

FREEDOM

Chedet.co.cc

August 30, 2012

By Tun Dr. Mahathir Mohamad

1. It was a spectacular show – this closing ceremony of the 2012 London Olympics. It was not just about games. The organisers just could not confine themselves to sports. It was too good an opportunity for gaining political capital from the event. And so in the background, in enormous moving letters, was the word FREEDOM.
2. There was no indication as to whom it was directed and what the purpose was. But I am sure that immediately the thoughts that crossed the minds of the spectators and the millions of TV viewers all over the world was the need for freedom in many of the countries of the third world.
3. But may I suggest that we look also at the lack of freedom of the many independent countries of the world due to Western Hegemony.
4. Some of these countries had fought for independence from colonial rule. They had lost men and suffered much before winning what they believed was the freedom that came with their independence.
5. But are they free? It was Soekarno of Indonesia who quickly realised that the decolonised independent nations were not really free. They were still under the thumb of the former colonial masters – not too obvious of course but the pressure was as real as when they were the colonies of their European masters. They had to do what the ex-masters told them or face economic pressures, or political pressures or pressures by the International media controlled by them. Soekarno called this new form of colonialism – Neo Colonialism.
6. The West laughed at him but they nevertheless engineered his downfall. No one talked about Neo-Colonialism after that. Everyone decided it was a silly idea or maybe they thought it was dangerous to harbour such ideas.
7. But let us scrutinise the present state of the countries of the world in particular those which became independent after the last Great War. If we do, we cannot help but conclude that the so-called independent countries are still having to obey the orders of the former colonial powers headed by the super superpower which won the Cold War. The independent countries are told that the only system of Government they can have is the democratic system. This is not really bad. But the interference in the internal affairs of independent countries does not stop there. There must also be regime changes, so that candidates friendly to the West are installed. The laws of the countries must also be changed in order to serve the interests of the West. The countries should be borderless, should allow inflows and outflows of foreign capital, should allow foreign ownership of business and the acquisition of companies. The financial system must be those of the West.
8. When they change, all the so-called independent countries must follow suit. Naturally a few would not. Then the so-called international press would begin denigrating them. Eventually they would be classified as failed states or rogue states. When there is still no change in attitude, excuses would be found to apply sanctions. A UN agreement would be sought but if that is not forthcoming the sanctions would be applied anyway.

9. Sanction is the modern equivalent of the siege of old except that it is bigger in scope. A country under sanction will not only be deprived of food and medicine but will not be able to trade and may not fly aircrafts. To render sanctions effective the super superpower will force other countries to also apply sanctions. Failure to do so will result in their losing their facilities to finance trade etc.

10. In the so-called war against terrorism the weak countries of the world are forced to legislate against money laundering and terrorism. All financial transactions must be scrutinised ostensibly to prevent money from going to terrorists. Charities have actually to cease their activities because they are all suspected of financing terrorists. Money changers found their business being hampered through these new laws. The governments of most countries are forced to restrict their banks from dealing with the countries under sanctions.

11. If sanctions fail to bring the recalcitrant country to heel, it would be threatened with war. This is no empty threat. Countries have been invaded and occupied, their towns and cities razed to the ground and of course hundreds of thousands of innocent civilians killed and many more wounded and incapacitated.

12. Clearly the super superpower has arrogated itself the right to instruct, direct and command independent countries to legislate and act in accordance with the policies and agenda decided by it. All these countries are dragged into assisting the implementation of policies and actions decided upon by the super superpower which effectively placed them under sanction.

13. They are not free to act on their own or have their own policies. So when one talks about freedom, it should not be confined to the freedom of citizens of the country but also of the freedom of independent countries as well. It is quite clear that the so-called independent countries of the world are not free. They are therefore not really independent. They are actually under the control of the super superpower.

14. The freedom message at the closing of the London Olympics should also be noted by the powers which are denying freedom to the independent countries of the world. Then and only then can they take the moral high ground to preach or castigate the poor third world countries of denying freedom to their people.

26 Comments

amin tan
September 2, 2012 at 6:33 am | Permalink

Salam Tun,
Saya ingin jelaskan konsep assabiah orang2 Kelantan. Perasaan kekitaan di kalangan orang2 Kelantan amat tebal disebabkan oleh bahasa tuturan yang lain daripada arus bahasa melayu kebangsaan. Ini pula diikat dengan makanan budu dan nasi berlauk yang tersendiri menjadi orang2 Kelantan telah menjadi bersatu dalam menghadapi sesuatu cabaran atau dugaan. Maka mana2 pihak yang pandai main bahasa Kelantan yang juga terkandung perbendaharaan arab telah dapat menawan imaginasi dan hati kekitaan orang2 Kelantan. Kepimpinan PAS di Kelantan telah berjaya berbuat demikian. Mereka pandai berpidato ibarat tukang karut sebagai watak utama dalam persembahan hiburan dikir barat. Tukang karut yang termashur pada tahun enam puluhan dan tujuh puluhan ialah 'SUDIN' dan 'MAT YEH' dari Patani di Thai selatan. Tetapi mereka tidak ada apa2 rancangan pembangunan untuk faedah rakyat Kelantan. Walaupun sekiranya apa2 rancangan yang mungkin ada, tetapi kemampuan dan kebolehan untuk melaksana rancangan pembangunan dan kemajuan tiada kepada kepimpinan PAS di Kelantan. Sekiranya PAS menang lagi dalam PRU 13 ini, rakyat Kelantan akan terbiar lagi, tetapi terhibur dan terasa gembira di hati sebab kononnya mereka telah menunaikan tanggungjawab islam fisabilillah. Mereka telah menang sorak, tetapi pembangunan dan kemajuan negeri terbiar.

amin tan
mubarakchan's Gravatar mubarakchan
September 1, 2012 at 7:47 pm | Permalink

Tun

Within the space of 24 hours, we have in our media the disgusting and revolting colour photo of a youngster defecating on the colour photo of our distinguished Prime Minister and his wife, Datin Seri Rosmah in an Opposition Blog with the headline, 'Najib, wife become butt of joke'. With an accompaniment of an vulgar finger sign. This photo was obviously posed for the Blog. Freedom !

This sort of behaviour is what we should expect of some members of the Opposition.

And in The Star, Saturday 1st September 2012, Seah Chiang Nee candidly admitted that the awesome Lee Kuan Yew was/is actually a real Dictator who brooked no dissent or criticism or admit to any mistake.

Here are the mistakes of Singapore since 1966 arising from the awesome Lee Kuan Yew's one-man rule (The Star. Saturday 1st September 2012. Seah Chiang Nee.)

1. The use of money as an instrument of foreign policy in causing the deaths or maiming or injuries to innocent men, women and children in friendly countries. Vide. ASEAN Regional News.
2. The implementation of a 2 child family policy from 1966 with the possible contravention of Clause 16 of the United Nations Universal Charter for Human Rights. To fill the void, billionaires and millionaires are now imported to fill the hallowed annual statistics because they become either citizens or permanent residents. As a result, not only Singapore has the greatest annual increase of multi-millionaires in the whole world but also the No. 1 richest country on the planet. This is what I call 'bluffology' for the sycophants and her own citizens (Dulling their senses make them complacent and arrogant until they read the fairy tales of Hans Christian Anderson !) The hundreds of thousands of foreign manual workers are excluded. Vide. The Star. Seah Chiang Nee. 25 August 2012. Page 30.
3. The loss of US$ 108 Billions of Singapore's citizens' Trust money in October 2008 on Wall Street by investing in inferior institutions lesser than Singapore Inc. Vide. Channelnewsasia. Lee Kuan Yew. November 2008. All Singaporean Blogs. January 2009 – 2012. Financial Times London Gillian Tett. April 2010.' Singapore's Harvard Model '. The Star. 25 August 2012. Seah Chiang Nee Page 30.
4. A perfunctory Judiciary System. Vide. Admiral Canaris who was stripped naked and demeaned by Hitler's Judiciary and hung naked with piano wires.
5. The absence of multiculturalism in Singapore. Vide. Channelnewsasia. 2012. ' The Curry Smell Tribunal '
6. The remuneration of officials. Vide. Channelnewsasia 2011-2012. All Singaporean Blogs. 2011-2012.
7. The employment of foreign sportsmen/women, jet fighter pilots, tank drivers, brigades of Gurkhas, submariners etc. Channelnewsasia 2012. All Singaporean Blogs 2011-2012.
8. The lifestyle and wealth of the ruling elite. Vide. i) The Sale of Kim Eng Securities to Maybank. ii) The importation of 5,000 pigs daily. iii) Service contracts from flower nurseries, etc.

If we compare the performance of Malaysia since 1957 with that of Singapore's since 1965, we can only credit the awesome Lee Kuan Yew with the success of providing low cost housing to the populace and high cost buildings to the capitalists in his own image. Without any compassion, the smart two-legged animal just quietly left Singapore years ago ! Freedom !

Singapore at this time and age has been hollowed out by the awesome Lee Kuan Yew's policies.

And as for the DAP, a Malaysian political party (under the leadership of Lim Kit Siang) which has been inspired by Lee Kuan Yew, PAP and Singapore, it is still not too late to consider all your options in realpolitik terms. It is very obvious that our beloved Malaysia is entirely different from the Singapore of today which has been built in the image of just one person, the awesome Lee Kuan Yew. Freedom !

Our icons and heroes are the Yang Di Pertuan Agong, the Royal Sultans (who should be shown no disrespect), the Prime Minister and his Cabinet, the members of the Dewan Rakyat and Dewan Negara. The heads of public institutions, universities and schools and their teachers. The sportsmen/women, the academics, the military, the police etc.

And the most important of all our parents, fathers and mothers.

And as for PAS, facts are facts. A party which is honest and disciplined, can serve our beloved Malaysia sic Kelantan well, together with the BN.
By improving Kelantan with the BN, the former inhabitants of the Patani Empire across the Sungei Golok would benefit also. It is already 2012.

Better late than never DAP and PAS !

Freedom !
Botak's Gravatar Botak
September 1, 2012 at 7:29 pm | Permalink

ANY ORGANISED SHOW IS SPECTACULAR
THE LONDON OLYMPIC SHOW IS TO PROTRAY
THEIR GOODSELF, THAT THEY ARE THE PEOPLE OF FREEDOM

IT,S LIKE THE HOLLYWOOD
EVERY ON AMERICANS THEY ARE GOOD
THE SOVIETS , GERMANS , CHINA
ESPECIALLY NORTH KOREA,THE MIDDLE EAST
ARE BAD PEOPLE,BAD GOVERNMENT

THEY PREACH FREEDOM
THEY PREACH DEMOCRACY

ARE THEY ?

WHEN THEY DESTROY OTHERS
FOR THEIR IMPORTANCE
FOR THEIR EXISTANCE
truthseeker's Gravatar truthseeker
September 1, 2012 at 1:45 pm | Permalink

Salam Tun, one more time...

Maybe not many people notice that most Americans are somewhat like the malays...being apologetic, warm, welfare-minded, sociable and anything for being supportive and nice.

Therefore, to get their (these Americans and Malays) attention, support, one must not say nasty words, but instead, tell them that all actions are for;

- a) freedom for everybody (therefore no tyranny, dictatorship)
- b) democracy for everybody – voices being heard
- c) equality – everybody are equals, no bumis or non-bumis
- d) human rights – everybody has rights
- e) justice – everybody being treated justly...hmm

So you see how the zionists, American leaders working with zionists and Malaysian PR selling these goodies stuffs to the people but , in reality, it's for getting power and wealth They do not even cared whether we live happily, harmoniously, peacefully, etc, they just want to be our great leaders who can use their limitless powers. Mind you, they have their own psychological advisers too...tell me, why they used such terms;

- a. desert shield (during first Iraq war?)
- b. smart bombs (bombs that did not killed at random)
- c. alcoholic (not alcohol-addict), cousin to workaholic, hehe
- d. Mahathir a dictator
- e. keadilan rakyat
- f. kerajaan rasuah (surely orang baik tidak suka rasuah kan?)
- g. konspirasi (kerajaan berpakat untuk jatuhkan anwar, my foot)
- h. bersih (really?)

So, you see, words, terms are important because you can convince those who are believers but a little bit dumb, dumber, and dumbest...because they have brains but they follow their emotions a bit too much.

truthseeker's Gravatar truthseeker

September 1, 2012 at 12:23 pm | Permalink

Salam Tun and fellow bloggers,

The words Freedom, Equality, Human Rights, Justice, Democracy, etc are being used extensively by the opportunists, the devils, trouble-makers, extremists. Why?

a. by using these words, the devils (meaning people working like devils) want to legalize drugs, weapons, sanctions, LGBT, aggression, etc

b. by using these words, devils managed to instigate, to provoke others to follow them – look at those so-called bersih movement...looks more like anti-social people who do stuffs that are against social order (have you seen those people during bersih riot, the merdeka nite? jumping on PM's picture, trying to defecate on the picture...my god, and those people were so 'gila babi' like mad, immoral bunch. That's freedom to them.

c. by using such words, the crazy opposition parties followers violated the laws of this country...look at how they will go on riot, refusing to pay back loans, lying, cheating the people...in the name of freedom, my god.

d. by using such words, US, Israel (through US)attacked other countries, killing scientists, diplomats, killing innocent citizens of other countries (Iraq, libya, Syria), killing through sanctions – people died due to food shortages, no medicines..

BN, abiding to Islamic teachings, use the words appropriately but the same words have different meanings and actions by the devils, enemies, including the oppositions! Just look around you, look at their actions – I am not surprised if one day PAS will lead attacks (i mean killings) on other muslims, just like the sunnis killing syiah and vice versa (in other countries)...in the name of freedom. Look at the talibans – gila babi.

Those words are being defined differently by different people – you decide people which definitions are the right ones.

e.

Khairul-Dean's Gravatar Khairul-Dean
September 1, 2012 at 10:45 am | Permalink

Dear CHEDET,
Salaams

From G Santayana:
From Philosophy of George Santayana

I think that the old controversy about freedom and necessity was always morally futile, because whether, in physical genesis, there be continuity or fresh beginnings, law or chance, the spirit is equally the sport of fact. The freedom and dominion morally possible are of another kind, touching not the genesis of facts but the wisdom of the affections. Affections may liberate the heart or they may enslave it. This is not a question of good or ill fortune supervening, but of being or not being deceived in the original choice of our interests.

Phil. of G.S. '51 at 592 ("Apologia Pro Mente Sua")
http://santayana.awardspace.com/Good_PHP/gswill.php

In his book "Life of Reason" American philosopher George Santayana (1863-1952) remarked: "Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it." In today's Britain there are many who have forgotten the past: unfortunately for the rest of us, they include the people who compose our governments. In our people's present financial disaster there is a lesson to be learned from history, and that lesson is that every measure our government is using in their attempt to ensure Britain's financial survival has been used before by another government – and failed more than catastrophically...

<https://britishfreedom.org/history-repeats-itself/>

CHEDET, enough for me is The Recitals of Muhammad al Amin to understand freedom and how to deal with the super superpowers.

Al-Insan
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OwQB4f9ot5E>

Malaysia: Free to be the feared Peacekeepers of the OIC based in Madinah.
AyamHere's Gravatar AyamHere
September 1, 2012 at 8:34 am | Permalink

FREEDOM is Freemason lah of course..
Idea's Gravatar Idea
September 1, 2012 at 6:28 am | Permalink

Dear Tun,

May you always be in good health.

The super superpower have built what many call as 'reputation effect'. By tearing down Afganistan and Iraq, they have created fear among many countries. We can hardly see any country standing up against them. Not even the other superpowers. The United Nations are in fact afraid of them. That is freedom. Freedom is the power to do anything you want.

Farihan Han's Gravatar Farihan Han
September 1, 2012 at 4:53 am | Permalink

Selamat menyambut hari kemerdekaan ke 55...
milshah's Gravatar milshah
September 1, 2012 at 2:22 am | Permalink

Assalamualaikum Tun,

I have always wondered why the colonised states (i.e Malaysia, Indonesia, Philippines, India, etc) were suddenly granted independence after World War 2. I mean the West had won the Great War and decimated their arch enemies at that time the super powers Japan and Germany. The US was the only country at that time that had an atomic bomb and capable of destroying any country that might want to oppose them as they did with Japan when they bombed the cities Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Why did they suddenly agree to grant independence to the countries they colonised when they were the victors of World War 2 and become the sole superpower? Why did they suddenly pack up and leave these colonised states?

I was watching an old movie "The Matrix" and the story introduced an interesting concept of an "Invincible Prison" We can easily break a prison made of iron and bricks because we can see, touch and feel the prison cell we are in. We know if we break the iron and bricks then we are free.

But what about an invincible prison? You can't see, touch or feel it, so how do break it? Answer, you can't. Even worst, some of us don't even know we are already in the prison because we cannot see, touch or feel the prison.

This is what I think why the Western gave the colonised states their independence. They know if the people of these colonised states knew that their country is being run by the West, then the people would revolt. Therefore they devised a strategy as it seems independence is given to these colonised states but in reality these states are subjected to West's system of government, economy, culture. These states must follow what the West directs them to do or face the consequences. Enter the West hegemony.

When the colonised countries gained independence after World War 2 it was simply of transferring from a prison made of iron and bricks to an invisible prison.

We have seen so many examples of what happens to countries that try to break from this invisible prison by opposing them such as Iraq, Iran, Afghanistan, Cuba, and I think their latest target, China.

It seems after world war 2 until now, we have been living in this invisible prison. We can do whatever we want so long as we don't oppose them, accept their cultures, values and ideologies and toe the line. Otherwise, face the consequences.

So how and when do we break free? I think now is the best time for Asian countries to break free from this invisible prison (i.e the West hegemony) because the US and the Europeans is in shambles and on the brink of bankruptcy. They are at their lowest economically. Second, they used too much of their military resources in the Afghanistan and Iraq wars.

On the hand, Asian countries economies are growing by leap and bounds (lead by China). We, the Asian countries, are at our greatest strength economically. Even our military strength is at its highest peak since they have never been used to attack other countries.

Their current campaign is try to take back control Asia, as it seems these former colonised countries are gaining strength economically and militarily and these countries are getting smarter by questioning and even downright opposing the West's orders.

Their chief target would be China, as China is the strongest among these Asian states, and I think the one of the most vocal opponent the West. When the US threatened to cut the US financial system to any country that trades with Iran, China simply ignored and continued to trade with Iran. You can see Tun, how angry the US is towards China.

As for other Asian countries that are still in this invisible prison, the proverb the enemy of my enemy is my friend applies. Since China is an enemy to the West hegemony, therefore China by default must be a friend to all Asian countries.

The West is currently devising the “South China Sea” or Spratly Island strategy to contain and possibly attack China. Through the international media, they are portraying China as the big bully towards Asian countries. This is to brainwash the Asian countries into believing China is the enemy.

Their strategy is with greed for oil and fish, the Asian countries would fight each other while they watch from afar. They want the Asian countries to fight China on their behalf since they themselves are too weak to do the job.

We must not fall into this trap. Rather we should help and assist China into becoming the next superpower. When China becomes the superpower, this will neutralise the West hegemony.

China must not be passive anymore, and must start leading the Asian countries to free ourselves from the West hegemony.

I think now is the time we start demanding things since we are strong now. Things like restructuring the UN, such no country have no veto powers which have caused the UN to be ineffective, making Palestine a country in the UN, impose sanctions on Israel and charging their leaders as war criminals for the killings of innocent Palestinians, etc.

One Japanese diplomat was saying a great game is being played in Asia. To the West I say, let us play this great game of theirs. They can plan all they want but it is Allah that will decide what happens.

Selamat Menyambut Hari Merdeka Tun.
sikenit's Gravatar sikenit
August 31, 2012 at 8:02 pm | Permalink

Salam Sejahtera Tun berdua dan pembaca budiman semua, Salam Kemerdekaan buat semua anak bangsa.

1. Saya kasihan melihat sebilangan rakyat Malaysia yang benar-benar menyangka bahawa mereka bijak dan berani.
2. Sedangkan hakikatnya, mereka buta dan tuli.
3. Adakah sebuah negara itu terbina dengan tiba-tiba? Begitu sahaja? Tanpa sejarahnya yang tersendiri?
4. Terlalu mendalam kebencian yang ada dalam hati sebilangan kecil rakyat Malaysia sehingga kebencian itu membutuhkan hati dan memekakkan telinga mereka.
5. Mereka menyangka mereka memperjuangkan kebebasan.
6. Sedangkan sebenarnya mereka menjerumuskan diri mereka dalam belunggu kemusnahan.
7. Dan yang paling malang sekali, kemusnahan yang sedang mereka perjuangkan akan turut memusnahkan ramai orang lain yang tidak pekak mahupun buta.
8. Adakah yang tidak pekak dan buta itu akan membiarkan sahaja kelompok kecil yang cacat ini membawa kemusnahan keatas diri orang lain?
9. Tidak sempurnalah iman kita jika kita hanya diam dan membiarkan sahaja kemusnahan berlaku atas negara dan masyarakat Malaysia yang tercinta, di bawa oleh segolongan yang meluap-luap kebencian di dalam hati mereka.
10. Ayuh, marilah kita sama-sama tingkatkan perpaduan dan kasih sayang sesama insan, sesama ahli masyarakat tanpa mengira kaum dan darjat.
11. Marilah kita semua sama-sama menyeru kepada amalan yang baik dan beramal dengannya- dan menolak amalan yang buruk serta menjauhinya.
12. Marilah kita semua mengamalkan Sunnah Nabi SAW yang sangat santun dan mulia pekerti itu, bermula daripada amalan-amalan yang paling mudah untuk kita buat – seperti memberi salam ketika memasuki rumah serta memberi salam tak kira kepada yang kita kenal atau tidak kenal- sehinggalah kepada amalan besar Nabi SAW menyelamatkan manusia daripada azab neraka yang pedih kerana tidak kenal Allah SWT.

13. Semoga Allah SWT kasihan kepada kita dan membantu kita semua, kerana sesungguhnya kita semua sangat lemah dan amat-amat memerlukan bantuanNya, terutama apabila ada dalam kalangan kita orang-orang yang buta dan pekak tetapi mereka juga sangat ganas dan berupaya membawa kemusnahan kepada kita.

14. Marilah kita beramai-ramai lakukan amalan-amalan yang boleh membawa rahmat dan bantuan Allah SWT kepada kita, seperti bersolat jemaah beramai-ramai, biar penuh masjid-masjid dan surau-surau di setiap pelosok bumi Malaysia ini. Alangkah bangganya ALLah SWT apabila melihat hamba-hambaNya yang kerdil datang menyembah dan mengharap bantuanNya.

15. Kita tidak mahu bercakap berdegar-degar bahawa kita memperjuangkan Islam, tetapi marilah kita semua berkobar-kobar melakukan amalan-amalan yang disukaiNya.

16. Sesungguhnya solat itu adalah umpama kepala kepada badan (mafhum Hadis Nabi SAW). Maka apabila kepala umat Malaysia ini hebat, bukankah badannya juga akan hebat? Tetapi jika kepala umat ini lemah, atau TAK ADA LANGSUNG- boleh kah badan umat ini bergerak maju?

17. Jagalah solat Tun berdua dan pembaca budiman semua. Semoga Hari yang mulia, Hari kemerdekaan Negara Malaysia ini benar-benar membebaskan kita daripada cengkaman manusia dan kita hanya tunduk taat kepada Allah SWT, yang sebenar-benar Penakluk kita, dan pasti kita akan jadi insan berjaya.

sikenit- yang sangat bertuah menjadi seorang Islam di bumi Malaysia.

p/s: Tun, you are easy to understand because you have no hidden agendas. All your agendas are clear and well laid out to be shared with others. Unlike the minds of some we may have in our midst. People think you are complicated and your thoughts deserved analyses because they sincerely do not believe that you could do all that you do -sincerely, as they may lack the same sincerity. Kata Hukama': Semua insan pasti binasa kecuali yang beriman, Semua yang beriman pasti binasa kecuali yang beramal, semua yang beramal pasti binasa kecuali yang ikhlas. Keikhlasan, Tun- is a very precious commodity- and as all other precious things, they do not come easily.
amin tan's Gravatar amin tan
August 31, 2012 at 7:42 pm | Permalink

Dear Tun,

Please allow me to copy and paste the following posting

//Re-transition with typo adjusted

The views of the Jewish Rabbi
And
Arab/Muslim World Atheists
On
Modern day democracy

Pasted below are two links for two separate and quite interesting video clips. In the first link you will see how atheists in the Arab/Muslim world operate under the cover of different names and pseudo titles. There are those who are boastful and openly admit that they are atheists and derive special pleasure in publicly exercising their rebellion against the God Almighty just as they enjoy exhibiting their sophistication and intellectual ability so as to impress others, especially the gullible, but actually do very little for the good of anyone if at all! These are followed by the more cunning category who never disclose their true identity, or belief, and operate under the cover of dubious names of liberalists and secularists. All Arab/Muslim atheists are mostly western educated and/or Western based (living in the West), as for those few who are not, their sole purpose in life is to get into the books of their atheistic masters in the " Civilised World" as exposed by their anti- Islamic inclinations and affiliations in their presentation, in the first video clip.

In the second video clip you will hear Rabbi who says, amongst other things, “Democracy is the unlimited atheism... democracy is the peak of atheism... democracy is the root of all evil ”

It is as if the Rabbi is talking to these opportunistic atheists in the Arab/Muslim world thereby exposing their hidden agendas and telling the world, as a whole, that the root cause of all evils is the modern day democracy which they now work tooth and nail trying to impose it on us – Dog in the manger?

—
Atheists in the Arab/Muslim world under different names!

علماني إليه يعني ؟

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WU85gV5UI4U&feature=related>

—
Jewish Rabbi: Christianity has died AND Israel soon will die AND Islam is the religion of the future https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kMi_-xqhBYw&feature=player_embedded//

amin tan

mubarakchan's Gravatar mubarakchan

August 31, 2012 at 1:07 pm | Permalink

Tun

Again on the ‘Freedom’ Banner at the closing ceremony of the London Olympics 2012, it was a mischievous and tongue-in-the cheek type of jibe at the Beijing Olympics 2008 and hypocrisy at its worse.

Even right up to the present time and age, England has always been divided into many social classes. And those that were born into the under-privileged class suffer for it throughout his/her whole life due to his or her working class accent. Where is the freedom to move up the social ladder for all ?

Efforts were made only after the 2nd World War to put everyone especially those disadvantaged by the accents, on a level playing field but there were pockets of resistance from the upper classes to this day.

The first area to be tackled by the Labour Government was the introduction of the National Health Service together with very high death duties for the wealthy who managed to survive through the legal loopholes or abodes like Jersey, Guernsey, Isle of Man, Bahamas etc.

The different social classes did not mix even though there were attempts at more intimate relationships with the footballers and the like by the hedonistic British upper classes in the 1990s. This was no big deal. It was a fad or fashion to have a footballer as a boyfriend.

This ‘Freedom’ is a legacy of the past, of the medieval times, of the British Empire when human resources were required to do things for the Royalty and its Court.

The greatest loss of life by the working classes was in the Great War of 1914-1918 and the Second World War in the defence of the King and the British Empire. The word ‘Freedom’ was never used maybe for fear of waking up the working classes who were the foot-soldiers.

The social strata is still embedded into the different verbal accents of the English language which divides the social classes like a 100 layer cake.

Hence, the use of the word ‘Freedom’ jarred one’s senses and awareness of the English historical condition and reminds one of the deaths of millions around the World.

The word ‘Peace’ would have been more appropriate.

mubarakchan's Gravatar mubarakchan
August 31, 2012 at 12:26 pm | Permalink

Tun

For Ritz

I sympathize with your plight.

This is why I always say that Malaysia is easy to govern if you know how otherwise it becomes very complicated.

I am sure the Minister of Finance in his fairness and reasonableness would not just snuff out a traditional business like yours which industry has been in existence as far as I could remember.

Anything which is negative or heavy-handed from the Government is probably due to neglect or oversight which could both be corrected to the satisfaction of all the parties concerned.

Vote BN even though I myself was sometimes unhappy or upset when events did not flow my way. Mistakes do happen as we are all human and it is up to human beings to correct and improve them.

Hajar's Gravatar Hajar

August 31, 2012 at 8:02 am | Permalink

Salam YAB & diKasihi Tun,

” SELAMAT HARI MERDEKA!” kepada semua.

Merdeka! Merdeka! Merdeka!...

Terima kasih Malaysia.

Terima kasih Tun kerana usaha berterusan Tun untuk MEMERDEKAKAN minda rakyat Malaysia.

 Semoga Allah SWT melindungi Tun sekeluarga. ***

HBT456's Gravatar HBT456

August 31, 2012 at 7:36 am | Permalink

Good morning YAB,

15. The 13th General Election result will be a democratic yardstick for BN to transform themselves for better understanding at the democratic process that they have enjoyed 55 years ago.

16. Many ruling governments in other countries also did badly because of the maturing of democratic process in the world including the red dot down there which have nothing to do with the so-called western countries' influences.

17. If it's not because BN has confident, trust and faith with YAB's charisma leadership and ideology, UMNO and BN shall never dare to manipulate the electrode of 2/3 majority via vote buying especially in developing Sarawak and Sabah.

18. Islam is the national official religion for Malaysia in the name of Yang Dipertuan Agong.

19. Islam is not the political religion for Malaysia.

20. I cannot support UMNO or PAS lawmakers whom used Islam as political power as political campaign to achieve absolute power at the expenses of other religions.

21. Until today, The Saudi Arabia King has not announce the haji quota for Mekah and Medina.

22. Whether UMNO and PAS, tolerate or don't tolerate the existence of other races, if without other races existence granted as citizen of Malaysia, Malaysia can never come this far.

23. Malaysia is a secular country since Merdeka because of Democracy process.

24. This is a fact that no political parties can change.

Selamat Hari Merdeka, YAB.
HBT456's Gravatar HBT456
August 31, 2012 at 7:27 am | Permalink

Good morning YAB,

15. The 13th General Election result will be a democratic yardstick for BN to transform themselves for better understanding at the democratic process that they have enjoyed 55 years ago.

16. Many ruling governments in other countries also did badly because of the maturing of democratic process in the world including the red dot down there which have nothing to do with the so-called western countries' influences.

17. If it's not because BN has confident, trust and faith with YAB's charisma leadership and ideology, UMNO and BN shall never dare to manipulate the electrode of 2/3 majority via vote buying especially in developing Sarawak and Sabah.

17. Islam is the national official religion for Malaysia in the name of Yang Dipertuan Agong.

18. Islam is not the political religion for Malaysia.

19. I cannot support UMNO or PAS lawmakers whom used Islam as political power as political campaign to achieve absolute power at the expenses of other religions.

20. Until today, The Saudi Arabia King has not announce the haji quota for Mekah and Medina.

21. Whether UMNO and PAS, tolerate or don't tolerate the existence of other races, if without other races existence granted as citizen of Malaysia, Malaysia can never come this far.

22. Malaysia is a secular country since Merdeka because of Democracy process.

23. This is a fact that no political parties can never change.

Selamat Hari Merdeka, YAB.
mubarakchan's Gravatar mubarakchan
August 31, 2012 at 12:40 am | Permalink

Tun

Honestly I did not notice the 'Freedom' banner at the closing ceremony of the London Olympics, I was asleep.

As it is generally known, only the Americans die for freedom but not the British or the French who died for money. It is odd that this word 'Freedom' which has caused the unwarranted deaths of millions of humankind in our world's history did politicise the London Olympic Games 2012 at its very conclusion.

In the same month of August 2012 as the Olympic Games 2012, we were horrified to see on TV the deaths of 44 South African miners who only demanded a rise in wages in a platinum mine. Where was their freedom ?

A debate on ' We have nothing to fear from the rise of China' which was held in Sydney, Australia. The proposed motion lost overwhelmingly. Only a very few Chinese faces dotted the audience. The audience was mainly middle-aged Australians. Is this the beginning of the containment of China through mischief in anticipation of a cooling of all round Western hegemonic activities in the Middle East and the rise of China in Africa ?

I do not see how the world's Western Hegemony could be disposed or replaced by a country which is one of the poorest in the World even in the next 100 years inhabited by people with different philosophies from the West !

A fairly good representation of Western Hegemony is to be found in the history of Germany after the 1st World War.

The newly born babes of independence after the 2nd World War even with charismatic and outstanding leaders paled into insignificance when compared with the loss of freedom by the Germans of Germany.

Despite the rise of Hitler from 1934 to the horrific end of the 1000 year Reich in May 1945, the history of the Germans thereafter was one of humiliation and shame imposed upon them by the victors from the communist Soviet Union and the United States and her Allies.

Germany was carved up into 2 parts – one part with the imposition of the United States, British and French armies with freedom and democracy and the other part, freedom from the capitalists and authoritarianism.

With the end of the Cold War in 1989, a phrase coined by Winston Churchill in a speech in the United States in 1948, West Germany and East Germany came together again with the removal of the hated Berlin Wall set up by the Communists.

However, the American military are still in Germany since May 1945.

Germany is alleged to have become free and democratic. The fortitude and the hard-working nature of the German people again propelled them to be one of the leading industrialized countries of the World.

Can Germany ever become independent and free ?

In the past, without the super-speed telemedia, global events moved slowly and generally, the world's citizens were more ignorant as a result.

The influence of Western Hegemony depends entirely on a country's political leadership whether to be entirely within its sphere like in Singapore or friendly to it because of the importance of US investments to provide jobs and revenue, like Malaysia or ignore it altogether like Cuba.

We should specially note that Malaysia without much ado, has risen to be politically and geographically important to the super super powers. The number of US and foreign VIPs who passed through KL in recent years, reminds one of your phrase ' Beware of Greeks bearing gifts '!

Hence, my contention that KL is now a leading centre for espionage overtaking Singapore and Bangkok.

It is important the Malaysian political leadership understands itself and the rest of the world in its own interests being sovereignty, national interests and self-esteem especially in a unique and sometimes complicated country like Malaysia.

Nasser, Pandit Nehru, Soekarno, Jinnah, Mao-tse Tung were national patriots without peer because they did not sell their grand-mothers down river so to speak.

To be a leader of a country of millions or hundreds of millions, such a leader would have a different mind-set. Somewhat unlike the ignorants or detractors who call you all sorts of names even though all were beneficiaries of your famous 22 year Administration or successive BN Governments this since Merdeka, 55 years ago.

In essence, Western Hegemony is somewhat like the law of the jungle (concrete), the fiercest and strongest prevails. With the history of the Middle East being written every day since 1947 when Britain gave up its Mandate for Palestine and with the end of the Cold War in 1989 and the resumption of the World into a more orderly place, the Western Hegemony focussed on their source of life for survival, the supply of oil. Middle Eastern pro-Western despots who were useful during the Cold War are now swept aside as 'Arab Spring' (cleaning) and replaced by democracy and freedom. They should just have retired and much blood would not have been shed.

Hence, the Malaysian copycats do not jive with their 'Malay Spring' calls.

Malaysia has had Malaysian Freedom which is our own since Merdeka in 1957.

Spinning and spin-doctors are very much a Western product in a developed country which is far ahead in its development of all things human.

Hence, it is better for a small country like Malaysia to keep its freedom and democracy with a political entity like the BN instead of having copy-cat Opposition political parties which have no ideological differences with it bar the money scandals which can easily be corrected because these were administrative.

Parties like the DAP, inspired by Singapore which is now proved to be quite ordinary and made major mistakes as well, and PAS with its discipline and humanism should join the BN to contribute to Malaysia's unique and extraordinary efforts in nation building.

Why split hairs for vainglory ?

It was the BN which obtained for us Malaysians the Merdeka, what more freedoms can the Opposition parties give us ? Hitler's Germany ?

Vote BN for delivery of election promises always !

sentinel5's Gravatar sentinel5

August 30, 2012 at 11:25 pm | Permalink

Tun,

Freedom also means that the palestinians should have their freedom to an independent states that are free from israelis occupation.

A freedom that the US and western countries denies to the palestinians.

It also means the freedom for third world countries bussinessmen to participate and manipulate the share markets and bussiness sectors in the developing countries just as they had done in the third world countries.

Let there be freedom and no laws that protect the local markets in the developing countries.

It also includes the freedom to sell our palm oil in the US and western countries without smear campaigns to our commodities.

Also the freedom to participate in the political process of the developing countries if possible by funding monies to political parties that are in our favours.

Freedom to built mosque anywhere in the US and in the western countries especially in Denmark and also the freedom to azan call for prayer everyday for muslims.

Lastly, freedom that are equals to all and not only to the western perspective of freedom.

Salam Tun.

ritz's Gravatar ritz

August 30, 2012 at 9:58 pm | Permalink

Yes it's true YAB Tun Dr Mahathir Mahathir,I am a money changer and our entire industry is going through hell now.we don't know what they want and our Central Bank is trying to implement according to their rules and regulations.My great grandfather started the business,now it seems going to come for an END. SO SAD.

rafideen's Gravatar rafideen

August 30, 2012 at 7:52 pm | Permalink

salam tun,

very impressive post.. it is the reality that they rule the world with Banks and stupid satanic laws as the people have to follow them indirectly.. However, the Heat is already begin on the collapsing of the system... hopefully most of us will recognize them.. the most important thing is we want the One eyed Guy to be killed in front of us.. and the people who follow them as well..

Botak's Gravatar Botak

August 30, 2012 at 5:44 pm | Permalink

Western World Leaders Preaches Democracy, Freedom

Do They Practice What They Preach

It,s More Of Putting The Words Democracy
Into Its Own People Mouth

Madame Eduard's Gravatar Madame Eduard

August 30, 2012 at 2:20 pm | Permalink

Freedom is paramount for participants at the olympic games, be they male, female, transgendered, muslims or otherwise, able or disabled, of any sexual persuasion, & whether they come as athletes, coaches, officials, or spectators. As long as everyone abides by the rules that will ensure civil participation & the highest level of sportsmanship.

May the best athlete wins.

In the real world of politics, freedom is yet another story waiting for a suitable director...

nadarajah's Gravatar nadarajah

August 30, 2012 at 12:54 pm | Permalink

We can never be 100% free due to the interdependences with each other in many ways. Just as we are all dependent on the sun for our survival. Weaker countries will oppressed by superpowers similar to citizen being manipulated by people in high office respectively in their own countries. Maybe this is the nature of our human realm.

nazrimalik's Gravatar nazrimalik

August 30, 2012 at 11:53 am | Permalink

Selamat Hari Kemerdekaan Tun, walaupun kemerdekaan yang dikecapi tidak sepenuhnya...

Botak's Gravatar Botak

August 30, 2012 at 11:22 am | Permalink

WHO IS THIS AMERICANS, BRITISH
WESTERN TO TELL THE WORLD WHAT TO DO

WE CAN BREAK THEIR CHAIN
IGNORE THEIR CALLS
IGNORE THEIR EXISTANCE

<http://chedet.cc/blog/?p=830>