In the Name of God the Compassionate, the Merciful

And who speaks fairer than he who call unto God and does righteousness and says, "surely I am of them that surrender to Islam?"

The Holy Quran: 41/33

Imam Khomeini's message to the Muslim people of Iraq as well as the Tribesmen and the Iraqi army on October 4, 1980 (Mehr 12, 1359) as well as to the Islamic states, particularly the littoral states of the Persian Gulf.

In the Name of God, the Merciful, the Compassionate

Greetings to the tyrannized and noble people of Iraq who have been and still are under the domination of the dictatorial Ba'thist regime; who have suffered various kinds of crimes and treasons of this infidel party (the Ba'thist party) and who have witnessed tyrannies and unbearable pressures exerted upon the well-known figures, the Islamic jurists and the Muslim combatants of your country. You and we have borne witness to what this corrupt party did with the late Ayatullah Hakim and his respectable children and how the tyrannized, respectable descendant of the Prophet joined his ancestors with much sorrow and unhappiness. You also witnessed the imprisonments, hardships and pressures his children suffered. We bore witness to what happened to the great struggler in the way of God, Seyyid Baqir Sadr and his tyrannized sister and how they achieved martyrdom under torture. You and we witnessed how brutally and savagely they treated the theological school of Najaf (in Iraq) and the holy shrines and tortured and imprisoned the theological students and Muslim clergy in groups. We were witness how these criminal tyrants insulted and disgraced the holy shrines of the Imams of Islam and how the executioners of the regime (the Ba'thist regime) poured into the courtyard of the shrine of Imam Ali, peace be upon him, beat the oppressed people and
