kerajaan juga kena memainkan peranan dengan menaikkan cukai keatas barangan import dan barangan yang dikeluarkan hasil dari barat. disamping itu seperti kata tun, kita perlu menitik beratkan pelajaran Science dan Matematik, kerana dengan Ilmu sahaja kita dan negara negara islam yang lain boleh menewaskan barat. sekarang ini barat telah menerajui ilmu hasil dari penemuan oleh ilmuan islam, jadi kita dan kerajaan perlu membuat persediaan dari sekarang untuk melatih graduan graduan kita menimba ilmu, sebelum perkara sama terjadi pada kita seperti terjadi pada palestine, (rakan sekutu israel disini adalah singapore, tak mustahil singapore akan buat perkara yang sama). akhir kata, kita sama sama melatih anak muda kita dengan sokongan kerajaan untuk bidang science dan technology dan juga melatih dunia islam untuk menimba ilmu science dan tecknology, sekarang ini barat dapat mengatasi hanya kerana science dan technology, timur dapat mengatasi dengan ilmu perdagangan, jadi kita hendak mengatasi mereka dengan apa?, pandangan saya adalah science, technology dan business sekian, hanya pandangan saya

Salam Tun

i always love to read your snippet and comments by fellow readers, interestingly i just realized that your comment on recent Israel slaughtering has invited some of most disgusting view from some.

how come they can see pass through Israel cannibalistic act and actually blame Palestinian, claiming that their are the one who started this invasion, by firing primitive rocket that hit nothing, and claim too little life compared to Israel.

babies killed by suicide bomber?how about babies burned to death by Israel bombing?

try to look at history of Palestine - Israel and justify which one is victim and which one is bullies. not hard to determined eh?

some people are just too arrogant to realize this freaking clear fact.

Tun,

The Arab's is so busy spending money on football club and paying huge 100m pound for a player named Kaka rather than helping their own. Here in Malaysia, we are like crazy trying to collect donations to help the Palestinian.

Is it worth it???

If the same kind of ethnic wipeout happens in Malaysia, who do we expect to help us??

Remember that we also have a similar threat backed by the US in our very own region.

Salam sejahtera buat semua.

Sekiranya seluruh umat/kerajaan Islam didunia ini bersatu, mula memboikot produk2 US,tidak menjalinkan perniagaan dgn mereka dan tidak lagi bergantung pd dolar Amerika.. US pasti lumpuh.. US pasti miskin,lemah dan tak berguna lagi..

Masalahnya kita sgt bergantung pd US..apa yg ada pd US sgt sebenarnya??.. untuk mencari alternatif pd produk & teknologi bukannya sukar sgt.. india,china,jepun,korea,perancis,italy dan rusia ada semua yg kita perlukan...kita juga xperluan US utk barang2 kita..banyak lg negara didunia ini yg kita boleh pasarkan produk kita..

kita xperlu takut..yg kita perlukan ialah kesatuan. cukuplah dgn seluruh umat Islam(terutamanya org ARAB!!) bersatu dalam erti kata yg sebenar..bersatu dan sama2 boikot US.

kelak,suatu hari nnt,US akan jatuh,US bangkrup dan mereka akan sedar Israel itu hanyalah 'duri dalam daging' mereka...pabila Israel x dpt sokongan US.. barulah ketika itu kemenangan boleh berpihak kpd rakyat Palestin..

x perlu doakan kemenangan Palestin,kerana mustahil mereka akan menang selagi saudara2 mereka(yakni kita!) masih berpecah dan terus mnyokong US & Israel..sepatutnya kita berdoa dahulu dan bersembahyang hajat spy umat Islam seluruh dunia dapat bersatu dan diberi 'sedikit' kekuatan untuk memulaukan US dan sekutunya ISRAEL.

By patricklam14Author Profile Page on January 16, 2009 5:07 PM

Tun,

A boycott is a bit too simple and too rash an action to do in the face of adversary like the USA, especially in dangerous economic times as this. If the UN is powerless to impose a resolution on the 2 warring states, Malaysia is no better than being a thorn in the neck which will eventually be rid off.

You see, some of our local companies do engage business with "Americans", however, the world of business politics suggests that the best way of profit is to leave certain quarters of a company to its own freedom (or for a more politically correct word, sovereignty). For example, take any franchise fast food outlet and you're bound to find out that it is related to its HQ back in the US. However, it is a franchise based locally. A certain margin of profits is sent back to the HQ but the remainder stays within the country to pay off employees and cover other expenses. A boycott of any such things would have immediate effect but such effects do not reach the HQ. For you see, if one foregin business fails in Malaysia, it is unlikely it will cause a domino effect across the sister businesses around the world. Of course, it was proposed that such boycott should be on a global scale to be effective. But to how much of an extent can one wield his diplomatic powers or persuasive charisma to bring down a dynastic business. If it was really that simple, big companies across the world would have long feared of consumers like us. But in reality, they do not.

Yes! I agree with you that the bully cannot be left to continue rampaging the weak. But as Mencius did say: "the small cannot contend with the large, the few cannot contend with the many and the weak cannot contend with the strong." We cannot affect America without doing harm to ourselves.

Even if we did try such extremities, the least we could do is to engage in diplomacy with other anti-american nations. Careful planning to dismember the enemy one-by-one is key to gaining the upper hand. Seem weak to the enemy whilst building strength within. When the time is ready, strike him at where he suspects the least.

As of now, all we can do as Malaysians, is to contribute to the betterment of the Palestinians through donations or any from of social welfare, and summon the UN to take action.

Assalamualaikum yang Berbahagia Tun,

Mohon maaf kerana semua ini terkeluar dari topik asal.

WAHAI BANGSAKU YANG TERSAYANG, FIKIR-FIKIRKAN LAH.

For the moment we are all too engrossed with the events in the Middle East caused by the Jews, to be more exact by the Zionist. Jangan lah kita lupa di Asia pun ada yahudi. Banyak terdapat kat Singapura, Thailand, Indonesia dan seluruh Asia Tenggara. Macam di M/East juga, bukan semua yahudi Asia ini "jahat" banyak yang baik malah setengah2 lebih baik dari penduduk tempatan (asal). Let me term those yang "jahat2" tu as Zionist. Perangai, attitude, kerakusan dan tamak Zionist Asia ini bolih dikatakan sama dengan M/East Zionist. Kat Singapura kita terpaksa terima sebab dah jadi negeri mereka. Kat negara lain belum lagi berapa nampak "true colour" mereka sebab tak dapat memerintah, not represented, tak de peluang, small population, jadi masih belum bolih bersuara atau menjerit2 lagi. Tapi kalau dah ramai nanti, pantang ada peluang suasana akan bertukar. Disini mereka dah mula "naik tocang" pasal turut diundang mentadbirkan negara dan ada peluang bersuara.

Bila Tun besara aje, pengganti Tun orang yang lembab, lembik, terlampau banyak dengar nasihat yang tak betul, tak mahir mentadbir negara dan sebagainya. Like the Zionist in the M/East, Zionist kat Malaysia dah berani ambil kesempatan atas semua kelemahan ini. Ditambah pula ada Melayu Murtad yang diketuai oleh An..... (tak payah ceritalah Tun dan semua tahu apa maksud saya) bersekongkol dengan Zionist ini. Ketua Zionist ini dulu kat Melaka, sekarang anaknye dah ambil alih pindah kat Penang. Kalau di amati betul2 muka dua beranak ini memang ada mirip2 dan inbas2 Chin Ping.

Hari ini Raja Nazrin Shah, Raja Muda Perak ada bercerita berkenaan tanah2 kat "Kampung Baru" yang telah di serahkan kepada kaum yahudi tersebut oleh kerajaan negeri Perak. (Negri Perak negri teman, dah tergadei di buat oleh kerajaan ...AP). Wakil ...KR dan ...AS dlm undangan negri cume macam kerobor (kerbau) aje, kene tambat idung ditarik kebaroh dan kebarat. Sawah dah tak mandang nak dibajak, jadi ragut aje rumput kat sawah yang tinggal, bila dah besor cukup mase kene sembelih.

Kat Selangor pun macam2 yang tak patut berlaku sudah berlaku tak payah cerita, kita semua sedia maklum. Di East Coast takpe, apa pun jadi Melayu masih tak rugi lagi. Kat Penang lagi terok dah hampir tergadai. Baru tak sampai setahun memerintah dah banyak Melayu rugi. Kalau kerajaan dulu bertindak sedemikian pasti banyak rungutan dan tunjuk perasaan. Terpaksalah Tun menangkis dan "bersilat" untuk mengelak semua tendang terajang mereka. Lagipun Tun tegas bukan sembarangan. Maka tak lah mereka kurang ajar sangat. Sekarang ni, Si Lembik cuma bolih buat silat pengantin aje, tu pu tak berapa lalu nak angkat langkah.

Melayu kat sini pun macam orang2 Palestin juga ada dua pihak, malah 3 pihak. Satu pihak diantara mereka ada yang tak ingat Tuhan, rasuah lah, salah guna kuasalah penting tembolok sendiri lah dan macam2 lagi. Pihak2 yang lagi satu bersekongkol dengan Zionist Asia tapi takde power (lemah). Ikut aje telunjuk Zionist. Pihak ketiga, masih pengsan (tak sedar diri). Konon2 ada prinsip sendiri tapi tak kena tempat. Semangat juang untuk Melayu dan Islam memang kuat tapi tak sabar, semua nak cepat dan sudah terlampau banyak terlepas cakap. Bagi ketiga2 Melayu ini bermaaf2an, mengaku bersalah (forgive and forget), bekerjasama dengan Melayu lain tak ada dalam kamus mereka (Ini semua akan menghilang maruah mereka). Mahu tak mahu duduk lah satu kemah dengan Zionist. Orang kelantan kata "Jusut imaginng" kalau semua Melayu bersatu kita akan jadi kuat dan disegani. Tak naik muka yang lain. Alamak rupanya kita ini betul2 macam orang2 Palestin lah.

Result of the last general election adalah pelajaran yang paling besar untuk orang2 Melayu. Konon2 nak "test ground" pangkah parti lawan walaupun wakil bukan Melayu, pangkah juga, konon2 "nak perubahan". Sekarang banyak yang dah menyesal. Ingatloh meleka akan pelentah lebeh dali 3 tahun lagi. Maciam2 strategi bolih bikinlooh. Waspadaloo. Melayu mesti sedar dengan segera. Sekarang ni kat Terengganu takpe sapa pun menang okay, sebab kedudukan Melayu tak tergugat.

Lagi satu kat sini pun ada negro. Negro ni macam lalang kalau Zionist berkuasa mereka tekan Melayu. Kalau Melayu berkuasa mereka bodek Melayu. Melayu pulak pantang kena bodek, yang tarak-tarak jadi ada-ada, yang ilek jadi tak ilek.

Cuma nak beri peringatan saje. sebab Tun pun ada kata "Melayu cepat lupa" Lepas 13 May Melayu tak beli kedai yahudi 2 bulan aje, lepas 2 bulan sokong balik kedai yahudi. Saya pun macam itu. Yahudi dengan Negro kat sini sampai la ni duk payah nak belanja kat gerai Melayu.

Mohon maafkan dan ampun Tun, for being a bit racist, cause this is the only way I know to express myself and my concern on this matter. All these are reality yang kita mesti tahu, faham, sedar dan hadapi. Harap2 ada yang dapat kesedaran dan mula bertindak untuk mengelakan perkara yang sama2 tidak kita ingini berlaku.

Ya Allah Ampunkan dosa2 yang baru hamba Mu lakukan. Semua ini (mengata, mengumpat, menyumpah dan perangai2 yang kurang sopan) dilakukan terhadap semua adalah dengan niat yang baik. Semuanya untuk mengingatkan orang Melayu. Bangsa yang sangat ku cintai. Mungkin apa yang berlaku ada HikmahNya. Insyallah. Kepada mereka yang rasa marah kepada saya banyak2kanlah Mengucap dan Asthafal. Lepas sembahyang fardu nanti sama2 kita mohon kepada Allah untuk memperbetulkan segala kesilapn yang sudah kita lakukan, serta mohon mendapat Pertunjuk dan Rahmat dariNya. Wassalam.

*Yang Berbahagia Tun,

Assalamualaikum Tun,

To boycott or not to boycott...that is up to each individual's privilege. If anyone wants to boycott, whatever products one pleases, so be it. If he or she wants to boycott just one product that's one's right, if this the least one can do. Don't take away his/hers right. Whether the boycotting makes an impact or not only time will tell.

I remembered your son said on TV Tun, "How am I to tell a father of a dead Palestine child that I cannot boycott, I cannot help you".

To those who still can consume the atrocities of the Israelis and feel big headed about it, try swapping places with the terrified Palestinians and experience for yourself the life in a war zone where you are helpless with nothing to defense yourself and no safe place to hide from the constant bombings and shellings until you wish to God that if you're bombed to let you die instantly for you dare not want to feel the unbearable pain from the injuries and not wanting to hear the wailing of your loved ones and praying so hard not to see the horror in their eyes.

Just for once stop condemning them and close your eyes and picture the dead children, women and men and look into the eyes of the injured and see how hurt and terrified they are with the injustices done to them and try feel their pain. If you can't then you're not human, if you are, then you are with no compassion.

Tun, take care and May Allah Look Upon You Always.

I believe all Malaysian ( malay, chinese, indian , others ) are compassionate people. I trust most Malaysian hate war like Dr Mahathir

But we must know our limits. Human have their limits. The situation and history in Gaza is far too

Dear Tun,

1. Im quite surprise why people accusing muslims of hating jews so much. Have they ever thought why jewish hates muslims so much? Jewish have been sabotaging, destroying, dividing, painting bad image to the muslims in the most subtle and effective way and people never asked them why they do that to muslims.

2. What they have done to muslims they will regret it cause they have forgotten that they were protected by muslims during the horrible inquisition, crusades, pogrom, hitler, or whatever horrible things that European people have done to them. I read history and many times, muslims have been there for them in the past. And Arabs is the closest cousins to jews by DNA linkage. What i can say they have back stabbed their own brother.

3. A jewish priest have said somewhere in 1990's, whatever Zionist have done to Palestinian people, they will regret it. I dunno the logic of his statement but theres a say, nothing last forever, all big empires falls from rome to muslim this will includes the USA too cause we are all mortals.

4. And as usual, when any western economy collapsed like rome, 1st and 2nd world war, majority of these western people have a tendency to blame it all on the jews. It has been written many times in the history, from Germany, Russia or any Europe country when they dont have money and become poor, they blame it on jews stole it from them, like Malaysia in 1997, many malaysian accused jews stole their money. And i dont think this trend going to change since the economic systems currently being used are basically introduced by jews (they indeed are smart people), so when the system failed or collapse totally, these western people will certainly go after them like in the past even their own friends. To justify my statement, check out the history, there are patterns - everytime western economy falls or total collapse (not depression, k) they blamed it on jews. (Even Hitler was born in worst German economy)

5. So what if it happens again? the only people in middle east that stands in the way of angry western people is the Arabs. And i doubt, these arabs will take arms and protect the jews like they did during crusades or inquisition time. And I hope this doesnt happen, what the nazis have done to them is one of the worst chapter in human history.

6. So i do hope Israel's realising this, the best policy is always enriching thy neighbor, so i do hope they start to settle their issues with their muslim neighbours instead of banging them ASAP. Taking into consideration that middle east is a part of the emerging markets they should be starting making friends with them.

Btw im not anti-semitism and im not a pro-islam. Im just worried and sad with the things are going. With the current age that even animals got their rights, when u see things happen to palestinian people and others it makes u sad, so today im stopping my standing monthly order to pay WWE to protect wildlife, i told them, when all human beings start to have their rights to live peacefully, ill start paying WWE.

Salam,

Ingin saya utarakan pandangan disini. Sepanjang perhatian saya mengenai kempen Boikot, pelbagai "checklist" yang kita dapat sama ada dari e-mail atau kertas. Saya lihat kempen ini sedikit sebanyak ada kesannya. (jangka pendek) Pernahkah kita sebagai umat Islam terfikir untuk memboikot produk "rokok"? (jangka panjang, kekal) andaian saya disini, kesan memboikot produk rokok yang mempunyai kepentingan barat dan sekutunya akan lebih dalam.

Kenapa ini tidak berlaku?. Cukup menghairankan. Ya benar terpulung kepada perokok untuk menilai dan berfikir sejenak. Kenapa ya?

Bukan sahaja merokok memberi kesan negatif kepada perokok, masyarakat dan alam sekitar, sebaliknya dan bahkan penyumbang besar kepada ekonomi?.

andaikan, 10 juta perokok di dunia memboikot rokok produk US, Israel dan beralih kepada produk rokok buatan negara jiran terdekat kita. Maka secara langsung kesan suntikan dana dlm bentuk cukai dan sebagainya akan memberi keuntungan besar kepada negara jiran.

sekian,

Salam Tun,

The atrocities committed by Israel in Gaza actually had been pre-planned before the latest expired ceasefire with Hamas took effect in June 2008, planned by Ehud Barak the Defense Minister and agreed by the PM of Israel as part of a bigger grand plan to enlarge the area of Israel to include Gaza and the West Bank, what they call the ultimate security plan.

They had been committing raids into Gaza in November 2008 to provoke Hamas into retaliation for a pretext to a pre-planned invasion. This tactic is part of "strategic escalation" policy which has been used since 1955 to make Israel look like the victim, therefore earn the support of the US for its wars. Israeli military historian Zeev Maoz wrote in detail about this strategy in his book "Defending The Holy Land". It has been used to provoke Egypt for a war in 1965, Lebanon in 1981, and West Bank between 2001-2004.

Please visit www.antiwar.com and read the article written by American Steve Niva - How Israel manufactured the Gaza Escalation and Israel vs America by Justin Raimondo.

Israel is not interested in peace as it has in mind the larger scheme of achieving the Greater Israel, it will keep making wars with the Arab neighbors until the goal is achieved, sometimes using the US to fight its war in Iraq, Afghanistan still pressuring the US to attack Iran and Syria.

How do you make peace with a nation of arrogant and cruel people like the Israelis? They will try their best to subvert peace deals and ceasefires because it is in their interest to do so. Hamas represents the first truly democratically elected party by the Palestinians and yet the US congress gave wide support to Israel on this latest genocide, yet the US has the cheek to say the world remember them for their compassion? What happened to democracy that it has been championing to the whole world?

To those who are ignorant on the conflict and accusing the moderator Tun as bias because he is a Muslim, and we are Muslims, you all should go do more reading and research on the conflict not only from the local net which you claimed as biased, but from the US too, thousands of them all over the place condemning the atrocities and genocide conducted by Israel.

For your info, the bullets and bombs that rained on the Palestinians are blind, they cannot differentiate between Muslim Palestinians and Christian Palestinians, women or children and old people who are no threat to the well armed Israeli soldiers courtesy of the US, the so-called champion of human rights and the protector of democracy. Americans should wake up from their sleep and pressure and change their government policies toward Muslim countries and its undivided support for Israel, the illegal terrorist state. The way i see it, the US has its nose towed by Israel.

I do not see any changes will come with Obama, the picture that showed him visiting Israel and wearing the skullcap speaks volume that he will bow to Israel in order to become the President of the United States of America. Now he has surrounded himself with people who were either ex-Israel army or pro-Israel as part of his team.

To those Malaysians who were on cloud nine when Obama won the election and would bring change to this world, think again. Only the skin color of the President changed, the ones who run America still remains - the Jews.

Dear Tun,

If the history is correctly written, why are the Jewish killing the Palestine/Arab? While during the WW2, the Nazi are the one who is killing the Jewish. Do the Israelis have different history from the rest of the world. Apparently they do not know who are responsible for killing their ancesstor. Why took revenge to a little nation like Palestine.

Does it because of piece of land, I don't think so, or could it be to show the world that the Jewish are capable to do what they can't during WW2? Maybe this is what the Jewish is trying to tell the world. But why need the support of American. If the Jewish are capable to take care the unfinished business then why need to engage big brother to use his VITO power to enable them to take the street of unarmed of helpless civilians.

Not all Jewish agreed with the Israelis action but in the name of mankind, the Jewish should not take this sort of measure and make repeat history of their ancesstor. If the Jewish belief of the action of Nazi is wrong, then why repeat the wrong history of Nazi. The Jewish should by all mean take into account for making cordial friendship with the Palestine for sharing the same soil. But the way things being happening for decade, this shown that the Nazi is 100% correct?

To the other readers of this blog - do not put blame to anyone for being what we are. Each of us has it own belief, either about race or religion. Whatever we do and belief, it's never the same as we wants the other to accept our belief. All belief is self-motivating for doing a good deed and this is why the lord has send his messenger for teaching the mankind in the name of good heart. For the past/present/future the never ending story will continue till the dooms day in 2200 (2020).

God bless you.

Salam TUN

1. Kezaliman yang dilakukan oleh yahudi dilakukan keatas palestine adalah dasyat. Mereka membunuh tanpa rasa belas kasihan tidak kira tua atau muda, kecil atau besar samada lemah atau berdaya.

2. Sebagaimana, janji Allah akan bantu sesiapa hambanya yang dizalimi, walaupun dari golongan kafir. Kenapa palestine tidak dibantu oleh Allah & doa mereka dan seluruh orang islam tidak kabul? Allah tidak pernah mungkir janji, maha suci Allah dari mungkir janji. Mesti ada sebab yang kukuh sehinggakan Allah tutup bantuan dan nusraNya kpd muslim yang sedang dizalimi.

3. Jawapannya ialah seluruh orang islam melakukan kezaliman yang lebih dasyat terhadap seluruh orang bukan islam termasuk yahudi di Israel. Kenapa? ini adalah kerana orang islam telah menidakkan hak orang bukan islam untuk diajak kpd Allah dengan diajak menerima kalimah Lailahailallah

Muhammad Rasulullah.

4. Orang islam palestini yang meninggal dlm serangan yahudi, insyallah mati dalam keadaan islam krn pernah mengucap kalimah, (kalimah Lailahailallah Muhammad Rasulullah) dan akan terima syaafaat dari Nabi saw di akhirat dan akan masuk syurga.

5. Namun mereka yang belum islam termasuk yahudi di Israel? apa akan terjadi terhadap mereka dalam keadaan mereka tidak pernah mengucap kalimah yakni tidak mati dengan islam. Mereka akan mati dibakar dalam api neraka yang panas menyala selamanya.

6. Siapakah yang lebih zalim? muslim atau yahudi? Jawabannya ialah kita seluruh islam dalam keadaan buat zalim terhadap mereka yang belum islam termasuk yahudi. Walaupun orang islam dizalimi termasuk di palestini tetapi kezaliman yang orang islam lakukan terhadap orang bukan islam seluruh dunia termasuk yahudi di Isreal adalah lebih zalim dari kezaliman yang mereka terhadap kita orang muslim.

7. Inilah jawabannya kenapa doa orang islam tidak diterima dan tidak dibantu oleh Allah sedangkan Allah janji akan bantu orang yang dizalimi. Sebagaimana dalam hadis Nabi saw ada sebut lebih kurang bunyinya, bila orang islam tidak mengajak manusia kepada Allah (amal makruf- ajak kepada Allah dan nahi mungkar- mencegah syirik terhadap Allah) maka akan tiba masanya bila kamu berdoa tidak akan dikabul, apa yang diminta tidak diberi dan bila kamu mohon bantuan Allah terhadap musuh-musuh kamu, tidak akan dibantu.

Sebagaimana firman Allah lebih kurang bunyinya, kamu bantu Allah (sebar agama dengan ajak manusia kepada Allah), maka Allah akan bantu kamu dengan menguatkan kaki-kaki kamu menentang musuh kamu.

8. Sudah ratusan tahun orang islam tidak mengajak orang bukan islam kepada islam kerana orang islam telah tinggalkan perintah Allah yang pertama iaitu tidak lagi buat kerja nabi, <http://kerja-nabi.blogspot.com/>

9. Inilah puncanya orang islam tidak dibantu seperti di palestini walaupun orang islam tetap berdoa, masih bersolat, bayar zakat, berpuasa, naik haji dan ramai lagi alim ulama' dalam kalangan orang islam namun kerana orang islam tinggalkan kerja nabi iaitu perintah Allah pertama yang mula-mula diturunkan di Mekah sebelum perintah Allah kedua, solat.

10. Allah akan bantu orang islam bila orang islam kembali buat kerja nabi, cara nabi dan sanggup berkorban macam nabi kita Muhammad saw. sepertimana bantuan Allah terhadap Nabi saw & sahabatnya di badar dan perang2 lain.

11. Bila orang islam tinggalkan kerja nabi maka kezaliman orang islam terhadap orang bukan islam jauh lebih dasyat daripada kezaliman yang mereka buat terhadap kita orang islam. Kerana matinya orang islam Insyallah syurga dan rahmat Allah menanti dan kesusahan yang menimpa orang islam jadi asbab untuk dosa-dosa mereka diampunkan. Tetapi tidak orang yang bukan islam. Untuk mereka dalam kubur sahaja pun mereka telah diberi azab dengan dihantar 99 ekor binatang berbisa bersama mereka sehingga kiamat.

12. Inilah sebabnya selama ni kita semua orang islam tidak dibantu oleh Allah. Sudah puluhan tahun orang islam palestini dizalimi iaitu semenjak negara Isreal dibentuk tahun 1946 lagi, ini bukan cerita baru. Allah gunakan orang islam di sana dan beberapa tempat didunia untuk Allah tunjukkan kemurkaan Allah terhadap orang islam kerana langgar perintah Allah dengan tinggalkan perintah yang pertama iaitu kerja nabi. Dan kemurkaan Allah juga menimpa kita seluruh orang islam seluruh dunia dengan Allah letakkan orang kafir berkuasa atas orang islam iaitu Amerika dan sekutunya.

13. Terus hantar bantuan makanan, ubatan dan lain-lain keperluan untuk mereka yang dalam kesusahan di Gaza & palestini. Namun jangan kita lupa untuk ajak semua orang islam seluruh dunia termasuk di Gaza dan palestini untuk sama-sama bertaubat kepada Allah kerana dosa tinggalkan kerja nabi selama ni. Kita telah lama aniayai orang bukan islam. Sedangkan Nabi saw meenangis melihat jenazah orang bukan islam. Tetapi tidak demikian berlaku pada kita semua dengan melihat dgn penuh kebencian. Tiada lagi kesian dan sedih spt Nabi saw. Ini kerana semua orang islam lupa akan maksud hidup dan kerja nabi utama sebagai muslim.

14. Sebenarnya kerja Nabi saw iaitu mengajak orang yg belum islam kepada islam telah Allah fardhukan kepada orang islam kerana Nabi saw adalah nabi terakhir dan tidak ada lagi nabi dihantar setelahnya.

15. Namun harini kita mahu bunuh orang bukan islam tanpa mengajak mereka terlebih kepada islam. Sepatutnya mula2 mereka diajak terima islam, kalau enggan kemudian suruh mereka bayar jizyah/tax atau enggan juga, kemudian barulah perang. Dan kalau berperang setelah ajak mereka pada islam barulah orang islam akan dibantu Allah.

17. Kemurkaan Allah terhadap orang islam akan berterusan sehinggalah orang islam mula bertaubat dan bangkit kembali buat kerja nabi.

Greetings Tun & bloggers

It is no surprise for the Jews to control the USA or even the global economy.

The whole world is using US Dollars which is issued by The Federal Bank of USA.

The Federal Bank of USA is owned by The Rothschild Family - a Jew family. Thus by having nearly the whole world to use US Dollars, it is controlling the economy of many countries.

So the item to be boycotted should be the US Dollars. There are alternative currencies to be used as common denominator. Or we can revert to Gold Dinar as was proposed by Tun.

This way not one country will control the whole economy.

A humble opinion.

Dearest Tun and Fellow Readers,

A lot of calls have been made such as boycotts, attacking the US and Israel (although, we all know this is not to be taken literally), stop using the US Dollars and as such.

We know as well that these actions are meant to symbolize our displeasure and protest of the current plight of our brothers and sisters in Gaza. Drastic actions such as mass resignation and boycotting will definitely hurt us more than the US, as stated by many readers.

However, the real concern here is why us (Malaysia) as a small developing country are making most of the noise?? Where are the powerful Islamic Countries? Why aren't they making the noise? Countries like Saudi Arabia and the UAE? These are the countries that could REALLY make the difference when it comes to boycotting and such.

The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, who controls the world oil produce can't even lift a finger to assist??? Do something, anything that could hurt them..financially and economically - These Israelis and the Zionist Controlled US Govt..at the very least threaten them for Allah's sake!!

I was shocked to see the news last night when the people of Gaza were weeping, crying, begging for help from their Arab neighbours. Where are they? Saudis..you have the power to make a difference more so than us and yet we are the ones who are so passionate in helping and condemning the "ethnic cleansing" in Gaza.

Tun, I am sure that if you were still the Chairman of OIC, you would at the very least put these powerful Muslim countries to shame by not lifting a finger.

When will they act...will the invasion of the Holy Cities of Mecca and Medina be ultimate catalyst before they act? I am sure that invasion of the holy cities are already in their plan..The Gaza Crisis is but the first act of Grand Plan to destroy the Muslim World forever...do they really just sit and wait for this to happen? For the Zionist troops to trample at the Masjid Al-Haram??? Imagine that ...if they act then it will be far too late.

Tun, I am proud of your comments and entire in this blog, simply because you are stating exactly what's on everyone's mind and that your blog seems to be getting recognised internationally..unfortunately by people who could not really see who are the real criminals in this scenario.

Salam Tun and let's ensure that we pray for the unfortunate victims at Gaza every day until it stops.

Several of the history makers from ancient times were all Jews such as Albert Einstein, Sigmund Freud, Karl Marx, Paul Samuelson and Milton Friedman.

Jews were those who made discoveries in various fields, such as Benjamin Ruben (vaccinating needle); Jonas Salk (polio vaccine); Gertrude Elion (leukemia drug); Baruch Blumberg (vaccine for Hepatitis B); Paul Ehrlich (syphilis drug); Gregory Pincus (contraceptive pill); G. Wald (science of understanding of human eye) and Willem Kloffcame (kidney dialysis).

They were also responsible for inventions that changed history: inventor of micro-processing chip, Stanley Mezor; nuclear chain reactor, Sziland; optical fibre cable, Peter Schultz; traffic lights, Charles Adler; stainless steel, Benno Strauss; sound movies, Isador Kisee; telephone microphone, Emile Berliner and video tape recorder, Charles Ginsburg.

Jews also ran influential global business: Polo (Ralph Lauren); Levi's Jeans (Levi Strauss); Starbucks (Howard Schultz); Google (Sergey Brin); Dell Computers (Michael Dell); Oracle (Larry Ellison); DKNY (Donna Karan); Baskin Robbins (Irv Robbins) and Dunkin Donuts (Bill Rosenberg).

They were also influential intellectuals and politicians, such as Henry Kissinger, US former Secretary of State; Alan Greenspan of US Federal Reserve; Madeleine Albright, former US Secretary of State; David Marshall, Singapore Chief Minister; Barry Goldwater, US politician and Robert Rubin, US Secretary of Treasury.

They were also influential global media people, such as Wolf Blitzer of CNN, Barbara Walters of ABC News, Joseph Lelyeld of New York Times, Eugene Meyer of Washington Post and Henry Grunwald of Time Magazine.

Assalamualaikum.

Sesungguhnya apa yang diluahkan oleh TDM adalah perkongsian rasa oleh insan-insan lain yang masih mempunyai nilai-nilai kemanusiaan yang tinggi. Memang ramai yang marah dan geram dengan Israel dan Amerika tapi apa yang mampu kita buat? Kita hanya mampu protes dengan tunjuk perasaan dan paling mampu kita lakukan BOYCOTT produk Amerika. Itu pun selepas disedarkan oleh TDM dan anaknya, barulah terasa sangat minum coke dan makan Mc Donald macam minum dan makan darah dan daging rakyat Palestin

Hari ini Israel berani kerana big brothernya yang membantu dan menyokong tindak tanduknya, saya rasa kalau hari ini Amerika yang menyebelahi Palestin adakah Israel akan berani bertindak seperti sekarang dan menyalahkan Hamas dalam hal ini? tentu tidak!

Apa sebab perkara begini terjadi saya rasa adalah kerana NEGARA ISLAM rata-rata pemimpinnya ..... (fikir sendiri) dan mementingkan dirinya sendiri, tak nak mengikut sistem yang di atur oleh AGAMANYA.

Seingat saya TUN DR MAHATHIR, PRESIDEN IRAN DAN IMAM BESAR MEKAH pernah menyeru agar orang-orang Islam hari ini kalau nak kuat dan maju mesti "KAYA" DAN BERSATU tapi pemimpin Islam degil dan tak nak menghayati apa yang disarankan dan inilah jadinya. Masing-masing asyik bertelagah pendapat dan bergaduh sesama mereka, Negara kaya tak membantu negara yang miskin, coba kita ikut sistem zakat, mungkin tak sebegini teruk miskinnya negara Islam dan kalau negara tak terlalu daif dan para bijak-pandai pun ramai tak lah kita mengharapkan negara Uncle Sam tu untuk bantuan kewangan dan senjata.

BAGI MEREKA YANG MARAH SANGAT KAT DM TU, BERFIKIRLAH SECARA TENANG DAN RASIONAL. ANDA FIKIR CARA ISRAEL TU BETUL KE? SALAHKAH DM MENYEBELAHI PALASTIN HANYA KEBETULAN PALASTIN ADALAH NEGARA ISLAM. SAYA TAK FIKIR DM JUGA BERSETUJU DENGAN CARA PENGEBOM BERANI MATI KERANA TIADA SATU AGAMA PUN DI DUNIA INI MENGHALALKAN PEMBUNUHAN KEPADA ORANG YANG TAK BERSALAH TAPI DAPATKAH DM DAN KITA SEMUA BERDIAM DIRI DENGAN CARA PEMBUNUHAN YANG DILAKUKAN OLIH ISRAEL??

KALAU NAK DISEBUT KEBURUKAN DM SEMASA MEMERINTAH DULU SAYA RASA SEMUA MANUSIA BUAT SALAH DAN SILAP KERANA KITA MANUSIA NI TIDAK SEMPURNA JADI SAYA RASA TAK PAYAHLAH NAK UNGKIT LAGI KERANA KALAU JAWATAN TU DI BERI KEPADA PENGUNGKIT PUN SAYA TAK FIKIR MEREKA BOLIH BUAT LEBIH BAIK DARI TUN DR MAHATHIR, MUNGKIN SERUPA JUGA ATAUPUN ENTAH ENTAH DIA LAGI TERUK!!! Semoga keberanian Tun bersuara membela nasib rakyat Palestin mendapat balasan setimpal dari Allah SWT. Bukan hendak memperkecilkan Pas, tapi saya masih tertanya-tanya dan tercari-cari di mana pemimpin Pas yang boleh bersuara di peringkat antarabangsa seperti Tun? Adakah pemimpin Pas hanya jaguh kampung atau memang tiada pemimpin yang berkebolehan lantaran ideologi parti yang selalu menyalahkan pemimpin Islam lain khususnya UMNO?

Dear Tun,

I know that u are very passionate in supporting the Palestinian cause. I really don't know who is more guilty as I had not read Or seen all the mistakes made by both sides. I know that wars are ugly & nobody on either side can claim total victory because you are killing your fellow men, your brethren. I feel sorry for both sides as I can feel the pain & anguish. We always pray that this Mid-East conflict can come to an end soon & people can co-exist happily.

As for Coca-Cola I had never quite fancy it since very young, so giving up or drinking less is off course no problem to me.

Every night before we retire we should all pray for world PEACE.

Asalamualaikum Tun,

1) Kita boleh boikot barangan Amerika tanda protes keatas kezaliman yang dilaku oleh sekutunya Israel. Impak kepada Amerika adalah kecil.

2) Amerika adalah negara yang kuat dari segi ekonomi dan juga ketenteraan. Andaian Tun itu benar, maruah kita mungkin dihormati oleh dunia apabila kita menyerang Amerika, tetapi akibatnya negara kita akan musnah akibat tindakan balas ekonomi dan ketenteraan.

3) Kata orang, mereka ni durian kita ni timun. Tergolek pun kita kena dan mengolek pun kita kena. Tapi kalau durian dah jadi tempoyak, baru dia tahu kena lenyek dengan timun.

4) Boikot ni mesti menyeluruh, kalau setakat Malaysia seorang sahaja yang buat memang susah dan tak berkesan. Tapi kalau semua negara-negara Islam boikot, saya rasa baru ada reaksinya.

5) Malaysia kena jadi pelupori untuk menjayakan program boikot ni. OIC pun perlu mainkan peranannya. Lihatlah masa pencerobohan tentera Serb keatas Bosnia, Semua Negara Islam kutuk sahaja. Bantuan dari Negara Arab pun tak seberapa. Seingat saya Malaysia dibawah teraju Tun, yang kuat melaungkan bantahan terhadap Serbia. Hendak harapkan UN Secretary General Butrous Butrous Gali dan Perwakilan Khas Yasushi Akashi habis kaum Bosnia dihapuskan dibumi Balkan.

6) Kesedihan saya sekarang adalah negara-negara Arab yang hanya duduk diam sahaja. Belum percapaian cadangan mengenai gencatan senjata dibawah agenda negara-negara Arab, mereka sesama sendiri sudah timbul masalah. Perkara-perkara seperti ini yang menaikan semangat Israel untuk tidak menghiraukan laungan bangsa-bangsa Arab.

7) Israel Zionist memang jahat dan zalim dan tak payah dipertikaikan. Yang mesti dipertikaikan sekarang adalah kelemahan orang-orang Islam terutama orang-orang Arab yang ambil sambil lewa sahaja. Kalau harimau tetap harimau, kita manusia mesti mencari kaedah untuk mengelak dari diterkam.

8) Sepatutnya negara-negara Arab disekeliling Israel yang patut menyerang, bukan Malaysia yang jauh beribu-ribu kilometer. Kadang-kadang teringat juga ( out of the discussion) mana orang-orang handal Indonesia yang dikatakan boleh terbang, kebal dan boleh hantar santau angin dari jauh? Kenapa tak santau sahaja Ehud Olmert dan kunci-kuncunya? Entahlah.

9) DiMalaysia orang-orang yang bersekongkol dengan Amerika yang dapat bantuan kewangan, media, moral dan nasihat patut diboikotkan juga. Manusia seperti ini mesti diawasi. Apa kata Bro Anwar Ibrahim (

Mr. Anwear Abraham)?

Nyah sahaja.....

Dear Sir,

You claimed that you're not biased against America and Israel, but in fact you do - did you condemn Hamas for bombing the INNOCENT Israel people during the past few years?

You didn't.

Also, you never urge the Palestinian people to stand up against Hamas when they killed the Israeli people.

Why? because you support the Muslims unconditionally, even if they are terrorists and killed innocent people.

You also claimed that you dislike terrorism, but you also defend their act by saying that they do this out of desperation.

But this is no excuse. There're other ways to confront an enemy besides violence. Just develop your country and improve your economy, like what China is doing. This is much better than killing your enemy and creating more hatred.

Adakah semua produk dari Israel dan Amerika kita patut boikot? Apa akan jadi dengan ekonomi negara kita? Saya rasa barangan yg bukan keperluan harian saja yg boleh kita boikot. Yg tu boleh memberi impak besar kepada ekonomi mereka. Yg lain gunakan dengan berhemah, maksudnya beli sekiranya perlu je. Saya bimbang menang sorak kampung tergadai akan berlaku pada ekonomi kita nanti.

Assalamualaikum Tun,

May i used your blog to unleash my option to the (Maybe) right person who supposes to make their move at this time?

Thank You Tun. May God Bless you.

To : ALL ARABIC KING, SULTAN & LEADER,

Dear Khalifah ALLAH,

You all have been given the rightful power of trusted LEADER by your countrymen in NEARBY AREA within Gaza.

Would you sleep or eat or happily live when you know & see our brothers & children's that's clearly been executed by our well known ENEMY (Stated in Al-Quran) and STILL... YOU ALL NOT doing any effective ACT!.

If ..... I were One (1) of you,

I'll send my reserved defense to march toward the ISRAEL border & Strongly Shout JIHAT! To others ISLAMIC country to follow my move and by then I'll give the So Called Security Council in UN by two (2) choices :-

- 1) ASK the Evil Israeli Troop to back off from GAZA.
- 2) We will strike back!

AFTER that... I'll send my most educated & intelligent attorney to get ICC at The Hague to bring the culprit in ISRAEL Government by accusing them in violating international law with its war on Gaza in which almost 1,100 Palestinians have been killed, nearly half of them civilians and children. We have a strong and CLEARLY EVIDENCE to send them in HELL with collective punishment by disproportionate military force & attacks on CIVILIAN TARGETS, including HOMES, MOSQUES, UNIVERSITIES, SCHOOLS AND MANY MORE....

Then I believe your ACT WILL BE MUCH EFFECTIVE rather than Talk & Conferences & Meeting & Asking for WESTERN to do something for us.

Please DO NOT TRUST AMERICAN! Even their Elected In-coming Mr. PRESIDENT. They all are the same....and they already give you all enough BULLSHIT. Aren't They!

BUT still try to get close to their Economy & interest like JEWS have done so effectively.

This is what I will do!.. at this current moment of situation.

IF I HAVE A CHANCE TO BE YOU ALL.

Thank you.

I, for one, am glad you are no longer the Prime Minister and cannot order the MAF to attack Israel. The Americans and Brits sent a multinational force to invade Iraq, and see what they're caught in now. And I daresay that the MAF is very much weaker than the US Army, and the Israel Defense Force much stronger than Saddam's Royal Guard.

You want the MAF to attack Israel and America? I really don't know whether to laugh or cry.

Tun,

Saya setuju dengan pandangan Tun. Orang Islam perlu belajar berkorban berdasarkan kemampuan masing-masing. Kalau tidak boleh pergi berperang, korbankan sedikit harta, walaupun itu tak boleh sekurang-kurangnya boikot barang-barang dari Israil. Kalau ditanya diakhirat kelak ? apa yang kau buat untuk membantu orang-orang Palestin yang dianiaya, sekurang-kurangnya kita boleh menjawab "Kita boikot barang-barang mereka", Ambil iktbar dari kisah seekor burung dengan Nabi Ibrahim.

Sebuah kisah di zaman Nabi Ibrahim, semasa Nabi Ibrahim dibakar oleh kaumnya, seekor burung kecil terbang berulang alik mengisi air dalam paruhnya lalu menyiram ke atas api yang membakar. Itulah yang dilakukannya berulang kali. Tingkah lakunya diperhatikan oleh makhluk Allah yang lain lalu bertanya kepada burung kecil itu, 'buat apa kau penat-penat mengambil air berulang alik, sedangkan api yang membakar Nabi Ibrahim takkan terpadam dengan air yang kau siramkan itu.'

Lalu dijawab oleh burung tersebut, 'Memang ia tidak akan memadamkan api tersebut, tetapi aku lebih takut kepada Allah kerana Allah akan menyoal aku nanti, apakah yang aku lakukan untuk agama Allah, dan Allah tidak akan bertanya samada aku berjaya memadamkan api itu ataupun tidak'.

Askum Tun,

Bagi saya negara-negara OIC yang kebanyakannya terdiri daripada negara-negara Islam patut boikot jualan jual minyak kepada Amerika, Israel dan Britain. Kita hanya mengadakan perdagangan minyak sesama negara Islam saja (close trade). Kalau kita negara-negara OIC tak jual minyak kepada tiga negara paksi jahat itu, lama kelamaan mereka akan tetap menjadi lemah kerana semua kelengkapan ketenteraan mereka seperti jet fighter, bombar dan kereta kebal tak dapat bergerak kerana simpanan minyak mereka habis. Kita tak rugi apa-apa kerana minyak sememangnya berada di dalam tangan kita dan terpulanglah kepada kita dan negara-negara Islam ini untuk mengenakan sekatan minyak terhadap Amerika, Israel dan Britain. Kalau Israel boleh mengenakan sekatan terhadap Palestin, kenapa tak kita sebagai negara Islam yg bersaudara melakukan perkara yg sama (sekatan terhadap Israel)? Apakah gunanya kelengkapan ketenteraan yg canggih sekiranya tak dapat bergerak sebab tiada minyak? Lagipun, sekiranya Amerika dan Britain ini kehabisan minyak, rakyat mereka akan bangkit dan menyalahkan polisi dasar luar kerajaan mereka kerana disebabkan kerajaan merekalah yg menyebabkan mereka sengsara. Kalau kita sebagai orang luar tak dapat menghuru-harakan keadaan dalam negara mereka, kita biarkan rakyat mereka sendiri mengacaulaikan kerajaan mereka sendiri. Sebab apa? Minyak mereka dah habis. Lama kelamaan kerajaan mereka pasti tunduk kepada kehendak rakyat mereka sendiri. Kita cuma back to basic saja, beasr kapasiti, besarlah tanggungannya (maksud saya disini ialah Amerika & Britain mempunyai tanggungun yg besar seperti rakyat yg sangat ramai (banyaklah juga kenderaan yg dipakai), kelengkapan ketenteraan yg canggih dan semua ini memerlukan minyak yg banyak untuk berfungsi).

Selain itu, kita juga sebenarnya dapat melumpuhkan ekonomi Amerika melalui sistem yg mereka cipta sendiri iaitu perdagangan mata wang asing. Sejak forex ini dibuka kepada orang awam oleh Bill Clinton pada tahun 1996 (kalau tak silap), ramai orang mampu menjalankan urusaniaga forex ini. Apabila kita ramai-ramai dapat buat duit dan menjadi jutawan melalui forex, apa kata kita short/sell matawang US Dollar dengan mendadak pada satu masa sahaja seperti apa yg dilakukan oleh George Soros kepada Great Britain Pound Sterling pada tahun 1992. Sekiranya seorang individu seperti Soros mampu menjejaskan ekonomi Britain dengan hanya short/sell Pound Sterling, apatah lagi kita yg ramai-ramai buat forex ini sebab konsep asasnya ialah nilai matawang sesebuah negara itu pasti jatuh sekiranya kita short/sell matawang negara tersebut dalam jumlah yg banyak. Dengan cara ini kita dapat sedikit sebanyak melumpuhkan ekonomi Amerika..

Tun, apa pandangan Tun tentang pendapat saya di atas?

Semoga Tun sekeluarga dilimpahi rahmat Illahi sentiasa. Amin...

Dear Tun,

First and foremost let me state I am against the killing of innocent people anywhere.

I bet you and just about every other leader in this world would love to be in Olmert's shoes.

An every country would give "an arm or leg" to be Israel or the United States.

Why?

Simply because noboby and nobody dares to monkey around with them. Isn't that nice knowing nobody dares to monkey around with you.

As for Hamas, its leaders if they have any sense they better follow the part Sadat took.

Egypt, the most powerful Arab country (at least during the Arab-Israeli wars), is enjoying decades of peace.

What are Hamas leaders trying to prove. Innocent lives is not important to them.

The real trouble makers is Iran.

Best Regards

Ataturk

Dear Tun,

It is shameful that the world leaders could only condemn. Even school children could do better job in this. What's more embarrassing is us asking for UN and Obama to help??? The Muslim takes up 20% of world population and yet we resort to the non-Muslim for assistance?

You have strong influence in OIC, we should instead seek the Arab leaders for assistance or start condemning them. It is very ironic that the Arab leaders only talk without taking any physical action. They seem scared of the people of their own native, they even look alike. Why are they so scared of Hamas' influence?

Use your influence to strongly condemn Mesir for not opening their door to the injured and sick. We should all start labelling Hosni Mubarak as a coward! Surely he could do better than just talk.

And condemn the rest of the Arab leaders as well.

It has been decreed in the Holy Book, Israel will not stop. They even kill the children fearing the big numbers of young Tahfiz in Palestine. Talking and condemning will get us nowhere.

Salam Tun

apa yang perlu kita buat SEKARANG INI

1) hantar tentera Malaysia ke Gaza... tak mungkin sebab kita tak kuat. awal-awal Pemimpin kita dan kita mengaku... itu tak mungkin.

Mungkin kita bergabung dengan negara Islam lain. Baru kuat sikit. Ada mana-mana pemimpin kita boleh jadi pengerak kearah ini. TAK ADA??? Kalau macam tu.. tak payah kita mewartarkan ketidakupayaan org/negara lain kerana kita sendiripun tak mampu. Anggaphlah mereka sama macam kita.

MEREKA BUNUH ORG PALESTINE KITA MESTI BUAT SESUATU. APA PERLU KITA BUAT???

2) Melalui rundingan. dari dulu sampai sekarang sama... Terima kasih kerana apa pihak-pihak yang telah berusaha. Tapi israel tetap dengan cara dia. Bila dah puas menghentam .. baru mereka berhenti. PBB pun takut.

Jadi tak jalan jugak

KESIHAN TENGOK ORG PALESTINE... MESTI KENA TOLONG JUGAK.. TAPI MACAM MANA???

3) Boikot barangan yang ada hubung kait dengan Israel dan Amerika. Itulah yang sepatut kita lakukan kerana kita seorg yang amat lemah dari segi mental dan fizikal. Saya berharap saya sendiri dapat melakukan dengan sepenuhnya.

Adakah dia akan berjaya??? Dia akan berjaya KALAU

a) Boikot adalah arahan rasmi dari kerajaan bukan individu. Pemimpin kita dan keluar statement. Boikot di Malaysia adalah individu bukan arahan kerajaan

b) Org Islam seluruh dunia melakukan. Perlu ada pemimpin/individu yg sanggup menjadi ketua untuk mengerakkan usaha ini.

c) Semua org di sesebuah negara perlu bersatu hati. bila ada boikot mesti ada tindakbalas. Kilang kena tutup. Mereka tak beli barangan kita. Akan ada pengganguran.

AKAN TERJADIKAH MACAM TU.... pandangan saya... tak mungkin sekarang nie.

JADI APA PERLU KITA BUAT SEKARANG

I). Boikotlah apa yg patut berdasarkan kemampuan kita. Disamping nasihatlah sahabat sesama saudara atau bukan seagama

II) Sentiasa berdoa pada Allah supaya segera menurunkan pemimpin yang mampu untuk mengerakkan Umat Islam dan Masyarakat Dunia III) Pada rakyat Palestine.... Berilah perkabaran pada mereka... BERSABARLAH. Kerana sekarang ini kami semua belum mampu untuk membantu anda kerana terlalu banyak kekurangan kami.

Do something..

Saya rasa kalau Umat Islam seluruh dunia tunjukkan kesatuan dan bersatu demi agama Islam, kita tak payah boycott pun, tak payah perang pun. Kita bersuara saja, orang lain dah menggeletar. Itu yang terjadi sekarang bila orang bukan Islam bersatu menentang Islam. Dia orang bersuara saja, semua (kebanyakan) negara Islam dah menggeletar. Mana OIC yang cuma "Oh I see" tu? Tak ada taring langsung. Gigi palsu pun tercabut bila orang lain bersuara.

Remember! most important is to stay united in the name of Islam, not country... nor state... nor tribe nor whatever.

By eskayAuthor Profile Page on January 16, 2009 11:56 PM

Asalamualaikom.

Sejauh manakah keberkesanan aktiviti pemboikotan ini?

Ini kerana senarai barangan terlalu banyak untuk diboikot sehinggakan kita sendiri lupa apakah barangan yang perlu diboikot.

Saya cadangkan, jangan import barangan tersebut kerana tindakan ini lebih bagus dari menyuruh rakyat boikot.

teima kasih

If this is an order from the Prime Minister, then the military will go in and fight or else all the unwilling soldiers will be court marshalled. But you know and I know that it will not be worth it. At the end of the day, it will only prove that we Malaysians are no better than the rest. But actually it is not the fault of the people who carry out the orders and kill others. The worst murderers are the ones giving the orders. So why not the ones who give the orders fight it out among themselves ? Sheikh Khaled Meshaal from the Hamas side armed machine guns and what not and Bush with his cowboy rifle shooting at each other ? While Palestinian babies are decapitated, other Palestinian children are trained to be child soldiers. Shouldn't children be schooling instead of being brainwashed into fighting the enemies ? The adults' enemies ? And how many Malaysians are there now in USA ?

assalamualaikum Tun,

1. Saya berpendapat sememangnya manusia suka berbunuh-bunuhan, tak kira apa ugama pun. Untuk melarang manusia berperang adalah mustahil samasekali. Namun, Allah tahu apa yang dilakukan dan usaha damai adalah niat murni.
2. Dalam situasi sekarang, saya berpendapat, perlu ada pengasingan secara sistematik antara islam dan bukan islam. perpindahan secara teratur dan senyap umat islam ke negara yang islam.
3. Peperangan diantara Islam dan bukan islam adalah tidak dapat dielakkan. tiada fakta yang menafikan. umat islam kini diperkotak-katikkan. Bukan hanya sekarang, dari dulu lagi. Dunia perlu dibahagikan. walaupun dunia islam agak ketinggalan, kita boleh melakukannya. sedikit demi sedikit.
4. persoalannya..... bolehkah kita hidup tanpa coca-cola? ;P

salam sejahtera, boycott barangan US patut dimulakan oleh golongan kaya raya (golongan profesional, Datuk, Tan Sri, Dato Sri, etc yang bergaji lebih RM3000 sebulan atau yg hidup atas komisyen/elaun) yang sentiasa bermegah kerana dapat menyarungkan pakaian Made In USA, UK, berbangga kerana dapat memandu atau memiliki deretan kereta mewah dari US, UK, bongkak dengan barang kemas, jam tangan beribu ringgit dan lain-lain yang amat panjang jika disenaraikan.

kalau nak menyeru rakyat biasa yang bergaji kecil ni apa sangat yang boleh kami lakukan. nama pun barang import pasti mahal dan tak mampu beli. kami makan nasi bukan pasta atau pizza atau burger. kami minum air suam bukan coke atau pepsi atau liquor atau beer. kami cuma mampu berharap Sharil Samad boleh kerah pasukannya untuk menurunkan harga barang selaras dengan harga minyak yang telah turun. masa berkempen tabur janji manis belaka. dah menang kasi rakyat makan habuk. cakap saja wakil rakyat berkhidmat untuk rakyat. atau sebenarnya makan duit rakyat?

ya tuhanku dan tuhan orang-orang kaya, tunjukkan lah kebenaran kepada rakyat malaysia.

Scomi: Malaysia mahu AS buktikan dakwaan

KUALA K LAWANG 16 Jan. — Kementerian Luar akan mendapatkan laporan lengkap daripada Jabatan Negara Amerika Syarikat berhubung perintah sekatan terhadap Ketua Pegawai Eksekutif (CEO) Kumpulan Scomi kerana kononnya terlibat dengan jaringan pemerolehan peralatan nuklear.

Menteri berkenaan, Datuk Seri Dr Rais Yatim berkata kerajaan Malaysia tidak dapat menerima tuduhan itu begitu sahaja tanpa ada bukti kukuh.

“Kita akan menunggu laporan rasmi daripada pihak-pihak yang menyiasat kemudian baru kita buat perincian,” katanya kepada Bernama selepas satu majlis di sini hari ini.

Kerajaan Malaysia akan menyiasat sama ada dakwaan kuasa besar itu mempunyai asas yang berkait dengan perundangan antarabangsa, undang-undang nuklear atau pun undang-undang yang berkaitan dengan keluaran dan kemasukan barangan yang dilarang di peringkat antarabangsa, katanya.

Rais berkata demikian ketika diminta mengulas laporan yang disiarkan The Straits Times, Singapura yang melaporkan bahawa nama CEO Scomi, Shah Hakim @ Shahzanim Zain, dimasukkan dalam senarai Jabatan Negara Amerika bersama 12 individu lain kerana didakwa terlibat dalam pemerolehan peralatan nuklear. - Bernama

1. Baru saja "terlibat" jaringan pemerolehan peralatan nuklear, Shah Hakim @ Shahzanim Zain CEO Scomi dah kena sekatan dari Jabatan Negara AS. Rakyat mesti dah tau apa bentuk sekatan ke atas negara apabila Malaysia secara rasmi mengiktiraf menggunakan teknologi nuklear.

2. Sejak bila pula The Strait Times SINGAPURA menjadi jurucakap bagi Jabatan Negara AS? Kalaupun Jabatan Negara AS nak buat tuduhan kenapa tidak langsung hubungi Kementerian Luar melalui US embassy.

3. Apakah jabatan negara AS tak tau alamat kedutaan Malaysia di negaranya sendiri atau takdak nombor telefon duta besarnya di Kuala Lumpur sampai media Singapura yg tau dulu.

4. Bermakna sangatkah sekatan AS ni pada Ceo scomi? Apakah Jabatan Negara As tidak mengiktiraf hubungan diplomatiknya dengan Malaysia sampai laporan tersebut keluar dari straits times Singapura terlebih dahulu atau straits times singapura sebenarnya adalah Jambatan bagi Negara AS untuk ke Malaysia?

5. Baguslah kalau betoi kita dah ada ataupun baru nak merintis teknologi nuklear. Semoga YAB PM kita, Dato Seri Pak Lah dah siap sedia nak berdebat macam Ahmadinejad. Tapi adalah lebih baik rasanya kerajaan Malaysia buat x tau saja kerana Pak Lah memang hebat dalam hal ni. x faedahnya menanggapi tuduhan AS ni kerana mereka tak pernah pun menanggapi seruan masyarakat antarabangsa, ceo scomi ni bukannya membunuh pun, israel bom 1000 lebih orang sampai mati tak pun kena sekatan.

6. Patutnya kementerian luar sekarang ni dah keluarkan juga nama presiden us, israel untuk dikenakan sekatan sebagai penjenayah perang.

7. kerajaan tak sepatutnya menanggapi tuduhan-tuduhan seperti ini kerana dari awal saja memang dah menampakkan niat jahat AS melalui machai chihuahuanya iaitu Singapura. Jangan dipedulikan kerana tuduhan2 seperti ini hanya akan mempersulit keadaan kerana akan membuka peluang kepada tentera AS untuk masuk Malaysia, dengan alasan memeriksa ataupun mungkin menuduh scomi ni membuat senjata nuklear seperti iran.

8. Bukan takat ni saja, org hindraf pun sekarang sedang berusaha memfitnah kerajaan malaysia di india supaya dapat membuka peluang AS masuk ke tanah air kita dengan alasan mencabuli hak asasi manusia dan melakukan genocide kaum india. kerajaan mesti bertindak secepat mungkin dengan melakukan penerangan sendiri ke india melalui saluran yg ada, jangan harapkan mic kerana samy belut saja cakupnya dah berbelit. Wake up Pak Lah...

A'kum Tun

i could not agree more that the Israelis are controlling the American government. it is so obvious that this has been going on for years. We Muslims should see this scenario long time ago and should realize it by now.

The best way to fight them is through educating our children to be the best in all fields so that we can fight the Americans and Jews. Somehow it is so sad to see our Muslims brothers and sisters are blowing themselves up just to prove their point and show their dissatisfaction about the whole thing. Yes I do understand their frustration but that is not the best way.

By boycotting their product we will help only if we do it as a unit. Or else it would not cost any impact on their company. we can't stop the consumers buying it Coca Cola at Seven Eleven but we can stop buying directly from the supplier so that there will be no Coca Cola drinks in the 7Eleven.

I really care about the Muslim world and their poverty level is really bad. Yet the rich Arabs are doing anything about it. They bought all the F16 and what not but they just keep it in the garage. they cant do much about it. The Saudis, Qataris, Kuwaitis, Jordanian and the royal family of UAE are not doing anything about it. Today they said they will have Arab Summit in Doha, Qatar but only after 21 days of attack on Palestinians which killed more than 1000 people and one third are children. What were they doing for the past 3 weeks?

We can't rely just on boycotting their products if the Arabs themselves are not willing to help and save the Palestinians.

Let it be a lesson to all of us seeing the Palestinians killed each day without the mercy of their own people. I am so sad and sorry for the Palestinians for their suffering but I am ever more sad and sorry to see their own people acting that way. the Egyptian government is the worst and I hope they will realize about it sooner rather than later before anybody plan an attack on their capital.

thank you

aziz

Salam buat Yg Bhg Tun,

1. Bani Israil (Yahudi) adalah kaum yang dinyatakan secara spesifik berulang-ulang kali di dalam Al-Quran dan pernyataan ini kekal selama 14 abad dari mula sehingga kini tanpa berubah faktanya. Sudah pasti ia membawa maksud yang amat khusus untuk kita kaji.
2. Yahudi di A.S pada awalnya menjadi nanah kepada masyarakat di sana (sebagaimana tulisan Hendry Ford - The International Jew, ringkasann/ulasannya boleh dibaca di 'Hendry Ford And The Jewish Question'.
3. Yahudi tidak ada negara kerana bangsa terbuang, ia hanya menumpang di negara mana yang bersimpati dengannya dan kekal di situ selagi ia dapat menguasai tempat tumpangnya - seperti dedalu.
4. Yahudi (seberang laut) bangsa yang survival dan tertindas. Keadaan ini membuahkan dorongan untuk mereka mencipta penemuan (sumbangan)- contohnya jeans Levis hasil menjadi kuli lombong, kerana tanpa sumbangan dan inovasi yang dapat dibuat, mereka akan menjadi beban perumah mereka dan lama-kelamaan dihalau pula.
5. Yahudi yang tidak tertindas seperti di negara Arab lain tidak sebijak mana kerana 'tidak tertekan' dan kurang terpengaruh dengan aliran eskترم (Zionis).
6. Penindasan menjadikan mereka kreatif, penuh muslihat dan eskترم. Selepas berjaya menguasai perumah (A.S dan negara di Eropah), fahaman eskترم mula menguasai diri dan mereka kembali mencari negara-bangsa sendiri yang digelar 'Israel'. Negara perumah mesti membantunya kerana terpaksa oleh pengaruhnya.
7. Kerana taksub, bangsa Yahudi tidak galak menukar penganut agama lain ke agamanya. Ini semua dijelaskan oleh Al-Quran - mengaku bangsa yang dimuliakan.
8. Sebagai Muslim (pembaca Muslim), kita akui Yahudi asal (ahli kitab) adalah halal sembelihannya untuk kita dan diharap Yahudi ini boleh mengatasi Yahudi zionis yang tengah rancak menyembelih saudara kita di Palestin.

By Pencetak SinarAuthor Profile Page on January 17, 2009 1:43 AM

Saya sokong, setinggi-tinggi iman, marilah kita sama-sama syahid di Palestin perjuangkan nasib saudara sesama Islam kita. Selemah-lemah iman kita benci dalam hati.

Tapi mengapa jadi yang selemah-lemah iman, sedangkan kita mampu buat lebih dari itu. Untuk itu kita boycott semua produk Israel, Yahudi, Amerika dan semua yang menyokong Israel.

Kalau tak de iman pun sekurang-kurangnya biar le ada kemanusiaan.

- 2)Revenge belongs to God is quite a dumb statement.
- 3)Because of your stupidity and ignorance; i need to tell you here that our Holy Quran never taught us Muslim to kill the Jews.

People are angry because the Israelis are given the freedom by the the US to kill babies, small children and innocent people and the world are not doing anything to stop this war criminals.

Allow me comment to the posting by "I love Jews" in particular his/her comment "No matter how justified we feel we are, we must never take revenge into our own hands..Revenge belongs to God alone.."
Muslims are in trouble worldwide because they have a big mouth! Others do it and never say a word!
Adolf Hitler for example didn't tell the world that he's going to exterminate the entire Jewish population of Europe during World War II. But as we know, Hitler and his Nazi followers were responsible for the systematic genocide of an estimated 6,000,000 Jews. In the current invasion of Gaza, the Israelis are committing the same genocide as Hitler and his Nazi followers did. Although they don't used gas chambers like those at Auschwitz, the end result is nevertheless the same --- terrible deaths to their victims, children no exception. They herded people into a house and sent them to kingdom come with the press of a button! They are as efficient in killing as Hitler! I'm sure the commentator "I love Jews" would sing a different tune had it been his/her relatives were at the victims of Hitler's genocide or being shelled daily as in Gaza by the Jews. The Jews, so called the "living Bible", obviously didn't believe in "Revenge belongs to God alone". So did, the US when they dropped the nuclear bombs in Japan during the WW II for what? To say hello to the Japanese Emperor? You must be nuts...Ever heard of the phrase "To err is human, to forgive is divine! But we are not divine beings; we are humans! It's natural to feel angry and to seek revenge if someone does injustice to you or your brothers/sisters in faith!! Wake up, man and be part of the real world!

Allow me to comment to the posting by "I love Jews" in particular his/her remarks "No matter how justified we feel we are, we must never take revenge into our own hands..Revenge belongs to God alone.."
Muslims are in trouble worldwide because they have a big mouth! Others do it and never say a word!
Adolf Hitler for example didn't tell the world that he's going to exterminate the entire Jewish population of Europe during World War II. But as we know, Hitler and his Nazi followers were responsible for the systematic genocide of an estimated 6,000,000 Jews. In the current invasion of Gaza, the Israelis are committing the same genocide as Hitler and his Nazi followers did. Although they don't used gas chambers like those at Auschwitz, the end result is nevertheless the same --- terrible deaths to their victims, children no exception. They herded people into a house and sent them to kingdom come with the press of a button! They are as efficient in killing as Hitler! I'm sure the commentator "I love Jews" would sing a different tune had it been his/her relatives were at the victims of Hitler's genocide or being shelled daily as in Gaza by the Jews. Shame on you! u really don't get what Tun were trying to say and I dun think u are good enough to be here, just post your comment to anwar blog because of your comment make no other differents like what bush has made. Malaysians know very well how anwar were loved by America and why Tun were hated by America government till this day so you should ask anwar to stop his brother from support Israel rather than you blamed what's others people doing, if u don't want to support so get lost and stop blame others people who still have hearts for peace and justice

hi Tun,

we all agreed with you that Israel is now a crazy dog alike. they had been destroyed homes along with thousands of innocent human lives. very hard for most of us to believe this is really happening in the 21st century of human civilization.

boycott is the action that does not help a thing. its just hurting your own people and the already wounded economy.

you can condemn the US, but pls do not blame on newly elected president Obama. he could be as innocent as the poor Palestinians. Israel may take this as the last chance to attack before Bush passes on his power.

finally, during your time as a PM, you should have invested and armed malaysia with advance weapons. you have a lot of hard working and smart chinese malaysians could make this work. why funding proton when you have cheap toyota or honda around you?

By ismaAuthor Profile Page on January 17, 2009 3:51 AM

For those who feel that Tun was unfair in writing this article should also said the same thing Paul Craig. Tun just referring to the article wrote by Paul who is American..who are brave enough to condemn his own country.. If an American can do that...why do you think that Tun have no right to publish this article?

To Michael: I'm not sure where you are from...but your comments was totally out of topic. We are talking about how to stop the war in Gaza by doing something..but you were talking about the Malaysian government. I'm not sure what are you trying to prove here? If you think that our government is corrupted..it's nothing to do with the war in Gaza. And do you think US government or even Israel is clean? Do some research yourself so that you know what you are talking about Malaysia.

To Virtual Realist: I wish you are not from Gaza or even from Palestine. Your writing shows that the war in Gaza is not wrong. Go to Gaza and ask the Palestinian whether they like to be bombed every day? If you could find at least ONE Palestinian to agree with you on this war, then I would agree with you that this war is not wrong. For your info, I don't see this as war at all. This is more on Israel invading Gaza to look for more land. How come we can see this as war when only one side bombarding that country. Open your eyes...ask yourself if one day the same thing happen to your country or even your family..would you think that you would agree with this attack.

To I love Jews: Don't get us wrong. Tun never ask Muslim to kill Jews. He not even agrees with the suicide bomber. Even in Islam we are not allowed to kill innocent people especially children & women. BUT... what currently happened in Gaza? From thousands of people dead...How many Hamas soldier was killed? I'm sure less than 30% dead was from Hamas. What happened to the other 70% innocent Palestinian especially those children? Can you tell me how you see this from a perspective of Christian?

To Hardhitter: From the way I see all your previous comments...actually you are the one who are against Tun's article. You give your comments without any reasonable argumentation. If you think Tun wrote something wrong...list down your argument than make your comments. If you can't find anything wrong...then just keep quiet and read. If you don't understand what Tun was writing about..I'm sure Tun would be very happy to teach you how to read :)

To all..we are not in a strong position to challenged US army or even Israel..but WAR is not the only way to solved the problems.

If US think it's a fair nation...they would be sending their army to protect Palestine since the first day of Israel attack in Gaza. Still remember what happened when Iraq invaded Kuwait?

US are talking about democracy..terrorism or even human rights...but look at yourself first before you want to blame others. If you see it as what Paul Craig did...I'm sure you would agreed with his article title "The Humiliation of America".

I read with sadness the atrocities being committed against the Palestinians, it is so sad. Looking at the movies that portray Jews being bullied and killed by Germans and looking at news reports on how Jews are now killing others, I just find it so ridiculous.

How Jews can portray themselves as victims when now they are victimising others. The hypocrisy of Israel and the grief of the Palestinians makes me very sad.

Dear Tun.

The boycott against europe sometime ago with our students was successful & as I remember there was an ad in the paper siding on us. Universities even have to close some faculties that were majority malaysian students.

While this works well in some cases, it would only have impact on a majority case. We may or may not make any difference with the american boycott but it does make a statement. It could even back fire on us, but thats a risk that we must take for global freedom.

I think many didnt understand why the americans are on israel's side. firstly, there are many jews in america that have lots of business interest in israel. and notice that america would only partner with the best of every continent. prior to the wars in middle east, their ally was not israel. Israel proved to be a big boy even it its infancy & this was probably the reason.

not every american thinks the siege in gaza is justified, even i have a call from my israeli friends having a demonstration in israel against killing of gaza innocents. we see muslims & jews together against this acts.

the middle east issue is not hard to solve, but no one has the guts to solve it properly. Its radical, and a possibly a long shot. Why dont malaysia annex gaza and west bank into the new global malaysia?

that way, we have a few advantages:

1. we have another strategic location in a different continent to have business, trades & tourism.
2. free the Palestinians immediately as long we take care of the mess, Im sure ISA would be suitably used there.
3. we could directly compete with israel & im sure we are better.
4. we will be known as the new world leaders by solving an age old crisis.
5. possibly the raf could finally use its birds into action rather than singapore for a change (joking)

I mean, Egypt, Jordan, Lebanon & Syria didn't want that 2 strips of land, why should we? because we can! If freedom of humans is our cause, we can solve it this way.

while I respect your boycott decision, one might look at it as a tool to get your son in a better position inherently. But then again I would do the same regardless of my son.

Dear Tun, I met you before in person & you are the sharpest person I've talked to. But I have to say, boycott is only showing the world we don't know how to dance, but cry.

To act, we must free the Palestinians with some brains, liberate them the way we have Sabah & Sarawak.

with much respect.

//By Kamal Ahmad on January 16, 2009 8:22 AM//

Indeed this is the bitter truth that the world had been swallowing for so many years. I said the average Americans are stupid because they are slaved by the powerful & rich (mainly Jews) through capitalism and democracy window-dressing which cause them lost their faith in religion and the country.

These powerful morons, Jews, ('on paper only' or the 'skilled type') are professionally trained to believe that CRISIS = OPPORTUNITY, thus they will create crisis (huru hara seperti apa yang telah berlaku pada 1997, pada masa by-election in Permatang Pauh dan kenaikan harga petrol secara mendadak pada Jun 2008) in any countries that they see opportunity. They wanted to slave the emerging countries (developing countries) to work for them. They will never allow these countries to stand on their own to go against them, that's why our Pak Lah & Pak Anwar kena "kejutan ini" via Singapore that almost kill Malaysia. We are lucky because of Tun, if not we will be the slaves for these morons without knowing.

Some of the famous QUOTES which I believed many people are not aware of that they have violated all religion teachings and idealism of Communist through Capitalism and Freedom of Speech. The examples are:-

1. 'Nice guy finished last', thus you have to be not nice to make sure you are not that guy (our Pak Lah dah kena lah).
2. Be greedy when others are fearful, that is why we've seen world war 1 & 2, cold wars on religion oil, currency speculation in 1997, 9/11 misfortune (no Jews were killed), force invasion of Afghanistan & Iraq, Osama bin Laden terrorism (there is no such person exist because the bin Laden family in America has close relationship with Bush), chemical and biology weapons, Anthrax threat, SARS, USA mortgage and subprime meltdown, Mumbai Muslim terrorism .....
3. Yesterday was PAST, today is a gift, that's why we called PRESENT, tomorrow is MYSTERY (from Kung Fu Panda) is to inflict curiosity in our mind to make the strategy of HIGH RISK, HIGH RETURN workable to trap the greed of human nature.

Now, the USA has increased their budget in the name of security and defense to fool their tax-payers money to make sure Obama has enough money to continue Bush strategy in conquering the emerging countries (in politic) or emerging market (in business). Who will be their next victims, obviously the rich resources countries like Iran, Syria, Turkey, Malaysia, China, North Korea, Pakistan and India, Tibet. Will Obama succeed?

In order to prevent our country to be invaded by these morons, it's now time to refer to our "rukun negara", the Jew's or Capitalism greatest ENEMY. With this belief, our country will be saved once again from this cruel invasion which our BN - DS Najib and his Cabinet are doing (jangan salah faham, Pak Lah & Co. tidak termasuk dalam list ini kerana I tidak percaya kepada orang yang tidak mengenang budi, satu dosa besar yang tidak boleh dimaafkan dalam semua ajaran agama).

Take care Kamal.

Dear Tun,

I am a bit worry about your open comments on how displeased you are against the US and Israel because Malaysia is a small country and like what you mentioned in your blog we use primitive weapons so how can we challenge so powerful nations like the US and Israel?

As human being we are not free from all suffering no matter how rich and powerful we are because the truth is all of us will experience birth, growing old, sickness and finally death and if we believe that there is GOD, I am sure these people that create harm to others will never be free from their sins when the final day comes, which they will face the final judgment from above. I think the punishment will be a 100% more painful than what we see now.

Do you think boycotting Coca-cola and other US made products can really solve the problem, I don't think so because they are rich and if these actions can jeopardize our country economy why go through the risk. Our people are already facing difficulties in coping with our daily life due to the world economy crisis so it is better to concentrate in developing and solving our own problem instead of meddling with others. It is better to mind our own business. We can donate generously if we have extra to give but now just demonstrating on the streets will not help. Further more it is not effective because there are not enough countries standing up together. If more countries think like us then it will be more effective and worthy for us facing the risk of being invaded.

I am just wondering why during your time as PM you are not as open about your displeasure as you are now. I believe you do think about the risk our country will be facing if you speak up openly during that time it will represent the nation opinion.

I suggest that we should concentrate on collecting donation for the needy in Palestine instead of wasting our time demonstrating on the street and burning down flags.

Sorry this time I do not totally agree with you.

Best regards,
JC

Hello Tun, Please allow me.

To all Zionist propagator, visiting chedet blog. Read out transcript of a speech by Sir Gerald Kaufman, A British MP, a Jew descended from Poland. Expressing his feelings on Future of Israel during The House of Commons debates. Thursday, 15 January 2009;

Gerald Kaufman (Manchester, Gorton, Labour)

"I was brought up as an orthodox Jew and a Zionist. On a shelf in our kitchen, there was a tin box for the Jewish National Fund, into which we put coins to help the pioneers building a Jewish presence in Palestine.

I first went to Israel in 1961 and I have been there since more times than I can count. I had family in Israel and have friends in Israel. One of them fought in the wars of 1956, 1967 and 1973 and was wounded in two of them. The tie clip that I am wearing is made from a campaign decoration awarded to him, which he presented to me.

I have known most of the Prime Ministers of Israel, starting with the founding Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion. Golda Meir was my friend, as was Yigal Allon, Deputy Prime Minister, who, as a general, won the Negev for Israel in the 1948 war of independence.

My parents came to Britain as refugees from Poland. Most of their families were subsequently murdered by the Nazis in the Holocaust. My grandmother was ill in bed when the Nazis came to her home town of Staszow. A German soldier shot her dead in her bed.

My grandmother did not die to provide cover for Israeli soldiers murdering Palestinian grandmothers in Gaza. The current Israeli Government ruthlessly and cynically exploits the continuing guilt among gentiles over the slaughter of Jews in the Holocaust as justification for their murder of Palestinians. The implication is that Jewish lives are precious, but the lives of Palestinians do not count.

On Sky News a few days ago, the spokeswoman for the Israeli army, Major Leibovich, was asked about the Israeli killing of, at that time, 800 Palestinians—the total is now 1,000. She replied instantly that "500 of them were militants."

That was the reply of a Nazi. I suppose that the Jews fighting for their lives in the Warsaw ghetto could have been dismissed as militants.

The Israeli Foreign Minister Tzipi Livni asserts that her Government will have no dealings with Hamas, because they are terrorists. Tzipi Livni's father was Eitan Livni, chief operations officer of the terrorist Irgun Zvai Leumi, who organised the blowing-up of the King David hotel in Jerusalem, in which 91 victims were killed, including four Jews.

Israel was born out of Jewish terrorism. Jewish terrorists hanged two British sergeants and booby-trapped their corpses. Irgun, together with the terrorist Stern gang, massacred 254 Palestinians in 1948 in the village of Deir Yassin. Today, the current Israeli Government indicate that they would be willing, in circumstances acceptable to them, to negotiate with the Palestinian President Abbas of Fatah. It is too late for that. They could have negotiated with Fatah's previous leader, Yasser Arafat, who was a friend of mine. Instead, they besieged him in a bunker in Ramallah, where I visited him. Because of the failings of Fatah since Arafat's death, Hamas won the Palestinian election in 2006. Hamas is a deeply nasty organisation, but it was democratically elected, and it is the only game in town. The boycotting of Hamas, including by our Government, has been a culpable error, from which dreadful consequences have followed.

The great Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban, with whom I campaigned for peace on many platforms, said:

"You make peace by talking to your enemies."

However many Palestinians the Israelis murder in Gaza, they cannot solve this existential problem by military means. Whenever and however the fighting ends, there will still be 1.5 million Palestinians in Gaza and 2.5 million more on the west bank. They are treated like dirt by the Israelis, with hundreds of road blocks and with the ghastly denizens of the illegal Jewish settlements harassing them as well. The time will come, not so long from now, when they will outnumber the Jewish population in Israel.

It is time for our Government to make clear to the Israeli Government that their conduct and policies are unacceptable, and to impose a total arms ban on Israel. It is time for peace, but real peace, not the solution by conquest which is the Israelis' real goal but which it is impossible for them to achieve. They are not simply war criminals; they are fools."

Or see it for yourselves; <http://www.theyworkforyou.com/debate/?id=2009-01-15a.407.2>

Open your eyes and GROW UP.

Thanks

DEAR TUN & ALL THOSE CHEDET READER WHO UNDERSTAND AND SYMPHATETIC TOWARDS THE SUFFERING OF PALESTINIANS...!!!!,

---For those who are not or who are selfcentered eg Micheal, PrissO1 please give us your "Brilliant Ideas on How To Solve The Palestinian Suffering, perhaps the Palestinian can benefit from them and Worship you guys as their HERO. If you cant , simply keep quite and leave this blog forever." Obviously to you watching the Palestinian suffering is like watching any other HOLLYWOOD Action War Movies. Do go ahead and support the USA govt agenda and we know there are many people like you in this world , thats why we are still having these problem in this world until today. Mind you the Palestinian suffering due to Israelis doing has started from 1940's-1950's. If you dont know please dig some info and please do not read the American version OK!! It shall widen your horizon.

TO OTHERS!!

Enough said . Even in this chedet blog we have so many views that by the end of the day we are just another joker like in the White House and PBB.

Readers, please understand that Tun is just expressing his frustrations on no actions has been taken on these USA Gov and Israelis Gov. They simply get away with murder and with innocent blood in their hands. Tun do know that we are small in terms of economic power and military and they are almost UNTOUCHABLE (thats why they became the BIG BULLY of this Millenium) .But WHAT CAN WE DO TO MAKE THE USA GOVT TAKE NOTE OUR DISLIKES TOWARDS THEIR DOUBLE STANDARD...???

Okay this has to be written in Malay.

1. Ingat suatu masa dulu American ada buat kempen jangan gunakan barangan hasil minyak sawit kerana nak lakukan hasil kacang soya mereka. Jadi why dont we do the same.
KITA BUAT KEMPEN SECARA BERPERINGKAT DENGAN MEMBOIKOT BARANGAN AMERIKA YANG TERTENTU DAN DIRASAKAN MENGLALAIKAN DAN TIDAK BERFAEDAH UNTUK UMMAH.(IE KITA TAK MATI PUN JIKA TAK GUNA/MAKAN BARANG TERSEBUT..)

KITA BOLEH MULAKAN DENGAN KEMPEN TIDAK MINUM COCA-COLA SELAMA SEBULAN, DIIKUTI DENGAN MAKAN DI STARBUCK Sebulan, DIIKUTI DENGAN BARANGAN TERPILIH YANG LAIN.WALAU BAGAIMANAPUN IANYA PATUT DIADAKAN DIPERINGKAT NASIONAL DENGAN KERJASAMA MEDIA DAN SEMUA NGO YANG BERSIMPATI. BIAR USAHA ITU SATU SATU , KECIL , TAPI FOKUS.

Saya setuju dengan Tun sememangnya tidak akan dapat tumbang gergasi ekonomi USA tapi kita boleh cubit mereka supaya mereka sedar bahawa mereka sudah terlalu angkuh dan kejam. Tapi tak de gunanya kita buat benda besar atau banyak tapi tak de kesan.That's my humble idea.

Hi, All,

1. I am sad with what happening is Gaza.
2. I am glad that Malaysian is talking about it and wanted to help and put an end to this nonsense.
3. Boycotting America product IS NOT THE WAY.
4. Because with 20million ++ population we could not hurt them a bit. Remember our daily life is depend on them, they are not depend on us, simply shutting down Microsoft Softwares (95% using this daily), IBM server (our gov. and bank using this to store records) and Cisco switch (80% of network switch and firewall), will KILL EACH AND EVERY ONE OF US.
5. And this will cause another problem, they will start to hate us.
6. Remember what Gandhi said, "an eye for an eye will make the whole world blind".
7. And Islam does not teach us to take revenge and cause hurt to innocent people, just because someone else cause hurt to us.
8. Hama's should stop firing missile to Israel. This will ensure Israel run out of reason to attack Gaza.
9. Palestine should control their Hama's effectively.
10. When fighting with *dragon* you use your brain not your muscle. And of courses not bring down twin-towers.
11. By the way, Why no one in Malaysia is looking at what's happening is Sri Lanka, it it because the problem is between Buddhist and Tamil's.
12. I thought Islam consider all human as brothers and here 1000 people die in Gaza a bigger issue, but 5000 people (including children, women and elderly) die because of the Sri Lanka government military action, no one is care about.
13. But wait, the Indian government and the UN is not cared about, as, why I should bother.... good reason... Mr.Ex-PM.

Siapa akan memulakan langkah yg pertama untuk Tubuh Islamic Union.

If they are jobless as a results of your actions, are you prepared to personally feed them and be responsible for their welfare without government support. Assalamu Alaikum Tun,

The writer was correct when he said that the Americans had wrong when they choose a moron (stupid) and heartless humankind to take charge the United States.

The Muslim world will never forget what Bush (meaning semak samun or close to sampah in Bahasa Malayu) had done to innocent mankind and Muslims in Palestine, Iraq and Afghanistan.

This heartless president could be considered as a wild animal even worst and don't forget he is also the closest brother of Satan general.

From now on, I would be very careful in choosing products. I too appeal to all peace loving Malaysians to support boycott US products campaign to teach America how we Malaysians disagree with US hypocrisy in the Palestinian and Gaza issue. Shame America. Damn you America.

Assalamualaikum..buat saudara Islam semua.Kita selalu mendengar seruan supaya memboikot barangan USA kerana bersekongkol dgn Israel Laknatullah.Akan tetapi kita harus sedar bahawa banyak lagi barangan keluaran Yahudi ini.Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregation Of America atau Orthodox Union memainkan peranan penting. Bagi setiap barangan yang bersangkutan paut dengan mereka perlu ditanda dengan Orthodox Union. Lambang ini hampir sama dengan lambang copyright di mana huruf U terletak di dalam bulatan.Saya pernah bekerja dengan industri makanan dan mendapati terdapat bahan mentah yang bertanda OU ini.Di antara barangan yang menggunakan bahan mentah dari syarikat OU ini adalah seperti coklat keluaran sebuah syarikat di Persiaran Raja Muda Shah Alam. Selain itu, jus minuman sebuah syarikat di Seksyen 16 juga menggunakan bahana mentah keluaran OU.Jus keluaran syarikat ini turut dikeluarkan untuk sebuah pasar raya besar di Seksyen 13 dan untuk syarikat jualan langsung yang berkakhir dengan perkataan ...WAY dan lambang burung.Kebanyakan bahan mentah ini seperti pewarna dan perasa yang dibekalkan oleh sebuah syarikat di Jalan Anggerik Mokara Kota Kemuning.Selain itu asid sitrik, stabilizer dan bertih beras yang diimport mempunyai tanda OU. Diharap kerjasama saudara Islam yang terlibat dengan penggunaan bahan mentah di dalam sebarang industri dapat mengenalpasti sama ada terdapat lambang OU ini dan dedahkan kepada umum. Saya juga mempunyai satu salinan Letter Of Certification dari OU yang diperolehi ketika bekerja di salah sebuah kilang di Shah Alam. Bukan setakat memboikot Coca Cola, Starbuck ataupun Motorola. Barangan keluaran Malaysia juga bersangkut-paut dengan Israel Laknatullah. Buat masa ini saya tidak dapat mendedahkan nama sebenar produk tersebut, sekadar mendedahkan secara rambang nama syarikat terlibat sahaja. Sebarang maklum balas amat dihargai demi saudara Islam kita di Palestin. Wassalam Nonsenses talk. Boycott is an old man's vision. Everything in the world are interconnected. First look and study what is causing the problem in Gaza. Who is causing it? It is the government of Israel, and funded by the American Government, Jewish American Company, and weapon manufacturers. What about Hamas? Firing rockets and suicide bomber? Yes, including Hamas too. It is neither yes or no. Please state no justification for killing. Killing is killing. Whether it is 1 or 1,000 lives, it is classified as killing. So now we know the cause to the problem. Solution? The government bodies in UN or OIC have to put a strong determination and firm stand that both Israel and Palestine cease fire immediately. To achieve this we need the mideast states to attack Israel if they refuse to stop the war by Midnight. Does the middle east countries have the courage to do so? Everybody know how to talk but not daring enough to take action. We have a bunch of useless leaders in the current world. Killing is not the answer but this one action will democate that the countries in the world are united and not divided. And this will be the beginning of a new era in peace keeping. And we do not need American decision all the time. Please leader be bold, stop being a man in woman clothes by speaking to the media that you want stop the war in Gaza. This action is call the true compassion but in wrathfull way. Do not waste time talking to media on how to end the war in Gaza.

Get to action now.

Inilah rata-rata cadangan umat Islam di dalam menyelesaikan peperangan yang berlaku di Gaza sekarang. Serangan ganas Zionis ke atas umat Islam di Gaza yang kini mengorbankan hampir seribu nyawa dan ribuan lagi cedera, dilihat perlu 'dijawab' dengan pemboikotan barangan buatan Israel dan Amerika! Batas sempadan assabiyyah yang dibuat oleh kuffar British di Malaysia sejak lebih 50 tahun dahulu ternyata hingga kini masih berjaya dan menebal menguasai pemimpin, termasuklah ulama Islam.

Apabila umat Islam di Palestin dibunuh dan diperangi, mereka hanya mampu menjawab untuk memboikot barangan si musuh. Apakah agaknya pemboikotan yang dilakukan ini, walau secara besar-besaran sekalipun akan dapat menghentikan serangan dan pembunuhan ke atas umat Islam di Palestin?

Sejak berpuluh tahun lamanya, setiap kali umat Islam diperangi oleh AS ataupun Yahudi, maka laungan penyelesaian "boikot" barangan Amerika sering dilagukan. Sudah berapa kali siri pemboikotan dilakukan, apa yang nyata adalah, nyawa umat Islam semakin banyak yang melayang dan ekonomi AS dan Yahudi tetap teguh. Hakikatnya, apa yang menyumbang kepada kejatuhan ekonomi AS sekarang ini pun langsung tidak ada kena-mengena dengan pemboikotan oleh negara umat Islam, ia adalah krisis subprime yang berakar umbi dari sistem ekonomi Kapitalis itu sendiri – inilah yang menyebabkan kejatuhan ekonomi Amerika, dan bukannya pemboikotan barangan mereka oleh negara luar! Kenapa para pemimpin dan ulama masih seakan-akan buta melihat hakikat ini?

bantuan ubat-ubatan bagi yang telah meninggal? Atau kain selimut untuk menutup mayat-mayat? Atau apa???

Atau apakah pada ketika ini kita mengharapkan datangnya tentera-tentera umat Islam dari pelbagai negara untuk menyelamatkan kita? Manakah yang lebih menggembirakan kita, menunggu derma jutaan ringgit dari seluruh dunia atau menunggu bantuan ketenteraan untuk melawan Yahudi yang sedang mengganas? Sudah tentulah akal fikiran yang waras akan menjawab bahawa, saat ini kita sesungguhnya memerlukan bantuan ketenteraan dari tentera-tentera umat Islam!!!

Ya, inilah jawapan dan penyelesaian yang sebenar yang diperlukan oleh saudara-saudara kita di Gaza saat ini. Mereka memerlukan bantuan ketenteraan, bukannya bantuan simpati kemanusiaan! Dan mereka tidak menghendaki kita hanya memboikot barangan Yahudi di saat Yahudi sedang menyembelih mereka, satu demi satau, hari demi hari. Demi Allah! Sesungguhnya penyelesaian yang hakiki ke atas masalah Palestin adalah dengan menghantar tentera bagi berjihad melawan Israel di sana!!!

Sesungguhnya pemboikotan tidak akan memberikan apa-apa kesan untuk memberhentikan kesombongan Israel sedikitpun. Dan ia juga tidak akan menghentikan pembunuhan Israel ke atas umat Islam sedikitpun. Tapi malangnya inilah hakikat pemikiran yang dimiliki oleh sebahagian daripada umat Islam saat ini, hanya boikot sahaja yang dapat mereka fikirkan.

Sebagai seorang Muslim kita perlu melihat dan menyedari bahawa produk buatan Amerika dan Yahudi bukanlah hanya dalam bentuk barangan fizikal semata-mata tetapi lebih jauh dari itu ialah 'produk pemikiran' yang saat ini jauh lebih banyak diambil oleh umat Islam. Produk seperti nation-state (negara bangsa), demokrasi, HAM, Pluralisme, Liberalisme dan yang seumpamanya adalah produk pemikiran kuffar Barat yang sehingga kini masih dipegang kukuh termasuklah oleh ulama Islam.

UMNO yang memerintah Malaysia masih berpegang erat dengan segala produk pemikiran kufur di atas sehingga menyebabkan tidak ada seorang pun pemimpin UMNO yang kembali kepada Islam dan cuba menyelesaikan masalah Gaza dengan menghantar tentera ke sana. Apa guna memboikot produk fizikal Amerika dan Yahudi walhal produk pemikiran kufur mereka dipegang erat dan dijaga rapi!!! Produk pemikiran ini jauh lebih berbahaya dan inilah yang menyebabkan Gaza terus bermandi darah, kerana para pemimpin dan ulama yang ada masih berpegang teguh dengannya.

Produk pemikiran kufur menyatakan bahawa Malaysia ada batas sempadan negara sendiri (yang telah ditetapkan oleh British), maka akal para pemimpin dan ulama juga ternyata 'terbatas' pemikiran mereka oleh sempadan yang dicipta British. Mereka sudah tidak nampak dan tidak boleh pergi lebih jauh sedikit bahawa sempadan palsu ini hanyalah rekaan British semata-mata. Sesungguhnya sempadan ini langsung tidak wujud dan umat Islam adalah umat yang satu. Dan satu-satu penyelesaian yang diajar oleh Islam dalam memerangi orang-orang kafir yang sedang memerangi Islam adalah dengan jihad. Ya! Ini kerana situasi di Palestin sekarang adalah situasi perang, dan perang wajib dijawab dengan perang (jihad), apatah lagi yang membunuh umat Islam itu adalah kaum Yahudi laknatullah yang telah mempunyai sejarah kejahatan yang sejak lama terhadap Islam.

Setiap negara umat Islam mempunyai tenteranya yang tersendiri, namun tentera ini semuanya dimandulkan oleh pemerintah yang pengkhianat. Langsung tidak digerakkan ke medan jihad, walaupun di saat saudara-saudara kita di Palestin di sembelih dengan dahsyatnya oleh kaum terkutuk Yahudi. Semua ini berlaku kerana kuffar British telah mengajar bahawa, Palestin adalah negara 'orang lain', Malaysia negara kamu dan kamu tidak boleh langkau sempadan! Kedudukan kamu yang paling baik adalah berkecuali, menjadi negara-negara yang berkecuali dan jangan masuk campur urusan negara lain. Inilah 'ajaran' setan British yang sehingga kini masih tertanam dengan kukuh di minda pemimpin dan ulama Islam. Kerananya, tidak ramai ulama yang berani menggesa pemerintah agar melancarkan jihad di sana, kerana hal ini bermaksud 'mencampuri urusan negara lain'.

Jika benar kita berpegang teguh dengan Al-Quran dan Sunah, maka apa yang sepatutnya dilakukan oleh umat Islam masa kini, apatah lagi para ulama, adalah dengan menggesa pemerintah yang ada agar mengambil penyelesaian Al-Quran terhadap apa yang berlaku. Dan penyelesaian Al-Quran di dalam masalah ini tidak lain kecuali dengan menggerakkan tentera untuk berjihad melawan Isreal yang sedang memerangi umat Islam. Inilah tindakan yang wajib diambil dalam keadaan sekarang. Firman Allah SWT,

"Perangilah orang-orang yang tidak beriman kepada Allah dan tidak (pula) kepada hari Kemudian, dan mereka tidak mengharamkan apa yang diharamkan oleh Allah dan RasulNya dan tidak beragama dengan agama yang benar (agama Allah), (yaitu orang-orang) yang diberikan Al-Kitab kepada mereka, sampai mereka membayar jizyah dengan patuh sedang mereka dalam keadaan tunduk" [TMQ at-Taubah (9):29].

"Perangilah mereka dan Allah akan mengazab mereka dengan tangan-tangan kalian dan menghinakan mereka serta membantu kalian mengalahkan mereka dan Allah akan melegakan hati-hati kaum Mukminin" [TMQ at-Taubah (9):14].

Hanya dengan Bergeraknya tentera dengan mengikuti perintah Allah dan Rasul, inilah sahaja jalan bagi menyelesaikan masalah umat Islam di Palestin, bukannya dengan boikot!!!

Bismillahirrahmanirrahim

Menggerakkan Tentera Untuk Memerangi Penyembelih Gaza Adalah Satu-Satunya Yang Wajib Dilakukan Oleh Para Penguasa Dan Sekiranya Mereka Tidak Berbuat Demikian Maka Sesungguhnya Mereka Telah Mengkhianati Allah, RasulNya Dan Kaum Mukminin

Sejak tengahari Sabtu 27/12/2008, rejim Yahudi telah melakukan pengeboman kejam yang berterusan dengan menggunakan jet-jet pejuangnya ke atas beberapa kawasan di Semenanjung Gaza.

Pengeboman ini dihadapi oleh penduduk Gaza dengan ketabahan hati dan keberanian yang tiada tolok bandingnya, mereka memikul yang gugur di atas tangan-tangan dan bahu-bahu mereka. Beratus-ratus telah syahid dan mengalami kecederaan ketika jet-jet pejuang musuh berlegar memuntahkan bom di ruang udara dengan bebas tanpa mendapat penentangan dan tanpa sedikit pun kebimbangan akan ditembak jatuh. Ini adalah kerana para penguasa kaum Muslimin telah melarang dan menghalang tentera dan jet-jet pejuang kaum Muslimin dari melibatkan diri dalam sebarang tindakbalas. Para penguasa ini hanya menjadikan jet-jet dan tentera yang ada di negeri mereka sebagai perhiasan dan pertunjukan semata-mata. Beginilah pihak Yahudi melakukan kehancuran, mengebom bangunan dan manusia, aman dari sebarang tindakbalas dan mara bahaya.

Sesungguhnya para penguasa ini telah melakukan jenayah besar dengan menjadikan masalah Palestin ini sebagai masalah orang Arab dan bukan masalah kaum Muslimin dan Islam. Mereka, sejak dari itu hanya menjadi pemerhati 'neutral' yang lebih condong untuk menyebelahi pihak musuh sehingga apa yang mereka lakukan adalah sesuai dengan apa yang diinginkan oleh pihak musuh, sepertimana yang sedang berlaku di Gaza sekarang. Mereka hanya memerhatikan sebuah demi sebuah jet musuh melakukan pengeboman, menghitung jumlah mereka yang cedera dan terkorban serta mengeluarkan kenyataan sekadar meluahkan 'kesedihan' dan 'kutukan' - tidak kira samada mereka ini terlibat secara langsung atau tidak dalam pemboikotan Gaza - kesemua mereka meluahkan 'kesedihan' dan 'kutukan' yang sama. Malah penguasa Mesir (Mubarak) yang pada saat-saat sebelum bermulanya serangan, dari istananya, telah diugut oleh Livni dan pada hari berikutnya, tatkala berlaku serangan ke atas Gaza, Mubarak turut meluahkan 'kesedihan' dan 'kutukan'!

Sungguh, para penguasa ini tidak merasa malu sedikit pun di hadapan Allah, RasulNya dan di hadapan kaum Mukminin. Mereka telah memboikot Semenanjung Gaza jauh sebelum pihak musuh memboikotnya. Mereka nampaknya hanya mahu melihat kematian dan bukannya kehidupan di Gaza dan hanya bersetuju untuk membuka Gaza setelah darah umat Islam tertumpah ke atas pakaian mereka.

Hari ini mereka menyeru pula agar diadakan pertemuan bagi 'mengkaji' apakah tindakan yang sebaiknya atas penyembelihan di Gaza, seolah-olah tindakan yang sepatutnya dilakukan merupakan sesuatu yang tidak maklum (oleh mereka). Ada yang menyeru diadakan pertemuan, ada yang menyeru kepada pertemuan menteri-menteri luar dan ada yang menyeru kepada Majlis Liga Arab – dan semua ini, seperti biasa, akan diikuti dengan perjumpaan, makan dan minum bersama, kemudian berakhir dengan (mengeluarkan) kenyataan dan bagi para pengikut syaitan, inilah 'penentangan yang terbaik'!

Tidak cukup dengan itu, mereka mengalihkan pandangan mereka dan meminta tanpa malu kepada Majlis Keselamatan PBB, yang terdiri dari negara-negara yang pada hakikatnya bertanggungjawab membangunkan rejim Yahudi dan menyokongnya dalam menghancurkan Palestin, tanah yang penuh berkat. Mereka mempercayai dan mengharapkan tindakan dari negara-negara ini untuk membantu Palestin dan penduduknya!!! Amat buruklah apa yang mereka hukuman!

Sesungguhnya tindakbalas yang sewajarnya ke atas penyembelihan Gaza adalah suatu yang sudah maklum dan jelas. Keputusan untuk bertindakbalas ini tidak memerlukan sebarang pertemuan atau perjumpaan bagi membahaskannya. Ia juga tidak akan datang dari keputusan negara-negara pembina dan penyokong rejim Yahudi - tidak sama sekali - sebaliknya ia hanya akan dapat dicapai dengan menggerakkan bala tentera kaum Muslimin dan mengumpulkan mereka yang berkemampuan untuk memikul persenjataan bagi memerangi rejim yang hina ini. Tidak ada penyelesaian selain dari ini dan para penguasa mengetahui hakikat ini, namun mereka (penguasa) ini hanya ibarat kepingan kayu yang hanyut dan mereka begitu hebat dalam penipuan dan penyesatan. Dilaknati Allah-lah mereka, bagaimana mereka sampai berpaling?

Wahai Kaum Muslimin!

Berhati-hatilah dengan penipuan para penguasa ini. Janganlah kalian terpedaya dengan adanya demonstrasi dan tunjuk perasaan yang mereka benarkan kerana sesungguhnya semua ini tidak membawa apa-apa makna. Seharusnya, kalian melangkah ke istana-istana mereka dengan kekuatan kalian memaksa mereka untuk menggerakkan tentera bagi memerangi rejim penyembelih ini.

Dan kalian wahai para tentera kaum Muslimin! Tidakkah kalian rindu kepada salah satu dari dua kemuliaan (syahid atau kemenangan)? Bagaimanakah kalian bisa berdiam diri tatkala saudara-saudara kalian dibunuh? Apakah penguasa yang sanggup menjual deen-nya untuk dunia, bahkan untuk dunia orang lain, dapat menghalang kalian dari membantu saudara-saudara kalian, walhal kalian mempunyai kekuatan?

Ya Allah! Ya Allah! Wahai Para Tentera!

Hizbut Tahrir menyeru kalian agar menuju kepada kemuliaan dunia dan akhirat! Pertolongan adalah dari Allah dan kemenangan yang hampir atau syurga yang keluasannya seluas langit dan bumi disediakan untuk mereka yang bertakwa. Wahai para tentera, “Perangilah mereka dan Allah akan mengazab mereka dengan tangan-tangan kalian dan menghinakan mereka serta membantu kalian mengalahkan mereka dan Allah akan melegakan hati-hati kaum Mukminin” [TMQ at-Taubah (9):14].

Inilah bagaimana seharusnya pertolongan diberikan kepada penduduk Gaza dan inilah tindakbalas yang sewajarnya untuk penyembelih Gaza. Inilah juga cara untuk memecahkan pemboikotan ke atas Gaza dan dengan cara inilah juga Allah akan mengubati hati-hati kaum Mukminin.

“Sesungguhnya (apa yang disebutkan) dalam (surat) ini benar-benar menjadi peringatan bagi kaum yang menyembah Allah” [TMQ al-Anbiya' (21):106].

Ya Allah! saksikanlah sesungguhnya kami telah menyampaikan.

Most of the time we will cry boycott only when something happened to our Palestinian brothers and sisters. We will cry boycott only when we saw on TV all the babies being killed and all the massacre done by the Zionists. When there are ceasefire or things are relatively calm in Gaza area, we will continue using those products again because we thought our voices have been heard and there's no more war, even if temporarily. Thank God I can have McD or Starbucks coffee again or thank God I can buy Donna Karan or Calvin Klein again. Didn't we realize we're enriching them as they sit and plan for their next action?

If we are serious, we shouldn't have let all the boycotted product thrive in our beloved land at all. Then there would be no issue of what's going to happen to all the Malaysian workers if all the McDs and Starbucks franchise, Nestle and Maggi factories, the TGV that played many 20th Century Fox movies, closed down. Then Aminah Hassan, Safi, Puteri, Mi Ku and all the local brands wouldn't have to worry about where to sell their products because Carrefour never existed. They'd have make a different arrangement to market and sell their products.

I'm not against boycotting. I just hate it when people cry boycott this and that only when things like this happen. I also hate it when people cry boycott without thinking of Malaysian worker's fate. What??? Losing their job is not as worse a fate as those people being killed in Gaza? Of course it is not. Let's just call it civilian casualties. Let's just call it Jihad. But you know what? A country has economic strength when their people has economic strength. A country can rule the world and make other head government as puppets because they have economic strength.

What options, what alternatives do these workers who works for a company that produces boycotted product and brand names have? How can they strengthen their economy while the ruling government only enrich their cronies coffers? What are our long term stand on these boycotted products and brands? What are our politician doing for the long term other than parroting boycott this and that now to score points for the by-election?

Having said all these, I hope those workers affected will start looking for a new job or open a business for their own peace of mind. There will be a lot of business opportunities we can look at if all those products and brands are being boycotted forever. If Malaysian wants to boycott products and brands that have been enriching Israel, let's do it continuously instead of only when a certain atrocities happen. Otherwise, let's just not do it at all. There's not much point.

By onesoulAuthor Profile Page on January 17, 2009 4:31 PM

We want effective action immediately , not boycott. Let Surround the US embassy peacefully and not allowing anyone in .Allow food only.Allow anyone wishes to leave.Till we have a cease fire. Lets do this worldwide. And please government do interfere in this action because you are a bunch of useless piece of vase placed for show only as a leader of your country. Bullshit.

For "I Love Jews"

Why you only love Jews (Why should you choose this kind of nick-it is deliberately used to intimidate muslims, I would say, I may be wrong, but that shows what's inside you, hatred toward muslims)

Are you sure that from christian perspective revenge only belong to God. Does god ever take revenge? God will deliver judgement or punish people for their sins....I dont know of that revenge!

To be honest everybody express or speak with something in their heart, which side one tends to support or believe depends on their understanding of that particular issue or problem. I dont believe that somebody says he is non partisan (neutral) but use this kind of comment or nick like yours and give comment like you gave.....are you truly a believer, I wonder.

You can only say somebody who comdemns Hamas or anyone who thinks along that line is always better(wiser) than our former PM (your Pak Pandir, that you strongly support), and you say our former PM is full of hatred.....dont you think, you belong to the same group....a person with hatred.

For Israel, if they claimed they are not doing anything wrong (self-defence by killing thousands), or against any written law agreed by mankind (law written by man not that of GOD)....let's bring them to court (ICJ,ICC, the Hague) Let the court decide.They have nothing to fear if they are committing no crime at all.

In anycase.....you can always agree or disagree. If you disagree with somebody, It doesnt mean that somebody is stupid and you are wiser than that somebody. We can agree and disagree.....always. If you are really a person with no hatred....you just disagree.....no need to say somebody is stupid or whatever-better still continue to argue with facts.

As for me I strongly believe the Jews must be comdemned for they are doing in Gaza. My sympathy goes to the suffered people in Gaza(Palestinian under siege and attack-by jets,helicopters, tanks,missile,bombs etc)

Peace for the world.....that is my pray ( I am a muslim, I'm not sure whether I hate Jews(definitely I dont love Jews) ...but I hate what they did in Gaza)

To Tun Dr.M

You are internally inconsistent. You began aggressively with wanting the MAF to attack Israel and USA. But you thought it would be impossible. And instead suggested a mild, a very pansy and frigid alternative which is a boycott of American and Israeli goods.

If you desire to cause physical pain on USA and Israeli, should not the alternative be something along the your original and aggressive line? Perhaps you and Malaysians of your ilk would like to give money donations to Hamas, Hezezbollah and Palestine Authority fighters to buy arms and necessary resources to attack USA and Israel. Of course there would be repercussions and responses from the CIA, FBI, MI5, UK Special Branch, Mossad and whatever else.

Aku tidak akan digodakan oleh 'rhetoric' bertahap rendah, sedang pengecutan siberpidato dipertunjukkan.

Dearest Tun Dr Mahathir,

I felt sorry for you after reading your latest blog on your wanting to send Malaysia Armed forces to attack United States of America.

In the past replies I wrote to you, I counted on you as the Quality Assurance to guarantee good quality of Prime Minister of Malaysia. Base on this blog to attack USA, I withdraw my position.

I count our blessings that you are no longer the Prime Minister of Malaysia because if you were the Prime Minister now, I worry Malaysia Navy and Marine personnel will die so far away from home.

I am really glad that Abdullah Ahmad Badawi despite his sleepiness will not sacrifice our navy and marine to attack America or Israel knowing that an attack will get excessive force response against our men and women.

Right now, I am only feeling sorry for you. Really am.

I totally condemn Israel's intransigence and barbaric action. However, mild boycott on US products is not the solution. Even if 100% Malaysian follows your suggestion, US economy will not be affected. Vice versa, should US do the same to us, we will be in deep trouble.

On the other hand, Tun; In order to avoid wrong perception on you for being double standard, please condemn Mugabe's ( Zimbabwe's PM ) action. Please advise our government to ban Mugabe and his wife from entering and spending their holiday in Malaysia when his ppl are suffering.

I know he was your friend but his action is no better than Israelis.

Salam Tun,

Kenapa umat Islam tak habis-habis menyemai sifat keganasan & kebencian. Di Thailand, Filipina, Bali, Xinjiang, Pakistan mahupun Mumbai keganasan serta pembunuhan berlaku atas nama agama Islam.

Agama seharusnya membawa manusia ke arah saling sayang menyayang antara satu sama lain. Tapi kenapa penganas serta pemimpin Islam sering bertopengkan agama Islam untuk melakukan keganasan dan kebencian. Ini adalah kerana Umat Islam terlalu jahil terhadap agama dan tidak mahu mengguna akal fikiran(Wisdom). Apa yang menyedihkan Tun juga terikut-ikut dengan perbuatan mereka sehingga menyeru manusia ke arah kebencian dan keganasan.

Kebencian tidak akan dapat dihapuskan dengan kebencian. Hanya dengan memupuk sifat penyayang serta mengharamkan pertumpahan darah atas nama agama, keamanan dan kebahagiaan akan dapat dikecapi.

IT IS DELIBERATELY DONE BY THE JEWS SO THAT THEY CAN SUPPORT THE ECONOMY IN AMERICA AND FOR THAT, AMERICAN GOVERNMENT ARE READY TO FOLLOW
WHAT THE ISRAEL WANTS THEM TO DO.

ISRAEL CAN CREATE THE HISTORY-THE ECONOMIC HISTORY,POLITICAL HISTORY,THEY EVEN CREATE STORIES ABOUT WEAPON OF MASS DESTRUCTION IN IRAQ, IRAN & SYRIA...

THIS IS THE BEST TIME TO TALK ABOUT 9-11 CONSPIRACY.

LETS BRING IT UP AGAIN!

LETS TALK TO THE AMERICANS ABOUT THE 9-11 CONSPIRACY!

LETS TALK TO THE WORLD ABOUT THE 9-11 CONSPIRACY!!!

LETS TALK ABOUT AIPAC-AMERICAN ISRAEL PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMMITTEE!!

DONT CARE ABOUT UNITED NATIONS ANYMORE!

BELIEVE ME!

WE CAN PRAY FROM NOW ON,
HOPING THAT IRAN WILL SURVIVE ON NEXT WAR
SYRIA ALSO IN THE THEIR LIST...

NOW, THEY HAVE STARTED TO MOVE TO HERE!

THEY ACCUSED MALAYSIAN SCOMI OF INVOLVING IN NUCLEAR WEAPON!

dear fellows who harshly questioning and argued on tun idea to boycott america's product especially coke or mc'd. i don't know whether you guys missing some points on tun's idea or maybe you guys just making an excuse to not agree with tun. some of you asking why tun only focused on coke and not the other products of US. in fact there is a comment that makes a points that this boycott thing is useless because it will never bring US down. what i think is, maybe you guys should read the article again and digest it first before come out with your comment. i quote some of it.

8. But on the other hand we need to drink Coca-Cola, use the Internet, fly Boeing jets, see Rambo movies etc etc. Can we sacrifice all these simply because babies are being decapitated by Israeli soldiers using highly sophisticated and costly weapons donated by the kind Americans? Of course we cannot.

9. What we can do is totally worthless. We can boycott US products.

10. But can we? Well not completely. Maybe partially. Like not drinking Coca-Cola, or not seeing the latest blockbuster.

11.IT IS NOT 8. But on the other hand we need to drink Coca-Cola, use the Internet, fly Boeing jets, see Rambo movies etc etc. Can we sacrifice all these simply because babies are being decapitated by Israeli soldiers using highly sophisticated and costly weapons donated by the kind Americans? 11.IT IS NOT GOING TO STOP THE UNITED STATES FROM REMAINING THE MOST POWERFUL NATION AND CONTINUING TO KILL PEOPLE DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY.

12.But if 10 per cent of the people in the world who drink Coca-Cola stop drinking it there would be some impact. If Malaysians drink, say 50 per cent less Coca-Cola (because their lives depend on it) there would be some impact also.IF NOTHING ELSE IT WILL DEMONSTRATE OUR DISPLEASURE WITH AMERICA.

p/s:tun do realize that it will not crush america but at least this arrogant human being will realized we are exist in this world and we are part of it.

To all my criticize, none of of have answered my questions, instead sound like childish rants. I like this blog because it seems to be a center for a lot brainless Hippocrates.

Again I ask Why only bycott cola and starbuck. How about calling back all the MARA students in US. Stop using all American products. It is easy to call for boycott when you are rich and can afford to boycott a product and won't be effect financially at work by the boycott (which are effecting mostly Malays). But can any of you stop using the computer. Can any of you stop using the Intel and AMD chip. Ask MAS to stop using Boeing plans.

This war should have end with the 1947 UN Partition Plan but it didn't because the Arab rejected it and want more land. Now Israel has much land then the propose plan. They fought for every inch against the Arab Legion and now you expect them just to give it up like that. Why are the Arab countries being spared from criticism.

Answer me this, why didn't the MAF go to war against Israel and the US during Tun was PM.

But like so many of my comments that call into question you hypocrisy, this comment most likely will not get posted too.

Akum TUN

Masalah israel dan US ini memang susah nak buat. Dimalaysia pun sama TV3, RTM dsbnya menganjurkan derma untuk palestine dan mengutuk kekejaman israel dsbnya.

Tapi saya lihat pada waktu yang sama mereka ini berlumba lumba mengiklankan makanan daru US sperti Mc Donald, KFC, coca cola Dsbnya.

Ini lah yang dikatakan cakap tidak serupa bikin, Sepatutnya media juga mainkan peranan boikot pengiklanan. Tapi apa nak buat sebab wang wang wang adalah segala galanya.

Assalamu'alaikum Tun & Family,

I watched your comments on Labu Airport (TV1) just now.. You are right on sir.

For those of you who still cannot read between the lines of Tun's statement on sending MAF to Israel, please laa.. go back and study or please ask you friends who understand Tun's way of describing his feelings and emotion. This is what we called BODOH SOMBONG or in Kelantan they used to call "BODO TAK RETI AJAR CERDIK TAK LEH TUPE."

Tun please take good care of u & Tun Hasmah. Keep up the good work sir. We are behind you. KT election results shows it all.

Bagaimana kita hendak boikot barangan Israel? Memang susah kerana kita tidak ada hubungan ekonomi dengan mereka. Mudah saja. Boikot barangan yang ada pertalian dengan Yahudi. Contohnya daripada dahulu saya tidak shopping di Tesco kerana ia dimiliki oleh keluarga Yahudi yang kaya di London. Tapi bila saya beritahu orang kenapa saya tak shopping di Tesco, mulalah orang kata saya ni sensitif sangat la, anti-Yahudi la, political la, anti-Semitic la. Inilah orang Melayu. Tak sensitif. Sime Darby pun bodoh kerana membeli dan menguruskan Tesco di Malaysia. IJN pun depa nak beli.

Dear alibabamahathir (above me)

do you think Dr M here is serious on sending our troops?do you think Dr M here, a former Prime Minister for 20 freakin years do not know how to justify the need in sending troops?

try to look the statement in, how should i say it, in deeper context la the statement is just to reflect the anger inside Dr M and other Muslims, seen Muslims at Palestine being erased by the Zionist. it also help the flow of his statement, if you read according to their number, (assuming u know how to count) started from the very extreme act to the most logical act that Malaysian should do.

can think beyond this simple thinking? then i truly, really, deeply feel sorry for your stupidity.

By heningAuthor Profile Page on January 17, 2009 11:45 PM

Pak Pandir,

I believe you're an ungrateful Malaysian and do nothing other than supporting the atrocities. You have a dangerous mind. I wonder what was your reaction when countries like China or India was going through humanitarian crisis. All I can say is, it is not difficult to trace you down. Malaysian intelligence has grown far better than the day your parents were around. I would be proud on the one who can do things within his circle of influence rather than the one looking at the circle of concerns. You're are no different from the empty cans. This is not a treat but rather the fact. Watch your back!

boycott coca-cola, starbuck and colgate actually wont hurt our local business. if it does, it would be only a small collateral. take for instance starbuck. it is operated by Berjaya group, who also own Time's Square and much more. So boycotting starbuck, would only bring customers to other cafes such as gloria jeans and others. the customers are still there and local business will still be making profit.

we can hurt the big business in America. if not big but it still hurt them. but in this world, the smaller thing usually makes the difference. we may be small in power but sparks start small leads to massive fire.

Lead on Tun!.

The Palestinian Story: Remember Us

Sat, 27 Dec 2008 18:55:08 GMT

By Anna Denise Aldis and Dex A. Eastman, Press TV

When the passage of time finally brings the men of many lands to the tables of judgment, politicians from countries that have emboldened Israel with their silence will gaze into the eyes of delegations from around the world only to see the same eyes gazing back. Remember us for we may not be at that table.

There are reasons for this.

We were once free to roam the lands of our fathers, to feel happiness and to cry when in despair. From the Mediterranean Sea to the Jordan River was our realm, but how were we to know what they intended to do to our nation.

They provoked wars and committed the most terrible of sins against the Jewish population, but when it was time to compensate, they put the burden of their own wrongdoings on our shoulders. One nation solemnly promised to a second nation the country of a third.

Everyone had a say, the then president of the United States Thomas Woodrow Wilson, the leaders of the Zionist movement and even the representatives of Anglo-Jewry opposed to Zionism. There was no need to canvass Arab opinion.

They sat at round tables, signed agreements, sent the text to other powers for approval but no one consulted us. Remember us the native people of the ancient land of Canaan, Palestine it was called.

We protested, signed petitions, held rallies but to no avail; the process of nullification had already begun. They had decided to create a 100% Jewish state for the Jews of the West who had suffered under anti-Semitism in Europe. Nobody asked whether we were even responsible for the anti-Jewish propaganda in Germany. Remember us who sought your helping hand when they threatened us with annihilation.

Why were we for decades the main victims of the horrific massacre of the Jews by the Germans, Rumanians and Hungarians?

United under the Zionist slogan of 'A land without a people for a people without a land', certain powers opened the floodgates by telling Jews that our land is one that lacks inhabitants and must belong to a nation with no land.

They helped the 1948 creation of Israel based on the 'Judenstaat' which had been envisaged in 1896 by the founder of political Zionism, Theodor Herzl.

Then the flood suddenly hit us. We were no longer welcome in our own homes, our own towns and villages and on our own lands. They tried to bribe us into leaving the land of our ancestors. They promised to pay for all our expenses for us to leave Palestine and settle in neighboring Arab states.

But how could we leave? How could we leave our homes, our lands, the graves of our fathers and the hopes of our children? How were we supposed to forget and make our children forget that we had roots in Palestine? We objected.

We knew our resistance would cost us dearly, but we were ready to save our lands from the foreign invaders. Those oppressed in the Holocaust were transformed into the tormenter of the Arab population in Palestine.

Remember us in 1948 in the unarmed village Deir Yassin where 254 of us men, women and children were awakened from our sleep with the sound of bombs ripping through neighboring houses. Irgun and Lehi terrorist groups had received orders to uproot us, the Arab population of the village.

They threw bombs into our houses and slaughtered all of us they could find. About twenty-five of us were brought out of our houses on a 'victory tour' and then to a stone quarry where they shot us in cold blood.

The Red Cross came to understand our fate when they looked into our lifeless eyes and at nearly 150 of our maimed bodies abandoned in a well.

Several of us survived to tell the story of this indelible blemish carved in the pages of Zionist history.

"I saw a soldier grabbing my sister, Saliha al-Halabi, who was nine months pregnant. He pointed a machine gun at her neck, then emptied its contents into her body. Then he turned into a butcher, and grabbed a knife and ripped open her stomach to take out the slaughtered child with his iniquitous Nazi knife," Halima Id, a survivor of the attack, told her sister later.

They failed to plant fear in our hearts for what is home if it is not to be cherished?

Remember us in 1953 in Qibya when our women were preparing meals for the men and children and nearly 600 Israeli soldiers moved toward our village. We heard explosions, screaming and artillery fire, but the collapse of our roofs and the following darkness was the last we saw.

The then commander of the "101" unit, Ariel Sharon, later said that his leaders' orders had been clear on how to deal with the village. "The orders were utterly clear: Qibya was to be an example to everyone."

Original documents of the time showed that Sharon personally ordered his troops to achieve "maximal killing and damage to property".

UN observers say they saw our bullet-riddled bodies near the doorways and multiple bullet hits on the doors of our demolished houses and that we had been forced to remain inside until our homes were blown up over us.

They then wished to deny us presence in neighboring Lebanon, which had allowed us refuge from the anti-Semitism victims turned against us.

Remember us in 1982 in Sabra and Shatila. The Israeli army watched as the murderers they had provoked against us entered our two Palestinian refugee camps in the southern outskirts of West Beirut.

Us women were lying in houses with our skirts torn up to our waists, our children with cut throats, rows of us young men were shot in the back after being lined up at an execution wall.

Our babies were lying like discarded dolls on the streets, blackened because they had been slaughtered more than 24 hours earlier and their small bodies were already in a state of decomposition.

We were tossed into rubbish heaps alongside discarded US army ration tins, Israeli army equipment and empty bottles of whiskey.

3,500 of us were slaughtered; some of us men as young as 12 or 13 were killed with our arms and legs wrapped around each other, picturing the agony of our death. All of us had been shot at point-blank range through the cheek, the bullet tearing away a line of flesh up to our ears and entering our brains.

Award-winning Middle East correspondent Robert Frisk recalls that "On one blackened wrist a Swiss watch recorded the correct time, the second hand still ticking round uselessly, expending the last energies of its dead owner."

Remember us in 2002 in the West Bank refugee camp of Jenin where hundreds of us were buried alive in our homes. Our bodies were crushed and smoldered by buildings when the heavily-armored Caterpillar D-9 tore down our homes, our shelters and all of our belongings.

The IDF was fulfilling the orders of the then Israeli prime minister Ariel Sharon who in 1956 vowed to "burn every Palestinian Child that will be born" in Palestine. "I would burn him and I would make him suffer before killing him".

They struggled for a fortnight to bury our bodies and the evidence of the atrocity. They piled us in houses and when the pile was complete, they bulldozed the building to bring its ruins down on our corpses. Then they flattened the area with a tank.

Remember us in 2008 in the Gaza Strip where the bombs of hatred rained down on us to prove that world New Year celebrations have no meaning. They called into action F16 bombers and apache helicopters to put fear into the very hearts of our nation even though we had long been left with no real method of defense.

Over 230 of us were killed and 800 of us were wounded. Remember us!

Let world leaders hold imprecise debates about what constitutes a massacre. Let Israel and its allies cover up their crimes. You can even call the state built upon the ruins of our homeland 'the de facto democracy of the Middle East'.

But as our bodies lie in mass graves in our backyards, know that we are the children of Palestine -- a nation of people who as our last words utter the Muslim declaration of faith (Shahadatain) and pass on our mantle of resistance to the next forgotten person.

Remember us...

Assalamualaikum Tun dan seisi keluarga.

Saya terpanggil untuk memberi cadangan bagaimana cara untuk mengalahkan yahudi (israel ) di Gaza. Saya berpendapat hanya orang Islam Malaysia dan Indonesia sahaja yang mampu mengalahkan Yahudi. Sebab nya orang islam Malaysia dan indonesia menggunakan ilmu kebatinan/ketuhanan/amalan tertentu yang di ajarkan beberapa kitab serta dari tok guru, tok kiyai terbukti berjaya. Jika kita maseh ingat di Malaysia orang islam begitu aktif beramal dengan ilmu tertentu satu ketika dulu( rusuhan kaum). Pada waktu itu ilmu orang islam begitu menjadi seperti parang terbang sendiri, badan kebal tak lut dek senjata, senjata tak meletup, dan lain lain. Begitu juga di Indonesia sewaktu rakyat nya menentang belanda tok kiyai dan orang alim menggunakan ilmu keagamaan dan ilmu kebatinan bagi menentang musuh. Kita pernah dengar bagaimana bom di gugur tentera belanda bolih menjadi buah betik . Serta bagaimana serangga lebah/tebuan diperintah menyerang tentera belanda. Sebenarnya Allah beri banyak kelebihan kepada umat Islam Malaysia dan Indonesia dari segi ilmu kebatinan/ilmu ketuhanan ini. Sayangnya umat di sini tak sungguh sungguh amalkan ilmu ini KECUALI waktu terdesak contoh nya seawaktu umat islam (Melayu)tersepit dek peristiwa rusuhan kaum satu ketika dulu. Saya begitu kagum beberapa pesatuan silat meminta kebenaran kerajaan malaysia untuk ahli ahli nya pergi ke Gaza membantu umat seagama di sana. Saya yakin dengan bekalan ilmu ketuhanan dan amalan kebatinan serta kelebihan luar biasa menyebabkan mereka ingin berjihad di sana. Sepatutnya kerajaan Malaysia menyokong usaha ini. Hanya ilmu ketuhanan yang mampu mengalah musuh islam. Bukan kah ilmu ketuhanan itu setinggi tinggi ilmu yang ada di dunia ini. Mengambil kesempatan ini saya ingin mencadangkan satu pasukan silat terbesar di tubuhkan antara negara malaysia dan Indonesia. Tujuan nya menjaga umat islam kedua dua negara di tindas dari musuh musuh islam. Selain itu bila ada keperluan membantu umat islam di negara lain pasukan ini akan pergi membantu. Saya juga ingin mencadangkan Tun yang menggerakkan usaha ini memandangkan Tun sangat di hormati, pendapat dan cadangan Tun mudah di sokong . Saya yakin usaha ini satu usaha yang baik demi menjaga umat islam di malaysia dan indonesia. Kita sendiri pun melihat bagaimana keadaan umat islam di seluruh dunia di himpit dari kehari hari oleh musuh musuh islam. Melalui persatuan silat terbesar ini akan di kumpulkan tok guru yang handal, yang kebal, yang mempunyai pelbagai ilmu peperangan, ilmu pendekar, ilmu mempertahankan diri sebagai yang di ajarkan melalui kitab kitab yang di amalkan pejuang lama seperti Allahyarham Mat Kilau, dll. Perkara ini tidak boleh di tunggu lagi memandangkan semakin ramai umat islam mati manakala musuh musuh islam begitu berani dan biadap dan sudah tidak peduli lagi dengan undang undang antarabangsa hatta menddapat arahan berhenti oleh PBB . Nampak nya umat islam dah tak bolih buat apa apa. Lihat lah betapa lemah nya umat islam hari ini. Adalah di harapkan dengan tertubuhnya pasukan silat terbesar gabungan Malaysia dan Indonesia maka umat islam terbela bukan sahaja di kedua negara ini malah di seluruh dunia. Percayalah hanya Malaysia dan Indonesia sahaja yang mampu . Negara Arab tak bolih di harap. Walaupun orang Arab menggunakan bahasa Ala-Quran namun mereka tidak ada kelebihan ilmu kebatinan sebagaimana orang islam Malaysia dan Indonesia. Mengapa Allah pilih Malaysia ?. Hanya Allah yang maha mengetahui. Segala yang rahsia dan ghaib adalah urusan Allah. Sebagai umat islam, kita wajib beriman kepada yang ghaib . Jika tidak , kafir kita di buat nya. Sebagai mengakhiri cadangan ini saya tertarek kepada kata kata yang terkeluar dari mulut sahabat saya (kini Allahyarham ) yang merupakan anak murid paling kanan satu kumpulan zikir/ tarekat. Beliau memaklumkan Malaysia adalah negara bertuah dan satu hari nanti panji panji islam bangkit di malaysia dan menjadi rujukan negara islam lain di dunia ini. Saya begitu yakin dengan kata kata nya memandangkan Allahyarham seorang murid kanan yang begitu tawaduk,zuhud,kasyaf.Semoga Tun tidak menghampakan harapan saya serta seluruh umat islam di Malaysia dan Indonesia serta umat islam seluruh dunia. Saya bolih di hubungi melalui fax:03-61881525.t.k

Tun, what about you? You too hv a compassion?

1. The compassion to deny the democratically elected PBS government in 1985.
2. The compassion to recruit PATI to vote against PBS in many elections.
3. The compassion to produce instant citizens in Sabah by your project ICs.
4. The compassion produce false evidence against your political rival eg. DPK, DSAI, Dr. Jefry and others.
5. The compassion to use ISA at your whims and fancy.
6. and many more...

Tun can you deny that?

Israel is the only country which is non muslin around the middleeast. Meaning Israel is serounded by all the Muslim country in the north,sotuh,west,east of their country. Egpyt the biggest power, Arab the oil rich....Dubai.....the world claim richest country....why arent they help???? And spend the 100m to buy Kaka to Premier League. So what is the point we are doing this boycott? Arent we should advised them to boycott?

2. I was wondering why they call this an Israel attack as an offensive attack. I realised it was the Hamas who fire a missile last December to Israel which resulted Israel made the attack again. DO we condemn Hamas for this act last December. I dont think so. We know they are not doing right but we didnt do anything. Why???? It was on the advantage of Hamas side. Gaza was in peace for few years until Gaza suddenly launch that missile. Now who is the one looking for trouble?

3. We as a multiracial country fail to justify the multiracial...it looks more we are on the Muslim side rather than on the justice side.

4. Look at the case of Mindanao, the muslim there, from history what i see is that the teerorist(the muslim) in the Mindanao is fighting with the goverment because they want Muslims to rules the country. They kill many innocent philippines soldier and many catholic were being kill. Still Phillipines just let it be because they did not want to argue with the Muslim. They wants peace. As the result..more soldier were being kill till action need to be taken. It was in the history that those soldier head/catholic head will be beheaded by the muslim solider. So when action taken and war against them have been called, the Muslim lost terribly and many Muslims life were kill. Now they claim the Philippines goverment is bad and kill many of them and seek help from us. So our country help them for a peace talk. I do understand now why we never do progresively condemn on Philippines action of killing the Muslim bacause this is truly the Philippines Muslim fault. But what we do about it. Do we condemn the terrorist by Muslims in Phillipines? We didnt. How on the earth the Muslim in Phillipines able to get the missiles, gun to run the terrorist. Many claims it is from us. And they dont even have money to buy the guns....who sponsor them. They claim it is from us as well. Is that true????

Are we in the eyes of the world as the justice based or muslim based. Something to ponder.

American will get their punishment soon. Just wait and see, the economy will start to fall within 3 months. By early April later, we can see the economy downturn.

Boycott is good when the economy is blooming but not when now many are facing retrenchment we do not wish to put their list on the retrenchment side.

We should also boycott US Software such as Microsoft, Oracle, and an Israeli ERP System bought over by SAP called B1.

Instead we should send our kids to learn Open Source Software from the ground up - from Linux to ADempiere ERP which is already top-ranked in the world among non-US users.

Assalamu'alaikum Tun & Family,

Saya rasa agak susah untuk rakyat Malaysia ini untuk memboikot sesuatu barangan. Sebabnya kita memang tidak diasuh untuk berbuat demikian.. Tengok sahaja bila harga barang2 makanan naik, seperti harga ayam..Bila ada persatuan yg menganjurkan untuk memboikot lantas pihak kerajaan yg sepatutnya berjuang dibelakang kita, tetapi mereka inilah yg mengizinkan kezaliman ini berlaku dengan melarang rakyat memboikot. Dengan berbagai alasan hanya sekadar untuk menghidupkan segelintir peniaga sahaja.

Justeru itu saya dah muak dengan pemimpin yg berpura2 ini..Kalaulah mereka ini benar2 ikhlas ingin memboikot barangan Amerika, merekalah yg sepatutnya menunjukkan contoh dengan melarang kemasukan produk2 tersebut dari malaysia ini. Bersama kita boleh.

GUIDELINES FOR BOYCOTTING ISRAELI GOODS MORE EFFECTIVELY

As we impotently watch the events unfolding in Gaza, there are text messages and e-mails flying around asking us to boycott Israeli goods or companies that have close relations with Israel. But we've been here before haven't we? We need to ask ourselves why previous boycotts have failed and what lessons can we learn from them.

There are a few problems with boycotts. One of the main problems is the sheer number of companies that have links with Israel. On some websites we see over a 100 diverse companies, ranging from GAP to Shreddies. Just remembering the list is impossible, let alone acting on it. It is impractical to boycott all of them. Sometimes the link to Israel may also be tenuous. This leads to cynicism amongst some people, and in the end the majority of us boycott none of them! Another problem with boycotting is something more profound, yet basic.

Many people feel that they have "done their bit" by boycotting a company. It soothes our fragile conscience and makes it easier for us to switch the TV channel when the news comes on. If the reason behind a boycott is to help our brothers and sisters, then it is usually very hard to see tangible results, and this leads to de-motivation.

We might ask ourselves, "Why should we inconvenience ourselves when nothing seems to happen from the boycott anyway?"

Be realistic! The solutions to the above problems lie in some of the following:

- * Reduce the number of companies being boycotted to a few at a time. Target companies that can be effectively and totally boycotted to produce real results. Don't stop boycotting until they collapse or reconsider their actions. Definitely do not stop just because the fighting seems to have ended or there is less coverage on the TV and newspapers.

- * If you are boycotting a company, tell your family, friends, colleagues and even strangers. Stick posters at appropriate locations and make a big deal about it. Encourage others to follow your principled stand until walking into an M&S store would become worse than walking into a pub disco on Laylatul Qadr, for example. Also, don't forget to send an e-mail to the company you are boycotting, informing them that their support for Israel has cost them the most important thing in the world to them - money.

- * Remember and remind others that boycotting is not the full answer - it is merely a part of it. The real answer lies in uniting together on the principles of Islam and breaking down the barriers of mistrust, nationalism and sectarianism that have led to a situation where 1.3 billion can be terrorised by 13 million.

Here is the recommended boycott list you are asked to follow:

1) Marks & Spencers

Few companies are as public and proud of their support for Israel and Zionism. What makes matters even worse is the fact that they are always moaning about declining profits and making a loss, yet still find money and time to support a desperately unpopular foreign "state". M&S has been the focus of boycotts for years, but during this economic crisis they are especially vulnerable. For the store founded by Zionism cheerleaders, it is about time we boycotted them into bankruptcy - and encouraged all people of justice to do the same.

2) Starbucks

Not only does Starbucks have a chairman who is a committed supporter of Israel, but they also have supported and funded various events and possibly websites that raise money for it. Added to this, they have even donated an entire store to US troops in Afghanistan and free coffee beans for the troops in Iraq. In two words - Starbucks sucks.

3) L'Oreal & Estee Lauder

The chairman of Estee Lauder, Ronald Lauder has personally led a rally in Jerusalem and co-founded a right wing Israeli think tank. L'Oreal was given the Jubilee award by Israel for services rendered, and even has a special product line on display in some shopping centres called L'Oreal Israel. Boycott them. Despite the adverts, they're not worth it!

aku rasa dah sampai masanya kita tutup sume macdonal, kfc or sume restoran barat. lain2 tu kite patut juge larang jual coca cola, pepsi dan seumpamanya.

bile kite tutup bende nie baru le usahawan kite akan mengisi ruang kekosongan tu. bende ni lebih kepada brand je. rasa lebih kurang sama.

sepatutnye OIC dah lama bincang camne nak perkenal jenama utk orang islam. ini asyik bincang bende yg rumit, buat le bende senang dulu.

May the Peace and Blessings of Allah be upon Muhammad (saw), his wives, his family, his companions and righteous followers

Al-Wahn, A Deadly Disease

On the authority of Thawbaan , the Prophet said:
"The People will soon summon one another to attack you as people when eating invite others to share their food." Someone asked, "Will that be because of our small numbers at that time?" He replied, "No, you will be numerous at that time: but you will be froth and scum like that carried down by a torrent (of water), and Allah will take the fear of you from the breasts (hearts) of your enemy and cast al-wahn into your hearts." Someone asked, "O Messenger of Allah, what is al-wahn?" He replied, "Love of the world and dislike of death." [An authentic hadith recorded by Abu Dawud and Ahmad]

In attempting to contemplate on the meaning of the Prophet's words in the above hadith (and indeed on any of his noble sayings), one quickly comes to appreciate the Prophet's statement: "I have been given words which are concise, but comprehensive in meaning" [Bukhaari and Muslim]. The Messenger was blessed with the profound ability to utter several words which whole volumes could then be written about.

In this striking hadith, the Prophet describes the situation of the Muslims with great accuracy, and also prescribes a remedy for the ailment.

"The People will soon summon one another to attack you as people when eating invite others to share their food."

What is extraordinary in this hadith, is that the Prophet conjures up vivid images in the listener's mind about the scenario. Here, the Ummah (the Muslim nation) is first likened to some seemingly tasty food surrounded by a group of hungry diners. But these people need to share, and thus, the food must be divided into portions corresponding to the status of each 'guest'.

Shortly after the fall of the Khilafah (Caliphate), the Muslim world was divided into many different states by the European powers, with each of them eyeing the rich resources that Allah has blessed the Muslims with.

Colonisation and corruption shortly followed in those lands, and the seeds of tyrannical, despot regimes were planted. Now, with the Ummah divided and each government primarily concerned with its own interests, the enemies of Islam are free to attack each region like wild animals attack their prey - Palestine, Iraq, Chachnya and now Afghanistan.

Someone asked, "Will that be because of our small numbers at that time?" He replied, "No, you will be numerous at that time..."

This is yet more evidence that in Islam, numbers are of little significance. The Muslims were victorious: at the Battle of Badr, where the disbelievers outnumbered the Muslims three to one. They were also victorious at Yarmuk, where the Romans outnumbered the Muslims seventy to one. The current situation is quite the opposite. The Muslim population is more than a billion and is rapidly growing. Yet, these phenomenal numbers are of little consequence when the masses of the population are essentially slaves to the West, herded mindlessly like cattle according to the whims of their masters.

"...but you will be froth and scum like that carried down by a torrent (of water)"

Here is another image! This extraordinary description carries heavy meaning beneath its exterior if one considers the characteristics of the "froth and scum".

Firstly, the froth overlies the water beneath, suggesting a sense of pride and self-confidence. Secondly, the froth is almost weightless and with little substance, such that the slightest breeze can destroy it. Thus, the pride and self-confidence is ill founded and in reality, should not exist. It is only a product of self-delusion. Thirdly, the foam and scum is not in control of its path - that is, the role of the water flowing beneath. All it does is happily flow along to its destination while intoxicated with its imaginary position.

"...and Allah will take the fear of you from the breasts (hearts) of your enemy and cast al-wahn into your hearts."

There were days when the forces of the Muslims were dreaded by all those who opposed them, when people from all over the world would travel to the lands of the Muslims to receive education, and when Arabic was the language of success. These days are all but gone. Muslims and Islam are generally looked down upon. Why? The Prophet said it is because of Wahn. Technically, it means a dull lifelessness and enervation. However, the Prophet explains what this word really means:

Someone asked, "O Messenger of Allah, what is al-wahn?" He replied, "Love of the world and dislike of death."

Thus, the problem and the solution have been identified. After the bombardment from capitalist and socialist ideologies, the Muslim world became too materialistic, desperately pursuing the rewards and pleasures of this world, with little remembrance of the Hereafter. The Prophet said (in another hadith):

"Keep much in remembrance of death, which is the destroyer of pleasure." [Tirmidhi]

Allah said: "Say: 'Short is the enjoyment of this world. And the Hereafter is the best for those who do right. And you will never be dealt with unjustly in the very least. Wherever you are, death will find you out, even if you are in towers built up strong and high.'" [An-Nisaa, 4:77-78]

Imam Ahmad records from Abu Dardaa as saying: "If only you knew what you will certainly see upon your death, you would never eat again a single bite out of a craving appetite, and you would never again drink an extra sip of water for the pleasure of unquenchable and insatiable thirst."

Once Muslims realise that the death is not the end, but the beginning, thereafter with ultimate justice and either excruciating torment or blissful reward, our situation will surely change.

Until then, Allah says: "Verily, Allah will never change the condition of a people until they change what is within themselves." [Ar-Ra'd, 13:11]

Saya setuju 100% kalau Malaysia nak antar tentera serang US dgn Israel. Tapi, berani ke Pak Lah nak ambik keputusan cam tu? Sedangkan bila Muhyidin buat kenyataan akhbar, rundingan FTA M'sia dgn US dihentikan...pun...Pak Lah buat satu lagi kenyataan minta Muhyidin explain kat kabinet kenapa rundingan tu nak hold dulu...

Pengamatan saya...serangan Israel ini ada kene mengena juga dengan keadaan ekonomi sekarang ni. Ekonomi US sedang jatuh dengan teruk...hutang banyak...tiap tahun belanja defisit...lepas tu dalam belanjawan US pula sebahagian besar untuk belanja pertahanan..termasuk la belanja serang Iraq, serang Afghan, buat peluru, bangun senjata baru...semua tu duit...Yang terakhir sekali US dapat gunakan/dispose peluru-peluru diorg adalah sepanjang perang Iraq..sekarang ni peluru/senjata diorg dah bertimbun...pasal dah 5,6 tahun ni tak de perang..tak heranla kalau US buka tender untuk hantar 3,500 kontena peluru ke Israel sebelum Israel mula serang Palestin...stok peluru kat Israel pun dah banyak...abis tu kat mana lagi nak dispose....GAZA lah yang jadi medan untuk habiskan stok senjata...abis tu tak kan nak main letup je...mestilah ada target...sapa lagi kalau bukan org palestin...sebenarnya ...US dgn Israel ni memang reserve org2 palestin ini untuk jadi target kalau tak dapat nak create perang kat tempat lain...itu je. Lagi pula ...bila ekonomi tgh teruk ni...rasanya...ramai kot Yahudi2 ni yg terkena bisnes diorg...

Orang islam...apa sangatla diorg ni...apa yg orang Islam boleh buat....habis-habis...demo sana...demo sini...kepala-kepala kerajaan yang duduk kat tuh...lagi-lagi yang lembek macam Pak Lah tu..jadi Chairman OIC pun tak tau nak buat apa...dah la lembek...memang cair...cakap je jela2 pasal kesatuan ummah..semua retorik je...anwar Ibrahim...ular kepala dua tu lagilah...bila ada hal...bukan main lagi US diplomat defend dia...pastu dia berlagaklah..belakang dia ada US...bila timbul org kutuk US pasal defend Israel...macai-macai dia pun backing kata...mana pulak anwar tu baik dgn US...baik yg dok kat PAS ke, DAP tu mmg la 2x5 Yahudi...entahla apa nak jadi..nak kiamat le kot

Dari 1948 hingga sekarang Palestin diserang...

Palestin diserang bermakna Islam diganyang...

Islam diganyang ke mana tentera Islam menghilang...

Islam menghilang setelah al-Aqsa ditumbang...

Al-Aqsa ditumbang apakah kita menghalang...

Kita menghalang cuma Hamas yang berperang...

Hamas berperang, Sunni & Syiah pula sibuk sepak terajang...

Sepak terajang sesama agama, rakyat palestinalah yang malang...

Palestin malang, negara negara Arab hanya memandang...

Hanya memandang & terus memandang...

ex-PM, attack Israel? Attack US?
We would just end up like the Palestine!
Why didn't you attack them when you were PM?
You know it was not possible. Now that you're retired you start saying really illogical stuff.

Boycott? The economy is in the gutter and you're talking about boycott?
Why not decide to expel all US, Israel and German company from Malaysia Instead?
Yay, lets push Malaysia back 20 years.

We use to be in the same League as Korea and Taiwan. Then Singapore and Hong Kong. Now even Vietnam seem more competitive than us.
Why? POOR leadership. And not just this current government. But your reign too was bad. It breed all these corruptions and what not.
Look at our ppl's way of thinking. Look at some of the bloggers here whom comment? No articulate point of view. Nothing.

All YAY! Lets boycott US products. Its as if they don't even know economics 101.

Tun Yg Fasih,

Setuju sangat saya jika dikatakan boikot barangan hanya akan merugikan negara dunia ke tiga dan negara baru membangun, baru jatuh dari bangun dgn andaian jika boikot boleh menjadi sebab syarikat atau kilang pelabur luar itu di tutup, yang hilang pekerjaan rakyat tempatan. Kerajaan seperti tidak mampu menerima pekerja yang di berhentikan kerja oleh swasta, senang cerita yg dok ada dalam gomen tu pun dah cukup sendat..

Assalamualaikum Tun,

With your permission,

Dear Bravo Echo Echo Romeo Jan 16, 2009. 9:27AM,

I supposed you've got the whole concept wrong. Nobody hates America and the American people. My former Prime Minister also do not hate America. Older generations of the world and present generations owe a lot to America, In fact they still love America and the American people, only that now they hate the present American politicians and American foreign policies.

Under the British rule we Malaysian studied British, European, Australian, and world's history. We learned not only read about Vikings, British Monarchy, Feudal System, French and Industrial Revolutions, discoveries of America, Australia & New Zealand, the annexment of the Middle East, Africa and colonisation of the East Asia by Europeans WW1 WW2 etc. With this historical knowledge and witnessing the modernisation of the world and human society, we may have a broader outlook towards things happening around the world today. We too acknowledge America's contributions to the world. That's how we learned to love America.

Probably up to the Kennedy era American politicians and foreign policies were respected world wide. However this love & respect had already changed to hatred when Zionist influences penetrated Congress and American politician. Malaysian do not hate Jews, there are Jews in our land, good and obedient citizen. Even in Israel there are also this so called "good Jews" but hatred are only to those zionist who also happened to rule Israel.

The zionist influence in American Congress and politics had tarnished American popularity and dignity. The demonstration all over the world speaks for itself.

In future I hope you can be polite and have respect towards my former Prime Minister. Although he is old but he is a lot wiser than you. I supposed so, if not he cannot rule a beautiful country without any "outside" influence for about 2 decades. Who and what are you? Some of us can only critised others but some cannot even be properly administer his family and home. Do not criticise others with hatred because someday the same may befall unto you. God is very fair and just. We Asian have respect for our elders, if you are an Asian you have already forgotten your "roots".

** Thank you, Tun. May Allah bless you and your family.

Dear Tun,

Saya bersetuju dengan pendapat Tun, Negara Islam tidak boleh membantu Gaza...Umat Islam sahaja yang dapat membantu Gaza.

Segala komen dibawah ini adalah pandangan saya hasil dari pengalaman dalam pelaburan saham, matawang dan bon.

Pada pendapat saya Tun, perang di Gaza adalah DIRANCANG. Kenapa saya berkata begitu...dengan perang sahaja...Amerika dapat keluar dari kemulut ekonomi sekarang.

Untuk pengetahuan Tun, semenjak 2007, seluruh matang asing GBP, CHF, JPY telah jatuh menjunam dan ini makin ketara pada bulan Ogos 2008. Big drop...Walaubagaimanapun matawang USDJPY seolah-olah terdapat tangan yang megawal dibelakang (Intervention)...jika dilat dari sudut matawang asing lain....semua mengalami kejatuh .....tapi lain pula halnya dengan USDJPY...

I supposed you're a foreigner, not Malaysian. If you're Malaysian you should know how to read what is written between the lines and understand what our former Prime Minister meant by sending our arm forces to Isreal. If I am right you must either come from Europe or US. The same mistake had been committed by your politicians whenever they meddle with the internal affairs of other countries. Without the knowledge of the culture, religion and lifestyle of the local they try to force the population to swallow American Democracy. Later they discover that they had made a mistake.

Do you really think that he would sent troops to Israel if he is still in power? He is not like Rasputin, or those cruel ruler, mad presidents or Prime Minister of the ..... For God sake use the brain God has provided to you.

Salam Tun.

Someone has to stand up. I totally agree to what you said in relation to attacking Israel and US but i think MAF wont be strong enough to do that. OIC is the best thing we can look upto. If all the islamic countries can join hands and agree on forming an alliance like NATO, with huge combined military power and nuclear capability (PAKISTAN & IRAN), U.S & ISRAEL will definitely think twice over doing something like this again. Kick the Americans out of Afghanistan & Iraq. Cut the oil exports to U.S and U.S will be on its knees. They attack a single place, All of us should stand united against the aggression. This is the only possible way to deal with the current scenario. Surely we don't have to go to U.S for our imports. Free trade can exist among OIC Countries and what they lack, countries like RUSSIA, INDIA, BRAZIL are the available options.

I WISH SOMEONE COULD STAND UP AND MAKE THIS HAPPEN.

An Open Letter To Y.A.B Tun Dr. Mahathir Mohamad

Dear Sir,

First and foremost, I would like you to know that I am an admirer of your great leadership both domestically and at world stage especially among the so called Islamic Country, NAM, OIC and many other regional organization. Somehow, in the midst of these admirations, I find it difficult to understand your conflicting approach towards Israel. I remember very well that it was you who invited a group of young Israelis cricket players to Malaysia to show these young Israelis that Muslims can live in peace with the Jewish as long as mutual respect exists within each other.

Fast forward 2009, you seemed to have abandoned these whole ideas of promoting peace among the future generation and replace it with a more confrontational approach like boycotting goods and US Dollar. Nevertheless, I supported these confrontational approaches of yours as I believe that it is the best strategy to quickly halt the killing of Palestinians babies, children and women. What I find frustrating is that I expected a brave and courageous Muslim like you to be fair in your assessment of Hamas, who after winning the election should behave more like the elected representative of the Palestinian people than the guerrilla party that they used to be.

I find it strange that you did not use your influence on OIC to prevent Hamas from firing their rockets into Israel. And I find it strange that Muslim solidarity was suggested in confrontational terms when the real issue, as I see it, is the Palestinian solidarity. Your voice is needed towards realising the real Muslim solidarity, not the kind of solidarity that push for more confrontation with Israel and the west but one that is united in their push for a united Palestine. A divided Palestine will lose their battle against Israel for many years to come while a united and moderate Palestine can achieve more and hopefully costs no innocent children, babies and civilians their lives in their search for independence. What we see now is Palestinian solidarity only when they are attacked by Israel. In between, Palestinians leaders are busy with their own war against each other. Muslim solidarity, if realised must also advise Iran, Syria, Egypt and Jordan against interfering in Palestine and let the Palestinians chart their own future. And of course, Hamas must also be advised to amend their charter to accept the existence of Israel. I may be wrong, but as far as I can recall, a truly united Palestine has never entered peace talks with Israel in recent times.

Sir, what motivates me to write this letter is not just the suffering of innocent children in Palestine but also the suffering of children in Israel in this useless Arab – Israel war. You hold the key towards uniting the Muslims in achieving lasting peace with Israel and I believe that it makes more sense to talk to Palestinians into accepting Israel than confronting the world superpower through boycotts and endless United Nations meetings.

The least I can do is to spread the message of peace and in doing so, I would like to apologize if I wrongly perceived your stand on the matter.

Yours Sincerely,
Mohamad Fazli Bin Ramli

Assalaamualaikum Tun,

Sudah bertahun2 saya menghormati dan sangjungi buah fikiran Tun yang tulus ikhlas dan luar biasa memperjuangkan Anak Bangsa, Negara dan Agama. Tetapi kali ini saya terasa sedih apabila membaca blog Tun yang saya fikir terlalu emosi. Saya harap Tun dapat terus berkhimat dengan menggunakan kelebihan Tun yang dianugerahkan oleh Allah sebaik mungkin dengan lebih teliti, bijaksana dan efektif untuk mengatasi masaalah 2 umat Islam sejagat lebih2 lagi khas kepada umat Islam di-Palestine.

Cuba kita renungkan bagaimana cara rakan2 Cina kita yang ada di-rantau ini mengatasi musuh2 mereka untuk mempertahankan kehormatan, kepercayaan dan ideology mereka. Tidak perlu lah untuk saya memberi contoh yang panjang lebar kerana kita semua dapat melihat bagaimana orang2 Vietnam dapat mengalahkan America dalam peperangan, China dapat mengatasi perang saraf dengan America dan sekarang menjadi Negara ke-tiga ekonomi terbesar di-Dunia. Orang2 Cina di-rantau Selatan Timur Asia baik di-Philippines, Indonesia, Brunei, Thailand, Singapura, Vietnam dan Malaysia sendiri, mereka semua menguasai ekonomi serantau walaupun bilangan mereka kecil atau sebagai penduduk minoriti selain Singapura.

Maksud saya tidak perlu kita cakap kuat2 dan marah2 walau sebanyak mana pun Israel, America, Britain dan sekutu2nya dimerata dunia termasuk dirantau ini maupun didalam negeri sendiri MENGZALIMI umat Islam. Walau sebanyak mana pun mereka membunuh umat Islam dengan alat2 pemusnah canggih yang mereka rekai, DEMI ALLAH! Mereka tidak boleh mengalahkan umat Islam dimana2 pun INSHA'ALLAH! Percayalah kerana perjuangan hidup dan mati kita ini adalah kerana Islam dan ALLAH lain dari mereka yang hanya untuk kebendaan, tamak dan kepentingan diri sendiri.

Untuk mengatasi masaalah ini kita hanya perlukan sedikit pengorbanan untuk umat Islam di-Palestine. Sebagai contoh, penduduk Islam di-Malaysia katakan 60 % daripada keseluruhan penduduknya yang berangka 25 juta orang. Jadi orang Islam Malaysia berjumlah 15 juta. Tetapi bukan semua nya benar2 Islam, katakan hanya 10% sahaja Islam sejati, jadi angka sebenar nya adalah 1.5 juta orang Islam. Katakan belanja makan kita saorang ialah RM5 sehari, kalau kesemua 1.5 juta orang Islam ini berpuasa Isnin dan Khamis mereka bukan sahaja mendapat ganjaran pahala puasa dan bersedekah malah dapat membantu umat Islam Palestine untuk kegunaan mereka membiayai obat2an, pelajaran, pembangunan, penyelidikan dan taraf hidup yang lebih kukuh dan bermakna untuk mengatasi hidup dan perjuangan mereka menghadapi musuh utama mereka, iaitu Israel!

Lihat di-sini:-RM 5 X 2 hari puasa seorang = RM 10
RM 10 X 4 minggu = RM 40 seorang sebulan

Kalau kesemua 1.5 juta orang berpuasa,
RM 40 X 1,500,000 = RM 60,000,000 sebulan !

Katakan ada 100 Negara2 Islam yang ingin ikut serta dengan usaha ini, RM 60,000,000 X 100 Negara2 Islam = RM 6,000,000,000 sebulan !

Tetapi perlu hati2 wang sebanyak ini tidak boleh di-amanahkan kepada sebarang orang, lebih2 lagi orang Melayu di-Malaysia sungguh merbahaya ! nanti wangnya tidak sampai ke-Palestine tetapi di-saku kocek orang yang di-amanahkan. Waima dia-seorang Ustaz, Perdana Menteri, Naik Perdana menteri, menteri kewangan mau pun apa2 menteri sekali pun melainkan dia seorang WALI hidup itu pun kalau ada, tetapi saya kuatir di-Malaysia tidak mungkin kerana terlalu kotor untuk seorang wali hidup di-negara yang banyak sangat dosa2 besar!

Wassalam.

regarding above topic

I am just sharing my opinion. Anyone whom read this are welcomed to comment or correct me if i am wrong since i am not that professional.

Just incurred to me that, another form of boycott that can be done is by boycotting the purchase / selling of diamonds. The reason behind it is, the only organization that monopolies diamond is "De Beers" whom is believed to be Israelis. Since ages, they had been monopolizing the diamond business by keeping the demand and the price high. For eg; watch 'blood diamond' again, though it is just a movie... For the women societies, the ones whom are about to get married or anyone whom are willing to sacrifice by boycotting, the best substitute for diamond will be 'White Sapphire' looks similar to diamond, the professionals can help you on this. Other than that, coloured stones.

Whenever i see a Israel or US brands, what runs through my mind is, for every ringgit we spent on the brand, somehow the profits goes to Malaysia based foreign company then to its original founder in US or Israel. For eg, when it is transferred to founder or parent company in US . The company have to pay tax, which the government uses to fund jets, missiles, or any other form of fire arms to Israel DIRECTLY without any question. For every ringgit we spent on the brand, it only needs one bullet for one headcount regardless innocent civilians, women or children. And by the way, they had been only using bombs i forgot.

Just another thought or suggestion, lets say we boycott the brand. What will happen to the Malaysian workers that had been working at the US or Israel company which is based in Malaysia? This will be the best time for local companies expand their businesses to compete with the foreign brand and improve their quality so that they can compete, i bet they can. Much more greater if the Government and the Financial Institutions could help them sustain and grow. By then, it would open many employment opportunities which workers in foreign brand company locally based can make full use of it. So consumers, don't hesitate to try our local brands and "now" is the best time.

Personally, in the time to come, when they stop this madness terrorism act, if they. I think i will continue to boycott as much as US or Israel brands as i can for the justice of more than a thousand and deaths to come of innocent Palestine citizens by the Israelis. How about you? If you feel this message is right, then spread this message to as many people as you can, thank you.

I'm fairly sure this is how it will go.

- 1) Israelis ceasefire
- 2) Palestinians claim victory
- 3) Money/aid pours into Gaza
- 4) Money diverted to tunnel digging teams
- 5) Money diverted to rocket-making crews
- 6) Rockets land in southern Israel
- 7) Israel sits and takes it
- 8) Not a peep from Europe
- 9) Israel responds to rocket fire
- 10) Europe protests Israel's aggression

Dear Tun, salam mesra moga sihat selalu. Minta izin beri komen..

.....RACIST TEGAR

Tulisan sebiji irama Umno menghitamkan kaum lain bila menegakkan pendirian. Dah tahu berdosa masih nak buat juga, siap dgn minta ampun Tuhan.

Menggelar rakyat M'sia dari sebuah kaum, Yahudi (untuk dibenci). Yang kononnya 'jahat' dipanggil Zionist. Dia kkuatir kaum ini bila ramai akan panjat kepala.

Tak usah kkuatir, dua petunjuk jelas menunjukkan ia mustahil berlaku. Penghijrahan keluar serta kadar kelahiran jauh kurang dari Melayu (dan masih menurun) akan buka jurang lebih luas dari majoriti Melayu. Tahun 1959 ia 55:40 (lebih sikit satu dgn satu) skrg 60:25 (dua setengah dgn satu), tak lama lagi 65:20 (lebih tiga dgn satu) iaitu majoriti kuat 2/3.

Sempadan kawasan pilihanraya condong (boleh dicondongkan lagi) pada pihak sdr. Kaum lain 100,000 satu kawasan, lain tempat 30.000. Sejuta di Wil P'tuan dikeluarkan dan tiada hak undi krjn negeri.

Dgn kelebihan begini apa yg ditangiskan lagi...

.....RINDUKAN BULAN

Edaran sejarah membentuk keadaan kita skrg. Kalau dah beratus tahun, ia tak boleh berputar balik (mungkin juga kehendak Tuhan kalau dibiarkan berlalu begitu lama) Hadirnya kaum lain bermula 500 thn dulu. Mustahil sejarah ini boleh digulung balik.

Tuhan hendak kita kongsi dunia ini, sama juga negara. Kecuali ada orang nak jadi Tuhan memulangkan kita ke zaman Empayar Melaka menghapuskan sejarah 500 tahun ciptaan Tuhan.

.....ANTARA BANGSA DAN NEGARA

Kalau berjuang untuk mendapat satu kerakyatan M'sia yg sama digelar Zionist, jenis mengagungkan satu bangsa saja boleh di ibarat Nazi. Nak mengagungkan negara dan rakyat M'sia atau mengagungkan satu bangsa dari satu kaum terpulang pada rakyat.

Negara maju aman makmur baru bangsanya masyur (Jepun, Korea) Bangsa 'agung' pegang kuasa memerintah tapi negara mundur dan bergolak, bangsanya diketawakan ( Zimbabwe, Somalia, dll negara Afrika)

.....TANAH TUMPAH DARAH ATAU TANAH GADAI

Busuk hati mempolitikkan pemberian milik tanah pada keluarga berturun temurun tinggal disitu sebagai merampas tanah Melayu. Mrk rakyat M'sia (kecuali kerakyatan ini tiada makna) perlukan tanah untuk tumpah darah mereka juga.

Banding dgn tanah diberi pada kroni Umno yg menjual tanah pada orang asing, untungnya dilabur diluar negara dan bersara disana (Maklumlah tak boleh tunjuk kekayaan di sini) Orang asing boleh milik tanah (dijual Umno) untuk mengaut untung, tapi rakyat sendiri yg menetap lebih seratus tahun tak boleh dapat tanah tempat berteduh.

.....PUJI DAN CUCI

Pujian hanya Tun sibuk bersilat mempertahankan maruah yg diabaikan krjn lebur dgn titah Raja Nazrin tentang zaman 50thn Merdeka. Lagipun silat untuk bakal 'pengantin' ketua pemuda Umno.

Fasa pertama(1959-1982) digelar era emas, fasa kedua zaman kepincangan dan perebutan kuasa, hilang perjuangan murni, lahir team dan tong, kerabat dan kroni, taksu dan tamak, kuasa dan kekayaan. Baik Tuanku tak sebut 5 thn. Salah siapa atau dasar apa kita sendiri tafsir.

Fasa pertama kaum Melayu kaya lebih atau fasa kedua lebih ramai. Tapi era emas fasa pertama?

.....RACIAL STIGMA

Buruk memberi cap Negro pada rakyat M'sia berkulit hitam. Sebagai 'rakyat' mrk ada hak bersuara dan meminta. Dahlah belanja krjn diasing, sampai belanja persendirian pun nak asingkan antara rakyat negro, Yahudi dgn Melayu.

Rakyat biasa buta kulit berbelanja dimana senang, murah, mutu dan enak bukan mcm orang politik. Kaum lain boleh makan produk Melayu, tapi Melayu ada larangan peribadi dan agama ( ini tidak dipertikai) Tak cukup lagi ke dagangan sehala yg begini.

.....PERPADUAN UNTUK MEMBANGUN ATAU MELAWAN

Niat memperbaiki bangsa dgn menghantukan dan menuduh kaum lain adalah busuk. Cara tak halal boleh minta restu dgn melafaz niat baik? Agama saya tak pasti, ajaran Umno pernah dengar.

Cina terbahagi Gerakan, MCA DAP (50 thn) tak menjejaskan pembangunan bangsa knp Melayu tak boleh terus bangun walau politik berbeza. Ini karut Umno menarik sokongan dgn momok Zionist, Yahudi, Negro Baca titah Raja Nazrin dan fahamlah silap di dalam kaum sendiri bukan kaum lain. Cuba faham pepatah Cina 'manusia dia, hantu pun dia' (Bukan semuanya mcm itu)

Should we boycott German product as well as they also involve in Gaza conflict?

But i don't think SOME people will do this, as SOMEBODY's SON is a distributor of Porsche car (notes: porsche owned by German)

If one can of coca-cola priced at RM1.00, and one porsche car priced at RM1 million ... SOME PEOPLE rather 1 million of Malaysian boycott coca-cola, RATHER than ONE SON dont sell one porsche car ...//

Macha,

Yes, The ONE SON sells Porsche, there is also The ONE SON IN LAW (= The SON "OUT-LAW" OF MALAYSIA, leader to ONE MACHA + ONE CHINDIAN) are selling the country Malaysia via Air Asia.

However, you are the frequent blogger of the FATHER of the ONE SON selling Porsche, hm.... you are in the category of "N kedua: 'Ngelat' [cakap tak pernah betoi]. Bila bercakap, kuahnya lebih dari isi. But most of d time, takda isi langsung!!" as stipulated by one the great bloggers, Emicro. Cantonese says- "Ji Luk Wai Ma" (means pointing at a deer and say it is a horse - PENIPU) or Hokkien says boliau, local English says talk cock!!!!

Assalamualaikum Tun,

1. Dalam kita dok sibuk memboikot produk ISRAIL dan AMERIKA tapi masih ramai orang kita yang berkunjung ke Mc Donald atau KFC.
2. Kalau di NEGARA ARAB orang ISLAM ada pilihan lain iaitu AL BAIK. Ianya produk ISLAM dan tak kurang hebatnya kalau dibandingkan dengan Mc Donald atau KFC.
3. Malah kalau AL BAIK berada bersebelahan dengan KFC kita dapat lihat pelanggan AL BAIK penuh tapi KFC lengang.
4. Apa kata kalau BUSINESSMAN dari MALAYSIA menjadi FRANCHISE ALBAIK. Sekurang kurangnya rakyat MALAYSIA ada pilihan lain.
5. Disamping itu juga ia menjadi FARDHU KIFAYAH kepada kita.

We don't buy American product. But we steal from them.
Use pirated softwares, watch pirated videos, here pirated music.

Don't ever buy original product of the United State//

##Jangan kata steal from them (kita simpan dalam hati, buat bodoh aja), nanti "Malaysians yang berlagak mcm orang US" kata kita ini pencuri atau takde moral. Kita bukan "steal", kita do it the legal way using "download" UTorent (music), DVD Video Soft Free Studio (movie or video) atau beli(bermaksud bukan steal lo) the original DVD via Tak Ori kat mana2 pun boleh dapat!!!

Produk ori dpd United States sebenarnya tidak bagus sangat tapi harga mahal, tak berbaloi, beli kat pasar malam dengan harga ori dah boleh bertanding dgn produk ori USA, kita kena smart in shopping. Take care Halid.##

Tun keeps talking and writing, I am behind Tun so that these 'versi orang US malaysia (not the ori kind, Tun) will behind me.

Assalamualaikum, Tun.

To Mr raychua81, January 18, 2009. 8.19 AM

As an History student from the University of Malaya, it saddens me that people today are not as interested in history as before. Worse, we have people ( I mean you) that have some semblance of knowledge of history, but twists it to their own ends. A horrendous case of twisting facts to suit theories instead of forming theories to suit facts (Sherlock Holmes, A Study in Scarlet)

1. Firstly, while I do agree that Israel is the only non-Muslim country surrounded by Muslim (or Arab, Lebanon has a balanced Muslim-Christian population), these countries are weak, ever since they are humiliated in the Arab-Israeli war, and its people betrayed by their leaders (Egypt almost beat Israel when they obtained the Suez Canal, but then retreated). And of course, Israel has the fourth strongest military in the world, so really, the Arab nations can't do much. But you do have a point in saying that they are wasting their money spending on buying football players. But it still does not negate the idea of Malaysia boycotting US products.

2. Yes, there was a ceasefire for six months in Gaza. And yes, Hamas did launch the rockets. But did raychua actually wonder why the rockets were launched in the first place? Because the ceasefire clearly mentioned that Hamas would stop firing missiles into Israeli territory while Israel would aid in the supply of medication and food into Gaza. Israel did not honour their part of the bargain, and Gazans suffer from hunger. It is not surprising why Hamas did what it did. In fact, it is a wonder that Hamas did not launch their rockets earlier.

3. Multiracial...how have we failed to justify, pray tell? Malaysia has always voiced for justice, regardless of. We're the first country to moot the idea of isolating the bloody apartheid nation, South Africa. We also voiced out when Lebanon was attacked in '06 (remember when Israel attacked Qana, the place where Jesus performed his first miracle?) We're doing the same regarding Gaza.

4. Mindanao...what a funny analogy by mr raychua. Mindanao happened because of the Philippine Government efforts to disenfranchise the Muslims of the south through the mass migration policy of Catholics from the north to the southern islands. I'm not justifying the disgusting actions of the terrorists, but raychua's vilification of the terrorist (or Muslim, whatever) without understanding why they fight is both shallow and stupid.

Yeah, maybe the economy of the US will go down soon. But raychua still fails to answer why the boycott should not happen. The way I see it, it is a symbolic effort to show our protest for what the US atrocities. Why is the US rich? Because the entire world is using its stuff. If this boycott goes through, even for a bit, it might impact them. It should impact them if we all played our part.

Unless, raychua would prefer to consume the Palestinian-blood-in-a-can (read: Cola)

Palestin: Antara Ilusi Dan Realiti

December 29th, 2008 | by Abu Saif | 5,824 Views |
[cid:1.3011429794@web27708.mail.ukl.yahoo.com]

“Anta dah siap ke? Jom la ke kelas” , saya memanggil Munawwar untuk keluar bersama ke kelas. Sebaik sahaja kami mahu melangkah keluar, pandangan kami terlekat ke kaca televisyen. Pagi itu, Televisyen Israel (Yahudi) Channel 1 menyiarkan rancangan TV Pendidikan. Saya menonton suatu rancangan yang dirakam di sebuah nursery. Guru yang mengajar anak muridnya menyanyi dengan diiringi sebuah piano, menyanyikan lagu berikut:

“Makanan paling sedap daging orang Arab, minuman paling sedap darah orang Islam”

Ya, itulah yang saya baca pada subtitle rancangan tersebut.

Kanak-kanak semuda 3 dan 4 tahun, diajar menyanyikan lagu tersebut dengan penuh keceriaan dan kegembiraan.

Demi Allah, suara cikgu dan kanak-kanak itu masih segar di dalam ingatan saya, dan jika saya pandai melukis, saya masih mampu melakarkan di mana cikgu dan piano itu berada, dan bagaimana kanak-kanak itu mendendangkan “nasyid” mereka. Walaupun sudah tepat 10 tahun peristiwa itu berlaku (1996).

Sesungguhnya gambar-gambar di ATAS adalah ‘surat cinta’ kanak-kanak Yahudi yang menjalani proses pembelajaran yang sama. Mereka melakar ‘mesej cinta’ itu pada peluru dan bom yang bakal dihantar kepada penpal mereka di seberang sempadan. Dari balik tembok, anak-anak Yahudi ini mengucapkan “salam” kepada rakan Palestin dan Lebanon mereka, moga dipanjangkan usia, bukan di dunia, tapi di alam kematian yang hitam.

Para ulama yang menyokong tindakan suicide bomber kebanyakannya membezakan di antara situasi Palestin dengan situasi bukan Palestin. Adalah tidak harus sama sekali pendekatan suicide bombing dilakukan di kawasan awam seperti di kota New York, London atau Istanbul.

Tetapi Palestin berbeza. Ia adalah medan perang dan di tengah-tengah medan perang tidak ada orang awam. Sama ada kamu sebahagian tentera Islam, atau tentera musuh. Maka jika Yahudi di Palestin tidak mahu diri mereka, kaum perempuan mereka, atau anak-anak mereka terbunuh, mereka mesti keluar dari medan perang. Bagi umat Islam di Palestin, sama ada mereka mati diletupkan dari jauh, atau lebih baik mereka mati meletupkan diri untuk meletupkan musuh. Itu sifirnya. Mungkin kita setuju atau mungkin tidak. Tetapi kita sukar untuk berkata banyak kerana mereka di Palestin itulah sebenarnya yang menderita dan tahu pahit getirnya hidup di medan tempur.

Mungkin sukar untuk dibayangkan hakikat kanak-kanak Yahudi sebagai sebahagian tentera mereka.

Tetapi saya tidak lupa kepada program televisyen yang saya tonton, bahawa setiap anak Yahudi memang dididik seawal usia buaian untuk membesar menjadi Yahudi sejati. Sama ada kamu mahu menjadi doktor, jurutera, arkitek atau ‘Ustaz Rabai’, kamu adalah tentera Yahudi yang w aji b mempertahankan bumi ‘Israel’ dari anjing Arab dan Islam!

Itulah semangat yang disuntik ke jiwa setiap Yahudi di bumi Palestin.

Anak kita bagaimana?

Menjawab soalan ini, saya teringat kepada apa yang telah diungkapkan oleh Abu al-Hasan Ali al-Nadawi di dalam bukunya Ila al-Islam Min Jadeed (Kembali Semula Kepada Islam). Di bawah tajuk "Antara Ilusi dan Realiti" (Bayna al-Soorah wa al-Haqiqah), al-Nadwi telah memberikan suatu analogi yang sangat baik untuk difikirkan bersama.

Al-Nadwi membayangkan bagaimana seorang pemimpin hebat yang telah mati, dikenang oleh pengikutnya dengan membina sebuah patung yang besar dan amat menyerupai rupa pemimpin itu semasa hayatnya. Tetapi pada suatu hari, seekor burung datang bertenggek di atas hidung "pemimpin" tersebut dan melepaskan najisnya. Patung yang besar dan gagah itu tidak mampu berbuat apa-apa terhadap burung yang kecil itu, walaupun di kaki patung itu terpahat nama seorang pemimpin yang semasa hidupnya digeruni kawan dan lawan.

Mengapakah keadaan itu boleh berlaku? Mengapakah pemimpin yang hebat itu terhina hanya oleh perilaku seekor burung yang kecil?

Al-Nadawi mengulas analogi ini dengan mengemukakan konsep ilusi versus realiti.

Patung itu walaupun besar, gagah dan hebat, malah mewakili peribadi seorang pemimpin yang agung semasa hidupnya, adalah hanya "seorang patung". Ia hanya sebuah gambaran. Sebuah ilusi. Manakala burung tersebut, walaupun kecil dari segi saiznya, ia adalah burung yang hidup. Burung itu walaupun kecil, namun ia adalah realiti.

Sunnatullah telah menetapkan bahawa realiti sentiasa mengalahkan ilusi.

Beginilah perihalnya kita ketika berhadapan dengan musuh. Jika kita membaca al-Quran dan meneliti ayat-ayat tentang Nasrani, kita akan dapati bahawa orang-orang Kristian hari ini amat menepati watak mereka seperti yang digambarkan oleh al-Quran. Aqidah mereka yang mengelirukan, paderi mereka yang kuat makan duit, kebencian mereka terhadap orang-orang yang beriman dan sebagainya, semua keterangan teori al-Quran itu menepati realiti kaum Nasrani hari ini. Maka orang-orang Kristian hari ini adalah orang Kristian sejati. Mereka adalah realiti. Pertembungan kita terhadap mereka adalah pertembungan kita dengan sebuah realiti.

Jika kita membuka lembaran al-Quran dan mengkaji tentang Yahudi, maka kita akan dapati bahawa keterangan al-Quran tentang karakter Yahudi amat selaras. Kelakuan penakut mereka yang hanya membolehkan mereka menyerang di sebalik tembok, sifat takabbur, dendam kesumat terhadap orang-orang yang beriman, semuanya menepati realiti. Maka orang-orang Yahudi hari ini adalah orang Yahudi sejati. Pertembungan kita dengan Yahudi adalah pertembungan kita dengan sebuah realiti.

Namun, jika kita amati keterangan al-Quran tentang ciri-ciri orang Islam dan Mukmin, apakah hasil pengamatan kita itu?

Al-Quran menjelaskan bahawa orang-orang Mukmin itu bersaudara. Al-Quran juga menjelaskan bahawa orang Mukmin itu saling menjadi pembantu kepada Mukmin yang lain. Orang Mukmin bersatu padu berpegang dengan tali Allah, mereka tidak berpecah belah ketika mendirikan agama, mereka pengasih sesama mereka dan keras terhadap Kuffar dan pelbagai lagi senarai ciri Mukmin yang diterangkan oleh al-Quran.

Namun, perhatikanlah realiti umat Islam hari ini. Berapakah jarak di antara diri idaman mereka seperti yang digambarkan al-Quran, dengan diri sebenar mereka di dalam realiti kehidupan?

Berat untuk lidah kita mengungkapkannya, namun al-Nadawi turut sampai kepada kesimpulan yang sama. Umat Islam hari ini tidak seperti umat Islam yang digambarkan al-Quran. Kita ramai tetapi kita hanya sebuah ilusi, dan ilusi sentiasa dikalahkan oleh realiti!

Muslim ilusi berdepan dengan Kristian realiti.

Muslim ilusi berdepan dengan Yahudi realiti.

Realiti sentiasa mengalahkan ilusi.

Ramainya kita hanyalah sebuah ilusi. Hakikatnya kita sedikit, dan jumlah itu semakin sedikit apabila saudara-saudara kita berbondong-bondong murtad meninggalkan kita.

Kayanya kita hanyalah sebuah ilusi. Hakikatnya kita miskin. Kita miskin jiwa, miskin daya juang dan kemiskinan itu semakin miskin apabila saudara-saudara kita tidak mampu mengawal jual beli harta mereka sendiri yang selama ini mengkayakan musuh.

Cerdiknya kita hanyalah sebuah ilusi. Hakikatnya kita bodoh. Kita masih dibelenggu oleh persoalan-persoalan yang bodoh dan tidak langsung menghasilkan sebarang hasil. Kebodohan kita menjadi semakin bodoh apabila kita tenggelam dalam tajuk-tajuk debat sesama kita yang langsung tidak menggambarkan yang kita sedang berada di medan perang.

Bersatunya kita hanyalah sebuah ilusi. Hakikatnya kita berpecah. Hati-hati kita terlalu mudah untuk diungkaikan ikatannya hanya disebabkan oleh kuatnya dendam kesumat kita terhadap sesiapa sahaja yang tidak mengiyakan apa yang YA di sisi kita, dan menidakkan apa yang TIDAK di sisi kita. Penyakit hati kita sangat menjijikkan. Kita cekap mencari ke mana n orang lain, dan kita begitu berselera menjadikannya sebagai hidangan 'kari daging busuk' santapan harian.

Ya, jika al-Quran yang menjadi pengukurannya, maka Yahudi di Palestin itu adalah realiti. Nasrani di Rumah Putih itu adalah realiti. Namun umat Islam yang mengelilingi Rumah Hitam di Masjidil Haram itu hanyalah ilusi. Dan ilusi akan terus dikalahkan oleh realiti.

Selagi kita tidak berusaha untuk membentuk diri menjadi Mukmin sejati, selagi itulah kita tidak akan diizinkan oleh Allah untuk melihat pembebasan Palestin dan Masjidil Aqsa. Bukankah Allah telah menjelaskan di dalam al-Quran:

[cid:2.3011429795@web27708.mail.ukl.yahoo.com]

"Jika kamu berbuat kebaikan, (maka faedah) kebaikan yang kamu lakukan adalah untuk diri kamu; dan jika kamu berbuat kejahatan, maka (kesannya yang buruk) berbalik kepada diri kamu juga. Oleh itu, apabila sampai masa janji (membalas perbuatan derhaka kamu) kali kedua, (Kami datangkan musuh-musuh kamu) untuk memuramkan muka kamu (dengan penghinaan dan keanasannya); dan untuk memasuki masjid (BaitulMaqdis) sebagaimana mereka telah memasukinya pada kali yang pertama; dan untuk menghancurkan apa sahaja yang mereka telah kuasai, dengan sehancur-hancurnya." [Al-Israa' 17: 7]

Ya, janji Allah itu benar. Kesudahan isu Palestin adalah kemenangan yang akan berpihak kepada umat Islam. Namun kemenangan itu adalah kemenangan bersyarat. Allah mensyaratkan bahawa gerombolan kemenangan kita yang bakal masuk ke bumi Palestin mestilah sebagaimana kumpulan umat Islam masuk buat pertama kalinya dulu. Renunglah ciri-ciri Rasulullah SAW dan sahabat. Renunglah ciri-ciri Umar dan tenteranya semasa masuk ke bumi Palestin dan ingatlah, selagi kita tidak masuk dengan cara kemasukan yang pertama, perjuangan kita hanya ilusi. Ilusi yang dengan mudah dapat dimusnahkan oleh sebuah realiti.

Ajarlah anak-anak kita siapa musuh mereka. Besarkanlah mereka agar menjadi mukmin sejati. Bersiap sedialah untuk menghantar anak-anak kita ke masa depan mereka yang jauh lebih mencabar. Ramai ibu bapa yang sudah berjaya menukar fitrah kanak-kanak itu sehingga mereka membesar sebagai Yahudi, Nasrani dan Majusi yang sejati. Sudahkah kita membesarkan anak-anak kita menjadi Mukmin yang realiti?

Keluarlah dari ilusi, dan jadilah Mukmin sejati. Kamu sedang disembelih oleh sebuah realiti.

Tun,

Cadangan Tun untuk boikot barangan US tu memang la bagus. Pekerja di kilang Coca Cola di KL ni kebanyakan nye orang kita!!. Mana dia nak pie kalau akhirnya kilang tu nanti tutup? lose-lose situation la.

Tapi macam Starbuck tu boleh la kita boikot sebab dalam kempen jualan nya terang-terang untuk bantu Israel( untuk support Israel 5 juta )

Teruskan menulis Tun.

Salam Tun,

izinkan Tun respond saya kepada:

To MDZ5046:

Saya tak bersetuju dengan hujah saudara yg orang islam lebih menzalimi orang kafir kerana tidak berdakwah utk mengajak mereka memeluk islam. Dakwah utk penyebaran islam masih berlaku dan terus akan berlaku, seperti yg telah berlaku di merata dunia sejak wafatnya Rasullulah S.A.W. Tetapi saudara, ada golongan yg hati dan otaknya telah beku walaupun telah datang kepada mereka kebenaran yang nyata. Golongan ini telah dinyatakan di dalam Al-Quran oleh Allah yakni jika Allah tidak mahu mereka melihat kebenaran dan berada di jalan yg benar, mereka tetap dalam kegelapan. Lebih-lebih lagi bangsa Yahudi yg angkuh dan sombong yg terasa kaum mereka "terpilih" oleh kerana banyak Rasul2 dan Nabi2 datang dari golongan mereka. Mereka juga adalah kaum yg membohongi Rasul2 mereka, memukul Rasul2 mereka, memusuhi Nabi Isa A.S. orang2 Yahudi dan Kristian telah melakukan pembohongan kepada penganut mereka tentang kedatangan Rasul terakhir dari golongan Arab yang akan membawa agama yg sempurna untuk seluruh umat manusia iaitu ugama Islam. Dari titik itulah orang2 Yahudi terasa terhina kerana Rasul ini bukan dari kalangan mereka kononnya umat terpilih! Mereka memusuhi orang2 Arab semenjak itu.

To dewadonny:

Tak payah membuang masa mengajak ketua negara2 Arab bersatu padu menghantar askar mereka menentang Israel sebab mereka tengah khayal di dalm khemah2 mereka setelah menghisap hasyih dan dikelilingi oleh harem2 mereka menari gelek.

Mereka ini saperti King Saud dan yg lain naik takhta dengan sokongan US, tentera mereka dilengkapi oleh US, mereka tak akan mengambil risiko utk hilang segala itu dgn melawan Israel anak angkat US!

Nak tau kenapa Rasullulah S.A.W menangis semasa nak wafat? Saya rasa kerana baginda dapat melihat dgn izin Allah macamana umat islam berpecah belah selepas kewafatannya dan menjadi lemah akibat godaan dunia. Tak payah pergi jauh, lihatlah betapa orang2 melayu menjadi ketagih menonton siaran AF1,2,3,4 dan ulangan2 nya, American idol, HMI dan banyak lagi di tv, Astro, banyak yg tak tau isu-isu yg lagi serius seperti umat islam ditindas di Gaza, West Bank, Checnya, isu perang Iraq dan Afghanistan. Tetapi kalau tanya siapa paula Abdul? Tahu - panel American Idol. Macamana?

Jadi saudara, hujah saudara kurang tepat! Mereka tidak akan memeluk Islam walaupun besok akan Kiamat sperti yang telah disebut dalam Al-Quran. Tak payahlah nak membuang masa terhadap mereka ini.

To Solcroft:

you my friend either a teenager or immatured adult! Dont you know when somebody is talking in jest? Please read the whole context before jumping to a conclusion on a sentence.

Of course he knows MAF is no match for the IDF or US, at 100,000 active personnel, a regiment of PT91-M of 48 tanks, no more than 8 missile equiped corvettes and frigates, 18SU-30MKM, 16MIG29, 8 F-18D Hornet without attacking codes(held by US Congress worried that we will attack their proxy Thailand and Singapore) and yet to be delivered Scorpene submarines and one training Augosta ex-France submarine, haw are we gonna last more than two weeks in a war with them? Even some of our equipments were bought from the US!

This is what happen when we have an incompetent government who takes the issue of self defense and procurements of defense hardware lightly and takes years to make a decision on procurements, and have no balls to stand up to those opposition idiots! All for the more needy projects for rakyat my foot, the money goes to Labu Airport and other cronies through various projects i am sure!

My friend, please next time take your anti-Mahathir ill conceived comments somewhere else, it will be well received at a place like Malaysia Kini.Com etc.

To i love jews:

You maybe one of those people mentioned in the Al-Quran that will never open your eyes and your heart to the truth because when God gives you eyes you refuse to see, give you ears you refuse to listen, give you heart but it is black, and gives you brain you refuse to think! You only see and accept what you want like the people that you love the Jews.

We Muslim dont hate Jews per say, we hate their bad deeds to ther people because of their selfish reasons, unfortunately most of the victims of their wars are Muslims either directly by them or their proxy -the US in Iraq, Afghanistan, Syria and soon Iran. The whole financial collapse that trigured the current recession is caused by them in the US, Europe and the rest of the world! Do you know who is Maddoff? he is a JEW, what did he get for his US50billion scam? House arrest my friend by the US court!

I dont hate Jewish people per say, they were my neighbor when i lived in Florida, i ate jewish K kosher food when halal food was hard to find in the supermarket, my professor Ian Jochim was a jew and took me and my friends for free dinner at Pizza Hut to celebrate his birthday, i attended Thanksgiving and ate Turkey prepared by Jewish people!

Dude, Islam is a religion of peace, we are prohibited to shed a drop of blood without strong reason. It is unfortunate that you choose to see the bad side of the coin due to the media blitz controlled by the very people you love, the Jews and the US. Since 9/11, the US controlled by the Jews went on constant potrayal of Islam as the religion the promotes terrorism, which is far from the truth. Have you aver wondered why not a single victim of 3000 over in the WTC is a JEW? There were Muslims, Christians,Buddhist,Hindus etc but no JEWS? What is the propability of that happens when the whole New York is full of JEWS? The answer i will let you do your own searching in order to find the truth that has been hidden by the media and US propaganda machines.

I am not going to ask you to convert to Islam, but i am asking you to open your eyes, your heart and use your brain to see the truth.

Tun, i hope you have the strength to go on fighting for justice, highlighting misdeeds by our politicians who think they can belittle the rakyat eventhough some may not agree with your views. In this life, some will like white and some will love black, but the worse kind stay in the gray area, i think you know who they are.

Wassallam.

Yg Bhg Tun,

Rakyat Malaysia umumnya telahpun menyambut seruan Tun untuk memboikot sebahagian dari produk (makanan dan sebagainya) yang dikeluarkan oleh Amerika dan sekutunya Yahudi dan Eropah. Walaupun tindakan ini mungkin tidak memberikan impak besar terhadap Israel dan sekutu-sekutunya, tetapi sekurang-kurangnya rakyat Malaysia telah memberi isyarat kepada dunia bahawa kita rakyat Malaysia amat cintakan keamanan, amat bencikan pencerohan dan amalan peperangan dalam menyelesaikan sebarang konflik yang timbul diantara negara-negara di dunia.

Rakyat Malaysia harus bersatu padu tidak mengira bangsa, agama dan fahaman politik yang dianuti bagi menentang sebarang tindakan kecurangan yang bertentangan dengan amalan demokrasi dan keadilan sejagat. Apa yang berlaku di bumi Palestin dilihat mungkin berpunca dari masalah perbezaan kepercayaan anutan agama dan masalah penaklukan Israel terhadap bumi Palestin (Israel mahu membesarkan wilayah kependudukannya di bumi Palestin). Konflik ini telah berlaku begitu lama semenjak 1948 lagi (lebih 60 tahun yang lalu)tanpa sebarang resolusi penyelesaian yang menjurus kepada pendamaian yang jitu. Dunia seolah tidak berbuat apa-apa. Amat dikesalkan dunia arab yang berhampiran tidak bersatu padu membantu saudara islam sendiri. OIC juga dilihat tidak membantu mencari satu kaedah penyelesaian yang konkrit sehingga kini. Umat Islam seramai 1.3 bilion di dunia ini tidak dapat menandingi kekuatan Yahudi yang dikatakan penghuni dunia dalam lingkungan seramai kira-kira 14 juta orang (jika tidak silap). Masyarakat dunia amnya tahu kekuatan Israel bergantung kuat kepada sokongan padu Amerika dan sekutunya Eropah.

Dunia Arab yang majoritinya penganut Islam, OIC dan negara-negara Islam seluruhnya di dunia ini mestilah bergabung dalam satu organisasi yang kuat dan disegani (kuat dari segi ekonomi, perhubungan sosial, pegangan agama, intelektual, ketenteraan untuk mempertahankan maruah bangsa dan agama) oleh masyarakat dunia. Malaysia adalah diantara negara Islam yang dihormati dan disegani oleh sebahagian negara Islam boleh jadi peneraju utama kepada usaha untuk menyatupadukan seluruh umat Islam di dunia. Negara Islam dianugerahkan oleh Allah SWT segala sumber kekayaan (hasil bumi dan sebagainya) yang melebihi dari negara-negara bukan Islam. Sumber kekayaan ini diantara elimen yang kuat bagi umat Islam menjana perpaduan dan kekuatan. Kita harus bangun ke arah itu.

Sekian, salam bahagia untuk Tun dan rakan peminat Bloger Tun.

Tun,

Cerita Israel & Palestin ni sebagaimana yg saya tahu adalah perkara yg susah nak kita selesaikan. Dan saya tidak heran dgn berita baru baru ini tentang bagaimana bumi Palestin di bedil, sedangkan setiap tahun ia dibedil & mengakibatkan kematian beramai2 org awam, kanak2 dan kaum ibu. Negara Arab semuanya tidak bersatu, negara islam yg tidak sehaluan dgn Amerika di panggil negara terrorist. Jadi bagi saya kuncinya hanyalah samada kita negara islam bersatu ataupun lakukan usaha sendiri sebagai manusia yg bertamadun Islam. Tuhanmu tidak akan mengubah nasib sesuatu kaum itu jikalau mereka tidak mengubah nasib mereka sendiri. taktala kita asyik bercakap tentang negara orang, negara sendiri pun tidak mempunyai resipi yang cukup kuat utk bersatu. Sedangkan bumi Palestin di bedil bertahun2, bagaimanakah satu hari nanti Malaysia pula di bedil? adakah kita mahu tunggu negara Islam membantu kita? adakah kita akan menunggu berpuluh tahun untuk melihat perjanjian itu & ini ditandatangani oleh pelbagai pihak untuk melihat negara kita bebas dari diserang? kerana nagara kita hanya boleh bercakap & bercakap. Tapi kita tidak pernah meletakkan diri kita semua dalam keadaan seperti mereka yg hidup dalam kesengsaraan. kerana kita semua sudah LUPA & LEKA. dari kecil, kita telah hidup senang, mewah & tidak pernah dididik dgn sifat memberi, tapi hanya menunggu & menerima. Dgn kerajaan kita sekarang yang sgt lemah dan tidak mampu utk menyelesaikan beribu masalah dalaman yg remeh mahupun yg kontroversi, bagaimanakah harapan kita kepada pemimpin sekarang dalam membuat keputusan untuk rakyat? inikan pula untuk negara negara islam yg lain..? Saya tidak mempunyai cara lain untuk menyelesaikan isu Palestin ini. Pada waktu ini pun, Terrorist anr bangasa yang selama ini mengebom Amerika, Bali & lain2 juga diam MEMBISU! tidak kah mereka teringin utk mengebom hancur bumi ISRAEL?? daripada mereka mengebom negara lain yang tidak berfaedah?(bukan kah di ISRAEL semuanya halal utk di bunuh?)

di saat inilah saya merindui TUN MAHATHIR sebagai PERDANA MENTERI. biarlah apa nak dikata tentang TUN, jahat ke baik ke... kita hanya manusia.....

Thank you Tun for making this medium accessible to me..

Dear Mr FMZam

Are you a muslim ? If you are please read Al Quran more carefully. What Tun was saying in Al Quran described as

KINAYAH

Reads and you will understands. Or

It is possible that you don't have the ability to comprehend ?...

To fellow muslim kindly read this story...

Pak Nuwa seperti biasa akan singgah di restoran Pak Lahh di Putrajaya .Pada malam itu dia pun order makan seperti biasa.

“ Nasi goreng USA satu...( Utk dirinya ) Bihun Hailam satu ( Utk Zahh istrinya ) Mee Bandung dua ( Utk anaknya –anaknya ).

Maaf ya Pak Nua..Semua order itu tiada lagi dan telah bertukar ...Bertukar? Terkejut juga Pak Nuwa..Tukar macammana ?

Yang ada sekarang Nasi Goreng Palestin...Bihun Aghfanistan...Mee Kashmir...( Kerana tak mau gaduh..) Ok lah..bagi lah saya semua yang tersebut di atas..

Apabila order sampai Pak Nuwa pun mulalah makan dengan tertib...Alamak!! Kenapa pedas sangat nih!!Sampai mengalir air mata Pak Nuwa...Mana Pak Lahh ? Aku nak komplek !! Dan air Iraq ni pula masin !!

Pak Lahh pun dtg tergesa-gesa dengan memakai chef apron ( Can you imagine him in this attire ? He..Hee )

Apasal Pak Lahh pedas sangat nih? Mengalir air mata ku ?...Itulah tujuannya Pak Nuwa..Supaya sesiapa sahaja yang makan Nasi Goreng Palestin, Bihun Aghfanistan dan Mee Kashmir di harap mengalir air mata mereka...Dan Air Iraq masin kerana bercampur dengan air mata yang membuatnya...

Nape pulak tu? Tanya Pak Nuwa...Marilah kita sama- sama mengenangi nasib mereka di Negara tersebut setiap kali kita makan..Pendek kata..

Palestin, Iraq, Aghfanistan and Kashmir ..We feels your pain..

Apakah moral cerita ini..??

Assalamualaikum..

Diriwayatkan dari Aisyah rdha. katanya Rasullallah saw bersabda:- wahai manusia, sesungguhnya Allah telah berfirman kpd kamu, suruhlah manusia berbuat baik dan laranglah mereka daripada melakukan kemungkaran, sebelum tiba masanya kamu berdoa kepadaku tetapi aku tidak akan perkenan doa kamu. kamu meminta dariku tetapi aku tidak akan memberikan padamu, kemudian kamu memohon bantuanku terhadap musuhmu tetapiaku tidak akan membantu kamu....

-hadith riwayat ibn hibban dan ibn majah

Pada waktu ini majoriti masyarakat islam menunjukkan pendirian protes terhadap peristiwa yang berlaku diGaza, Doa selamat, solat hajat dilakukan serata dunia.

Sesungguhnya Allah swt maha mendengar doa orang2 islam dan Allah maha mengasihani pada nasib palestina,bahkan Allah swt juga maha berkuasa menghapuskan bani israel dgn sekelip mata pada ketika ini juga..

Percayalah bahawa setiap Doa orang islam beriman tak akan sia sia..

Berdasarkan hadith dia atas, saya kira kita mesti lihat pada diri umat islam itu sendiri.keadaan dan situasi umat islam sekarang..juga memainkan peranan besar atas kejayaan atau kegagalan sesebuah perjuangan dalam islam...

Adakah orang islam itu sendiri menyumbang faktor kegagalan umat islam dan sbaliknya kejayaan pada orang kafir

Harap Tun che Det dapat komen untuk perkara diatas...

bush is nothing but a monkey ass baboon headed pig. he eats palestinians flesh as hamburgers with his best friend olmert. it's disgusting.

and i'm not hoping for a miracle from obama either in the case of palestine. what's the use of the UN if this war keeps on going? the US bitched about Sudan and ordered for Al-Bashir to be put on trial. they would search under a rock for osama but these jewish pigs are making all their cruelty so obvious. so tell me why is the us not doing anything? sibuk-sibuk jajah iraq, sibuk-sibuk bising pasal ethnic cleansing in darfur. then what do they call the mass murder of palestianians then? a way of defending one's nation from Hamas? it's sickening. it's not a way of defending one's country. it's a genocide. it's ethnic cleansing. it's everything that is inhumane in the law of the UN. and i wonder if there's any humanity left in this world.

Tun, I saw a video on Palestine called Occupation 101. It frightened me, angered me and brought me to tears. There was this part where a little girl spoke her heart out, her voice resembled that of an old woman, torn and furious. She tugged at her clothes and her other clothes in her wardrobe and said 'Look at my clothes, they smell of gas! Everything smells of gas! I can't even wear the bracelets my father bought for me. And these sunglasses that my father bought for me, I have nowhere to go to wear them!' and this girl is not even ten yet she speaks with such mature hatred and fury. I've heard of palestinians who say that they don't bother about death anymore, they'd give up their whole lives to fight the israelis and turn into Hamas. children in palestine are already mentally disturbed. some refuse to be away from their parents because they're afraid of losing them. if schools are bombed, UN schools at that, then how are these children supposed to get education? the only thing these kids could do as they say is 'we can only play'.

i wish adolf hitler was brought back from the dead so i could ship him off to palestine and let him slaughter all the jews. where's a nasty jewish-hating german dictator when you need one!?

Tun,
Many commentators had been disappointed with Tun's aggressive stance calling the govt to fight back.I was quite alarmed at first.Our present Govt. under Datuk Abdullah Badawi would of course make a calculated risk even if they want to send a peace-keeping force to the Gaza ,what more if it's to send our army boys.I didn't think Tun meant it when u made the suggestion especially on the Net.
Right now the World would have to give in-coming President Barack Obama a lot of support so that he can pull through his economic stimulus package to kick-start his stalled economy.U can see he has to focus his attention on so many fronts -economic,political,military & social.So help him God!He has to attend to the N.Korean threat over the nukes.The North is threatening US & S.Korea.Besides this he has the ever-troubling Mid-East conflict at Gaza.It has become very explosive lately.It is really a hot-bed.So we should thank God that we were not born there!!

Zaman Salahudin Ayubi vs Richard The Lion Heart.Tentera Islam menang walaupun jumlah tentera Islam tidak ramai. Tetapi perlu faham masing-masing mempunyai senjata yang sama tajam.Sama-sama berkuda. Tidak hairanlah kemenangan demi kemenangan menyebelahi pihak Salahudin. Kerana semangat,jihad dan doa meminta pertolongan dari Allah swt. Berbeza dengan Palestine-Gaza masakini. Apa yang mereka ada? Hanya semangat.Tip-top.
Cukupkah dengan roket yang tak seberapa dan batu kerikil? Menangkah rakyat palestine setelah setengah dari ribuan kematian terdiri daripada kanak-kanak? Bilakah kita akan menang? Tunggu hampir kiamat?
Kalau perang yang kita pilih biarlah ada cukup kelengkapan. Buat masa ini kita perlukan keamanan dahulu.

Response to HBT,

Apa yg orang katakan adalah "sikap manusia", terutamanya tokoh politik yg suka memprovokasikan emosi rakyat yg tidak membawa apa-apa manfaat ...

negara arab mengecam tindakan israel dengan cara mengamuk ... sidang kecemasan diadakan pada hari isnin yg lalu ... ingat bincang pasal tindakan drastik untuk menangani isu Gaza .. namun bukan seperti yg dialu-alukan ... tetapi perbincangan adalah mengenai harga minyak yg jatuh dari USD140 kepada USD40 ...

Apa yg dikatakan di sini adalah "memimpin melalui teladan", tokoh politik boleh menyeru orang ramai membuat sesuatu, namun pemimpin perlu juga berbuat benda yg serupa ... bukannya apabila berkaitan dengan kepentingan diri sendiri, buat bodoh sahaja sekiranya 1 juta rakyat memboikot coca-cola, namun SATU ORANG ANAK sendiri terus menjual barangan German ... ini membawa maksud kepentingan SEORANG ANAK LEBIH daripada kepentingan 1 juta RAKYAT ... tindakan membodek tidak salah dari segi undang-undang, namun janganlah terus-terang sangat ... tak baik oh ...

It's strange to see most of the people here asking someone to stop commenting because they can't be enthusiast about critics, apparently our education system was a failure throughout all these years.//

DrPerfect(or DrBodoh?),

It's bodoh lah that you still do not understand the "raw freedom of speech" in weblog, we can talk big or critic any commentors we like, we are the raw type means not paid lah, the skilled type is the paid lah, so we can tunjuk perasaan because we don't have to bodek our bosses.

Example, last night, berita RTM 1 (the skilled type who their boss is Pak Lah) shown the pix of Dr M nampak marah on the issue of LCCT Labu, that's the skilled type. RTM 1 can show Dr M pix in a more relax angle rather than to put the pix showing Dr M is some kind of dictator, zalim to fool the rakyat..... we already know how to differentiate the spinned and the not spinned TV news broadcast, jangan main2 dengan rakyat!!!

Our education system is not a failure all these years, it is the macha teachers (not all, but at least about 80% of male) are those who contribute to this failure. Are you this macha?

When my children came home and tell me that the private tuition (the part-timers lah) that the teachers said gomen tarak bagus, 1st thing, I will ask, is he a macha? The answer is always "yes"!!!!

See, children do not lie!!!

Good day Tun.

Salam Tun,

I was a bit annoyed that the issue of the government's aid to Palestine was being played out by a Klang

MP yesterday, saying that the government's policy isn't consistent in providing aid to all victims of war in Africa and Sri Lanka.

I agree that we should help any victims of disaster anywhere in the world where we can and when our budget permits.

But I think in Palestine it is not about international aid per se, it is about the blatant violation of international law by one country against another sovereign nation, it is about a repressive and cruel regime determined to wipe out a people and grab their lands and keep ignoring the UN resolutions. It is about a genocide which has been going on for the last 60 years.

Of course to a certain extent some of the descriptions here might apply to some countries' conflicts like in Darfur and Sri Lanka but they are more internal conflicts within a few sovereign nations, which I think will be a little difficult for the government to interfere without a mandate by those countries or the UN. It doesn't mean that their suffering is less and we shouldn't aid them, it is just diplomatically becomes difficult without those mandates.

What I am a bit annoyed by the Klang MP is the insinuation that the government is only helping the Palestinian people because they are Muslim, and at the same breath is ignoring other conflicts. This is not true because the victims of Darfur conflict are also Muslims like I am sure there are minority Muslims in Sri Lanka.

What is your opinion on this Tun?

Assalamualaikum Tun,

Again with your permission.

To Dain Bramage Jan 16 2009. (7:29PM)

Would Tun send Malaysian forces to fight against Israel if he is still in power? A boy who sat for his SPM last year wrote in this blog that he fully understood what Tun meant("Read Miau Jan 17. 2009. (9:58PM)")

Tun was just showing his anger on the Zionist. This 18 year old is matured enough to assess what he read by using his brain. I supposed you also use your brain but sorry to note that your brain is damaged. (Your identity says so). Actually your brain is not damaged it's still in good working order, only you presume that it is useless. The advice is to think rationally and do not take all things at face-value.

From your write you sound adequately educated and much older than 18 years old. The very first step is to change your identity. Please use some other appropriate name. Psychologically your present name may influence your thoughts and behavior. Next step is to think, think, think and think (use your brain) then only present your thoughts and views to others. (Very sorry if I am bit too harsh here, please bear in mind I am trying to teach you some facts of life)

Maaf Tun cuma nak beri nasihat sikit. Kadang kadang kalau pedih sikit akan lebeh kesan.

aslm tun n pembaca blog chedet...kalau boleh tun ulas pasal ni. percaya atau tidak, secara tidak sedar selama ini Malaysia telah mengiktiraf kewujudan negara Israel. Negara Israel tidak pernah wujud. yang ada hanyalah penjajah Israel. kumpulan Yahudi yang bergelar Israel ini datang ke tanah Palestin dan merampas tanah Palestin wp d benarkan PBB...d benarkan ke negara menceroboh negara tuk d jadikan negara baru.sedar atau tidak, surat khabar kita telah memadamkan nama Palestin dan menggantikan dengan nama Israel. Amerika telah menjajah Iraq tapi nama Iraq masih kekal dan tidak bertukar kepada Amerika Syarikat.tapi berlainan dengan negara Palestin yang bertukar kepada nama pihak yang menjajahnya iaitu penjajah Israel. bukan negara Israel!...lebih parah lagi buku teks sekolah rendah dan menengah juga ada nama penjajah Israel sebagai sebuah negara.kenapa kita juga turut bertindak menukar nama Palestin kepada nama penjajah tersebut.penjajah Yahudi Israel ini adalah satu2nya penjajah yang menjadikan negara yang mereka jajahi sebagai dengan nama mereka.tanah Melayu d jajah selama ratusan tahun oleh Portugis dan juga Inggeri termasuk Jepun..tetapi kita masih kekalkan nama tanah Melayu sebelum kita menukar nama kepada Malaysia

It appears that the Israeli murderous government, backed by the U.S. and the evil British government have temporarily ceased butchering the people of GAZA enmasse. Their homes and basic infrastructure they got left have been pulverized. This allows the world to shift their attention to the inauguration of the newly "elected" U.S. President Barack Obama. This has been meticulously timed!

Whilst the people of Gaza is busy counting their losses, big foreign-owned financial institutions and corporations have already got their "financial aid" ready and the kind of development Gaza should have. This development is designed according to their "plan".

Gaza will be bombed and reduced to dust again if they continue to be a threat to Israel, unless they are prepared to have a perpetual peace for the sake of humanity, but not for the pleasure and benefit of Israel to dominate alone!

Thats the beauty of Malaysia's foreign policy. Sensible and understanding.

if everyone have the mentality of waiting for other people to CHANGE, in order for you to change. then, there will be no changes.

I think you should try to understand Tun's writing in a deeper perspective. He has indirectly answered your comment in his first earlier bullets.

I personally,are never to bother boycotting any countries product before.But the war has to stop. It has taken so many innocent lives.Children, women and old people.

And has been using/buying many american products on a daily basis since the day i was born.

Of course, we cannot stop and almost possible to live without internet, or any product for that matter.

At least we all should try to find alternatives products at least for the time being,untill the peace treaty is signed/or war end.

Boycott smartly. Not stupidly. Our ignorant are indirect support towards the Israel and their allies.

The war, power hungry isreal and their allies will never stop at least until the end of the world.

But at least we all should TRY to make a difference. Making changes in our own way.

Theres no small amount of donation,a sen will make a ringgit.a ringgit will provide with a simple yet needful material to help the needy people of palestine.

If you make the change, other people will too. But it must start from you. Everything else, will fall into it places accordingly.

I am saddened to see the hatred in the comments - many taking their cue from the original post. I think poster "selva" had it correct - a nice, intelligent, and sobering comment amid the drizzle. Let us not scream for blood or boycotts, or condemn an entire country or race of people - the conflicts and issues in the Middle East are much more complex than that. It is only through compromise and understanding of BOTH sides that we will see any peaceful resolution.

Thank you. You have done a wonderful job. Four stupid blokes (MDZ5046, dewadonny, solcroft and I love Jew) got it at one go. Congratulation some people really need some hammering in the head before they are able to see things clearly. If this kind direct hit still not able to convince them, never mind. They need to do more reading, research and think (use the brain that God had bestowed). We pray that, God willing they may find the truth. Still if they are not able to seek the truth then sorry to say that He had decided to hide it away from them. Biarkanlah mungkin kalbu mereka masih gelap dan belum lagi dapat ilham.

Thank you Tun.

One just need to learn a bit about US politics. Do some research on AIPAC , ADL and their powerful lobby groups. Neocon is only the foot soldier who is their superior? For those who think Obama will come with change, The only change I can see is the color, The Paymaster remains.

Dearest Yg Amat Berbahgia Tun,

1. It's not easy to boycott something that one is addicted to.

2. For example, we can see that "pakpandir08, Alibabamahathir, I Love Jews, Faceoff, priss01, apit, solcrof"& "those yg sewaktu dengannya" keep on visiting Tun's blog even though they dislike Tun SO MUCH; of course they claim that they ONLY dislike Tun's opinions. It seems that these people cannot live without Tun's blog, and can never boycott Tun's blog even though they always DISAGREE with Tun.

3. I agree with Tun on ways to show our displeasure towards the American government. It's not possible to boycott everything produced/invented by the US since a lot of technologies originated from the US. For example, I don't think I want to go to LA using a "TONGKANG" just because I want to boycott the technologies invented by the US. Only those with "BODOH SOMBONG" attitude would do such a thing.

Semoga segala usaha Tun berjaya dan sentiasa diberkati Allah SWT.

Dr M,

There are 4 things you hate in life.

- 1 - Singapore
- 2 - Jews
- 3 - Israel
- 4 - USA

Those who cant see it are blinded by your devious teachings. Perhaps you should take a look at your blog and see how many articles that you posted are against any of the 4 mentioned.. Even the blind can simply pin point of those hated articles you have written..

Sometimes, I wonder if they owed you or your ancestors in their former lives..

Live and let live!!

Also in your earlier article I mentioned that you and the politicians perhaps should walk the talk and (a radical idea) is to stand in front of the MNCs like AMD, Intel, HP and shout for mass resignation.. That would be so great and effective.

I wonder why the same magnitude of hoo hah wasn't really given when Chenchens were killed, when Burmese were oppressed (to name a few of the many). Is that not what biased is?//

Hi Hardhitter (the extremist or terrorist????)

We, Malaysians, never hate these 4 countries, we are moderate and we believe in religion teachings, that's our "KEPERCAYAAN KEPADA TUHAN".

In the past, these 4 countries practice "HAVE GUN WILL TRAVEL". Gee, now they say, HAVE BOMB WILL TRAVEL!!!!

I am wondering can you sleep at night without lights on??? We know what we are doing, you don't have to be troubled with chedet.cc. Singaporeans are always welcome to buy cheaper products in Malaysia, IF your government do not sanction them through high import tax, and we always believe it's better to have a friend rather than to create an enemy through Foreign Diplomacy, the raw type means cheaper so that Malaysians and Singaporeans can enjoy low cost products in Tanah Melayu, after all, we were brothers and sisters before Lee Kuan Yew took over. Happy New Year.

Salam Tun,

berkenaan dengan 'boycott' ni,saya setuju dengan pendapat Tun.Kalau kita boycott barang2 US ni,dah tentu akan mempengaruhi rakyat kita.Produk US tapi yang bekerja di syarikat tersebut adalah orang kita juga.Saya juga tertarik dengan isu minyak,Petronas kita punya.Confirm ke kita punya??Baru2 ini saya pergi ke Petronas untuk mengisi minyak kereta saya.tak nak ke Shell sebab nak boycott konon nya tapi masa saya tengah tunggu minyak penuh,terpandang pula 'made in USA'...hahaha..kelakar juga..nak tahu dekat mana saya nampak???haaa...cuba la pergi dan cari 'made in usa' 2..

Don't be stupid. This is the stupidest story ever written. Boycott US and Israel product, we'll all probably be working with pencil, using firewood to cook our foods, maybe even use man-powered vehicles like the flintstones..

There's no justification in killing people but is Israel targeting the innocent. I don't think so. If they want to they can do it like the Mumbai terrorist attack. ITs a war and war have casualties, women and children.

Don't just hate israel because you're muslim. I bet if the palestinians are Christians you won't be talking much. And besides, Israel is targeting HAMAS, the terrorist organisation which malaysia is supporting. Shame on you.

Terpandang "made in USA" kat stesen petronas tu pun kelakar ke? Yang kelakar ni kamu pasal mendedahkan kebobohan sendiri di blog ini. Harap faham cadangan Tun, marilah boycott ini kita sama2 laksanakan dari sekarang dan untuk masa hadapan, hinggalah pentadbiran Amerika berubah. Tak perlulah yang dah ada kita dibuang, yang dah telan kita luahkan balik, yang dah gunakan kita kita campak. Kan itu membazir. Allah murka pada orang yang membazir. Pelajaran, sistem tadbir, berbagai teknologi canggih yang kita belajar dari mereka haruslah di gunakan terus. Kita mesti bertindak dengan bijak. Janganlah jika kita sakit dan cuma ada ubat buatan Amerika kita jadi 'baral' tak nak makan ubat Amerika, pasal nak boycott.

Hukum ugama pun menghalalkan benda2 yang haram atas sebab2 yang tertentu. Allah pun mengampun dosa2 kita kalau kita bertaubat. Hukum Allh pun ada fleksibiliti inikan pulalah cadangan Tun. Harap jangan jadikan ia satu bahan kelakar. Kita bolih pilih samaada nak sokong atau tidak. Saelok2nya sama2 kita sokong dan niatkan untuk bantu saudara2 Islam di Palestin. Dapat juga sedikit pahala dosa kita dah lah banyak. Insaf dan bersyukurlah kerana kita tak diuji sedemikian oleh Allah.

Sorry Tun for using those harsh words. Just to remind one another untuk berfikir sebelum bertindak.

Semoga Allah mengRahmati dan meLindungi kita semua.

Dr. Mahathir,

Very well established a logical basis leaning on an ex Reagan administration that is having microphones and cameras in the Bush administration, Mr. Paul Craig Roberts. You are always collecting the facts not from the first source just from the second hand washed cloth. Of course an anti Jew will look on anti Jew information. You may refer to Al Qaeda humanitarian organization for more information, they have plenty of it.

You are saying:

"1. I would like to have the Malaysian Armed Forces attack the United States and Israel."

Oh, great hero. You had the chance to do it while you were the PM in service. Why didn't you tried out the strength of the Malaysian army and its skills? You had a good chance to become the Muslim hero committing Jihad on the apes and monkeys. To become the Salah ed Din of the modern times. How could you miss that opportunity to demolish both, America and Israel and leaving Iran to do it solely? Oh great rhetoric, do you know how a war looks like?

You care about the babies of Iraq, Palestinians, etc... How lucky we are you don't need to care about the Jewish children suffering daily rockets from Hamas who is a Muslim charity organization. Oh, their 8 years of rockets in a quantity of thousands were full of candies ammunition that was spreading sweets to the children of Sederot and the Negev.

Since Jews are controlling everyone by proxy, I'm not sure you, Dr. Mahathir are not controlled by them as well. You'll say that you are not controlled, but I can assure you that I'm controlling you. Can you deny it? Even Malaysia is manipulated by Jews, that's why they are not attacking the US and Israel. You should check very well among your government ministers and officials and find the Trojan horses there.

You hate Israel not because of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, but you hate only because the hatred of Muslims against Jews, the apes and swine. Your hate is not political, but religious. You are just sinking into the modern era darkness.

You said once in one of your speeches that Muslims should use their brains to get rid of 13 Million Jews dominance among 1.3 billion Muslims. Are you a role model? Do you have the wisdom to do it? Do you have the power to do it? Do you know why your plan is not accomplished? It is because it is not true, not logical, unjustified, not because the Jew are controlling the world by proxy. History is stronger than any empire, leader or people. The Jews survived more complicated events then you are planning, so don't be hoping too much, we survive your approach as well.

Shalom from Hanan, a Jew, Israel.

Hooray ..... Now I understand how a Jew in Isreal behave, very different from a Jew elsewhere. Full of vengeance and hatred.

Thank you Tun.

By HananAuthor Profile Page on January 25, 2009 3:36 AM

Dear bloggers, smily and HBT,

I think you are mistaken with me as defining me as full of vengeance and hatred.

I'm sorry to disappoint you since I have many Malaysian friends, among them Muslims.

It is not me who seeks revenge; it is Dr. Mahathir who wants to attack Israel using the MAF.

Let me ask you honestly, can it be that Dr. Mahathir and/or the Muslims are always right? They didn't anything wrong, even once?

When Israel is doing a mistake, it is admitting it openly and has apology among the people who were affected by that mistake.

Muslims, in counter, when they are mistaken, they always tend to blame others. When Muslims are killing Muslims (not apes and swine like Jews), they have no apology at all. Sunni are killing Shiite or vice versa and they blame America and Israel "which controls it by proxy".

I'm attaching two video clips (and please don't censor it) that is proving how Hamas is treating their own brothers Palestinians. The person who is explaining the clip is a Palestinian himself.

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=l1M4eH9Kk7I>

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zpFaa80FplQ>

So what I think is that Dr. Mahathir and the Malaysian government should first look how the Palestinians can improve their own behavior among themselves before dealing how to attack Israel.

I would suggest not jumping into a war that it is not certain how it will end. In a war there are solely losers, losers of peace.

I would like to see Dr. Mahathir living just 24 hours in Sederot when rockets are falling around in quantities of about 50 recently on a daily basis.

I don't think neither Dr. Mahathir faced once in his life what means a war nor many Malaysians. I wish you peace and not war.

Let me ask you, and the reasons may be whatever they are, justified or not justified - sending the MAF to attack Israel will solve the problem? Will it promote peace? Do you think that the MAF can do that job and enforce peace in the Middle East? If yes, then why isn't it executed?

I understand very well the anger and frustration of Dr. Mahathir as well as other Malaysians, but such declarations of such a respected person should be calculated very well. Anger is bringing more anger and this is the easy way of expression. Restraining anger is more difficult, more powerful and this what Israel was doing 8 years of rockets launching on Sederot and the Negev (thousands of them). Where was Dr. Mahathir when Jews had civilian casualties by Hamas? Oh yes, when Jews are killed it is well done and no person must complain. But when a Jews are self defending and Muslims are killed, this cannot be accepted and it is called a massacre.

Let me just cite a proverb that Golda Meir said once which is so true:

"We can forgive the Arabs killing our children. We cannot forgive them for forcing us to kill their children. We will only have peace with the Arabs when they love their children more than they hate us (the Jews)".

Despite all (and I'm aware that many of Malay hate me), you still have my peaceful hand to shake, you just need to want.

Assalaamualaikum,

Dear brothers & sisters in Islam,

The Palestinian people truly need our sympathy and help. The recent invasion in Gaza by the Israel has made life more pressing and very difficult for our brothers, sisters and children in Palestine. Recently in the news, more than 1,300 innocent lives have been killed and more than 22,000 buildings like houses, schools, Masjids, hospital and government infrastructures were bombed and destroyed. There is no clean drinking water, the sick and the injured are left helpless as medical drugs are very scarce and limited, children have lost their parent(s), there are no jobs to earn for a living and food are very expensive and scarce too. The disheartening story will go on and on without any certainty of improving the lives of Palestinians in the future. It is estimated that there are 1.3 billion Muslims in the world. However, sad to say, majority are living below poverty line.

Muslim's leaders and government from the Islamic countries have not done enough to fight back the aggression of the enemy of Islam. Respectful leaders in the 'Muslim' countries have their own socio-economical issues to deal with politically. The Libyan's government had called the Arabians "coward". Thus it is time we step forth with strong faith and hope to help bring peace to our own suffering Muslim brothers and sisters! All over the world there were demonstrations on the streets, condemning the Jewish state for their aggression and terror attack in Gaza. Some even called to boycott US products and others shouting for Jihad. In what way would such emotional aggression help our suffering brothers and sisters? I question, in what way would it feed them? Cure them? Educate them? We're only embarrassing ourselves to condone to the political excuses between it all. We should not lean back on our couches, grumbling to ourselves. Misery and the suffering will continue while we wait for the next cycle of confrontation to flare up again. We will not watch them suffer any longer. We will not ignore and pretend we are not in position to do anything at all. We have to help them. Our own brothers and sisters! It is pointless to beat our chest and emotionally distress ourselves in frustrations. What we should do is to live up and put our mind, body and soul together in perfect harmony, spiritually, remembering our creator and the Almighty, GOD.

We talk of what we CAN do. What we CAN do is to perform our IBADAH to ALLAH. We will not condone to vengeance with our aggressors and enemies but we must improve ourselves and seek solace as a WHOLE complete Muslims by example to this World and hereafter. Let us reflect upon what we have done for our brothers and sisters in Islam? Return to the true teachings of Islam by referring to The HOLY QURAN, HADITHS and THE SUNNAH of our Great Prophet Muhammad S.A.W.

Let us ask ourselves:

i) What have we done as Muslims, to serve our Islamic obligatory duty to the UMMAH as part of the 1.3 billion Muslims of the world?

ii) As Muslims, why aren't we doing something bold and self-dependent using our own resources to pull together saving the lives of Muslims and help contribute Peace in this world?

Let me call upon you, all brothers and sisters in Islam, to join hands and be united as one true UMMAH of our beloved Prophet Muhammad S.A.W. Together we can gather our resources in making life more meaning full and bring about Peace to this world in accordance to the teaching of ISLAM as being taught by our beloved Prophet Muhammad S.A.W.

To begin, firstly we have to STOP all activities which may be used by others to brand us, Muslims as indisciplined, loud, emotional and mere empty vessels. We have to refrain from verbalizing corrupted thoughts in our minds. Change our mindset and dedicate ourselves as ONE United World of Muslims. WE, who practice SINCERITY, GENEROSITY, LOYALTY, DISCIPLINE, COURTESY, SEEKING PEACE AND CONSTANTLY ACQUIRING KNOWLEDGE, producing filial children who grows up to be respectful working adults and sincerely kneeling down in IBADAH to ALLAH to seek HIS blessing. THAT's the true teaching of ISLAM!

Let us assume 1% of the 1.3 billion Muslim of the world, 10 million Muslims, who are average earners could spend an average of $ 5 a day for their breakfast, lunch and dinner. By fasting every Monday and Thursday following the SUNNAH of our beloved Prophet Muhammad S.A.W., the true teachings of Islam, each person will be able to contribute at least a sum of $ 40 per month.

Calculations:

$$ 5 \times 2$  days of fasting per week per person = $ 10

$$ 10 \times 4$  weeks = $ 40 per person per month

Assuming all the 10 million people, which is 1 % of the total Muslims population of the world, are willing to cooperate and fast, therefore we could make a donation of: -  $$ 40 \times 10,000,000 = $ 400$  MILLION a month!

If 10 % of the entire population of Muslims join in, it will become $ 4 billion a month!

Now, isn't that a substantial amount of money that could be used to help our fellow Muslims in the Palestine and other part of the World?

We may start the project by naming it: -

"FASTINGS for Palestine's PEACE"

Please note that in order to see this project succeed, we may register participating Muslims. After all, the fasting itself will spiritually promote good health, brotherhood & sisterhood among fellow Muslims, carrying out our religious obligatory of 'SEDEKAH' (giving out alms), following the 'SUNNAH' of our beloved Prophet Muhammad S.A.W., becoming good and caring Muslims of the Modern World, INSHA'ALLAH.

We must carry on the life-long efforts thru fasting on every Monday and Thursday for the rest of our life in order to save other life around the world. Of course, in the Holy month of RAMADHAN, certainly more funds can be collected. A reliable collection centres preferably MASJIDS (Mosques) with volunteers are needed for each individual representative country of which will coordinate with the HQ agrees and appointed by all participating countries. In order to avoid inappropriate use of funds, all incoming and outgoing funds must be documented, signed and approved by the selected committees. All funds must be properly booked, professionally accounted and audited.

The least you could do as a Muslim is to help circulating and forward this email message around to fellow Muslims whom you know; all your networks, friends, associations, missionaries, Mosques, MADRASAHs, various Muslim organizations etc. Their positive and immediate response on the idea is very important and could help us on how we can get it started as soon as possible.

Assalamualaikum Tun,

Tun, why is it some people just cannot read between the lines. Your statement is figuratively stated, a metaphorical statement, not literally meaning it.

Tun, you have done your job in extending your knowledge and your plight in sowing humanity and peace, so it is up to the individual to receive it with open minds and open hearts. Countless reports and articles and scripts and pictures and videos have been presented for the people to see and judge for themselves. Some can face the truth but some cannot accept the truth. Histories on the existence and the rights of Palestine has been distorted and purposely changed to blind their own people from knowing the truth.

Dealing with hard-headed people need great patience and clear conscience mind that will not be easily manipulated. To do something good will bound to get reprisals.

Take care Tun and May Allah Look Upon You Always.

To Hanan,

You says that Muslim hate Israel because of Religion not political?

I just have one question for you.

Why do the Jews hate the Nazi so much?

Is it because of religion? Is it obvious? You do not need to be a rocket scientist to figure this out.

The Nazi have been prosecuting the Jews for how long 5 - 10 years.

How long have it been for the Palestinian?

You dare says that we hate you because of Religion.

What do you expect from the Muslim when their land have been robed and thousand have been killed. Let by gone be by gone?

The Jews have been prosecuted by the Christian for hundred of years. Even Shakespeare wrote about it.

Our religion never ask us to kill you but it did mention about not trusting the Jews. From your comment, we know that you are manipulative and deceiving.

Why is there a cease fire in Gaza?. Isn't it obvious. The inauguration of Obama.

This proves beyond any doubt about Dr.M proxy theory.

Salam Tun M,

Apa yang kita semua cuba lakukan adalah satu perjuangan yang mulia di samping pegangan agama islam yang benar. Apa yang berlaku ketika ini telah pun di ceritakan di dalam Al-Quran. Maafkan saya jika perkara yang saya cuba sampaikan adalah tidak menepati pandangan di dalam tajuk "BOYCOTT". Jika ianya tersasar jauh dan tidak perlu berada di dalam komen ini saya mohon ianya di abaikan atau delete. Untuk peringatan kita semua sila rujuk bersama.

Menjadi pengikut tradisi Yahudi dan Nasrani.

telah berkata rasulullah : "Sungguh kamu akan mengikuti jalan hidup orang-orang sebelum kamu, sejangkal demi sejangkal, sehasta demi sehasta (tanpa berbeza sedikitpun) sehingga walaupun mereka masuk ke lubang biawak, maka kamu akan masuk juga" Sahabat bertanya : wahai rasulullah, apakah kaum yang akan kami ikuti tersebut adalah kaum Yahudi dan Nasrani ?, maka Nabi menjawab : Siapa Lagi (kalau bukan mereka) ?

shodaqo rasuuhul kariim ... ummat sudah menjadi pengikut barat ... peringatan tahun baru, valentin day, peringatan ulang tahun, pengagum demokrasi, HAM, hukum positif dan sebagainya ...

Iraq diboikot dan makanan ditahan darinya rasulullah bersabda : "hampir saja tidak boleh dibawa makanan ke negeri Iraq secupak(qafizh) makanan atau sebuah dirham, kami(sahabat) bertanya Orang-orang ajam(non arab) kah yang melakukan ini ? kemudian beliau berkata : "hampir saja tidak dibawa makanan atau sebuah dinar kepada penduduk syam(palestina, syiria, libanon, yordandan sekitarnya) kemudian sahabat bertanya "siapa yang melakukan itu ya rasulullah ? " orang-orang RUM(Romawi : Amerika-Eropa)

Sebenarnya ini adalah tanda yang paling menakjubkan, kerana sampai sekarang Iraq telah diboikot oleh Amerika semenjak perang teluk dan syam telah menderita kekurangan makanan, Palestin di jajah Israel Yahudi ..dan .. setelah terkepungnya Iraq dan syam ini .. dan setelah terjadinya peperangan dasyat di PALESTINE maka akan muncullah tanda-tanda besar kiamat berupa munculnya Imam Mahdi, Keluarnya Dajjal dan turunnya Isa Al Masih

Turki akan memerangi Iraq rasulullah bersabda : "sekelompok manusia dari ummatku akan turun di suatu dataran rendah yang mereka namakan dengan Bashrah pada tepi suatu sungai yang bernama Dajlah. Dan apabila telah datang akhir zaman datangkah Bani Qanthura (mereka adalah orang-orang Turki) yang bermuka lebar dan bermata kecil sehingga mereka turun pada tepi sungai itu, maka terpecahlah penduduknya menjadi 3 kelompok, yang satu sibuk mengikuti ekor-ekor sapi mereka(sibuk mengurus) harta benda) dan mereka akan hancur, dan satu kelompok dari mereka akan memperhatikan diri mereka sendiri dan mereka itu telah kafir, dan satu kelompok dari mereka akan menjadikan anak cucu mereka di belakang mereka kemudian mereka berperang, itulah para syuhada" (hadits hasan diriwayatkan Ahmad dan Abu Dawud(4138)

Pada bulan mei 1997 dahulu orang-orang Turki telah mulai memancing-mancing permusuhan dengan Iraq dan mereka membangkitkan masalah-masalah yang dibuat-buat sekitar masalah air di sungai Eufrat dan orang-orang Turki itu membuat kesepakatan dengan orang-orang Israel dan Amerika dan melakukan latihan militer bersama dengan tujuan penyerangan Iraq, Iran dan Syria, dan waktu itu juga Turki menyerang bagian-bagian Iraq utara dengan alasan untuk mengajar suku Kurdi .. kita tunggu saja apa yang akan terjadi nanti ..

Bumi Arab akan kembali menjadi kebun-kebun dan sungai-sungai telah bersabda Rasulullah : "tidak akan berdiri hari kiamat hingga harta akan banyak melimpah dan sehingga bumi Arab kembali menjadi kebun-kebun dan sungai-sungai " (Ahmad dan Muslim)

Dan negeri Arab saat ini telah menjadi kebun !! dan banyaknya sungai .. di daerah Tha'if bahkan telah turun butiran air dan musim haji nanti suhu dingin kira-kira 5 derajat Celsius ... tidak lagi panas.

Peperangan dengan Yahudi : tidak terjadi kiamat hingga orang-orang berperang dengan Yahudi, dan orang-orang Yahudi bersembunyi dibawah batu dan pohon, lalu batu dan pohon itu berkata kepada orang-orang Islam " di sini ada Yahudi, maka bunuhlah ia" (Fathul Bari', Al Manaqib, Al Hafiz Ibnu Hajar) Fikirkanlah bersama. Allah, Allah, Allah...

Al-Fatihah buat saudara kita yang tekorban dari peperangan yang tidak berperikemanusiaan dan kejam.(Jika ada kesalahan mohon di perbetulkan).

Terima Kasih.

Hanan,

Wow! I'm totally amazed reading your reply written on 25th January 2009.

I heard warnings about u Jewish people being very corny, liar, manipulative etc. etc. And today, I've seen it with my own eyes! Allah is The Greatest! He had really show me the true colour of Jewish people. A manipulator!

Firstly, u claimed u have many M'sian friends, among them Muslims. Its so obvious. These are the "Trojan horses" as mentioned in your earlier posting on 24th Jan right?? U befriend with us so u can use us right? (Can you deny it? Even Malaysia is manipulated by Jews, that's why they are not attacking the US and Israel. You should check very well among your government ministers and officials and find the Trojan horses there.)

U now wanted us; the Muslim to improve the relationship between ourselves. Between each Muslim nation. And when we're busy doing that what will u do? Continue destroying the world? Continue hiring more proxy for u? Continue rob the worlds' wealth only for your own people?

Listen, Jewish hate Muslim. Jewish hate Muslim when they're united together, when they're strong. And yet u want us to concentrate "improving our own behaviour" & loves our own children & fellow muslim? Where's the rationale?

And if ur govt. allow Tun Mahathir to be in Sederot, I'm sure he will be glad to do it. And I'll be delighted to accompany him. And I bet u will see thousands more men & women in M'sia wanted to go together with him.

We want to go there so we can compare does the 'destruction' caused by the Hamas equals to those done by your soldiers. Does the the number of people killed by the Zionist regime equivalent to those by Hamas. Indeed if u brave enough allow us to bring together journalists & reporters from all over the world to come together with us to witness the reality happening there! Pls let us know when, we're more than happy to do so!

But I'm afraid eventhough we come witout any weapons in hand, with ladies & children be among us in the group, your soldier will still kills us. Bcoz we're Muslims & bcoz its nothing wrong to do it for u people!

U said "I understand very well the anger and frustration of Dr. Mahathir as well as other Malaysians, but such declarations of such a respected person should be calculated very well. Anger is bringing more anger and this is the easy way of expression. Restraining anger is more difficult, more powerful and this what Israel was doing 8 years of rockets launching on Sederot and the Negev (thousands of them)."

Can u pls tell us why there are such anger & frustration came up in the first place?

Way long ago u're not being attacked by the Muslims, but u've being attacked by the Hamas now. Why??

Why are they launching rockets to Sederot & the Negev? Out of pleasure?? Pls answer these questions!

I assume u're in Israel now. And while u're comfortly in your place enjoying the 'luxuries' of reading & surfing the internet, having the electricity to warm u up, are the Palestinian having the same thing? They're just next to u, just few miles away but yet their condition is very far apart from what u're having right now. As a normal human being where's your feeling of sympathy to this?

What had they did so wrong that they deserved to be punish in this very terrible way?

Had the Palestinian children in their age of below 5 years old done something wrong to the Israelis? Had these children done something wrong to u?

Does all these childrens' father a member of Hamas? Had their father or mother killed an Israel people?

Hanan, they're so close to u, they're in your neighbourhood, I bet u can still see them. They breathe the same air with u & see the same skies with u but why u put these people in tremendous suffer? Why u denying their right to enjoy what they deserve? If u can control the oxygen they breathe, will u stop from giving them also?

The blockage had set them few years apart from people of your country. In terms of health, wealth, infrastructure; physically & emotionally. They can never harm u now, not with their own strength, they had never wanted to do so in the first place also. So pls stop now, please.

If u can't make your govt to stop it, pls stop supporting it. Stop to agree with the action by your govt. Its ok, u don't have to support the Palestinians or the Muslim but pls don't support the killings of the Palestinians.

The moment u breathe the air tomorrow, the moment u see the beautiful skies & the sunlight, remember that its belong to your fellow neighbour also, the Palestinians.

They deserve to feel the joy of breathe the fresh air, to see the beautiful skies & the sunshine same like u do too. They have long been wanting to feel this joy, very, very long. So pls let them.

The moment this is happening, then I shall receive your peaceful handshake.

Dear Tun and others,

I've heard this during my Secondary School.. "Muslims will not win the war against Kuffar until the appearance of Imam Mahdi and help Muslims to win.." and bear in mind.. once Muslims win, then the END OF THE WORLD is COMING SOON..

No matter what Muslims do but still lost.. Fight at least.. But look at Muslim country and leader. Is there anything beside Donations and Funds?? It is true that when the end of the world is coming, Muslims are like ocean breezes.. Many but weak!!

To Hanan,

Lots of our prophets and your's Jews. There are Jews in Israel who against War on Gaza. Palestinians are protecting themselves from Israelis Army and so do Israelis defend against HAMAS rockets.. I'm not hating Jews because i'm Muslims, but u know how Israel history and how Israel got those lands. Just admit that it is wrong.. Using phosforus bomb also against law.

Just have a read on Major Signs before the Day of Judgement. U'll know that all of these happened coz we're living at the ending of the world.

Al-Fatihah and Peace to The World..

Hi Hanan,

I admire and respect the Jews in how they have acquired and contributed to the knowledge, attain political power and achieved high financial influence worldwide. Surely this was earned through decades of perseverance, wit and hardship. You rightfully should be proud of your people's achievement. But it is pitiful that this same great people, out of obsession disregarded the rights of others when the Jewish state was declared in 1948, which before then there was no country called Israel. The United Nations proposed a partition plan in 1947 for dual state, which the majority Arabs disagreed (opting for single state). Jews which previously were majority immigrants in this land, the survivors of the holocaust in Germany discounted the voices of the Arab world and quickly proclaimed independence and the establishment of Jewish state. What right do the Jews have at that time to rob the Arabs of their land? Does the suffering from the holocaust (which I also sympathize/should not happen) justify the Jews to take away people's land and make it their own. I doubt the legitimacy of Israel. The way the country was established to me was inappropriate, since it was not agreed by Arab majority. From this I am not surprised the Palestinians, be it Fatah or Hamas continue to attack Israel, they are just fighting back what they lost in 1948. The Jews and Muslims have long history over the land, both have rights to this land and both should have equal rights to it. People of Israel should rethink, Israel is the only country without fixed border (i.e expanding borders). The bombings from Palestine side is actually not an attack, but a response in the fight to get back what once was theirs. Surely, you as an educated Jew, should at least feel ashamed of residing on illegal land. If the establishment of Israel was not done so hastily and had considered the voices of majority Arabs back in 1947-48, surely the world would be more peaceful today. Long ago the Romans banned Jews from entering the land, when it came under Muslim rule, Jews were welcomed and declared one of 'people of the book'. The Jews were better treated under Muslim rule compared to the recent "1,000 killings including women and children" treatment from the Jews.

The average malaysian is not for the boycott but the goverment is; likewise, the average american would be hurt but the government which supports Israel wouldnt be hurt. So in the end the boycott gains nothing. But it destroys. 1) Malaysia companies depend on success of trade with USA as a consumer market while other Malaysian companies depend on their trade as distributors of USA goods, so in both cases a boycott against USA is also a boycott against Malaysians. 2) It doesnt build country ties and unity. 3) Its an act of anger, not of peace. 4) It promotes discussion of boycotts and not the root causes of world problems which need a different kind of attention.

I would believe Tun Mahathir and/or blog comments and join Palistinian causes if Malaysia put its money where its mouth is:

- 1) Causing the tabling of a parlimentary motion to grant a new home in Malaysia to 6.5 million Israeli as an encouragement to vacate Jerusalem.
- 2) And the same at the U.N. level
- 3) And to offer political and economic assistance for the move to Malaysia
- 4) And to remove Passport restrictions for Malaysians to visit Israel
- 5) And for the call for a permanent cease fire of both sides, not only Israel, and to support steps to curtail suppliers of arms to either side.
- 6) And that there is balance in the news on TV and newspaper by allowing Americans and Israeli to take part in discussions so that Malaysians can develop a somewhat more open and transparent opinion of the serious current events.

The endless talk of Gaza never includes any balance of thoughts or facts. When Lebanon attacked Israel last week, were bloody Israeli babies shown on Malaysian TV? No. Instead, the endless talk, so pointedly one-sided, promotes the idea that Islam wants to destroy--destroy by boycott, destroy everything that isnt Islamic. As Obama said, real leaders build things and dont destroy them. Lets see if he lives up to that ideal. But what is Malaysia doing to build love, unity, brotherhood or mutually beneficial diplomatic or economic ties around the world?

(I was sitting in a mamak one morning recently and two street sweepers walked in and wanted to eat. They really looked terrible and were counting the shilling between them. I motioned the waiter and told him to pack their plates with anything they wanted and give me the bill. He did. We didnt know each other at all but I dont think on the face of this planet there were two more happier people at that little moment. Dont rant, do something actually loving in the world every single day. It will make all the difference. Will you join in that?)

Obama has been called a Muslim terrorist and now Mahathir calls his Chief of Staff a son of a Jewish terrorist. So what is the complaint? Looks to me to his cabinet is becoming balanced! (Im sorry, this is funny)

Meantime, on humanitarian grounds alone the USA should support Israel. If support is withdrawn, Israel would be attacked from all sides and will perish as a people. Since I dont believe it is very Islamic nor very Christian to exterminate entire races or cultures, the USA support should continue even though I separately disagree with Israel's stance. If you assume I also support what bloggers here call "USA genocide of Palistine", of course I dont.

Im very surprised at you, Tun Mahathir, for 20 years ive followed your efforts and applauded your successes in Malaysia. But youve changed: "Attack the USA and Israel," you say? I pray this is malaysian humor but if serious i hope you would set a better example as Im sure many people take what you say to heart. Would Mahatma Ghandi have said such a thing, I wonder?

You say you are saddened by the ignorance of the average American. How can the average american be responsible for the acts of its government any more than the average Malaysian is responsible for the acts of its government? For that I would definitely stop short of returning the favor by saying I should also be saddened by the ignorance of the average Malaysian simply due to their being constantly kept in the dark by their own government. That would be wrong. But we did the best we could, we got rid of Bush and I pray for better now and I prefer to believe that the good in each of our hearts will prevail in the end--if we try and if we let it.

As an american Im ashamed of my country's foreign policy, yet at the same I cant be so narrow-sighted as assume its entirely wrong. After all, the same imperialism you hate also saved Malaysia in WWII from having to learn to speak Japanese and losing its culture. Sometimes a hard hand can do good, too. Would any of you prefer that USA stayed out of WWII and let Japan and Germany divide the world for themselves?

Tun asked, "what should we do?" Oh, this is simple. I favor the arabic method of settling disputes. You take two men, let them face eachother closely and tie their heads together at the necks. Leave them in that position until they settle. My beloved arabic friends say it works like magic.

I applaud Tun Mahathir for establishing the beginnings of an organization to make war a crime. I will join if it means that ALL sides cannot make war. Bravo, then.

My friends, please, i appeal to all of you (US!) to put down our weapons and help each other. Please follow my solution as stated in the GAZA thread. Our time is short.

The term "Zionism" was first introduced in 1893 by Nathan Birnbaum, but Theodor Herzl, an Austrian Jew born to a prosperous, emancipated Budapest family, is recognized as the founder of the Zionist ideology when he published his book in 1896, "The Jewish State", where he declared that the cure for anti-semitism was the establishment of a Jewish state. As he saw it, the best place to establish this state was in Palestine.

While Herzl claimed that the establishment of a "Jewish" state would cure anti-Semitism, he also promoted anti-Semitism to further his cause.

Herzl stated in his diary:

"It is essential that the sufferings of Jews... become worse. . . this will assist in realization of our plans. . . I have an excellent idea. . . I shall induce anti-Semites to liquidate Jewish wealth. . . The anti-Semites will assist us thereby in that they will strengthen the persecution and oppression of Jews. The anti-Semites shall be our best friends". (From his Diary, Part I, pp. 16)

I read too many comments here. And i wonder. I am a simple muslim, which didn't make me less muslim or fanatic muslim. I also read some history about jews before. I never met any jew & i don't hv jew friend or colleague or bosses or company i work for also not belong to jew. but all my life, i only know jew as what reported in the media & news & a little bit from the Holy Quran translation.

But as the quote from 'I Love Jew' & 'Hanan', my understanding is, the jews are also full of vengeance & hatred. To 'i love jew', do your religion teach you only to love jew? Do your religion teach you to hate muslim or other religion? I don't understand. Can anyone kill anyone just because they hate muslim or jew? So when is the killing will stop either they are muslim or jew?

tun,

allow me to comment on hanan Page on January 25 & 24

dear hahan,

1) how can you compared thousands of palestinian life lost with just few of israelis?mothers lost their childrens,wives lost husbands,families. last night i watched news from malaysian broadcast showed that a child lost all his family members.when the reporter asked what he will do when he grown up. the child said he want to bomb israel as israel did to his family. see here, u used prohibited bomb without thinking of the long term consequences to palestinian. who is the real monster here?a fosforus bomb compared to primitive rocket weapon?what is more they can do?

2)i believe even hamas didn't attack jews, israel also invade palestine. why?it is not because to protect israeli but to conquer palestinian land.u want to enlarge your home by snatch from others.how can u said this is civilization?this is how u defined civilization?

3)u used such great weapons just to invade people without weapon?kill civilians?kids,women,old,babies?how many hamas died and how many civilians died?brain without heart can create a monster.

-remember that one day there will be a great leader will lead us to destroy israel. even trees hate u.

To CVCO,

You have just returned to earth,missing all the boycotts,embargoes and sanctions put in place untill today by America,undermining developing countries who does not suscribed to their ideals.

It is a Malaysian culture to share foods,European always go 'DUTCH'
Spread this,when you go home to the US,on 'FESTIVAL OPEN HOUSE'by all ethnic races in Malaysia.America should promote this cultures in Gaza,instead of instigating both to fight each other.

America assumed the titled of 'WORLD POLICE',it is their duty to save the world.

Most Malaysians are blogs savvy,nothing to hide.

Before the Iraq war,Mr Saddam Hussein has issued a personal duel to Mr Bush to settle the score.The latter declined the offer.If this has happened,it would be liked'GUNFIGHT AT OK CORRAL REVISITED'

Salam Tun dan semua,

Ramai yang menyatakan bahawa boikot tidak akan menyusahkan amerika, israel dan sekutu mereka.

Ramai yang menyatakan bahawa boikot hanya akan menyusahkan diri sendiri kerana kebergantungan mereka kepada barang-barang tersebut.

Tetapi, renung2kanlah kisah ini:

Tersebut sebuah kisah di zaman Nabi Ibrahim, semasa Nabi Ibrahim dibakar oleh kaumnya, seekor burung kecil terbang berulung alik mengisi air dalam paruhnya lalu menyiram ke atas api yang membakar. Itulah yang dilakukannya berulang kali.

Tingkah lakunya diperhatikan oleh makhluk Allah yang lain lalu bertanya kepada burung kecil itu, 'buat apa kau penat-penat mengambil air berulung alik, sedangkan api yang membakar Nabi Ibrahim takkan terpadam dengan air yang kau siramkan itu.'

Lalu dijawab oleh burung tersebut, 'Memang ia tidak akan memadamkan api tersebut, tetapi aku lebih takut kepada Allah kerana Allah akan menyoal aku nanti, apakah yang aku lakukan untuk agama Allah, dan Allah tidak akan bertanya samada aku berjaya memadamkan api itu ataupun tidak'.

marilah sama2 memboikot syarikat yg menyokong Israel...

Dear Tun Dr M,

I would like wish all the best to Datuk Sri Najib to the world of serious politics. The withdrawal of four State Assembly persons from Pakatan Rakyat was not surprising. As the PR candidates throughout Malaysia were not adequately vetted. They just chose who ever came to them as this was their first ever victory in several states.

But Najib should remember that back stabbers would not take long to do the same to him. There are a lot of UMNO, MCA, GERAKAN and MIC members who are quite dissatisfied with their own party leaders. I hope he checks on this before they quit their party or hop on to another party.

Najib must know that a wrong political move might not only affect the persons involved but also the sentiments of the RAKYAT.

Dear Dr M,

Sir, I think your idea of rejecting American Products By Malaysians on the matter is totally a blank page.

Do you think, the US economy is going to go into ground zero just because Malaysians have stopped using US products. They will take it as a trade embargo with Malaysia and its 26million population and will go heck with it. If it happens with China or India, than we have something to see in the blank page.

Do you think the Global population will support this. No for sure.

Those who commented that they have to stop using US products, stop using the Internet, telephones, lights, TV etc once and for all, as it was discovered by either Americans or a Jew.

Rather, protest through ethical means of raising the issue with the UN and ASEAN.

Thanks

Hypocrisy!

that is what the title of these blog should say.

You say you want to boycott israel, but you use hundreds of it's products, reading this comment on an Israeli design born and raised PC chip. You want to boycott us - TURN THE PC OFF NOW!! you didn't? of course not - hypocrisy is the word!

When your mom or dad's life can be saved by an Israeli invented drug - you would say: "no! let then die!"

..i don't think so..hypocrisy!

Some facts for you, o' enlightened ones should know:

1. 99% of world terror is Muslim.
2. Jews 0.2% of population - 187 noble prizes, Muslims 20% of population - 9 noble prizes!! what a joke!!!!

Instead of trying to want more killing (and confirming fact 1) - as you so gladly would have wanted and pointed you want to fight us, try inventing some new medicine, produce something for the greater good!!

That is what israel is doing for only 60 years!!! nations didn't manage these things in hundreds of years!

I am ashamed to see your agenda - boycotting will not benefit anyone.

You know what - i urge you to boycott us - don't use our medicines, don't use our PC's, cellphones, don't fly in airplanes and on and on.

That is the only thing a person who says things as you do deserves.

We couldn't care less...

Have a great stone age style of life.

Greetz and my the wisdom be upon you one day.

Dear everyone,

From reading a couple of comments here, the feeling I got was really bad.

stop to try proving which side suffers the most, civilians should not be hurt , nor 1 or 1000.

war will never be a solution,when you fight against someone, there will always be someone behind him that will remember what you did.

i wish the antisemist comments will disappear as much as comments against muslims.

can't you see that the only thing the media does is to make us hate each other more and more, we build our hate on videos from youtube. As I said , I'm against war, and i think Israel shouldn't attack, but I don't hate Israeli civilians and use the term "all the jews" " all the Israelis" and also someone said here that he always thought the Israelis were liars, and now he can see it with his own eyes, why? because he read a comment of one guy from israel, he decides were all like that (and i don't judge the guy, because he spoke nothing but his opinion). stop hating without a reason , hating is easy.

I'm a peace active , live in Israel, israeli, jew, does this makes me a bad person?

I got to know palestinians after the war , face to face , it was very hard for me to see how much people suffered , and it maid me want to encourage both Israeli's and palestinians to meet each other and get to know , because we hate who we afraid of and we afraid of who we don't know, therefore we should get to know each other.

so please , don't talk about fighting against Israel, or fighting at all , I'm saying this to you as much as I shout it out in my own country , Israel - fighting for peace is like xxxxxxx for virginity - doesn't make sense.

I wish you all a great weekend, and peace between ourselves and our neighbors .

Shalom , Salam ,Peace.
