'If you will join me in this improbable quest, if you feel destiny calling, and see as I see, a future of endless possibility stretching before us; if you sense, as I sense, that the time is now to shake off our slumber, and slough off our fear, and make good on the debt we owe past and future generations, then I'm ready to take up the cause, and march with you, and work with you. Together, starting today, let us finish the work that needs to be done, and usher in a new birth of freedom on this Earth.'

Barack Obama, declaring his candidacy for President of the United States, February 2007

This book celebrates the immense rhetorical power of Barack Obama, 44th President of the United States, to inspire, convince and unite; an ability that has helped him travel from 'the backyards of Des Moines' to the steps of the White House. Covering the whole of his career and featuring iconic as well as less well-known speeches, this collection proves Obama's great passion for language and reveals the hopes and dreams of the world's most powerful man.
