

BLAIR THE LIAR 2
chedet.co.cc
April 14, 2010

1. I am disgusted to learn that Tony Blair is being paid one million dollars to come to Malaysia to give a talk to businessmen.
2. Currently the press in Britain is reporting on the unusual wealth of this less than three terms Prime Minister. He has a staff of 130, lives in a grand mansion and is a millionaire.
3. When we read of how British Members of Parliament spent millions of pounds of Government money to refurbish and decorate their city apartments and their own residences we can understand how a Prime Minister like Tony Blair can get so rich after serving less than three terms.
4. Twice Blair presented himself as a candidate for President of the European Union and twice he was rejected as unsuitable.
5. Enquiries have been held in England over the lies he told Parliament and the British people in order to go to war with Iraq. Caught lying he was unfazed or unashamed, claiming that his objective was to remove Saddam Hussein. For this he was prepared to kill 500,000 Iraqi children, another 300,000 Iraqi men, women and children and reduce to rubble historic Baghdad and other Iraqi cities and towns.
6. In the United Kingdom Tony Blair's name is dirt. Yet in Malaysia there are people who want to learn things from him. I can imagine what they will learn.

Salam Tun...

this is off topic a bit... but i will always appreciate the things you've done for this country and having this site to continue contributing yr opinion & yr say. It sure does push people (in a good way) to put on a thinking cap and think & re-think of things happening around us. Maybe in the process, actions will take place, things will be corrected, no matter how tiny it is, so as to make this world a better place to live in!!

sayang tun & tun hasmah sssooooo muchh!!!

now, back to topic... whoever invites TB is clearly having a hidden agenda....ignorant snobsss!!!

Salam Tun;

Sejarah berulang apabila Iraq dan Baghdad di musnahkan. Satu ketika dahulu puak Mongol pernah menjadikan Baghdad padang jarak padang tekukur.

Kekejaman puak Mongol amat dashat sehingga di coretkan bahawa begitu banyak mangsa perang termasuk sarjana dan cerdik pandai dibunuh dan seterusnya kepala mereka dipancang. Begitu banyaknya sehingga boleh dibuat jambatan menyeberangi sungai Tigris.

Manakala peradapan agung Islam di musnahkan dgn rakus apabila ribuan buku-buku ilmiah di khutub khanah di bakar dan sesetengah nya dicampak kan ke sungai.

Ironinya setelah puas nafsu serakah keganasan tersebut, puak Mongol ini memeluk Islam pula.

Apa yg pimpinan Blair lakukan adalah tak ubah seperti mana yg di lakukan puak Mongol diatas.

Kesimpulan nya pada mana-mana zaman pun "undang-undang rimba" di paktik kan. Umat Islam patut menyalahkan diri sendiri akibat tindakan keganasan yang telah menjahanamkan negara dan peradaban Islam.

Jika saja negara Islam dan umatnya bersatu padu dan benteng pertahanan negara kuat, maka perkara buruk sedemikian tidak akan berlaku. Dalam hal ini negara Iran patut menjadi contoh dari segi self sufficiency dlm bidang ketenteraan bagi kita di Malaysia.

Sekian.

Salaam kasih dan hormat Tun Che Det

I guess someone FORGOT to quote the continuation of the quoted Surah 5 Ayat 32. It Says :
Bismillah..

'The only reward of those who make war upon Allah and His Messenger AND strive after corruption in the land will be that they will be KILLED or crucified or have their hands and feet on alternate sides cut off or will be expelled out of the land. Such will be their degradation in the world and in the Hereafter theirs will be an awful doom' (Surah 5:33)

Differences and exchanges of opinions IS healthy but cabar mencabar and stating emotional opinions that is not WITHIN the main topic.. regrettably..ARE NOT.

Once again..i'd say.."SOMEONE SHOULD PUT A PRICE ON BLAIR the LYING POODLE's HEAD"

Yes Sir I completely agree and in support cite comments I wrote to an Economist article : Tony Blair's 2010 vision Feb 2nd 2010 5:50 GMT

'The great escape artist does it again, even Houdini would have been impressed. Only near ones of the British soldiers who lost their lives were protesting, a million Iraqis who also subsequently lost their lives were not represented . The arguments are self contradictory and surely Mr. Blair was following the American Presidents lead , strange a centre leaning leftist tagging along the neo cons and Mr. Bush. His excuse given earlier was that getting involved in Iraq would make it easier to solve the Palestinian Israeli dispute also did not materialise, although in his defence Mr. Blair did try his best to do something about that .'

Salam Tun,

As great as many may think of British politicians, there is no comparison to Malaysian or Zimbabwean politicians. While British politicians can only become millionaires, Malaysian and Zimbabwean politicians manage to become billionaires during their terms in office.

Zanmahir says: "Its funny when someone sees blogs as a place to pickup fights. And as for Blair the Liar... someone should put a price on his head."

Seems like Zanmahir sees exchanges of opinions as fights and rather prefer everyone singing the same song, irrespective of what one truly thinks. This attitude is no way to improve our intellect and sees one's own mistakes (if any).

"Putting a price on someone's head" seems to me to be the favorite way for Muslims when they don't like someone. We see it happened when Ayatollah Khomeini disliked what Salman Rushdie wrote. We see this when Malcolm X left the Nation of Islam, after he fell out of favor with Elijah Muhammad.

This is despite what al-Quran 5:32 says: "... if any one slew a person - unless it be for murder or for spreading mischief in the land - it would be as if he slew the whole people: and if any one saved a life, it would be as if he saved the life of the whole people." Such is the value of a single human life, that the Quran equates the taking of even one human life unjustly, with killing all of humanity. And what can be more unjust than killing someone when we don't agree with them?

The Universal Islamic Declaration of Human Rights says: "Human life is sacred and inviolable and every effort shall be made to protect it." But at a whim, Zanamahir thinks nothing about putting a price on someone's head, just like killing an ant. Wonder what he would feel if someone do that to him or his family members, just because they don't agree with his thinking!

Hi Objective Q, since you can spell and compute, how come you did not answer my question as to whether Blair's multimillion pound book deals and speaking fees are illegal and tantamount to corruption? Seems like you are seeing red when people are earning money. Watch the movie, Santau, and see what Azhari Mohd Zain says at the 2.55 mins' mark of the video. Fortunately, most Malays are not as is said, and I hope you are one of them.

Dear Tun,

Difference between the British and Malaysian MP is that the British MPs are accountable to the British public. Here in Malaysia, your guys seems to be able to do what you like, whenever you like and however you like without giving a toss to how the rakyat feels. My dear Tun put your hand on your heart and tell us how much of the rakyat's monies your administration have plundered and squandered?

How often have you and your cronies abused the power bequeathed to you lot by the rakyat? ISA?? The Judiciary??? Bailing out private businesses or rather your family businesses???? Does Petronas really belongs to the country or is it private company/bank of Unmo's higher echelon? We the humble rakyat would be really grateful if you deem it right to answer the above questions. The is a rather mundane saying' the kettle calling the stove black', wonder if it applies here?

[Objective Q

When would the Lambs (MMMMMaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa!!) ever learn???)

Dear sir..

I could not help myself about your remarks regarding the Lambs.

If your care to browse the history of conquest about city,population and nation you will see certain similar characteristic in that general population.

See the Crusader conquest in Jerusalem,The Monggols in Baghdad and quite recently in Zepa and Sebrenica.After the defender's have been routed,it is well documented that the masses of civilian were rounded up and systematically slaughtered and butchered. Their numbers reported to be up to 70,000 thousand in Baghdad.

Time after time we see this pattern where the civilian are numbered and rounded to their execution like meek lamb. Remember the anguish of Jodie Foster in The Silence of The Lambs?

"Quote

They just herded to the sacrificial ground and yet they did not utter protestation let alone initiated any extrication move that death are facing them. Silence to the end.

(My freely interpretation)

Allah even admonished this civilian in Meccan period in Al Quran when some muslim hide their Islamic faith in fearing prosecution.

"Mengapa mereka tidak berhijrah"?

It will come to this point.

You cannot depend on the civilian. There is no such thing's as mass mobilisation of people to the proper context of "liberation". Civilian can be blind to their devotion and the moment of truth when mass mobilisation can save the day. they simply frozen.

In the case of world war two, there is a documentation that a handful of soldier's have managed to "captured" the opposing force that far greater their number by simply insisting that "backup force's are coming to relieve them"

If you care to check, this is exactly happening to the civilian in Baghdad, Spain during the extermination of muslim and in Jerusalem. The captured civilian outnumbered their captor as many as 100 to 1 and yet they allowed themselves to be raped, killed, butchered and slaughtered..

A case of dying to be martyr?

Coming back to the equation. Let's look at the previous sitting in our parliament. When a clown truly "dictate's thing's in the house" the rest simply could not utter their protest. They only dares to Cakap belakang-belakang..

It is common malady of the civilian Mr Objective Q. That's why we need special forces to maintain law and order. This forces works behind the scene with secrecy that is very much warranted. When one called for transparency, this forces must remain in the dark.

Tun is master in this art. Please gives credit to this stateman.

HBT, you have made some basic blunders in your reply, allow me to respond:

>> Blair, The Liar 2, is not charge as war criminal internationally because the British Government and majority of the British have had mutually agreed to back him as the PM then to invade Iraq.

This is incorrect, the vast majority of British people did NOT back him or the war, this is obvious from numerous polls and also obvious from Bliar's own lame duck government. He was not even able to stand for election and had to step down in order to give Labour another chance to rehabilitate its local election losses (labour lost a thumping no. of seats).

Bliar is immune from prosecution because of the multiple roles he currently holds. This does NOT mean he is without guilt. The powers that be are protecting him from any successful prosecution; such is the power of the illuminati!

>> Blair, The Liar 2, is welcome to Sunway Lagoon Convention Centre, Sunway, PJ, Selangor, Malaysia, to offer his 'expertise and experience' at the fee of 1 million dollars on Global Investment Talk.

Those who will go to see him are as stupid as the war criminal himself. I would not be surprised to see a small scale demonstration or other acts by the public to show their disgust at this man's history soaked in blood of the innocents.

Malaysians are morally obliged to throw this immoral person out of Malaysia! We have enough problems to contend with and do not need another problem on our shores!

Ayahanda Tun,

KL warns Teheran after cutting off supply

WASHINGTON: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has confirmed that Malaysia has cut off gasoline supplies to Iran, warning Teheran it was close to facing new international sanctions over its controversial nuclear programme.

Najib's announcement came "three" days after (Ayahanda Tun, still remember what I said before about the arithmetic of number 3?) he held talks with US President Barack Obama, who had called for the world to move "boldly and quickly" on tough sanctions against the Islamic republic.

"It's going to be quite inevitable that additional sanctions will be imposed in the near future unless there is some movement in the right direction by Iran," Najib said in Washington on Thursday.

"The onus is now on Iran to react expeditiously to prevent additional sanctions," he said.

The 15-member Security Council, including China, has already imposed three sets of sanctions on Iran over its refusal to halt sensitive uranium enrichment and is considering the prospect of a fourth round of UN sanctions.

The United States and its allies believe Iran is covertly working on a nuclear weapon, but the Islamic republic says it is pursuing only civilian power.

Najib said predominantly-Muslim Malaysia's state oil company Petronas decided to suspend gasoline supplies after consultations with the Government.

Petronas is among a small group of non-Chinese oil companies supplying gasoline to Iran, the world's fifth-largest crude oil exporter.

Najib said that while Malaysia maintained that Iran had the right to develop nuclear energy for peaceful purposes, Teheran must comply with the UN Security Council decision ordering it to suspend uranium enrichment activities until the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) can verify they were exclusively peaceful as Iran claimed. — AFP//

Comment:

If we still stick to the old way of doing things, we should vote Zaid Ibrahim (ex-UMNOputra) as the MP in Ulu Selangor to encourage UMNOputras to continue its sanction to the muslim nationality, non-muslim nationality including Sabahans, Sarawakians and bumiputras.

Sticking on the old way of doing things, Malaysia would be stagnant, and would trap in lower income and social regression with world class infrasture if these political parties resist from adding value in their stagnant parties, and normal lunch in Putrajaya cost only RM12.50, oh my god!!

The Tourism Malaysia should start promoting Putrajaya as one of Malaysia's Best Muslim and Well Planned hub to the world and Asia, since they have silently back up the PM then to build Putrajaya, and until today, the PM then is still strongly against this one British only, Blair, The Liar 2, due to Blair's hidden self-interest with Junior Bush, by invading Iraq, the Muslim Country. And due to Blair's blind support to Junior Bush's war on terrorism strategy, UK is facing serious property bubble due to over ballooned estimation from the past Blair's leadership.

One of must visit UK's spot is London Parliament Building. One of Malaysia must visit spot is FTKL. One of the must visit spot in USA is Washington DC. One of Hong Kong Free Port's must visit spot is the Giant Buddha Statue in one of its best fengshui Island, and Hong Kong Authority and Disneyland are working closely with Guandong Province Council to expand this world toursim spot to South China and ASEAN. In India, Mumbai's Taj Mahal is world tourism spot due to the famous love story of the then Rajan. Now, the Singapore Tourism body is aggressively promoting Sentosa Island as world class Casino, resort and entertainment hub as Singapore's must visit spot.

Idris Jala must be bold and quickly implement GST as our Government Revenue which depends 40% from the Gas and Gasoline industry if we are not a Pariah Country since we have utilising the Government assets by not paying any fees due to subsidies to maintain country's political parties' unity. Tuanku Mizan had confirmed that subsidies would be reduce gradually. The Government cannot continue its subsidy policy which would increase national budget deficit by the end of the day.

If Idris thinks that the political parties and NGO's can help to support GST, he is inviting disaster to him as the Minister. These leaders are afraid to throw support for GST because they are afraid that they might lost supporters (periuk nasi mereka la), and if he does not do it, PR will do it when they become the Ruling Government.

YB Rais Yatim took the bold and quick step in increasing National Postage Rate though it's late, so far only 'small fry' voice out their dissatisfaction for the sake of reject only.

Idris should start implement GST from multi-national corporations because they understand the GST's benefits for the country's peace and developement. Once these mother chickens start, other political parties and state authorities will follow 'LA'.

Today, some senior UMNOputras (little napoleans), not UMNO party system, have failed the country, and its failure has nothing to do with Singapore Government and it was UMNOputras who asked for it. KamalNathan, MIC Chief Info, chosen by PM Najib, should be given a chance to prove to 1 Malaysians that Indian Community can work with any races in the Macro Economic Pie Chart.

MCA's President is given the chance to prove his capability though he was xxx (macam ini pun boleh, aduh, aiya and aiyoyo) with full MCA's back up, and Tee Keat, a civil engineer, and lone ranger, was the favourite candidate among Merdeka Research, and he is working hard and passionately as MP in Pandan, Cheras, FTKL, Malaysia.

Why can't the Malays give KJ, a Rembau Boy, a chance to prove his capability as UMNO chief youth now? He is still young and has plenty of time to learn from his trial and error since he is not made a minister or deputy minister, and KJ is bold and knows how the Malaysia and the world work.

If KJ is not given a chance by Malays, hence, why should the Malays keep on harpening the issue of 'persaudaraan' and Islam neh if they are talking about party unity in the name of global development under Federal Constitution.

MITI is under Federal Constitution, FTKL, Malaysia, and it is Ministry of International Trade and Industry Malaysia. MITI is not a race base political party, so the race issue is not in MITI list!!!! Global Competitions invite Innovation, Creativity and Personal Capability.

Have a pleasant day, Ayahanda Tun.

P.S. Could we just leave Petronas out from local politics since its global competitors are Shell and Exxon which established for 100 years? If I am not wrong, Shell had already stop buying oil from Iran 2 months back, isn't it??

Remarks: Originally, Tanah Melayu's Jawi and Chinese writing start from right to left, and due to global internet access, many moderate and small countries in the world have opted to follow international writing patterns by writing from left to right due to world politics, economics and socio landscapes to create value in the Country

Salam kasih dan salam hormat Ayahanda Tun.

Israel owns The US of A and through this very large and ultra complex vehicle, they have come to own the worthless United Nations and the rest of the "free-world" except for a few states like Iran, Venezuela and maybe China. Regarding the subject of Israel's latest non-adherence to the nuclear non-proliferation treaty, Ambassador Daniel Ayalon (Israeli Ambassador to the United States) has made it clear in Washington recently that it is quite irrelevant for them to sign because as he reasons, whether Israel does have or does not have atomic weapons or nuclear arms, Israel is not threatening any other country as a possible target of nuclear attack. But most of the signers of that very treaty are not threatening and as a matter of fact, almost all of them do not even have nuclear weapons.

Let's look at the very tightly sealed Israel nuclear strike capabilities: Israel is believed to have at least 400 well hidden nuclear warheads and the horrifying part is, most of those warheads had been made for submarine launching. Meaning that for each of the missiles 11, 000 km plus range, it has been extended to cover the whole globe by the mobility of their submarines. To strike back at them, the opponent's missiles would have to first get past the intricately lethal US SDI system that has been orbiting the globe since 1985 – and chances are you won't. Is that not WMD capabilities with deadly intention on the Israeli part?

Now you know why the Space Shuttle goes up and down and yet, America has allowed Israel exclusion from signing the treaty. Singapore had refused to sign the treaty too just as well. Why do you think so? Do you think that some of these submarines might have been patronizing the waters off Singapore? Could that be the reason? I don't like to say much against several leaders that have been slowly and painfully commanding the respect of Malaysians (in particular Malays) again. I would not do that to present day UMNO. But I along with many other loyal Malay Malaysians mark this latest development with much great sadness.

At the end of each political episode, you may still find the human honesty factor among the rubbles that street politics has left behind, and at that moment, simple, principled and honest unwavering stance, makes the most friends. That is all I can say. It is very sad what has happened to our UMNO politics lately Tun. I pray for our present leaders to return back to the true path of our struggles and I pray that they shall be humbled again by the world around them so that they may once again go back to their true identity; the very founding identity of UMNO in 1946. The past, the present and the future is all in one moment: now. There could never be prolonged meaningful sustenance of one devoid of the others.

Let us all pray for a return to our true simple self again. Maybe we do not have to be roped into the WMD global stage just as yet, maybe we are still too juvenile to fully comprehend the reality of it all and what it would truthfully do to us in UMNO.

May God help us all.

It appears you are moronic in nature. I am retaliating in such strong language against your labeling me as a babbling fool. You just could not see things through. What more could God say to you for being "not smart at all".

As what TDM said about Blair's wealth in comparison to his salary as the British PM, how could Blair have amassed such wealth? TDM implied it has to be none other than corruption; though he may not have said it.

So for that, does it mean you are going to tell TDM he must show proof that Blair was corrupted to the core? You should be telling TDM to show proof going by your argument!! You are really toot-toot without anything up in your head.

I am not here to pick a fight with you nor would like to argue with an idiotic person like you.

I stated my point with my opinion on what TDM had blogged about Blair. I didn't know you in the first place. What the heck you need to spark off an argument with me. This is not the platform for such. I am sorry for that, TDM.

Salam Tun.

Blair the liar amassed his wealth in much longer period as compared to the PKR adviser & the kurang _jar (KJ) kid amassed theirs. Consider these facts:

1. Blair was the PM of a wealthy nation whereas the posts of saudara Anwar was only Menteri Kewangan & the KJ kid was jobless (as told by Kit Siang) and they looted poor Malaysia!
2. Saudara Anwar is an expert thief who called others as thieves and created tycoons to a lot of his cronies (Abrar, Lankhorst, Rahim Ghous, Zahid Ham---?, etc. etc.) and then cheekily shouted to the world (& to his 'can be fooled all the time followers') that Tun practiced cronyism, nepotism, corruption....blah, blah. Blair just kept to himself. The KJ kid tried to erase all of Tun's achievements, albeit not successful and reportedly backfired.
3. Blair is a family man. Let's ask Dr Azizah & Noni if they can make Anwar & the KJ kid to take oath whilst holding the al'Quran that they are good family men!

They all are 'king liars', however still only next to Bush.

Salam kasih dan salam hormat Ayahanda Tun.

Zaid Ibrahim would be the PKR choice in Hulu Selangor and Anwar would seriously needs this man to win. Zaid is a great deal more accomplished than lost hope Azmin, and Zaid carries fewer luggages as well. The leagues he may be seen in if he is victorious in PRK094 are the likes of Datuk Johari Abdul, and Datuk Kamaruddin Jaafar. Zaid and his elite team could move in and out effortlessly across the "divide" so to speak, like I say; multi-millionaires moves in another dimension; although seemingly alongside the lesser, but not just quite of the very same plane. Zaid is self financing and he is liberal and quite a favorite with Anwar for those values.

Anwar knows that should he become PM after PRU13, DAP would sabotage him out within one term and take him down with PAS blessings. He knows that he would not last long at the top, and DAP would want to be in the PM seat, and maybe through Tunku Aziz coupled to some more inter party amalgamation vehicles that would hide their nature; it wont appear to be DAP per se, but it would still be DAP all together with PAP.

Right now Anwar needs a new class of capable leaders to lead his vision ahead in addition to protecting his legacy and that's why we are seeing Zaid in the seat here. But with that game plan aside, let us now think about APCO; what was the local consultancy firm that brought in APCO? What are their links to Pemuda UMNO? Did the Abdullah regime not brought them in to start with? As far as I know about the APCO project, that was started during Abdullah's regime and the AJK T4 era. About our latest Washington WMD stance that's presently being exploited by the Erdogan controlled PAS official media, about Tony Blair and about as some has said earlier - the Singapore connection; so let's think out of the box here, do you think Anwar is dumb enough to wait for PRU13? He won't have to if Zaid wins. At any cost, Anwar would need Zaid to win this round. The stake is high; it is the future of his entire sum all into one basket here.

We are seemingly leaning too much into the Jews branding now. I have nothing against the personal Jews, but I dread their Zionist confrontational instruments. Politic don't give me much interest anymore these days; I have moved past that station and I am almost without concentration in politic anymore. To be frank, I am sick and tired of politic. Alas, with some trepidation I write still, for the reason that this is still my country and no matter what I have become, I am still a Malay Malaysian. In the footsteps of Tun we shall gather our best hopes and finest visions again.

I am tired of Khairy and as far as I am concern, if anybody wants to listen to him and his brand of advisors, go ahead be my guest; it's your downfall for all we care. The time has now calls upon us to tackle the virus that has been planted in UMNO by the AJK T4 team. Let's not get too excited about APCO, that is chicken feed. Now, servicing the AIP electro diesel propulsion systems & electrics may well be the next scandal exposure on their card. So just give APCO a rest. The mess that Khairy & Abdullah had brought into UMNO is now out of their childish hands. The agents of destructions have deployed internally, multiplied and are now responding to inputs from far abroad and away from our shores.

You may observe to see my point here, and I submit the Tony Blair concern as corroboration to my hypothesis; that from across the crossway, unseen hands are already string-playing the nation, UMNO and the Malays into this Blair saga part 2.

Then later in collaboration to this, the opposition would shout that UMNO has compromised the sanctity of this nation, UMNO has gone feeble, and at the rate things are going now, they may well be right soon enough. The Erdogan run PAS of today wishes to see UMNO bickers from inside and UMNO next PAU would be their playground. These Erdogan mullahs are working hard from now to start a rift between UMNO number one and number two, hoping for a climax at the next PAU. Unwittingly, Khairy was just the delivery boy way back then and by today, even his foreign mentors realize that he is by now just an empty cartridge shell. Don't waste too much time on him, focus on the bigger picture. Khairy won't grow up in time; but we, must and should. We must look beyond their end-game. If UMNO want's to give Khairy space to climb up the echelon again, so be it. The Malays would survive beyond UMNO if must be and our long "Sejarah Bangsa Melayu" writing have proven that declaration to be accurate.

Perhaps Tun doesn't like it much when I sometimes hijacked his postings in an out-of-topic flight into the great political wilderness and I am most sorry for that dear Tun.

If I may, I would like to say something to brother Ezam. To me, he is a good man. Not many would stick out for a cause the way he did back then. But why is he apologizing to the Malays in general like he just did in Kepala Batas? At whose insistence? I think he knows who. The ones who should be apologizing to the Malays are Abdullah and Khairy; never let them tell otherwise. Why should you apologize for being your natural loyal self Ezam? Remember Kerismuddin and his humiliating public apology on live TV? That has ended his career in UMNO for good. Past D.S Najib, that poor brother is simply void. But why is Ezam making the same mistake today? Despite what others may say, I have much respect for this man. I hope he won't go in too fast into the AJK T4 and Mamak Gang camp. Ezam is a visionary leader with values, and he should keep himself best that way and he certainly don't need any lesser others to be seen or to make his points legitimate.

Thank you for the space and understanding kind Tun. Salam to all here, and especially our brother Wajaperak.

Salam to all

Before i comment, I will like to declare that I dont support any political party in or out of malaysia. Im just a normal person who lives in this country and see the people suffering from the menace of the politicians in or outside of malaysia .

Tun,

From time to time I come across your blog and I read whatever you write and push it aside while at the same time i am trying to control myself.....

What you are writing about Tony Blair is true and maybe it is just a small portion of his deeds that we know, but what surprises me that you are the person writing about this, like you have never committed any of the things that he has done and like you have never lived in malaysia. You are so 'clean' and also the current politicians ruling malaysia..very 'bersih', langsung tak tipu rakyat, langsung tak ambil duit rakyat dan betul-betul menjaga amanah.

Tun,

I think if you look in the mirror you will see the face of Blair "The Liar"

Al Salamu Alykum Dear. Tun Dr. Mahathir,

With your permission I am hereby submitting part III of my first posting on this subject matter. I am postponing Part II till the end, due to the flow of the interesting materials.

To: ekompute on April 15, 2010 10:26 AM

In reference to your comment“Objective Q mentions Blair's multimillion pound book deals and speaking fees. He sounds as if these deals and fees are illegal, or is it? To me, I am more concerned about corruption in Malaysia”.....

Obviously eKompute can neither Spell Nor “Compute”.

If Corruption in Malaysia is your concern, then should you not worry WHO IS PAYING BLAIR TO GET HERE ? GENIUS? ISN'T THIS THE POINT?

Now back to my original posting.

.....Part III Dear Mr. Zbigniew Brzezinski.....

In a recent television interview, Zbigniew Brzezinski, Jimmy Carter's National Security Adviser and one of the most internationally known and controversial Political figures, complemented the British Journalist interviewing him on Great Brittan's ability to control over 200 Million people in the Indian sub-continent using only 4000 Civil Servants and Administrators! Mr. Brzezinski was highlighting how easy it was to control, what he dubbed “Political Pacifists”, and how these “Good-old-days” are unfortunately gone.

Mr. Brzezinski's comments have confirmed a long-held belief that the colonial-based educational systems, which represent the predominant educational systems in the majority of the Islamic countries today, are merely nothing more than mediocre factories of intellectual conformity designed to produce Bureaucrats, Clerks, and Administrators whose sole purpose for pursuing an Education is merely to secure a steady dead-end bureaucratic job with steady pay.

As a direct result of the creation of such a futile educational system, Government jobs became highly prized and coveted, since they provided a “Steady Pay” and a social status that the colonial systems encouraged and promoted as a carrot to be chased, triggering a race amongst the locals for these bureaucratic jobs and its associated false social status. It was quite an effective tool of control that had people reorganize their entire social hierarchy and educational system to accommodate this new measure of self-worth and social status. This status can endear the mindless masses to "The Blairs of the World", who seek to pay top dollar to see his "Majestic-War-Criminal-Self" and get the honor of see the "master of the universe".

Education was now sadly measured by a bureaucratic and monetary pay-scale that allocated value to a particular field of study based on its potential future salary earned, with total and complete disregard to its academic and scientific value to the embitterment of humanity and the advancement of knowledge and science. Good paying jobs became the sole focus of the new educational system and the new social hierarchy, which continued to narrow its focus and limit its vision to create even more highly specialized jobs to better serve their colonial masters slowly neglecting and marginalizing many educational disciplines and important fields of study, eroding them and forcing them to fade away from our consciousness and into intellectual oblivion.

The primary occupation for the citizens of the colonies was the competition to complete their educational requirements to pursue the coveted possession of a certificate or a degree that was issued based on a mindless checklist that testified to the qualification of the job seeker in conducting a routine mindless task.

Imagine, if you will, people like Ibn Sina, Al Razi, Ibn Hayan, Ibn Rushd, Galileo, Isaac Newton, and Leonardo Davinci, would all fail to qualify as educated people today and would have a hard time getting a “Government Job” and a steady paycheck. These brilliant scholars approached the pursuit of knowledge and education as a holistic lifelong pursuit and a way of life. Each excelled in multiple academic disciplines simultaneously. Ibn-Sina was a Doctor, a Philosopher, Chemist, Pharmacist, Alchemist, Psychiatrist, Writer, Astronomer,..etc Da-Vinci was an Painter, Sculpture, Weapon Designer, Mechanic, Alchemist, Metal Smith, Writer, Teacher,..etc.

How ludicrous is this current enslaved way of thinking, where individuals are so conditioned to pursue a very narrow field of study and as to learn only one way of doing things that makes one wonder, as to how long before mindless robots replace most of these people. What is the difference from a functionality point of view!? The current Bureaucratic and Colonial educational system, discourages thought and punishes free inquisitive mind, in efforts to indoctrinate intellectual pacifism and mental laziness. It is much easier to rule and control those that are mentally and intellectually passive, as passivism soon becomes a way of life as it spreads like a disease through all facets of life of a society. It is a mental virus that was specifically designed to rob people of their rights, property and freedom.

Free intellect and political activism were soon a rarity practiced only by the very “reckless” few that were deemed; “trouble makers”, “outcasts” or “rogue mavericks” since they have broken away from the herd’s intellectual conformity and are pursuing matters of absolute no job implications such as free thinking, research, innovation, inventions or even political activism, these were viewed as “wasteful activities” practiced by “Trouble-Making-Megalomaniacs” who dare to think that they can make a difference or change the status quo.

The colonial systems (Blair’s teachers and mentors) had little problem identifying and persecuting such individuals since their own fellow-citizens of the colony deemed them outcast “troublemakers” that are hurting the collective’s ability to live a peaceful and predictable life of a normal herd.

Actually, the citizens of the colonies did a far better job destroying their own intellectual capabilities, and dismantling their own educational system while persecuting any free thinker amongst them more efficiently and effectively than any colonial power could have ever dreamed of achieving (Blair types were very very happy). The intellectual persecution, and thought subversion started at the family level and worked its way up throughout all branches of society.

Families crushed their children's innovations and rushed to pressure, threat and cajole their kids to grow up to be respectable government administrators and stamped out any intellectual individuality or creative thought.

It is this Intellectual betrayal of these innocent children's God given rights and talents, by their own families, community and culture that contributed to the vicious cycle of producing not just political pacifists, but also social pacifists, intellectual pacifists, religious pacifists, and even spiritual pacifists. In other words, the families in the colonies helped the colonial powers achieve what they could not have even dreamt of.

If freedom is an instinctual drive that we are born with, then these families have succeeded in reversing even the basic laws of nature and suppressing or destroying the most basic of instincts, Intellectual and Spiritual freedoms. Intellectual prisons are the ultimate method of control, for very few can ever escape its cells or liberate themselves from its shackles.

SO, why are we so surprised that Blair and his war-criminal types are invited to Malaysia? I am not against the west, not at all. I am however, against war criminals that shamelessly uses any justification for the murder of Millions to satisfy his unquenchable greed.

An interesting question is why was he "BROUGHT HERE"? Is this a Reverse "Al-Gore" Move. Remember Al-Gore and his public "Withdraw" from a public event a few years back, after he gave his NON-SENSICAL speech!?!?! HHHHmmmmmm..

It is a fact, that Once the mind is indoctrinated into man-made limitations, and brain washed into conformity, it soon loses its ability to think freely, question and inquire, reason, reflect, perceive and once that happens, then wisdom and logic are gone as well as society's intellectual wealth, spiritual depth and innovative treasure. It is the intellectual battle and free thinking that nations first lose first, long before they lose their actual physical freedom.

It is precisely these, "Good-Old-Days" that Mr. Brzezinski is so nostalgic to resurrect. The current "political awakening", as Mr. Brzezinski dubs it in his book, taking place across the globe is a direct result of newer educational systems and the information age revolution sparked by the internet and telecommunication technologies.

I am one that stands vehemently against blaming colonial powers for our own failings, for I always believe in the fact that for a Lamb to blame a wolf for its action goes against nature itself. The wolf will always be a wolf, and throughout history there has been many wolves called by many different names, and in every instance the relationship with the Lamb was one sided! It is up for the individual lamb and the collective herd to defend against the wolf, not to blame the wolf since that just never practically works and since there will always be various types of wolves of different ideology, and methodology constantly morphing and adapting to improve its hunting and predation skills of the helpless lamb.

What is undisputed is that lambs will always outnumber wolves, yet wolves (A.K.A Blair) will always dominate the lambs. For each wolf there are thousands of lambs, but they stand there frozen by fear, and motivated by the hope that next time it would be their neighbor that would be the victim and not them (or The next political party), and so they live in fear of the wolf and the hope of the demise of their neighbor first, so that the wolf would be their best friend! Hmmm!

A lamb could neither negotiate or reason with a wolf nor change the wolf's predatory nature, for history's numerous examples discredits both futile approaches as impractical solution to the relationship between predator (Blair) and prey (Those that hope to befriend him politically). Humans on the other hand, are supposed to have been blessed by the ability to think, innovate, improvise, improve, invent, adapt, and change, so ultimately it is their choice to make, whether to continue the current way of the lambs or not.

God has blessed humans with the most powerful gift of all, the free thinking mind, but how we use it and to what purpose defines us as human beings, defines our presence and our future.

When would the Lambs (MMMMMaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa!!) ever learn???

God Bless Tun and family

God Bless Malaysia

Salam Tun & Fellow CheDet's Bloggers,

sia

Need to consider a few important points that should wake certain people up:

1) What is KDN people doing as to allow such person to come and "lecture" us, on what? How to lie and get away with it? What good that we can learn from him and what so special about him? I would suggest that he should be made "a person non-grata" to Malaysia so that he will never set foot to Malaysian soil ever, (on demand of the peace-loving Malaysians). KDN, Please wake-up.

2) Don't we have check-list before approval for him or any people like him to come into Malaysia. I wonder what will happen if Bush is invited into Malaysia in future by any event organiser. Why could we be so relax as to allow Singaporean company a free-hand to dump such people into Malaysia? As what Lionelchee said " We are living in Malaysia. In Malaysia, you will always find a lot of surprises. This time, some organisation invited Blair. Next time, we may find Netanyahu in our doorstep".

3) What can & should we peace-loving people do? Plenty.

- Pressure the government to cancel the entry permit
- Warn the organiser to be more careful and sensitive to the feeling of us the majority and cancel the invitation and issue public apology.
- Mobilise the NGO to stop this event from taking place if nothing being done when this murderer set foot to Malaysian soil.
- Mobilise the public to boycott the present and future event organised by this organiser if they still maintain arrogance and ignore the feeling of the majority.
- Conduct public tribunal to charge Blair for the crime on humanity.
- PM must interfere for maintaining public order and interest
- & etc

May Allah protect all of us

Chedet,

Point No.5 : Both Blair and Bush jolly well know that there is no WMD in Iraq. That's why they attacked Iraq in the first place. Undoubtedly this made them cold blooded killers.

As to why a Malaysian company is able to invite one of the killers over, why dont you refer this to Hishamudin Lentok and your protege son, Najib?

What is the stand of the present administration regarding these two killers?

At the same time , I now see Malaysia is kissing US's ass. (Sorry to say this).

Pray that Malaysia's sovereignty is still intact. Amin.

Thank you.

Dear Tun

It is indeed flabbergasting to think that war criminals can get away by lying to the world, and killing hundreds of thousands of people in this day and age. Especially when they confessed, then shrugged it off like it is a small matter. In certain countries, a simple act of stealing will cost you your hand. What punishment is equivalent to their crime of mass murder is beyond me.

Mr George W Bush and his stooge Mr Tony Blair are guilty beyond reasonable doubt. And yet they can still walk, talk, and give advice to the world like the beacon of humanity.

Why? Because they are rich. And because of that they are powerful.

We have a few similar personalities here in Malaysia. They may not be murderers but thieves nevertheless. The ex-Mentri Besar of Selangor who owns a multi million mansion, who took 'educational' trips overseas ie Disneyland using state money are still giving press statements and campaigning in Selangor – having no iota of shame to the Malaysian public despite his wealth being an open secret.

No formal charges has been made to the ex Mentri Besar at the time of writing.

Are we surprised that people would invite Mr Tony Blair to give a talk here when there are so many similar individuals in Malaysia, a land where some of the rich and powerful have no shame and decency, believing that money will hide their crime and make people forget?

I am not. I think it is just about right.

Malaysia warns Iran after cutting off gasoline supplies

AFP - Friday, April 16

WASHINGTON, April 15, 2010 (AFP) – Malaysian Prime Minister Najib Razak confirmed Thursday that his country has cut off gasoline supplies to Iran, warning Tehran it was close to facing new international sanctions over its controversial nuclear program.

Najib's announcement came three days after he held talks with US President Barack Obama, who had called for the world to move "boldly and quickly" on additional sanctions on the sidelines of a 47-nation nuclear security summit.

"It's going to be quite inevitable that additional sanctions will be imposed in the near future unless there is some movement in the right direction by Iran," Najib, on a US visit, told reporters in Washington.

"The onus is on Iran now to react expeditiously to prevent additional sanctions."

The 15-member Security Council, including China, has already imposed three sets of sanctions on Iran over its refusal to halt sensitive uranium enrichment and is considering the prospect of a fourth round of UN sanctions.

The United States and its allies believe Iran is covertly working on a nuclear weapon but the Islamic republic says it is pursuing only civilian power.

Najib said the gasoline supplies suspension was decided by Petronas after consultations with his government.

He did not say when Petronas stopped supplying gasoline to Iran but some reports said it was done in the middle of March.

Petronas is among a small group of non-Chinese oil companies supplying gasoline to Iran, the world's fifth-largest crude oil exporter.

Najib said that while Malaysia maintained that Iran had the right to develop nuclear energy for peaceful purposes, it must comply with the UN Security Council decision ordering it to suspend uranium enrichment activities until the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) can verify they are exclusively peaceful as Iran claims.

"They must earn the trust of the international community and the only way they can earn the trust is to be fully transparent in whatever they do and allow full verification by the IAEA and there are some serious doubt as to whether this has been carried out or has been complied with by Iran," he said.

A member of the OPEC cartel, Iran has been languishing in a dearth of investment in petroleum refineries as a result of US sanctions. It has resorted to importing about 40 percent of its gasoline needs.

Asked whether Malaysia was reviewing any current projects or possible joint ventures in Iran, Najib said, "We will see how it goes, we do not want to send the wrong signals.

"We appreciate the importance of our economic relations with Iran as well."

Ambassadors from the five veto-wielding members of the UN Security Council -- Britain, China, France, Russia and the United States -- plus Germany -- met for a second straight day in New York Thursday in what they described as "constructive" substantive talks on the sanctions issue.

On the table was a US draft resolution outlining sanctions in five areas: arms embargo, energy, shipping, finance and targeted punitive measures against Iran's powerful Revolutionary Guards, a diplomat familiar with the discussions said.

Iran insists it needs the higher-enriched uranium to fuel a research reactor which makes radioisotopes for medical purposes, such as the treatment of cancer, where the current fuel is expected to run out by the end of this year.

But Tehran has snubbed an IAEA-brokered deal that would have seen Russia and France fashion the fuel out of Iran's own stockpile of low-enriched uranium. Najib said Petronas would "certainly" lift its suspension on gasoline supplies if Iran complied with the IAEA.

"We believe in engagement but Iran has to respond as well and there are some clear indications of their non compliance."

Dear Tun Dr M,

Your 2 blogs on the former British Premier, Tony Blair portrays as though you are very frustrated with him coming to Malaysia to gave a talk to some Malaysian businessmen.

Even if the talk is organized by a Singaporean firm, but it is organised in Malaysian soil. This means it is in the Malaysian government's hand to all or to bar him to enter Malaysia.

Knowing your influence on the 3 top leaders of of the country, you just could call,e-mail,sms or meet any of them personally and ask them to just bar Tony Blair from entering the country.

Instead, you have decided to voice your "dissatisfaction and frustration" in your blogs.

This makes me feel that you want Blair in the country but at the same time you want a strong protest by Malaysians to be felt by Blair.

This is also expected to give UMNO and its affiliates a political boost. Am I correct Tun?

How Malaysia gets meetings with the US President

Wednesday, 14 April 2010

George Bush - USD 1 Million
Barack Obama - USD 8 Million

Najib antara 'pemenang' kerana bertemu Obama

WASHINGTON 15 April - Sidang Kemuncak Keselamatan Nuklear di sini menghasilkan beberapa "pemenang" dan seorang daripada mereka ialah Perdana Menteri Datuk Seri Najib Tun

Razak kerana diberi penghormatan berbincang secara persendirian dengan Presiden Barack Obama, demikian seorang penulis akhbar berpengaruh The Washington Post.

Sehari selepas sidang kemuncak itu berakhir, Al Kamen telah menulis dalam ruangan In The Loop mengenai beberapa pemimpin terpilih daripada kalangan 36 orang ketua kerajaan dari 46 negara yang dijemput oleh Obama ke sidang kemuncak itu dan yang mendapat keistimewaan mengadakan pertemuan dua hala dengan beliau.

"Pemenang pada sidang kemuncak minggu ini mudah dikenal pasti. Mereka adalah pemimpin yang mengadakan perbincangan empat mata dengan Obama, satu bukti mengenai prestij dan kedudukan mereka ini," kata Kamen.

Menurut beliau, Presiden China Hu Jintao yang mengadakan pertemuan 90 minit dengan Obama mendahului senarai itu, diikuti Raja Abdullah dari Jordan, Najib, Presiden Viktor Yanukovich dari Ukraine, Presiden Serzh Sargsian dari Armenia, pemangku Presiden Nigeria Goodluck Jonathan dan Menteri Luar Mesir Ahmed Aboul Gheit.

Kamen berkata, Perdana Menteri Jepun Yukio Hatoyama membuat permohonan tetapi tidak berpeluang berbincang dengan Obama.

Obama mengadakan beberapa pertemuan dua hala, bermula dengan Perdana Menteri India Manmohan Singh dan berakhir dengan Canselor Jerman Angela Merkel, satu-satu pemimpin dari Kesatuan Eropah yang berbuat demikian.

Pertemuan Najib dengan Obama, yang pertama antara kedua-duanya pada Isnin, berlangsung selama 40 minit sebelum bermulanya sidang kemuncak itu di Pusat Konvensyen Walter E. Washington.

Pada Rabu, ketika ditanya mengenai pertemuannya dengan Obama itu, Perdana Menteri berkata bahawa untuk mendapatkan sedikit masa bersama Presiden Amerika Syarikat itu semasa satu sidang kemuncak yang dihadiri 47 pemimpin membawa erti yang besar.

"Ia bermakna kita dilihat sebagai penting dan Malaysia dilihat sebagai penting," katanya.

Sambil menjangkakan bahawa hubungan Malaysia dan Amerika Syarikat akan menjadi lebih produktif dan menarik, Najib berharap Malaysia akan terus dibawa berunding oleh pentadbiran Obama.

Dalam ucapannya pula, Perdana Menteri berkata, kerjasama Amerika Syarikat dengan negara-negara Asia Tenggara telah membantu rantau itu membanteras keganasan termasuk oleh rangkaian kumpulan militan Jemaah Islamiah yang dikaitkan dengan Al Qaeda.

"Malahan kerjasama Malaysia dan Amerika Syarikat dalam soal ini semakin meningkat. Saya amat berharap kerjasama ini akan berterusan," katanya. - BERNAMA

God knows I agree with you Sir, that Tony Blair is a great liar and First Class Barbarian mass-murderer hiding behind his English native-speaking skills and his ex-office position as England PM..In fact he is the real terrorist (twin brother of US President George W.Bush) who has the legal immunity against conviction and this is backed up with more more lies he and his Bush brother created and fooled those who he could including the UN,most leaders people in the world and Kofi Annan (the chief-servant of Bush and Blair Partnership).

//By zaki_77 on April 15, 2010 2:20 PM

Those who have invited him to Malaysia should be named and shamed!

No one wants BLIAR in Malaysia!//

Dear zaki_77,

In Malaysia, we are allowed legally to conduct seminars, talks and businesses under Federal Constitution, Malaysia, as long as we are not doing illegal transactions that may jeopardise country's peace and development.

As a human being, Blair, The Liar 2, has the protected international human basic right to do a 'running cause' in Selangor State, Malaysia.

Blair, The Liar 2, is not charge as war criminal internationally because the British Government and majority of the British have had mutually agreed to back him as the PM then to invade Iraq.

Blair, The Liar 2, is welcome to Sunway Lagoon Convention Centre, Sunway, PJ, Selangor, Malaysia, to offer his 'expertise and experience' at the fee of 1 million dollars on Global Investment Talk.

Our KDN, PJ District, Selangor State Authority and Sunway Group must make sure Blair, The Liar 2's safety when he is here to provide such talk, and Blair, The Liar 2 is 'very very expensive' Speaker to the Selangor State though Blair twice presented himself as a candidate for President of the European Union and he was rejected twice as unsuitable.

To attend or not the seminar of Blair, The Liar 2, it depends on US, 1 Malaysians, The Asians to decide.

Have a pleasant day, zaiki_77, and so is our Ayahanda Tun.

Dear Tun,

Good Morning. Hope you are in good health.

When you were the PM, you made Toyo the MB of Selangor. In just a short period of time he is building for himself a Mansion which only a tycoon could afford. Did you as a PM looked into how this guy obtained the money to build his mansion? How can you talk about the UK Parliamentarians spending taxpayers money refurbishing and decorating their properties when your own ministers were doing the same right in front of your nose. You should have cleaned your own house first.

Dear Tun,

To those who never read the papers, the event organizer who invited Blair the Butcher to KL is a Singapore based company by the name of Success Resources. The 2010 National Achiever Congress will run from 23 to 25 April 2010 in KL. It seems that we should kick out both Blair and Success Resources from Malaysian soil.

I have been organising conferences in Malaysia since 1994.

As a conference organiser it is always important to have good intentions when organised each conference. It is also important to study the background of a speaker before 'promoting' a speaker to be good and look up to especially if he or she have been found guilty for wrong doings tht lead to death of a nation and humans in his decision making 'process'

I believe that the Ministry of Foreign Affairs or Ministry of Home Affairs should monitor on conferences in Malaysia if not some organiser could also invite a terrorist to speak on way of life etc...

I think the Bumiputra - non Bumiputra status should be abolished.

It is always a big issue when non Bumiputra try to buy house or have their savings grow at a higher rate in Malaysia (ASB vs ASM).

Why have double standard when you call yourself 1 Malaysia?

They have been living , working and certainly contributing to the development of Malaysia for over 4 generations now! and are still being deprived of privilages that are only allocated for so called Bumiputra who's native is said to be Malaysia. If their native land is Malaysia then why are should bumi's be afraid of being pushed to their limits competing against the non-bumis on equal circumstances?

Should this status be eternal? or should it just be for a limited time period? I would definitely like to hear Tun Mahathir's view on this matter.

Hey Jeng3

You are talking cock here, not me. The title of the TDM subject is on "Blair The Liar 2" and I am point blank on the subject of lies; not murders or war crime murderers.

You can't even differentiate my comment on lies rather than on murders/crime murderers. Perhaps this is the product of poor Manglish in Malaysia.

Don't be blinded by pure allegiance or patriotism towards anybody. I am no politician nor inclined to any political party. I am just comparing apples with apples whereas you compared oranges & apples. Oh gosh, this is down right raping the English language. From para 1 till para 6, exception being para 4 which incidentally TDM cross-referenced Blair's lies in supporting the killings, it was all about lies, lies & lies. You are not able to understand well what TDM was trying to convey. You are out of topic, man!!! Brush up your Manglish instead of English.

We don't need any police reports.....btw do you know that Malaysia has the most number of reports made and why is this so? It's all bcoz of people like you who don't understand about police reports. A little bit about nay matter, needs a police report. How many police reports have been acted upon for its purpose? People mudah lupa, as what TDM said before. The easiest way out ispolice report here & there.

As for HBT, it doesn't matter whether Chiakaliau Zakaria (or his family) had paid his political price (in the name of his life, party and family name) or not, the bottom line again here is lies, the subject matter of TDM. It was reported by many Klang people that he lived beyond his means. As an analogy to TDM's assessment on Blair, how did Chiakaliau Zakaria live to this level of wealth. It boils down to lies.

I am not here to defend Blair nor would I feel better if he was defended. I am just talking about lies. Lies are lies..... that simple!! Dude

It seems to me this clear conscience guy is actually talking politics and trying to equate a clear cut murderer with our local politicians alleged corruptions.

If you have evidence please lodge a police report dont try to talk cock here trying to manipulate this issue.It's typical of a few people of this nature here,manipulative and also oppportunistic.

But I admit there are liars also here in Malaysia and one of the biggest is LGE.The recent Maulidur Rasul fiasco can attest to this fact.

Assalamualaikum Tun.

Baguslah seme korang yang berminat nak belajar dengan Blair The Wild (Liar).Dengan adik-beradik Blair The Liar pun boleh belajar gak.Kat Malaysia ni ramai sedara-mara dia.

Kena belajar,kalu tak belajar nanti tak tahu macam mana cara nak bunuh manusia.Pegang parang pun tak betul.

Tengok sekarang ni,pasal isu buang bayi.Korang tahu tak kenapa seorang ibu sanggup buang anaknya?

Semata-mata sebab berzina ke?Itu ler korang tak nak campur dengan maksiat.Belajar dengan ustaz,ustaz kata jangan campur dengan maksiat.Abih korang dapat apa? Dapat jangan je la...

Kalau tanya Tun lagi la,abih-abih pun Tun tunjuk website yang seksi meksi je macam yang pernah disiarkan dulu tu.

Korang nak tahu ker sebab apa? Jawapannya sebab MAJORITI mereka ini 'main' lebih dari sorang lelaki. Tak tahu sape ayah bayi ni. So, mesti la lelaki yang bakar bayi ni pun takde hati kat baby tu sebab dia pun yakin tu bukan baby dia. Mama dia lagi la kebigungan. So, lebih baik buang je...

Kalu tak caya, cuba try makan nasi. Masa makan tu cuba ajak member lain makan nasi tu skali. Kata korang yang belanja. Sure ramai tetamu yang datang macam kenduri kendara.

Jom makan nasi.

Sorry, tak boleh nak cerita lebih-lebih. Sebab tempat last yang ditujui dah kena bomb lepas dua tiga minggu disinggahi.

KEMBALILAH KEPADA ALLAH.

Salam kasih dan salam hormat Ayahanda Tun.

Tony Blair admission into Malaysian soil would be a very costly mistake for those in power. Where ever this man goes, blood trails. In the aftermath of their concerted Trans-Atlantic lies, the poor bastard Blair is not as lucky as the Bushy hound really. For a couple of men, to have killed so many, and to have so much blood on their hands, is a horrifying view and to invite the same men to teach us anything we may think they are worthy of, is even further a horrendous notion. So who's inviting them? To keep an estate with a staff of 130 in The UK would mean that you have got to be an upper league millionaire or even a billionaire at that. Their corruption scandals make any known here puny. As far back as the British Airways privatization exercise in January 1987, up till now, it has all been well footed and covered by their tax payers. We don't have to be a part of that scam. What possibly could Blair have to say that would help us to be better humans? He won't admit to any of his "crimes of war". If we pay RM1 million and he goes on stage and admit to that and we promptly arrest him for genocide, then that RM1 million would be most well spent. Would Blair consider that?

Matthias Chang is out on a technicality just like he was in on a technicality of a faceless system. To say that Tun had no weight in the just outcome of this misadventure is almost dangerously naïve on my part. Matthias Chang has always been a lawyer who had championed many cases involving the less fortunate city dwellers facing illegal evictions, un-fair compensations and the likes. I'm sure many across the divide would agree with me on that statement.

In any case, many are pleased Matthias is out of the joint. I won't say much on that really, enough has been said should inadvertently I be cited for contempt of any holy cow, who would free me quickly? Tun? If any, I am seeing quiet grins already. Najib? Perish the thoughts my good man. Rais? I want flowery recitals laced in linguistic opium and drop dead eulogy I page him. It's a Durex moment, so let's play safe and leave things at that, conceivably remnants of my persona has been almost all non-grata by now.

So that brings me; who gives a shoot about the small little ordinary guys, the plain citizens? Hard tax paying citizens? You can check see through their loose nostrils and behinds to see the significance of my point here, now that's how hard they have been paying their taxes - even some Washingtonian male hookers are probably tighter than a few of them I assume, well of course I can merely assume as that is not my area of specialty at all, as I am no PKR you see. My apologies, and perhaps the bewildering mullahs of PAS may want request for a royal commission of inquiry into this (or of the same standing)? Just establish diameters and depth, and it shall suffice for points of such wanting merits.

Pakatan Rakyat; I don't see how one man with a RM16, 000 coffee machine could even comprehend what urban poverty in PRK-094 means. Multi millionaires travels in another dimension along the many lesser; a dimension that would not subject them to normal gravitational physics and laws in spite of their radical movements along the plane of common existence and realities. This would be an interesting experiment to observe no less.

Points made by the learned and sharp Lordship Gopal Raj Kumar and the correspondingly QC Ceylonese Lawyer have exposed inherent weaknesses of our legal system.

A week ago I traveled to my maternal home for some fresh "daun kariplai". Yes, laugh all you want kick me silly for all I care. But let me make a point first. See, that tree (big enough for the phrase) has been originally brought from where we once came from. It has since been spilt into hundreds of smaller plant life over the years. The thing is; the smell is different and quite unlike any other off the supermarket shelf (just let me have that banal line). As I cooked dinner just now, alone in the kitchen amidst the rain outside, I am suddenly humbled to tears by the smell of years that came and went; that signifies a journey. The key here is humbled; for when you are humbled, you would see and feel more.

Things happens for a reason, call it karma, kismet, or anything you fancy. For our part, when all the dust has settled down and things get easy for the eyes again, we must learn and apply the lesson that was sent along in it. I hope and pray that Tun would continue to champion the issues that have long been obliterating fairness in our legal system and to not let it rest here as that would be grossly unfair to the winds of kismet that has just comes your way. I am talking about standing up for the ordinary little guys who are no politicians at all, people who would not have such clouts as ole Matthias did. Justice delayed is justice denied so goes the old adage, but it still rings true everywhere today in justice Malaysia. I could write ten pages on what goes on around this issue, especially so when it comes to religious family law issues and the ever congested BBG. Those still in the circus tent would know what those letters stands for.

Should a lawyer be capped on the number of cases he/she could take at one time? A lawyer is a lawyer; he/she must not play any other role along that responsibility – true/false? Who does quality control? Addressing the aggrieved, the Barr Council; unquestionably someone had said it best earlier: they are just positioning themselves as elite “political police” in Malaysia. They should be disbanded, those egotistical impractical remnants of the British colonialist expressions over our unqualified society.

Expedience is the key to getting things rolling in the right direction and then we may begin to harass our conscience (if any) with quality control issues. Right now we don't even have a sense of right and wrong when it comes to this issue, this is where we start to leave things to that faceless system again. Why even keep that faceless system? Justice is blind they say, so should we be haughty of that line like those die hard Brits Lardships in their Marilyn Monroe wigs and tights? Justice works when we apply it with a conscience, the only thing that's blind is human and humanity must correct that wrong for the benefits of the poorer lot among us; the greater us.

Tun, please do all you can and must to change things. You have the seat, you have the voice. It would be sad if your crusade in this respective issue ends with the Matthias issue. Just like the faceless system it is up against, you may finds countless many other faceless Matthias that is fighting the system alone, almost broke and by now near desperations. Go to the family courts and observe; the amount of injustice there is overwhelming. Should I even say gender discriminations? Everyone can study law, its easy; no maths, no science subject, but not every lawyer could have the heart to practice and something is sorely wrong with that. The whole system has become a faceless monster and it is getting worst each time we cry foul of it.

Well Tun, that's my point of view, of a simple cooking man simply humbled by his dinner. The therapy of cooking as I humbly sees it.

In modesty, suddenly all becomes precious and joyful to the soul again. Do enjoy Albania Tun. You may get to see neon's, you may get to hear azan again, you may get to see clean streets, the women are beautiful, new buildings, and you may get to see many innovative improvements to their ways of life now. They have indeed come leaps and bounds in all the passing years since the Balkan conflicts; a conflict that we Malaysians must never overlook, neither must we forget. It should be a syllabus in the Malaysian program of study. Perchance, it may be starring at us right in the face...

Thank you Tun.

TDM

There is no difference between BLAIR & MANY Malaysian POLITICIANS; one in the past with 22 years of "theateritic-politics" and another (according to Martin Jalleh recent article on Malaysia-Today) regarding your good friend Nazri.

Oh I had forgotten, many in Parliament also told lies in one way or another; not forgetting their insults, rude, childish and irresponsible behaviour.

If we are, including TDM, disgusted with Blair, then we are similarly disgusted with all those politicians (present & past) who had in one way or another, with or without "invitation" been grouped into Blair's category so described here. Good analogy here by TDM. Many politicians in Malaysia are super rich. Just look at "Chiakaliau" Zakaria. At his level, he was already rich enough. What more about those in higher office?

Kudos, for being unable to distinguish the difference.

Liars are liars, they do not change their style but merely their mode in communicating the lies. Well, I had learnt much from my son who is now in his final year of his BSc Psychology course on the concept of why people especially politicians consistently lie.

Continue with lies and thou (those in the group) shall face your creator one day who would ask "Why did you lie?"

Let's be God fearing human beings and God will judge. It is wrong for us to judge; lest we will be judged (by God). We are prohibited from judging others. Please do not hide behind the notion, as a former national leader, I am entitled to express myself on this and that. It is still judging!!!

Dear Tun,

Why does Malaysia allow a SINGAPORE Company to invite a person from UK who belongs in the dock of the International Court of Justice for War Crimes against Humanity to set his foot on our blessed Malaysian soil.

First it was War due to WMD, when its proven wrong, its regime change..to me he is just a born again Christian (self professed) who thinks he is doing his gods work..or was it a Crusade...

Wait a Minute should we allow an outsider to come to our home and humiliate us in our own home by inviting a murder into our home (a person who murdered our mothers, fathers, brothers and sisters).

As a point in fact, Politics is Business. "Government for the people..." and all that is the selling point. But once in, it's how much money can WE make.

Thaksin, Bush, Blair, Marcos, all made money. Over here, it's all hush hush. We don't know whose SON or BROTHER or BROTHER-IN-LAW is making money. How many buy houses in Australia, Britain, America. How many have money stashed away in some foreign country? But act like got nothing here...

If business People want to pay to listen to this person, It is their right. IT IS STILL A FREE COUNTRY IS IT NOT??? He is meeting people who are paying. It's not like a public forum on WORLD PEACE. That would be different.

Now there's a video going around about Lobbyist In America. How they Sell the Idea. Have a look at it you may like it. What is the Lobbyist being used By Malaysia now???? Just to get a picture with the President??? It's all a business. It's all about the Money. Always has, Always

That is the problem with Malaysia, we cannot distinguish between dirt, grain and shaft. These people, ultra-liberal, ultra-democracy, no holds barred type want to learn from the killer to be killer businessmen/women - go for the kill.

The Strategic Trade Act hurried through parliament by Najib just before leaving for US is siding with the brinkmaster to get Iran on the firing line. The brinkmaster knows too much about him - mind, skeletons, that he is just a puppet. Get the fondler home!

Not to worry, the brinkmaster will not make Iraq out of Malaysia. We are nothing to them. APCO will do the job.

YABhg Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad,
Salaams

A Fool And His Money

Reading your first statement just made me laugh - if Tun is disgusted then I am disappointed.

Ahh, the Be Liar! and yet they lavish him with the hope that he will bring fortune to them - out of fear or misplaced conviction.

A question though, Tun, does he hold any good key to the Muslim Global Market?

Why am I disappointed and not disgusted?

Well, there is you, Tun.

dear Tun,

are you saying it is possible to become rich if you become a PM. sorry but u said its impossible to become rich just after 3 terms. I assumed u knew how many term one requires to be a PM in order to become rich.

i won't mind if you don;t publish this comment.

Tun

I am sure to attract more anger from your blind devotees, than real thought for my question to you - but it's got to be asked

What do you mean by this stament from you? "...we can understand how a Prime Minister like Tony Blair can get so rich after serving less than three terms"

So, by that you're saying for a PM to become rich, is it more realistic if this person be in office for much longer?

Sir...what is your networth? How was the majority of this achieved? What is the networth of your family? How was this achieved?

For you to raise the concern that Blair earns big bagsful of money to give talks, sounds to me more like envy than real concern.

On the question if Blair had the right justification to take out Sadamn, and the collateral damage you claim caused by the allies, you still have not given your take on Sadamn? How do rank Sadamn in the table of a world leader?

Do you think Sadamn was a fair and honest man? Did Sadamn conduct himself well to his fellow Muslim bretheren both in Iraq, and outside?

What was his influence into the gassing and mass genocide of people all in the name of gaining superiority and control over them?

What was his influence into invading a sovereign nation who had lent him money, and his reason to invade was because they weren't willing to write it off? Was his anger justified that this Sovereign nation decided to sell their oil at lower price, which would have put his country in more debt, but is attacking them and burning their oil reserves the only avenue to him opposing their action?

Tun, your followers ask for facts - so give us your take/your facts on who this Sadamn person is. After all, you have had numerous dialogue with his regime when they were in power.

(Ravi)

Assalamu'alaikum Tun,

I strongly recommend that all Malaysians boycott any companies or group of companies that are directly or indirectly involved in bringing Bliar to our beloved country. This should involve the organiser, hotel, caterer, airlines even the car he is driven in. Hopefully, this would deter any organisation from getting involved with this war criminal.

Wassalam.

Part I: ... My Ugly Short Secretary ...

Al Salamu Alaykum Dear Tun Dr. Mahathir,

Dear Fellow writers,

Please excuse my verbose and casual ranting today.
I have not left my house in over a week.
I have not shaved in just as long.
I have not slept in two days and I have been, for the 19th time, trying to finish an Academic paper that I had to redo 19 different times.

Every time I think it is finished, I realize I am not happy with it.....anyway...

No one can demand my utmost respect and attention more than Tun, and no country I love more than Malaysia, so when I hear Tony Blair is in Malaysia, I feel like jealous husband who has traveled far from his fairest of ladies, only to hear that the Barbarian Huns are at the gates of his house!

So I can not help but share with you my thoughts in three parts...

Part I: ... My Short Ugly Secretary....
Part II: The Wild Boar and I
Part III: ... Dear Mr. Zbigneiw Brizinski...

.....PART I: ... My Ugly Short Secretary

In my younger days, I was taught first hand by one the best business people in the world, AT LEAST in my humble opinion, the concept of "Meeting Dynamics". Where is the meeting setup, when, who is attending, what are the seating arrangements, ...etc. All details mattered. As I got older, wiser and much more paranoid, I took this concept to a whole new level.

I had had this ugly and short secretary that used to fly in to where the meeting was to take place and she was instructed to "observe" the dynamics around the preparation for that meeting. So, for example, if the conference meeting was in Las Vegas, she would fly in a day or two prior and observe how the conference was being set-up, more importantly, she knew all my competitors and had a detailed file that I would have prepared for her on each and every company, CEO, CFO, COO and the sales manger. As much details as I can get my hands on. Then she would report to me on their arrival times, whom are they meeting? For how long? How many people attended the meeting? How were they dressed? Cheap Suits or Expensive? Blue, Black or light? Wool, Linen or Silk?...etc.

If you think I am crazy, here is a sample explanation.

- Blue or Black Expensive Suit (Wool) = 90% East coast Lawyer or VC
- Light Colored Expensive suit Linen or Khaki or no tie = 90% West Coast VC
- Cheap suit (Accountants)
- 2 Cheap Suits together (Company In-house Accountant and Lawyer) This is the most dangerous combination, since they worked for the firm and actually cared as opposed to the hired "mercs" of the big firms...etc

The best info was collected after 10 P.M at the Hotel Bar, since as the Latin Saying goes "In Vino Veritas", the truth is in the wine! As the wine separates the mask from the actors!

Anyway, back to my ugly short secretary, you are probably wondering why Ugly, Why Short, and oh, I forgot, Why Brunette!?

The answer is very simple: No one will eve notice her, even if she was next to them all the time! Basic Freudian Psychology.

While she was completely unnoticeable, she was extremely reliable, observant, intelligent and had the ability to go 36 hours without sleep! She was worth her salary 10 folds over.

Her reports were impeccable and, since I personally taught her, no detail was left to chance.

THUS, Before I have even arrived to my meeting, I knew which competitors, was courting which client, who was meeting formally and casually, where and for how long!? When I walked into my meetings, I was fully aware of the dynamics, and in my whole business career, I was surprised only once and it was my overconfidence that did me in (Classic ego problem that comes with the folly of youth.)

Now, you are probably wondering, What the Heck does this have anything to do with Tony Blair and Malaysia?

The simple answer is that the one thing I have learned from my great business mentors and from life's painful experiences, is that the meetings before the event and the meetings after the event are much more important than the event itself and it will tell you everything about the real purpose of Tony Blair's presence in Malaysia. You want a hint! Check the BBC online articles & the Sunday Times, as well as the New York Times and the Wall Street Journal about Malaysia for the last 6 months, there you will find a CLEAR hint of the answer.

If you really want to know?! Well, I suggest hiring a short, ugly, brunet secretary and have her go to where that meeting is held. I have a feeling you will see many familiar faces. (...Chin Wagging, Hob Knobbing and Flesh Pressing ... as they say in Texas...)

Now that I am retired, every once in a while, I miss the adrenalin rush of competing against the best. Now, I am more convinced, that there are much more important things than Adrenalin, money and winning at all costs. Life changes you sometimes!?

Anyway, Here is the Blair financial info with excerpts from the Guardian, Times and FT. and it reads like a fairy tale.

"The former prime minister Tony Blair has received millions of pounds through an unusual mixture of commercial, charitable and religious income streams. Since he stepped down from office in 2007, his financial affairs have been described by observers as "Byzantine" and "opaque".

Blair has a commercial consultancy, called Tony Blair Associates, plus jobs advising a US bank and a Swiss insurer. He has a multimillion pound book deal. He also has a charity, the Tony Blair Africa Governance Initiative, and another called the Tony Blair Faith Foundation. But much of the income, which includes charitable donations from other sources, has been funnelled through a structure called Windrush Ventures No 3 Limited Partnership.

Blair has a complex web of structures involving 12 different legal entities handling the unprecedented millions he is receiving since he stepped down from office in 2007.

Blair is estimated to be in the process of receiving up to £14m, making him one of Britain's wealthiest ex-prime ministers. This includes a £4.6m memoirs deal with Random House.

He is also receiving a series of US fees from the Washington Speakers Bureau for making speeches estimated to include a £600,000 signing-on fee; consultancies with the US bank, JP Morgan and with Swiss insurers Zurich Financial Services; and commercial consultancy deals through his private firm, Tony Blair Associates, with regimes in Kuwait and the United Arab Emirates among others.

The growth in Blair's personal wealth was illustrated in May 2008, when he agreed to pay £5.75m for the late actor John Gielgud's Buckinghamshire residence, described as "a small stately home".

This was in addition to the £4.45m paid earlier for a London home in Connaught Square, together with an adjoining mews house.

The former prime minister refuses to offer any explanation of why he is using the complex structures.

As they stand, they were recently described by the Financial Times as "neither tax efficient nor managerially useful".

Millions of pounds have been funnelled through one arrangement called Windrush Ventures and a second parallel structure called Firerush Ventures.

They may handle some of the large amounts coming in from Blair's book deal, his six-figure speaking fees, his banking and insurance consultancies, and his pay from Middle Eastern regimes.

The Windrush structure pays for Blair's £560,000 a year lease on his Mayfair office, in Grosvenor Square near the US embassy.

Blair's profit-making commercial schemes involve 12 different Windrush and Firerush legal entities centring on a pair of "limited partnerships".

His spokesman, former No 10 staff member Matthew Doyle, refuses to say who Blair's partner is.

Windrush Ventures No 3 LP, for example, consists on paper of a partnership between an entity owned by Blair himself and an anonymous off-the-shelf company.

This off-the-shelf company, which appears to have been set up by Alex Harle, Blair's lawyer at the Westminster solicitors Bircham, Dyson Bell, is merely called BDBCO No 819 Ltd.

Set up as a nominee company to act as a trustee or an executor of a will, this entity does not reveal its ownership on records at Companies House. Instead, its shares are listed as held by a second off-the-shelf entity, BDBCO No 822.

This company in turn conceals its true ownership. Its shares are listed as held by the lawyers, acting as nominees.

This partner company does not appear to have made any significant investments on its own behalf. The register shows that its sole contribution to the partnership when it was set up in December 2007 was the sum of £19.

The limited financial information available under company law shows that more than £6m has been passed through the Windrush partnerships, and on to a company owned personally by Blair, called Windrush Ventures Ltd.

The £6m is extracted from the partnership funds by being described as "management fees" going to the general partner – which is a Blair-owned entity.

There is no published record of what other cash or assets remain in the partnership, or how it will be distributed.

The opacity of Blair's Windrush structures is increased by the fact that they have also been used to handle some charitable donations for projects in Africa.

A Sainsbury family charity, the Gatsby foundation, declares it has paid a total of £992,000 to the Windrush limited partnership. This was for charitable projects in Rwanda, in the two financial years to April 2009.

The Gates foundation, funded by the founder of Microsoft, declares it paid $2.46m (£1.49m) to the Windrush LP in June 2008, for similar capacity-building projects in Sierra Leone.

Blair this year applied to set up a charity, the Tony Blair Africa Governance initiative, in February 2009, according to the Charity Commission.

But its application was not accepted until this month, partly because of its novelty and partly through concerns as to whether it was sufficiently separated from Blair's personal office arrangements.

The link with Blair and his office was "one of the issues we considered ... when looking at public benefit and the independence of the charity," the Commission said.”

GOD BLESS TUN DR. MAHATHIR AND FAMILY

Salam Tun yang di hormati,

1. Mungkin rakyat Malaysia jemput Mr Blair, mungkin juga Mr Blair paksa rakyat Malaysia jemput dia, seperti di Iraq, tetamu tidak di undang.

2. Yang menjemput atau kena paksa jemput memang akan banyak belajar dari Mr Blair.

3. Mungkin belajar jadi 'politician', jadi ahli palimen, jadi perdana menteri, dan mungkin jadi presiden.

4. Mungkin juga belajar menjadi penyelamat, menjadi pembebas, menjadi penjajah dsb.

5. Mungkin seterusnya menjadi jutawan dan dermawan ('philantropist').

6. Dan tak lupa cara menjadi kawan kepada Amerika Syarikat dan Israel. Mungkin cara menjadi seteru kepada Iraq dan Iran.

7. Tapi yang pasti, cara menjadi "The Liar".

Tun,

How I wish that you are the new UN Secretary General so that my one in a lifetime dream could be fulfilled viz witnessing(during my living) your capability to take both Bush Senior and Junior with their accomplice Tony Blair to task to the Hague to stand trial on the unforgiving genocides that killed 800,000 Iraqi children, Iraqi men and women.

That is not taking into account all the other devastation done in Afghanistan and Pakistan. Their systematic killing were far more worst than :

1. Bosnia Genocide, 1992-1995(200,000 Deaths)

2. Darfur, Sudan, Africa. An estimated 50,000 have been killed and 200,000 displaced.

That's why I wonder it is so tough for the Western countries to consider the first Muslim to be appointed the new UN Secretary General. What the orang muda nowadays saying goes once you are up there' M...A...S...a...K!!!!!!!

We still have Malaysians who look upon the Whites as more superior even if they lead the massacre of hundreds and thousands of Iraqis, Palestians, etc.

To stand beside Tony Blair posing for a pic is like standing beside a God sent angel...Angel of Death.

Well Tun, this how a lot of these Brown Englishmen in this country look at the Whites. They would rather disgrace and belittle their own country and people as they feel and think anything "Whites is better than here.

This is the result of being colonized and brain washed by the British. The west is always seem to be superior than of the east.

I really think the Govt should step in and put a stop to this. Black list these animals from preaching in Malaysia. Action should also be taken on the company that is organizing the talk.

Tun M,

Well Tun, I guess if we all had to read the book "Sun Tze Art of War" when we were in Business School and adapt as well as apply the strategies in the business world then probably Blair has now come up with the British version of the "Blair Art of War"!

Sun Tze Art of War was written centuries ago and perhaps the strategies used then is outdated and now Blair in cohort with Bush has come out with new strategies that could assist to enhance the businesses of the world. In war there is the need for a lot of military hardware and software.

Ideas are not cheap and being a former PM probably makes the Malaysian business community feels that the 1 million fees paid is worth it. I believe the money can be put to good use by inviting other prominent speakers.

I really do not understand what is the fuzz here. In Malaysia, we have MB having bigger mansion, MP having Istana and our PM can pay millions of tax payer $$ to jews for arrange appointment with Obama.

This is what politic about, but since you did not like him, you are showing his negative part only.

The local who pay 1Million to hear his speech is far better then our PM to pay millions for 40-min talk with Obama. Their are paying with their own $$, not tax payer $$.

Take it easy.
