FOREWORD

THIS OFFICIAL YEAR BOOK, prepared and revised by the Department of Information, Malaysia, is the third in the series.

Acknowledgement is made of the co-operation of other Government Departments and of quasi-government and non-government organisations in the compilation of this reference book. The Department of Information would also like to thank the many anonymous authors who have contributed to the present volume.

Although the word "Malaysia" is printed on the cover, this 1963 edition covers events up to 31st December, 1962. No mention is, therefore, made of the activities of the States of Singapore, Sabah and Sarawak, which together with the eleven States of Malaya, formed Malaysia on 16th September, 1963.

However, to introduce readers to Malaysia, a Supplement has been included in the present volume immediately following this Foreword.

Although the general copyright of this volume is reserved to the Government of Malaysia, matter contained herein may be quoted freely with or without acknowledgement.
