Function 8 is a social enterprise initiative by a group of individuals who believe that there is a need to facilitate the sharing of social, political and economic experiences of those who had, or are eager to contribute to society through reflection and civic discussion.

The name "Function 8" represents our hope that, just like the F8 key in computers resets a computer to "safe" and basic mode for troubleshooting, we can also reflect over the basics of what makes societies strong, just and meaningful and the role of democratic processes in achieving those goals.

With seminars, talks, workshops, discussions and reflections, the company hopes to restart the process of critical thinking, rejuvenate the staleness of a society based on economic expediency and reclaim the human dignity and freedom which is the basis of our humanity.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am deeply indebted to Anthony Paul Lester QC, Francis T Seow, Roslina Baba, Patrick Seong Kwok Kei, George Lim and all my lawyers who took on my case knowing the complications and danger they would encounter and the courage and stamina required to see it through. They paid heavily for their conviction and dedication.

My deepest appreciation and thanks to Anthony Paul Lester QC for writing the Foreword to this revised edition, Yash Ghai for writing the Foreword, Ian Buruma, Peter Carey and Alvin Tan for their encouraging comments and Alfian Sa'at for going through the draft and giving insightful suggestions. I also thank my friend, who wishes to remain anonymous, for the interest shown in my first draft. Without their contributions, comments, suggestions and questions, this book would not have seen the light of day.

I am also indebted to my wonderful, courageous and loyal former staff – Roslina Baba for being the tower of strength to the team comprising Quek Lee Huah, Sushila Chitty, Ean Lee and the Late Mrs Lau nee Cho Gim Hong, our great cook who ensured that everyone was not only fed but fed well. Together they held the firm of Teo Lai & Lee till the very end. They freely gave of their time, often working past midnight and against all odds.

I am thankful for my good friends, Lai Maylene, Christopher Tremewan, David K Eiteman, Stanley Yeo, Shelley Wright, Lin Chew, my fellow detainees and their families and so many others whom I cannot name, for their unwavering friendship, assistance and support. Without their relentless campaigns and their singing at the blue gate, I would not have survived imprisonment.

I thank the Emergency Committee for Human Rights in Singapore (NZ), European Committee for Human Rights in Malaysia and Singapore (KEHMA-S), Law Association for Asia and the Western Pacific (LAWASIA), The International Commission of Jurists (ICJ), the International Federation of Human Rights (FIDH) and the Asian Human Rights Commission (AHRC), The Association of the Bar of the City of New York, International Bar Association (IBA), Lawyers' Committee for Human Rights (New York), American Bar Association (ABA), Amnesty International (AI), Asia-Watch, Suara Rakyat Malaysia (SUARAM), Aliran Kepercayaan (ALIRAN), International Young Christian Workers, HK and other human rights organisations which I may have omitted to name for championing my cause. I owe my freedom to the hard work.

Finally, without the strong and unshakeable faith of my mother, Lim Geok Lian, my siblings and their spouses, nieces and nephews, I would never have survived the ordeal. Not once did they doubt my innocence. They did everything possible to secure my release.
